CHRIST LUTHERAN USES

The congregation at Christ Lutheran Church, Airport and Williams Lake Rds., will be using a new Lutheran Hymnal and Ser vice book next Sunday, January 18, at the 11:00 a.m. Worship Hour. During the past two months the four choirs of the Church, the organizations, and the entire congregation has been rehearsing the service and making plans for its introduction next Sunday. The music of the congregation is tin Wager and Mrs. John Wiley.

Arvid E. Anderson is the pastor The New Lutheran Hymnal and Service Book is a result of over 12 years of work by leaders from eight major Lutheran bodies in America. These are the eight bodies that comprise the National Lutheran Council and represent about 5,000,000 Lutherans in America. The Hymnal contains over 600 hymns of many traditions and origins. Some of them go back to the tunes of early centuries and others are of modern American origin. The New Service for worship will mean that the majority of Lutheran congregations in America will be using the same worship form. Pastor Arvid E. Anderson has

No "narrow-gauge" car hugs the road like PONTIAC!

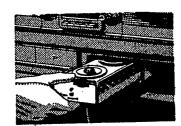

Road-test the only car with Wide-Track Wheels

Behind the wheel of a Pontiac you enjoy a feeling of security you've never known in all your years of driving. With the widest stance on the road and a low, low center of gravity, Pontiac clings to the curves without lean or sway. And the same great advance gives Pontiac a decided edge over other cars in the way it smooths the bumps and holds straight and true against crosswinds. Try it and see!

D. A. R. CHAPTER OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

January is the 59th anniversary of the organization of General Richardson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution The occasion was observed with a luncheon meeting at Ted's Restaurant, with members of the state D. A. R. Board as guests. Those attending were the state regent, Mrs. Roy V Barnes of Royal Oak; from Plymouth was Mrs. Harry N. Deyo, chaplain; from Ferndale, Mrs. Gilbert K. Pulliam, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William H. DeGraff, treasurer, from Birmingham; and Mrs. Bradley D. Scott, librarian, of Pontiac. Others were: Mrs. Robert F. Watt, regent of Piety Hill chapter, Birmingham and Mrs. Lucius Howlett of Sylvan Lake.

Miss Ora Hallenbeck was chairman of the hostess committee and was assisted by Miss Ella Smith, Mrs. Frank Gerls. Mrs. E. V. Howlett, Mrs. William Kalwitz and Mrs. E. G. Clark. Blue and white, D. A. R. colors, were used for the decorations with candles and a centerpiece of blue iris and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Barnes was the speaker and used as her theme, "Communist's Top Target", the Walter McCarran law passed in 1952 providing the immigration quota basis and ever since a communist target. An attempt is continuously made to weaken the law by amendments or its

Some 94,587 cords of aspen timber were harvested and skidded out of Michigan's state-owned forests during the 1958 fiscal year which ended June 30. Aside from the aspect of conversion into which ended June 30. Aside from the aspect of conversion into salable commodities, the cuttings are of two-fold significance. Commercially valueless tops and limbs from these cuttings are left at harvest sites to provide a ready and welcome browse supply for deer. These winter cuttings coincide with the peak season of food scarcity. Revenue from timber sales is pumped into the state treasury for subsequent financing of reforestation programs; pulpwood receipts totaled $179,863 last year.

This is one of those rare occasions when you can get the well-known, popular Van Heusen Century at a price far lower than you'd ordinarily pay. And of course, you know they're good shirts because they're Van Heusens. These are the shirts that have the one piece collar that won't wrinkle . . . the shirts that launder so beautifully and look so trim. Sizes from 14 to 17 but not in every style and color. Replenish your shirt wardrobe now at this low $2.99.
