WHOLE COLLEGE BUILDING RIDES TRAIN

An entire prefabricated college field house, which will have laminated arches with the longest arch ever built of timber, is shipped on a Grand Trunk Western freight train. From tip to tip, each arch will measure 254 feet, giving a clear span of 190 feet, and will have a center height of 66 feet. The parts of the building fill four 65-foot gondola cars and five flat cars. On its way to Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., the big load was a tight fit in going through the St. Clair Tunnel at Port Huron, Mich. It came to within half an inch of the tunnel height limit and had to be eased through the passage very slowly.

and a devotional message by Mr. Donald Stoddard. Refreshments will be served after this session.

Rev. Douglas Meland of the Bethel Children's Home near Jackson, Ky., will speak at the evening hour beginning at 7:00 o'clock. He will show 3-D color slides of recent activities at the home.

All are cordially invited to attend Family Day, and enjoy the happy christian fellowship which will prevail.

U-M BOTANIST TELLS WHY LEAVES CHANGE COLOR IN FALL

How do the leaves of maple, aspen, birch and oak get the rich autumn hues that enhance the pageantry of fall? This is a question which has puzzled botanists for generations and has not as yet been entirely satisfactorily answered. However, in the main, we have the answer, says Felix G. Gustafson, professor of botany at the University of Michigan. He explains that in normal green leaves there are at least three pigment substances: green chlorophyll, yellow carotene, and xanthophyll, and some times also the yellow flavone Chlorophyll is easily destroyed by light. In the fall, with the brilliant sunshine of the Indian summer, it is broken down faster than it is being formed. Hence, the yellow color which was there all the time but was masked by the brighter green, shows up and we get the yellow of the poplar, for instance. The mottling effect is due to the uneven destruction of the chlorophyll. Professor Gustafson states that the reds and purples are due to a substance which the biochemist calls anthocyanin. The browns are caused by a partial breakdown of various substances in the leaves and the green is chlorophyll, which is active in the food manufacture.

The botanist admits that scientists are somewhat in the dark as to the reason these substances should be formed. We know that there must be an abundance of sugar present in the leaves.

Bright light is also necessary and a low temperature plays a part. It seems that as the fall advances there are cellular changes taking place in the leaf petiole which block the leaves off from the stem. The sugar that may be in the leaf can not get out and the sugar content increases, bringing about chemical changes which in the formation of anthocyanins. Not all parts of the country are equally rich in these beautiful colors in the fall as are the northern parts of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, and South Ontario. Regions where it gets cold suddenly are much more likely to have brilliant colors than those where the temperature decreases gradually. Low temperature with bright sunshine is favorable, as it produces conditions in the plant which allow these chemical changes to take place." Discussing the color differences in various species of trees, Professor Gustafson said that most of the conifers do not show any color changes, though red cedars may show some red and brown during the winter. On the other hand, trees like the swamp or red maple may become completely red. The staghorn sumac takes on a very brilliant red. Poplars and birches are usually yellow. Ash trees are usually greenish purple. Catalpa, mulberry, and many others shed their leaves while they are still green.

800 Michigan municipal officials and guests will hear guest speaker Dr. A. P. Haake, Mayor of Port Ridge, Illinois, and Economics consultant to General Motors, speak on "Keystones of Good Government" at the banquet on Thursday evening.

An outstanding feature of the program will be a General Session on Municipal Objectives in Intergovernmental Relations. The session will be, in effect, an official hearing of the State Legislative Committee municipal statements on fringe problems; relations between local units; protecting and strengthening home rules; municipal revenue problems; objectives of state-collected, locally-shared tax problems; federal-state-local interest in civil defense, airports and highways, and federal-local relations. One of the general sessions will be devoted to a discussion of the property tax—covering such side-lights as the growth of exemptions, the effect of using state equalization for tax purposes, and others. Meetings of the various functional groups of municipal officials will be held throughout the 3-day convention. Among topics for discussion are social security for municipal employees; excise taxes for cities; the Michigan Election code; civil defense and juvenile delinquency.

The Municipal League is an organization of cities and villages of the state with headquarters in Ann Arbor. It is devoted to the advancement of home rule and the improvement of municipal government in Michigan.

MSC GLEE CLUB BEGINS PRACTICE FOR BIG SEASON

The Michigan State College Glee Club has sought the seclusion of Camp Chief Noonday in the Yankee Springs recreation area for a week's intensive preparation for the fall concert season.

Last year, the club gave 42 concerts before 31,000 persons in Michigan and Wisconsin. A similarly ambitious schedule will be followed this year, including a joint concert with the University of Michigan's men's glee club in November.

Richmond said the summer camp provides a valuable week's time in which to outline the season's repertoire, to study fundamentals and stage technique and to get the feeling of singing together again.

Membership in the glee club is not limited to students majoring in music. The singers are students of the various schools on the Michigan State campus, including engineering, veterinary medicine, agriculture and education.

As in past years, the 1954-55 repertoire of the versatile group will include a wide range of selections, from classical and spiritual numbers to popular and novelty songs.

INSIDE THE CAPITOL

by Clair L. Taylor
Superintendent of Public Instruction

If any teen-ager or young adult asks the question—what should I do that will guarantee me a good home, a good car and money to travel—my answer would be stay in school, or in case he is a drop-out, go back to school.

I presume that some would say that would be my answer simply because I head the public school system of Michigan. Actually, the answer would be the same if he asked leaders in business industry, labor, agriculture or the heads of our armed services. For practically every job today the first question asked of the young person is: are you a high school graduate, and for practically every executive position the question is: are you a college graduate?

It has been true for the past several years that practically any youngster of high school age could find a job of one type or another; many of them have been pin setters, others have been car-hoppers at drive-ins and some have been gas station attendants. A study made by the United States Navy shows that the average earnings of the high school graduate are nearly double that of the average person who quits school.

Michigan, through its legislature and school organizations, has held an enviable place in relation to all states in the matter of its high school graduates. Nationwide, only 50 out of each 100 youngsters complete high school. In Michigan 75 out of 100 graduate. That is still not good enough. The 25 per cent, who represent the drop-outs are in reality short changing themselves. I do not hold youth entirely responsible. There should be encouragement on the part of parents, friends, officials and other responsible persons.

I urge every high school in Michigan to take what we like to call "summer round-ups". Find out where these boys and girls are who failed to appear in school this Fall; urge them to return.

It will be the greatest single factor in giving them a rich, wholesome life.

Any registered elector may upon change of residence within the Township, City or Village cause his registration to be transferred to his new address by sending the Clerk a signed request, stating his present address, the date he moved thereto, and the address from which he was last registered, or by applying in person for a transfer. The Clerk shall strike through the last address, ward and precinct number and record the new address, ward and precinct number on the original and duplicate registration cards, and shall place the original registration card in proper precinct file. Such transfers shall not be made within the (30) days next preceding any election or primary election, (unless such 30th day shall fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday in which event registration shall be accepted during the next full working day), provided that no such transfer shall permit any person to vote in any Township, City or Village in which he had not resided (30) days next preceding any election or primary election.

TRANSFER OF REGISTRATION ON ELECTION DAY

Sec. 20. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village shall have the right to make application to have his registration transferred on any election or primary election day by executing a request over his or her signature for such transfer and presenting the same to the election board in the precinct in which he is registered. Upon receiving such request the inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and if the signatures correspond then the inspector shall certify such fact upon said request and the applicant for transfer shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote. When the residence house numbers of any section of a Township, City or Village have been changed, such a change shall not affect the right of such voter to cast his vote. Corresponding change in the registration records may be made by the Clerk or upon election day upon proper showing.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Slugger Wins the "Home" Game

Slugger White, the home town's star hitter, dropped by the other day to talk baseball, and to "tell one" on himself.

Seems Slugger had been baby-sitting. "I was doing just fine," he said, "until it was time for a 'change.' I called Mom for advice. Still didn't get it right. Then Dad set me straight."

"Place the diaper like a baseball diamond with you at bat," he said. "Fold second base over home plate, and pin first and third base on home plate." That did it—with no errors!

From where I sit, Slugger's Dad had the idea. Often, like his Mom, a lot of us tend to give advice in our terms without considering the other fellow's way of doing things. Even in choosing your favorite beverage, it's best to think of your neighbor. If you like tea, and I prefer a temperate glass of beer, we should both "play the game" and try to understand each other's point of view.

Michigan State College that may provide farmers with a new mulch.
 Tests so far with a "paper pudding" made by stirring paper in water until it "soups up" show it will control weed growth if it is put on a quarter inch thick. The paper also seals the soil surface so that moisture can get in but will not dry out rapidly, report G. S. Rai and Charles L. Hamner, research horticulturists.
 They built the idea on work done for many years with strips of kraft paper between pineapple rows in Hawaii. But they wanted to find some cheaper—and easy to apply—and they hit upon the "paper pudding" idea.

It can be sprayed on and it works with many different crops. They have run tests with tomatoes, corn, beans, even evergreen trees.
 They suggest an old washing machine, or similar equipment, for mixing up the "soup" and that it can be sprayed on with a sprinkling can if folks want to try it on a small scale.
 In some of their tests, they mixed fertilizer with the pudding and found the plant nutrients soaked down as needed.
 Now they are testing the mixture in a very light spray to control wind blowing action on muck soils.

RAYON LABELS NEW GUIDES

Stop being disappointed in color changes when washing rayons; Look for labels when you buy; then listen to them. Acetates and rayons carry new labels which show how they are to be laundered, says Mary Ellen Carlson of the Michigan State College department of textiles and clothing. L22 is the name for the new specifications on labels of fabrics or ready-made apparel containing 50 per cent or more rayon or acetate. But L22 is voluntary, cautions Miss Carlson. You, the buyer, will have to look for and ask for the labels and they will be put on.
 When you buy a fabric you want to know if it will shrink, if it's colorfast, if it must be dry cleaned, or if it's weak when wet. L22 will answer these questions. These labels are traffic-light colors. Green means go-ahead washing in hot water—up to 160 degrees F. Amber cautions you; warm water—up to 105 degrees F. Stop when you see the red label, dry or wet clean only.
 L22 is based on performance rather than how the clothing is made. You are more interested in the colorfastness to sunlight in a fabric used for bathing suits than one used for pajamas.
 Success of L22 is up to you, warns Miss Carlson. Ask for it when you buy rayon or acetate garments and retailers will respond.

Horse Show
en. Sun; 4th, Ed Nethaway on Belvedere Boy.
With 40 entries in the Bending Race, 16 yrs., and over, George Lang won 1st place on Star; 2nd, Stanley Feldman on Brown Wing; 3rd, Dick Richards on Popcorn; 4th, Bud Yager on Miss Penny.

In the 3-Gaited, amateur, Loretta Bearss won 1st on Miss Beaverkettle; 2nd, Beverly Comber on Ace Trinkets; 3rd, Lyle Garnett with Genial Bourbon; 4th, Joy Jensen on 5 O'Clock Shadow;

There was quite an ambition for the Spotted and Painted Horses: 1st, Robert Walls on Slipper; 2nd, Percy Terry, Jr., on Dunder; 3rd, Stan Koska on Victory; 4th, Tom Clarke on Chips. Here, too, the judge explained the points to be considered in this particular class; not only the owners of the horses, but the spectators got a lesson in judging with every event.
The Parade Class is really a show class; 75% of the points given are for the horse's behavior, 25% for tack and dress: 1st, Sharon Horne of Dearborn on This Is It; 2nd, Dottie Ann Ellis on Rainbow's End; 3rd, Jack the Barber on The Aristocrat; 4th, Marie Stillwagon of Fenton on Royal Rhythm. It was a real pleasure to watch this event: the sumptuous tack and dress, and the high "goose-stepping" of the horses in their parade gait.

The music started to play nostalgic Western songs, and with Vance, the caller, the Dixie Saddle Club team of Square Dancers on Horseback gave the audience a real thrill. The horses performed smoothly, all of the couples working close together, and under loud applause they rode off the field to make way for the next event.
In Harness Class: 1st, Henry Jennings of Flint on Belvedere's Boy; 2nd, Lyle Garnett on McDonald Mercury; 3rd, Glenn Ellis on Bugle Ann; 4th, Ted Dodge on Jerry.
Forty-five contestants in Speed and Action, a timed event: 1st, Bud Yager on Miss Penny; 2nd, Dick Richards on Popcorn; 3rd, Warren Banfield on Snowball; 4th, Joyce Boyns on Star. The Trick Horse Class had 2 entries: 1st, Gary Woods on Clipper; 2nd, Bonnie Bowers on Cohoctah.
In Colt, English, 7-18 months, one entry: Judy Titus received the prize showing Coralee. Five-Gaited, open, 3 entries: 1st, Henry Jennings on Happy New Year; 2nd, David Bedell on Wheel of Fortune; 3rd, Beverly Comber on Brent Denmark. In Colts, Western, 7-18 months: 1st, Stony Nelson showing Ginger. Musical Barrels, adults: 1st, Bud Yager on Miss Penny; 2nd, David Ochs on Shorty; 3rd, Roy Oliver on Trigger; 4th, Barts Abrams on Red.
The Relay Race between the 4 clubs, Shawassee, Huron Valley, Michigan Rangers and Dixie Saddle is a run-off every year. This year the Michigan Rangers won the trophy.
The measure of success of such a show lies mostly in the atmosphere, the fun, and the satisfaction of all participants and spectators; in the hard work which everybody connected with it has spent on the enterprise.

and this goes for the men who were ringmasters and helpers; George Perry for English classes; Russell Blackett for Western events; for the announcer, Harry D. Waggener and whoever relieved him of his duties now and then; for the boys who set up the barrels and other "props"; for the women in the refreshment stand; for the children who rode their horses so expertly; the officers of the club who each had their duties mapped out for them, and for many, many members, or parents of members who would come in and do their bit. Statistics do mean something, too. There was an estimated crowd of 1500 people at the evening and day shows and more than 250 horses were on the grounds performing, or just riding in the Parade. The weather was excellent: a beautiful, cool, autumn day, just right for the horses to feel fine and do their best. Yes, there was dust, although the Clarkston firemen worked hard to keep the grounds wet. But even the dust, in a way, belongs to an honest-to-goodness horse show and nobody complained. To the contrary: everybody had a grand time!
