Plans Progress For Labor Day

Just a little over two weeks left for you to decide what you are going to wear in the Labor Day parade in Clarkston. Everyone in the area is urged to get into the act. This will be the last big event of the summer season and the committee at work would like to make it the biggest and best.

The parade will form at Miller Road and N. Main Street at 9:30 A. M., and start down Main Street at 10:00 A. M. The American Legion color guard and the High School Band will be in the lead.

LUTHERAN SERVICES TO BE HELD IN ELEMENTARY SCH.

The new Lutheran Mission in Clarkston, to be known as Calvary Lutheran Church, announces that it will begin holding services on September 18, 1960, in the new Kindergarten Room at the Clarkston Elementary School. Land has been purchased by the Board of American Missions of the Augustana Lutheran Church just north of the village on M-15, and building will begin depending upon the growth of the new congregation. The Church, however, feels very fortunate to be able to temporarily use the beautiful facilities on the east end of the Elementary School.

Pastor Paul A. Johns, pastor of this new mission to serve the Clarkston area, has been surveying the area to discover the various religious affiliations represented by the various homes. He reports that there definitely seems to be need and demand for this new mission and that prospects for its growth look very favorable. The pastor is presently working in the Clarkston Gardens region, but hopes to be moving over to the Clarkston Estates district this week. "Never," says the pastor, "have I surveyed in an area where there is such a friendly, open spirit, and where the people converse so easily."

Local Resident Michigan's Lady Shotgun Champion

"Candy" Becker of 7300 Allen Road, Clarkston, won the annual Michigan Shotgun Championship Ladies' Division — with a score of 58, Sunday at Davison.

"Candy" has been shooting for only one year; but in winning this tournament she defeated last year's state champion and two former Michigan trapshooting champions.

"Candy" the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Becker, is a graduate of Milford High School and

CANDACE (Candy) BECKER

Michigan State University, where she majored in Mathematics. At present she is employed by The Michigan Bell Telephone Company as a Staff Administrative Supervisor in the Technical and Applications Staff section of the Data Processing Machine Division.

"Candy" joined the Williams Gun Club in Davison in October 1959 and became a member of one of their skeet shooting teams known as the "Rock Busters". The team not only won the team trophy but Candy also received a necklace as an award for the "Most Improved Shooter". On March 20 of this year she shot 25 for 25, a perfect score.

On Sunday Candy received the beautiful State Championship trophy of which she is justly proud. She is also quite happy with the colorful badges she received as preliminary champion, as well as champion badges in trap and skeet.

Runner-up to Candy was Muriel Pace of Pontiac. Ron Priebe, of Orchard Lake won the Men's Championship with an outstanding score of 73 out of a possible 75. He bested five of the former state champions to win this—the toughest shoot in the United States.

Unlike other state shoots, the unique Michigan Championship requires that each participant shoot a round of 25 targets on the skeet field, 25 on the trap field and 25 on the difficult bird field. Only in this way can a true all-round champion be determined.

Miss Alfreda Smith of Southgate, Michigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith, and Leroy A. Volberding Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Volberding of Clarkston, spoke their marriage vows on Saturday, August 13, at seven o'clock in the evening in Dearborn Baptist Church. The double-ring rites were read before about one hundred and fifty guests.

Sue Newsome presided at the organ for the traditional music and also accompanied the soloist, Mr. T. Newsome.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was charming in a gown of embroidered nylon tulle over satin, styled with a bouffant, floor-length skirt and a scalloped neckline trimmed with pearls and crystals. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a crown trimmed with pearls and crystals. She carried a white bible topped with a cascade of Phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Mary Bazy, as maid of honor, wore a princess styled, wisteria peau-de-soie gown featuring a scooped neckline and a bell skirt. She carried a stylized hand bouquet of pink bountiful roses and eucalyptus with lavender accents.

Mrs. Dale Dillman, as bridesmaid, wore a gown identical to that of the maid of honor. She also carried pink bountiful roses with lavender accents.

The flower girl, Sherry Huth, wore white organdy and lace, and a velvet crown trimmed with pink sweetheart roses. She carried a basket of lavender pompons and pink sweetheart roses.

Acting as ring bearer was a cousin of the bride, Ricky Gannon.

Assisting Mr. Volberding as best man was Lee Perry of Detroit, formerly of Clarkston, and seating the guests were the bride's brothers, Ronald and Patrick Smith.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, chose a sheath dress of pink lace over pink satin with deeper pink accessories. Mrs. Volberding wore a blue lace sheath dress with satin cummerbund. Both mothers wore corsages of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good: because His mercy endureth for ever. (Psalm 118:1) Throughout all ages and all eternity, Almighty God seeks the soul of His children—seeking to fill our lives with the joy that comes from His good, His loving-kindness, His strength and His mercy. We create our own utter misery by wilfully turning away from Him.

BUY A RIPE PEACH Check the background color, not the blush, when you buy a fresh peach. Home economists at Michigan State University say some peach varieties "blush" with red color more than others, but all peaches develop a yellow or whitish background color when they are ripe. A dominant green background color suggests the peach was picked too soon and may never fully ripen.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST Oxford, Michigan Sunday School 11:00 A. M. Sunday Service 11:00 A. M.

The healing power of spiritual understanding will be explained at Christian Science churches Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon on "Mind," which concludes the current series devoted to synonyms for God.

Christ Jesus' response to the centurion who asked help for his palsied servant will be included in the Bible readings: "And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way, and as thou has believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour." (Matt. 8:13).

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following section will be read (180:25): "When man is governed by God, the ever-present Mind who understands all things, man knows that with God all things are possible. The only way to this living Truth, which heals the sick, is found in the Science of divine Mind as taught and demonstrated by Christ Jesus."

BIG BROTHERS IN CLARKSTON AREA

The primary function of a Big Brother Agency is to find, screen and train men to be the friend of a boy on a "one man to one boy basis." This coordinated effort between the professional staff and trained volunteers is what makes Big Brothers work successful. Its success seems to be based upon three things. The proper screening and training of prospective Big Brothers, the most judicious assignment of a man to a boy, and lastly, an inter-cooperation between the Big Brother and the Agency in helping to strengthen the relationship between the boy and his Big Brother. At this time there are three (3) Big Brothers active in the Independent Township Area. During the year of 1959, 63 cases were referred to Big Brothers of Oakland County. Of this number, 37 were worked with, and 26 actually assigned Big Brothers. The remainder were either closed at the time of intake, or at a later date, as cases which were deemed unacceptable, or in which the family was unable to cooperate. The breakdown or referral sources is as follows:

Visiting Teachers	10
Juvenile Court	9
Personal	16
School Counselors	5
Child Guidance Clinic	3
Family Service	3
Aid to Dependent Chil.	4
Youth Protective Ser.	5
School Nurse	1
Police Department	1
County Nurse	1
Clergy	2
Psychologist	1
Visiting Nurse	1
Friend of the Court	1

It is important to note that every single case was either directly referred by the above agencies or suggested by them to the mother of the boy who then made her own contact.

The Big Brothers of Oakland County are convinced that the efficacy of Big Brother work, that is the inserting into the life of a disturbed lad, a layman who will be his friend can be traced almost entirely to the attention placed on proper assignment. This is done through proper screening, which is a constant process being carried on by the agency. Big Brothers of Oakland County has a Screening Committee consisting of Robert Gibson, Personnel Director of Eastland, J. L. Hudsons; James Hunt, Director of the Oakland County Juvenile Court, and member of the Board of Directors of Big Brothers of Oakland County, Inc., and William L. Clark, Executive Director. All prospective Big Brothers are seen by each member of the Screening Committee. The psychological evaluation tells us first of all, if this is the kind of man who should be a Big Brother, and secondly the best kind of assignment to make to a particular man. In one case in the Clarkston Area, a boy has for his Big Brother, a feature writer for the Detroit Free Press.

Probably the most important facet of Big Brother work is the matching process. This can best be explained by the use of the words, "blending of personalities." In the agency there are three determinates in this matching process; religion, distance and personality makeup. Agency policy insists that a man and a boy be of the same general religion, which includes all three. Inasmuch as a Big Brother will be seeing his little Brother once a week for anywhere between 9 months and 3 years, an attempt is made to make the placement within 15 minutes driving time. In the matter of personality makeup, they try to find some quality within the man and the boy as a springboard for this adventure in friendship.

The miracle of friendship has changed the lives of many boys in this County through the wonderful work of the Big Brother with his boy. Many boys involved, in later years will be able to look back on this experience and say, "When I was a boy, I had a friend."

548 HIGHWAY DEATHS IN OAKLAND COUNTY

Oakland County, with an estimated registration of 289,054 motor vehicles, listed 548 deaths among the 8,159 fatalities suffered in Michigan during the past five years.

According to James M. Hare, Chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission, both rural Garbage Dump Customer?

Relaxing in the summer sun of northern Michigan, Brother Bruin is probably daydreaming about his next meal. Food is not hard to come by for this massive animal, especially where people have created garbage dumps and other feeding stations. This "catering" service by humans is not as virtuous as it may seem. "Garbage dump" bears soon lose their fear of people although their deep-rooted instincts of the wild remain. Their guise of tameness puts people off guard to serious dangers to life and limb. Michigan tourists are warned by the conservation Department to keep their distance when seeing bears in the out-of-doors, particularly mothers with cubs, regardless of how "tame" these animals of the forest may seem.

Michigan State Police reports show that rural areas still account for 7 out of 10 highway deaths but show that injuries in city areas were up 14 per cent last year compared to 9 per cent for rural areas.

"It looks as though we will have to concentrate harder than ever on the three E's of highway safety," Hare said. "With a sound program of Education, Enforcement and Engineering going on in each county we should soon be able to bend the death and accident trend downward."

KEEP MOTHS OUT OF PIANO

If there's a piano in your home, you have one more reason to keep clothes moths and carpet beetles under control. Wool felt pieces in the piano can be the delight of these insects.

While you guard the living room, the U. S. Department of Agriculture is working on an insecticidal spray solution to control piano pests. There are about 10 million pianos in the United States. Recent surveys by the Piano Technicians Guild indicated that over 50 per cent of all pianos were infested with clothes moths or carpet beetles or both. Technicians say that the felt under piano keys generally is the most severely damaged. In this location, insects can feed unobserved. They may not be discovered until a technician is called to check the action or tone of the piano. Often, felts under the keys are so badly eaten that the keys sink. Damage to felts under piano strings or to hammers also may impair musical tone. Replacing felts that have been attacked by insects requires taking the piano apart. A good insecticide will help piano owners by protecting their instruments. It will also eliminate the danger of having clothes moths or carpet beetles from the piano spread through the house. The insecticide also will benefit furniture storage concerns, pest control operators and the piano technicians who asked for the study and cooperated in it.

Now that more people are outside more of the time, remember it may take longer to reach the phone. A good rule of thumb when you're calling is to let the other phone ring 10 times. That gives them enough time to answer—and saves you having to call again.

VACATION BOUND:

If you're headed for a new vacation area, here's a hint that might save you some time and trouble: To find any product or service—drugstores, doctors, garages, theatres—just look in the local Yellow Pages. It's crammed with lots of information about local businesses. Without taking a step, you can make a fast tour of the shopping district—just by glancing through the Yellow Pages.

Why there's no laundry like an ALL-ELECTRIC LAUNDRY

gives you more time for the things you want to do

HOTTER WATER AND PLENTY OF IT. Only an electric water heater can regularly deliver 160° water without burning out. Really hot water goes farther and gets clothes cleaner. An electric water heater needs no flue because there is no flame. That makes it the only water heater you can put any place you want. Right next to your washer, for example, to eliminate a long, heat-wasting pipe run. Some electric water heaters fit under kitchen counters.

A WONDERFUL WORK-SAVING TEAM—YOUR WASHER AND DRYER. Make your automatic washer and dryer a matched pair—both electric. It takes an electric dryer to keep white clothes white; to preserve the sparkling new look in colored and patterned fabrics. Electric drying is so clean because there is no flame, no products of combustion.

BRIGHTEN WASHDAYS WITH GOOD LIGHTING. When you plan your electric laundry center, be sure to get expert advice on adequate lighting. You'll be surprised at how well-planned lighting can reduce fatigue.

BE CAUTIOUS; PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Conservation Department fire officers are keeping their fingers crossed for continued support from the public and the weatherman in their annual summer battle against forest fires.

Both of these factors were on their side during the week ending August 7 when only two acres were burned. The northern lower peninsula, a perennial trouble spot because of the thousands of vacationers it attracts, reported no fires.

Michigan's 1960 forest fire toll is 2,298 acres, almost 1,170 below last year's figure at this time. In 1958, fires had burned 9,394 acres through this period.

Summer is the active season for snakes in Michigan and here are the ones you're most apt to see. If you shudder at the thought of meeting up with snakes, it may ease your mind to know that Michigan has only one poisonous species—the Massasauga or swamp rattlesnake. And even this rattle, confined to the lower peninsula and Bois Blanc Island, is too small to inflict a fatal wound except, perhaps, to a small child. There is no authentic record of a person dying in this state from a bite of a native snake. Superstitions and myths have generated many false fears about snakes and clouded the generally beneficial role these reptiles play in the "balance of nature."

BREAKFAST STOKES THE HUMAN ENGINE

If you lack that jet-age pep most mornings, your engine probably isn't getting the right fuel. Diets at The University of Michigan Medical Center say breakfast is the most important "refueling" stop for the machinery of your body.

"Only through an adequate breakfast," says Miss Betsy Biggar of U-M's Nutrition Clinic, "will you gain enough energy to efficiently complete important morning tasks."

In addition to energy, a good breakfast supplies protein, minerals, and vitamins which are vitally important to health.

Start your day by eating meat, milk or eggs, along with the toast or cereal, juice and coffee that has become the standard breakfast of many people. The rewards, dietitians say, will be more efficiency, alertness and resistance to fatigue — in short, more pep.

MICHIGAN STATE POLICE TO USE DOGS

An experiment in the use of dogs to trail or track lost persons or criminals is being undertaken by the Michigan State Police, which has been given a German Shepherd that has been accepted for training beginning August 22 at the canine training school of the St. Louis, Mo., police department.

It was reported by Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

The two and one-half year old pedigree "Dago Von Liebestraum" is the gift of Grant E. Mann, of the Liebestraum Kennels, Southfield, Michigan.

The St. Louis police department periodically has a 14-week canine training program supervised by five trainers. In the case of the State Police, the purpose is to train its dog for trailing or tracking only and not for attack because its principal value will be in searches such as in the woods, many such instances occurring each year.

By courtesy, the St. Louis department will train the dog at no cost except that of its upkeep. A State Police officer, however, must accompany it at the school and this assignment is being handled by Trooper Richard A. Abbot, of the Erie post.

The department has never owned dogs, but it is recalled that it had them available many years ago when the State Corrections Department owned bloodhounds that were trained by inmates at Jackson prison and then at Marquette prison. Their use was later discontinued.

STATE FAIR AGAIN OFFERS FREE GRANDSTAND SHOW

The Michigan State Fair will continue its policy of offering a completely free Grandstand Show, Donald L. Swanson, general manager, announces.

Except for the State Fair 250 Mile Auto Race on Sunday afternoon, September 11, there will be no ticket takers at the Grandstand.

The Grandstand Show will begin opening day Friday, September 2, with daily performances at 2:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. and will feature a tremendous variety show including the Salter's Ice Review in addition to a terrific fireworks display following these shows on the nights of September 6, 7, 8, and 11.

Other acts, of particular interest to children and the entire family, are: Helen's Hippodrome Horses, sensational equestrienne daredevils; Lionel Kay and Kathleen, hilarious comedy act; the Cyclettes, whizzes on wheels; the Sensational Hildalys, death defying aerialists; and the Boginos Troupe, fast and furious foot jugglers.

Swanson points out that for the price of admission to the State Fair grounds, all shows and exhibits are free except for the Coliseum programs and the Midway features. Even the Coliseum shows are big bargains, he emphasizes, considering the type and quality of the entertainers.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Don't Scream for Ice Cream

WITH A DOUBLE-SCOOP ICE CREAM CONE, ON ME, DOC DAVIS.

From where I sit, it's good when a man can deal with people through understanding. He's the sort of fellow who respects the preferences of others though they may differ from his own... a tolerant man who offers his neighbor a glass of beer even though he himself may prefer lemonade. Take it from me, tolerance is the "class" way to build a strong community.

I found the secret of his success when I stopped by Pop's Drugstore for a sandwich the other day. A small fry walked in and handed a card to Pop. Pop immediately went to the ice cream freezer. As he started scooping a cone, I asked him if I could see that card. It read: FOR GALLANTRY IN THE DENTIST'S CHAIR — ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY — PLEASE PRESENT THE BEARER
