CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 1962

Open Letter to Clarkston Residents

January 23, 1962

Many people have the idea that Winn Schuler's Restaurants, Inc. is a one man show. In fact one of our Clarkston residents expressed a fear as to what might possibly happen in the event that Schuler's locate in Clarkston and then Mr. Schuler unfortunately depart this earth. I think this question can be best answered by quoting from a letter by Mr. Michael Hurst, Executive Vice President of Winn Schuler's to the Clarkston Business Men's Association on January 12th.

"Frequently we hear the question posed regarding the fate of our company in the event of the untimely demise of Winn Schuler. All of us would consider this a great personal loss and there is no doubt that it would have some effect on our organization. His personality and warm reception to creativity have produced many a change in Winn Schuler's through the years but his recent recognition of the very question posed has produced the most dramatic change of all. We feel that we have attracted an extremely capable, well balanced, young management team that will carry on without missing a stride. All are University graduates, all are experienced restaurant men from other chains; all are between the ages of 25 and 32; all are aware of Winn's formula of operation; and best of all, there isn't one who wouldn't do a conscientious job in and for the community in which he runs our restaurant. We literally give the restaurant to the local Manager and require that he be the 'Winn Schuler' of his community.

To boil this down to a single statement - ability plus personality times formula for human relations equals success. As a case in point, I'd offer you the tremendous success of Grand Haven since we took over last July 1st. To prove our point, Winn has not gone near the place nor has it been generally known that this is one of Winn's operations. Without much explanation, I'll say that sales have doubled and we haven't even scratched the surface. The food is now better, and so is the community image, than we enjoy in any other location. This, we know, influenced many a person including our bankers to reap-praise the company. On my next visit with you, I'd like to bring along two or three of our people and have Clarkston see that Winn Schuler's really isn't a one man show."

I only wish that every resident of Clarkston could meet the young management team that represents Mr. Schuler. They are people that you would be proud to welcome as neighbors.

The basic facts have not changed, in the past two weeks. Schuler's cannot locate in Clarkston unless the residents of the Village of Clarkston want them here. This can only be shown by a "yes" vote on the liquor issue on March 12th. Are you registered? If not you have only until February 12th to do so.

Sincerely,
Keith Hallman, President
Clarkston Business Men's Association.

Also, if you are registered in the township and live in the village, but are not registered in the village, you cannot vote in a village election. So please, don't wait, register now! World Travel Slides Waterford Jay Gees To Be Shown

The speaker for the Clarkston Methodist Men's Club this month will be Clyde R. Haskill, a professional photographer from Pontiac who will present some 200 color slides on his recent trip around the world. The title of the program is "A New Look at the Far East".

Mr. Haskill made the trip in connection with the "Spirit of Pontiac" program. He made the presentation on the air plane The Spirit of Pontiac in the government of the Philippines in behalf of the City of Pontiac.

The air plane is to be used by the Summer Institute of Linguistics in the Philippines to transport personnel of the organization into the remote mountain areas for the purpose of translating their spoken language into a written language that can be understood by the natives. Haskill stated that the need for this translation is imperative because of the increasing spread of Communism throughout the areas of the world where the illiterate people are being wooed into the communist camp by the use of literature provided by the soviet nations showing pictures of the wonderful living conditions under their form of government.

The first flight of the Spirit of Pontiac in the Philippines was a mercy mission, Haskill related. A native child had to have immediate medical attention and it would have taken three days to get the child to the hospital in Manila. The flight took just 39 minutes from the time of take off until landing in Manila and another 20 minutes to get the child to the hospital. This ship will fly mercy missions such as this for many years to come, thanks to the people of the Pontiac area.

The plane was purchased from funds raised in this area by the Spirit of Pontiac Committee of which Haskill was chairman. The presentation was covered in the Philippines by radio and newspaper films to be used in the theatres and on television throughout the far east. This presentation was big news in the far east because it was a people to people program.

Haskill has been active for many years in community affairs having served as chairman of the Safety Committee of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce for six years. State chairman of safety for the Michigan Jaycees, and was selected the outstanding young man of the Year of 1960 from the city of Pontiac. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, January 31st, in the old church. All men of the community are welcome. Any man who is not contacted by phone, can secure a reservation by calling the church office on or before Monday, January 29, 1962.

This program will be outstanding, so set this date aside and plan to attend.

The Book Nook

An interesting sidelight for those who have read, or are reading "Kidnap" by George Waller, is a small book at your library entitled "Gift From the Sea" by Anne Morrow Lindbergh. Writing almost thirty years after the tragic loss of her baby son and the ensuing idiocy of a segment of the American public, Mrs. Lindbergh shows herself as a woman of depth, creativity, and maturity.

No mention is made of the past. Her book is a simple description of her thoughts while on a vacation from her husband and children, helpful to every contemporary woman who has ever felt "fragmented" by the hundred demands of a large family. The reader cannot help but feel tenderness and admiration for this woman whose life was so completely sheltered, but who managed somehow to live, and grow, and even find strength to give support to others.

Read her little book — learn how she proposes to help her soul to be as "still as the axis of a revolving wheel is still." And if you are tempted to disregard her words as pompous, look at them again, remember that many in her position might have withdrawn from life forever, but that she has survived and gone forward and is still looking to the future with expectancy.

This column was written this week by Duffy Bell substituting for the regular writer, Lucia Wilford.

The Animal World
 Those who'll play with cats must expect to be scratched.
 —MIGUEL DE CERVANTES (1547-1616)
 Spanish novelist

Cattle do not help a wounded comrade; on the contrary, they are more likely to dispatch him. But a dog will lick another sick dog, and even bring him food; and the sympathy of monkeys is proved by many observations to be strong.
 —WILLIAM JAMES (1842-1910)
 American psychologist

We should venture on the study of every kind of animal without distaste; for each and all will reveal to us something natural and something beautiful.

JOURNALISM MEETING

By Linda McCracken
 There was a Journalism meeting held Thursday, January the 18th.
 The members talked about news going on around the school for the Clarkston Junior High School News.

WHERE DID SHE GO?

By Katie Rossano
 Gricey, the hamster, named after our science teacher last year, has been in Mr. Pemberton's room for quite a while. Wednesday the 10th of January she went home.
 Some of his first hour students asked, "Where's Gricey?" That silly hamster that's always getting out of her cage, has done it for the last time in Mr. Pemberton's classroom.
 I was glad to have her home, for I'm the one who owns her. She was given to me by Mr. Grice, who was a science teacher in our school last year. He raised many hamsters, and at the end of the year he was glad to get rid of them. Mr. Grice went into the Army last August and isn't here to teach this year.

BASKETBALL FOR GIRLS

By Katie Rossano
 Yes, that's right, the girls are playing basketball in their gym classes.
 The students received special rules for playing basketball. The rules are different from the boy's but the games are just as exciting.

THE PONY EXPRESS

By Katie Rossano
 On January 11th the eighth grade history classes saw a movie on the Pony Express. It showed the systems which they used in the "Old West" It also told of the special express ponies which carried the mail at top speed for many miles.
 The riders were young men who could take the long tiresome ride over hills and plains.

THE FUTURE HOMEMAKERS CLUB

By Margaret Keech
 The Future Homemakers Club met on Tuesday, January 16th, in room 110, from 3:05 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. There were nine members attending.
 They discussed several different things they could do in the future. The suggestions were to go bowling, skating, or to go on a sleigh ride.
 They also discussed things they could do to earn some money to go some place. They suggested to make and sell cookies, fudge or cupcakes. They, also, discussed a fashion show, or to have a dance.
 President, Diane Martin adjourned the meeting at 3:30 p.m.

TONSILS OUT?

By Margaret Keech
 Yes, Beverly Pylman had her tonsils taken out. She went into the Pontiac General Hospital, Friday, January 12th the following day, Saturday, she had surgery.
 Beverly is an eighth grader and returned to school on Tuesday, January 16th.

GEOMETRIC FIGURES

By Sandy Smith
 In Mrs. Richely's second hour eighth grade math class students are making geometric figures. Such figures are squares, triangles, circles, rectangles, parallelograms, and trapezoids. These will help the eighth grade classes now as they are studying them. Later on they will help the seventh grade. In a few weeks the other classes will make other figures such as cones, pyramids, and prisms to help us.

SCIENCE PROJECTS

By Linda McCracken
 Mr. Pemberton's 7th grade science classes are working on projects for their semester grade. These projects may also be entered in the Science fair sometime in March. At the science fair last year there were entries of volcanoes, butterflies, parts of the human body, parts of an animal's body, and many others.

 We hope the science fair this year will be as successful as the one last year!

THE WOODBUTCHERS DANCE

By Margaret Keech
 On Friday, January 19th, the Woodbutchers Club sponsored a dance for the seventh and eighth graders in the cafeteria. The dance started at 7:00 p.m. and lasted till 10:30 p.m. All kinds of pop was sold. The cafeteria was decorated with crepe paper.
 Mr. Cox and his wife did the "Twist" for everyone. There was also a broom dance and a multiplication dance.
 Modest Woodward and Don Spangler did the "Twist" together for everyone.
 The Woodbutchers hope that everyone had a nice time.

AUTHORS

By Lynn Howey
 Some of Miss Bethune's English Classes are writing and reading oral reports on the authors of a book they have read. A report may not be over 3 minutes long or less than 1½ minutes long.
 We hope that some well known authors will be mentioned so the students will learn more about the Science Fair.

some of these well known authors we would like to hear about are Mark Twain, Joyce Kilmer, and Charles Dickens. But in mind the students should keep that Miss Bethune will later ask for a brief summary of the story they have read.
 So remember to read your story first! The introduction may tell something about the author.

HISTORY

By Cindy Mosier
 Mrs. Beattie's 8th grade science classes have been reading about the Underground Railroad which was used to transport slaves into Canada to be free. The students seem to like this more than usual and did a little research work on it.
 Cindy Johnson brought in a book called Northwinds Blow Free. Mark Kealand brought in Flight to Freedom also Railroad to Freedom was brought in by Ed Sterling. All these books were very helpful and answered many questions.

SCIENCE PROJECTS
 By Pat Cook
 In Mr. Pemberton's science classes we have been required to hand in a project that will pertain to what we have been studying.
 The projects will be due sometime in March. He has not set a definite day yet.
 If we like we may enter it in the Science Fair.

MICHIGAN IS CULTURE

Culture is at the crossroads in Michigan, at all the crossroads. This is one more reason Michigan is a great place to locate an industry.
 Culture is a part of pleasant living. In itself, it is enjoyment. It is a means of surcease from the busy world of industry. It provides the opportunity for workers and management to come together in a spirit of mutual appreciation of the arts. Culture is essential to the full life.
 Michigan, with its libraries; world renowned museums and art galleries; its symphony orchestras, full and little; its theatre, professional and amateur; its concert stages; offers the ultimate in culture.

 In Michigan there is an abundance of opportunity to enjoy the arts or to participate in them. This has a direct relationship in selecting location for a new industry or for industrial expansion. Cultural activity is important — and in Michigan it is almost everywhere.
 Help carry Michigan's message to the nation. Clip this ad and mail it to someone in another state with your comment. Let's talk up Michigan and its advantages for industry. Together we can assure a greater future for all of us.

Our neighbor is a good farmer, but apt to neglect things like a keeping insurance up to date. A bad fire the other day destroyed his barn. Now, since he hadn't increased his fire insurance for the past few years... he's going into savings and borrowing to make up the difference. Couldn't he have raised his farm fire insurance to an adequate amount at a low increase in premium?
