Register Now To Donate Blood

Do you know what the Clarkston Area Blood Bank can mean to you? There may come a time when you or a member of your family will need either a whole-blood transfusion or some blood product. Where will the blood come from? How will it be obtained? How much will it cost?

A ten-year-old boy, Jimmy Mansfield, underwent surgery to remove one lung. His blood type was not common, but the necessary blood was supplied by the local Blood Bank. A newborn baby, Jay Wilford, needed two complete transfusions to live. The Clarkston Area Blood Bank again provided the life-saving blood. Callie Douglas, a high school student, received blood as a therapeutic measure. In none of these cases was a fee charged, nor was the alternative to replace the blood used, two pints for one. The needed blood can be released without charge to residents of the Clarkston area by phoning Mrs. Arthur L. Rose, MA 5-5551, who is in charge of the Blood Bank. It is expected that those who receive the blood will replace the quantity used when they are able.

This valuable service can be maintained only if enough residents of the community become blood donors. Tuesday, November 17, the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the Community Center from two to five and six to eight. A qualified staff of doctors and nurses will be there to accept donors. If you wish to give blood, call Mrs. Gary Duncan, MA 5-1544, or come to the Community Center on Nov. 17.

Remember — this is a life-saving service YOU can perform for your neighbors.

EXTENSION CLUB HAS SPECIAL PROGRAM

The Evening Extension Club of Clarkston met Wednesday evening of last week for its November meeting.

"Winter Flower Arrangements" was another highlight of the new year. A very charming, artistic, floriculturist, Mrs. Oliver Dunstan of Dunstan's Flowers, Pontiac, talked on the subject.

The use of a sharp instrument to cut stems at an angle, the preparation a day in advance and care of flowers once they are arranged was covered thoroughly.

Mrs. Dunstan informed the group that the tallest flowers in an arrangement should be at least 1 1/2 times higher than the height of the container. A well-balanced arrangement can be obtained by merely having a "center of interest" flower and working from there. Keep in mind a color decorating chart and arrange with this in mind. Blend your colors as you would in home decorating.

The use of candles, fruits, berries, leaves and greenery with flowers can make very charming pieces.

After hearing Mrs. Dunstan we learned that even a pedestal cake platter or sherbet glass can be used for flower arranging and usually make real conversation pieces.

One astonishing bit of news to all present was the use of warm water for roses.

Mrs. Art Kelley and Mrs. Bill Kelley were hostesses for the evening.

SUCCESSFUL HUNTERS ASKED TO REPORT

Hunters killing buck deer in Oakland County or elsewhere in southern Michigan are urged to phone the Conservation Department's District Office at Inlay City.

The Oakland County hunter can telephone his report collect to this office at RAndolph 4-4485. A game biologist will go to the hunter's residence or frozen food locker, determine the age of the deer by the amount of wear on the teeth, and measure its antlers and record the weight. Even if only the head remains he can still obtain the necessary information.

"We need to examine 500 southern Michigan buck deer this fall," states Thomas Osmer, District Game Supervisor. "This is the beginning of a study to secure information vital to the management of the southern Michigan deer herd. With the high productivity of two fawns from each doe, the herd should be increasing at a faster rate. First of all we need to know how many bucks are being shot and how many bucks of each age class are being removed by the hunter. This will be followed around the year by a careful tally of all other causes of mortality including dogs, cars, fences, farm machinery, etc."

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Skarritt recently entertained at a pleasant dinner, at their home on Miller Road. Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Forslund and family of Pontiac and Ray Williams of New Zealand were guests. Mr. Williams, who is a pro roller skater in New Zealand was exceptionally interesting. Among the many facts that he told about New Zealand was that pheasant is eaten in that country just like turkey is eaten in this country at Christmas time or other special holidays. He said that pheasant was raised on farms there just like Americans have turkey farms.

Book Fair At Library Nov. 17

The Independence Township Library will host a Book Fair next Tuesday, Nov. 17. The North Oakland Library program has arranged to set up the display of about six hundred books. Because of lack of space in the library the display will be in the power house directly behind the Community Center.

The evening time will be especially interesting with a visiting speaker, Mrs. Winnifred Moffett Crossley, children's specialist with the State Library. She will take a few minutes to discuss "Books to Grow On."

Many of the books will be on the list so that you may place an order for Christmas giving. Stop in at the power house Tuesday, Nov. 17th, browse around, the latest in fiction, children's books and non-fiction, then find out how you can order some of these outstanding books.

While there they learned that Joe had helped rescue two men from the rough waters of Lake Erie. The men, one 71 years old and the other 74, had taken their small craft out onto the choppy waters of the lake where it capsized. On account of the rocks the coast guard boat could not reach them, so Joe and a fellow from Buffalo, N.Y., rescued them. Large Crowd Attends Bazaar

The atmosphere in Clarkston Methodist Church Parlor Saturday afternoon recalled the busyness of an Eastern Bazaar and the hustle and bustle of a Medieval Fair. For weeks the ladies in the various church Circles have been racking their brains for clever ideas and have been kept busy fixing preserves, sewing, knitting and crocheting.

Early Saturday, November 7th, the Boy Scouts set up booths and the ladies arranged their wares. At two o'clock the doors were opened and the eager buyers were admitted. People were delighted to be able to buy for their own use as well as gifts, handmade booties, aprons, mittens, decorated sweat shirts. There were home made candles and decorative Christmas trees for sale. The Youth Fellowship booth sold sweets.

The booth featuring homemade baked goods was sold out soon after the doors were opened. Mrs. Joseph Hubbard baked a deep-fat-fryer baking fresh doughnuts that were sold to be eaten there with a glass of cider, or by the bagful.

The nursery was arranged with tables and chairs where coffee and desserts were served.

Many hours of time generously donated by circle workers and other contributors gave the bazaar a joyous atmosphere.

Man With Many Jobs Preventing violations and enforcing Michigan's game laws are the primary duties of conservation officers such as Douglas Webb who is staked out for poachers who have hidden deer nearby. However, each officer maintains a busy pace performing other services. Through personal contacts and group meetings he works to keep citizens in his district abreast of the why's and whereof's of these laws. A great deal of his time and effort is directed at teaching students the rules of safety, sportsmanship and conservation. He is often called upon to search for lost persons or to deliver emergency messages. A written test will be held November 21 for young men interested in this man-sized career. The Conservation Department hopes to fill 25-30 vacancies late next spring.

er than a too-numerous pest." The wildlife specialist foresees a definite trend toward increased popularity of long-haired furs: "I have seen a lot of new coats with raccoon collars this year. If the girls like them for occasional wear, it may mean a better market for the furs. We might have a campus fad for raccoon coats like that of the 'Twenties.'" And right now, he adds, populations of fox, raccoon and skunk are large enough to encourage trappers after years of being rejected because of low prices. They have become "pests" in some areas. Even beavers became so numerous in 1957 that they began to spread into marginal areas. "Michigan is rich in wild fur-bearing animals, a resource which can provide the state with a good additional source of income," Prof. Cowan concludes.

School News SCIENCE CLUB STARTS ACTIVITIES

The first meeting of the newly-formed Science Club was held November 5th. It was decided by the sponsors Mike Leonard, Barbara Sanborn, Bob Varner, Kelly Burnette and Ed Johnson, that the membership was insufficient to form three separate clubs, so the chemistry and physics members would have to conform with the Biology Club. Therefore, the officers elected last year will remain the same. The president, Shanna Stewart, is assisted by Larry Blackett, vice-president, Sandy Hollis, secretary, and Sue Larkin, treasurer.

Committees were designated for the purposes of planning field trips and money-making projects. The field trip already taken this year was to MSU to hear a series of lectures and have lunch in the new cafeteria. Selected for investigating possible future trips were: Sue Cushman, Dave Smith, and Sue Turek. Composing a list of money-making projects to be presented at the next meeting are: Pat Asher, Craig Smith, Sally Taylor, Sharon Collick, and Carolyn Ruggles.

Requirements set up for receiving a membership pin are as follows: payment of dues by November 26th; the minimum of three missed meetings, and a project entered in the Science Fair next spring. The club will belong to the Science Clubs of America once again this year.

Saturday, the Science Club participated in a big field trip, attending both MSUO and Cranbrook. At the Oakland University the club looked over the buildings and grounds, listened to speeches and lectures and had lunch.

Parents turned back the calendar as once more they became imaginary students at the annual "Back to School Night" held on Monday of last week. The large turnout made this occasion a great success as the mothers and fathers followed the same routine that their sons or daughters do five times a week. The night of meeting, listening to and talking to teachers was climaxed by a general get-together in the cafeteria where coffee and cookies were served.

The fathers of the JV football players were honored on Tuesday night of last week. After the game coffee and doughnuts were served in the cafeteria to both dads and coaches.

Group pictures and snapshots for this year's year book were tak-

FRANK V. STROTHER GETS LETTER OF COMMENDATION

One senior at Clarkston High School has been cited for outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQST) last spring. He has received a formal "Letter of Commendation" from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Principal S. F. Goedde today announced that the senior so honored is Frank V. Strother.

John M. Stainaker, President of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, declares:

"Letters of Commendation" are being awarded to some 27,000 students from all over the United States in recognition of high performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. While these bright youngsters did not achieve the status of Meritfinalists in the 1959-60 Merit Program, they are so outstanding that we wish to single them out for special attention. We send these letters to provide tangible recognition of superior ability, and it is our earnest hope that the recipients will continue their education, and thus benefit not only themselves but the entire country.

"Our objectives in the Merit Program are complex. While the most powerful beams of the spotlight are trained on the Merit Scholars, we strive to foster the pursuit of excellence among all highly able students in academic work and intellectual fields. We urge the students honored today to make every effort to attend college, and develop to the fullest their highly promising potential."

The "Commended" group were among the 550,000 high school juniors from 14,500 U. S. schools who took the NMQST last spring. The test, a three-hour examination covering five separate areas of educational development, was the first step in the 1959-60 Merit Program to be climaxed about May 1, 1960, with the announcement of the Merit Scholars.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation gives recognition to two groups of students who achieve high scores on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. The top scorers in each state, prorated according to the number of graduating high school seniors in the state, are named Semifinalists and take a second examination in December to further establish their eligibility for Merit Scholarship consideration. Students in the commended group (27,000) are selected on a national basis without regard to the high-school population of the state.

The annual Merit Scholarship Competition offers the largest system of privately financed scholarships in the United States, and is open to all high schools in the United States and possessions. Semifinalists and Commended students receive many scholarships apart from the Merit Program. NMSC estimates that more than nine million dollars in scholarships for the freshman year alone will be awarded these students, in addition to the regular Merit awards.

DEBATE COMPETITION GETS UNDERWAY

Approximately 1500 Michigan high school debaters, some of whom would sooner argue than eat, await the 1959-60 competition of the Michigan High School Forensic Association which begins Nov. 16 in the Lower Peninsula.

Debate teams in 211 Michigan high schools — second largest program of its kind in the nation — will match wits on a national topic: "Resolved, that the Federal Government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions."

The competitive debate season, which ends in February with elimination tournaments, is sponsored by the Bureau of School Services at The University of Michigan.

According to forensics manager M. L. Cabbage, the school teams will participate in nearly 1,500 judged debates during the season; four contests at home and four away.

Upper Peninsula debate competition began Nov. 7 at Menominee High School, with 21 schools participating in the first of the traditional UP tournaments. Clarkston school will participate in the program with debate coach, Bob Mills.

MEDAL AWARDED NATURALIZED CITIZEN

The General Richardson Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met Thursday evening at the Federal Savings and Loan Building. Hostesses were Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. H. B. Austin, Mrs. Harry Chapman, Mrs. William Kalwitz, Mrs. T. W. Jackson, Mrs. Charles Whipple and Miss Iva Jane Price.

An Americanism medal was awarded to Mr. Jose Vega of Wallend Lake. Mr. Vega is a newly naturalized citizen of the United States and one of the many present this evening, all pupils grounded in Americanism by Miss Janice Antona, a Pontiac High School teacher and head of the New Citizens' League. Mrs. William Todd, Chairman of the Americanism Committee, presented the medal, saying that Mr. Vega was now an outstanding citizen, possessing dependability, patriotism, honesty, trustworthiness and loyalty. She also presented Mrs. Vega with a corsage and introduced their daughter. About one hundred members and guests were present, among them being Mrs. Edmund Hadden, a member of the board of directors of the New Citizens' League, who had charge of the guest book. Other guests were Mrs. Lynn Allen of Waterford, Mrs. Lee Hill, Mr. Roy Barnes of Royal Oak and former mayor of Pontiac, Mr. Donaldson. Husband of members of the D. A. R. and many other invited guests were present.

The speaker of the evening was the Honorable William S. Broomfield, who gave an assuring and factual address entitled "America's Defense".

DEER SEASON OPENS SUNDAY

Sunday, November 15, is the target date for more than 400,000 hunters expected to open Michigan's regular and special fire-arm deer seasons.

An estimated 460,000 hunters will take to the woods during the November 15-30 seasons and the December 1-5 special season in an area of Allegan county.

Liberalized special season measures, together with archery take and buck kill, are designed to raise the whitetail harvest to 116,000, a 14 percent hike over last year's figure of 101,750.

An increase has been made in special hunting permits and areas covered under "any deer" shooting in an effort to ward off heavy deer losses this winter. In many areas, the herd left its major feeding range badly over-browsed last winter. Much of this will not recover sufficiently to carry the present herd, estimated at more than 700,000 animals, through the 1959-60 winter.

Approximately 100,000 special permits were issued this week for "any deer" hunting in 39 crop-damage and food-shortage areas which cover 18,457 square miles. Last year, 13,670 square miles fell under special seasons while 55,265 hunters were issued permits.

Permittees shot 26,000 antlerless deer in 1958; they are expected to harvest 45,350 this year. Conservation Department game men look for a slight rise in archery take but a drop from 73,000 to about 68,000 in buck kill.

As in the past, Department biologists will be busy during and right after the seasons, compiling information which will help shape deer management programs.

Successful hunters are urged to stop at one of the Department's various roadside biological checking stations to have their deer aged and studied for sex, weight and antler data. These stations will be located at Standish, Sanford, Mt. Pleasant, Morley, White Cloud and the Straits of Mackinac. Information gained at these check points gives game men an insight to the general physical condition of deer, particularly those in trouble areas of the range.

Traffic surveys will be conducted to measure deer kill and other observations will be made at locker plants, Department headquarters and hunting camps.

SPECIAL MEETING FOR STOCKHOLDERS

Detroit Edison will hold a special informational meeting for stockholders of this area Monday, November 16, it has been announced by Walker L. Cisler, president of the company.

The meeting will be held at the Henry and Edsel Ford Auditorium in Detroit's new Civic Center, and will open at two o'clock Monday afternoon. Edison officers and member of the board of directors will attend the meeting.

The president will report on matters of special interest to stockholders, including the company's programs aimed at broadening recognition of Michigan's unique industrial advantages. Detroit Edison's atomic power development activities, with special reference to the Enrico Fermi Atomic Power Plant project, also will be discussed. There will be a question-and-answer period in which Edison officials will respond to questions on all departments of company operation.

Planned for the convenience of people in the company's service area who own Detroit Edison shares, the meeting is open to the public, and is the eighth of its kind held annually by the company. Seventy per cent of Detroit Edison's 105,000 shareholders live in Michigan, and most of these live in the company's 7,600-square-mile service area in the southeastern part of the state.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP BOARD HELD NOV. 3, 1959.

Meeting called to order by Supervisor Hursfall. Roll Call: Hursfall, Doebler, Johnson, Anthony and Bauer present.

Motion by Bauer supported by Johnson that the reading of the minutes of the last meeting be waived and they be approved as printed in the Clarkston News Oct. 29, 1959. Carried.

Motion by Johnson supported by Bauer that the rezoning from Suburban Farms to Residence 1 of lands in Sections 25 and 36 as recommended by the Township Zoning Board and the Oakland County Coordinating Zoning Board following a Public hearing held October 13, 1959, be approved by the Township Board. Carried.

Communication from Milton Cooney regarding the suit of the Township vs. E. L. Coulter and others. The matter was discussed. The Board was of the opinion that the case should be carried through the Courts and arrangements should be made with Mr. Cooney if possible, to represent the Township in the matter.

SUN STAYS DOWN MAKES YOUR DAY START AT NIGHT

Robert Louis Stevenson once wrote:

"In winter I get up at night And dress by mellow candle-light.

In summer, quite the other way,

I have to go to bed by day."

November marks the beginning of the season for starting the day "at night," states a University of Michigan astronomer.

Associate Prof. Hazel M. Losh (Ph.D.) says: "The fast shortening of the days from now until the shortest in December will probably be the most noticeable feature of the month.

"The sun is rapidly moving south, causing a marked decrease in the daylight hours. By the end of November, the day will have decreased to about nine hours and 20 minutes with only 15 minutes to go to reach the shortest day of December.

"The sun will be swinging relatively short daily arcs across the southern sky with its altitude at noon above the south horizon having decreased from 48 degrees in September to 34 degrees by early November. It will drop to 26 degrees by the end of the month."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A Real "Meaty" Subject

Today I've got a tale that really hits close to home—but it's okay, I've got the wife's permission to tell it.

My Mrs. Marsh has been cooking hams—deliciously, I might add—for years. But always, just before she pops 'em into the oven, she slices an inch off one end. Reason: she said her mother always did that to make ham tastier.

Last week, though, Grandma gave the real reason. Sure, she used to slice an inch from a ham but only when her roasting pan was an inch too short.

From where I sit, all of us do things that can't be backed up by reason or fact. Most time they're pretty silly things—particularly the petty prejudices we build. For instance, some folks may resent your preference for buttermilk at dinner, or mine for a glass of beer. If they'd stop to think "why"—they'd realize they were taking a "slice" off our friendship and for no good reason at all.

Invitation to Public Hunting

State game areas serve the same basic function for hunters as public fishing sites do for anglers by providing public lands for sport. Many are also used as "outdoor laboratories" for wildlife and habitat experiments by the Conservation Department. Data gained from these experiments are invaluable guides in shaping the Department's game management program. To date, Michigan has more than 50 such areas, most of which are found in the southern part of the state where private ownership of lands has restricted hunting. Money used to acquire these areas came from hunting license sales and taxes on guns and ammunitions.

SAFETY SABBATH HAS BEEN DESIGNATED AS NOV. 15

The weekend of November 15 has been designated as Safety Sabbath.
 According to James M. Hare, Chairman of the State Safety Commission the aim of this inter-denominational program is not to highlight just one day but to put emphasis on a continuing program pointing up the moral responsibility of the individual on the highway.
 "Many people are not alive today because their attitude or lack of maturity was responsible for a fatal accident," Hare said. "If more motorists implemented their driving by remembering the verse, 'Whatsoever ye would that men do unto you, do ye even so to them', we would have fewer accidents and a better world for all of us."

Michigan Posed by Water Problems

Although it boasts the most plentiful supply of fresh water in the United States, Michigan is faced with water problems. Many of these problems are created by conflicting multiple uses and ruses for domestic, industrial and agricultural supply, waste disposal, power generation, navigation and recreation. Increased water needs for irrigation and industry pose a major hurdle. Complex demands from an ever-expanding population will exert increased pressure on the Water Wonderland in the years ahead.
