Thursday, March 9 7:30 P. M. Bishop's Committee meeting, at the vicarage. The Episcopal Church in Clarkston welcomes you to its worship services. The Episcopal service is called a corporate service — that is, everyone takes part in it. Thus when the minister says, "Let us pray" it is a common effort. The prayers he uses are almost all printed in the Book of Common Prayer. We don't think it's any more unusual to pray out of a book than to sing out of a book. You see, we do it together.

This is one of the things we believe that you would appreciate in the Episcopal Church — the feeling that you are a part of things. You are not merely a spectator, but an active participant. In the primitive church, in fact, clear back to Old Testament times, the main part of the religious service was praise & worship of God and earnest prayer for His aid and forgiveness. The sermon or instruction part of the service was secondary. Kirkegaard, the Danish theologian, likened the church service to a theatre. However, the mistake most people make is that they consider the minister the performer, God the prompter and themselves the audience. In reality, the people are the performers, the minister is the prompter and God is the audience. And this latter situation is the case in the Episcopal Church. We join together in the worship and praise of God. You are cordially invited to join with us in the active worship of God.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST Oxford, Michigan Sunday School 11:00 A. M. Sunday Service 11:00 A. M.

A hopeful message of universal freedom will be delivered in Christian Science churches Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man."

Man's rightful heritage of freedom will be brought out in the Scriptural selections which include Paul's advice to the Colossians (3:9-11): "Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read (227:24-26): "Citizens of the world accept the glorious liberty of the children of God, and be free! This is your divine right."

LAST TOWN HALL NUMBER FOR SEASON As the last number of the current Pontiac-Oakland Town Hall series, subscribers will hear Cilli Wang and her accompanists Wim DeVries who is billed as a "pantomimist extraordinary". Although Viennese by birth and a resident of Holland, the world has been a stage for this brilliant and talented woman. She will bring to her audience some of her experiences with the great of the world through her gift of mimicry. Miss Wang will appear in the auditorium of Northern Senior High School at 10:30, March 8.

The Celebrity Luncheon will be held at Devon Gables immediately following. Reservations can be sent to "Celebrity Luncheon, 191 Ottawa Dr., Pontiac. Ticket sale for the 1961-62 Town Hall series is progressing well. Since next year's programs will be held in Huron Theater with a smaller seating capacity, many patrons are sending in early requests to be sure of obtaining course tickets. Tickets are being sold by Mrs. Cecil MacCallum, 266 Cherokee Road Pontiac. General chairman of the Town Hall organization is Mrs. Paul Kern of Pontiac.

Next year's guests will include Norman Cousins, Richard Armour, William Shirer, Nila Magidoff and Ginette Spanier. Price of the course tickets remains the same.

IT DOESN'T HURT TO GIVE BLOOD In an earnest effort to squelch forever the unfounded fear that we, the people, seem to cherish, of giving blood to Blood Banks, a most interesting, informative program has been planned, by the Veterans of World War I, Barracks No. 1220.

The program will be Monday 27, at 8:00 P. M. in the Oxford Veteran's Memorial Building, located at 29 Washington Street, and the speaker will be Dr. John W. Miller, M. P. (ASCP) B. B., President of the Pontiac Society of Medical Technologists. Dr. Miller is also on the faculty of the Michigan Association of Blood Banks, and is associated with St. Joseph's Hospital.

He will bring equipment with him, which will enable him to explain and demonstrate how blood is prepared and preserved for later use. He is well qualified to explain the procedure in such a way that we will all be anxious, instead of reluctant to give.

There will be no charge or donation asked for this evening, designed to take the "bugaboo out of blood giving."

CHEERLEADERS SALUTE!!!
 Last week ended a near-perfect basketball season for the Clarkston High Freshman team, losing only three games during the entire season. Now the games are over. No more quite as exciting moments to live through as the players, cheerleaders and sport fans behind them, think back on the exciting and in most cases, close games.

This in itself is sad. But of course there is always next year to look forward to. So now, from the cheerleaders, we would like to thank everyone who participated in this sport and stood behind our team during the past basketball season.

Angie, Bev., Connie, Corinne, Punky, Linda, Eleanor, Christ, (man.)

SOMETHING NEW HAS BEEN ADDED

by Lona MacNeill
 Philodendron, dieffenbachia, corn plants, snake plants and rubber plants are but a few of the very interesting plants that fill our once empty hall planters. These plants have certainly added a great deal of beauty and decoration to our newly built school.

As our new plants grow and become larger, they will be replaced by younger ones of the same type from the Thompson Greenhouse located in Milford. We all realize the expense and work that is going into making our school the best ever, so let's all do our part and, "Look but don't touch."

WHO'S WHO

by Kathy McDermott
 The faculty and the Student Government made their final selections last Thursday for the students who would be added to the Who's Who rostrum for this year. Each year the most outstanding student from the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and the twelfth grades with a B average 1st semester are honored by having their names added to the selected list of students already belonging.

The ninth grade had two of its students picked, as Nancy Stanquits and Dan Craven share the honors. Lynn Ellsworth was chosen from the eligible Sophomore students and Judy Fife is the lucky Junior. Again the honors were split in the Senior class as Linda Chapman and Dick Miskin were both decided to be the most outstanding Seniors.

After considering such things as appearance, personality, punctuality, self respect for others, manners, and many other qualifications, we believe that no better choice could have been made and wish to congratulate all of the lucky people who have won such an honor.

SEASON CLOSES BEHIND FRESHMAN

by Mike Howey
 Over the past week Clarkston freshman squad played two fine games representative of them during the season. As a result of a defeat and a victory Clarkston finished the season with an outstanding 7-3 record.

Rochester came to Clarkston on Monday, and overcame them in a tense 31-29 overtime contest. All was even when the first quarter came to an end as both teams were at four points. It appeared as though Clarkston would be a walk away as they held an eleven point margin at halftime 17-6. But Rochester came back onto the floor and played as though they were a different team sparking their way to within five points of Clarkston at the finish of the third quarter, with the score 20-15. The story was the same in the fourth quarter as Rochester tied the game at the termination of regulation time. Clarkston could only put in 2 points as compared to Rochester's 4 in the three minutes overtime period. The final score 31-29 in Rochester's favor.

McGowan of Clarkston and Carpenter of Rochester sparked this tight game as they collected twelve points apiece. Romeo was faced with a spirited Clarkston squad on Wednesday, February 22. Clarkston was bitter after their close contest resulting in a loss to Rochester. They were intent on changing the tables on Romeo and finish the season on a high spot. It didn't look as though this would be the case, as Romeo pulled to a 9-3 lead in the first quarter. When the first half terminated the young Wolves had forced the game into a 19 all tie. The game was proved in the third quarter as Clarkston laid in 13 points compared to Romeo's 6. With ten seconds to go Clarkston was trailing by a single point 35-34. Dan Craven put in the all important field goal to pull the game out of the bag for Clarkston with the score 36-35.

Final tabulations show that a Romeo boy, Kemp, held point honors with fourteen. Clarkston's highest scorer was Dan Craven with twelve. Ken Miskin bucketed seven points, Jack McGowan and Mike Bray put in six points apiece.

Congratulations are out to coach Battani's squad for their fine representation of Clarkston in ninth grade basketball games.

FOURTH QUARTER COLLAPSE DISASTROUSLY FATAL

by Dick Miskin
 All basketball courts are built within certain specifications and presumably should be equal. Obviously they are not. At least Clarkston's Wolves can't be convinced.

Statistics show that in thirteen league games played this season, Clarkston has amassed a towering 5-1 won-lost record while playing on its own court but has compiled only a feeble 2-5 record on courts away from home. Also, to support the contention, coach Dom Mauti's squad noted a 17 point difference in its own floor and the one at Milford High.

Clarkston, which overpowered Milford by 25 points (66-41) in an earlier meeting this year at home, came out a loser by eight points (61-53) last Friday at Milford. The discovery proved costly, for the loss dropped the Wolves into a three-way third place tie and into a position they will probably have to be satisfied with, unless something drastically happens tomorrow, when Brighton's Bulldogs invade Clarkston in the season's finale.

Hope of establishing a higher, more ranking position in the WOCL is very slight, so slight in fact that it is useless to talk about. But one last ray of light does remain — that is — second place as distant as it appears to be at this time is still mathematically conquerable.

Clarkston, if it wins tomorrow, could rightly qualify for a tie for the number two slot, if and only if, the Mustangs of Northville are somehow tripped. Of course it would then be a mutual co-holdership between those clubs involved since there are these in this qualifying deposition. But who cares second place is better than third place in any man's book. In the Milford battle last week, Clarkston hardly looked like the same team that had upset the highly rated Broncos of Holly the week before.

After a fast and furious first half in which both teams deadlocked at 29-29, Clarkston coasted to a 16 point third quarter, to lead 45-43 at the end of three stanzas of play. It was then that they appeared ready to apply the clincher in the final round of basketball. Then it happened. As if the entire team had been drugged, the Wolves played as if they were in a state of deliriousness. Their passing was erratic; play was lax; and their shooting was off. The team looked so apathetic in that miserable conception of a fourth quarter that it was hard to believe that this same group of fellows had been playing basketball throughout the first three quarters.

During this time, the work of Milford's Tim Kurnick and Ernie Miller was most instrumental. Always hustling and making the big play this twosome was directly responsible for the momentous fourth quarter. In my mind they were the very nucleus of the Milford attack.

There were few bright spots on a dreary night for the Clarkston chargers but one individual's basketball talent stood out as strikingly as night and day. This was the work of 5' 8" guard, Jess Rogers. Although Rogers contributed only 4 points to the Clarkston cause, the two fielders that he did make were from almost impossible angles. He was used sparingly but when he was on the court he did a fine job both offensively and defensively. Scoring tabulations showed that Ron Lundy geared the Wolves assault with 15 points. Bill Powell was next in line for the losers with 13.

Milford capitalized on the scoring balance of Tim Kurnick and Ernie Miller. Kurnick netted 19 while Miller dropped in 13.

In the remaining three WOCL games, Holy survived a late fourth quarter skid to defeat Clarenceville 65-62. Bloomfield Hills bombed Brighton 56-40, and Northville downed W. Bloomfield 64-57.

Tomorrow all eight WOCL schools will see action, this being the final Friday of the present 60-61 basketball season.

HOLLY DEFEATS CLARKSTON JUNIOR VARSITY

by Mike Howey
 Clarkston's Junior Varsity faced their toughest opponents of the year February 17 when the Holly squad came to Clarkston. The first quarter was a fast, hard played period and set the pace for the remaining contest. As they went into the second quarter, the two teams were deadlocked twelve all but this proved to be one of Clarkston's highest scoring periods of the year as they totaled twenty points and forged ahead of Holly. At the halfway mark, the score stood Clarkston, 32, Holly 29.

Holly came back in the third quarter and held the hot Clarkston team down to eight points while they helped themselves to thirteen. This put Clarkston behind by two points but it appeared as though they tied it up early in the fourth period. Holly upset this theory as they held Clarkston down to ten points. At the end of a very well played game on the part of both teams the score was final Clarkston, 50, Holly 52.

Rich Lord led Clarkston's drive by scoring eleven points, while Bob Osgood laid in nine. Roger Rolfe, Bob Jennings and Mike Simonson each had eight points and Dave Cullen put in six points to finish up Clarkston's scoring.

March 3rd is a big night for Clarkston as this is Mom's night, and the last game of the year. They will face a tough Brighton team, so let's see everybody out to cheer our Clarkston boys.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

by Mike Howey
 Clarkston's Junior Varsity pulled a tight game out of the bag on Tuesday, February 14th 49-46. West Bloomfield's reserves were on the short end of this contest. During the first quarter, Clarkston made their way into a three point lead, 9-6 and held this slim margin into half time, where they led 25-22. West Bloomfield outscored Clarkston in the third period 10-11, but this was not enough to pull ahead of the inspired Clarkston boys, as they maintained their lead by 35-33.

A thrilling finish topped off an evenly matched game as the deciding fourth quarter went to Clarkston 14 to 13 as did the game with a final score of 49 to 46.

Rich Lord sparked the team as he collected eighteen points and played a very fine all around game. He also gathered in 10 rebounds. Roger Rolfe shot for twelve points and led the team with fifteen rebounds.

HOLIDAY HOP

by Patti White
 Success! The one and only word to explain the dance held in the cafeteria, Friday night. The dance was given by the seventh grade Home Economics Club. It was held from seven thirty to ten thirty.

The "Hop" was well chaperoned by various teachers, and parents of the students in the club. The chaperones were invited to join in the immense fun. A few of the couples even gave students "jitterbug" lessons.

Besides "jitterbugging," students indulged in learning a new dance called the "Pony." Long lines formed for the new dance, as the music started, and away they trotted.

The most wonderful thing about the dance is that no one sat around and "twiddled" his thumbs. Everyone was on the go. Of course the credit goes to Miss Granaat and the seventh grade Home Ec. Club, for the delightful decorations and the stupendous organization.

NOTES!

by Sue Munsee
 What are those crazy things called notes? Are they facts about a certain subject, or are they just something to do when the teacher is not looking? The answer to this is that really, notes are nothing, just a bunch of misspelled words and questions!

Notes can also get you into trouble, especially, during class when work is to be done, and notes kept from sight. So pass your notes after school or at lunch hour, not during class!

ALMOST CURTAIN TIME

by Sue Hampshire
 The scenery is being put in place, the chairs are being set up, and the actors and actresses are rehearsing their lines.

Posters are being taped everywhere and "The Land of the Dragon" is being talked about in every nook and corner.

Everyone is saying that the play will be given March 10 at 8:00 o'clock!

You say you have financial problems. Well that's O.K. The admission is very reasonable. Oh, by the way, I hear it has fine directors, Mr. Beattie and Mrs. Foster.

REPORTER AT LARGE

by Kris Smith
 Mr. Jakeway's students were busy last week on book reports about someone or something during the Civil War.

Mrs. Beach's students handed in their notebooks about heat, but they may have to wait a little longer to find out what grade they received, since there are so many to be looked over.

Miss Jetter surprised her chorus students by having them write stories, (of any kind), containing musical terms, last Friday.

FASHIONS GALORE!

by Sue Munsee
 The girls in the eighth grade Home Economics Club are really working hard. For example; Carol Storm is making, and coming along very nicely on her slacks, and Kerry Sanford is making a black wisket. Suzie Hampshire is making a floral print duster; and Pat Bishop is making a tunic top. Linda Foote is really getting ambitious by making a tunic and skirt outfit. A very busy bee has come to the club — Brenda Murr! She has made a jumper, and a tunic and is now ready to start on a blouse. Everyone has been working very hard, and deserves a lot of credit. So girls — keep up the good work!

CLUB 27 NEWS

by Clay Wilson
 Mrs. Walter's sixth grade has decided to show its talent. The class has split into three groups and each group is planning on dramatizing a story chosen by that group. These stories must be from a book and not made-up. Each of the three committees chose a chairman and a secretary. The chairmen are: Larry Duncan, Chris Maier, and Mark Richard. The secretaries are: Neil Stalker, Ronnie Brock, and Brenda Woodworth. The plays will be given for the class Tuesday, February, the twenty-eighth. This is part of their English work.

So far Club 27's treasury consists of $10.10.

MOVIES

Mrs. Foster's English classes saw movies on punctuation Tuesday, February 21 1961.

The first movie showed that writing a neat business letter will get better results than writing a messy one. The classes learned three rules for writing a business letter:

- Be Brief
- Be Courteous
- Be Clear

The second movie showed a class writing a book about their school to another school in Mexico.

The students had problems with the punctuation in their stories. The editors then made some rules to follow while writing a story. The stories were then easy to follow thus, proving that good punctuation is important.

ODDS and ENDS

by Karen King
 Mr. Jakeway's history classes finished chapter 15 and wrote essays on the Industrial Revolution.

Friday his students heard a record on the Tell-Tale Heart by Edgar Allan Poe.

The students of Mr. Maunula's eighth grade science classes can expect a unit test next week. Mr. Maunula's fourth hour classes wrote science fiction stories this last week.

The science fair was another subject discussed last week. Tuesday, Mrs. Wiseman's English classes had a test on adjectives and adverbs.

Monday, Mrs. Anderson's 7th hour math students will start a chapter on banking.

MOVIES ON HOW WE LIVE

by Connie Papi
 Movies were shown in Mrs. Foster's English classes Tuesday, February 21.

One film pictured a family. It told how we react and how we should react to different family scenes. When a girl is asked on a date should she accept even though she does not have her parents consent? Should she sneak out of the house with out her parents knowing it? These were some of the questions brought up and discussed in this film.

A second film was shown on how we should react to our friends. Should we talk behind our friend's backs? Should we relay on to others secrets our friends have confided in us?

All this was discussed in two enjoyable films.

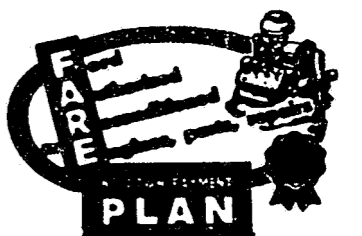

SCIENCE PROJECTS

The Science Fair is coming soon and it seems most teachers have said that extra credit will be given to all students who enter.

The projects can be various. There are hundreds to choose from.

It also looks like most teachers have asked for semester projects too.

So Science projects have added an extra worry to the minds of the student body.

PHILOSOPHICAL ASPECT OF AMERICAN EDUCATION DISCUSSED

The various philosophical bases upon which modern American educational practices lie were described to a deeply interested audience of members of the Clarkston Community Women's Club Wednesday evening, February 23, by Dr. Laszlo Hetenyi of MSUO. Dr. Hetenyi is an Associate Professor of teacher education at our nearby university.

He first gave a concise description of three general philosophies: idealism, realism, and pragmatism, and the types of teaching systems they engender.

IDEALISM holds that the most fundamental aspect of reality is not physical, but mental; while the objective world does have reality eternal, fixed concepts and truths are of greater significance. A curriculum emphasizing verbal and mathematical skills, with manual and natural studies discounted, is derived from this position.

REALISM holds the concrete world as basic, with emphasis on the individual's attempts to gain contact and relationship with it through the development of the senses and the refinement, through synthesis, of his experiences. Emphasis here is on the natural and social sciences, with logic and the 3 R's as tools. Tests designed to chart the way in which people understand things are widely used PRAGMATISM, which Henry James described as "a new name for old ways of thinking" lays heavy emphasis on problem solving. Life is seen as a syndrome of problems for which solutions must be found. The context of the problem is of greatest importance, and truth is measured in terms of the adequacy with which problems are solved. Emphasis is placed on the child as a member of society.

Any of these philosophical positions yield excellent education when properly followed, according to Dr. Hetenyi. The real conflict in education today is seen as a failure to understand and to apply them.

Thus idealism can be misapplied as meaningless rote learning with punishment given for failure; realism as the suppression of social and artistic interests with testing programs overdone; pragmatism as a laissez-faire chaos with children running wild.

The institution of various "crash programs" further confuses the issues already outlined

WHAT ARE YOUR SEVEN WONDERS?
Lowell Thomas introduces his Cinerama adventure, "Seven Wonders of the World," with an apology. The wonders shown are his own nominations, and they are a personal choice. But anyone may make a list just as interesting.

Through history, man has continually been composing a list of the wonders of his time. Those who have seen this Cinerama production will not be the first to make a list of the wonders of their world.

No one knows for sure who first came up with the phrase, "Seven Wonders of the World." Actually, there was no reason to limit the wonders to seven. But historians agree that it is a great convenience to have had some sort of canon established.

The first known author of a list was the Greek philosopher, Philo of Byzantium. Philo, it is rumored by those in the know, prepared his list for an up-and-coming shipping firm that wanted to promote tourist travel throughout the Mediterranean.

The list reads like a first class American Express tour. Starting at Mt. Olympia for the statue of Zeus, Greek trippers next went to the Temple of Diana at Ephesus, the Mausoleum at Halicarnassus, the Colossus of Rhodes, the Pharos lighthouse at Alexandria, the Pyramids of Egypt and finally across to Babylon for a two day holiday at the famous Hanging Gardens. There is no record if the tour was an all-expense affair, or tipping extra.

Neither this list nor the wonders were left in peace for long. In 550 A. D. controversy raged because St. Gregory changed Philo's list, striking out the Pyramids, Phidias' statue of Zeus and the Temple of Diana.

The reason for this change? All these wonders were monuments to pagan gods and the list was christianized. The beautiful Hanging Gardens of Babylon built by Nebuchadnezzar to please his wife, were changed into the Walls of Babylon. Monuments to women were also verboten. In place of the three left out, Gregory added Noah's Ark, the Temple of Solomon and the Theatre of Heracles. Gregory erred in this choice because the Theatre was a well known home for pagan rites.

Gregory did not stop here, but added on another list, this one "created by the hand of God." Included were the tides the marvel of growth from a sea, the rebirth of the Phoenix, Mount Aetna, the cycle of the sun and the moon, and the Springs of Grenoble.

Both Philo's and Gregory's list have changed since then. Scholars of every century have wanted to get on the bandwagon.

In 1913, Scientific American Magazine chose as the century's wonders the telegraph, the airplane, the automobile, reinforced concrete, the X-ray machine, the phonograph and motion pictures. What would the magazine have thought of Cinerama?

Again, in 1937, Current History Magazine asked a panel of experts what the wonders of the world were. Among other things, the subways were listed. And in 1946, Burton Holms, writing for This Week Magazine, nominated Los Alamos, the home of the atomic bomb.

Within the last few years, interest in the seven wonders of the modern world has been created. Recently, the American Society of Civil Engineers elected the seven wonders of American engineering.

They are: Chicago's sewage-disposal system, the Colorado River Aqueduct, The Empire State Building, Grand Coulee Dam and Columbia Basin Project, Hoover Dam, Panama Canal and the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge.

In a lighter vein, Travel Editor Horace Sutton asked his readers for their choice and among those mentioned were the Taj Mahal, Grand Canyon, the Great Wall of China, the Statue of Liberty, with one vote for the latest Hilton Hotel.

Proceedings of a Regular Meeting of the Independence Township Board Held February 21, 1961.

Meeting called to order by Supervisor Hursfall.
Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.
Bids were re-read for remodeling the power house. A discussion was held concerning the various bids. An informal vote was taken. Each board member indicated his choice.

Motion by Bauer supported by Doebler that the bids be rejected and the Engineer be instructed to work with the Building Inspector to draw a new set of plans and specifications for the work. Carried.

Motion by Bauer supported by Johnson that the work on the Powerhouse be advertised again and all bidders be given copies of the plans and specifications and submit bids again. Carried.

Several interested persons were present to discuss the Liquor license applications. The Board agreed to have a special meeting Saturday, February 25, to inspect the sites for licenses and to have another special meeting February 28, if necessary.

Mr. Clancy of Johnson and Anderson, Inc. was present to request approval of plans for a proposed Subdivision in Section 36.

Motion by Bauer supported by Johnson that the Board refer the proposed Subdivision to our Attorney and request an opinion as to whether or not we can take further action inasmuch as the property is under condemnation proceedings by the State Highway Department. Carried.

Mr. Cloise Nelson of Holly, representing a Mausoleum Company was present to explain his plan to construct a Mausoleum in Lakeview Cemetery. The Board referred him to Mr. Anthony and the Board agreed to study the plans further.

Motion by Bauer supported by Doebler that the Treasurer's report for November and December 1960 for the General and Water Department be approved. Carried.

Motion by Doebler supported by Johnson that Township bills in the amount of $2919.42, Fire Department bills in the amount of $354.93, and Water Department bills in the amount of $308.19, be paid as listed be paid.

Roll Call: Hursfall, Yes; Doebler, Yes; Johnson, Yes; Bauer, Yes.

Motion made and supported to adjourn. Carried.

Respectfully submitted,
Harold J. Doebler

Transfer Of Registration On Election Day
SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village shall have the right to make application to have his registration transferred on any election or primary election day by executing a request over his or her signature for such transfer and presenting the same to the election board in the precinct in which he is registered. Upon receiving such request the inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and if the signatures correspond then the inspector shall certify such fact upon said request and the applicant for transfer shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such electors registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.
