John Miller returned home last week from a vacation in Florida. He visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hindman, former Waterford folks, who now make their home in Zephyr Hills. Mr. Hindman will be remembered as "Gramps" who drove the school bus for so long during the time Mr. Miller was the school custodian. Mr. Miller who was south for a month, flew both ways. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tribfelner of Bay City were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beebe. The two boys are in the service, one in Oklahoma and the other here in Michigan. They were both home on leave and able to be here Sunday together. Mrs. George Whitfield will entertain the ladies of the Good Will Club this Friday, April 18, at 12:30. Mrs. Willard Stephens will assist her. Mr. and Mrs. August Jacober are expected to return home this weekend after spending the winter in Arizona. Mr. Jacober has been ill in the hospital in Phoenix but is now out and their son, who lives in Phoenix is driving his parents home and leaving there Wednesday for the trip here. Mrs. George Dean returned home Wednesday from a two weeks plane trip to California. She went out to see their son RD/3 Bob Dean who was on the U. S. S. Monticello stationed at San Diego, before he shipped out to go to Enitewok, Ireland, for missile practice and bombing. While there she visited several friends in and around Los Angeles and also visited Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Boyle, former Waterford folks, who moved to Escondido, Cal., last June. She attended last Monday night's Lawrence Welk broadcast at the ABC studio in Hollywood. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Esser (Joan Kray) of Sylvan Lake are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Richard Kray, on Tuesday, April 8th, at St. Joseph's Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Esser of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kray of Waterford. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Minton (Nancy Dickman) are the parents of a son, Brian Lee, born April 5th at St. Joseph's Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Minton and Mrs. Janice Dickman are the grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mehler and Mrs. Gladys Watchpocket attended the dedication of the new elementary school in Leonard on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Mehler made their home in Leonard when they were first married and Mr. Mehler was the school principal there. Mrs. Bessie Owen has returned home after spending several weeks in Texas where she visited with her cousins, the Lee Chamberlains. Her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chamberlain, drove her down and back on their trip to California. Mrs. P. L. McLaughlin left on Monday to spend the summer near St. Ignace, where she will assist Mr. McLaughlin with their restaurant and cabins during their busy months. Between fifty and sixty members and former members of the Waterford Women's Club attended the first reunion of the club held last Thursday evening in the C. A. I. Building. A chicken dinner at 6 o'clock was followed by an interesting program. The dining room and tables carried out the spring and Easter colors both in flowers and decorations. Mrs. Lena Ryan, club president gave the welcome and the invocation. Linda Byington sang a solo and read a poem entitled, "What's Become of Grandma's Cooking". Two pantomime acts depicting Elvis Presley and Pat Boone were given by Paul McMichael and Mrs. Bea Stevens read the club's history. A gay nineties quartet composed of Mrs. Mary McFarland, Mrs. Anne Streeter, Mrs. Bessie Byington and Mrs. Chloe Correll, in costume, sang several numbers. Letters from several members who live away and were unable to attend were read by Mrs. Lucille McMichaels. Mrs. Arlene Walters acted as master of ceremonies and also accompanied the gay nineties quartet on the piano. Mrs. Ida Beattie was presented with a plant for being the oldest member in attendance and Mrs. Jo Stites also received a plant for coming the greatest distance. LOOKING AHEAD

by Dianne Chapman

During the next week, several events of importance to the residents of the Clarkston area will take place at the Clarkston High School.

The annual School Carnival, sponsored by the Student Council, is scheduled to take place on Friday evening, April 18, starting at 7:30. Class sponsored concessions will be in operation, plus a special presentation by the Junior Thespians, the freshman-sophomore dramatics group under the guidance of Mr. Richard Urban. The Thespians have planned a short comedy, "The Pair of Lunatics".

The Junior-Senior Banquet will be held the following night Saturday, April 19, starting at 7:00. The featured speaker will be Mr. William Coulos, former director of the Pontiac Boys Clubs. The class history will be presented by Barbara Rockwell and Gail Weston. Entertainment will be furnished by the girls trio, composed of Diane Taylor, Anita Hadrill and Jackie Brown.

On Friday, April 25, the Junior Class Play, under the direction of Miss Marcia Klausner and Miss Hilda Benjamin, will be presented in the high school auditorium at 8:00.

The play, a comedy in three acts, promises to be very entertaining. It concerns a teen-age girl who has developed a sure-fire method for handling men. How she "solves" her men problems through the use of her system and subsequently finds herself alienated by her family, form the basis for an hilarious evening of enjoyment.

Graeme and Sarah Lorimer are the authors of this play which contains an abundance of riotous scenes and clever quips.

The cast includes: Pat Crosby as Mrs. Mason; Joe Courier as Mr. Mason; Char Wilson as Maude; Barbara Jackson as Sylvia and Chuck Hancock as Davy.

New Food Boosts Trout

It's feeding time at the Conservation Department's Wolf Lake fish hatchery as some hungry trout get a serving of dry food pellets. Development of this pelleted fish food has doubled fish plantings because the new food produces faster growth at less expense than former methods. During 1957, some 2,500,000 hatchery trout were released in Michigan lakes and streams.

Bald Eagle Hotel installs electric heat

Nick Masters, Reid Electric; Rex Shepherd, Detroit Edison; and Ed Brooks of Madison Electric get the insulation story from Art Booth of Booth Insulation Company.

As another step in modernizing this landmark on M-15, Al and Cass Rykowski have installed electric heating throughout.

Today, the temperature of each room can be thermostatically controlled to the liking of its occupants. For complete adequacy, 22 electric heating units were used in the hotel. They, together with proper insulation and modernized wiring, will give comfort to the patrons of the hotel for years to come.

If you are thinking of modernizing or installing a new heating system in your place of business or home, we urge you to consider the electric way. For electric heating advice, just call your local Edison Office.

Rough Weather for Deer

Deep snow and cold weather mean trouble for deer in areas where the animals are too numerous for the available food supply. Starvation often results in areas where heavy snow prevents whitetails from ranging out to find food when nearby browse is exhausted. Planned forestry cuttings near deer yards during winter months help ease the problem because deer feed on the tops left by timber operations.

THE TIDE IS TURNING, BUT . . .
Recent news about the fight against mental illness has been encouraging indeed. More mentally ill patients are recovering. More research into the cause, prevention and cure of mental illness is getting underway. More communities are providing facilities for early detection, early treatment and rehabilitation. We can safely say that the tide is beginning to turn in the fight against mental illness. But, as we rejoice, let us also remember that there is no massive breakthrough yet. The gains are real, but they are small. Mental illness still remains the nation's number 1 health problem.

There are still 750,000 patients in our mental hospitals, with thousands more coming all the time. There are still 16,000,000 other Americans suffering from some form of mental disorder and in need of psychiatric care. There are still tens of thousands of recovered mental patients in danger of breaking down again because they cannot get a welcome, a home and a job.

During Mental Health Week, April 27 to May 3, the National Association for Mental Health is attempting to mobilize citizen interest and action in behalf of the mentally ill who have been neglected so long. Remember with your help, the mentally ill can come back.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Grown-up "Kid Stuff"

The kids around here are sure pulling a lot of weight with local businessmen these days.

For instance, Monk McCarthy has collected and patched old inner tubes all winter. He'll pass them out for the swimming hole season—with this stenciled on: "Courtesy of McCarthy Auto Service."

And Mr. Troy, over at the bank, has put in three new shiny high chairs—for visiting mothers to park their kids in. There's a sign over the chairs: "Save

now for a happy future."

From where I sit, I like the way people take to new ideas to promote their business. It shows that they are open-minded. We all could stand a little more of it in our personal lives too. For example, you may prefer tea or buttermilk to my choice of a glass of beer. But if we're "open-minded" we accept the other fellow's choice.

HAVE PETS IMMUNIZED AGAINST RABIES

The state health department is carefully watching for signs of a rabies epidemic in wildlife around the Sault Ste Marie area, where two cases of rabies in animals have been reported recently.

So far there is no indication that an epidemic situation exists, according to Dr. Donald B. Cohoon, state health department veterinarian.

The first of the two Sault Ste. Marie rabies cases was in an unvaccinated domestic cat that had been a pet for several years of a family living about five miles south of the Sault. The cat suddenly bit a 12-year old boy in the family when he reached down to pet the animal. The cat was found to be rabid, and the boy is receiving the Pasteur series of anti-rabies injections.

The second case was a wild fox that attacked a pet dog tied to a kennel at the Camp Lucas radar station at the south edge of Sault Ste Marie. The dog's owners shot and killed the fox and at the same time fatally wounded their dog.

The vast majority of pet dogs in Sault Ste. Marie and surrounding Chippewa County are believed to be vaccinated against rabies as a result of a voluntary immunization campaign conducted last summer, according to Dr. Cohoon, and until this year there had been no rabies reported in the entire Upper Peninsula since 1940, when a Chippewa County horse died of rabies.

State health department rabies specialists believe the two recent cases at the Sault could have resulted from diseased wild animals crossing the frozen St. Mary's River from Canada during the past winter. Rabies has been widespread in wildlife on the Canadian side of the Sault for several recent years.

Up to April 8, Michigan had recorded two other rabies cases in addition to those in Chippewa County, making a total of four for the year.

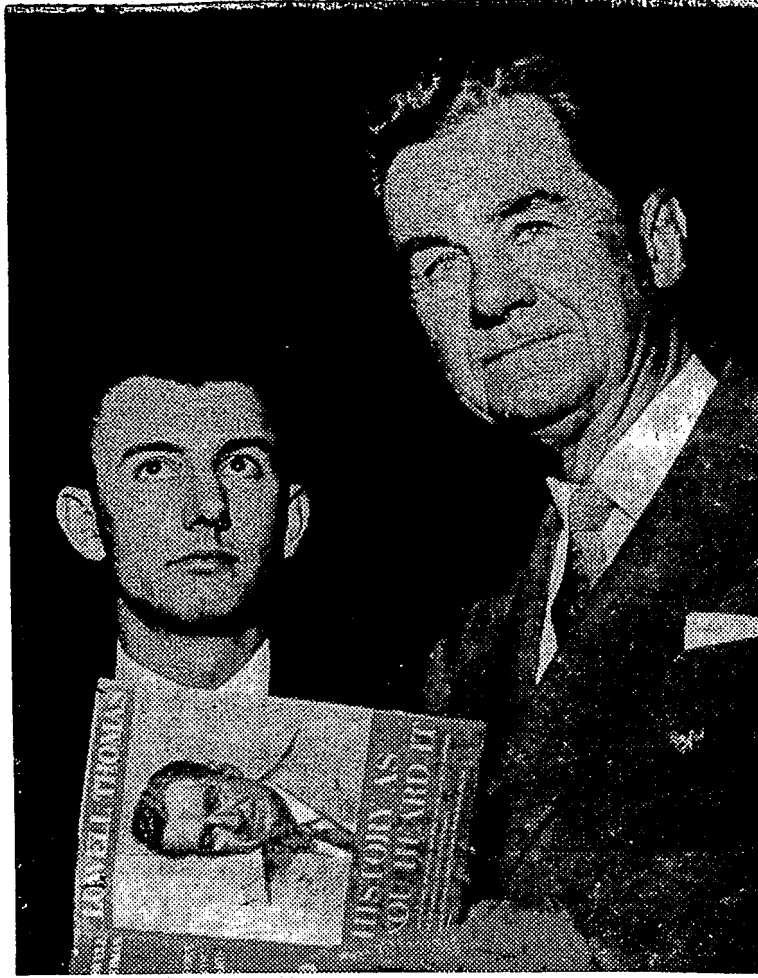

One of the other cases was that of a wild skunk killed as it attacked a farmer while he was working in his barn near Harbor Beach.

The fourth case involved an unvaccinated hunting dog that died when its owner brought it home to Detroit after boarding it for several months at a kennel in southern Ohio. The Ohio county where the kennel is located has reported eight animal rabies cases and one human rabies death so far in 1958.

Because of the danger of rabies being transmitted by infected domestic animals to humans, Dr. Cohoon urged all dog and cat owners to have their pets immunized against rabies.

He added that humans should take special care to avoid contacting wild animals that appear to be friendly. Unnatural behavior such as friendliness to humans may mean the animal is rabid.

Dr. Cohoon also advised that if a person is bitten by a wild animal the animal should be captured or destroyed, and the person's physician and the local health department should be notified immediately. If the animal must be destroyed, its head should be kept intact so laboratory tests can be made on its brain to determine if it was rabid.
