Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (323:13-18): "In order to apprehend more, we must put into practice what we already know. We must recollect that Truth is demonstrable when understood, and that good is not understood until demonstrated. If "faithful over a few things" we shall be made rulers over many; but the one unused talent decays and is lost."

Faith in the FUTURE of AMERICA Faith in the future of America is part of The American Legion creed. Khrushchev and the Kremlin can do nothing to shake that faith, despite Sputnik and Muttnik. It stands as steadfast as our faith in Almighty God. "For God and Country" The American Legion was founded March 15-17, 1919, in Paris, France. Dedicated to the principles of justice, freedom and democracy, it has a national membership of almost three million veterans of three wars. The American Legion can take a rightful pride in its programs of Americanism, Child Welfare, Rehabilitation and National Security—all helping to build for America's future. We share this pride with the local post of The American Legion, one of 17,000 in this country helping to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation. HONOR ASSEMBLY

by Dixie Parks

Friday, February 28, our pep assembly was given in honor of our graduating senior basketball players. The assembly consisted of a rousing number of cheers along with the band and majorettes doing a special number.

After a short resume was given of each player's high school days they were presented with a miniature autographed basketball.

Also in the assembly the graduating varsity cheerleaders were surprised. They were presented with cheerleading pins from the remaining three varsity cheerleaders.

Another surprise came when Miss Mary Ann Spencer, the cheerleaders sponsor, was presented with a corsage of white carnations trimmed with blue and gold ribbon, from the two cheerleading squads.

The honor assembly took a lot of time and hard work to plan but it turned out to be one of the outstanding assemblies of the year.

CHARLEY JOINS THE ARMY

by Chuck Ferrand

Special agent Charley X, reporting from the planet earth to the planet Mars:

Greetings from Earth.

In my last report I explained that I was to be forced to join one of the earthlings defense corps. At that time however, I did not know how soon my military induction would become a reality. Last week I received from the government, a notice to appear at the local recruiting station. From here I was sent to an Army base to be dregged through some of the most ridiculous and rugged tests of physical and mental abilities that the earthlings brains could devise. To describe thoroughly and completely the torture and misery I have suffered recently would take a mind capable of using and devising many more superlatives and descriptive adjectives than I am able to extract from my humble vocabulary, but in my own way I shall attempt to enlighten you.

After a series of classification and aptitude tests which, in themselves, were enough to tire my small mind, I, along with several other recruits, was led to a building where we were forced to remove all of our clothing, can you imagine such a thing? Of course I made a terrific protest, but I fear it did little good, and in the course of events I fear that I was completely stripped of all protective raiment. We were told to walk in a line which seemed to be very odd to me, for there were several doctors observing our every move. This made me feel very uncomfortable and foolish. Soon, however, the real torture began, for we were stuck with needles from all directions. I have never seen anything more inhuman in my life. It appeared that the object in this maliciousness was to discover who was brave enough to withstand the agony of torture. My reasons for deducing this conclusion was the fact that the men made no particular ado over the fact that their bodies were being used for pin cushions. They seemed to bear the pain as much as possible without showing any sign of pain in their facial expressions. Therefore, I tried my best to conceal my own emotions

After the torture ordeal we were all led to a room where we were issued uniforms. After donning the, not too attractive, work suit, we found ourselves being put through a mass of obstacles to test our strength and physical abilities. Needless to say, I was dead on my feet when we finished. The termination of the day was close at hand and I soon found myself buried in a mountain of potatoes (one of the very popular foods on Earth), these I was instructed to peel, which I did for the next two hours, after which I climbed into bed for a much needed rest.

I will report further in my next letter.

Yours truly
Charley X

The Future Teachers have been busy planning a candy sale for March 14th at the school. Candy for this project will be donated by members of the club.

The club plans for Easter are not definite yet, but the subject of Easter baskets for the Children's Home is being considered.

At the present we find the club busy working on another project for the State Children's Home. They are sewing Halloween costumes for the children. The costumes are cut out by the people at the Home and sent to us to finish.

YEARBOOK IS COMPLETED

by Norm Powell

Clarkston High School's 1957-58 Hilltopper has been completed and is ready to be printed.

Those working on the Yearbook were: Diane Chapman, Dixie Parks, Frances Hancock, Ed. Eaglen, Chuck Ferrand, Nora Cornell, Lorraine Koneda, Janet Bullard, Norman Powell and Miss Benjamin, advisor.

The printed copies of the Yearbook are expected to be back in approximately 10 weeks.

JUNIOR PLAY TRYOUTS

by Norm Powell

Aspiring Thespians of C. H. S. will soon have a chance to have their acting talents shown as the Junior Play of 1958 is under way.

Currently the task of finding a play for production is being undertaken by co-directors, Miss Hilda Benjamin and Miss Marcia Klausner.

Two plays under consideration are "Men are Like Streetcars" adapted by Christopher Sayer from the novel by Graime and Sarah Lorinier and P. G. Woodhouse's "Uncle Fred Flits By".

Tryouts will be held soon and in addition to those wanting acting parts, students who wish to participate on publicity, make-up, or any other phase of the play are asked to attend tryouts.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

PLAN APRIL 3RD MEETING

Jehovah's Witnesses will celebrate the memorial of Christ's death, Thursday evening, April 3rd, in their Kingdom Hall at 4400 Walton Blvd., Drayton Plains, it was announced today by Mr. W. P. Strong, president, minister of the Pontiac North Congregation.

"This is exactly the same day of the year that Christ gave the unleavened bread and the wine to his Apostles at their last supper together 1925 years ago, following their celebration of the yearly passover feast", explained Mr. Strong. "Jesus there instituted the yearly memorial of his death as a ransom sacrifice, which occurred that same day."

The observance will begin with a discourse by Mr. Strong on the subject, "The Lord's Evening Meal". The meaning of the symbols of the bread and wine will be explained together with a discussion on who is eligible to partake. This will be followed by the passing of the bread first, then the wine. Songs and a prayer will close the service.

Mr. Strong said the time each year is determined by the rule for the passover God gave to Moses. It was the 14th day of the Jewish month Nisan, which month begins with the new moon nearest the spring equinox.

This year that day falls on April 3rd after 6 P. M. Jehovah's Witnesses in 1958 will observe the memorial at this time.

celebration will be a special service Sunday, April 6 at 4 P. M. at Kingdom Hall. Mr. H. E. Shalton will speak on the subject, "A New Song For All Men Coupled with the Lord's Supper of Good Will."

D. A. R. CHAPTER HAS ANNUAL MEETING

General Richardson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met recently at the Pontiac Y. W. C. A. for its annual meeting. Acting as hostesses were Mrs. J. C. Haynes, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Harry Yoh and Mrs. Orrin Huntoon of Clarkston, also Mrs. Norman Boyd, Mrs. E. V. Howlett, Mrs. Ida St. John McRoberts, Mrs. R. H. Wilson, Mrs. M. H. Hazelwerdt, Mrs. Fred Lee, Mrs. Alfred Smith, Mrs. Harry Going, Mrs. Fred Upthegrove and Miss Ella Smith. The committee served dessert from a lace-covered table with carnations and candles in green and white as a centerpiece.

The annual reports showed an active year, the chapter participating in various D. A. R. and community projects.

Miss Margaret Steward, community activities chairman said members had given 3463 hours during the year. The members served youth organizations, United Fund, Red Cross, Wisner Foundation and other community projects including hospitals, Mrs. Robert H. Wilson of Rochester having given weekly service to the county hospital on Telegraph Road.

As usual the chapter distinguished itself in the copying of unpublished material of historical and genealogical value. The typed material totaled 1920 records of wills, pensions, deeds, family data, the register covering 1864 to 1881 of the Methodist Church of Walled Lake and Commerce and probate cases of Oakland County. Alice Serrell copied early probate records which are bound and will be presented to three genealogical libraries in Michigan and Washington, D. C. Mrs. E. V. Howlett prepared 900 records of Oakland County pioneer families which makes about 100,000 of these records prepared by her in the past years.

Miss Agnes Hilton, the historian reported that two flags had been presented and historical essays on famous Americans submitted by school children. A marker for the grave of William Nathan Terry, a revolutionary soldier buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Pontiac, has been placed.

Mrs. W. F. Todd is chairman of the committee on citizenship and the naturalization courts are attended by her and her committee. Copies of the Bill of Rights and flag codes have been given to the new citizens at the courts. D. A. R. manuals for citizenship are given for the use of citizenship classes, 92 having been presented this year. This manual is accepted as one of the best texts on citizenship. Junior American Citizens Clubs are sponsored by the chapter in some of the schools.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—SENATOR CHARLES E. POTTER (right) and Representative Robert P. Griffin (left), Michigan Republicans, look on as Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield explains a blueprint for remodeling a Michigan post office. The meeting was the first of a series of dramatic "boost Michigan" conferences set up by Senator Potter with Cabinet officials as part of his continuing effort to enlist top-level Administration aid in bringing jobs and industry into the State. Summerfield assured the lawmakers that "a great majority" of Michigan's 777 post offices will benefit from the proposed nation-wide building and modernization plan.

at present there are 28 clubs with a membership of about 800. The clubs teach junior citizenship at home, school, community and country. Since it is customary to have a patriotic name the club at the Sarah McCarroll School in Pontiac is called the Fighting Paul Reveres. They sent seven members to the chapter meeting and gave a program of songs, accordion solos and a recitation.

March 17, 18 and 19 will be the annual Michigan D. A. R. conference in Detroit at the Statler Hotel. On the 19th Good Citizens from Michigan will be guests of the State D. A. R. for a meeting and luncheon at the Women's City Club. Attending from Clarkston will be Ann Lowrie, chosen last December with six other girls from area high schools to represent the chapter as Good Citizens. At this meeting the Michigan Good Citizen will be announced.

The regent, Mrs. Lloyd Porter, and several members will attend this conference.

YOUNG WOMEN TRAIN

Twenty-four young ladies attending Ferris Institute are training in a program which will prepare them for the career field of the Physicians Office Assistant.

There is much demand for a trained person to assist the doctor in his office. This assistant does not need to be a nurse or a medical technologist, but she needs to have a general knowledge and selected skills from these fields. In order to provide trained personnel for this need, Ferris conducts a two-year Physicians' Office Assistant program, which combines specialized technical courses with general education courses.

The student is introduced to biology, physiology, topographical anatomy, and physical science and at the same time learns shorthand and typewriting and the conduct, etiquette and ethics of the physicians' office. As her training advances the student receives the major portion of her work in the specific technical studies in her field. In the secretarial aspect she receives medical shorthand and transcription, medical office record keeping, and medical office practice. She is introduced to medical terminology and gains practice in the dictation and transcription of case histories, medical manuscripts and scientific articles. She also is given instruction in appointment making, telephone courtesy, billing and collection procedures and office maintenance. Opportunities for practice in nurse-aid techniques also are provided the POA student. She gains laboratory experience in preparing patients for examinations, techniques in bandaging, methods of sterilization, preparation of sterile supplies, and care of instruments, and she learns the care and use of equipment found in the laboratory of the physician's office. Training in the specialized area is conducted in a laboratory-classroom especially outfitted with the instruments and equipment of the physician's office. In her final quarter, the student is scheduled for field experience in offices for an internship to learn further how her theoretical knowledge and laboratory experience can be applied in a practical way. On completion of the program, she is given the Associate of Applied Science Degree

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield warned in Flushing, New York, that to take the "priceless heritage" of religious liberty for granted "could be the first step to losing it". He spoke at a special ceremony marking the issue of a new three-cent stamp honoring freedom of religion. The occasion was the three-hundredth anniversary of the Flushing Remonstrance, which the stamp commemorates. This was a protest by citizens of Flushing, New York, against an edict by Dutch Governor Peter Stuyvesant banning Quakers.

MICHIGAN BELL

TELEPHONE lines

WINTER always reminds us of the famous picture called "Spirit of Service," showing a telephone line-man walking on snowshoes through a blizzard. It may come as a surprise to the folks who mostly see our men riding by in heated cab trucks, but in many Michigan areas our men still must use snowshoes occasionally to reach lines in open country. And those fellows still get a kick out of it because they know they're making it possible for you to phone anyone, any place, any time.

IF HE COULD LIVE THAT LONG, a fellow could expect to work in Michigan Bell's plant department—building lines, installing and repairing phones, and so on—for about 900 years without an injury that would keep him off his job. That's just another way of saying our company's Safety Report for 1957 shows that only 1 fellow out of 900 didn't show up for work because of an accident. Of course, we'd rather have a record of none out of 900 . . . that's our goal. And that's why our Safety Supervisors keep reminding: "make sure the pole's safe before you climb it"; "lift with your legs, not your backs"; "get out of your car on the sidewalk side—not on the side where you'll step into traffic."

HAVE YOU NOTICED how much steeper those stairs get when you're tired? How many miles do you travel each year up and down stairs—or from one end of the house to the other—to answer the phone? Nowadays this is an unnecessary waste of energy and time. You can have an additional phone anywhere in your home for about one dollar a month. Last year Michigan Bell installed 66,000 telephones in homes which already had at least one phone. Join the families who have discovered how much pleasanter life is with extension phones. To order yours just call our Business Office.

Seymour Lake News

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Notch and daughter, Paula, of Pontiac, moved to their new home on the east shore of Seymour Lake on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McIntyre accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Carner of Pontiac were Sunday guests of Wesley Walter and sister, Mrs. Pearl Urch in Fowlerville.

Mrs. Elroy Scott is confined to her bed with virus pneumonia.

Clarkston Locals

Mrs. Michael Hart and daughter, Patty Jo, of Holcomb Road, are spending two weeks in Florida.

Paul's Good Food, corner of US 10 and M-15, has moved to the Plaza in South Flint, a new shopping center.

Mrs. Charles Robertson of 30 N. Holcomb Street was honored at a pink and blue shower on Saturday evening by Miss Sue Shanks and Mrs. Gus Birtsas at the Birtsas' home.

Ed Shadowen, who recently moved from Clarkston to make his home in Mentor, Ohio, was a guest at the home of Doug DeGrow over the past week-end.

Clarkston girls, Nancy Knox and Ann Wright, had a happy evening on Saturday when Ronnie Swift and Walter Brown escorted them to the J Hop at Albion College.

Mrs. Mary C. Balton of Buffalo, New York, returned to her home on Sunday after an enjoyable visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kraud and two children of Wealthy Street.

Happy Helpers 4-H Club met on Wednesday evening at the home of their leader, Mrs. Leslie Johnson, on Flemings Lake Road, to ready their entries for the Dress Review to be held on March 29th at Eastern Junior High School in Pontiac. Blue ribbons will be awarded for sewing skill, modeling, and suiting costume to the personality and needs of the model. This club has ten active members who have worked hard all winter on their various projects.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson Jr., of Cramlane are the proud parents of a new baby daughter, Cynthia Joen, born on February 14th. Grandparents are Mrs. Eva Jones of Royal Oak, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson of Berkley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rodriguez celebrated their third wedding anniversary at a dinner at Frankenmuth last Saturday. Along with them was their daughter, Terry Sue, and Mrs. Rodriguez' mother, Mrs. Carl Schmidt. Following dinner they went to Bay City before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Keech of Snowapple Drive had guests in for cards and supper on Saturday evening to help them celebrate their 11th wedding anniversary.

Betsy Osgood entertained 14 girls at her home on North Main Street on Saturday evening for games and a midnight supper. Then into pajamas and some talk and a little sleep. Mrs. Osgood served breakfast to the group on Sunday morning, then the girls went home for a bit more sleep.

Mrs. James Cowen was honored at a stork shower recently when Mrs. Richard Surro entertained in her home on Princess Lane. The 18 guests present enjoyed playing cards and later the hostess served refreshments from a delightfully decorated buffet that carried out the pink and blue theme even to the delicious pink salad.

Large feature gardens will highlight the Michigan Flower and Home Show at the Michigan State Fair Grounds from March 22-30. There will be more of them and a greater variety than ever before according to Werner Hoy, general manager of the show. He announced that advance sale tickets may be purchased at a great saving from florists, garden club members and leading department stores. The show will be open from 12 noon to 11 P. M. weekdays and from 10 A. M. to 11 P. M. on Saturday and Sunday.
