The evening was spent enjoying a pot-luck supper and dancing and a gift of money to go toward fire-place furnishings was presented to the family. The Norgroves moved to their new home on November 20th.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pammenter who recently left Waterford to make their home in Arkansas, that they have located in Siloam Springs and have bought a home there.

Mrs. Ray Everett of Clayton Street was guest of honor at a birthday dinner Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fritz, neighbors across the street. Steaks were cooked on outdoor grills in the garage and were served piping hot with french fries and all the trimmings. In addition to the Everetts the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne White of Norris Street and the Ralph Grubbs of Clayton Street.

Mrs. William Granger, Mrs. Wallace Brown and Mrs. A. L. Purcell will be hostesses for the Adult Bible Class on Tuesday, February 2nd, at 7:30 at the Waterford Community Church. The Ladies Auxiliary meeting is at the church on Thursday, February 4th with Mrs. Granger and Mrs. William Barber in charge of the 12:30 cooperative luncheon.

Mrs. Henri Buck was honored at a surprise birthday luncheon on January 19th when Mrs. Henry Mehler entertained 17 guests at her home on Andersonville Road. In addition to several Waterford friends who were present, Mrs. Buck's two daughters Mrs. William Poland of Detroit and Mrs. Victor Lindquist of Pontiac were here. Also from out of town were Mrs. Oscar Virgin and Mrs. Fred Tuck both from near Rochester and Mrs. Isabelle Pratt from Detroit. Birthday cakes for the luncheon were baked by Mrs. William Granger and Mrs. Fred Tuck.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST Oxford, Michigan Sunday School 11:00 A. M. Sunday Service 11:00 A. M. How prayer enables man to cope effectively with the problems of daily living will be brought out Sunday at Christian Science services.

Each section of the Lesson-Sermon on "Love" will deal with some aspect of prayer as taught by the master Christian, Christ Jesus. Selections to be read from the Bible include these verses from the Sermon on the Mount: "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened" (Matthew 7:7,8).

Also emphasizing the power of prayer are citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, which include the following: "If we pray to God as a corporeal person, this will prevent us from relinquishing the human doubts and fears which attend such a belief, and so we cannot grasp the wonders wrought by infinite, incorporeal Love, to whom all things are possible" (13:20-24).

VOLUNTEER BUREAU NEEDS HELP

The January meeting of the Central Volunteer Bureau, a member agency of the Pontiac Area United Fund, was held at the Community Services Building recently.

Mr. Ted Panaretos, Community Services Director of Pontiac State Hospital, was elected as a member of the Volunteer Bureau's Board. Guest at the meeting was Mrs. Dwight Schrock, Home Economics for Michigan State Extension Service.

The board discussed the immediate need for volunteer help in the United Fund office.

A committee was appointed to handle an award tea for the workers of the Central Volunteer Bureau. Members of this committee include: Mrs. Stanley Carter, 1585 Lone Pine Road; Mrs. Stanley Stolorow, 422 Shoreview Drive; Mrs. Allen Priestley, 2973 Edgefield; and Mrs. Warren Fowler, 59 Lake.

Mrs. Barbara Briney, Motor Aide Chairman, reported that there is a great need for volunteer drivers.

LADIES YOU'RE ALL INVITED TO FARM WEEK

Farm and city women alike are invited to attend the 45th annual Farmers' Week on the campus of Michigan State University in East Lansing. Farmers' Week will be held February 1-5, with programs especially for women taking place Tuesday through Thursday (Feb. 2-4).

Miss Evelyn Zwemer, chairman of the committee for the women's program, says the program is for all Michigan women. On Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings, small sectional meetings will be held on the third floor of the M.S.U. Union building. "Household Appliances Can Become Juvenile Delinquents," "Michigan Food Laws and You," and "The Family in a Changing World" are a few of the interesting topics that will be discussed by experts at these meetings which begin at 10 a.m.

Two selected movies are also highlighting the women's program. In "Assignment Children," movie star Danny Kaye visits children in India, Japan, Korea and other Far Eastern countries in a film concerned with the nutritional problems of these countries.

"Better Living through Research," produced by the Institute of Home Economics, is the other film which should interest all women.

Exhibits will be featured in the Home Economics building, Spartan stadium, and Agricultural Engineering building.

On Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, large general sessions are scheduled. You can learn about pros and cons of trading stamps, foods of the future, and what you pay for advertising on Tuesday in the Physics-Mathematics building. Thursday features "ClothesLINE, 1960," presented by the textiles, clothing and related arts department in the University auditorium.

Wednesday afternoon is the time for you to chat with other homemakers attending Farmers' Week at the "Get-Acquainted" luncheon, scheduled for 12:30 in the Big Ten Room, Kellogg Center. Featured speaker will be Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, whose topic is "Families Fashion Our World." Advance reservations are necessary for the luncheon.

Further information concerning Farmers' Week program is available through your county Cooperative Extension Office, or through Information Services, M.S.U., East Lansing.

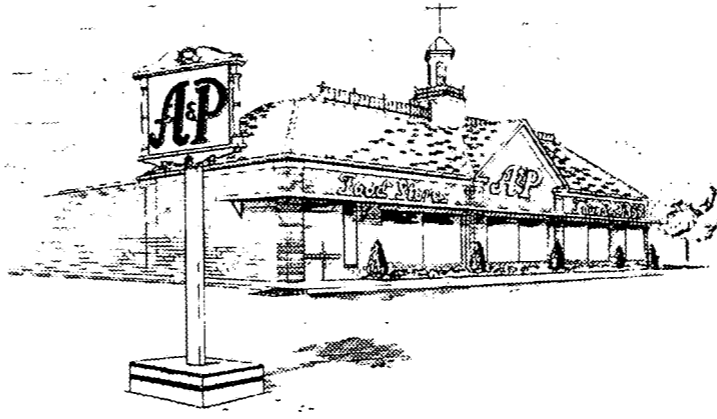

BE CAREFUL WHEN FILLING OUT INCOME TAX RETURNS

Stop! Take a second look at that Federal income tax return you are filling out.

Did you declare all of the dividends you received last year? And all of the interest you reported or were credited with?

It is important that you report these amounts, R. I. Nixon, District Director of U. S. Internal Revenue Service at Detroit said.

Early American Design For New A & P Supermarket

A big super market of Early American design will be built for A & P Food Stores in Clarkston. Company Vice President M. W. Alldredge announced today.

The super market, containing nearly 14,000 sq. ft. of floor space, will be erected on property facing U.S. 10 and M-15 he said.

Parking for nearly 200 cars will be provided.

The new super market, a unique blending of the past and present, will incorporate virtually all modern merchandising equipment.

"The law requires you to report all dividends received and all interest received or credited to your account last year," Mr. Nixon said.

He cautioned that his office will make a closer check this year of dividend and interest items as part of the nationwide IRS program to close the $5 billion gap in unreported dividends and interest.

"So, be sure to include these items," he advised.

WINTERTIME CARE FOR EVERGREENS

Snow and ice of winter can pick off shrubs in your yard and garden.

Joe Cox, extension specialist in landscape architecture at Michigan State University, says damage often comes from the weight of the snow and ice. Branches are forced to droop, deforming them or causing them to split or break.

Cox suggests you tend to your

Typically colonial in styling, the red brick and white trim front of the new store will rise to a pitched roof with ornamental railing and a cupola topped by a graceful weathervane.

One of the highlights of the new store will be a self service meat department with refrigerated production line. It will also feature such present-day equipment as air conditioning, automatic doors, express checkout system, tile floor and latest-type lighting.

The food department store is scheduled for completion by mid-summer.

shrubs immediately after a snow storm if you haven't given them advance protection. Gently shake the snow from the branches with a broom.

Low spreading evergreen shrubs can be protected by giving the branches some support— ahead of the storm. Lay boughs under the branches to buoy them up. Cox suggests that snow can be used for this purpose also. As you shovel the walk, pile some of the snow under spreading branches to prevent them from bending to the ground.

Another method often seen in northern Michigan is the use of light, supporting crates, built from lath or other light-weight boards. These structures can be painted dark green to blend with the shrubs, and they can be used year after year.

Upright-type plants can be protected by tying the spreading branches to the main stem with a soft cloth. It may help to add the support of a stake in the center of such plants before tying the branches.

Bumps and bruises from children and dogs romping through the yard are not kind to shrubs, so try to protect the plantings from this rough treatment. When branches are brittle, they break easily.

SCHOLARSHIPS DISCUSSED

"College Scholarships hold as much interest and responsibility for parents as it does for teenagers." "Parents should urge children to start early in seeking scholarship information". These are some of the comments made by the panel who will discuss Scholarships at a meeting February 4, 1960, at 8:00 p.m. at Michigan State University, Oakland, in room 159.

Sponsored by the Oakland County Home Economics Extension Council, Michigan State Extension Service, the program will be moderated by Dr. Herbert M. Stoutenburg, Director of Admissions, Michigan State University, Oakland.

Mrs. Virginia Dryer, Director Scholarships and Loans, Wayne State University and her assistant Mr. Wm. VanDusen will discuss the National Defense Education Act. The role of a school counselor will be explained by Mr. Terry Thomas, Counselor at Clarkston High School and Mrs. Wm. J. McCarthy, co-chairman Family Life committee Michigan Home Economics Extension Council will describe the many sources of scholarships. Mrs. Stoutenburg will summarize the general problems and explain requirements for most scholarships. A half hour question and answer period follows the panel discussion.

Those present will be given an outline of helpful information featuring the highlights of the panel discussion. Illustrative material on specific scholarships and book listing scholarships throughout the nation will be available for reference at the meeting.

A COURSE IN REAL ESTATE LAW OPENS IN PONTIAC

"Real Estate Law," a required course in The University of Michigan's program leading to a Certificate in Real Estate, will open in Pontiac on Tuesday, February 2, the U-M's Extension Service announces. Sessions will meet at 7:00 p. m., in Room 216, Pontiac Central High School, 250 West Huron. The course is given with the cooperation of the Pontiac Board of Realtors.

Instructor will be Clarence A. Burck, Farmington attorney. The course is designed to acquaint realtors and other businessmen with those points of law which are pertinent to real estate transactions. The rights and duties of both parties involved in such transactions will be covered. Enrollment may be made in advance with the sponsoring board or at the opening session.

CLEANING THE ORNATE SILVERWARE

Ornate silverware can be cleaned by dipping a small brush into silver cleaner and rubbing it into the crevices of the design. Home economists at Michigan State University suggest that you don't try to remove all of the oxidation, however. Some darkening adds depth to the design and brings out the lovely pattern of the silverware.

the Great Books speak to Today...

IT IS WELL not to seek to have as many friends as possible, for it would seem actually impossible to be a great friend to many people. This is why one cannot love several people. Love is ideally a sort of excess of friendship, and that can only be felt towards one person. Therefore great friendship too can only be felt toward a few people.

—Aristotle (384-322 B.C.) Greek philosopher

To let friendship die away by negligence and silence is certainly not wise. It is voluntarily to throw away one of the greatest comforts of this weary pilgrimage.

—Samuel Johnson (1709-1784) English critic

In some cases it is really more creditable to be carried away by an emotion, however unreasonable, which springs from a great love, than to be unmoved. And this is even truer in youth, for a young man who is always sensible is to be suspected and is of little worth.

—Fyodor Dostoevsky (1821-1881) Russian novelist

To those who have neither public nor private affections, the excitements of life are much curtailed; while those who leave after them objects of personal affection, and especially those who have also cultivated a fellow-feeling with the collective interests of mankind, retain as lively an interest in life on the eve of death as in the vigor of youth and health.

—John Stuart Mill (1806-1873) English philosopher

START WITH COLOR IN THE ROOM

Pleasant rooms do not just happen—they are planned. Home economists at Michigan State University say color is an important starting point in room planning.

PROCEEDINGS OF A REGULAR MEETING OF THE INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP BOARD HELD JANUARY 19, 1960

Meeting called to order by Supervisor Hursfall.

Roll Call: Hursfall, Doebler, Johnson, Anthony, Bauer and Gardiner.

Motion by Bauer supported by Anthony that the reading of the minutes of the last meeting be waived and they be approved as printed in the Clarkston News, January 14, 1960. Carried.

Dr. Tucker member of the Zoning Board, was present to suggest that the Zoning and Building Codes needed to be revised with the thought of their standing valid in court, also the County should appoint a committee to draft a uniform ordinance to be in effect throughout the County.

Robert Jensenius was again present to inquire about sidewalks along Maybee Road near Sashabaw School. He was informed the cost must be spread against the abutting property owners, and the schools, and Road Commission would work together on the program.

Communication from Michigan State University concerning an Assessor's School to be held this winter and spring.

Motion by Bauer supported by Johnson that the Township pay the fees and expenses of James Gardiner for the school for Assessors. Carried.

Communication from Michigan Health Department and Johnson and Anderson regarding the chemical treatment of water in Pelton Hights Water System. Deceased to have a further investigation.

M. S. U. MUSEUM ASKS TO SEE ATTIC TREASURES

Think of the Michigan State University Museum before you call the salvage people. That's the plea of Dr. Frank Elliott, the Museum's curator of history, who maintains a constant interest in old books and papers and even antique equipment.

He says private citizens are one of the museum's best sources of acquisitions, even though some don't realize they own historical items. The museum has been trying to track down the owner of one collection of letters for years.

Other museum acquisitions come from "swaps." The M. S. U. Museum has swapped with museums and institutions around the world, and has even exchanged items with several museums in the Soviet Union.

ENROLLMENT BREAKS RECORD

Winter quarter enrollment at Michigan State University is 6 per cent higher than it was last year, according to Registrar Kermit Smith.

It sets a winter quarter record with 20,213 students enrolled. The comparable Winter quarter enrollment in 1959 was 18,570.

By full-time enrollment, MSU has moved from tenth to eight place among the nation's largest universities. The University of Michigan is America's fifth largest school.

From Nagasaki To The Seven Seas

The 46,000-ton "Virginia Getty," built for an American oil company, sails on her maiden voyage from the Nagasaki yards of the Mitsubishi Shipbuilding and Engineering Corp. Japan's shipbuilding industry has now attained world leadership, and is one of her leading dollar earners through exports to the United States, Greece and other maritime nations. During 1958, steel ship construction amounted to 2,212,848 gross tons, of which 1,167,494 gross tons were for foreign accounts. The steel, machinery and other components of tankers and freighters represent sizable imports from the United States, exemplifying the two-way nature of foreign trade.

OLDER WORKERS EMPLOYABLE, PROFESSOR SAYS

Older workers can compete in the job market if employers will give them the opportunity, says Michigan State University Professor Daniel H. Kruger.

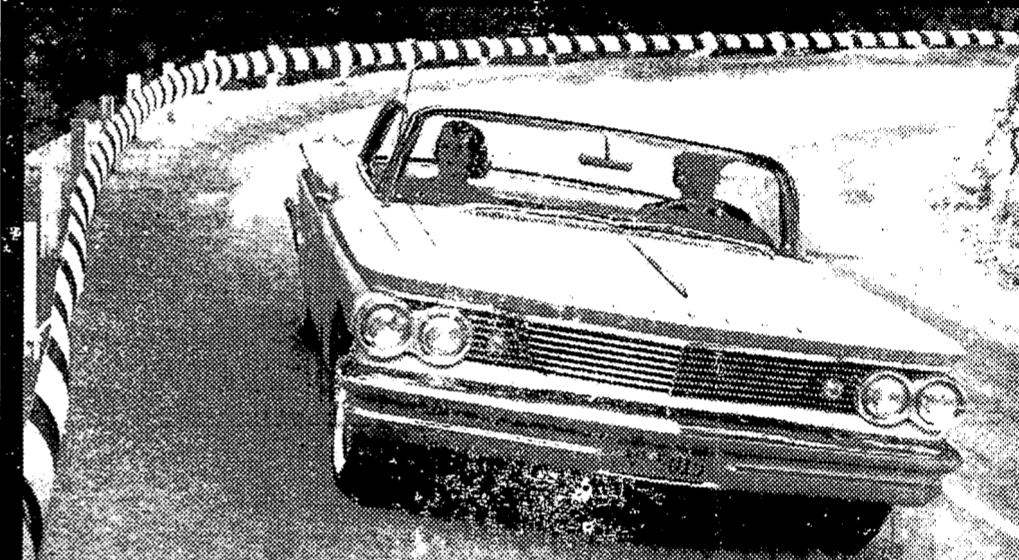

Employer contentions to the contrary, many older workers can maintain production standards, meet physical standards, learn new techniques, and compete with younger workers on attendance records, writes Professor Kruger in the latest edition of Business Topics, published by the M. S. U. Bureau of Business and Economic Research.

Nor, says Professor Kruger, need older workers cost the employer more for pensions or insurance, as is usually supposed.

Marching Mothers to Collect Facts, Funds

"If you can answer no to the questions inside, be thankful! If you must answer yes, take hope!"

American mothers will carry this message to over 30 million homes this month. The mothers, volunteers in the annual Mothers' March for the New March of Dimes, will be seeking information and support for The National Foundation's fight against birth defects, arthritis and polio. These cripplers, initial targets in The National Foundation's campaign to prevent crippling disease, affect the lives of one of every four American families.

Two Million in March
An estimated two million women will join the nationwide mothers' appeal for facts and funds. In most communities the mothers will march Thursday evening, Jan. 28, bringing to a climax the New March of Dimes January campaign.

The mothers will present each household with a copy of "Door Count," a concise fact-finding folder in which a family may indicate if any of its members has a birth defect, arthritis or polio and how many have had three or more Salk vaccine shots. Each family record will be confidential.

Salk Shot Reminder

The Mothers' March door count will focus family and community attention on the majority of Americans still without Salk shot protection against paralytic polio. It will remind the unvaccinated to start shots in time for summer polio protection and it will help communities plan local programs to further encourage

This questionnaire will go to more than 30 million homes in every part of the country to provide information about three crippling diseases that affect one of every four American families.

Two million mothers like this one will conduct a house-to-house door count this month seeking information and support for the New March of Dimes campaign against birth defects, arthritis and polio.
