The Eastern Star Chapter of Clarkston will meet at the Masonic Temple, Monday, June 6 at 8:00 P. M. The new flags, recently purchased, will be dedicated with Mrs. Herman Gentry, Herman Gentry and Clyde Bonar giving a dedicatory tribute to The American Flag, The Christian Flag, and The Eastern Star Flag, respectively.

Mrs. Jesse Sparkman is chairman of the hostesses for the evening.

FIRST METHODIST TO HAVE "WORK DAY"

The Official Board of the First Methodist Church is busy recruiting 100 men of the church for a "Day for God" at the church on Saturday, June 4th. The men will meet for work at 9:00 a. m. Some of the women of The Women's Society under the leadership of Mrs. Sam Miller are preparing the noon meal. It is hoped by the Board that the work will be finished by 3:00 p. m. that afternoon.

The men are being invited to bring a paint brush, a ladder, a shovel, rake, or wheel barrow. Included in the day's activities are the painting of Wesley Hall, Epworth Hall, and the grading of the rear lawn where a new water system was connected between the church and the two Halls.

Reverend Richards, the pastor, mentioned last Sunday morning that it would be a great tribute to the church if the 300 men of the church were to all show up as a dedication of this one day out of the year to God.

Last Saturday 12 Boy Scouts from Troop No. 126 helped the pastor put in the gardens around the church.

REVIEW OF BALLET CONCERT

Saturday evening's ballet concert, presented by the Clarkston Conservatory of Music, under the direction of Miss Delores M. Ruhl, was a refreshing program of light dances. Wearing colorful costumes that emphasized the springlike mood of the program, the dancers delighted their audience with a variety of numbers, ranging from "Ballet Oriental" to "The Comedians," and including a Russian folk dance and two tap dances.

Saturday's presentation was more than a ballet recital. It also illustrated the development of the dancer, showing the sequences through which all dancers progress. One saw the satisfaction of the beginner who has learned to coordinate his feet to the rhythm he hears, and the graceful poise and ease that distinguishes the advanced student. There is a charm about well-performed concerts such as this one that cannot be found in professional ballet. This charm is the charm of youth, which is simultaneously intense, relaxed, self-conscious, and confident in its ability to do well.

Clarkston students dancing in the recital were: Leslie Bell, Wendy Eliason, Cindy Ford, Sharon Hellman, Patty Mulcrone, Casey Smith, Kris Smith, and Tommy Storer. Together with the Birmingham Concert Dancers they put on a memorable performance.

Rotary Anns Elect Officers

The Clarkston Rotary Anns met at the home of Mrs. Allen W. Hawke at 2890 Dixie Highway on Tuesday evening of last week. The co-hostesses were Mrs. R. N. Parker and Mrs. Garnet Poulton.

The business meeting was conducted by the President, Mrs. William Race, at which time it was voted to send 8 children to the Crippled Children's Camp on Lake Huron.

The following officers were elected for 1960-'61: president, Mrs. Robert Klingman; vice-president, Mrs. S. F. Goedde; recording secretary, Mrs. L. M. Oakley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Paul DeLongchamps; treasurer, Mrs. Bob Wertman, trustees, Mrs. Rudolf Schwarze and Mrs. Frank Ronk. These officers will be installed at a luncheon on Friday, June 17.

Following the business meeting the program chairman, Mrs. Robert Klingman, who believes it is good for a person to laugh a little, decided the Rotary Anns should laugh a lot and she announced a skit, "The Musical Adventures of Jack and Jill". The cast, attired in styles of long ago, included the commentator, Mrs. Ronald Walter, Mrs. William Race, Mrs. S. F. Goedde, Mrs. Charles Beach, Mrs. Lewis Wint, Mrs. Bob Wertman and Mrs. Klingman. After the commentator had recited the nursery rhyme about Jack and Jill, in proper English, she explained that other countries and music composers might have their versions of Jack and Jill and the aforementioned cast proceeded to sing the well-known rhyme as might be heard elsewhere. Needless to say they all did a fine job and their singing voices really captured their listeners.

Following the program dainty refreshments were served with Mrs. Ronald Walter presiding at the silver service.

ST. ANDREW'S TO OBSERVE WHITSUNDAY, JUNE 5

Sunday, June 5, will be Whitsunday—one of the great feast days of the Church—in which the birthday of the Christian Church at Pentecost in Jerusalem, when the power of the Holy Ghost descended upon the Apostles, and 3,000 people were added to the Church in one day. This celebration will be observed at St. Andrew's with special services of Festal Holy Communion, especially at the 9:30 and 11:15 A. M. Services.

New families who have come into the Church since May 17, 1959 (last Whitsunday) will be especially honored. Calling committees have been commissioned to extend personal invitations, as far as possible, to these families. The entire membership will be asked to wear name tags (green for new members, and white for long-time members.) The Episcopal Church Women will candor an informal coffee-hour type reception on the Church lawn, honoring the new members, following each service.

New members and their families will be asked to come forward to the altar rail for Communion or Altar Blessings, as a group.

Whitsunday will also be Spring Ember-day Loyalty Sunday. Emphasis will be on three things:

1. New persons and long-time members, alike, will be asked to consider definite pledges of time and talents, i.e. Service to the Church, for the next quarter year.

2. New members are being asked to consider half-year pledges at this time, and long-time members are being asked to re-evaluate their pledges, according to their circumstances, as they look for the next 6 months.

3. All members are being asked to consider making "birthday gifts" to the World Wide Church of Christ.

Literature is being obtained setting forth various different causes or sources of need which are not otherwise supported through the regular church channels.

These include such things as a gift of a nuclear peace purposes reactor to St. Paul's University, Tokyo, Japan, where it will also be used in the great St. Luke's Hospital for medical research and treatment purposes. It includes, also, a field for furnishing the beautiful new Diocesan Cathedral headquarters building, adjoining St. Paul's Cathedral, Woodward and Warren Ave., Detroit, sometime this fall and winter to be completed.

Latin Awards At Clarkston School

Thursday, May 26th, the Latin Department of Clarkston High School presented its Second Annual Latin Awards Program in the school cafeteria. During a candle-light ceremony, eleven students received from the hands of Mr. Thomas their membership certificates in the National Latin Honor Society. Membership in this society is granted to those who have maintained a high scholastic average during the academic year and who have, in the opinion of their teacher, shown a special aptitude for language study. Admitted into the society this year were Judy Fife, Maureen O'Mara, David St. Clair, Jean Powell, James Jennings, Mary Robbins, Marcelline Fox, Caroline Richmond, Marcia Booth, Larry Childress, and Donald Milligan. It was learned the following day that one of these students, Judy Fife, had also won a certificate of merit for having placed among the top quarter of those students taking the A. P. S. L. National Latin Competitive Examination this year. The Clarkston Latin students participated in this examination along with some 33,000 other Latin students throughout the United States.

According to tradition, the program was prepared by the Latin II students under direction of their teacher, Richard T. Urban. Guests of honor were Dr. Robert Hoops, dean of faculty MSUO; Dr. L. F. Greene, superintendent of schools; Mr. S. F. Goedde, principal of the high school, and Mr. Terry Thomas, boys' counselor.

Dr. Hoops spoke to the gathering on the place of the humanities in a true education. In the course of his address, Dr. Hoops announced that MSUO will begin its own Classics program next fall. He further said that it was the hope of MSUO to encourage the teaching of the Classics in this area, and that he rejected to hear that Clarkston would offer its first course in advanced Latin next year.

Punch, coffee, and cookies, served by the Latin II students closed the program.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY

by N. E. Masters
 Ten Clarkston High students became officials for a day on June 1st. Chosen by Mr. Bob Wilkinson and Mr. Ken Battani from their ninth grade vocational guidance classes, these students learned the regular duties of the officials, and under their supervision, became the government for the day.

Only those who were capable of presenting what they learned to other students in school and those who would be good representatives of CHS were chosen.

The ten students and offices they held were: David Smith, Supervisor; Betty Raby, Clerk; Mike Simonson, Treasurer; Edith McClard, Trustee; Fred Lissner, Fire Chief; Frank Powell, Superintendent of Cemeteries; Ward Robbins, Building Inspector; Dennis Zimmerman, Assessor; Barbara Hagen, Office Manager; Marcia Booth, Secretary.

Each student spent at least one-half day with the official they represented, attended one board meeting, reported to their class on the visit and wrote a short paper about what they had learned. David Smith also presented a short talk to the board.

YOUR OPINION

What is your opinion on the manner in which the Student Council Convention was conducted?

Cheryl Newbigging: The convention was more organized than in previous years. The keen competition seemed to give the feeling of a big election. I believe that campaign speeches should be held at the beginning of the campaign as this would prove helpful in getting on the right bandwagon.

Theresa Wooley: This was just like a real convention.

Pat Spencer: The campaign seemed to interest the students. More school spirit was shown.

Edith McClard: More students should participate in the campaign next year.

Rosemary Roberts: A more adult atmosphere.

Joyce Duckett: A lot more enthusiasm due to the advance publicity.

Sue Silsby: It was more interesting this year. The students seemed to feel the importance of electing the best officers for the coming school year.

Naomi Armstrong: I thought it was the best we have ever had. The convention and the way we had to register gave us a view of what we will do when we vote for our government in later years.

Gary Baker: I thought it was very good and very well organized this year. The students seemed to express themselves very well. This year the candidates took more interest in their platforms and speeches.

POPULAR MUSIC

by Diann Williams
 "Give me the making of the songs of a nation, and I care not who makes its laws." These words spoken by Andrew Fletcher in 1703 indicate the seriousness with which people accept their music.

Music is everyone's language. When we play a tune or sing a song, probably we are unable to tell the nationality, the color, the religion, or the politics of the man who wrote it. Music is broader than race, color, or creed. Music is a thing of beauty, which extends into every land and nation. Music is universal.

If one would know a people, let him first consider their songs. People choose the type of music which appeals to them. Here in America the most popular types are our hillbilly, western, ballad, and dance tunes. Much of this music is "music for dancing".

It is natural therefore that we should be interested in the study of music in the lives of American people by considering what the majority of the people enjoy hearing.
 This is popular music.

 The Annual Awards Assembly was held May 25 in the high school gym. The program began with a welcome given by Mr. Goedde who then turned the assembly over to Mr. Mauti. He introduced Miss Jetter who presented the chorus awards. She gave ten two-year pins and two three year pins along with fourteen All-League, Chorus pins to deserving students.

Next came Mr. Conners with the band awards. Guards were given to those who had formerly received pins. Five letters and ten pins were also given to those who obtained these honors. The majorettes and drum major, Dave DeLong, received recognition too.

After the musical awards and honors came those for basketball. Mr. Battani presented the ninth grade awards, Mr. Vaara, the Junior Varsity and Mr. Mauti, the Varsity. Bob Porritt received the most valuable player award, Richard Caverly the most improved player award, and Larry Landon the best proficiency award.

Miss Wildon followed with forensics pins, certificates and dictionaries. Six bronze first year pins, one silver second year pin, and three silver with red enamel insert pins were given. John Kieft who placed first in the regional contest presented to Mr. Goedde the regional forensics banner which the school team had won for us. Mr. Mauti then congratulated Miss Wildon and the team for their victory.

Golf awards were next presented by Mr. Randall. Five letter awards were given and Jim Gunter received the most valuable player award. This spring in the Pontiac Press Golf Meet our team placed fifth in the eighteen opponents in our class.

After golf came Debate awards with Mr. Mills, the sponsor passing out the honors. They went to three Seniors, six Juniors and one Sophomore. A Gold plaque which the team won this year was presented by Frank Strother to Mr. Goedde.

Junior Varsity Baseball awards were presented to the letter winners by Mr. Nielson, and Varsity awards by Mr. Battani. The most valuable player award went to Bob Porritt. Recognition also went to Bob Thomas who has been cited as one of the top ten hitters in Oakland County.

The six Varsity and six Junior Varsity cheerleaders and their managers were given awards by their sponsor Mrs. Wilkinson.

The cheerleading honors were followed by the publications awards. Mrs. Burnette presented these to Norman Masters, Dianne Williams and Sally Taylor.

Next came Pep Club letters and megaphones given out by Mr. Varner. There were countless ones in this category.

Last but not least were the track presentations awarded by Mr. Vaara and Mr. Burnette. Two of the outstanding participants were: Richard Caverly and Bob Porritt. Tom Gray was cited as having the most points for four years in track. Larry Morgan was also presented a special award.

The program closed and all trooped back to their classes admiring their own or someone else's award.

BEFORE THE CONVENTION

by N. E. Masters
 Campaigning at CHS for next year's Student Council officers was carried on at a feverish pace from Monday, May 23 up to the Convention on Thursday. In fact, several campaign posters were up even before Monday.

Without a doubt this campaign has been the most notable in recent CHS history. It roused interest to a remarkably high pitch and fully showed how much each student running for office really wanted that position. Whereas in previous years pre-convention campaigning has hardly ever reached further than the poster stage, this year there were bands, signboards, a street dance, records played in the cafeteria and several things handed out such as pretzels, gum and suckers with slogans on them as to whom to vote for. A few of the candidates and campaign managers responsible for this were Jane Zumbunnen, Jon Hicks, Bobo Christides, Melvin Smith, Linda Chapman, Georgia Robinson, Ruth McNeil and Sue Turek.

On Tuesday and Wednesday of Convention Week, students in grades 8 through 11 had to register if they wanted to vote on Friday. This too added to the glamor and authenticity of the election.

All in all, Student Council elections have become a pretty big thing and should be even bigger next year.

STUDENT COUNCIL CONVENTION

by Sue Larkin
 Carolyn Talmage
 One of the most important activities of the school year is the Student Council Convention. At this time the candidates along with his campaign manager, gives a speech stating his qualifications and his platform.

For almost two weeks the candidates covered the walls and ceilings of C. H. S. with their posters and signs. On May 24 and 25, the students had the opportunity to register to vote. The convention was held on May 26, and the voting took place on May 27 and May 31. This year the convention was bigger and better than ever before, with twelve students running for the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Shanna Stewart presided as convention chairman.

Running for office of Treasurer this year were Barb Buzzell, Mary Robbins, and Melvin Smith. Larry Blackett campaigned for Barb Buzzell. Barb has served in the student council for two years, and has been dependable and a hard worker. She is also a member of the Y-Teens and was manager of the J. V. cheerleading squad this year.

Mary Robbins' campaign manager Paulette Etter, gave Mary's qualifications as Vice-President and second semester President of Y-Teens this year. For next year Mary was elected President of Y-Teens and Secretary of Science Club. She was also elected a member of the National Honor Society. She has a sincere interest in Student Council, experience as a leader in other clubs, and the ability to do the job well.

Managing Melvin Smiths campaign was Denby Smith. Denby stated that Melvin has held the office as treasurer in seven different organizations, and has served as secretary in three organizations. He stated that with this experience, Melvin would be capable of taking over any office of Student Council in case of absence. He also has held a high B plus average in math, to prove he is capable of handling money and keeping books.

Dawn Bush, Linda Chapman, Ruth McNeil and Sue Turek ran for the office of Secretary.

Linda Willer, manager for Dawn Bush, stated that Dawn had been on Student Council at another school.

Campaigning for Linda Chapman was Janet Tish. Linda has had plenty of experience in writing as she is editor of The Wolf Cry. She also participated in the forensics contest, winning a first place with her original oratory.

Ruth McNeil chose Georgia Robinson to be her campaign manager. This year Ruth served as Point Secretary for the Junior Class and was on Student Council. She had something special for her campaign. The Vallids, featuring John Marsh, sang a song about Ruth and her qualifications.

Giving the qualifications for Sue Turek were Lucy Oakley and Jody Wilford. Sue is a member of Y-Teens, the Pep Club, and she participated in League Chorus. She also was Secretary for M. Y. F. the year and has served on Student Council for three years, this year acting as chairman of the King and Queen committee for Homecoming.

Running for the office of Vice-President were Ron Applegate and Roger Loop.

Ron Zumbunnen outlined Ron Applegate activities which would better qualify him as a good candidate. He has served on the Student Council for three years, worked on the carnival two years, was treasurer of the Junior High Student Council, Vice President of 4H for two years, and was President of 4H two years. He has also participated in League Student Council meetings and most important of all is a hard worker.

Campaigning for Roger Loop was Earl Pearson. Earl stated that his candidate was hard worker and would promote activities for the Student body if elected as Vice-President.

The most important office of the Student Council, President, was sought by Bobo Christides, Jon Hicks, and Jane Zumbunnen.

Linda Chapman represented Bobo Christides. She gave these as reasons to vote for Bobo: Promptness, Responsibility, Effort, Sincerity, Interest, Dependability, Experience, New School, Trustworthy. She had had 5 years experience on Student Council, serving as Vice President and second semester as President. She has been a J. V. and Varsity cheerleader, editor of the yearbook, The Hilltopper, as well as working on the school paper. Some of the things she would like to see take place next year are: more recognition of the Student Council in the yearbook and newspaper,

BRIDGE LESSONS IN THE OFFING

by Faye Burley
 suggestions from the students on important issues, and mimeographed copies of the minutes available to each student.

Fred Warrick spoke in behalf of Jon Hicks. Jon has served on the Student Council for two years. If elected president of next year's Student Council, Jon would devote all of his time, to the Student Council. Since we will be entering a new school, Jon would like to see the Student Council change, and he is open to any new ideas the student body may have.

The last candidate to speak was Jane Zumbunnen. John Kieft spoke in behalf of Jane. Some of her activities include: President of the Pep Club this year and next year, treasurer of G. A. A. for the coming school year, a member of Y-Teens and Science Club, and a Varsity Cheerleader for next year. Jane would like Student Council meetings open to the student body, more noon hour activities, and the students voting on important issues. She is a hard worker and has the ability to lead.

The offices of Secretary and Treasurer can be filled by any qualified high school student. The Vice-President must be a junior, and the President must be a senior.

TRAVELING TO THE ORIENT

by Faye Burley
 Are you interested in learning to play bridge? Mrs. Robert Kempf is offering this opportunity to high school girls during the month of June on Monday and Tuesday mornings at the Community Building. There is a small charge for five lessons. If you're interested sign up in the principal's office. The exact dates will be announced later.

SENIORS GIVE ADVICE

by Faye Burley
 What advice would you give to the underclassmen? Nancy Jennings: When you come to your senior year, enjoy every moment, but plan ahead because you need to study in every grade in order to succeed. Bob Lawson: Although school seems to take a long time to finish it will seem far too short at the end so get the most out of it. Dave Sanford: Have fun, especially in the last 6 week period. You'll never forget this year, so make it a good one. Stella Crosby: Study hard and make the best of each class.

Don't goof off. Take classes that will really do you good instead of snap courses. Believe me, it's worth it.

Norman Masters: The best advice I can give is "Plan Ahead." Don't pick courses because they are simply easy, but on the other hand, don't pick them just because they're hard either. Evaluate yourself a goal-not a low one, but not one that is unattainable and will only serve to discourage you. After you've evaluated yourself choose your line of study. Choose it with these two things in mind; it need only suit your needs and your plans. Don't be a sucker for the easy way, but don't kill yourself trying to do something you can't. Just remember that it's your future that you are determining right now; your success will depend on what you learn and do during school. Plan accordingly.

COUNSELORS CORNER

by Mr. Terry Thomas

Drop-Out Study - 1960 This year we have had 35 drop outs; 21 boys and 15 girls. We usually try to have an interview with drop outs before they leave, however, many times this becomes impossible. This year we felt it would be of benefit to us to talk to our drop outs after they have been out of school for several months. We undertook this study for the following reasons:

- 1. To gain an understanding of why students drop out of school.
2. Can we get them to come back to school.
3. Can we help them by providing them with occupational information.
4. Through understanding why students drop out of school what can we do to meet the needs of these students?
5. To provide counseling to our drop outs.

Financial Status of Our Drop-Outs

Two boys were receiving over $50.00 a week. Several boys have not found a job. The average weekly wage of C.H.S.'s students who dropped out of school this year is $11.75 per week. Almost all of the boys said jobs were scarce. They also mentioned that a high school diploma was of real value. Two of them to me the first question many of the employers asked was, "do you have a high school diploma?" The following is a list of jobs which our drop outs have had since quitting school:

1. Catering service
2. Mopping floors
3. Minor construction
4. Pinsetting
5. Yard work
6. Pumping gas - part time
7. Digging
8. Clerk in grocery store - part time
9. Cleaning out furnaces - part time

Drop Out Rate for Class of 1960

There were 202 students in the graduating class of 1960 who originally entered the ninth grade. Between the ninth and twelfth grades thirty-five of these students dropped out of school for a variety of reasons. Eighteen (18) of these drop outs were boys and seventeen (17) of these were girls. Percentage wise we had a seventeen and three tenths per cent (17.3) drop-out rate, which is well below the current state and national drop-out rate. The state drop-out rate is approximately 28 per cent and the National drop-out rate is approximately 40 per cent.

Of course, several members of this class have moved. An effort was made to discover if they had dropped out of school after they had left Clarkston High School. To the best of our knowledge, none of them have quit, however, we lack information on several of these students so the actual drop-out rate of 17.3 is not completely valid.

A Dozen Reasons for Finishing High School

- 1. The 1950 census shows that high school graduates make almost as much at age 25 as 8th graders at age 45.
2. Education provides ideas for hobbies and for the enjoyment of leisure time.
3. Young workers suffer more job accidents which may handicap them for life. In manufacturing, boys and girls under 18 years of age are injured twice as often as adults.
4. Young and unskilled workers are the first to be dropped from their jobs when depression strikes.
5. Today there is little chance for being accepted for apprentice training before age 18.
6. Promotions come easier to workers with more schooling.
7. Those without a high school diploma are at a disadvantage in the Armed Services.
8. Later on, some wish to switch to a vocational goal, requiring advanced training based upon a high school diploma.

9. Increasingly, employers feel that experience in school helps boys and girls to develop the mature habits and attitudes so necessary in good employees. Therefore, they demand a high school diploma.
10. A better education usually makes one feel more comfortable and secure in the life situations that must be faced.
11. People with the most education go to the polls to vote most often, and are less likely to be fooled by dangerous propaganda.
12. The children of educated people have a better chance in the world than those of the uneducated.

Education New of Importance To You From:

A recent survey of young men and women between the ages of 16 and 22 reveals that these youth want more vocational training in high school. Conducted by the Gilbert Youth Research firm, the survey included 4,967 individuals representing a cross-section of the majority of U.S. youth - the nearly 80 per cent who have not graduated from college. Their most serious criticism, of their schooling was directed at the curriculum; they felt they should have had more vocational training. Less than 30 per cent of those interviewed their school work helped them to prepare for the job they were holding and their major complaint was that the subjects they studied were too general and too unrelated to their present occupations. A basic problem is lack of adequate vocational guidance - 62 per cent of those interviewed said that they had received no advice about what courses to take during the time they were in high school.

Today in Michigan

Only three of every five pupils complete public high school. One out of every four pupils who enter high school will be a "drop-out". Only 10 per cent of our pupils go on to finish college. Every third person in our labor force is a woman. Ninety-seven of every 100 prison inmates have no saleable skill.

Tomorrow

Few if any common laborers will find jobs 25 years from now. The greatest obstacle to technological advancement is the lack of skilled manpower. Nearly half of the increase on our labor force in the next 10 years will have to come from the under 25 age group. Every youth who leaves high school should have some job preparation. Of the 10 million increase in the labor force during the next decade more than half will be women. The economic strength of our nation will depend more upon the skill, technical knowledge, initiative, and creativeness of our people.

What To Do

- Emphasize occupational information in the elementary school. Increase occupational exploration in the junior high school. Strengthen and expand vocational education in public schools. Develop technical programs in community colleges. Provide in-service programs for employed workers. Get acquainted with and adjust curriculums to the changing labor force demands. Encourage cooperation among schools, labor, and industry. Provide opportunity to retrain and upgrade workers. Expand and strengthen guidance and counseling services for youth and adults. Expand and improve teacher preparation.

Information Received From - State Board of Education.

NOTE TO PARENTS

Factors Helpful in Identifying Potential Drop-Outs at Secondary School Level

- There is much evidence that the factors which cause children to drop out of secondary school programs are numerous, complex and interrelated. Such factors are frequently:
1. Consistent failure to achieve in regular classwork.
2. Grade level assignment two or more years below age level.
3. Irregular attendance and frequent tardiness.
4. Actively antagonistic to teachers and principals.
5. Marked disinterest in school, with feeling of "not belonging."
6. Intelligence test score of 80 or below.
7. Low reading ability in comparison to mental ability rating.
8. Record of frequent school transfer.
9. Non-acceptance by teachers and principals.
10. Non-acceptance by classmates.
11. Friendless, or friends much younger or much older.
12. Unhappy family situation, or broken home.

13. Marked difference from classmates, in terms of size, interest, physique, social class, nationality, dress or personality development.
14. Unable to afford the normal expenditures of classmates.
15. Non-participation in extra-class activities.
16. Inability to compete successfully with, or ashamed of, brothers and sisters.
17. Record of delinquency.
18. Serious physical or psychiatric handicap.

Parks Offer Family Fun

Michigan's parks and recreation areas await another season which may send their attendance near the 20,000,000 mark. Among the major reasons for their ever-increasing popularity are the facilities and varied recreation they offer for family outings. Mom, Dad, and the children may camp, swim, boat, hike, picnic, and generally enjoy the vacationing season together at these parks and areas. All but three of the state's 60 units have campsites and in most cases, electricity and modern flush toilets are available. Hot showers, bathhouses, concessions and laundry facilities are found at many units. All provide for picnicking.

Bird Watcher's Bulls-Eye

Another species is added to this bird watcher's "collection" as he sights an osprey hovering over its lofty home. Michigan's spring and summer pageant, featuring a multitude of colors, songs, calls, habits and movements of some 300 species, provides a genuine bird-watching bonanza. A good pair of binoculars and a field guide are standard equipment for those who want a close-up of this colorful outdoor show. One of the most rewarding techniques for this popular type of nature study is to find a strategic spot in the woods or along the water's edge and then wait for the passing parade of birds almost certain to follow. To reward an old saw, it's the early watcher that gets the bird.
