Fund Leaders Ask Support

In three weeks of calling on solicitors have raised only two- at the school. thirds of the $4,585 quota set for Independence Township. Campaign Chairman, Merle Bennett, reported a total of $3,100 in contributions and precises to the county headquarters, to date.

Despite the fact that average family income in the area is higher than that of most other Merry Mixers communities in the county, the pledges are dropping below those of other areas. Mr. Bennett believes that the quota dan be met by contributions from three sources. First, solicitors have been unable to contact all families, both in the village and the township. Residents who have not filled out a local pledge card can obtain one at the Clarkston State Bank, or by telephoning Mr. Bennett. One lady, who had not been reached by a solicitor telephoned the campaign chairman to ask if the drive was continuing. Told that it would remain open until everyone had an opportunity to contribute, she promptly sent in a check

The second source for additional funds to meet the quota Mrs. Roscal Lund, and Mr. and is among residents who can add to their pledges by one or two dollars. An average total contribution, advocated by Fundofficials generally, is equivalent to one day's earnings for the contributor. While this will necessarily vary from family to family, it is based on the financial support required to maintain the 30 or more agencies that depend on the United Fund.

can make collections at meetings for payment to the fund.

Additional contributions by individuals, businesses, or organizations can be made directly to Robert L. Jones, vice-president of The Clarkston State Bank, who is treasurer of the Independence United Fund.

Hunting has been part of man's life since earliest times. Man and dog should be together in fall months and should aim to reduce waterfowl populations, grouse populations, pheasant and rabbit populations. This is sometimes difficult to impress on wives. YOUR HOME NEWSPAPER We solicit the privilege of carrying such legal publications. This form of advertising is valuable to us. When you support us in this way we are able to give you a better paper each week. Either the probate court officers or your attorney will have your legal publication carried in The Clarkston News if you request it.

All matters handled through the Probate Court require a certain amount of legal publication in one of the county papers. Foreclosing a mortgage entails publication of the foreclosure notice in a county paper.
