Area Women Honor Mrs. Atkins

As most of the folks in Clarkston and vicinity know, the Reverend and Mrs. R. M. Atkins are expecting to move to California this summer, most likely in June. They are looking forward to a much needed rest from many years of work in the Methodist Church.

The women in this area have appreciated the many kind gestures of Mrs. Atkins and to tell her that she has been an inspiration to the women of the community and to let her know that she will be greatly missed a committee went to the Atkins home last Sunday afternoon and presented Mrs. Atkins with a grey squirrel stole and a check. In her usual gracious manner Mrs. Atkins extended her thanks and said she will always cherish memories of her happy days in Clarkston and the many warm friends with whom it has been a pleasure to associate.

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Atkins will be held at the Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, May 20, from 3 to 5 o'clock. Everyone in the area is cordially invited.

Artists Named By Music Association

Waterford Township Civic Music Association announces a successful close to last week's membership campaign with an "Over the Top" sell-out. Five concerts are promised for the coming season, presenting the following artists: Blanche Theobald, leading mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company; Seymour Lipkin, brilliant young pianist, originally from Detroit; Gregory and Stone, dynamic dancer and virtuoso concertinist; Renno and Sylvia Rabinoff, violin and piano duo; The Engleklinder, unique musical family who sing, dance and play 120 instruments.

Mother

Many a line has been penned in vain
In effort to tell of mother's fame;
And many a voice has shouted clear
That mother was sweet and pure and dear.

And many a man in his later life,
After acquiring a family and wife,
Has recalled the time when he was young,
And of all the things his mother had done.

How many a man with a hoary head,
Before an audience has stood and said:
"All I am now, or I ever shall be,
Is due to the training mother gave me."

Yes, time without end, mankind vainly tried
To tell of the love she's exemplified;
But, none could describe that, something, that's hers,
That lives in men's hearts and memories stir.

God's not described by the stroke of a pen,
And love reigns supreme wherever He's been.
There's no way of telling, so others will know,
The thrill in vibrations where His forces flow.

So, mother, endowed with God's Holy power,
Brings hope to the world with each passing hour;
For she and her Maker are so much akin,
We but need think of her and visualize Him.

Home Extension Closes Year

On Thursday of last week 300 women of the Home Extension Clubs in the County gathered at the Congregational Church in Pontiac for the Annual Achievement Day. Shortly after ten o'clock in the morning Mrs. George Perry, County Chairman, extended a welcome to the large crowd. From then on it was a very busy but interesting day.

Many of the clubs were recognized for their accomplishments during the past year. Many clubs had worthwhile projects such as: buying wheel chairs for use at the Cancer Center; visiting and taking birthday cakes to those at the Infirmary; remembering those in the mental hospital and in the children's home; sponsoring a scholarship for a student in Okinawa; furnishing $150 for a blind person to attend the school for seeing-eye dogs and spending a few hours a week working at the Cancer Center in Pontiac.

Mrs. Joseph Hubbard of Clarkston was made an honorary member of the County Chairmen in recognition of her 35 years in Home Extension work. She was the first County Chairman.

In the morning Mrs. Hazel Dunlop of Hudson's Speaker Bureau talked on Decorative Tables for the Home. She made several beautiful centerpieces using copper and driftwood she had gathered on the shores of Lake Superior in the Upper Peninsula. Luncheon was served at noon in the church dining room. Many of the clubs exhibited their work of the past year. Some of the interesting articles were: copper jewelry, blouses, refinished furniture, rugs, aluminum trays and baskets.

In the afternoon Dr. David Treat, Director of the Clara Elizabeth Fund for Maternal Health, of Flint, gave a fine talk on "What Women Should Expect of Themselves as Wives and Mothers".

Miss Mary Eddy, Public Relations Assistant of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company demonstrated "Your Voice and You" by using a tape recorder. She explained how a person could have a pleasing telephone voice.

Several of the Clarkston Home Extension Group attended the day's program and report it was worth while and inspiring. Many are planning to attend the gathering at Waldenwoods in June.

He worked on the construction of Longyear City on Spitsbergen Island, the northernmost city in the world and then came to America as an emigrant. Gold in Alaska lured him and he struck it rich, only to land in a box at the San Francisco opera. With a full poke, the poke was empty after three months of hilarious living and he went back to Alaska to take up prospecting and trading again.

Only recently he continued his adventures - spending many months in Iceland. He is considered a top authority on Alaska, our last frontier.

Don't Be A Litterbug

Beautiful Clarkston, situated amid hills, lakes and streams, is in danger of becoming littered Clarkston unless everyone in the community is willing to take an active part in keeping our streets and roadsides clean. Rubbish, garbage and papers litter the lawns and roadsides both in and out of town. There is a state law which prohibits disposing of rubbish on a state highway, but our own pride in our surroundings should be a law unto itself.

The Clarkston Farm and Garden Club, at its annual meeting on Monday, voted to actively support the nation wide "anti-litterbug" campaign. Litter bags which may be hung in the car for the disposal of trash which may accumulate while traveling, may be obtained from Garden Club members at a nominal fee.

Other clubs are invited to join this campaign. Children can be taught to cooperate.

Remember the slogan: "Don't Be A Litterbug".

Nature made our township beautiful; let us keep it that way.

How spiritualization of thought brings man enlarged ability and opportunity will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals" at Christian Science services Sunday.
Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (265: 5-15): "Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual,—they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite,—in order that sin and mortality may be put off.

This scientific sense of being, forsaking matter for Spirit, by no means suggests man's absorption into Deity and the loss of his identity, but confers upon man enlarged individuality, a wider sphere of thought and action, a more expansive love, a higher and more permanent peace."

MOON TO BLUSH DURING MAY, SAYS U. S. ASTRONOMER

A blushing moon will be on display for stargazers in the middle of May, according to University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

The waxing moon around May 13 will be tinged with a pinkish glow on the dark section, which is turned away from the sun. This is called "earthshine" the professor points out.

"The faint light is caused by sunlight reflected from the Earth, which appears on the crescent moon as a great bright object about two degrees in diameter."

At the same time the bright planet Venus will be close by, Professor Losh notes, which will give the western sky a brilliant display.

Other bright planets will be

Saturn and Mars in the southeast. Mars will travel through the constellation Capricornus and enter Aquarius by the end of the month.

Among the constellations of interest this month, Professor Losh mentions Lyra, the Lyre.

which has in it the dazzling bluish star, Vega. Vega is the second brightest star visible from this latitude.

"This group with Vega is of special concern to us," says the astronomer, "because it is in this general direction that our Sun, dragging the planets along with it, is believed to be flying through space at twelve miles per second."

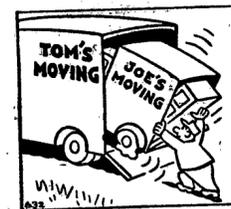

She points out that not only is this star the goal of the travel of our Solar System, but it is also the former and future Pole Star for the Earth.

"Fourteen thousand years ago Vega served in this capacity and in the course of another twelve thousand years will again play this important role," she says.

Our Pole Star will then be six times brighter than the present one at the handle of the Little Dipper, she adds.

Too bad we won't be around to see it!

DOUBLE DUTY FURNITURE AID NEW HOMEMAKER

This season, traditionally, is the busy one for the marriage license bureau, says Mrs. Frieda A. Bennett, Oakland County Home Demonstration Agent, and it certainly is a busy one for the bride-to-be. Among the most important of her pleasant tasks is the choosing of furnishings for her new home.

Most newly-wed couples spend at least the first few years of their married life in an apartment—but with an eye toward owning a home in the future. The smart bride will choose furniture for her apartment that she can later move into a more spacious house, Mrs. Bennett said.

Double duty pieces which are beautiful, yet functional, are decidedly an asset in a small apartment. Low tables that can also be used as seats, and storage pieces that are decorative and allow flexibility in room arrangement are very popular.

Even though she may have limited space, today's bride will still find it easy to express her personality in decorating her apartment. A good idea for the brand new homemaker is to buy "open stock" furniture. She can choose basic pieces which will fit into her apartment now and add to the group when she moves into a home.

A number of lines are available which offer chests and other pieces in a variety of sizes so that she can buy them to fit her requirements. Investigate, too, the pieces which are specially made to fit into the usually wasted corner space.

Italian provincial styling is the fashion news this year. Its straight, simple lines allow it to blend easily with modern or contemporary furniture. It is no longer a crime, by the way, to mix periods when you are furnishing a room. It is, however, necessary to make sure that the pieces harmonize.

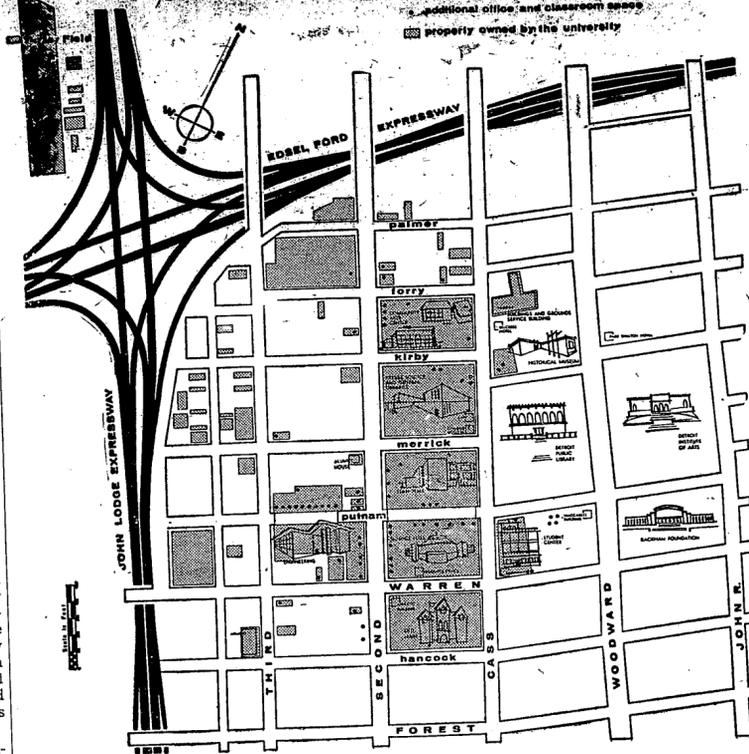

A sofa is a central feature of your living room setting and, in a small apartment, it could be a problem. Sectional sofas come to your rescue. They can be arranged in a number of ways to make the most use of the space allowed and even to create a feeling of greater space.

Loose back cushions are a trend in sofas today. The one-piece back is still very much in demand, of course, but a number of manufacturers are showing sofas with individual back cushions which bring a different look to your traditional sofa.

On the practical side, Mrs. Bennett said, many upholstered pieces are now treated with chemicals which make them easy to keep clean and which add to their life span. A finish has also been developed for wood pieces which makes them resistant to cigarette burns and spilled liquids.

The man in your life will probably join you on your shopping tour. And he won't let you forget that he wants comfort in his home. Today, more than ever, he can have it in furniture that is beautiful, yet built to last.

WAYNE UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

NEW STATE UNIVERSITY—Wayne University in Detroit with nearly 19,000 students joins the University of Michigan and Michigan State University as the third state university. Wayne's campus of 80 acres is located in the heart of the city's cultural center. The Detroit Public Library, Historical Museum, Institute of Arts and International Institute are within a two-block walk of the campus center. University officials expect expansion of the campus to reach 100 acres within a few years. Not pictured in the artist's drawing of Wayne's main campus is the College of Medicine campus of 16 acres located at the edge of downtown Detroit. Effective July 1, the University will be known as Wayne State University. Wayne with its ten schools and colleges is the 13th largest institution of higher education in the country. It was the largest municipally-owned university outside the city of New York. Wayne's beginning dates back to 1868.

RED CROSS NEWS
American Red Cross will sponsor nine aquatic and small craft

schools throughout the midwest this summer to develop new leaders for camp and community recreation programs, it was announced recently by Oakland County Chapter.

Owasippe Scout Camp at Whitehall is the Michigan location for the school. Mrs. Beulah Gundling, outstanding synchronized swimming champion of the United States will teach the synchronized swimming elective at Whitehall June 13-23.

Men and women 18 years and older interested in making application to attend one of the nine aquatic schools should contact the Oakland County Chapter House, 118 Franklin Blvd., Pontiac.

The cost of $50 includes board, lodging and materials. Training is available to representatives of organizations or to individuals who may attend at their own expense.

Students learn skills in water safety and preparation for instruction for camps, recreation departments and youth groups. A specialty school in small craft leadership training will be held from June 13 through 23 at Northwestern Military Academy, Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. Training will include skilled use of boats, canoes and small sailing craft.

It will also feature principles and methods of teaching and programming for camps, clubs and recreation departments.

USE SPRAY GUN WITH CAUTION

A spray gun can be a lethal weapon—unless it is handled with care, according to state health officials, who today issued a plea for caution in the use of insect poisons, which cause needless deaths each year in Michigan.

Anyone using insect sprays such as DDT, Lindane, Malathion and Chlordane, the state health department said, should wear protective clothing—coveralls, tight-fitting goggles, gloves and boots. Following the spraying, the department recommends a change of clothing and a warm shower to remove any of the poison dusts or mist which may have reached exposed parts of the body.

John C. Soet, department occupational health spokesman, added that organic phosphates—namely Parathion—should be handled with extreme care. Soet said a gas-mask respirator should be worn when using sprays of this type, "and if any discomfort whatsoever occurs during or following the use of the insecticide, you should get medical attention immediately."

"Several deaths occur every year because of careless use of insecticides," Soet warned. "Never open a package of insecticide without carefully reading the label, and then follow instructions. Otherwise, your spray gun may be lethal, not just to insects, but to yourself, a member of your family, or to livestock."

DON'T WORRY IF HEART SKIPS, SAYS U-M DOCTOR

Don't worry if your heart skips a beat now and then.

That's the advice of Dr. Franklin D. Johnston, professor of internal medicine and director of the heart station at the University of Michigan Medical School. He warns that excessive concern over your pulse or heart beat can turn you into a confirmed cardiac neurotic.

Many people with no heart disease have transient skipping or irregularities of the heart, the doctor explains; but individuals with symptoms of this kind should not jump to the conclusion that these sensations are indications of serious heart trouble.

Medically, these irregularities are known as extrasystoles. They are marked by peculiar "turning over" or "thumping" sensations in the region of the heart, or occasionally the upper chest or neck.

Some people are only aware of the irregularity when they feel their pulse at the wrist and soon become devoted pulse feelers, Dr. Johnston states. "This practice is a bad habit," he says, "worse than biting your finger nails."

If the symptoms prove persistent and annoying, the doctor suggests the individual concerned consult his physician, who will determine their significance and outline appropriate treatment, if any is needed.
