Christmas Gifts At Quarterly Meeting

When the Woman's Society of Christian Service holds its quarterly meeting at the Methodist Church this afternoon the Mary Circle will be ready to serve you at their miscellaneous Christmas bazaar. They will have many articles for sale—articles that will be especially good for Christmas giving.

The Martha Circle will serve luncheon at 12:30 and the W. S. C. S., business meeting and program will take place in the afternoon. All members and any in the community who are interested are asked to attend and hear Mrs. Paul Havens of Pontiac tell about the Holy Land. Her talk will be highlighted with slides.

The executive board of the W. S. C. S., will meet this morning at 11 o'clock at the church.

Clarkston Locals

The Senior Class of the Clarkston High School will present "Maybe You're Wrong" by Anita Waltrip Crust, in the High School Auditorium on Friday and Saturday evenings, Dec. 10 and 11.

Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Barrows were Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Cunningham and son, Walter, of Kittanning, Pa.

Robert L. Hunt, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Hunt of 7280 Petty Lake Road, Clarkston, is scheduled to arrive at Norfolk, Va., on Dec. 5th, aboard the heavy cruiser USS Macon. The Macon is completing a three month tour of duty with the U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean Sea. Since leaving Norfolk in early September, the Cruiser Division 6 flagship has visited Gibraltar, Lisbon, Algiers, Genoa, Toulon, Athens and Istanbul.

Why?

(Dedicated to Shelley)
Oh, why did the soul of the infant, so pure,
Find life on the earth was so hard to endure;
That, when it awoke in the gray of earth's light,
Its soul, to the heavens, ascended in flight?

This question's been asked thru the years without end
By mothers who seek the advice of a friend;
And few have been able to make very clear
The reason for babies departing from here.

Perhaps, up in heaven a great angel band
Was lacking one voice whenever it sang.
It had need for a voice so cradled in love,
That the legions of heaven had called her above.

Then perhaps, she just came for such a short span
To fill out the dictates of life and its plan.
She might have had need for these minutes, so few,
Before she progressed in a realm that was new.

Or perhaps, she must teach we people of earth,
That God keeps control of all objects of worth;
That it little matters the price that we pay,
He gives of life freely or takes it away.

Whatever the reason, we know it is best,
For souls that have risen will ever be blessed;
And babies are angels without trace of sin
Where life for us ends, is where theirs will begin.

Pioneers Plan Christmas Party

The Clarkston Pioneers will have their Christmas party at the Community Center on Thursday, December 16. There will be a luncheon at noon and an exchange of gifts.

The executive board and the service committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Joseph Hubbard on Tuesday, December 7, to complete the plans for the December meeting.

Christmas Concert In Pontiac

Christmas music sung by the MacDowell Male Chorus will highlight a concert to be given by Pontiac Symphony Orchestra on Tuesday, Dec. 7, at 8:30 in Lincoln Junior High School Auditorium.

This chorus of 50 voices, directed by George Putnam, is recognized as one of the finest in Michigan. They will sing: "Three Songs for Christmas" by Clare Grundman; "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" by Bach; "Hallelujah, Amen" by Handel; "White Christmas" by Irving Berlin.

The orchestra, which played to an enthusiastic standing-room-only audience at the opening concert on Oct. 27, is composed of both amateur and professional musicians drawn from all over the county and augmented by members of Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Directed by Francesco Di Biasi of Detroit, the orchestra is in its third successful season. For the Dec. 7th concert the orchestra will play: "Overture to Hansel and Gretel" by Humperdinck; "Overture to Tannhauser" by Wagner; "Symphony No. 8" by Beethoven; "Adagio for Strings (1938)" by Samuel Barber.

Carol Rosenberger, pianist, will be soloist at the Feb. 16 concert and Marilyn Garrard, harpist, will appear with the orchestra on April 20.

Several sections of the orchestra are still open for auditions. These include violin, viola, cello, double bass, trombone, oboe, bassoon, trumpet and percussion. Musicians may contact Mrs. Paul Gorman, 144 N. Genesee, Pontiac, to arrange for an audition. Thomas S. Herman of Clarkston, cellist, is a member of the orchestra.

The annual Christmas Party of Joseph C. Bird Chapter, O. E. S., will be held in the Clarkston Masonic Temple on Monday evening, Dec. 6th, following the regular meeting. There will be refreshments and a fifty cent gift exchange.

Seymour Lake News

Plans are being made by the Crusaders' Sunday School Class to hold a special service on Sunday morning, December 5 for the purpose of dedicating the church organ. The presence of any interested person is requested.

The Belle Sherwood Circle will have a pancake supper in the Church House on Tuesday evening, December 7th. Serving will start at 6:00 P. M.

Among the Thanksgiving parties in this vicinity were: for dinner at Frgl Beardsley's were Ellen and Robert Beardsley, the George Scott family and Mr. and Mrs. James Pearson of Cleveland; at the home of Mrs. Iva Miller and George Miller were Mr. and Mrs. James Russell Maybee and daughter, Charlotte Ann, of Flint and the Stanley White family of Clarkston; the Milton Millers attended the Baldwin family reunion in the Hall at Thomas and the Lee McIntyres were at the Harold Feldmann home north of Oxford.

Fred Burr and son, Harry, have returned from Glennie where they spent a few days hunting.

Mrs. John Webster will be hostess to the Sally Bailey Circle at her home on the corner of Sashabaw and Oak Hill Roads on Wednesday, December 8. A pot-luck luncheon will be served at noon.

Fred Burr was in Pontiac on Monday evening to visit his son, Harry, who is in the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. Harry was injured while in the north on a hunting trip. Strange, but true, he had a package of ice cream on his knee and in trying to cut the extra hard ice cream he drove the knife through the cream and into his leg.

Newlyweds Reside In Clarkston

The Clarkston Baptist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday evening when Marian Ruth Teggerdine became the bride of Robert I. Cooley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin J. Teggerdine of 6233 Waldon Road and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt S. Cooley of 6031 Middle Lake Road.

The Reverend George Halk read the rites before 200 guests. For the ceremony the bride was gowned in white slipper satin featuring a portrait neckline of French lace and a bouffant skirt which fell into a full train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid surrounded by white roses.

Edith Teggerdine was her sister's maid of honor. She wore pink net over satin and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Marjorie Lumm of Clarkston, as bridesmaid, was in green net over satin and her colonial bouquet was of yellow roses and white carnations.

The junior bridesmaid was Janice Powers of Clarkston. Her gown was of pink net over satin and her colonial bouquet was of pink roses and white carnations.

The little flower girl was Barbara Jean Taylor of Clarkston. She was gowned in white net over satin. She carried a basket of pink rose petals which she scattered in the path of the bride.

Thomas Herman of Clarkston, assisted Mr. Cooley as best man and seating the guests were Philip White of Mt. Morris, Claude Campbell of Pontiac and Wendell Bishop of Clarkston.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue faille, two-piece dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses and white carnations. A rosewood brocade dress with black velvet accessories was worn by the bridegroom's mother. Her corsage was of pink roses and white carnations.

Safe Driving Day Wednesday, Dec. 15

Police Chief Frank Green urged the cooperation of every Clarkston citizen to prevent traffic injury in the weeks ahead because we are on the threshold of the most dangerous weeks of the year. For this reason on December 15—Safe Driving Day—has been set aside as a Demonstration Day. All motorists are urged to practice up on their safe driving so that they can make a special effort to drive as well as they know how on Dec. 15, 1954. Safe Driving Day should then serve as a launching date to set an example of special efforts to drive especially carefully during the last two weeks in December—the most dangerous in the year.

In an important message to Clarkston citizens Chief Green asserted that he was sure most citizens would cooperate cheerfully. "Our police officers and the court will deal with those who don't," he said. "In fact, I have instructed all members of our department to enforce traffic laws even more vigilantly than in the past. But, it will be highly gratifying to them and to me if, by virtue of better traffic law observance, they find they have fewer tickets to issue and fewer accidents to investigate."

He explained why officers of the Department issue traffic tickets—"You may have heard that policemen enjoy handing out tickets to traffic law violators," he said. "This is not the case. Nor is it true that a police officer is required to issue a certain number of tickets every day he is on duty. Far from it. There are no ticket 'quotas' in the Department."

"The simple truth is that every officer of our Department has taken an oath to enforce all laws and to protect life and property to the best of his ability," he continued. "The most effective way he can protect your life and property is by enforcing traffic laws."

Four scholarship awards of $1320 each are being offered for the 1955-56 school year by Cranbrook Academy of Art, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.

Applications will be received until March 1, 1955, from painters, weavers, architects, ceramists, metallsmiths, sculptors and designers. Awarded according to artistic merit, the scholarships cover tuition, room, and board for the two-semester school year.

The scholarships were established in memory of Eliel Saarinen, first president of the Academy; James S. Booth, trustee; and George G. and Ellen S. Booth, founders of the six institutions forming the Cranbrook community 20 miles north of Detroit.

Brighten Clarkston For Christmas

What is more beautiful than to see a little town bright and shining at Christmastime. This is the aim of the Clarkston Rotary Club. The committee in charge of decorations in the downtown section is asking, every home, if possible, to have some out-door lights. Perhaps you could have a lighted wreath or some other lighted decoration on your front door, or maybe you could light up some of those evergreen trees or shrubs that are in your front yard. The idea is to make Clarkston alive with lights this Christmas season.

The Rotarians are in hopes that every home, especially on Main Street will make an effort to brighten the street with out-door lights.

Make Clarkston shine for Christmas.

Brownie News

Troop 200, led by Mrs. Whitmer, enjoyed an hour's tour at the General Motors Truck and Coach Division Open House celebrating the 50th million automobile on Tuesday of last week. We were conducted through the experimental section electrical laboratory by Mr. Whitmer. We also climbed aboard a scenic cruiser, amphibious duck and other vehicles. After the tour we were served cider and doughnuts in the engineering cafeteria.

Troop 194 met at the home of the leader, Mrs. Bruce Embrey, assisted by Mrs. Roger Galligan. We said our Pledge and Promise. Flagbearers were Kristine Hayward and Marilyn Gregory. We had a short business meeting and worked on table decorations. The treat was served by Susan Hampshire. We all wrote a short get-well note to one of our assistant leaders, Mrs. Andrew Sanford.

Rosalie Schlundt, Scribe

Troop 194 met on Tuesday afternoon. We said our Pledge and Promise. The flagbearers were Rosalie Schlundt and Carrie Lynn Sanford. We had a short business meeting and then had election of officers. Our new president is Karen King; secretary, Beverly Galligan; treasurer, Carrie Lynn Sanford. We discussed our Christmas project and for the rest of the meeting we worked on modeling clay. We will start our Christmas project next week.

Books Accepted For New Library

The committee to catalogue the books for the new library is about to start to work. They are anxious to get this great task started and have the books ready for the shelves when the carpentry and decorating work are completed. It is a big job. Many books have been donated and there is room for many more. If you would like to make a donation, either deliver the books to Mrs. Phillip Smith, 6630 Cranberry Lake Road, or call her at Maple 5-5978 and she will see that they are picked up.

Obituary

Herbert Charles Schultz

Funeral service for Herbert Charles Schultz was held on Friday of last week. Mr. Schultz, 75, died suddenly in Culver City, California, on Saturday, November 20th. His stepdaughter, Mrs. William Goodman brought the body, by plane, to Michigan and to the Sharpe Funeral Home in Clarkston. The service was held at The Lady of the Lakes Church on Friday morning at ten o'clock with the Reverend F. Delaney officiating. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery in Detroit.

Mr. Schultz was born in Ontario, Canada, on April 20, 1879. Survivors include one sister, Mrs. Edna McNamara of Detroit; one brother, George Schultz; 3 stepdaughters; two nieces and two nephews.

Rotary Anns Make Christmas Plans

On Tuesday evening of last week the Clarkston Rotary Anns met at the home of Mrs. Robert L. Jones. Mrs. Earl Terry assisted the hostess.

The president, Mrs. Charles Rockwell, conducted the business meeting when it was decided to have the annual Christmas party at Paul's Good Food on Tuesday evening, Dec. 14th, with dinner at 6:30. Gifts for the crippled children will be brought to this party. The club also donated $25 to the Oakland County Crippled Children to help with their Christmas party.

Prospective Bride Honored Saturday

On Saturday Candy Becker and Judy O'Dell entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the Becker home on Allen Road, honoring Ann Barrows whose marriage will be an event of December 18.

The group enjoyed playing appropriate games and presenting Ann with many lovely gifts. A buffet supper was served from an attractively arranged table. To add to the lovely color scheme a bouquet of chrysanthemums graced the end of the table. Small bouquets were used as favors.

Guests included Ann's mother, Mrs. W. S. Barrows, Mrs. W. B. Cunningham of Kittanning, Pa., Jeanette Cowdry, Ilene Jones, Cheri Littleton, Mary Dean, Martha Masters, Kathleen Stauffer and Nancy Mantyla.

Rotary Club News

As is the custom with all new members, Keith Hallman was called upon at the meeting of the Clarkston Rotary Club on Monday evening, to give a short story of his life. These histories are interesting and tend to get the members better acquainted.

Fred Warrick announced the committees for decorating the streets, erecting and decorating the Christmas tree and getting Rotary's share of Christmas decorations in place. He also urged everyone to decorate and light up their homes for this glad day.

"Dine Out" Friday Evening

A good place to dine on Friday evening, Dec. 3rd, will be the Clarkston Methodist Church. The women of the church are proud of the new, modern kitchen that has been installed at the church and so that everyone will see it they have planned a smorgasbord dinner at the church on Friday evening from 5 until 7 o'clock.

The women are going "all out" to make this a meal you won't want to miss. A great variety of tempting foods will be prepared and you will be able to help yourself to as much as you want of your favorite dish.

There is no set charge for the dinner, but a free-will offering will be taken, with the proceeds to be used to help defray the expense of the new kitchen.

Rotary Club News

Plan to attend with your family and friends.

Clarkston Locals

Mrs. Amanda Alsbach had the misfortune to fall on Thanksgiving Day, spraining her ankle and crushing her heel. She is able to get about in a wheel chair.

The birthdays of the following were recognized by the Methodist Sunday School last Sunday morning: Albert Weatherall, 11, Richard Sheldon, 10, Susan Johnson, 13, Marlene Smith, 9, Debbie Peterson, 9, Dennis Galligan, 11.

Cpl Lee Johnson arrived home from Arlington, Va., on Sunday and surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson and his sister, Susan. Lee had to leave here Sunday in order to report for duty on Monday.

Clarkston Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Willard McGreggor of Ellis Road entertained Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGreggor of Cleveland, Ohio, Miss Esther McGreggor of Omaha, Nebraska and Miss Marjorie Lingenfelter of Ann Arbor over the Thanksgiving weekend.

Among those who contributed to the success of the Elementary School Fair were Walter's Department Store, Snader Ceramics, Clarkston Motor Sales, Fred P. Warrick, Hekman Company and the Beechnut Company. Appreciation is extended to all of the generous contributors from the P. T. A., the elementary school and the committee in charge of the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cheeseman and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cheeseman, have returned from a trip to Washington, D. C., and the North Carolina Coastal Recreation Strip. They spent several days in the Great Smokies and while in Asheville, N. C., they entertained their daughter, Mrs. Helen Cheeseman Corless of Charleston, S. Carolina, and her daughter, Sylvia, from Mary Hill College. After a two-day visit with her folks, Helen went on to the college to stay with Sylvia for several days.

Christmas gifts to be sent to the TB Sanatorium will be packed on December 14th at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Giddings.

TOASTMASTER CLUB NOW IN C. A. I. CENTER

New Club forming in Waterford area

Because of the growth in the Waterford, Clarkston and Drayton Plains area, the former Pontiac Chieftain Toastmasters have voted to move to the Community Activities Center on Williams Lake Road, and to change their name to the Waterford Chieftain Toastmasters.

The Toastmasters Club is an organized group of ambitious men over 21 years of age who seek to improve themselves in the arts of speech and leadership as means of increasing their usefulness in business, social and civic relationships.

The fundamental purposes of the Toastmasters Club are to aid its members to master the art of public speaking, to teach them to appear effectively before any audience, to train them for leadership and chairmanship in meetings of all kinds and to correlate toastmasters training with job training.

The club will meet weekly for dinner each Thursday at 8:45. Every member has an opportunity to be on his feet. This is insured in connection with the business to be transacted, plus the regular program feature, "Table Topics" in which many men have the chance to speak briefly on topics of general interest.

The formal program begins when the President introduces the Toastmaster of the evening. This member presides over a program lasting for 75 minutes, including four short speeches, varying in length, all prepared in advance. Following the program of speeches comes the period of evaluation. Constructive criticism is a vital part of Toasters training. Every speech is evaluated and all evaluation is done by members themselves.

Men in business and professional life are usually the most interested in the club. They realize the value of their work of ability to speak forcefully. Any ambitious man with reasonable educational preparation can make good use of the opportunity afforded by the Club.

Guests are welcome at the meetings in the new quarters. If interested call George Luenberger FE 5-5887. The next meeting will be this evening, Dec. 2.

DON'T MIX GASOLINE AND ALCOHOL

Drinking alcoholic liquor while driving will make you a top prospect for ending up in the emergency room of a hospital, according to Dr. C. W. Muehlberger, Director of the Crime Detection Laboratory of the Michigan Department of Health.

Studies show that persons even in the very early stages of intoxication increase their chances of becoming a casualty. With the low blood alcohol concentration of .06 per cent the drinker has three times as good a chance of ending up in a hospital as the sober driver. But the fellow who really works at it and gets his blood alcohol level up to .15 per cent skyrockets his chances to 55 times that of the person who has not been drinking.

"It's easy to see," said Dr. Muehlberger, "that a person who has had alcoholic liquor to drink is simply not capable of the fast thinking and quick action required on our highways today."

Dr. Muehlberger emphasized that alcohol is really an anesthetic and in addition to slowing a person's reaction time, narrows his visual field. In this condition a driver is unable to see as far to either side as he normally would. And with his slowed reaction time he is unable to adjust to unexpected situations fast enough.

"With the high horsepower of today's automobiles it just doesn't pay to mix gasoline and alcohol," Muehlberger said. "If you've had any intoxicating drink, make sure that you confine your driving to being a passenger."

MSC TO MAKE CENTENNIAL AWARDS

Michigan State College will cite outstanding contributions by individuals in many areas of life by making a series of Centennial Awards during the celebration of its 100th year in 1955.

Approximately 100 of the citations will be made during the year at 14 major programs, according to Kermit Smith, assistant registrar at MSC, and chairman of the Centennial Awards Committee.

The first of the awards will be presented on Founders' Day, Feb. 12, the official beginning of Michigan State's Centennial year.

Smith said that students, alumni, faculty and friends of Michigan State may make nominations for the awards. The recipients of the awards do not necessarily have to be alumni of Michigan State.

SAFE DRIVING DAY IS DECEMBER 15

President Eisenhower, through the President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety, has named December 15 as S-D (Safe Driving) Day. This proclamation recognizes that more than three of every four traffic accidents result from an error on the part of a driver or pedestrian. Consequently, drivers and pedestrians, alike, are being urged to exercise extraordinary care on that one day in an all-out effort to demonstrate that traffic accidents can be reduced.

"The trucking industry of Michigan is 100 per cent behind this effort", said Gladys M. Wright, president of the Michigan Trucking Association.

"We feel that this day could not have come at a more appropriate time, falling as it does just ten days before Christmas. Traffic accidents invariably reach a peak at this time of year, when heavy holiday traffic combines with less favorable weather conditions and longer hours of darkness. Traffic accidents are tragic at any time, but they are even more so if death or injury hangs like a pall over the Christmas holiday. The real tragedy lies in the fact that the vast majority of traffic accidents are preventable", Miss Wright emphasized.

The President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety is asking drivers and pedestrians to assume their full share of responsibility for adherence to these principles of traffic safety:

1. Observe the letter and spirit of all traffic regulations.
2. Be courteous to every driver and pedestrian—practice sportsmanship.
3. Give full attention to driving and walking.

In short: Drive and walk as you would have everyone else drive and walk.

MSC GETS GRANT FOR KELLOGG CENTER

A grant of nearly half a million dollars to enlarge the Kellogg Center for Continuing Education at Michigan State College has been accepted by the State Board of Agriculture, M. S. C.'s governing body.

The board accepted the grant from the Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek for additional conference rooms and offices at M. S. C.'s growing adult education center.

The grant provides for construction costing $440,750 with an additional $50,000 for furnishings and equipment.

It was largely through a grant from the Kellogg Foundation that the seven-story, $2,200,000 Kellogg Center was constructed in 1951.

The State Board of Agriculture also accepted a total of $94,918.52 in gifts and grants for research and teaching purposes at Michigan State.

Among the major grants was $60,000 accepted by the board for additional defense research for the Ordnance Corps, Detroit

Ordnance District. The grant will be used in two projects under the direction of J. W. Donnell, professor of chemical engineering.

Grants totaling $10,000 were accepted for use by the Continuing Education Service to continue and expand the college programs in the fields of driver education and traffic safety.

They included $5,000 from the Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety Foundation and the Ford Motor Company, and $5,000 from the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Foundation of Detroit.

A grant of $6,000 for a study of Michigan soils was accepted from the International Minerals and Chemicals Corporation of Chicago.

Directing the use of the fund will be Kirkpatrick Lawton and R. L. Cook, professors of soil science. They'll study the magnesium status of Michigan soils and determine the needs of various crops for magnesium fertilization.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Going—Going—But Not Gone!

Saturday they got set to auction off "Sis" Brown's house for non-payment of taxes. Buck Stone was the auctioneer. Everybody who came to the auction knew that "Sis" is a war widow.

When Buck began the bidding he said, "Anybody can bid. Just remember 'Sis' and three nice kids live here. Now who's going to start the bidding?"

There was silence. "Sis," standing in back, got the point. She reached into her purse for just about all the money she had in the world. "I'll bid $75," she said.

"Sold," bellowed Buck and "Sis" had her home back.

From where I sit, Buck Stone used a helping hand instead of a gavel. It was real neighborliness. You know, even in something as small as respecting another's choice of beverage, a person can be neighborly. You might like buttermilk. I'm "sold" on a temperate glass of beer. And I can't "buy" anyone's telling me I'm wrong.

the All-New '55 Pontiac*

A Look, A Ride and You'll Decide - IT'S THE HOT CAR FOR '55!

If we've heard it once, we've heard it a thousand times from people who come in to see the all-new 1955 Pontiac and stay on to price it and drive it—

"Pontiac's the hot car for 1955!"

Let us show you the whole wonderful story of this all-new General Motors Masterpiece. Come in and admire its distinctive, exclusive Vogue Two-Tone color styling and style-of-tomorrow lines. Step inside and lean back in luxury and solid comfort! Look about you—through Pontiac's sweeping expanse of glass. Let your hands curl around Pontiac's handsome new steering wheel.

Then let us take you for a demonstration drive. Put Pontiac's Strato-Streak V-8 through its brilliant paces. Feel its powerful stride as you move away; sit back and relax as it sweeps you along. Notice how this greatest of all Pontiacs does everything but drive itself—you simply guide it, completely confident and at ease.

Then let us show you the price story! This is the greatest story of all—the facts and figures on how very little it costs to give yourself the wonderful thrills of Pontiac ownership.

Remember, if you can afford any new car you can easily afford an all-new Pontiac. Here is the ultimate proof that dollar for dollar you can't beat a Pontiac!

DEER PROBABLY COLOR BLIND—U-M PROFESSOR

"What do deer think of red shirts?"

Inevitable as the coming of the deer hunting season are the questions which accompany it: Wildlife experts find themselves beleaguered by suddenly curious sportsmen and nonsportsmen alike, who want to know things like "can you tell a deer's age by his antlers?"

The size of a deer's antlers depends not so much on his age as upon his nutrition, according to Prof. Warren W. Chase, chairman of the University of Michigan's Department of Wildlife Management in the School of Natural Resources.

Antlers are made of a bony substance, at first sheathed in a velvety covering, and are a secondary sex characteristic restricted to the buck, who begins to develop the "rack" in the spring and has a full-blown set of antlers by the breeding season in October and November.

If you come across a buck in January with a head tipped drunkenly to one side, chances are he's not hung-over from the past mating period but is merely plagued with a case of one-antler-shed, the other still with him temporarily.

"Most persons don't realize that all deer look alike between February and June when the bucks have shed their antlers", Professor Chase points out.

Rodents, squirrels and porcupines keep the forest floor clear of discarded antlers because these are a valuable source of calcium and phosphate for the small animals.

The deer seem to know how wide their antlers are and don't try to go between too-closely set trees, but they sometimes get themselves locked in combat with other bucks and die in this head-on entanglement.

A buck could probably run a mile or more at a stretch but since deer have a tendency to run in circles they usually end up behind the hunter in their attempts to escape.

And the color of a hunter's shirt doesn't matter to them. "There is good reason to believe deer are color blind", says Professor Chase.

DEGREES TO GO TO 490 AT MSC

Michigan State College will hold fall term commencement exercises for 490 students Monday, Dec. 6, at 8 p. m. in the M. S. C., auditorium.

Included in the graduating class will be 349 undergraduates and 150 candidates for advanced degrees, according to Robert S.

Lincoln, college registrar.

Commencement speaker will be Dr. Harry Newburn, President of the Educational Television and Radio Center at Ann Arbor. M. S. C. President John A. Hannah will confer the degrees.

The official close of the fall term is Dec. 14, preceded by final examinations the week of Dec. 8 - 14.

Reading Room, 40 S. Washington St., Oxford, open from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M. every week day.

The understanding of the goodness of God which brings lasting peace and harmony will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator."

Selections to be read from the King James Version of the Bible will include the following from Revelation (4:11): "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following selection will be among those read (69:13): "Spiritually to understand that there is but one creator, God, unfolds all creation, confirms the Scriptures, brings the sweet assurance of no parting, no pain, and of man deathless and perfect and eternal."

The Golden Text is from Genesis (1:1): "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth."

MICHIGAN'S WINTER SPORTS UNDER WAY IN DECEMBER

Three new ski centers will be in operation during Michigan's winter sports season that gets under way in December, reports the Michigan Tourist Council. This brings the number of the state's winter sports centers to forty-one.

They are located in every section of the state from Kalamazoo and Pontiac in the south to the Copper Country and Ironwood in the Upper Peninsula. Those making their debut this season

STEWING HENS GOOD BUY TO FILL FREEZER

Looking for some real good meat buys for stocking up your home freezer?

Don't overlook those stewing hens from your usual poultry supplier, encourages Henry E. Larzelere, Michigan State College extension poultry economist.

Larzelere says that some top-flight stewing hens are selling at a very reasonable price now, just right for filling the freezer.

The price on stewing hens is better for the consumer now than it will be for several years to come, he comments.

Larzelere says that high egg prices last year caused poultrymen to put in large laying flocks. With this year's price skid, many of the same growers are unloading their birds on the market.

So, if you're trying to find something inexpensive to fill that freezer with—don't pass up stewing hens—or you'll be passing up many a good dinner in the months to come.

Card Of Thanks

Many, many thanks to all who remembered me while I was in the hospital and since coming home. The cards, flowers and calls were greatly appreciated.
