CELEBRATE JULY 4TH IN CLARKSTON

Church In Dearborn Scene Of Wedding

The Church of the Divine Child in Dearborn was the setting for the Saturday morning wedding of Maureen Anna Fisher and Roger Jay Johnson on June 20th.

Maureen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Fisher of 141 Drexel St., Dearborn, and Roger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Johnson of Church Street, Clarkston.

The nuptial High Mass was read at 11:00 A. M., in the presence of 200 guests, by the Reverend Father Weir.

The bride, escorted to the altar for the double-ring ceremony by her father, was gowned in white eyelet organdy fashioned with a square neckline off the shoulder, cap sleeves, a fitted bodice joining a very full skirt of ruffles which fell into a short train. Her veil of white nylon illusion fell from a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls and she wore a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of white orchids, stephanotis and trailing ivy.

Patricia Mealy, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Patricia Hart, also a cousin of the bride, Dorothy Korney and Gayle Freedman were the bridesmaids. They were attired in lavender silk organza fashioned with sweetheart necklines, cap sleeves, fitted bodices and very full skirts, ballerina length. They wore crownless hats and shoes of matching material. The maid of honor carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and purple delphiniums; the bridesmaids bouquets were of purple delphiniums circled with white roses and streamers to match their gowns.

The flower girl was Kathleen Hart and the ringbearer Patrick Hart, cousins of the bride. Kathleen carried a basket of purple delphiniums and Patrick carried the wedding rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow edged with lace.

Roger was attended by his brother, Roy C. Johnson of Pontiac, as best man and seating the guests were Robert Summers of Ypsilanti, Joseph LePard of Grand Blanc, college friends of the bridegroom, and Dennis Fisher, the bride's brother.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Dearborn Inn for 50 members of the family. A reception for 300 guests was held in the evening at The Knights of Columbus Hall in Dearborn. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

For traveling the bride wore a brown plaid suit with white accessories and the orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet.

Following their wedding trip to Mackinac Island and through the upper peninsula of Michigan they will make their home at 30 N. Holcomb Street, Clarkston.

Mrs. Fisher, mother of the bride, wore turquoise chiffon with matching accessories and a corsage of rubrum lilies. Mrs. Johnson wore pink lace with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses.

On Saturday evening, June 27, approximately one hundred and fifty guests witnessed a very pretty wedding in which Jacqueline Powell and Richard Duane Smith spoke their nuptial vows in a double-ring ceremony to The Reverend William J. Richards in the Clarkston Methodist Church.

The rites were read before an altar decorated with large baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons and chrysanthemums flanked by candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, J.D. Powell, was lovely in a white silk faille gown featuring long sleeves, a Sabrina neckline with petal applique secured with iridescent sequins and her princess style skirt fell into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and a hankie of imported lace.

Katherine Smith, sister of the groom, acted as maid of honor and was in a short formal of blue silk organza with a bouffant skirt, scooped neckline and white eyelet cumberbund laced with blue ribbon. She wore a shoulder length veil of blue net secured by pearls to a latticed satin band and carried a fan with pink roses and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Sharon McClanahan and Terry Dee Powell, sister of the bride. Their gowns and headpieces were the same as the maid of honor's except they were pink and they carried fans with white roses and pink carnations.

Kent Powell, brother of the bride, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Hershel Smith of Flint assisted his brother as best man and the guests were seated by Robert Stewart of Fenton and James Miner of Clarkston.

The traditional organ music was played by Mrs. Jack Skarritt who also accompanied Mrs. William Mansfield who sang "Because" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" while the couple knelt at the altar.

A reception was held in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Robert Morse, cut the four-tiered wedding cake using an engraved knife which was a gift to the newlyweds from Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cooney. Mrs. Orvil Mershman of Detroit and Mrs. Ronald Thronset of Pontiac presided at the silver services. The guest book was taken care of by Patty Asher of Clarkston.

Mrs. Powell, mother of the bride, wore light blue silk taffeta with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses and carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Smith, wore a black and white eyelet dress and a corsage of

Church Starts Fund Campaign

Robert Kenny, General Chairman of Our Lady of the Lakes Building Fund Campaign, reports that $154,555.00 has been subscribed to date toward the Parish's proposed building plans.

The current campaign is to raise as much as is possible of the total cost needed to bring about High School facilities for the 1960 school semester; expand the Elementary School facilities to accommodate all primary grades; and add an addition to the present convent, sufficient in size to accommodate all of the Sisters who will staff the Elementary and High School classes.

Dr. Roy Landry, Chairman of the Memorial Gift Phase of the Campaign, saw his committee of 70 Executive Committee Members realize over $100,000 in special gifts from approximately 130 families. "This figure", Dr. Landry remarked, "shows the marvelous spirit of sacrifice and cooperation of those who have given. With a like spirit on the part of the many who will be visited in the weeks to come, our drive can only terminate in a wonderful success."

Frank Zimmerman, Team Captains' Chairman, in charge of the 300 volunteer workers who have solidified into working units to operate the General Phase of the campaign, has urged all teams to complete as many of their calls as possible this week in preparation for their Second General Report meeting.

Team Captains coordinating the efforts of this large "volunteer worker force" are: Chester Herald, Bernard Rausch, Frank Comps, Edward Tallenger, Robert Aiken, George Willits, Gerald Savoie, Ralph Florio, Henry Manion and Paul O'Connor.

B. & P. W. CLUB CLOSING THE YEAR WITH A PICNIC

On Thursday evening of last week the Waterford-Clarkston Business and Professional Women's Club closed its year with a picnic at the lovely home of Mrs. Donald Fillmore on Sashabaw Road at Whipple Lake. A delicious buffet supper was served on the large screened-in porch overlooking the lake.

Following the supper, the president, Mrs. Oliver Dunstan, conducted the business meeting. A new member, Mrs. Caroline Forbes was initiated and welcomed into the club.

Mrs. Dunstan in closing her year as president, presented gifts to each of her officers and committee chairmen in appreciation for their generous cooperation during her term in office. Mrs. Everett Reese expressed the feelings of the club towards the fine leadership they had had this past year and in behalf of the club presented Mrs. Dunstan with a beautiful summer pocketbook.

The next regular meeting of the club will be on the fourth Thursday of September.

ROTARY HEARS ABOUT MICHIGAN

Merritt D. Hill, a former resident of Clarkston, and now a vice-president of the Ford Motor Company, addressed the Clarkston Rotary Club on Monday. He is a member of the Michigan Economic Development Commission and his talk urged the members and all Michigan to boost the state as a place to live, work and play. His list of the accomplishments of Michigan was more than impressive.

This meeting being the last of the term of Dr. Leslie F. Greene, as president, he thanked the members for their help and expressed the pleasure he had had as president. Following his turning the gavel of authority over to Herbert H. Beach, he was presented with his past president's pin and the past president's badge.

Two of the retiring president's last announcements were that the Club had presented the Oakland County Crippled Children's Society with a check for $250.00, and that the Club now had a club photographer, in the person of Richard Morgan. Pictures taken will be of speakers and members to form an album that members can refer to in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warchock and son of Southfield were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cinader of Snowapple Drive, where a picnic was enjoyed.

Daily Bible School At First Methodist

From August 10-21, Clarkston First Methodist will be the scene of Daily Vacation Bible School. Mrs. Wilbert Fitzthomas, Director of the Bible school, announced at a recent meeting that "the school will last from 9:30 a.m. to 12 Noon for children from four years of age through sixth grade age youngsters."

She continued by introducing the department heads who are Betty Hovey, Kindergarten; Elaine Sharrock, Primary Department; and Barbara Pike, Junior Department. They will be in charge of several competent teachers, who are now preparing stories, games, activities, and songs for the children. The theme will be "God and His World."

Mrs. Fitzthomas concluded her remarks by saying, "We expect many youngsters to take part in this summer's Bible School and are hard at work to be sure that every detail is taken care of for those two big weeks—August 10-21."

CHILDREN EXHIBIT BIBLE SCHOOL WORK

Three hundred children and parents attended the closing program of Vacation Bible School at Christ Lutheran Church last Friday morning. Each department presented some of its work and activity carried on during the two week session. Thirty teachers and helpers assisted and the enrollment was 240. Heading up the school was Pastor Arvid Anderson with the following superintendents in the various departments: Mrs. John Goshen, Mrs. John Meyers, Mrs. Richard Kroninger, and Mrs. John Wiley was director of music. 150 books were given to the children in recognition of their perfect attendance during the two week period.

The course will begin July 7th and will be conducted each Tuesday and Wednesday evening from 6 to 9 at Parke Lake. For information and registration call MA 5-2222. Mr. Masta is a very competent instructor and is glad to give his time to help put capable swimmers at the beaches in and around Clarkston. When so many of our local children go to the beaches here, it is wise to have some of the swimmers able to act in a time of emergency.

C. ROCKWELLS HONORED AT ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Orville McPeck of 2155 Wilhite Street, Pontiac, entertained thirty relatives at a six o'clock dinner last Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rockwell on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mrs. McPeck is Mrs. Rockwell's sister.

Highlighting the table setting was a beautiful arrangement of red roses and a lovely wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell received a gift of silver dollars.

Guests were from Franklin, Yale, Pontiac and Clarkston.

The Clarkston Firefighters are in hopes that you are all ready for the big parade on Saturday morning, July 4th. It is much more fun to be in the line-up rather than on the sidelines. The parade will start at Miller Road and disband on the school field where the games, contests and races will take place. The parade will start at 10:00 a.m. and it is expected that the events at the school will start about 10:30 or shortly thereafter. There will be prizes for all events.

Highways and beaches will be crowded this week-end so why not stay at home and celebrate Independence Day with your own townfolk. The Township Firefighters and The Recreation Committee have planned a big day, but to make it a success they need the support of all in the area.

JUST ONE OF 7 Big Bests Chevrolet offers you over any other car in its field!

Take a tip from the experts... in their own words... and from on-the-record facts and figures: More than ever, Chevrolet gives you more than any other of the leading low-priced three! More room to relax in, for instance. A sampling of official dimensions reported to A.M.A.* makes this clear. Chevy front seat hip room, for one thing, is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars. And Chevy even offers more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars!

Best Brakes Not only bigger, but built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life. Just to prove what's what, Chevy out-stopped both of the "other two" in a NASCAR†-conducted test of repeated starts from highway speeds.

Best Style It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

Best Engine Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "... surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

Best Ride MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself instantly, once you take the wheel.

Best Economy No doubt about this: two Chevrolet 6's won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car, 22.38 miles per gallon—with Powerglide.

Best Trade-In Check in any N.A.D.A.‡ Guide Book. Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS DENIED

The Pontiac Congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses learned Thursday, June 25, that Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina have been denied their constitutional rights of free assembly and worship. A vote of protest was taken and plans discussed to petition the Argentina Republic to correct the restrictions laid on the Christian group's activities.

W. P. Strong, the Drayton Plains Congregation's presiding minister, said that in spite of many liberal advancements made by the present Argentina government that ousted the dictatorial Peron regime, a few non-Catholic religious groups that were declared illegal by Peron have yet to be recognized by Argentina's constitutional president, Arturo Frondizi.

According to Mr. Strong, two different applications for recognition were denied by the "Ministry of Worship", a department of the government formed by Peronto control the registry of all non-Catholic religions in the country. Furthermore, two futile appeals have been made to the present government to rescind the order denying Jehovah's Witnesses the right to register. The latest appeal was made following a new decree signed by Frondizi on February 6, 1959, giving non-Catholic religions full right to worship God as guaranteed by Article 14 of the Argentina constitution.

Mr. Strong said the more than 6,000 Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina began circulation of a petition addressed to the president of the Argentine Republic requesting recognition under the new, liberal provision of his government. The neighboring countries of Bolivia, Chile, Paraguay and Uruguay are circulating similar petitions to acquaint the people of those countries, as well as Frondizi, with the condition that exists in Argentina.

LET SAFETY PREVAIL AT BEACHES AND ON WATER

With 72 persons drowned and 43 injured in 100 water accidents reported so far this year, the State Police are cautioning water enthusiasts to emphasize safety on the crowded lakes and rivers over the Fourth of July weekend.

If good weather prevails water fronts and beaches will probably get their heaviest crowds of the season, and recreationists are urged to follow the safety rules for their own protection.

Persons involved in boating accidents are now required by law to report them to the nearest police agency if there has been death or injury or property damage exceeding $50. These reports and other statistics on water mishaps are compiled by the State Police.

Included in the 72 drownings were 10 boat operators, nine boat passengers, one skin diver, one water skier, 11 swimmers, six children who wandered into water unnoticed by others, and seven youngsters who drowned after slipping or falling from banks, docks or other objects while fishing or playing.

The other deaths included: One fell off a ship while working on it, 10 suicides, two were found dead in a submerged automobile, three fell from bridges, two rolled into the water in a ditch after falling asleep, two fell through the ice, one was trapped in a caisson on a construction job, one fell from a dock and another from a river bank, and four unidentified were found floating.

WORLD'S FOOD INSUFFICIENT, MSU MAN SAYS

If the world's food production were evenly distributed today, everybody would starve, according to an internationally-recognized food authority at Michigan State University.

Under equal distribution "no one would have enough calories, protein or vitamins," maintains Dr. George Borgstrom, who says the world is not raising enough food now and with population growing so fast food producers cannot hope to catch up.

No one science, art or skill can solve the problem, he believes. The problem, as he sees it, calls for the combined thinking and action of biologists, chemists, agronomists and many other specialists.

"Every day," Dr. Borgstrom said, "one billion of the world's two and a half billion people go to bed hungry. Another 700 to 800 million people are so undernourished in some respect that they have a disability.

"With world population growing at the rate of a new Lansing every day or a new United States every four years, we will have at least five billion people by the year 2000. Some demographers claim we will have seven billion or more.

"Distribution, technology and better use of land will not solve the problem. Certainly, in areas where we have tried these answers, the situation has not become less critical, and in some cases it is even getting worse. In too many cases we have been multiplying distress rather than improving conditions.

"We should set a goal of a beefsteak to everybody in the world right now rather than condition people to steaks made out of wood chips and soup from algae. Then we could better face the problem.

RID CLOSETS OF CLOTHES YOU DON'T WEAR

A good slogan for your wardrobe is "every garment in service," suggests Bernetta Kahabake, extension clothing specialist at Michigan State University. Begin by taking a look at your complete wardrobe at one time. Look in the closet, in drawers and storage boxes. You may be surprised to find new combinations you haven't worn before.

This over-all look can lead to a coordinated clothing plan for you, too. Maybe a new skirt will put forgotten blouses and a jacket into service again. Maybe a new belt and scarf will perk up a dress. Perhaps a few alterations will revive an old suit.

No doubt there will be some leftovers that just don't fit into your wardrobe—or that don't fit you. Perhaps it's time to get rid of those things.

Your clothing inventory can guide your clothing purchases in the future, and it can help keep every garment in service.

INDEPENDENCE DAY AND DRINKING DRIVERS

The chances are that one out of every two people who will die on Michigan highways over the independence day weekend will be involved in an accident caused by a drinking driver.

According to James M. Hare, Chairman of the Michigan Safety Commission, studies of traffic fatalities during recent months show that more than 50 per cent of automobile accident deaths were due either to drinking drivers or drinking pedestrians.

"We regard the drinking driver as one of the most troublesome factors in our State Safety Program", Hare pointed out. The worst of it is that many accidents are caused by people who have been drinking at home or celebrating with friends at social gatherings. Growing sales of bottled spirits for home consumption compared with tavern and bar sales makes this an increasingly difficult problem to solve.

The Michigan Safety Commission hopes that drivers who have been drinking at holiday gatherings will leave the driving to someone who is completely sober.

"The unfortunate fact is that we have pedestrian fatalities caused by people who have had over two drinks too many electing to walk home from taverns or parties", Hare said.

"When such a person staggers into a street or on a highway he can invade a normally careful and prudent driver in a deadly accident, with the careless pedestrian as the victim. The driver, no matter how innocent, is left with legal problems and horrible memories. I wish I knew what we could do to solve this problem."

HOTDOGS ARE GOOD ESPECIALLY OUTDOORS

If you give the children a chance to choose their meat for the outdoor grill, chances are they will ask for hotdogs. Have you ever wondered "How are hotdogs made?" or "What meat is used in hotdogs?"

In Michigan, weiners and frankfurters are correctly defined as sausage meat, reports MSU Marketing Agent. Meats usually used are beef, pork and veal. Color will tell you something of the ingredients. When pork is predominant, the texture is usually finer, the hotdog is more tender and lighter in color. When beef is predominant, it is usually firmer and redder in color.

The highest grade hotdogs are usually made of about 60 per cent lean beef and 40 percent fat pork with seasonings. "All meat" means just that. The meat has no extenders such as milk powders or flour.

Most of the larger franks are the all-beef varieties with natural casings. They usually cost 15 to 20 cents more per pound than skinless kinds because they are made of all beef of the highest quality with no sinew or gristle, and because of the cost of the natural casing and the labor involved in making it.

Hotdogs are perishable, so store them in the refrigerator. It's best to use them within a week. If you travel to a picnic spot, plan to keep the meat below 50 degrees until you are ready to cook it.

Hotdogs are good nutritious food, fine in flavor, easy to cook and fun to eat... especially outdoors.

Sincerity is the highest compliment you can pay.

A CHAIN IS AS STRONG AS—

How many times have you heard someone say:

"A chain is as strong as its weakest link?"

On the subject of a community's attraction for industry it can be said as fairly that the community is as strong as its weakest link.

A town's pulling power with industry is made up of such links as . . . labor supply and skills . . . public facilities and services . . . schools . . . all-around livability . . . reputation for productivity . . . availability of financing . . . attitude toward new industry . . . treatment of present industry . . . what present industry says about the community . . . what people of the community say about each other.

Let us look for weak links and if we find one let's work together to forge a strong one in its place.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Don't "Check" With Red!

Red Johnson, owner of the local hardware store, likes to keep business simple—"pay as you go," says Red.

Recently, to emphasize the point, Red had a sign painted for the store window. In big red letters, it read: "Please—absolutely no checks accepted—pay in cash only."

When the sign painter had finished the sign, he delivered it to Red and named his price—ten dollars. "Very reasonable," said Red. And the next thing you know he was handing the fellow a check for ten dollars! From where I sit, some rules we make boil down to "don't do as I do, do as I say." It reminds me of a friend who drank nothing but iced tea and criticized the fact that I preferred a glass of beer. That's not only annoying, it's intolerant. Good neighbors should make tolerance the rule with more "do" and less "say."

House cleaning is so much easier, so much faster when there's plenty of hot water.

You can be confident that an electric water heater, plus Edison's Super Supply Plan, will provide round-the-clock hot water for cleaning and all the rest of the family's needs, too.

Here's the convenient, modern way to GET IT HOT... GET A LOT for an operating cost as low as $3.88 per month.

Only electric water heaters give you all these important advantages:

- Efficient—the heat goes into the water
- Fast—new, more efficient heating units
- Install anywhere—need not be near a chimney
- Outer shell—cool to the touch all over
- Long life—meet Edison's rigid standards
- Edison maintains electrical parts without charge
- Automatic—all the time
- Safe—clean—quiet—modern

Marine Pvt. Mark D. Lintz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lintz of 5875 Pine Knob Road, Clarkston, is serving with the 1st Marine Division at Camp Pendleton, Calif. This group of 87 Marines took part in a scene from the movie "The Gallant One" starring James Cagney, now being filmed in Southern California. The movie is based on the lieft and wartime experiences of Admiral William Halsey.

Marine Pfc Gary W. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of 6397 Shappie Road, Clarkston, is serving with the Second Battalion, 1st Marine Division which departed Camp Pendleton, Calif., June 3, to rotate with the 3rd Marine Division on Okinawa. The rotating program is the first of its kind to be adopted by the Marine Corps and is designed to improve the stability of personnel and increase combat efficiency of the Corps' front-line units. Marines assigned to units of the rotation program will serve 15 months with the 1st Division at Camp Pendleton and 15 months with the 3rd Division on Okinawa.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lang on Orion Road was the scene, last Sunday, of a lovely party honoring Sharon Glennie and George Lang, Jr. Approximately seventy relatives and out-of-town friends enjoyed an afternoon of visiting and games. The gifts for the honorees who will be married August 28th, were placed on a table done in blue and yellow and centered with a beautifully decorated umbrella. Later, the hostesses, Mrs. Lang and her daughter, Mrs. Clark Rouse, served a delicious supper to the guests who covered a span of four generations. Guests came from Detroit, Pontiac, Clawson, Royal Oak, Roseville, Mt. Clemens, Caro, Redford, Dearborn, Fraser, Farmington and Clarkston.

Police hope the tradition can be broken this year with an improved driving record.

They are bending all their efforts toward the objective with intensified patrols and lengthened shifts.

Last year 15 persons died in 13 fatal accidents over the Fourth in the 78-hour weekend. This year, with the Fourth falling on Saturday and the shorter 54-hour period, State Police fear many may try to squeeze too long a trip into too short a time, resulting in more accidents and deaths.

The State Police will be assisted by 129 National Guardsmen and will pay particular attention to the routes of heaviest travel and high accident rates. Pass days have been cancelled and patrol shifts lengthened from eight to 10 hours from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Sunday. Sheriffs will have 96 Guardsmen helping them.

If the weather is good, authorities believe a new high traffic record for the holiday may be approached, which means multiplied exposure to accidents. Chances for dying in an accident over a holiday increase by about one-fourth.

"Deaths have been increasing this year, which should be a warning", said Commissioner Joseph A. Childs. "It's up to the drivers as to whether they want a safe holiday or a bad one. But if they want a safe one there is only one way—safe driving."
