by Margaret Keech Do you know what journalismis? Journalism is a term that is applied to the business of publications or to newspaper publishing. The talents that go unto journalism are both business and professional, technical and creative. The function of journalism is the collection of facts and ideas and the reporting of them to the public.

Many thousands of students now train annually for careers as reporters, writers, or specialized workers in journalism.

RECORDS IN HISTORY

Modern World.

by Pat Cook

Last Tuesday, Mrs. Beattie, one of the teachers at Clarkston Junior High School played a record by Bob Newheart for her history classes.

The record had some stories that were historical, and that we studied about such as, the Wright Brothers,, Abe Lincoln and some humorous ones such as Khrushckev meeting Eisenhower, and one on driving training.

It was enjoyable by everyone.
