CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1954

Halloween Party Saturday Night

The annual Halloween fun will take place in Clarkston on Saturday night, Oct. 30th, and a fine program has been planned by the Student Council at the School and the Clarkston Rotary Club.

At 7:00 o'clock there will be the usual snake dance which always starts the evening with a lot of gusto. At 7:45 there will be bonfires at the High School for the older group and at the elementary school for the younger children.

Shortly after the fun around the big fire, cider and doughnuts will be served and by this time all will be ready for a hayride. On returning from the hayride everything will be ready in the High School Gym for a dance.

Frank Ronk is general chairman for the Rotary Club.

RELUCTANCE

There's faint little whispers outside in the trees,
As fairies of fall are at work in the leaves.
They're loosed from their moorings and light like a down,
With grace and with beauty, they float to the ground.

There's a sense of contentment,
A great sense of dread,
As nature prepares for the winter ahead.
The sun came up like an orange in the sky,
With all the appearance it had in July.

But, none can be fooled by its efforts so grand,
For all are aware of the summer's last stand.
The squirrels keep on storing the nut crop away;
Preparing the coming of months, cold and gray.

As day is overcoming the darkness of night,
Great flocks of wild honkers are busy in flight.
The perch are still biting down by the bar,
And man is concerned with the dope in his car.

Yet, I am reluctant and cling to the hope,
That man and all nature is playing a joke;
That the beauty of autumn will never grow dim,
And I'll not awake up from the dream that I'm in.

Localite Has Hurricane Scare

Hurricane Hazel has been talked of all over the continent and everyone has read of the destruction and loss of lives. A Clarkston resident, Phyllis Beardsley, had the misfortune to be stalled in its wake.

Phyllis left Detroit on the Friday afternoon with over a hundred others of the General Motors Girl's Club. They were headed for Montreal and should have arrived at that destination by seven o'clock on Saturday morning. However when they reached Toronto the rains had arrived ahead of them and Hurricane Hazel was sweeping across Lake Ontario. Bridges were swept out and rivers were swollen beyond flood stage in many places. The train of nineteen coaches was held in the Toronto depot. They made several attempts to start for Montreal but each time they were stopped. The girls slept in the cars marooned in two feet of water and on Saturday morning at seven they pulled out of Toronto for Montreal. They saw the floods all the way along; bridges out; homes marooned and by the time they reached Montreal the scheduled tour had to be re-arranged.

However instead of leaving Montreal on Sunday and arriving in Detroit on Monday word went out from General Motors that for safety's sake they had better not leave until Monday. By doing that the girls completed their tour.

By The Way . . .

Today the new Chevrolet makes its appearance at the Don Pringle Chevrolet. Tomorrow the new Pontiac will be on display at the Edw. D. Whipple Pontiac Sales and Service. Much interest is being shown in both cars as it is understood that both cars are all-new models—not just last year's car with a new hairdo. Cars are very necessary today, in fact so much so, that as the car industry prospers, so does the economy of the nation. . . . On Tuesday the election for Members of Congress, State and County Posts will be held. At this election Oakland County will also vote on whether they will pay for the new County Building, they voted for at the Primary Election. Vote—but consider how you vote. . . . To the writer three interesting sidelights on the candidates have been spotlighted. Each adv in this issue for Dondero has been brought to this office by a different person, a friend who did not care that advs had already been placed for him, but wanted to place one and pay for it. Then there is the candidate who sends a newspaper reams of copy on how good he is but spoils it all by saying "We can't afford an adv." Knowing they were going into a political race they could not afford to not recommend them so highly in our estimation. We would hate to have the kind of government they would give. Then there is the group of candidates who only place their advs in a paper of their political faith. This group kind of pays off the publisher rather than advertises for votes. As parties, both show a disregard for the smaller towns, like Clarkston, in group advertising. As individual candidates, this issue contains cards of many individuals who are interested in smaller villages. . . . The question of Bingo will come up at the election. To many Bingo is Gambling—and gambling is gambling—with all of its deeper effects on our economy. This question needs some very deep thought. . . . Father heard his small son pick up the phone and ask the operator for Paris. Just as he was falling in a faint he heard the rest: "Frank Paris on Larch Street".

Waste Paper Drive For All Children

Many, many persons in this area have been inquiring about a waste paper drive. So, at last, the Junior Class at the Clarkston High School is planning a drive for Saturday, November 13th. They are anxious to make this the biggest drive ever held here. The proceeds will go into their Senior Trip Fund.

As in the past, bundle your paper in sizes easy to handle and place them at the curb on the morning of the drive, or if you have a large amount of paper to donate, just call MAPLE 6-3831 and some of the Juniors will pick up the bundles on the previous Friday evening.

This is an ideal time to clean up the basement and the magazine racks. Get this done in the next two weeks and be ready to help the Juniors build up their treasury.

Trick or Treat For All Children

This year some of the gaily dressed trick or treat spooks who knock on your door on Halloween will be wearing an orange and black armband. In the center of the armband is the picture of a child drinking milk and under the picture are the letters UNICEF. This identifies the children who are sharing their trick or treat fun with all the world's children.

Those who are sharing are asking for pennies for the underprivileged children of the world instead of a candy for themselves. They will send their treats to UNICEF (United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund) to be used with the gifts from children throughout America to help save children in far off lands from disease and starvation.

This new kind of American Halloween was begun in one eastern community in 1950 and by 1953 children from 48 states, District of Columbia, Canada, Territory of Hawaii and the Canal Zone were participating and the total trick or treat collection amounted to $99,000. This money aids UNICEF in continuing its health-building program for children in some eighty underdeveloped countries; projects in countries willing to use their own resources and match UNICEF aid more than dollar for dollar, and where UNICEF helps them to help themselves establish their own health and nutrition facilities.

Clarkston children who want to participate this year will go to the Methodist Church at 5:30 on Saturday night to receive their armbands. They will then go back to their own neighborhoods for the collection. The cans of money will be turned in at the church at 6:45 P. M.

Gift Of Books Given To Library

This past week the Clarkston Library received two cartons of books from Representative William Broomfield of Royal Oak. Mr. Broomfield happened to be a speaker at the meeting of the Community Women's Club last week and heard the library discussed. He was interested and asked a few questions. He realized that much had to be done to get the project working, so he immediately went to the AAUW Book Sale in Birmingham and purchased the books. The donation is greatly appreciated.

Newly elected officers of the Clarkston Baptist Church were installed at last Sunday morning service.

All the deacons, trustees, all appointed officers, officers of the Young People's Society and the Sunday School teachers sat together. Herbert Lissner gave the charge to the Reverend George Halk by reading II Timothy, chapter 3, verses 1 and 2. Reverend Halk gave the charge to the congregation using II Timothy, chapter 2, verses 19 to 26, challenging the new officers to dedicate their lives to Christ and His work; striving to know God's word and teaching it to their congregation and witnessing to those who do not know God's word.

MANY PHEASANTS, FEW PARTRIDGE—U-M NATURALIST

High with pheasants and low with partridge—that's Michigan's hunting forecast, according to a University of Michigan faculty member, Warren W. Chase, chairman of the U-M wildlife management department.

The state's pheasant population will be high this year, he says, with Southern Michigan higher than in most years. "It is known that the bird will be abundant in the Saginaw Valley area", he continues, "and there also should be excellent hunting in South-eastern Michigan, particularly between Ann Arbor and Toledo."

The professor bases his claims on the fact that the state has had two rather easy winters, plus a good spring which enabled pheasants to hatch and rear their young in fairly dry places.

He points out that the best hunting places for the birds are in cornfields and rocky, sandy and abandoned areas of land, "grown waist high with herbaceous weeds and grasses."

"Southern Michigan is fortunate that the pheasant crop is high this year", Professor Chase says, "for the grouse hunting will be poorer than usual". He adds, though, that although grouse numbers will be low in the northern forest areas, it will be high in scattered swampy woodlot spots such as those abundant in Central and Southern Michigan.

Usually the northern area has the highest partridge population, the professor explains, but at times of low population cycles, margin areas such as the mentioned swamplands will have the highest number.

"Michigan is very fortunate in that its Department of Conservation keeps open season on grouse, even when not abundant," he states, "as this allows hunters to continue the sport even during the poor years". The decline in population is due to the partridge's ten-year cycle, he continues, adding that it has been found that the open season does not have an appreciable effect on population fluctuations.

Professor Chase explains that partridge are forest birds which live only in shrubby or wooded areas and are not found in corn or grain producing areas as are the pheasants.

Both are white meat birds, with a slight wild flavor, Professor

Chase points out, but there is not a strong gamey taste. The meat is like that of a spring chicken, he adds; and, thus, the birds can be baked or fried, depending on choice.

MSC MAN WRITES BOOK ON CHERRY

One of the nation's leading authorities on cherry growing and processing is the author of a new book on that subject.

He is Dr. Roy E. Marshall, formerly a Michigan State horticulturist and now assistant director of the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station. The book is published as the fifth volume in a series on economic crops by Interscience Publishers, Inc., of New York and Interscience Publishers, Ltd., of London.

Dr. Marshall's book is a digest of data and literature on the cherry industry of North America. He emphasizes the importance of the cherry and how the fruit must be handled and processed to maintain quality. The author has drawn upon his longtime experience with the cherry industry in the Great Lakes States.

FRED G. BEARDSLEY
 Candidate for Re-Election
 State Representative
 District No. 1

WHY VOTE FOR THIS MAN?

1. The tax experts of Michigan entrusted to him four Bills to amend the tax laws so the tax machinery would work. He introduced and procured the passage of these four Bills. No longer must our Tax Allocation Board work in the dark. These Bills did not increase your taxes but they really streamlined the taxing machinery.

2. The census regulation giving credit for college students to the cities where the colleges were located cost Oakland County citizens much money. A resolution was offered to the Legislature, passed and forwarded to Washington protesting this regulation as being unfair to non-college localities.

3. Fred Beardsley offered the resolution and secured its passage.

4. Why would the important tax bills be entrusted to him? Well, 13 years as a Supervisor made him familiar with the taxing machinery. He knew what was wrong and how to correct it.

5. Why did he offer the resolution on the census? The answer to that is that he is alert to the interest of his constituents.

6. He procured the passage of the bill which enabled the state to stop leak on the used car tax sales. This picked up 3 million sales tax which previously escaped.

7. Why was it possible for him to procure the passage of these and the other pieces of Legislation?

8. The answer is that he enjoys the respect and confidence of every member of the Legislature.

CLARKSTON vs NORTHVILLE

On Friday, October 22, Clarkston played Northville on Clarkston's Field. The weather conditions were ideal for the game. The Wolves won the toss and elected to receive. Pat Thompson took the kick and ran the ball back to Northville's 45 yard line. After a running play and an attempted pass, the ball was given to Thompson who ran the rest of the way for a touchdown. Roger Johnson's try for the extra point was good. Clarkston lead 7 to 0 early in the first quarter.

Again in the first quarter Clarkston connected. Yahnke tossed a short pass to Carmean who went thirty yards for the second touchdown. Johnson's try for the extra point failed and at the end of the first quarter the score stood 12 to 0 in favor of the Wolves.

In the second quarter Northville scored on a fine pass play. The extra point was blocked by Gary Robertson. To bring the first half to a close Pat Thompson ran 40 yards for a third touchdown. The try for the extra point again failed. At the end of the first half the score was 19 to 6 in favor of Clarkston.

The second half was mostly a defensive half for the Wolves. This fine defensive play spearheaded by Jack Brooks, Clyde Kizer, Dick Tebo and Gary Nelson. Northville did manage to score once more on a very good running play. They also succeeded in getting their extra point.

As the game was drawing to a close it was evident that Clarkston was weakening fast under the attack of the larger Northville team. Northville was threatening to score again as the game ended. The final score was 19 to 13, Clarkston coming out on top, Clarkston's running attack was somewhat limited because of six fumbles the team made. All in all both teams played their best and we were very glad to see Clarkston win.

THE TEACHER ASSOCIATION

The regular business meeting of the Future Teachers' Club was held on Oct. 13. The secretary's and treasurer's report was read and approved. The meeting was then turned over to our guest speaker Miss Aber who talked on sororities. She told us the different things that sororities do and why we always try to uphold the reputation of the one to which you belong. She ended her talk by showing pictures of her sorority and of different parties they had held.

It was motioned that the meeting be adjourned. The motion was carried.

SENIOR CLASS MEETING

In room 11 on October 19, the Senior Class meeting was called to order by the president Vern Carmean.

Mr. Hintz reminded the Seniors to bring their proofs and half of their money for pictures. A motion was made and carried that the Seniors would decorate Clarkston for Halloween if the other classes would do the same thing. A prize will be given by the Rotary Club for the best window.

The meeting was adjourned.

EGGS DOWN, BUY AT WILL EAT YOUR FILL

Scrambled, fried, soft cooked or whipped into a fluffy angel food cake, eggs satisfy our appetites, our bodies, and our pocket-books.

The United States Department of Agriculture gives you a look at egg prices now and in the coming months. To take advantage of the price of eggs, which is at the lowest level in years, here are some tips on how to get the most for your money. In early fall small eggs, weighing about 18 ounces to the dozen, are usually abundant and very low in price. Later the medium size eggs will be cheapest per pound, and by winter the large eggs may be the best value.

When at your grocers, be sure you read the labels on the eggs cartons. They will usually tell you the quality, the size, the date of grading and of course, the price. The letters, "AA", "A", "B" or "C", "Large", "Medium", and "Small" indicate the size. The size is determined by the weight of a dozen eggs. For example, Grade A Extra Large eggs must weigh at least 27 ounces per dozen.

You may see a date like this, "Feb. 17", or like this, "48" on the carton of eggs. This tells the date the eggs were graded. Here the "48" represents the day of the year.

With eggs at rock bottom lows, you are buying a lot of health when you use them in your baking and in omelets and salads or just for snacks. The Poultry and Egg National Board points out they are full of Vitamin A, calcium, iron, and phosphorus.

THE LIFE STORY OF BRITAIN'S OTHER QUEEN

In this intimate portrait of our royal visitor, the beloved Queen Mother Elizabeth, you'll be with her during the carefree days of her marriage to King George VI. the dark days of World War II. . . the recent Coronation of her daughter. Begin if Sunday in The American Weekly, with SUNDAY'S CHICAGO AMERICAN.

How God's infinite love for man redeems men from sin by destroying sin and revealing man's divine, sinless nature, will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Everlasting Punishment".

Among the passages from the Bible will be read the story of the Prodigal Son, including his forgiveness and his welcome back to his father's house, as told in Chapter 15 of Luke's gospel.

The following selection on the overcoming of sin will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (327:9-13):

"Evil is sometimes a man's highest conception of right, until his grasp on good grows stronger. Then he loses pleasure in wickedness, and it becomes his torment. The way to escape the misery of sin is to cease sinning. There is no other way." The Golden Text is from Psalms (130:7): "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption."

SOO LOCKS MIGHT HAVE BEEN BUILT EARLIER, SAYS U-M

When the centennial of the opening of the Soo Locks is celebrated next year, few persons will know that if it hadn't been for the U. S. Army these valuable assets to Great Lakes' shipping might be more than 100 years old.

According to information in the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan, 16 years before the 1855 opening of the locks a contractor began excavating for a state-built canal. But the commandant of the U. S. troops at Fort Brady forced him to abandon the work because he was likely to damage the race which carried water to a government sawmill.

The Mechanical Man

Yes, it's a wonderful time to be alive. It's the machine age. But neighbors, we can't carry it too far. We cannot be represented at Lansing by a Mechanical Man. We need a human being who can think and will vote and fight for the interests of all the people.

Friends of Fred Elias, Democratic Candidate for State Senator, November 2nd, would like to have you compare him with the other candidate for this office. They are certain no clear-thinking man or woman after checking the records of these two men could vote for anyone else but Elias.

The record speaks for itself.

After several years at Lansing the other man in this race seems to know less about the needs of his people than before he went down there. Someday, check the voting record. It is a shame and a disgrace to the great State of Michigan and harmful to Oakland County.

It's time for a new broom to sweep clean.

It's time for a change.

It's important we vote for Fred Elias, Democrat

For the floor of the crib place planks a half inch apart and on concrete blocks. This helps air movement.

It's not too early to start that holiday baking of fruit cakes and cookies. And it is a good way to take advantage of the abundance and consequent low prices of eggs, fats and oils, dried prunes and dates and nuts.

How God's infinite love for man redeems men from sin by destroying sin and revealing man's divine, sinless nature, will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Everlasting Punishment".
Among the passages from the Bible will be read the story of the Prodigal Son, including his forgiveness and his welcome back to his father's house, as told in Chapter 15 of Luke's gospel.

The following selection on the overcoming of sin will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (327:9-13):
"Evil is sometimes a man's highest conception of right, until his grasp on good grows stronger. Then he loses pleasure in wickedness, and it becomes his torment. The way to escape the misery of sin is to cease sinning. There is no other way."
The Golden Text is from Psalms (130:7): "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption."

"SELF-HELP"

Increasing sales and expanding its market have been foremost objectives of this cooperative during the past three years. Through the mediums of advertising and publicity "Milk as a Beverage" has been promoted as never before in the greater Detroit market with gratifying results.

Creating new markets and strengthening old ones is a "self-help" project instituted by the members of this organization as a cooperative means of protecting farm income by the same methods as are used in successful private industry. It is a demonstration of forward thinking on the part of farm cooperative membership.

Above is pictured a giant spectacular electrical display at one of Detroit's heaviest traffic intersections (Woodward Avenue and Seven Mile Road). Greater Detroit is "milk conscious" as a result of the promotional program carried on by the producers' organization.

Dairy farmers are able to carry out such a project by means of a strong cooperative.

ST LAWRENCE SEAWAY HAS BECOME REALITY

The St. Lawrence Seaway has become a reality. It has become so largely through the efforts of Congressman George A. Dondero, whose leadership in the 83rd Congress served to break the deadlock which had delayed the Seaway Project for more than 30 years.

Such is the opinion among many in Congress and among those who have fought in behalf of the Seaway Project through the years. It is conceded that by authorization of the Seaway, Congressman Dondero succeeded in removing the largest obstacle to construction of the project from Duluth, Minnesota to the Seven Seas of the world.

The United States and Canada agreed that the depth of the Seaway should be 27 feet. This will be deep enough to accommodate most of the ocean shipping which may be expected to use the Seaway and penetrate to the heart of the American continent.

"It has been argued in some quarters", said Congressman Dondero, "that the Seaway Project will serve no purpose in making Detroit and other Michigan ports actual seaports, owing

WOOD INSECTS GIVE TROUBLE, CALL EXPERT

Those little mounds of flour-like sawdust on your floor and the small holes in the wood are from powder post beetles.

As for termites—their work is harder to find. There's no sign until part of your wall or floor collapses.

That's the word on these damaging insects from Ray Janes, extension entomologist at M.S.C. He says knowing which bug is giving you trouble makes a big difference in how you get control of the pests.

One of the best ways to check if you suspect termites, suggests Janes, is to puncture the wood with an ice pick. If the ice pick penetrates the wood easily, you are in trouble.

Whether you have termites or powder post beetles, advises Janes, call an exterminator before damage is beyond repair.

SUPPORT ON WOOL OUTLINED

Michigan sheepmen will get a total of about 62 cents a pound for wool shorn after January 1. That's counting the government payment.

Arthur Mauch, a Michigan State agricultural economist, explains the payment operation this way: Sheepmen will receive a direct payment from the government after they sell wool on the open market.

The government payment will be approximately the difference between the U. S. average price and the 62 cents a pound.

Mauch points out that the 62 cents is 106 per cent of the Sept. 15 wool parity price. The subsidy to each sheep raiser, for the 1955 clip probably will not be known until 1956, he indicates.

And the total amount of money available for the payments is limited to 70 per cent of the tariff receipts on wool imports. Mauch advises farmers to keep accurate receipts of the wool they sell in order to get the government payment.

That's the word on these damaging insects from Ray Janes, extension entomologist at M.S.C. He says knowing which bug is giving you trouble makes a big difference in how you get control of the pests.

One of the best ways to check if you suspect termites, suggests Janes, is to puncture the wood with an ice pick. If the ice pick penetrates the wood easily, you are in trouble.

Whether you have termites or powder post beetles, advises Janes, call an exterminator before damage is beyond repair.

SUPPORT ON WOOL OUTLINED

Michigan sheepmen will get a total of about 62 cents a pound for wool shorn after January 1. That's counting the government payment.

Arthur Mauch, a Michigan State agricultural economist, explains the payment operation this way: Sheepmen will receive a direct payment from the government after they sell wool on the open market.

The government payment will be approximately the difference between the U. S. average price and the 62 cents a pound.

Mauch points out that the 62 cents is 106 per cent of the Sept. 15 wool parity price. The subsidy to each sheep raiser, for the 1955 clip probably will not be known until 1956, he indicates.

And the total amount of money available for the payments is limited to 70 per cent of the tariff receipts on wool imports. Mauch advises farmers to keep accurate receipts of the wool they sell in order to get the government payment.
