Overcoming of fatigue and weariness through entirely spiritual means will be a theme dealt with at Christian Science services this Sunday. Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality" will include the following from Isaiah (40:28,29): "Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength." Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (385:15-18): "Constant toil, deprivations, exposures, and all untoward conditions, if without sin, can be experienced without suffering. The Holy Land Observes Lent

The important Christian observance of Lent and Easter is of particular significance in the Arab world. On this very ground where the magnificent drama of Christ's life actually was played, devout Christians initiate the observance of Holy Week on Palm Sunday as they participate in the solemn Procession of Palms which begins at the top of the Mount of Olives.

"After the Lord had risen from supper, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the feet of the disciples, to whom He gave this example." (John, 13:4, 5, 15.) This sacred ceremony of the Washing of the Feet, symbolic of Christ's humility at the Last Supper, is performed on Maundy Thursday in Jerusalem and in Christian churches throughout the world.

During this season many Christians prayerfully watch for the gift of the Holy Fire at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. For each year on Saturday of Holy Week the faithful participate in the Ceremony of Light when the Orthodox Patriarch enters the Tomb of Christ, and a fire is passed from Heaven lighting his torch, thus symbolizing the victory of the Cross.

As the ceremonies of Holy Week come to a climax, on Good Friday, willing hands bear the cross that weighed so heavily on the divine shoulder as Jesus bore the symbol of His martyrdom through the streets of Old Jerusalem, now in Jordan. Retracing the way of the cross, worshippers follow the way of Christ to salvation for mankind.

PLANETARIUM PLANS EASTER PRESENTATION

A holiday presentation, "The Easter Sky," will open at the Robert T. Longway Planetarium, Flint Junior College, on Friday, April 1 and will run through Sunday, March 1.

The program will concentrate on both the religious and scientific aspects of the observance of Easter. The crucifixion and resurrection scenes will be recreated. Giving the atmosphere for the religious part of the presentation will be inspiring combinations of light, color and sound.

The scientific part of the program will be concerned with the sun, the moon and the calendar. One of the questions to be answered will be, "How do we know when to observe Easter?"

The presentation will run through May 1, with shows being given Tuesday through Saturday at 8 p. m.; and matinees Saturday and Sunday at 2 p. m. Admission is reasonable.

ANTIQUE SHOW AT DETROIT'S MASONIC TEMPLE

Searching for a cranberry picker to fashion into a magazine rack, or a wooden decoy to convert into a lamp? You will find both among the 50,000 items at the Great Lakes Antiques Show Thursday, March 31 through April 3, at Detroit's Masonic Temple.

Antiques at the show range in price from less than one dollar to over $500.

What is an antique? Mr. S. E. Leonardson, former owner of the antique show, says it must be an object over 100 years old, according to law and for tax purposes. In the trade, however, it might be 50 to 100 years old. There is no doubt that Grandma threw away a small fortune. But if she hadn't, many articles would have little value today. Scarcity rather than age often determines the value of an antique.

Some of the unusual antiques available at the show will be trick canes, occupational mugs, iron toys, key winding watches, and antique shawls. There are antiques to interest the entire family. Jewelry display of bracelets, rings and pins will interest most women. Men will be attracted to displays of rifles, muskets and pistols, in addition to swords and knives. Children will delight in antique puppets, dolls, mechanical banks and Indian artifacts.

Fifty-five dealers will exhibit antiques at the four-day show. All antiques are for sale. Hours of the show, which is Detroit's oldest antique show, are 12 noon to 10:30 (last evening until 9 p. m.) A small admission will be charged.

SMELT RUNS BEGIN AS WATER TEMPERATURES RISE

Spawning runs of smelt soon should be invading Michigan's tributary streams of the Great Lakes.

Water temperatures and levels will again rule the timing of the runs. Last year, weather postponed them and caused spotty success for fishermen.

Upstream migrations of the slender, silvery fish begin when water temperatures rise to about 40 degrees. Although there are marked differences from year to year and even within the same stream, smelt movements usually begin during early April in the lower peninsula and around mid-April above the Straits.

Conditions for smelt netting have been poor in the Great Lakes during the winter, but Conservation Department fisheries officials have no word from commercial fishermen of a big, downward shift in populations.

In the past, Great Lakes commercial catch has been a fairly dependable gauge for previewing the season in Michigan's streams. Generally, the inland catch for one month is comparable to the annual commercial take in the Great Lakes. Peak of commercial smelt netting occurs during the winter and spring months. During 1959, commercial fishermen took approximately 4,000,000 pounds of smelt.

While much depends upon the weather, fishermen can aid their cause this spring by observing lights-out periods, where possible, to encourage smelt on their upstream runs.

Hand nets not more than five feet in circumference may be used to dip smelt in designated waters from March 1 to May 31. Lists of these waters are available from the Department's Lansing office or its field district headquarters.

Barren Chapter in Forest Story

This stump vista stands as a solemn reminder of the timber harvests during the late 1800s and the devastating forest fires that followed. This scene recaptures northern Michigan as it looked, by and large, at the turn of the century after logging operations had virtually stripped its lands of virgin pine and hardwood timber. It recounts the ravages of fires which, in some years, razed more than a million acres. Effects of this era are still felt today and many of the Conservation Department's programs center around repairing the damage they caused or using the benefits they provided.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN MEET IN WASHINGTON

Michigan is sending its largest delegation ever to the Eighth Annual Republican Women's Conference at Washington, D. C., April 2 to 5.

An even 100 Michigan party workers will attend the sessions and arrangements have been made for special train accommodations, said Mrs. Albert S. Koeze, of Grand Rapids, chairman of the delegation.

Attending from Oakland County will be: Mrs. Lynn Allen, Pontiac; Mrs. Hope Campbell, Pontiac; Mrs. Jean Green, Birmingham; Mrs. Naomi Griffen, Pontiac; Mrs. Isabel Haynes, Farmington; Mrs. Harry Henderson, Birmingham; Mrs. Kay Leahy, Royal Oak; Mrs. Ernest Johnson, Highland; Mrs. Harold Kalbfleish, Birmingham; Mrs. J. Rommes, Pontiac; Mrs. L. Raymond, Pontiac; Mrs. Allen Strom, Birmingham; Mrs. Donald White, Waterford.

"Our slogan is 'GOP Women on the Go,'" said Mrs. Koeze. "The enthusiasm and interest shown this year exceeds anything in the past and we women are going to win this election."

Special railroad cars will be available for groups of GOP women to board at Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, Jackson, Ann Arbor, and Detroit on April 1.

STITCHED BY HAND

"Hand-tailored" can mean good quality - or not. It all depends on the quality of the hand stitching. Eleanor Mullikin, clothing instructor at Michigan State University, says good machine stitching looks and wears better than poor quality hand sewing. In well-made suits, however, good hand-tailoring construction cannot be duplicated by machine.

a $20,000 allocation for student loans for this year from the U.S. Office of Education under the National Defense Education Act. Chancellor Varner's proposal, besides helping deserving youths in MSUO's area, is a contribution to solving what President Eisenhower and many other Federal officials have described as the nation's most serious problem — the loss of brainpower.

The U.S. Office of Education estimates that 200,000 able students fail to go on to college each year, and that lack of money accounts for half of this wastage of talent. The President has said that this loss must be halted if this country is to compete successfully in the struggle for world leadership.

WITNESSES TO ASSEMBLE
IN OAK PARK APRIL 1-3

Jehovah's Witnesses will hold a three-day circuit assembly in Oak Park, April 1-3, it was officially announced today by their governing body, the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York.

The Oak Park Senior High School is to be used for the occasion and upwards to 1400 delegates from 21 congregations in eastern Michigan are expected to attend the sessions.

Mr. William P. Strong, 2500 Rosewood Dr., presiding minister of the Drayton Plains congregation, said "The assembly is not a revival, but is held primarily to advance Christian Bible education."

The three-day program includes a variety of talks on Bible subjects, said Mr. Strong. Groups of Ministers will deal with ministerial problems and by discussions and demonstrations show how Christians should conduct Bible studies. Sessions will be conducted morning, afternoon and evening, with a baptism of new ministers on Saturday afternoon.

The convention's theme is "Seek Peace and Pursue It". The featured speaker on the program appearing daily will be Mr. Peter D'Mura, from Jehovah's Witnesses world headquarters in Brooklyn, New York. He has served on the headquarters staff as District supervisor of ministers in the Great Lakes

Wild Turkeys Making The Grade

Vanished from Michigan by the 1890's, wild turkeys are staging a comeback in isolated parts of the state's lower peninsula. Nearly 800 birds were stocked in Allegan state forest and Baldwin, Mio and Gladwin districts by the Conservation Department from 1954 to 1957. By last fall, turkeys in these major areas numbered an estimated 1,300 birds. Flocks in the Allegan area are nearing the saturation point. Since roughly 50 percent of the turkey's fall population normally fails to survive the winter, a very limited hunting season may eventually be in the offing to harvest a few of the area's mature birds. For the present, Department game men plan to live-trap and stock the area's surplus birds in northern sectors of the state where recent releases have been encouraging.

area for several years. Mr. D'Mura will deliver the principal address of the assembly Sunday, April 3, on the subject "Finding Peace in a Troubled World".

Mr. Austin J. Kizer of 733 E. Pike St., has been invited to appear on the convention program Saturday evening. Mr. Kizer serves in the Pontiac East Congregation as presiding minister. Mr. Neal Hamilton of the Drayton Plains Congregation will appear Friday evening on the Ministry School program.

Some 170 in Drayton Plains Congregation expect to attend the convention, according to Mr. Strong.

VA ADMINISTRATION ADVISES VETERANS

In financial emergencies, veterans who hold permanent GI life insurance are better off to borrow on their policies rather than cash them in to raise money, Gene A. Robens, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Detroit, said today.

GI policyholders may borrow up to 94 percent of the cash surrender value of their permanent plan policies, Mr. Robens pointed out. Only GI term insurance has no loan value.

Even if the policyholder borrows the limit permissible on his policy, the policy remains in effect, although the protection is reduced until the loan is repaid, Mr. Robens explained.

All protection ceases forever when the policy is surrendered for cash, because once the GI policy is cancelled, it cannot be restored.

Annual interest on GI policy loans is computed on the unpaid balance, and should be paid on or before the due date, Mr. Robens emphasized. Should a veteran die before repaying the loan in full, the unpaid balance is deducted from the policy proceeds before the beneficiaries are paid.

CLARKSTON SCOUTS PLAN CONSERVATION PROJECT

Richard Funk, Troop Committee Chairman of Clarkston Boy Scout Troop No. 126, revealed today that the scouts, under the supervision of Scoutmaster Jack Frost and his assistants, plan, as a combined Scouting Conservation Project and Community Improvement Project to clean the creek between Parke Lake and Middle Lake from the Church Street Bridge downstream across Waldon Rd. to the M15 Bridge. Plans are to start at the Church St. Bridge where there is a large accumulation of broken pop bottles, thrown there by thoughtless school children on their way back to school after their lunch period. As they work their way downstream all debris will be removed to the nearest road where waiting trucks will haul the trash to the dump. Plans are to complete this project early this spring.

Clarkston is a good scouting town. Its Scouts and Scouters will, during the coming years, do many Civic Projects to help make their town a better place to live.

Call the Scout Office and offer your help.

LET'S TALK ABOUT THE WEATHER

If you think March has been unusually cold this year you are right about it, according to E. L. Karkau, District Manager of Consumers Power Company.

"Reports of the U. S. Weather Bureau at Lansing show an average temperature of 18 degrees above zero for the first 23 days of March," Mr. Karkau said. "The normal average temperature for the whole month of March, based on the last ten years, is 33 degrees."

Normally March is warmer than January or February, Mr. Karkau said, but this year it is colder than either. The average January temperature this year was 26 and the average February temperature 23. These temperatures differ only slightly from the ten-year normal. For January normal average temperature is 24 and for February 26.

One effect of the colder weather is to increase the gas bills of people who heat their homes with gas.

"Some people have wondered if their higher bills were due to the fact that we are estimating gas and electric bills while our meter readers and other operating employees are on strike," Mr. Karkau said, "It is true that some of the estimates may run high. Others may run low. We try to make our estimates as accurate as possible, based on the customer's past use and other factors. In estimating the gas bills of people who heat their homes with gas, average temperatures for the period must be given careful consideration. Experience has indicated that our estimates come pretty close to the mark in most cases."

Mr. Karkau said weather conditions also affect electric bills to some extent, although comparatively few Michigan people heat their homes with electricity.

"Most furnaces are equipped with electric fans," he pointed out, "and the harder the furnace works the more electricity is used. Cold weather also tends to keep householders indoors and to promote greater use of television and other electric equipment."
