BIG Parade To Highlight Labor Day In Clarkston

Labor Day, the last big holiday for the summer season, is Vows Spoken rapidly approaching and there In First Methodist is not much time left to prepare for the annual parade. However the committee has been working hard to make this the biggest event ever and they are in hopes that all the parade minded people in Clarkston and vicinity will get into the act. Prizes will be awarded for the best float, the best costume and the best child's entry. Judges will be The Reverend David Dee, Dr. A.S. Hamilton and Mrs. Allen E. Hawke. The judges' stand will be at the corner of Washington and Main Streets.

The Master of Ceremonies will be George Mantyla and the Parade Marshal, Everett Butters. Rotarians will be stationed at the corners to keep the parade in line and the village police will handle the moving traffic.

The parade will assemble on Miller Road and the line of march will be down Main Street to Church Street, east on Church to Buffalo, north on Buffalo to Washington and over to W. Washington where it will disband. The parade will be headed by, the American Legion colors and the Clarkston School Band.

Following the parade, refreshments wil be served to the chil-

The Village response to the art group has been excellent and the art group is sure a local art association will be formed in the near future. An art association in Clarkston would mean fegular cultural activities for the community and would be an important focal point for the local artists.

METHODIST W.S.C.S. TO OPEN FALL SEASON

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church will hold its first meeting of the fall season at the church on Thursday morning. Sept. 15, at 9:30. It is hoped that holding the meeting in the morning may make it possible for many to be present who have been unable to attend in the Reverend William J. Richards will speak to the society on the subject "Finding God through Your Church." Mrs. Norton Redwood will favor the group with a vocal solo.

The women of the Martha Circle will be hostesses and will serve coffee.

There will be someone present to care for small children. All women in the church and gan, were: Preludes - "Orange community are invited to attend

We wish to extend our sinere thanks for the floral tributes, many kindnesses, and other expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement. Your thoughtfulness for our dear sister, Fanny Irish, will remain a precious memory. Special thanks to Fanny's friends who are placing a marker in the cemetery; to The First Methodist Church for the hymnal in her memory; to The Reverend W. J. Richards for his comforting words and to The Lewis E. Wint Funeral Home for its many courtesies.
