Clashing of Sabers, Epees, Is Heard At Wayne as Fencing Gains Popularity

Wayne University fencing coach Bela de Tuscan discusses the finer points of sword play with Wayne swordsmen (l. to r.) Harold Cunningham, Harry Smit, and Stewart Green.

Fencing, once the sport of nobles and kings is enjoying rising success all over the United States, but nowhere is it more popular than at Wayne University.

Rated highly on the Tartar sports to rain fencing owes its rapid rise to Wayne to the coaching job turned in by Bela de Tuscan a top authority of the Mid-West.

The rattling of the sabers epees, and foils can be heard every day in the Wayne gymnasium as Tuscan puts his variety squad; and his many passes through their paces.

Fencing: one of the world's oldest sports was once the favorite means of settling disputes and family honor. Today as a highly skilled sport it has lost none of its glamour of these days.

Wayne's nine-man fencing squad annually takes of the nation's best and more than holds its own in the 1954 the Tartars finished 1-2 in the nation after whipping Michigan State Illinois Iowa Ohio State and others in dual competition. Only Wisconsin and Notre Dame were able to stop de Tuscan's fine team.

This year Wayne's opponents include Michigan State Iowa Wisconsin Northwestern Notre Dame Indiana and Illinois and Coach de Tuscan predicts another good year.

Modern day fencing whether amateur or intercollegiate is taught in three weapons. Most movie fans know about the saber, although it is not as swashbuckling as Hollywood portrays. The weapon is heavier than either the epee or foil and a touch is allowed only on the body head and arms above the groin line. Points can be scored by touching with either the edge or point of the blade.

In the foil a slender four-edged blade touches can only be scored on the upper part of the body, the point of the blade touches on arms hands shoulders or legs are foils. This places a heavy burden on the referee and as a result de Tuscan has perfected a self-contained electrical foil which will eliminate human error. It will score on the market and is expected to revolutionize the sport.

The epee is a three-edged blade modeled after the old dueling sword. Touches can only be made with the point but can be scored on any part of the body. This means a more cautious attack and it has been aided by the introduction a few years ago of the electrical epee—now standard equipment.

The most ardent boosters of the sport are fencers themselves. One point that has particular appeal is the fact that it is a sport which can be continued long after college. Oldsters in their seventies are just as enthusiastic as beginners and you can find them all in de Tuscan's classes at Wayne University.

KEEGO GAME

As most of you probably know the last time our Wolves met the Keego Presidents, it turned out to be quite a close game. The Presidents closed a 13 point lead to a 2 point lead in the last quarter and the score ended 66 to 64.

This time our Wolves literally over ran the Keego quintet. Lanny Leak and Richard Johnston tied for scoring honors with 15 points. Johnston averaged over 60% on his shots during the game. The Wolves played a slow, deliberate ball game which proved effective. "The Presidents didn't put up half the fight they did on their own court", was one of the remarks coming from coach Dom Mauti. He thought their team had definitely gone into a slump since our previous meeting.

The final score of Tuesday's game ended 61 to 34, as the Wolves win again!

CUPID CAPERS TO SUCCESS

The Valentine's Dance (Cupid Capers) sponsored by the Junior Class, was a great success. Over $90.00 worth of tickets were sold. Door prizes were won by Chuck Fusilier and Dorothy McEvoy.

The dance was highlighted by the outstanding playing of the Krohn orchestra. The band, which had only four members, sounded very good. Their ability to play request numbers so well was noticed by all who requested them to do so.

The Decorating Committee did an especially good job decorating the cafeteria. The Cupid Capers was the very first dance ever to be held in the cafeteria. Most everyone who came to the dance liked dancing in the cafeteria although the floor was a little slippery at first.

Flanking the bandstand, which was placed between the two central doors, were two huge signboard type hearts, one white heart with a red background and a red heart in a white background. A mirror pyramid reflecting colored lights was a very definite asset to the dance. The depth of the room was filled with hearts and stars of varying sizes suspended from the ceiling. One heart was approximately 2 1/2 x 4 1/2 feet. Also featured was a wishing pool in a comfortable setting of wicker furniture, furnished by Kay Robinson and Ruth Ann Althouse. Cheers go to Mr. Bonner for his help.

Punch and cookies were served a la smorgasbord. Mr. Mauti has probably set a precedent in his profuse use of colored spot lights. The coloring in the dance was the best these eyes have seen in Clarkston High.

The faculty was represented at the dance by Mr. and Mrs. Mauti, Mr. and Mrs. Keough, Mr. Vaningen and Miss Abare, Mr. Birtas and friend and other teachers dropped in during the night.

The dance ended shortly after midnight and most everyone had a very enjoyable time.

CLARKSTON vs BRIGHTON

Clarkston Wins Again

Clarkston won again against Brighton Friday night, February 11 by the score of 51 - 40. In the first quarter Clarkston made a total of 8 points and Brighton made 10.

In the second quarter the score was 23 to 14 in favor of Clarkston. In the third quarter the score was 42 to 27, also in favor of Clarkston. The final score was Clarkston 51; Brighton 40.

The high scoring man of the game was Richard Johnston making 18 out of 20 free throws. Clarkston made a total of 39 free throws making 27 of them to Brighton's 20 tries and 6 of them dropping in the basket. Clarkston made 12 field goals, 27 free throws, 15 fouls and a total of 51 points.

Brighton made 17 field goals, 6 free throws, 22 fouls and a total of 40 points. The Clarkston Wolves will play Clarenceville for their next to the last game of the season. The game will be in the C. H. S. Gym. The Junior Varsity game starts at 7:00 P. M.

CLARKSTON RESERVES

Clarkston's outstanding Reserve basketball team started the season with a winning streak of eight in a row, losing one, and winning three more in a row. Their schedule so far is:

team	games	won
Oxford	43	27
Waterford	46	41
Ortonville	49	33
Holly	48	29
Keego Harbor	52	37
Brighton	50	35
Northville	33	22
Clarenceville	46	21
Milford	32	34
Holly	56	41
Keego Harbor	41	22
Brighton	44	34

The starting lineup for the reserves is: Charles Passage, Fred Vess, Robert Rader, Leonard Bentley, Bob Bentley. The team is led by co-captains John Holser and LeRoy Parks. Their strong points are rebounding and defensive play. One flaw is that the team is short on balance scoring. They also have a group of promising Freshmen. The team has three games left and have high hopes of winning them and ending the season with a winning record of 15 and a losing record of 1. The loss was to Milford.

G. A. A. BASKETBALL

The Girls Athletic Association team has gotten off to a fine start this year. This is the first year that Clarkston has had a girls team that kept going. Every other year they would play one or two games, then the team would be dropped. But under the supervision of Mrs. Wilkenson the girls have been practicing three or more nights a week.

The following 18 girls are on the team. Also listed is the grade in which they are in:

Judy Abare, 10; Carolyn Biber, 9; Betty Lou Gardner, 10; Sharon Glennie, 10; Lola Johnson, 10; Marjorie Lumm, 11; Dorothy McEvoy, 12; Ona Lee Morgan, 10; Sue Ellen O'Dell, 10; Dixie Parks, 9; Mary Lou Prevost, 9; Kay Robinson, 11; Janet Stallard, 9; Pat Thayer, 10; Myra Woodall, 10;

Ann Wright, 9; Sharon Norgrove, 9.

I hope that you have noticed that there are six freshmen on the team. These girls are really good and we are proud of them. The team has played five games three of which they have won.

The teams and scores are:

Clarkston 16, Dublin 31; Clarkston 25, St. Mikes 20; Clarkston 21, St. Freds 34; Clarkston 37, Dublin 32.

The Junior Varsity has also played one game with St. Freds. The score was Clarkston 23, St. Freds 15.

The games left to go are two with St. Freds, one with St. Mikes and two with Holly.

The girls who have scored the most in the games are:

Betty Lou Gardner, 4 games, 48 points; Dixie Parks, 4 games, 30 points; Ann Wright, 3 games, 15 points.

The girls have done a fine job and we hope they will continue to do so.

ART DISPLAY MAKES KIDS DOUBLY PROUD

Your children are proud of their accomplishments in their art class at school. But they will be doubly proud if their parents show an interest in their creations.

Marion Beveridge, staff member in related arts at Michigan State College, believes it is important that parents display children's art work. She says it gives them a feeling of importance in the family. Then, too, children's art is held in high esteem because it is fresh and uninhibited. A child is not hedged in with conventions as are many adults, and often he shows a refreshing approach to old ideas.

Mrs. Beveridge suggests several ways to use child art in the home. Perhaps you will want to make place mats for the breakfast table. Place a finger painting of your pre-schooler between two transparent plastic place mats. They can be held together with colorful masking tape. Because the tape can easily be removed the drawings can be changed from time to time.

Another suggestion is to group several drawings together on a large mat such as grass cloth. The whole arrangement could be hung on the wall in the children's bedroom. Or maybe you will want to post the art work on the kitchen bulletin board. You may even want to put it under the glass on the coffee table or living room desk.

No matter where it is put, your children will be happy to see you take an interest in their art work, asserts Mrs. Beveridge.

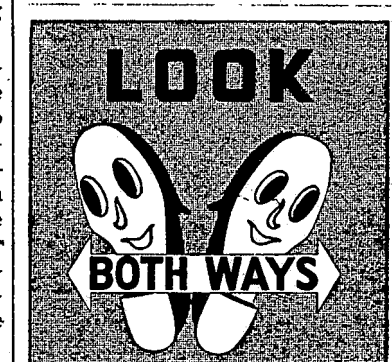

PATRIOTISM HAS BEGINNING IN GOOD HOME

Patriotic love doesn't come ready made. It's something that we build slowly over the years, starting with childhood, says Dr. Elmer Knowles, parent education specialist at Michigan State College.

He explains that learning to love one's country is a ch. in reaction. He says a person will not love his country if he doesn't love his state. And in turn that person will not love his state if he doesn't love his community, his home and his parents.

So in this chain reaction of loving one's country enough to fight and if necessary give one's life for it, all the links in chain are important. But, says Dr. Knowles, the beginning link is for parents to love each other. This is the parents' foundation on which they base the love for their children. If children are loved, they will feel secure.

Parents must also respect their children as a reflection of their love. Then the children will develop self respect. A child should also be helped or disciplined so he will learn to develop his abilities. Dr. Knowles feels it is important to praise a child for what he does and what he is. From this praise a child will develop his own set of values—values about himself as a person, about parents, teachers, friends, his neighborhood, his state and finally his country.

Dr. Knowles sums it up this way. Whether a child reaches adulthood as a worthwhile citizen depends on whether he is loved and learns to love his fellow men.

USE CAUTION WHEN PLANTING TREES

Detroit Edison has launched a special informational program aimed at showing customers how proper tree planting helps in maintaining good electric service.

As a key feature of the program, the company has prepared a booklet, "Planting For Permanent Beauty," which suggests trees and shrubs that thrive in this climate; tells where, when and how they are best planted; and explains the reasons why. The booklet, available at Edison customer offices, stresses the damage improperly selected and planted trees can cause, and asks cooperation in planned planting that will benefit the homeowner and his community.

It is pointed out that most of the interruptions of electric service caused by storms are the direct result of falling trees and limbs, and that damage brought about by normal tree growth also is substantial.

The seriousness of the tree problem is shown by the fact that the job of trimming and removing troublesome trees costs the company two and a half million dollars a year and occupies the time of 75 six-man crews. With the public becoming more and more dependent on electric service for everyday living, Detroit Edison asks customers to share the responsibility by cooperating in preventative measures.

The company believes that mutual understanding of the tree problem, together with thoughtful planting for the future, will be of advantage to municipalities; to homeowners; and to public utilities of all kinds.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Swiftly Gets Slowed Down

Swiftly Fisher has a short temper and really hit the roof when he got a parking ticket last week. He wasn't near a hydrant or too far from the curb. There was a big sign saying "ONE HOUR PARKING" and he'd only been gone twenty minutes. Running to Traffic Court, where Hack Miller was on duty, Swiftly hollered how he hadn't done anything wrong...how he is the most law-abiding driver in town. But Hack examined the ticket, and smiled. "Slow down, friend," he said. "You're not guilty—except of making a big fuss over nothing. This ticket came from some kid's policeman play outfit!" From where I sit, jumping to conclusions can make anyone appear silly. Another way to look foolish is to make a quick decision on a question of personal preference. For instance, I like a glass of beer occasionally. You may be a buttermilk man. But neither of us ought to "lay down the law" about the other's choice.

SHRINE CIRCUS NOW AT FAIR GROUNDS

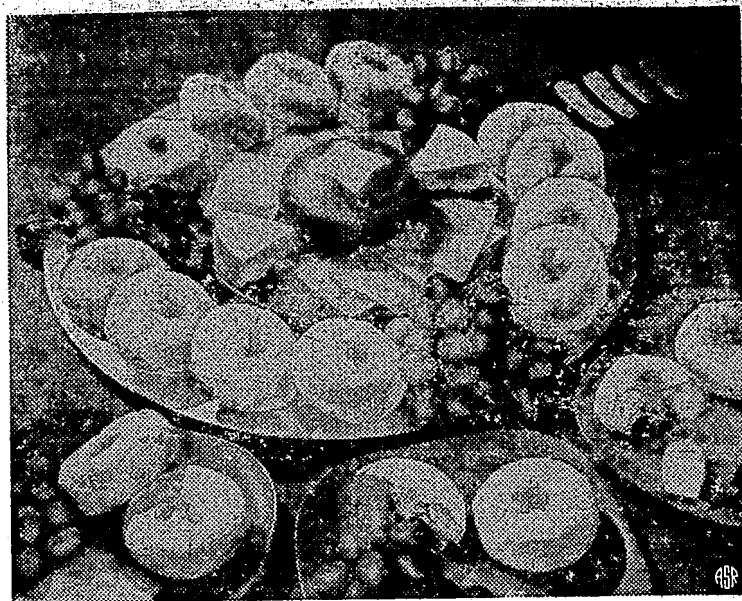

The Shrine Circus, which is eagerly looked forward to by thousands annually, opened on February 14 in the Coliseum at the Fair Grounds and will continue through February 27.

There are two performances each day, 2 and 8 P. M., during the Coliseum run.

Sixty world famous circus acts, headed by the one and only Clyde Beatty, celebrated wild animal trainer, comprises the enormous cast, which includes, to mention a few, the daring Zoppe Family, who perform on unsupported ladders, the Zacchini...

Spring Snack Tray

You can be an artist at arranging foods for family and guest snacking if you have on hand some fruit, cheese, and snowy doughnuts. The colors of the foods themselves are appetizing, and their shapes suggest many ideas for appetizing arrangement.

For a spring snack tray suggestion, you might choose a small red cheese for a centerpiece. To "open" it, lay a cookie cutter, or any homemade cardboard design over it, and cut just through the red wax. Any assortment of cheeses your family likes may accompany it. Choose fruits for juiciness and color, and easy out-of-hand eating.

Doughnuts are a natural accompaniment for such a tray. Choose book quality doughnuts (they're cake batter), from your grocer's dry-to-eat cake department, and give them generous space in your arrangement.

Fix a tray like this on a night when the family sits and works together. Make it for your guests, and school and church affairs. Nothing need be wasted for each food has many other uses.

All matters handled through the Probate Court require a certain amount of legal publication in one of the county papers. Foreclosing a mortgage entails publication of the foreclosure notice in a county paper.

Either the probate court officers or your attorney will have your legal publication carried in The Clarkston News if you request it.

We solicit the privilege of carrying such legal publications. This form of advertising is valuable to us. When you support us in this way we are able to give you a better paper each week.
