Plan Neighborhood Meetings To Prepare For Lent

First Methodist Church of Clarkston will begin a series of Neighborhood Spiritual Life Fellowships beginning this coming Sunday evening, February 10th, at 8:00 P.M. The nine neighborhoods of the parish have been combined to make five areas of the community in which the Neighborhood Fellowships are held. Those attending are invited to bring their Bible and to the meetings. Your God is Too Small, by J. B. Phillips, modern translator of The New Testament, will be used as a guide book. Leaders of each group and the homes in which they are meeting are as follows:

Mary Colton and Robert Waters will lead in the discussion to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Henry, 6560 Orion Road. Families in homes in the north Clarkston-north Independence Township neighborhood will be in attendance.

Bill Hanson and Milford Mason will guide the meeting to be held in the home of The Harold Bauers, 6111 Middle Lake Road. Homes in the west Clarkston Middle Lake-Overlook area will be invited.

Margaret Richards will be the discussion leader at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley White, 6386 South Main Street. People living in the neighborhood surrounding First Church and east of M-15 south to the Dixie will be invited.

Jack E. Giguere will lead the dis-ussion in the Clarkston Garden-North Star Homes area at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frost, 6125 Cramlane.

William J. Richards will be meeting with his group at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lowery, 6337 Maybee Road? People from South Independence Township and Waterford Township will be attending these meetings.

The Neighborhood Fellowships will not only be a means of deepening the spiritual life of the church through discussion of "Who is God?" but is a means of bringing a closer fellowship to the members and friends of the church. The Reverend Mr. Richards pointed out to his congregation that the meetings are a means of preparing oneself for Lent which begins on February 27th.

Life Time Resident Dies At Age of 73

A life time resident of Clarkston, Mr. Fred Nuernberg of 4757 White Lake Road, passed away Sunday, February 3 at the age of 73. He had been ill for several months.

Born in Clarkston December 28, 1889 to Frederick and Whilomina Nuernberg, Fred Nuernberg has always been a resident of White Lake Road.

He was a private in World War I and truck driver for Foley and Beardsley for 28 years.

In 1928 he married the former Viola Berry at Boling Green, Ohio. Surviving are his wife and two sisters, Mrs. Ida Heiden of Detroit and Mrs. Caroline Sietoff of Waterford.

Services were held Wednesday, February 6 at the Sharpe-Goyette Funeral Home with Reverend Wayne Peterson officiating. Burial was at Lakeview Cemetery.

March of Dimes Under Goal

An estimated $950.00 was raised January 29 in Independence Township in the March of Dimes Mothers' March, announced Mrs. Kelly Burnette chairman of the Mothers' March in Independence Township.

A final Mothers' March figure will be released when the official count is completed, Mrs. Bunette explained.

A goal of $1,800.00 was hoped for in Independence Township.

She pointed out that persons not contacted may contribute by sending the March of Dimes envelope that was mailed to every home owner in Oakland County.

Funds raised in the Mothers' March and other community events will aid the March of Dimes drive to eradicate crippling birth defects and arthritis and to provide continuing care for polio victims stricken before March of Dimes research developed the Salk and Sabin Vaccines.

The money will also help to set up the Salk Institute for Biological Studies in San Diego, California. Here Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed the first successful polio vaccine, will head a team of world famous scientists seeking basic information which could provide answers to ailments ranging from the common cold to cancer.

Detroit-Edison Sponsors Second Annual Cook-off

The second Detroit Edison sponsored cook-off contest to select the "Queen of the Kitchen" from among working women gets underway Friday, February 1.

Deadline for entries is March 1.

The cook-off will be held in cooperation with the Central Business District Association's annual "Salute To Women Who Work Week" which begins March 17.

Grand prize in the contest will be a deluxe electric range to be chosen by the "Queen" from models of nationally known manufacturers. The second prize will be an electric rotisserie and the third-place winner will receive a blender. Seven other appliances will be awarded to finalists in the contest.

Girls and women working full-time and living in Wayne, Macomb or Oakland counties are invited to submit a recipe for the main dish of a meal. Contestants must be available to compete in the cook-off scheduled for 9:00 a.m., Friday, March 22, in Detroit Edison's Electric Living Division kitchen.

Entries should be mailed to Detroit Edison's Electric Living Division, 2000 Second Avenue, Detroit 26, and must include the name, occupation, address and telephone number of the contestant.

Home economics experts from newspapers, radio and television will serve as judges and will select the ten most interesting entries. Names of the ten finalists will be announced Thursday, March 14.

Finalists will be the guests of Detroit Edison at the "Salute To Women Who Work" banquet on Tuesday, March 19, at Cobo Hall.

Marion Ryan, supervisor of Edison's Electric Living Division, said that all entrants will be invited to attend the cook-off on March 22.

Professional home economists and cooks, employees of Detroit Edison, and members of their immediate families are not eligible for the contest.

Couple Participates in Educational Project

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Grimes, 6907 Snow Apple, Clarkston, Michigan are participating in a unique educational project that is being conducted this week by Spring Arbor College.

The new "Exploratory Experience" of the college is a program that sends sophomore students to live in the homes of alumni and friends of the college for a week between academic semesters. The purpose of the Exploratory Experience is to acquaint the student with the responsibilities of a vocation that he is likely to enter, and to enable him to evaluate his vocational choice and college major.

Douglas Smith from Fenton, Michigan is the guest of the Grimes'.

Spring Arbor College, founded in 1873, is an accredited junior college with plans to expand to a four-year liberal arts program. Junior classes will be added in September, 1963; senior classes in 1964.

To Hear of China

Pontiac-Oakland Town Hall members will hear Felix Greene, British-born lecturer and author February 13, at 10:30 A.M. at the Huron Theater, Pontiac. He will speak on "What's Happening in China Today."

Now a resident of California where he operates an import business, Mr. Greene is the first trained observer from America to have made two journeys into the heart of Communist China. He also is the first Western correspondent to have had an exclusive interview with China's minister Chou-en-Lai. His color films and taped observations of life within the Chinese Commune have been circulated throughout many countries in both the Western and the Eastern hemisphere. He is in great demand as a lecturer and shortly will publish his latest book, "Awakened China". Both his business interests and his curiosity about world affairs take him to Europe at least twice each year.

The lecture will be followed by a Celebrity Luncheon at Devon Gables at 12:30. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Clyde N. Dearing before February 9 and cannot be cancelled after February 11.

Five Boy Scouts to Receive God and Country Awards

Five boys from The First Methodist Church will receive their God and Country Award in scouting at the 11:15 worship service on Sunday, February 10.

Scouting, since its birth, has insisted that its boys be reverent. But in the God and Country it provides them with a unique program of religious study, service, and personal development, all under the direct guidance of the pastors.

The boys who have completed their studies and will receive their awards are Gregory William Charter, Frank Galligan, Charles Bartlett Horsch, Mark Steven Richard, and Christopher Lawson Rose.

Christian Citizenship is also studied. Each scout must do six service projects for the church to meet this section of the badge requirements. Christian Fellowship is the fourth area. Both at home and in church, scouts learn to lead in group activities.

The final area of study is Christian Outreach. The study of missions in this country and around the world by drawing maps and spotting missions helps the boys to grasp pictorially the church's outreach at home and abroad.

Sunday's service will crown the year's labor when the boys will be presented their awards.

Gay Twenties

The Gay Twenties Extension Club will meet at the Community Center on February 12 at 10:00 A.M.

Mrs. H. Kobrak, Mrs. B. Rausch, and Mrs. A. Lausten will give the lesson on Interior Decorating. Mrs. Vera Hubbard will give a lesson on the Care of Your Sewing Machine.

Luncheon will be served at noon by Mrs. Vern Hubbard and Mrs. Helen Alexander.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

To prevent crying your eyes out when slicing onions, chill the onion first, it really helps.

THREE WAYS TO CLEAN YOUR IRON

1. Clean occasionally by running warm iron over waxed paper.
2. Rub clean paraffin over the surface of your iron once in a while to make it glide like magic.
3. Warm iron first then cover the iron surface with a thin layer of Beeswax and put on brown paper this removes all burns, scorches, and rust.

JUST ONE YEAR OF SCHOOL

Lincoln Educated Himself

If Abe Lincoln were a boy today, most of us would despair of his future. He'd be a first-rate example of an "underprivileged boy who never had a chance."

Amazingly enough, the man who became 16th President of the United States and a legend in his own lifetime never had more than a year of formal schooling. All that he learned was self-taught, with the help of borrowed or secondhand books and later, as a young lawyer, The Encyclopedia Americana.

Young Abe's first encounter with learning came early, when he lived in Knob Creek, Kentucky. There his untutored father occasionally permitted Abe to leave his chores to attend a log schoolhouse two miles away.

Lincoln's next experience with school came in 1819. Then ten years old, he got enough schooling to be able, as he said later, "to read, write and cipher to the Rule of Three." This marked the end of his formal education—a total of less than a year.

Scholars, amazed at Lincoln's erudition, have probed his reading. It is known that he read Robinson Crusoe, Pilgrim's Progress, Aesop's Fables and other books still popular with boys today. Later in his twenties, he turned to Shakespeare and Robert Burns.

In 1836, after studying law at night, Lincoln passed his exams, but by today's standards he was still an uneducated man. It was not until later that his education matured, to give him the knowledge and wisdom that eventually brought him to the presidency.

In 1848, Lincoln was disheartened about his political future. He devoted himself to his law practice and to study. Anxious to broaden his vision, he bought a set of The Encyclopedia Amer-

Local Man In College Play

"The Skin of Our Teeth," an internationally famous three-act comedy by Thornton Wilder, will be presented by the Albion College Players February 8-9 in South Hall Auditorium on the campus.

Both performances, open to the public, are scheduled for 8:15 P.M. Tickets will be on sale at the South Hall box office beginning Monday, February 4.

Described as "a drama of colorful confusion," the play follows the Antrobus family - symbolic of mankind in general - as they survive numerous calamities by the "skin of their teeth."

Playing lead roles are Jim DeLoe, Kalamazoo senior, as George Antrobus, and Sandra Macabee, Port Huron junior, as Sabina, the Antrobus' general utility maid.

A Clarkston man, Leo P. P. sophomore at Albion College and son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Pike of 6410 Paramus, will also be in the play.

In Uniform

Marine Corporal Richard D. Kendall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Kendall of 5011 Waldon Rd., is serving with the Third Battalion of the Eighth Marine Regiment, currently engaged in a two-month training exercise in the Caribbean.

The exercise, dubbed PHILBULEX 1-63, is aimed at maintaining the efficiency of the Navy-Marine Corps amphibious striking force. There are five ships and more than 3,600 Marine and Navy personnel involved in the exercise.

The main force of the Marine Expeditionary Unit is scheduled to return to Camp Lejeune, N.C., early in March.

As the Boy Scouts of America marks its 53rd anniversary as a national organization next week Scout week (February 7-13) it is timely to look into the "Fit for Tomorrow" program which was launched last fall as a continuing activity.

The President's Council on Youth Physical Fitness reported last year that about half of the nation's young people would probably fail a simple physical test. The council asked that youth be given more opportunities to develop the kind of fitness they need.

Dr. W. W. Bauer, health education director of the American Medical Association, feels that the Boy Scouts "have been working quietly and effectively toward youth fitness a long time before the present interest in fitness started."

A Scout's promise to "keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight" — one of the basic aims of Scouting — is said to be a good definition of personal fitness.

Cub Scouts learn the "why" of fitness activities when they work on feats of skill and health achievements. They learn to get along with others in their den and pack program features. All round fitness is developed through inter-troop Boy Scout events such as camporees where boys compete against and visit with others.

Personal fitness is one of the six basic Explorer experience areas. The fitness emphasis comes into play through canoe trips, mountaineering, water sports, and swimming meets. Bowling, golf, tennis, and other sports that last a lifetime are natural Explorer unit activities.

The 9,500 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers of the Clinton Valley Council maintain an active interest in this project. They are doing their part today in "building a stronger America" tomorrow through building strong men.

In the rush of the day, and the

'So Says Sonja'

Don't miss the charming report on Brownie Troop 501, written by Nia Kraud. We have left the spelling and wording just as it was written, and sincerely hope we continue to receive these items. We understand that Michele Navarre helped write the report. We urge Brownie and Cub Scout leaders as well as parents, to send us these unedited versions of the meetings written by the 8-10 year old children — Did you ever get so engrossed in your thoughts while feeding the baby, that you suddenly realized you were putting the food in the wrong mouth — like maybe your own? If you have a baby like Tina, she would inform of your action and bring you back down to earth, but quick. — My 13 year old brother, Gary, was somewhat confused when he received Mark's (4 years old) answer to the following question: "Mark, do you want to go fishing?" Mark, "Ya, you got the guns ready Gary?" — Thank goodness for the freezing, sub-zero weather we had up until Sunday! Had it been lovely, sunshining weather, (like now) the children wouldn't dream of playing outside. — Did you ever get that sneaking suspicion that you weren't up on your etiquette? During a MPA Convention Bob and I attended recently, mealtimes always seemed to leave me with at least 1 fork and spoon left over. The thing that bothered me was, I wasn't sure if I should just stick the extras in my pocket, or quickly make them look as though they'd been used. And then there was the merange torte you couldn't crack with a chissle. This was the one time I used every knife, fork, spoon and "hammer" at my place. Their condition after use on the torte might be described as 'somewhat mangled'. And then during one meal there was the dish of sour cream removed from the table untouched, cause it seems nobody knew what it was for. Even though it was only a bean sprout, it caught me off guard momentarily when I discovered it 'crawling' (or so it seemed) over the edge of the salad bowl. And then there was the 'self operated' elevator that closed on you if you weren't quick, and which was always going in the wrong direction. All kidding aside, we had a very enjoyable time, but then, who doesn't at a convention.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN SAID:

"You cannot bring prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer. You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred. You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich. You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

Personality

Peeps

by Grace Kohn and Emeline Hamilton

Here is the writing of a man known to most of us as Edward W. Bok. We shall examine his writing to see how the qualities present have shown in his accomplishments.

Make your world a bit better or more beautiful because you have lived in it.

Edward W. Bok

We note first the elements of caution and conservatism. Coming to America from the Netherlands when he was but six years of age, this poor immigrant boy, thru these qualities amassed a fortune. As editor of the Ladies Home Journal he was called "a lay preacher to the largest congregation in the United States."

Generosity is shown here also - the kind of generosity that needs recognition and appreciation. How better could this quality be gratified than in the gift to the people of the country that adopted him! The fact that he used what was considered useless swamp land for his project in Florida again shows his conservative nature. His qualities of determination, independence and self reliance were called upon when he had the swamp drained and landscaped against all odds.

The outstanding beauty of Bok Tower with its big set of bell chimes or carillons, the concerts given there and the singularly different idea that the whole project is, bears out the love of beauty, music appreciation, rhythm and independent thinking shown in the writing of this unusual man.

Also shown of this man are the facts that he possessed a good memory, was loyal to his ideals and enjoyed solitude. Is not the fact that he always remembered the above maxim of his Grandmother the location of Bok Tower (high on a hill apart from the mundane world around it) mute evidence of this?

Altho' we have no evidence, we are sure he could have written some music and played on the beautiful tower bells himself.

Appreciation Dinner

The Methodist Commission on Education sponsored an appreciation dinner January 24th for all Church School teachers, substitute teachers, members of Education Commission Youth Fellowship Advisors and Counselors and their husbands and wives.

Dr. Harold Bremer, executive secretary of the Board of Christian Education of the Detroit Conference of the Methodist Churches, was the after-dinner speaker. His topic was "Improving Christian Education in the Small Church."

Blessed Event

A baby girl, Deborah Allyn, petite and plump (8 lbs. 2 ozs.) was born Saturday, January 26th to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dickason in Seattle, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickason, both graduates of Brandon High School have lived for a year in Seattle where Mr. Dickason is doing experimental electrical work for Boeing Aircraft Co.

Grandparents of the new baby are Mr. and Mrs. A. Dale Dickason of Thayer Road and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burt of Mill Street, Ortonville.

Linden Tops Hawks 70-57

By Dan Sellers

Linden took a 15-13 lead at the end of the first quarter and it looked like a close game was in the making. But the second quarter was a nightmare for Harvey Fletcher's Hawks. They could muster only six points while Linden scored 20 and led 35-19 at the half. The Hawks came back and out-scored the Eagles by 3 the rest of the way.

Linden was led by Rick Hamilton with 21 and Larry Larobariere with 20. Brandon's high was John Myers with 17 (15 coming in the second half.)

Individual Scoring: Linden: R. Hamilton, 21; L. Laro, 20; C. Hamilton, 10; B. Letkam, 9; Carnes, 4; D. Steele, 3; D. Johnson, 2; K. Hall, 1. Total 70.
Brandon: J. Myers, 17; B. Kilbourn, 12; G. Sutton, 11; L. Richardson, 10; H. Webb, 4; E. Giroux, 2; J. Cleveland, 1. Total 57.

On the Home Scene

Guard Helps Neighbors When Disaster Strikes

A wide variety of frequently little-known services are performed by National Guard units in times of crisis in their own home communities.

Valiant rescue efforts were made by members of the Army and Air National Guard when that ill-fated chartered airliner carrying Army recruits crashed near Richmond, Virginia, killing 77 passengers and crewmen. The 149th Tactical Fighter Squadron of Richmond sent the first and only heavy emergency equipment to reach the scene. Armored personnel carriers and jeeps of the 183rd Reconnaissance Squadron of Virginia's Army National Guard cut paths through the rugged terrain surrounding the scene so that this equipment could be moved in there. Once there, the men of the fighter squadron, wearing asbestos suits and hoods, waded into the fiery wreck to fight the fire and seek survivors. The men of the Guard also assisted in other ways such as searching the area for survivors and cordoning off the scene in order to keep spectators away.

In July, 1961, a flash flood hit Charleston, West Virginia, killing 22 people and injuring over 1600. The flood caused over $6,000,000 in property damage. Before midnight a disaster task force of Guardsmen had been organized by Brigadier General Gene H. Williams, State Adjutant General, on orders from Governor W. W. Baxton. Unit alert plans went into full operation as members were called into active state service for duty or reconnaissance patrols and relief crews.

Members of the 150th Armored Cavalry were placed on around-the-clock duty working 12 hours on and 12 hours off. Members of the 180th Troop Carrier Squadron of the Air National Guard volunteered to help without pay. As work progressed they found that the equipment they had was insufficient to cope with the situation and sent out a call for additional apparatus. Within a few hours equipment and technical teams from all over the state were pouring into the stricken city. Reconnaissance teams scouted the area for people in need and security units sealed it off and protected it from looters. All told, it was the largest and most complex operation in West Virginia in more than three decades.

In mid-winter of 1962 a big snow storm hit the New Mexico mountains at the opening of the deer season trapping some 600 hunters. The snow piled up to three feet with as much as ten-foot drifts in some places. The Army National Guard from six towns cooperating with the State Police in the area began immediate rescue efforts which ended in bringing every hunter back alive and well.

Using only wheeled vehicles, the Guardsmen cleared paths in the snow to reach remote areas and also cleared existing roads so that the hunters could drive their cars out. They carried food to hunters who had taken refuge in the isolated ranches. As the Eddy County Sheriff put it, "the rescue of many would have been impossible without the National Guard."

When a million dollar fire burned El Centro, California's Barbara Worth Hotel to the ground, members of Company B, 40th Ordnance Battalion, were at hand to control the huge crowd which turned out to watch the blaze and guard adjoining buildings against looters. The fire took place on a record-breaking cold night in January of last year—but these men spent 14 hours out-of-doors on this assignment.

The 144th Medium Transport Squadron of Anchorage, Alaska, has an annual wintertime chore of flying food and fuel to ice-locked missions and Eskimo villages on Alaska's west coast. They have also helped transport wildlife herds, carried gear to scientists on floating ice islands, and hauled vital equipment to research parties studying Alaskan glaciers.

These are but a few examples of how the citizen-soldier is constantly ready and able to serve his community when help is needed.

Symphony

On Tuesday, January 29th, several local citizens were privileged to hear another of the professional-quality performances presented in the 1962-63 concert series of the Pontiac Symphony. Local businessman, Robert Button and Donald Button are two of the sixty-five musicians comprising the orchestra.

Conducted by Felix Resnick, the orchestra opened with the spirited "Roman Carnival" by Berlioz. They also played Chabrier's danceable "Pete Polonaise"; the hauntingly sweet "Irish Tune" from "Country Derry" by Grainger; "Pavane" by Morton Gould and concluded with the stirring "Bacchanale" from "Samson and Delilah" by Saint-Saens.

Soloists were Elise Yockey, harpist and Albert Tipton, Flutist, who presented a perfect rendition of Mozart's Concerto for Harp, Flute and Orchestra. Individually and in concert the soloists created music that was unsurpassed for sheer beauty of tone and harmony.

Miss Yockey and Mr. Tipton are both experienced concert soloists and at present, both are members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Tipton plays a Powell platinum flute, valued at over five thousand dollars - one of eight in the world.

On Tuesday, March 5th, the Pontiac Symphony will have as its guest soloist the well-known violinist Mischa Mischakoff.

Showers

Wedding bells will ring for Miss Diana Weil on February 23rd when she will become the bride of Jeffery Wilson of London, England. The couple met at Pontiac General Hospital where they were both employed. Mr. Wilson is a student at Wayne University Medical College.

In the meantime, Miss Weil is the guest of honor at a whirl of bridal showers. On January 24th Mrs. George Koester and Mrs. Elwyn Dopp were co-hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for fourteen guests. Luncheon was daintily served at a table lovely with candelabra and white and pink flowers.

On Saturday, January 26th, hostesses for a miscellaneous shower were Mrs. Frank Sherman and Linda Beach.

JV's Take Linden

By Harold Webb, Jr.
The Brandon J.V.s, after losing last week's game to Goodrich downed Linden 52-41.

The J.V.s trailed at half time 26-27 but the second half was entirely different. George Palshan hit 8 points and Marvin McDowell hit 9 for 17 of Brandon's 26 points, which was the deciding factor.

Dave Myers turned in a fine performance on the boards by hauling in 11 rebounds. Mike Bartle came off the bench and made 8 points, hauling in 7 rebounds for second best in that department.

Individual scoring: Brandon: M. McDowell, 16; G. Palshan, 10; M. Bartle, 8; D. Myers, 7; L. Saunders, 4; S. Bolyea, 4; B. Cunningham, 2; J. Slaughter, 1. Total 52.

Linden: R. Sharp, 21; B. Thompson, 6; C. Reed, 4; C. Steele, 4; L. Felch, 3. Total 41.

We must admire the spirit of the Brandon Democrats who work hard for their fish fries at the Eagle's Nest Restaurant on Friday nights. There will be three more of them to bolster the party treasury and the morale of the candidates. They say that the public is welcome.

Remember the Mace Smiths of Grange Hall Road who sold their property and moved to Florida? Following are a few excerpts from a letter to a Groveland neighbor. "We have had the furnace on most of the time since November 9th. The deep freeze of December 13 played havoc with the citrus crop in most of Florida. Our section depends on citrus and is hard hit. Thousands are out of work with no jobs in sight. . . . But groves are making a wonderful recovery and should fruit next season. We lost all our shrubs except rosebushes. . . . waiting to see if the roots are alive. Some sunshine and rain will soon tell. Both are very needed. . . . We bought the lot next to us and Mrs. Smith is planning a Groveland farm garden. . . . I am not so sure! . . . Our summer trip of 4630 miles was a bit too long I think. . . . We are thinking of trying North Carolina this year to get away from the extreme heat (if it ever warms up). Drop us a line when you can. 105 Florida Drive, Auburndale, Florida."

Some of the local folks who viewed the lavish production of Camelot at the Fisher Theatre in Detroit are Mrs. Kenneth Laing and Mrs. Derhard Treffehn, Gary Bandy, Mrs. Horace Kohn, Mrs. B. L. Hamilton, and Lynn Hamilton and Gwen Hamilton. Our personal unprofessional opinion of the show is that the artistry of the sets and costumes is unbelievable for a stage show; that the actors and dancers were exceptionally fine; but we were disappointed in the music. We think that Werner & Loewe reached their peak with the score of "My Fair Lady" and have been producing rather weaker carbon copies ever since. There wasn't one tune catchy enough so that we could recall it after reaching home.

Mrs. Thomas Sims and Mrs. Shirley Pletcher were co-hostesses at a pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Joan Wilcox. About twenty guests assembled at Mrs. Sims' home, 400 M-15, to present their gifts, play games and enjoy the refreshments prepared by the hostesses.

Well, the brief respite in the below zero weather finally allowed our kitchen pipes to thaw - and we hope yours did too! - but after carrying all our water for over a month you won't find us nearly so wistful for the "good old days" as we once thought we were.

Don't forget Ortonville caucus February 11th!

Tuesday, February 5, the neighborhood ladies called on Mrs. Frances Irwin of Jossman Road, to honor her birthday. Cake and coffee were brought by the guests.

A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Giroux was Mrs. Madonna Christie of Island Pond, Vermont. Mrs. Christie appreciated our "warm" Michigan weather. Common winter temperatures at her home are twenty-five to thirty below.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dickason were home recently on a brief between semester leave from University of Michigan where Wayne is a sophomore medical student.

Mrs. Wealtha Wolfe and Mrs. Gladys Skank are motoring together to Florida. They will stop enroute at Nashville, Tennessee to visit Mrs. Skank's son, participate in a Church Camp Meeting. Their final destination will be in the Zephyr Hills area where they will be able to visit with many of their Ortonville friends staying nearby.

Florida also has beckoned Mr. and Mrs. Claude Zimmerman of Thayer Road who left last week.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Eastern Michigan General Association of Regular Baptists held in the new Baptist Church at Fenton, was attended by Reverend and Mrs. Roy Buttruff of Ortonville and Mrs. Thelma Hartwig, Mrs. Orpha Horton, Mrs. Elta Moss, Mrs. Dale Dickason.

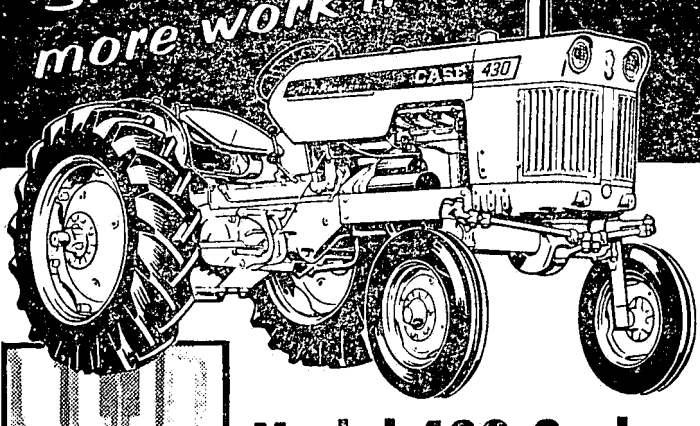

While an employee was putting goods on a shelf in my store he accidentally threw some into the fire with their packings. The goods were destroyed before we were able to do anything to save them. Would the value of this merchandise be covered on the standard Contents form?

CLARKSTON HANDS HOLLY SECOND SETBACK 62-50
 Dan Craven and the Clarkston Wolves upset Holly for the second straight time. Holly suffered a 60 to 57 setback on the first meeting, and dropped the second decision 52 to 50.
 The Broncos pushed ahead in the first quarter to lead 16 to 12. Clarkston's Dan Craven took over the second period and poured in 12 straight points to give the Wolves an eight point lead going into the intermission.
 Holly came on strong in the third quarter while the Wolves ran into their third quarter problems. Clarkston's Mike Bray left the game on fouls followed by Jack Lundy with an eye injury. "Bobbins" From Bob much too fast passing of the days, we completely forgot to congratulate the Junior Class of Brandon Township High School for their time and efforts while selling subscriptions to this newspaper. They sold 187 subscriptions and received $187 towards their Senior Class trip.
 Being somewhat more ambitious, or just better salesman, proved profitable to Paul Pelsham, Joe Spress and Dick Pethick. Over and above the money given to the class, The Clarkston News presented Paul with $15 for selling 23 subscriptions; Joe, also sold 23 subscriptions and received $15; Dick received $5 for selling 12 subscriptions. A close runner-up was Roger Willis with 11 subscriptions sold.
 Your efforts were appreciated 4 boys, as well as the rest of the 3 Junior Class. A special thanks to 2 the Junior Class advisor, Mr. 1 Johnson.

Horse Sense

First of all, I prefer to remain anonymous, for reasons that will be obvious. I am not a writer, and second, all I know about horses, I get from the Horseman's Encyclopedia, which incidentally for those who are interested in a very fine book by Margaret Cabell Self.
 Saturday night, January 12 Dixie Saddle Club met as usual (second Saturday of every month) and it was a meeting during which we were all reminiscent. Did you know it was organized 15 years ago and met in Glen Ellis barn? There was a time when we had over one-hundred active members. Now, for various reasons, we are a much smaller group. Our new President is Penny Galbraith, a senior in High School who lives at Union Lake.
 When we met to nominate a new president, did we think a girl could do the job? The remark was made the best President the club ever had was Mrs. George Perry. Under her leadership, the club made great strides. Given a chance, women can do great things.
 Frank Menton then showed movies of the Square Dance team they had over ten years ago, under the direction of Harold Vance, the caller. The group was in demand at horse shows and many other activities.

 I'll just mention the local people who rode: Ferres and Inez Holcomb, Connie and Ardie Grugbaugh, Leona McDonald (your children's school bus driver), Jean and Stoney Nelson, Joyce Spooner Boynes, Harry Waggoner (now living in Florida) and Frank Menton. Learning this took about three evenings a week teaching yourself and horse, the "Grapevine Twist" and "Round That Lady", and others. Then Frank showed us pictures of breaking one of his horses to a cutter - what a pretty sight. Don't get me wrong. I love TV, my washer, my nice warm car, and all that goes with living in 1963, but it must have been fun riding in a cutter way back when.
 Yesterday Eastern Michigan Horseman's Association met at Oxford for a pot-luck dinner and award presentations for all spring and summer work of riding in horse shows. I will just mention two from our club who won - Donna and Shelly Humbaugh who won awards in cloverleaf and barrel bending. Donna said she got up at five every morning and worked with her horse Casey.

 January 24, 1963 we had a square dance. It was a father and daughter square dance. My father lost his pack of cigarettes. And my father spinned me and I fell down. It was really, really fun for all the Browns at the square dance and for the Girl Scouts. They had nice refreshments. I think everybody liked it. Enough the fathers of the Girl Scouts and Browns liked it. So did I. Tammy Mahar had to be a boy and some other girl had to boys.
