"God the Preserver of Man"—the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services Sunday—is based upon the inspiring experiences of the patriarch Abraham.

Scriptural selections will include Paul's statement to the Galatians (3:7): "Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham."

The meaning for today of Abraham's lifework will be emphasized in selections read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (579:12): "This patriarch illustrated the purpose of Love to create trust in good, and showed the life-preserving power of spiritual understanding."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (16:1): "Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust."

It's easy to see where Chevrolet gets its road sense. With big coil springs at every wheel, a firm, wider stance and all of its pounds distributed with painstaking care, Chevy's born with it. The only thing that may be hard to understand is how it can offer the ride it does, along with so many other luxury-car virtues, and still compete in the low-price field. We use the word compete only in the sense of price. For with a ride as special as Chevy's, real competitors are hard to come by. There's a world of difference between Chevrolet's coil springs at all four wheels and the leaf springs that most other cars still use. Take a Chevy down a snaky back road and you'll feel the difference in the sure way it holds through curves and shoots over rough spots with hardly a ripple. D. A. R. CHAPTERS
HOLD JOINT MEETING

The General Richardson Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met with the Ezra Parker Chapter and three others at the Pleasant Ridge Community Center Thursday.

A cooperative luncheon was served on the lawn and a combination meeting held at which the state regent, Mrs. Roy V. Barnes presided.

Present also were other state officers, Mrs. Wacker, Mrs. Wm. DeGraff of Birmingham and Mrs. Bradley D. Scott of Pontiac.

It was announced that the Michigan chapters had bought from the National Museum a remarkable globe that is to be in the Michigan room at Constitution Hall This is an old celestial standing globe bought at a cost of nearly $500. It is now placed in the Michigan room in honor of the retiring curator, Mrs. Catherine Newland.

On Memorial Day members of the Pontiac chapter met at Oak Hill cemetery and held a ceremony at the grave of Col. Stephen Mack. They left graves at his and five other graves of Revolution soldiers.

Other meetings of members of the Gen. Richardson Chapter have been in Pontiac schools in cooperation with teachers and pupils of McConnell school when awards were given to Junior citizens.

Junior American Citizens awards were also presented by Mrs. Lloyd Porter to outstanding citizens of the 4th, 5th and 6th grades of Whittier School.

These students competed in the essay writing on What Freedom Means to Me. A speaker at that meeting was Mrs. Robert Stierer, assistant to Mr. William, Pontiac City manager.

THIS AREA REPRESENTED AT BIBLE SCHOOL

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kriefall, Watchtower representatives for the eastern Michigan congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses will complete a special course June 13th at the Watchtower Bible School of Gilead, South Lansing, New York.

The Kriefalls are well known in the Southeastern area of Michigan. Mr. Kriefall oversees 21 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses from Oak Park to Bad Axe, Michigan. He and his wife who assists him in the ministry have spent considerable time during the last year with the 21 congregations assisting and training members in their Bible education work.

Prior to their coming to Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Kriefall were fulltime ministers serving in the state of Alabama.

Kriefall was ordained a minister of Jehovah's Witnesses in 1941 following a period of study and training with the Milwaukee, Wisconsin, congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, later becoming the presiding minister in the Currie Park congregation in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Kriefall are among 25 persons from 14 states who were selected by the Watchtower Society to receive the special training.

The course is of a refresher nature and covers Bible doctrine, Christian organization and ministerial services. It is a 24-day program involving 96 classroom sessions and 20 lectures by qualified educators.

All tuition costs are borne by the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society, governing body of Jehovah's Witnesses with headquarters in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Kriefalls are also benefiting from portions of a missionary training course now in session at Gilead School. There are 83 students from 15 lands in the present class who will be given foreign assignments upon graduation this summer. The school has trained more than 3,000 persons for missionary and other special work in over 100 lands since its inception in 1943.

Commenting on his Gilead training, Mr. Kriefall said, "We are eagerly looking forward to sharing the benefits of this course with congregations, so in turn, each may deepen his appreciation of Bible principles. In an age when knowledge has come to mean so much, knowledge of Bible principles becomes essential to God-fearing people."

JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH

June is designated as Dairy Month. The reason is that during this 30-day period production of milk, cheese, and butter reaches its peak.

Throughout the state 4-H dairy projects are contributing their share to the over-all peak production month. More than three-quarters of a million 4-H Club members across the nation are engaged in two specific dairy award programs.

Some of the boys and girls are raising their own dairy animals under the guidance of Extension Service specialists and county agents. They are learning about production, sanitation, marketing and showmanship. Another group is specializing in dairy foods demonstration, learning for themselves and then showing others why and how dairy products are essential to a balanced diet and good health.

A total of 12 college scholarships will be presented to the nation's top winners to be announced next fall during the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Other awards include expense-paid trips to the congress, wrist watches and gold-filled medals.

The Oliver Corporation, Chicago, will again provide 4-H awards for the dairy animal project winners, while Carnation Company, Los Angeles, will present awards to the dairy foods demonstration winners.

Both programs are under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

TAKE IT EASY IN HOT WEATHER

Hot weather is a danger sign for some persons with cardiac conditions, Donald S. Smith, M. D., President of the Michigan Heart Association stated. Any extreme in temperature causes the body to work harder just to keep the normal functions going as usual, he added.

Whether it's shoveling snow in winter or mowing the lawn in summer, there are precautions that should be taken by many people. These precautions depend on each person's physical condition, age and living habits, Dr. Smith pointed out. A thorough health examination will tell a person what he can do safely, he said. As a rule of thumb, avoid exceptionally strenuous exercise during hot and humid weather after the age of forty. And this applies to those under forty who have a cardiac condition, he added.

Many people are tempted to do too much. Most jobs about the house can be done in a cooler period of the day or postponed until a later day. Dr. Smith advised taking life easy, if the job is hard and must be done, then do it in easy stages with frequent rests.

Heart patients who are on low sodium diets or on a program to reduce body fluids by drugs, should talk with their doctors about possible changes in diet and medication during the hot weather period.

MORE GAS WILL BE AVAILABLE STATES CONSUMERS POWER

Dan E. Karn, President of Consumers Power Company, made this statement regarding the decision of Trunkline Gas Company to accept the Federal Power Commission certificate: This is wonderful news for Consumers Power Company and our half million gas customers. It means that we will obtain large additional supplies of gas which will make it possible to meet most of the needs of our gas service area. The necessary permits already have been obtained from the Federal Power Commission and the Michigan Public Service Commission. The gas supply is available from the producers. Just when the additional gas will be available to our customers remains uncertain. Trunkline must build more than 900 miles of pipeline including a 204-mile line from Tuscola, Illinois, to the Indiana-Michigan border near White Pigeon. Consumers Power Company must build 160 miles of line to carry the gas from the State line to junctions with our present pipeline system near Northville and near Clarkston. Expenditures of $30,000,000 by Consumers are involved. Financing steps to acquire the necessary funds are being taken. At present there are more than 160,000 applicants for gas space heating service on the Consumers waiting list. The gas supply from Trunkline will enable us to connect additional space heating customers, but no definite date can be given now. The threat of a steel strike July 1 or sometime later raises the question whether Trunkline and Consumers will be able to obtain the needed steel pipe promptly and carry forward their construction programs without interruption. We will exert every effort to get the additional gas to our customers with a minimum of delay. An announcement regarding the availability of additional gas space heating will be made at the earliest possible date.

BASS SEASON OPENS JUNE 20

Bass season opens June 20, adding the last of Michigan's game fish to the list of legal catch.

Large and smallmouth bass are among the top ten species of fish taken in Michigan's non-trout waters, according to the Conservation Department.

Neither, however, is a true bass. They are, instead, the largest and most famous members of the sunfish family. Like other species in this homogeneous family they bear a striking resemblance to one another.

The smallmouth lacks a deep notch between the two parts of the dorsal fin which is characteristic of the largemouth. While the smallmouth is brown to greenish-brown in its color pattern, the largemouth is greenish.

A fish of shallow, weedy and mud-bottom lakes and quiet rivers, the largemouth is abundant in lakes throughout the lower peninsula and in many lakes above the Straits.

Its look-alike, the smallmouth, is found throughout the state. It is most plentiful in larger lakes with open shoals and gravel or boulder bottoms, in larger non-trout rivers with fast currents and rocky bottoms and along rocky shores of the Great Lakes.

A plucky and unyielding opponent when hooked, the smallmouth has been termed as, inch for inch and pound for pound, the gamest fish that swims.

Casting or trolling with artificial plugs, spinners or live bait are effective methods for catching bass. Night fishing is often highly rewarding.

Minimum size limit for bass is 10 inches while the daily catch quota is five, singly or combined.

THE TRUTH ABOUT PAUL BUNYAN

In our great north woods era that wonderful Michigan hero Paul Bunyan could do anything needed around the logging camps, anything at all. That's legend.

Today the people of any Michigan community, planning and working together, can do and can achieve anything their community needs for its sound development and the greater prosperity of its citizens. That's fact.

Like Paul Bunyan when he had Babe the Blue Ox at his command and every logger in the camp behind him, the people of a community can do anything when they work together.

And that's the truth about Paul Bunyan.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper.

Living Beauty in Michigan

Many of Michigan's wildflowers, such as this pink lady's slipper, are becoming rare in the southern lower peninsula due to man's intensive use of land for agriculture, transportation, industry and suburban developments. Although much of this has been essential to the state's growth, a great deal of unnecessary damage has, and is, being done to natural habitats through ignorance and unconcern. Indiscriminate picking and commercialization of wildflowers fall into this latter category.

Trouble "Shooters"

Stretch Taylor, captain of the high school basketball team, thought up a great way to keep the new schoolyard clean.

The teachers were having trouble keeping the kids from leaving their ice cream wrappers, empty milk cartons and paper napkins in the area after lunch and after school... in spite of the handy trash cans.

So Stretch got the idea of equipping each can with a small basketball backboard and a sign saying "Shoot a basket." From the way the trash problem disappeared, our school should have a basketball powerhouse next season.

From where I sit, every problem needs just one good solution. For instance, it occurs to me that in getting along with our neighbors, tolerance is the solution. That means that your choice of tea should be honored just the same as my preference for a glass of beer. Makes for a "high scoring" combination in the friendship department.

June Dairy Month spotlights dairy products, for this is the season when dairy cows produce more milk than consumers normally use. This is the time when processing plants are busy making non-fat dry milk, cottage cheese and ice cream. Let this be a time to check your family's milk supply suggests the MSU Marketing Agent. Enough milk means two glasses a day for adults and three to four glasses a day for children. If you had to buy all the food nutrients in milk separately, you could spend as much as 42 cents compared to the 20 to 24 cents

Two of a Kind
Largest and most famous members of the sunfish family are the large and smallmouth bass. Like other species in this family, these two fish bear a striking resemblance to one another. As its name implies, the smallmouth, below, is distinguished from the largemouth, above, by the size of its mouth. It lacks a deep notch between the two parts of the dorsal fin which is characteristic of the largemouth. There is also a marked difference in their color patterns. The smallmouth is brown to greenish-brown and may have a series of dark, vertical bars along its side. The largemouth is greenish with a broad, black band running the length of its body.

This is the month to enjoy Michigan strawberries! You can expect the peak supplies between June 12 and 15 from the southwestern part of the state where most of the berries are grown.

Proper care begins when shopping for strawberries. Select berries that have full red color, that are dry and glossy. The best berries have their green caps attached.

Take strawberries home as quickly as possible and roll them carefully from the box into a flat dish or pan. Remove any berries that are soft or show decay. Cover with waxed paper and place in the refrigerator.

Use strawberries within one or two days after you buy them.

It's a story worth repeating. A ready-to-eat ham is not ready to eat. A ready-to-eat ham has been partially cooked while being processed, but for safe eating read and follow the cooking directions on the label.

If you cannot find a label on the ham you buy, ask the manager of the meat department for cooking instructions.

Ready-to-eat ham really means it's ready to cook.

Famous Jesse James Hideout
Conveniently located on famous U.S. Highway 66, Meramec Caverns, Stanton, Missouri, world's only five-story cave, is set to play host to thousands of people on vacation. The world's only drive-in cave, it can accommodate 10,000 automobiles. According to Lester B. Dill, resort director, over 350,000 toured the unique underground emporium last year. Tagged as the "Eighth Wonder of The World", Meramec Caverns served as the hideout for Jesse James and his gang during the 1870's. One of the most popular spots in the cave is "Loot Rock", where the gang divided their money. There are some who believe a portion of James' gold is still hidden in the cave, fifty-five miles southwest of St. Louis, in the heart of the Ozark Mountains. The 100,000,000-year-old cave is open seven days a week throughout the year with specially trained La Jolla Park Rangers conducting tours every 20 minutes. There are facilities for picnics, camping, fishing and boating. Complete resort facilities, modern cottages and restaurants are also available.

Why not keep a menu stored on your cupboard shelf. A small canned ham that requires no refrigeration, or canned meats will serve as the main dish for a quick meal. A few of your favorite canned vegetables and fruits will serve for the vegetable on the menu plus a simple dessert.

It's easy to serve the family or guests in a hurry, if you have a meal-in-waiting on the kitchen shelf.
