streets lined with cars and people who were the onlookers for the biggest parade Clarkston has ever had. Someone estimated the crowd to be from 3,500 to 4,000. "Go Forward With Clarkston" the theme of the parade was well carried out in many of the entries. The judges, Mrs. Joseph Hubbard, Reverend David Dee and Dr. A.S. Hamilton, had a real task trying to decide where the prizes should go. Every entry was worthy of recognition and the original ideas were really amazing. The best float prize went to "The Village Friends of Art" sponsored by The Carktson State Bank and The O'Dell Drug Store. The best costume prize was awarded to The Silly Circus and the best child's entry went to the girl on the unicycle. The boy's bicycle was won by Bob Gray of Waterford and the girl's bicycle was won by Mr. Lavern Spooner, who presented it to his little granddaughter, Brenda Grubaugh. The basket of groceries from Rudy's Market was won by Blair Bullard.

To add to the day's enjoyment Jack Haupt Pontiac Sales handed out over 500 bottles of cold Sp/4c David L. Gaddis of Clark-Coca Cola and after the parade ston. No wedding date has been the Clarkston Rotary Club treat- set. ed the children to popsicles and
