CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1963

Teachers Present New Wage Scale to School Board

During a regular meeting of the Clarkston Board of Education, Monday night, seven people were present during the important discussion concerning the low wage schedule of the teachers in the Clarkston Community Schools. A schedule presented to the Board by the teachers during a special meeting January 16, was discussed and studied in length, by the Board and Dr. L.S. Greene, superintendent of Clarkston Schools. The following recommendations were made by Dr. Greene and the Board members, Monday night: (1) Approve salary schedule as presented (which was the result of extensive research by all involved); (2) Conduct a referendum for an increase in operating millage not to exceed 5 mills.

The salary schedule presented would provide a teacher holding a B.S. or B.A. Degree with an income of $1800, 1st year, (no increase over present rate) to a maximum of $7454 (increase of $321) after 12 years of teaching here. Teachers with a Masters Degree would earn from $3016, 1st year, to $7790 maximum (increase of $335). Those holding a special degree would earn from $3242 to $8110, over a period of 11 years, while teachers with a Dr. Degree would earn from $3743 to $8506. All increases were figured for a period from 1 to 11 years.

It was noted that the increasing number of teachers leaving the Clarkston School System was, in a large part, due to the low wage schedule.

A special meeting of the board will be held this month for the purpose of discussing and preparing the millage referendum.

SELECT ARCHITECT FOR NEW SCHOOL

Following a lengthy discussion by the board, it was moved and passed that Richard Prince, A.I.A. of Kalamazoo, as approved to Lewis C. Kingscott, be named as architect for the proposed new elementary school building scheduled for completion in the Fall of 1964. Mr. Prince was an architect with the Kingscott Company when they designed and built the present High School building.

TEACHER TRAINING PROGRAM

Before adjourning, the board moved to participate (should Clarkston school be selected) in the teacher training program conducted by Central Michigan University.

Local Student Wins Lincoln Essay Contest

A Clarkston High School sophomore, Karen Cooper, took first place with her essay on "What Lincoln Means to Me". This Lincoln Essay Contest was sponsored by the Oakland County Republican Club, and is an annual event.

The winner of the $5.00 third prize was another Clarkston sophomore, Gloria Bridges, daughter of the Bethram Bridges of 515 Clarkston Road.

Following is Karen's award winning essay.

What Lincoln Means To Me

By Karen Cooper

I believe Abraham Lincoln is a symbol of many things. The influence he held during his lifetime did not disappear even at his death. In fact, the people of America did not learn what a truly great man he was until after his assassination. They were too blinded by the hates and prejudices of war to fully appreciate his rich wisdom. It was a sad day indeed that rainy April evening when Lincoln's life was taken by the madman John Wilkes Booth.

The question is now: "What does Lincoln mean to me?" I cannot attempt to completely answer that thought-provoking question. No answer I give would fully cover all the effects he has had upon my life or upon the life of any average American.

Many Americans do not even realize the full implications of this question because they rarely stop to think about such a profound matter. Let's think about it now. Let's find out what his life really means.

Abraham Lincoln stands out to me as a glowing patriot. He is an inspiration to all men who love their homes and country. His example gives courage to us to fight for our country and its basic ideals.

These great principles are the supreme rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Lincoln performed his greatest service during wartime. He led our country during conflict known as the Civil War. In his position as President, Lincoln strove valiantly to resolve the sectional differences in order to preserve the union. We don't have to be head of a country though, to believe in those same ideals. Each day, we can do our share by keeping our moral and spiritual standards high.

To me, as an individual, Lincoln offers a great challenge. It is a challenge to do better; to use the full capabilities that God gave me. Each of us has his own special talent to be developed to the highest. The precedent Lincoln set inspires me to emulate his actions. It gives me a goal. That goal is to be good in whatever field I choose as Lincoln was in his.

The Beginning

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

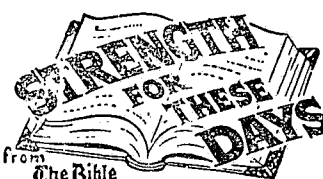

—The Holy Bible

But how didst Thou make the heavens and the earth? And what the engine of Thy so mighty fabric?

—St. AUGUSTINE from Confessions

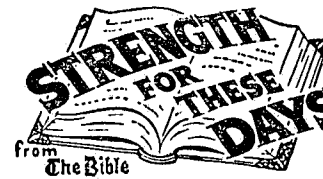

And that the heaven, if it had an origin, was evolved and is maintained by such a cause, there is therefore even more reason to believe, than that mortal animals so originated. For order and definiteness are so much more manifest in the celestial bodies than in our own frame; while change and chance are characteristic of the perishable things of earth. Yet there are some who, while they allow that every animal exists and was generated by nature, nevertheless hold that the heaven was constructed to be what it is by chance and spontaneity; the heaven, in which not the faintest sign of haphazard or of disorder is discernible!

—ARISTOTLE from On the Parts of Animals

Let patience have its perfect work. —(Jas. 1:4).

We should exercise patience in everything we do, particularly in our relations with others. Patience should be the constant benchmark of our attitude toward those with whom we work or associate with.

Guide me in thy truth, and teach me. —(Psalms 25:5).

God is with us in every decision we make; His wisdom is there to guide and direct us if we but seek it through prayer.

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

REMOVE THE BLINDFOLD!

Why do men react differently in times of danger or difficulty? Some go all to pieces, get panicky, lose their heads and act most erratic. Others keep calm, cool, collected and are unperturbed while under fire. Why the big difference? What do some men have that others lack?

An enlightening example of such a contrast is found in the Prophet Elisha and his servant. Early one morning the servant arose to find, to his horror, that the city was completely encircled by the hordes of Syria. The sight of so formidable an enemy, posing a current danger, frightened him. Panic-stricken, he rushed to his master asking frantically what they should do. The bad news had a different reaction on Elisha. He remained calm and even admonished his servant to have no fear.

Elisha's servant saw nothing but the invading army. His vision was limited. He saw circumstances only and forgot about God. He saw the foe but not the guardian host which was also surrounding them. He saw the danger but not the protectors. Elisha saw the guardian angels and knew nothing could thwart the plan of God. He rested confidently on that assurance and said, "Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them."

By faith we see the unseen, know the unknowable and attain the impossible. Those who have no faith live in a very limited world. He whose knowledge comes only through his five senses is extremely restricted. Those senses which are supposed to be the means of our knowledge actually conceal more than they reveal. The person without faith is in a worse plight than he who is physically blind. Faith opens our eyes to new vistas and understandings.

Faith holds us steady. He who has faith recognizes the presence of God and that He is sufficient for all things. He sees Him as overruling the most adverse conditions. He knows he has a God who is bigger than his enemy.

When a host of enemies surround your camp, look to the Lord and His surrounding angels. See Him who is greater than circumstances. You will be a paragon of calmness. Just ask God to remove the blindfold so you can see the ever-present help at hand. If doubts creep in, then say with the Psalmist, "Open thou mine eyes."

CHEVROLET TRUCK QUALITY

You can see the difference wherever you look

If you believe various makes of trucks are pretty much alike, you aren't doing justice to your pocket-book. There are differences.

A Chevrolet truck welcomes comparison. Look at the little things on it—latches, hinges, stitching in the upholstery. Notice how strong the tailgate is, the rubber encased chains that keep it from sagging.

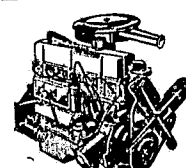

The body floor is made of select wood to eliminate the rust problem and give you better footing. The lower side panels are double-walled; you might dent the inside but it won't show through.

Chevrolet designs suspension systems to fit your need. The light-duty type is strong on comfort. Another kind for heavier trucks stiffens up as you increase your load and vice versa. Make sense?

If you are going to need a new truck this year, you should look at the quality Chevrolet has to offer. May we bring over a new '63 so you can examine it?

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Wilson:
Irresponsible opponets of good government now accuses the Oakland County Non-Partisan Committee for the New Constitution of being partisan. In their opinion, obviously, it would be non-partisan if (and only if) its members were exclusively Democrats. I heartly agree that it could be non-partisan under that condition but it is obvious it would be. These critics have no interest whatsoever in avoiding politics in order to obtain better government. The Committee for the New Constitution is not all concerned with the politics of its members. We concern ourselves with good government exclusively and for that reason urge adoption of the new Constitution for the benefit of all citizens.

94 TRAFFIC DEATHS BEGIN NEW YEAR

Michigan began 1963 with 94 traffic deaths in January, the same as in that month a year ago.

And it ended 1962 with a toll of 1,545, which was a reduction of 18 from the 1961 figure. New highs were established, however, with the 107,117 injured and total of 230,439 reported accidents, State Police told The Clarkston News this week.

Although the new limited access highways are helping to hold down the traffic toll, the new records in injuries and accidents have emphasized growing seriousness of this problem on the other highways, and indicate that safety measures must be strengthened, the analysis shows.

Michigan Leaders Gain Honors As Outstanding Former 4-H'ers

Four Michigan residents, widely recognized as leaders who "have continued to live by 4-H ideals," are 1962 winners of top awards in the national 4-H alumni recognition program.

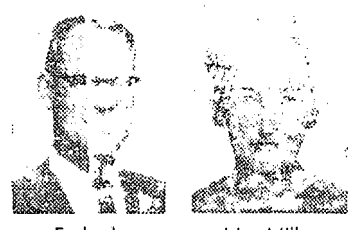

Mrs. Gault

Reid is a dairy farmer in Oakland County and president of the Southwest Michigan Local Michigan Milk Producers Association. He became interested in dairying during five years as a 4-H Club member. He is president of the Oakland County Holstein-Friesian Association.

A job as superintendent of the Wayne County 4-H Fair has been the main 4-H activity for Forbush, an adult leader in the county for 15 years.

Forbush, a realtor and former high school teacher, is a past president of the Auto City Rabbit Breeders Association and of the Dearborn Board of Stables. He is president of the Michigan Quarter Horse Association. He was a 4-H'er in Crawford County, Mich.

Mrs. Miller

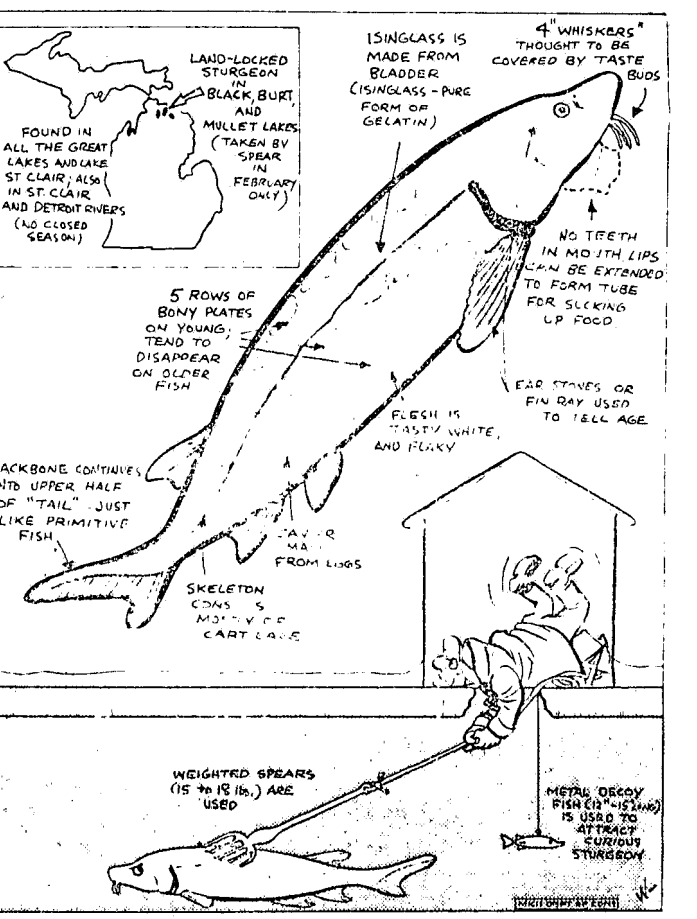

Mrs. Gault, who introduced all of her eight children to 4-H was an adult 4-H leader for 11 years. She is a former Lenawee County extension agent and draws on this experience in her role as chairman of the Madisor Center Extension Club.

She concentrated on beef raising during three years of 4-H membership in Lenawee County.

The national 4-H alumni awards program is sponsored for the 11th consecutive year by Olin Mathieson in an attempt to recognize outstanding leaders among 23 million 4-H alumni.

Conducted nationally by the Cooperative Extension Service and the National 4-H Service Committee, the program seeks to highlight the ideals of clearer thinking, greater loyalty, larger service, and better living as expressed in the 4-H Club pledge.

Granddaddy of Michigan's Fish

Come Feb. 1, one of Michigan's most specialized wintertime sports--sturgeon spearing--starts its annual one-month stand on inland non-trout waters. Virtually all of the season's action will take place on Burt, Mullett, and Black lakes of Cheboygan county. Spearing is done from shanties over marl-bottomed waters 10-20 feet deep. Rope is tied to heavily weighted spears so fishermen can hold and "play" large fish. The sport demands a good deal of skill--and patience. A Conservation Department survey showed that sportsmen spent an average of 240 hours for every sturgeon they speared in the three Cheboygan lakes during the 1956-58 seasons. This helps explain how some sturgeon live to be 100 years and older; the Department's survey revealed an age range of 19-70 years among sturgeon speared in the lakes. In addition to being Michigan's longest-lived fish, the shark-like sturgeon is also the state's largest. The record sturgeon speared in Michigan came from Mullett lake in 1955; it weighed 175 pounds and measured 86 inches long.

CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1963

Personality Peeps

by Grace Kohn and Emeline Hamilton

Does your poor handwriting "bug" you sometimes? Don't let it! It doesn't mean a thing. You may even become president of the United States some day. Abraham Lincoln did! Our writing is the reflection of our needs and feelings.

Your score and seven years ago our folks foith upon this continent, a new nation, in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that men are created equal.

Lincoln, the lonely man who befriended all mankind, was simple and direct in his approach. This is shown not only in his writing, but in his Gettysburg Address - so clear and simple that even a child can grasp its meaning.

Mr. Lincoln's independent spirit is shown in his low d stems - mark of the non-conformist and the pioneer. What had been his home life? Was he "henpecked", as some biographers have it? Was Mr. Lincoln a shrew? Yes, you might say he was henpecked - but girls, if your husband insisted on wearing a shawl to church or stamped into the parlor in muddy boots or was seen riding a flop-eared mule through the city streets, wouldn't you have something to say to him?

And if, as president, he wore the same old shawl in his office . . . if at a formal banquet he chose to sit next to an interesting civilian instead of a dull general . . . or if he romped in the main halls of the White House with his beloved Tad wouldn't you let yourself be heard? Yet, to see the real man, we need only to look at his handwriting, viewing his faults as well as his virtues and evaluate them.

Possibly the strongest force in his personality was this ability to think and to act independently. It was not to defy custom that Mr. Lincoln acted this way. It was that by arriving at a conclusion via his own thinking processes, he let nothing deter him carrying out his course of action.

Abraham Lincoln's loyalty to his ideals is characterized by his deep concern for mankind regardless of creed, religion or social position. His firm holding on to an achievement as shown in nearly every word plus his high ideals and loyalty to those ideals accounting for his forward strides.

A quality that Lincoln has never been credited with is that of diplomacy. It was actually this trait that enabled him to say and do the things he deemed necessary and make the hearer go away and enjoy doing the thing he had opposed when he made his request to the president.

Yes, Abraham Lincoln did not write with the beautiful, graceful script which was the pride of many men of his day. He was self-taught and his handwriting was rugged in appearance. But the beauty of his character peeped out of every word.

MISFORTUNE DOGS FAMILY

Trouble comes double to the John Brewer family. Last December 20th a fire at their former home caused them to move to Hadley Road, where they now live. Then on Wednesday February 6th, Mr. Brewer was critically injured while attempting to remove a diseased elm tree between the home of Alton Bailey and the Standard station on Mill Street.

Mr. Brewer, assisted by Elmo Hanev and Bill Stevens of Groveland Road, was attempting to remove a large limb of the tree when it swung down and knocked him from his ladder. He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where he is still in critical condition at the time of this writing. The reports being that he suffered a broken hip, broken ribs and a lung puncture. Mrs. Brewer has been allowed to visit him for only a few minutes at intervals during the day.

The Brewers are the parents of eight children.

Foster Parents Honored

Several local foster parents were among those recently honored at a banquet at the All Saints Episcopal Church in Pontiac. Flowers for the tables and a lovely corsage of four white carnations presented to each boarding mother were donated by a Detroit florist.

Most parents are quite ready to discourse upon the difficulty of rearing two or three children. But, over the years, these remarkable foster-parents have cared for dozens of foster children, maintained a congenial family relationship with their own children and all of them have also been active in church, school, club and community affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowren of Barron Road, Groveland Township, were presented with a certificate and a bouquet of red roses in special recognition for having been licensed and serving as foster parents continuously for nineteen years. Mrs. Bowren also won one of the floral centerpieces as a door prize, as did Mrs. Lester Westlake.

Reporting the largest total number of children cared for in this area are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Westlake of Jossman Road. They have had seventy-four foster children in addition to their own three girls. The children have ranged in age from one day to seventeen years. Mrs. Westlake has a special license which enables her to take more than four children at one time into her large home and she frequently has kept together whole families of six or more children until a permanent home could be found for them. Besides keeping a spotless house, the Westlakes are active church workers, participate in local clubs and organizations, help with fund raising drives and manage to find time for social evenings with their adult friends.

Over a period of seventeen years Mr. and Mrs. David Bussell of Oakland Road have been parents of twenty-four children. They have two boys of their own. But the Bussells would be sure to tell you that all of the children were "their own." One of their boys, Andy Lewis, graduated from Brandon High School in June, 1962. Ronald Swanson, an earlier Brandon graduate and salutatorian of his class, is now a German major at M.S.U.O., expecting to graduate in December, 1963.

Foster parents since 1954, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tatu, 1500 Hadley Road, have had twenty-six children. Their own two boys are married and the Tatus now have five grandchildren. Mrs. Tatu says she welcomes the foster children because, "with my boys gone, we need something to take up the space in this big house. The foster children come and go and you aren't supposed to become attached to them, but you can't help what your heart does, so we love them all."

According to Juvenile Court there are now 111 active boarding homes in Oakland County but more people with large homes and hearts are needed to care for children still on the waiting lists for placement.

Prepare for February 8th Primary

Monday, February 18th, is the day the party faithfuls will go to the polls to select their slate of candidates for the spring election. Unless there is an unusual contest within the political party, turnouts for a primary vote are usually small but perhaps the Brandon Democrats and the little-publicized contest for Groveland Township supervisor can engender enough interest to change the picture this year.

Challenging Earl Rhinevault, sixteen-year incumbent, for the office of Groveland Township supervisor is William Seramlin. A quiet, modest man, Mr. Seramlin has been a full-time farmer all of his life, now working the 196-acre farm on which he was born. He was vice-president of the Oakland County 4-H Leaders' Association; Director of Oakland County Farm Bureau, nine years and president for three terms; director of the Oakland County Soil Conservation District and has worked with the local young people as 4-H Leader.

Other offices in controversy on the Groveland Republican ticket are for Treasurer, where Incumbent, B. C. Brondige is being challenged by George Gray, former township clerk; Board of Review and Constable, where seven men vie for the four positions to be filled. There is no contest on the Groveland Democratic ticket as only three candidates have filed for office.

The Brandon Democrats have been conducting a lively, friendly campaign for the offices of clerk, treasurer, Trustee and Constable. With a list of well-qualified candidates, anything can happen there.

The only issue on the Brandon Republican slate is for the office of Trustee, where the voters are asked to choose between Mrs. Leona Hutchings, long active in community affairs, Dr. George Jaruga, and Mr. Marion Pudwill, all able candidates.

MOTHERS' MARCH

Mrs. A. Dale Dickason reported that the Groveland Township Mothers who marched on January 20th, collected $43.70 for the "March of Dimes" campaign.

Mothers working on the drive were Mrs. Glenn Mills, Mrs. Monroe Frick, Mrs. Harold Webb, Mrs. Raymond MacDiarmid, Mrs. Lester Westlake, Mrs. Jack Spencer and Mrs. Joseph Roman.

Reception Honors Newlyweds

Mrs. Bobby Dunavant

serve at the Community Bible Church, Lake Orion, at 7:30 in the evening of February 9th.

The bride chose a bone-white brocade gown with a scoop neckline outlined with seed pearls, hoop skirt, and white shoulder length veil.

The bride's attendants were her three sisters, Pauline McArthur, maid of honor, Anne McArthur and Carolyn McArthur. Kathy Ward was the flower girl.

Harold Dunavant, brother of the groom, was the best man and ushers were Melvin McArthur and William Harmon.

Music for the wedding was provided by organist, Sally Cook, and vocalists, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fiedler, who sang, "Together Life's Pathway We Tread," "At The Dawning" and "Wedding Prayer".

The couple will live in Pontiac where Mr. Dunavant is employed by the Henry White Landscaping Company.

Hawks Overcome Gold Start

By Harold Webb, Jr. When the Hawks met Hamady last Friday, both teams were "cold" during the first half. Then coach, Harvey Fletcher, started substituting and the Hawks began to fly. At half-time the score was knotted at 22-22 showing that both teams had been dragging their feet a little.

At the second half the Hawks came out and outscored Hamady 26-16.

Coming off the bench, Paul Pangus, took top honors for his twelve rebounds. Roger Willis was another standout, hauling in six rebounds and hitting four points.

High scorer was John Myers with 19 points, ten of which came in the second quarter.

Brandon now has a 6-7 mark which they hope to even at Lake Fenton Friday.

Individual scoring: Brandon: J. Myers, 19; B. Kilbourn, 8; E. Giroux 4; L. Richardson, 4; H. Webb, 4; R. Willis, 4; P. Pangus, 3; J. Cleveland, 2. Total 48.

Hamady: S. Bolton, 13; T. Bertrum, 10; R. McMonagles, 5; T. Burtram, 5; T. Groombridge, 2; D. Habermehl, 2; A. Miller, 1. Total 38.

METHODIST RACE RELATIONS SUNDAY

The spiritually-inspired choir of St. John's Methodist Church, Pontiac, who sang so beautifully here last year, have graciously consented to return on Sunday, February 17th when the Ortonville Methodist Church will dedicate their service to Race Relations. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the service and to hear the choir.

Last year the choir of the Ortonville church exchanged visits with the St. John's choir but because of a conflict in engagements and also because the local choir people want to hear the guests, the groups will not exchange visits.

Services For Mrs. Jay Hunt

Mrs. Jay Hunt, 45, of Groveland Road, Ortonville, died January 6th from injuries resulting from the explosion of cyclopropane gas being administered to her during an operation at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

The Reverend Mr. Roy Botruff of the Ortonville Baptist Church officiated at funeral services held at 2 P.M. on Saturday, January 9th, at the Sherman Funeral Home in Ortonville.

Hear Attorney

Approximately forty-two Oakland County Farm Bureau women crowded into the large home of Mrs. Edgar Thompson of Millford at their regular January meeting.

Local women Mrs. Leona Hutchings, Mrs. William Seramlin, Mrs. Carl Lozier, Mrs. B. C. Brondige and Mrs. Clyde Hartwig, were among those from fourteen county Farm Bureau groups who attended the potluck dinner and meeting.

Attorney Toy from Highland, the speaker, advised the group on the subject of wills, bank accounts and property management. He said that although it is popularly believed that the survivor of a joint bank account is in full control of the funds this isn't always the case and in order to prevent hardship by impounding of funds until a court case is settled, it is well to know the policy of your bank in regard to this vital matter.

Mrs. Violet Porritt gave an outline of the program and activities for the coming year.

Music Boosters Hold Meeting

The regular meeting of the Brandon Music Boosters, attended by thirty members, was conducted by vice-president, James Bradford, in the absence of the president, Harold Schmidt, who was injured by a fall upon the ice.

Band Director, Dan Ritsema, reported that band members are preparing for the solo ensemble to be held February 16th at Beecher High School in Flint and for the District Festival on March 9th.

There is a conflict of dates as March 8th is also the date set for the concert by the Hope College Band. Furthermore, if the basketball team plays in the finals, one of the games will be scheduled on that night. Mr. Ritsema will confer with the Hope College director and final arrangements for the concert will be announced next week.

Have you ever stopped to consider the role teachers have played in your life--how they have figured in the shaping of your ideas, interests, and convictions? Next to parents, no one deals more intimately than teachers with a youngster's talents and deficiencies, failures and achievements during the crucial, formative, early years.

How well our children will do tomorrow, what kind of a living and life they will make for themselves, will depend largely upon how often and how much each citizen pitches in to help improve our schools and to make teaching more effective. Parents who insist on nothing less than the best education for their children and their neighbor's children must be willing to pay for high-quality professional leadership. Equally important, they must donate their efforts--willingly, eager, and often--to help publicize school progress and problems in every community in this nation.

The American teacher is a highly trained professional worker and a member of one of the most important professions. He understands children, is competent in his subject area, and he knows how to teach.
