Local Boy Scouts Win First Prize

Clarkston Boy Scouts did a fine job of selling tickets for the Manitou District Scout Show at the C. A. I. Building in Waterford last Saturday. Parents and friends were impressed by the many interesting exhibits. This is the first time the local Scouts have participated in the show and they were thrilled when they brought back first prize. Scoutmaster Jack Frost of Troop 126 described their exhibit as a six hundred pound pile of logs and a thousand feet of rope erected into a fifteen foot tower. The rest of the day the Scouts demonstrated the sturdiness of the tower by climbing up and down it in droves. After the show it was dismantled and taken to the Kobra farm on Alden Road where it will again be erected for this week-end camp-out. Scoutmaster Jack Frost and Cubmaster Virgil VanHorn were presented with their trophies at the annual district meeting and banquet on Tuesday evening.

Methodist Church Scene Of Wedding

The altar of the First Methodist Church was bedecked with white and pink flowers and cathedral candles for the wedding of Carol Judith Walker of Clarkston and Kenneth Arthur Morris Jr. of Holland, Mich., last Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harland Walter of 30 Orion Road and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs.

MRS. KENNETH A. MORRIS, JR.

Kenneth Morris of Niles.

The Reverend William J. Richards read the double-ring marriage rites before two hundred guests.

Mrs. Jack Skarritt presided at the organ for the traditional music and also accompanied Jim Nelson of Traverse City who sang "Because" and "I Love Thee" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" while the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride was charming in a white, antique taffeta gown featuring long sleeves, a scoop neckline, and a bouffant skirt with a brush train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of lace. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of white roses, pink miniature roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. James Kesterke of Royal Oak, as matron of honor, was in pink chiffon over taffeta, styled with three-quarter sleeves, a cowl neckline, an empire waistline and a full skirt.

Miss Adeline Giacabone of Detroit and Miss Patricia Woodard of Parma, as bridesmaids, wore pink organza fashioned the same as the matron of honor's gown except they had the regular waistline and deep hemlines.

All three attendants carried semi-cascade bouquets of Louisiana carnations.

Donald MacCormick of Kalamazoo assisted Mr. Morris as best man and seating the guests were the bridegroom's brothers, Robert and Conrad Morris of Niles.

Little Miss Isabel Robinson of Clarkston was the flower girl. She carried a bouquet similar to the bridesmaids' except hers was a miniature.

Little four-year old John Whitmer carried the rings on a white satin pillow. He wore a navy blue suit with short pants.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Pat Neisley and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Conrad Morris, both of Niles, presided at the silver services. Mrs. Lloyd Sibley of Clarkston cut the large five-tiered wedding cake and Mrs. Guy Littleton had charge of the punch.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a mauve lace dress with matching accessories and a corsage of rubrum lilies. The bridegroom's mother was in blue with beige accessories and a corsage of pink miniature roses and a white orchid.

When the young couple left for a honeymoon in Canada the bride was wearing a sheath dress of black pique with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses. On their return they will reside in Holland, Michigan.

LUTHERANS CONDUCT WEEK-END RETREAT

The Eastern Michigan District Churchmen of the Augustana Lutheran Church will conduct a week-end retreat for the men of the District on May 8 and 9. Scene of the retreat will be Camp Ohyesa near Highland. Churchmen from 14 congregations of the eastern Michigan area will attend. Retreat director is Charles Sitton, President of the District Churchmen and a member of Christ Lutheran Church of Waterford. Main speaker at gathering will be Dr. O. V. Anderson, President of the Central Conference of Augustana Lutheran Church. Dr. Anderson heads up the work of the Conference which is composed of 180 congregations in the central states.

One hundred men are expected to attend the retreat that will include discussions, fellowship, recreation and worship. The meditation on Friday evening will be given by Pastor Wesley Samuelson of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Grand Rapids. Ten other pastors and laymen will participate in the leadership of the week-end program. Mr. Edward McLaughlin, a member of the Waterford Church, is the registrar for the Retreat.

SEEN AND NOT HURT

Children should be seen and not hurt is another way of reminding motorists to use their eyes to prevent tragedy. Spring and summer release children from indoors and often turn sidewalks into playgrounds. A child at play has no thought of safety. It's up to the driver to be alert to save a child who dashes blindly into a street from becoming a twisted traffic victim.

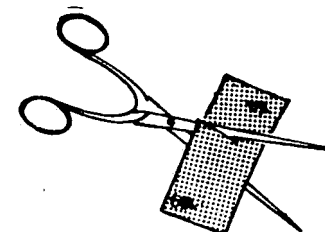

48 Young People In Confirmation Class

 Not Shown: Jacqueline Leonard, John Heinzelman.

Forty-Eight Young People participated in the Confirmation Class program of First Methodist Church under the direction of their pastor, Reverend William J. Richards. The young people were divided into four Sunday morning classes taught by Mrs. Howard Huttenlocher, Mrs. Gray Robertson, Messrs. Kuga and Takao Kojima. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyns served as Registrars throughout the 6 week period of training. Assisting the pastor at the three Confirmation Worship Services on a recent Sunday morning were Mr. Everett Butters, Lay Leader, Mr. Stanley White, General Superintendent of the Church School, Mr. Jackson Byers and Mr. Robert Jones. Following the late Service a Coffee Hour and Reception was held for the group, and in the afternoon a beautiful candlelight Communion Service was held with Reverend Richards officiating. This was the largest group of new members ever to be received into the church family at one time. The membership of First Methodist Church now has increased to 834 active members. During this last year the church has enjoyed an average attendance of 420 at its three Sunday Morning Worship Services not including the 1262 who attended Easter Sunday and the 710 who attended the Sunday Christmas Services. These Classes attended a Spiritual Life Retreat with the Intermediate Fellowship of First Methodist Church on a recent weekend when 86 young people and counselors were present. The Retreat was led by the pastor, Reverend William J. Richards, Mr. Dean Voltmer, Intermediate Youth Fellowship Counselor, and Mr. John Rozboom, Flint Director. The Retreat was held at Lake Huron Methodist Camp on a bluff overlooking beautiful Lake Huron. One of the most beautiful moments of religious inspiration was the Candlelight Communion Service on Saturday evening followed by an hour of Sacred Silence during which no word was spoken throughout the whole camp. Just before leaving on Sunday afternoon the young people with their counselors went up to the chapel overlooking the lake, and knelt at the Altar and prayed. With this stirring moment their life began in the fellowship of God within his church.

CAUTION CHILDREN ABOUT CONTACTS WITH STRANGERS
 With the arrival of spring and the increase in child molestation cases that always accompany the warm weather season, Sgt. L. H. Ahlgrim, commander of the Pontiac Post of the Michigan State Police, is advising parents to caution their children about the danger of contacts with strangers and offering several suggestions for their protection.
 Sex offenses against children reach their peak during the months when schools are dismissed for the summer vacation. Although the offenses investigated by the State Police decreased two per cent last year, the number involved nevertheless should be a warning to parents, Sgt. Ahlgrim said. July led with 71 complaints investigated. August was second with 59 and June and September had 57 each.

A sharp increase occurred in April last year with 54 compared to 29, 33 and 32 for the preceding three months. The decline was just as marked in November and December, with only 31 and 24 respectively. A similar pattern has been noted each year according to State Police records.

The child molestation problem is actually a much bigger menace than the figures indicate, in that a large percentage of incidents are never reported to the police by parents for fear of publicity or the possibility of harm coming to their children.

Names, however, are never used by the press, radio and television except in cases of murder, and if all incidents were reported, police would have a much better opportunity to apprehend offenders and offenses would be greatly reduced.

"It will pay parents to take the time to explain to their children the advice they should follow to prevent such crimes taking place", said Sgt. Ahlgrim.

In the first place, he pointed out, it is important for children to understand that police officers are their friends and protectors, and should report to them any strangers seen loitering around schools, playgrounds, or neighborhoods, and at public comfort stations.

Despite all safeguards, however, children often encounter depraved men and women who attempt to entice them to become victims of their immoral and criminal sex behavior. As a defense against such an unfortunate experience, Sgt. Ahlgrim presents the following list of "don'ts" and "do's" for parents to tell their children:

1. Don't accept rides or go for walks with strangers. Always know the person you are with.
2. Whenever you are offered money, candy, ice cream or any other gifts by strangers, don't accept them.
3. When you meet strangers walking or in cars, don't stop and talk with them.
4. Don't play or walk close to roads or streets. Use sidewalks whenever they are available. Stay a safe distance from strangers at all times to avoid being touched or grabbed.
5. Whenever a stranger offers you employment, don't accept the job or go along with him until you have had a talk with your parents and they have given their approval.
6. Don't permit strangers to join you during play hours at school or home.
7. Don't permit strangers sitting next to you in a movie theater to touch your clothes or body. If possible, take a pal along.
8. If necessary for you to use a public toilet, don't wait or loiter around afterwards. Immediately leave and find a safer place to spend your time.
9. Don't walk or play along in alleys, deserted buildings and other places. Always have some pals along.
10. If any strangers or pals ask you to disobey these rules, don't. Remember the rules are for your welfare and protection. Here are some good "do's" to recommend:

1. Whenever possible keep together in a group during outside activities at school or away from your home and parents.
2. Report to your parents, teachers or police as soon as possible when a stranger or suspicious acting person is hanging around a school, playground or any other place where children assemble at work or play.
3. Always try to obtain the license number of the car the stranger may be driving or riding in. Write it down in pencil, or scratch it with a stick or some other object in the dirt, or use a stone to scratch it on the cement. The license plate identification is very important and so far as possible should include the letters, numerals, color and state.
4. Write down or memorize the name, year, color and body style of the car. Special attention should be given to any extra equipment, damaged parts or anything about the car that is unusual.
5. Write down or memorize the stranger's race, approximate age, height, weight and color of hair and eyes. Special attention should be given to marks such as a mustache or blemishes or scars on the face, arms and hands, and physical handicaps and peculiarities.
6. Write down or memorize the color, type and style of clothing the stranger was wearing. Special attention should be given to jewelry and eyeglasses worn by him or her.

Clarkston Locals
The Saturday evening party that is being co-hosted by Sharon Gotschall and Linda Milam is sure to be a success.

Mr. and Mrs. John Funk of Perry Lake Road have just returned from a six months tour of the western states and Mexico.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell

Blackett were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Duckert and daughters, Joyce and Joan, of Dryden and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Raphka and Mrs. Dorothy Reid of Rochester.

Mr. Robert Scott of Waterford and Mrs. Guy Seiden of North Holcomb Street attended the Democratic Ladies' Day Convention in Lansing on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Anderson of 6596 Northview are receiving congratulations on the birth of an 8lb 8oz daughter, Mary Jane, on Thursday, April 16, in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital.

A delightful combination birthday-pajama party was given Friday evening by Linda Chapman of Maybee Road. Her sophomore class guests were Thespo Christides, Jane Warren, Sandy Asher, Sue Larkin, Sue Cushman, Mary Robbins, Kathy McDermott, Mary Upward, and Betty Sarvis.

Four Methodist Youth Fellowship members, James Bonner,

Sharon Collick, Ronald Jyleen, and Sue Turek, accompanied by Mrs. William Richards, Mrs. Jack Jyleen and Mrs. Edgar Collick, were guests Saturday of the Utica Methodist Youth Fellowship to plan for a Youth Caravan that will come to Clarkston in August. The Utica young people served a delicious luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Grundy of Waterford were chaperons for the "Rhapsody in Blue" Junior Prom held at the St. Joseph Prep School in Louisville, Ky., on April 17th, where their son is studying. Patricia Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Burns of Ogema Drive was Raymond's prom date. The Grundys and Miss Burns departed from the Louisville Airport on Sunday afternoon.

The Juniors and Seniors took off in many directions after their annual banquet Saturday evening. Some had show dates, others went dancing and there was a slumber party for Pat Asher, Lucy Oakley, Judy Ellibee, Betsy Osgood, Paulette Etter and Diane Hursfall at the Edgar Collick home on Middle Lake Road, given by their daughter, Sharon. Surprisingly all were in bed comparatively early and up bright and fresh for a luncheon date at Devon Gables.

The fifth and sixth grade choir at the Clarkston Elementary School, under the direction of Miss Beverly Bell, is preparing for a Spring Concert on May 20th at 8:00 p.m., in the kindergarten room. The program will consist of a group of religious selections, negro spirituals, folk songs from home and abroad and selections from great musicals. Because of the lack of space only the parents and friends are invited. Miss Bell certainly has a full schedule. No sooner will this concert finish when a new one will be underway. A square dance festival is being planned for June 2nd at 7:30 on the football field. The students included will range from grades three to six. All are invited.

Nursery school friends of young Stephen Rose will long remember his fourth birthday celebration. Three car loads of parents and children were deposited at the Grand Trunk Railroad depot in Pontiac. They bought their tickets and impatiently waited for the train to come roaring in. Their destination was Holly. No one was more surprised at the sight and sound of the train than young Stevie and at the last moment became quite unnerved and decided to ride in the automobile with his father and pick up the travelers in Holly. The next phase of the party greeted them at the Deer Lake Nursery School room where a party table was set up with a five-car train centerpiece. Coffee and cake were served to the parents. Despite the dreary weather the party was a success. Stephen will long be "kidded" about the train ride, in his honor, that he didn't take. All will remember his last remark, "I only yike yittle twains".

A public showing and judging of doll houses made by Brownies and Girl Scouts attracted many young people and their parents on Wednesday, April 22nd in the ballroom at the Community Center. The judges found it difficult to make a decision. All the doll houses exhibited were winners of neighborhood associations. The judges, Mr. K. J. Kuester, art instructor at Lake Orion, Mrs. J. L. Burke of Holly and Mrs. J. S. Wilford of Clarkston selected first and second place in Brownies and Intermediate Scouts for the North District of the North Oakland County Council. The doll houses were constructed of various materials—wood, paper, cardboard and styrofoam. They represented many periods and nationalities. There were Eskimo, Japanese and peasant homes, log cabins and castles none larger than a card table. Many had handmade furniture.

All were made sturdy enough for much future fun for they will be donated to orphanages, kindergarten rooms and hospitals. Mrs. John Ruff, the district chairman, said the prize winners had not been announced.

ORDER YOUNG TREES FOR SPRING PLANTING

Private land owners planning to order young trees for the spring planting season are urged to do so now by the Conservation Department. Ordinarily stock is shipped from the Department's three state nurseries during the April 20 - May 30 period. However, winter's prolonged stay is expected to delay the shipping season by 8-10 days this year which, in turn, will shorten the planting season.

Shipments are made on a "first come first serve" basis; approximately 9,000,000 young stock have already been ordered from more than 15,000,000 placed on sale in late January.

A good supply of red pine seedlings and transplants and jack pine seedlings remain. White spruce transplants are no longer available for sale.

All applications must be submitted to the Department's forestry division, Lansing 26, on the regular stock order form. Order blanks may be obtained from the forestry division.
