Master File Card Signatures Causing Confusion

To alleviate the doubts and questions of those who have recieved notices to appear at the township hall to sign their master File Card, I should like to issue this clarification:

The State election law provides that a municipality having more than one precinct (Independence now has five) shall have and maintain an up to date Master File of all Registered voters.

The law further states that the Master File card shall contain thereon all of the necessary information that appears on the voters original registration card township was established in 1955
