Mayors Exchange Monday, May 16th

Municipal officials throughout the state, assisted by county and community Michigan Week committees, are preparing for the greatest get-acquainted move ever made by the people of Michigan—the Mayor's Exchange of the second annual Michigan Week on Monday, May 16.

In the drawings at Lansing March 7, the lot of the municipalities in the County was determined. Clarkston will exchange with Inkster in Wayne County.

Mayor Glen Allen, Jr. of Kalamazoo, Chairman of Michigan Week Mayors' Exchange Committee, is writing every municipality, urging prompt contact with its opposite number in the Exchange so that officials and civic groups will start joint planning immediately for the various things they will want to do to make the two towns well acquainted with each other through the Mayor's Exchange.

Some towns have informed the state committee that they want their school superintendents, newspaper editors, service club presidents and others to take part also in the Exchange. The committee has replied in each case that any two towns in the Exchange should go as far as they like and do what ever they want to do that will help carry out the spirit of Michigan week.

"The hospitality and ingenuity of two communities working together in the exchange of Mayors should know no bounds," Mayor Allen said in his letter today to all city and village councils.

The Mocking-Bird

When first a ray of light broke through
The haze of tropic night;
When grass was laden wet with dew,
We heard your morning flight.

The calm was broken by your song,
And all the world arose;
The drowsiness of night was gone,
As were our earthly woes.

Your song rang clear in morning air
To chase all doubt away
That God one instant did not care
How well began our day.

To natural talents of your own
You tried to add a few,
You changed your rhythm and your tone
And sang strange songs and new.

You imitated other birds,
And did so very well
We most could hear the Bob
White's words,
And morning dove could tell.

Your versatility inspired
Our lives to greater things,
To try to do what is required
For just the joy it brings.

School News

The Juniors have announced their forthcoming play, "Girl Crazy", under the direction of Miss Cooper. The Juniors plan to present the play on April 29 and 30.

"Girl Crazy" is a comedy in three acts. The play is concerned with the West, along with gunmen, dudes, city slickers, beautiful girls and yes, an Indian! It's all about a ranch inherited by a young New York playboy who decides to turn it into a Dude Ranch. His host of social parasites and western friends are mixed together and blended well enough to give a real mellow evening's entertainment.

Here is a brief description of the characters and who will portray them:

Jake—a crusty old man with a weather-beaten face and a shaggy, stained beard - Wally Fusilier.

Danny Churchill—Rich city playboy in his twenties, a nice looking guy with easy-going manners - Doug Fortin.

Louie—Typical New York taxi driver, a wiry guy with a strong Brooklyn accent - Clyde Kizer.

Cactus & Lucky—They are cowboys. Cactus is long and lean and Luck is short. T. J. Shedlovsky plays Cactus and Darrel Blackett plays Lucky.

Pete—a small, shifty-eyed, oily Mexican bandit who is badly in need of a shave - Lee Perry.

Lank—a tall, cold killer, and completely ruthless - Nate Riffle.

Molly—an extremely pretty girl of about twenty with natural unaffected charm and good looks - Buzz Neubacher.

Rose—the feminine counterpart to Louie. Brooklyn through and through - Joan Shuler.

Tess, Betty, Janet, Laura, Sally, and Babs—They are all attractive young girls from Chicago and points East, enjoying a vacation at the dude ranch. Where two names appear after a character, the part is split. Tess - Kay Robinson; Betty - Margaret Hosack; Corina Frazer; Janet - Jeanette McKee; Karen Jenks; Laura - Valerie Hoyt; Glenda Whitlock; Sally - Sally Joiner; Babs - Marie Barber and Joan Hubble.

Sam—is a young sophisticated New Yorker. He is rich and spoiled but likeable. - Tim Mortimore.

Eaglerock—An Indian who speaks perfect English and who has been to college - Tom Whalen.

Lieutenant Caddigan—A serious minded young State Police Officer - Gary Robertson.

DONKEY BASKETBALL

On Monday, March 21, the annual donkey basketball game was played. This year the proceeds will go for the lights for the football field.

Excitement and laughter was everywhere as the donkeys outsmarted the players. The Firefighters lost to the Fourth Nighters in the first game and the great faculty won over the mighty seniors in the second game.

The game was rough and tumble with donkeys bucking, lying down and kicking. At one time one of the donkeys thought the air was rather stuffy and decided to go for a tour of the school which couldn't forget wrestling. They had to try scissor holds and head locks on the poor helpless animals. There was a big turnout as the gym was packed with between 600 and 700 people. All in all there were no hard feelings, as the games were just for fun.

"We need never feel alone"

Mrs. Hrabovsky and Michael John.

The five operators who worked to locate Mr. Hrabovsky: Shirley Petersen, Katherine Linderman, Theda Walter, Genevieve Jacobs, Marlene Chase.

These words appeared in a letter Michigan Bell received recently from Mrs. Michael Hrabovsky: "We need never feel alone as long as you have women on duty who are kind and helpful."

Here's why she wrote the letter: One day last summer as Mrs. Hrabovsky worked in the kitchen she heard her 6-year-old son, Michael John, scream in pain outside. He had caught his hand in the belt of the electric pump.

While a neighbor telephoned to alert the doctor and hospital, she sped Michael John to Greenville, where his badly injured hand was successfully treated.

Later, at home, Mrs. Hrabovsky placed a person-to-person Long Distance call to her husband. She thought Mr. Hrabovsky was working that day in St. Paul, Minnesota.

He had left there, but the operator was told he might be in another Minnesota city. But he was not there either. And so it went until, thanks to the persistence and patience of five operators, who called 12 different places to locate him, Mrs. Hrabovsky finally heard her husband's reassuring voice from Wells, Minnesota. The cost to the Hrabovskys? Just $2.42.

Michigan boasts nearly 30% of the nation's total salt production. Its output of 4 million tons of salt annually is almost twice that of any other state. Production centers near Detroit and Saginaw.

HANDICAPPED PEOPLE HELPED BY GOODWILL

"The 107 Goodwill Industries throughout the United States gave training and employment to 23,500 handicapped men and women during 1954", Harold H. McKinnon, executive secretary of Detroit Goodwill Industries, said today.

"Goodwill Industries, a non-profit organization, was the biggest business in the field of private agencies serving handicapped people last year", McKinnon said.

Total income of the Industries exceeded $21,000,000, of which about $18,800,000 was earned income. Less than $1,000,000 was donated income from community chests and public support, and the balance was service income. Detroit Goodwill, self supporting, receives no aid from the Torch Drive or any other agency.

Earned income, along with all other totals, was highest in the 52-year history of the Goodwill Industries movement and was $1,200,000 greater than in 1953, McKinnon revealed.

Principal source of earned income was sales of reconditioned articles in Goodwill stores, while contract jobs are a growing source of income.

Goodwill Industries paid nearly $14,000,000 in wages, of which about $12,000,000 was paid to handicapped and disabled people. The handicapped workers paid $1,600,000 in federal income and social security taxes alone, instead of being dependent upon tax funds. Wages paid were over a million dollars more than in the previous year.

More than 3,000,000 households donated over 3,500,000 Goodwill bags filled with discarded clothing, over 1,600,000 pieces of furniture and nearly 2,000,000 units of such other items as housewares, toys, appliances, etc., according to the national report.

The donations of materials, plus assembling, sorting, packaging and other industrial jobs contracted with local industries, made possible about 17,000,000 hours of employment for the handicapped workers.

Forty-seven per cent of the Goodwill Industries employees had orthopedic or general handicaps, 16 per cent had mental, emotional and social handicaps, 13 per cent were handicapped by age or infirmity, and 13 per cent were non-handicapped truck drivers and helpers.

Michigan produces more than 5 million tons of salt each year, which is double the output of any other state and 25 percent of the national total.

During World War II, Michigan produced one-eighth of all American war materials. Both in tonnage and dollar value, Michigan out-produced all other states during the period.

MOTORIST URGED TO DRIVE SAFELY

"Children should be seen and not hurt", Gladys M. Wright, president of the Michigan Trucking Association, urged motorists to abide by this rule, whenever they get behind the wheel.

"The Michigan trucking industry is stressing 'Spring Driving Hazards' during March in connection with its year-round Courtesy & Safety Campaign", Miss Wright explained. "Better weather and longer hours of daylight now, and in the coming months, mean that children will be spending more and more of their time outdoors. This is a good thing—provided the children can be protected from accidents. The figures show that accidents are the Number One killer of children between 4 and 14. An excellent job has been done in safety training for children; but, in the excitement of play, they often forget safety rules."

Miss Wright stressed, "As drivers, it is your obligation to reduce your speed near schools, parks, playgrounds, residential areas, and wherever else children may be playing. You can never tell what a child will do next, and it is bad business to try to guess at it. A child on the sidewalk one minute can be right in front of you the next. The only way to avoid an accident is to have your car under such control that you can stop in time. Regardless of legal responsibility, no one wants to kill or hurt a child in traffic."

"As parents", she continued, "we must accept our responsibility to inculcate in our children habits of safe play. Wherever possible, children should be encouraged most firmly to play away from streets and highways. They should be taught at an early age how to cross streets safely. Above all, they must be taught the dangers of running into the street from between parked cars. Observing these, and other safety precautions will assure children a safe, happy childhood."

Few spots in America have as many lakes as Oakland County. Dotted hilly woodlands, over 400 offer water sports galore in the summer: skating, skiing and tobogganing in the winter.

The American Legion Cuts Cake to Celebrate 36th Birthday

The top Legionnaire in the country, National Commander Seaborn P. Collins, Jr., of Las Cruces, New Mexico, wields the knife to cut the Michigan Legion's birthday cake in observance of their 36th anniversary Thursday, March 17. Throughout the state this week more than 100,000 Legionnaires and their auxiliary members in 518 posts scattered over the Lower and Upper Peninsulas, are observing similar ceremonies. Above, awaiting their slice from the commander are, from left: Mrs. Gladys Taylor, Brooklyn, State President of the Legion's Auxiliary; State Commander Kent T. Lundgren of Menominee, and past State Commander J. Addington Wagner, Battle Creek, Michigan Legion's candidate for national commander in 1955.

in the growing season. He explains that some property owners ran into trouble by applying fertilizer in the fall. The roots began a last minute growth and failed to harden in time for the winter cold.

Bray passes these recommendations along from William L. Love, Michigan State College extension municipal forester.

Apply fertilizer early in the spring around trees and shrubs, using 1 1/2 - 3 pounds of complete fertilizer per 100 square feet of shrub bed area, cultivating fertilizer into the surface of the soil.

Love says chemical fertilizers can be used, such as 10-10-10 or 10-6-4. But avoid direct contact of soil fertilizer with the trunk or foliage, Love warns. Figuring about three to four pounds per inch of trunk diameter in trees over six inches, start boring holes four to six feet from the trunk. Make the holes 12 to 18 inches deep and about two feet apart in the area under the branches. Put one or two cups of fertilizer in each hole and water it down and cover it with soil.

ANTICIPATE SPRING BY FORCING SHRUBS

Are you getting eager to enjoy the heavenly scents and colors of those first flowering shrubs and trees?

Why not anticipate spring and brighten your home by cutting branches of your favorite shrubs and bringing them indoors for forcing?

Elzada Clover associate professor of botany at the University of Michigan, says there are numbers of these which may easily and successfully be forced so you can enjoy their out-of-season beauty.

The rules for forcing are very simple and the results rewarding. "The branches should be cut after the buds have begun to swell but before they show signs of blooming", the botanist says. "Some people suggest crushing the ends with a hammer or cutting the lower ends diagonally with a knife, although this is not essential.

"Put the branches in rather deep, lukewarm water in a bucket-sized container. The air should be somewhat moist and cool. A basement or a cool spare bedroom would be ideal. Remember the developing buds need light but it should not be direct, or too intense. The branches should be sprayed with water every few days to keep the buds from drying out", she says.

"First to come out under indoor forcing will be Forsythia, with its much-loved brilliant yellow flower, and the silky-grey pussy willow.

"The silver maple, with all its small clusters of reddish flowers growing close to the stem, also has fine decorative value.

"Cottonwoods, and other poplars may be enjoyed for the novelty effect of their brilliant red or greenish-colored catkins, consisting of many minute brownish flowers, may be used to add a touch of the whimsical.

"Most beautiful of all are the scented, delicately colored blossoms of the flowering fruit trees. Easily forced are the exquisite pink and white blossoms of apricot, plum, apple, peach, pear and Japanese quince.

"Most of these are very easily forced and will probably give you flowers within a week or ten days. But—decorative considerations aside—you can have fun watching the spring development of almost any blossoming branch" Professor Clover promises.

AMERICAN LEGION TO DELIVER

KOREAN BONUS FORMS

The Michigan American Legion is primed and ready to deliver statewide bonus applications to Korea veterans through its network of 518 posts and districts. Legion leaders the minute forms are made available from the military pay bonus section at Lansing.

"Operation Korean Bonus", as the program is named, was organized by the Legion when Michigan taxpayers voted November 2 to approve payment of the 80 million dollar bill.

"Recent news announcing first checks would be sent out about April 1 has resulted in an avalanche of telephone calls from Korean veterans requesting bonus applications from our state Memorial Building, our Detroit Districts office at 401 W. Lafayette, and state service office in the Krolik Building, Detroit", said Kent T. Lundgren, Legion State Commander.

"The Legion placed a request more than two months ago with Lt. Col. Leo Whittaker's office in Lansing for an adequate shipment of forms", revealed Lundgren, "which would personally be delivered to 44 key points in both Upper and Lower Peninsulas."

"We expect to receive notice from Lansing when the forms will be made available. At that time eight Legion officials and field service representatives will alert Legionnaires throughout the state to be waiting at pre-designated locations for the arrival of bulk bonus shipments."

"The forms will then be scattered to Legion post homes in 18 Congressional districts where Korea veterans may obtain them at their convenience", said state Commander Lundgren.

MSC DEVELOPS VALUABLE QUESTIONNAIRE

Do you agree or disagree with these statements:

1. Most communities are run by a few big shots.
2. The main problem we face is high taxes.
3. The school should stick to the 3 R's and forget about most of the other courses being offered today.

Those statements are only a few of the 60 on a questionnaire developed by the Michigan State College Continuing Education Service to measure the attitudes of the people in their home community.

This survey is a new tool to provide a systematic approach to community problems, contends Dr. Claud Bosworth, head of the Continuing Education Department of Community Services. The survey used at Jackson, Niles, Sturgis and other communities, has been consistently reliable and valid, reports Dr. Bosworth.

"One of the greatest uses for this approach" Dr. Bosworth points out, "is to help community leaders learn in advance what kind of package the people will buy. We can help community leaders determine if an industrial development, new school, sewer bond issue, recreation or health program, etc., will be approved by the people."

Here are some more questions... try scoring your attitudes on the basis of "strongly agree", "agree", "undecided", "disagree", or "strongly disagree":

1. Most communities are good enough as they are without starting any new community improvement programs.
2. In general, church members are better citizens.
3. The first major responsibility of each citizen should be to earn dollars for his own pocket.

This questionnaire was devised with the assistance of Chamber of Commerce managers, representatives of community development agencies, and others, to provide a professional approach to the whole problem of community inventory and organizational programs.

Mr. Bosworth reports that the study, now in its third year, presents three definite conclusions:

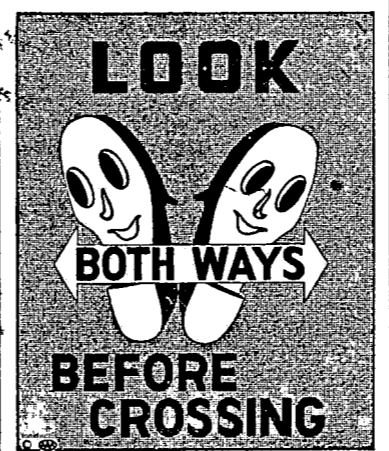

1. That a practical inventory of community assets can be assembled and used to advantage.
2. That attitudes toward progress in a given community can be charted scientifically.
3. That educational background of the person taking the questionnaire is the major determining factor in measuring his attitudes towards progress.

This new questionnaire approach is important, contends Dr. Bosworth, "because the attitude of the people is the key towards community progress." "Industrial firms expanding or seeking new locations, city councils planning civic improvements such as sewer and water expansion programs, health services, community centers, and school boards considering new buildings are always concerned with the question 'What is the attitude of the people of the community towards the project?"

Dr. Bosworth also declares that the test will show community leaders which sections of the city or which groups of people will oppose or support community improvement projects.

GOING TO PLANT A GARDEN? GET GARDEN SEED NOW

If you're going to plant a garden this spring and summer, there is one job you can do right now, declares John Bray, Oakland County Assistant County Agricultural Agent, get your garden seed.

And, says the agent, go to a reputable seed store for it. There's where you will find the best selection of seed.

The first garden plants you'll want to get in are lettuce, peas, carrots and beets. If you're undecided what variety to put in, Bray passes these suggestions along from Michigan State College Horticulturist Robert L. Carolus.

For lettuce, forget about the iceberg type you see in stores. It's hard to raise. Bibb is a good variety to plant. Sow it early, as soon as the frost leaves the ground, and you'll have heads by July 4. Bibb is the variety used for banquets. Salad Bowl leaf lettuce should also be one of the first plantings. It stands hot weather better than any other kind for the home gardener.

Peas: Little Marvel, planted in double rows, four inches apart before April 25, will give you good, early eating. Thomas Laxton, planted a few days later are tops for freezing.

When planting beets and carrots, sow the old reliable varieties. Plant Nantes carrots in a spread row about May 1, then plant again July 1. You'll then get carrots before the hot weather makes them strong tasting. Crosby Egyptian and Detroit Dark Red are still the best beets for early greens and pickling, respectively. A newly-revised folder, "Recommended Vegetable Varieties", is available at the County Extension Office, 1260 West Boulevard, Pontiac.

MENTAL HEALTH MEETING IN DETROIT TONIGHT

Problems of the forties and fifties will be dealt with at an open session of the 18th annual mental health conference of the Michigan Society for Mental Health tonight (March 24) at 8:15 in the Sheraton-Cadillac.

Dr. Harry E. August, prominent Detroit psychoanalyst, will speak on "The Middle Years", at a general session to which the public will be admitted without charge.

Friday evening at 8:15 P. M., March 25th, at a second meeting open to the public, a play, "Random Target", will be presented by the Waterford Township Parents Group. The play deals with "bullying" by a young boy. The audience will join in a discussion led by Mildred Peters, Ph. D., Wayne University.

Centering around the theme "Mental Diseases and Public Concern", the working sessions of the conference will bring to Detroit an outstanding panel of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers and public officials. Governor G. Mennen Williams will deal with "Research and Training in the Fight Against Mental Diseases", at a session along with two outstate Legislators, a psychiatrist and a research psychologist. Also participating in this session will be J. S. Gottlieb, M. D., a recently appointed director of the Lafayette Psychiatric Institute in Detroit.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Finally Talked Herself Out
 A certain talkative young lady almost spent a night locked in "Doc" White's drugstore. She entered Doc's store about 11 PM, going directly to the pay phone. At eleven-thirty Doc went home - not having seen a customer for a half hour. Around midnight he got a call from the store... she had finally run out of conversation (and money) and found the front door locked tight. Doc vowed he'd leave her there to teach her a lesson. But Mrs. W. spoke up: "Now you go turn her loose! It's hard to cut a good conversation short - something only a woman understands!" From where I sit, however, plenty of men are as hard to pry away from a telephone as any female. Some people are just naturally long-winded, while others are the silent type - just as some of us like coffee and others prefer a glass of beer. The important thing is to be considerate... before friends start giving us the "busy signal."

 Sunday Service 11:00 A. M.

The essentially spiritual nature of all that is real and eternal will be emphasized at Christian Science services on Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Reality".
 Among the selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (335:27-29): "Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, immortal, divine, eternal. Nothing unspiritual can be real, harmonious, or eternal."
 The following passage will be read from the Bible (Psalms 33: 4, 5): "For the word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in truth. He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord."
 The Golden Text is from Psalms (119:12,18): "Blessed art

Wolverine State Rich in Native Legend States Wayne U. Folklore Specialist

Dr. Bruno Nettl of the Wayne University music staff prepares to give Ruth Nigl, Wayne student from Standish, instructions in the handling of a mandolin, popular folk instrument. Dr. Nettl is assisting Professor Thelma James (seated), head of the University's folklore project, in the recording of folk music for the archives.

The State of Michigan, particularly the Upper Peninsula, is full of native legend and folklore, according to Thelma James, professor of English at Wayne University and head of the University's folklore project.
 The project has as its aim the collection and archiving of the folklore (including folk music and crafts) of the ethnic groups of Michigan with special emphasis on Metropolitan Detroit.
 "There is a great amount of material right here in our own state which we do not have recorded. Professor James said "This year we are going to be primarily concerned with getting the folk music tape-recorded and the folk tales on file here at Wayne."
 Dr. Bruno Nettl of the Wayne music department will assist Professor James with the recording.
 Between 60 and 70 nationality groups are represented in Michigan, most numerous of which are the Poles, with the Finnish predominating in Northern Michigan. This state is a good illustration of the fact that America has grown from the Europeans. Professor James pointed out Old World lore moved into Michigan with each fresh immigrant settlement, and each colony contributed its own coloring to the folklore of the state.
 Although widely scattered, the groups tended to colonize and today the Dutch are found on the west shore around Holland. Mus-thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes . . . Open thou mine eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law."

WINNER TENTH NATIONAL SAFETY FOSTER CONTEST

PLYMOUTH WINS

FOR 1955 STYLING OVER "OTHER 2" LOW-PRICE CARS BY VOTE OF ALMOST 4 TO 1

THOUSANDS PREFER PLYMOUTH'S STYLING IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

A well-known independent research organization asked thousands of people—in New York, Chicago, Detroit, Atlanta, Dallas, Los Angeles—to compare the appearance of '55 models of the three low-price cars. Opinions were received from men and women—from people of all ages—from owners of all the different makes of cars. The results are below.

Best buy new; better trade-in, too!

HERE'S WHAT OTHERS THOUGHT OF PLYMOUTH!

Compared with low-price car "A"	Compared with low-price car "B"
Plymouth is better looking 62%	Plymouth is better looking 66%
Car "A" is better looking 16%	Car "B" is better looking 17%
Almost 4 to 1 in Plymouth's favor	Again, almost 4 to 1 for Plymouth!
(22% liked "both about the same")	(17% liked "both about the same")

HERE'S WHY YOU'LL PREFER PLYMOUTH, TOO!

Plymouth '55—with THE FORWARD LOOK—is the only low-price car to offer you honestly new styling, instead of a mere face-lifting. It's bigger than the "other 2" cars (longer than car "A" by 8.4 inches!). It's lower and sleeker, with a host of styling advances that wins the most applause in the lowest-price field. See everything Plymouth has to offer today!

Yes, the big swing is to Plymouth—See it today—drive it away!
