Annual Scout Cookie Sale Starts February 1st

The Annual Cookie Sale of the North Oakland County Girl Scout Council will be held February 1st through February 10th. Local Girl Scouts and Brownies will be taking orders for cookies during this time. Cookies will be delivered March 7th through 17th.

A new sandwich cookie with a lemon-lime "Girl Scout green" filling has been added to the Scout's cookie line. Other flavors are mint, peanut butter patties, shortbread, and chocolate and vanilla sandwich cremes.

The cookies, which cost 50c a box will be available from Brownies, Junior, Cadette and Senior Scouts and their leaders. Anyone not contacted personally, who wishes to order cookies, may do so by calling Dorothy Nicol, MAple 5-1940 or Joy Norberg, MAple 5-2314.

A goal of 180,000 boxes of cookies has been set by the Northern Oakland Council.

Monies from the cookie sale will benefit the troops and also, the girls as individuals. Five cents per box goes into the troop treasury, while the balance of the profits aids the Girl Scout program in many ways:

1. Maintains and improves Camp Sherwood, the Council's residence camp near Lapeer.
2. Provides funds for camperships (camp scholarships for girls who might not otherwise have a camping experience. Last summer 72 camperships were provided for Girl Scouts at Camp Sherwood.

3. Provides equipment and resources for the indoor as well as the outdoor Girl Scout program.
4. Helps pay expenses for Senior Roundup and other national and international opportunities for Senior Scouts.

Women's Club Story Hour

Do your young children love to hear stories? Of course they do, and the Clarkston Women's Club has a new venture which will benefit the three to five year old. Various mothers will be reading stories to your young children beginning January 30th at 10:15 a.m. in the Independence Township Library.

Mrs. Ralph Kenyon is chairman of the project and she will also be the reader at the first story hour. If you wish more information or would like to help with this venture please call Mrs. Kenyon or Mrs. Gerald Anderson.

Letter to the Editor

To the people of Clarkston,
Most of you know of a family with a child who has a birth defect or of someone who is in a wheel chair or walks with crutches. Many of you have probably thought or said these words, "There but for the grace of God go I or one of my children." If it were not for The March of Dimes and Dr. Salk many of you or your children could today be among these people.

Now the M.O.D. research has turned to Birth Defects and Arthritis in children.

I have been in the clinic and M.O.D ward at the University Hospital as a patient. During this time I met and came to know personally several of these children. Many are in constant pain and they all desperately need our help. So I would like to say again to you the people of Independence Township. Please give!

For your own sake as well as mine and all the other people who have already been helped and the unborn babies and the little children who still need help.

Sincerely,
Connie

Ecumenical Bible Service Sunday

One of the year's outstanding interfaith gatherings will take place next Sunday evening, January 26, at the Orchard Lake Seminary Shrine-Chapel, located on Commerce Road just west of Orchard Lake Road, when the League for Evangelical-Catholic Reunion will sponsor an Ecumenical Bible Service. Beginning at 7:30 p.m., the service will be open to all people of every faith. The occasion is the solemn closing of the great annual week of Prayer for Christian Unity founded by the former Episcopalian Father Paul of Graymoor many years ago.

The entire service is to be in the English language.

Pastors and congregations of all faiths in the Pontiac, Waterford and Birmingham areas, have been notified, and are hereby again invited to attend this sharing of Christian love and brotherhood, by reading and hearing together their principal common heritage, which is the Bible.

Following the service, the College Hall will be open, to enable all to mix informally and become acquainted toward the main theme of the evening, as expressed by the late and beloved John XXIII: "That the visible unity of Christians may be accomplished, such as Christ wills, and by the means that He wills."

PRESS TIME BLUES

The hour's late;
The press is squeaky
The stock is torn;
The fountain's leaky.
The last outlines
Are not yet written.
A man comes in,
To sell a kitten.
You miss a cut;
Can't find a head;
And then you find
A proof not read.
The Lino squirts
And won't drop mats.
Ten pounds of print;
Is chewed by rats.
But stick around,
Soon all is done,
The paper's out —
The battle's won!

Clarkston Steals Victory

From Northville

By Mel Vaara

Clarkston literally stole a victory from Northville by the score of 48-45. With 1:15 remaining in the game, Craven took a shot and missed, Northville rebounded the shot and as the boy turned around, Ken Miskin stole the ball and before the boy could say "help", Miskin scored a bucket for Clarkston. Clarkston now led by one point. As Northville brought the ball up the court, Miskin gained perfect defensive position on the dribbler, causing him to charge into Miskin. Clarkston now had the ball with one minute remaining in the game. Clarkston stalled until 15 seconds remained in the game. Miskin was fouled, he missed the free throw, Northville rebounded and they immediately throw a long pass down the court to French. French had an easy lay-up, but Ron Lippert came from no where and crawled all over French so he couldn't attempt the shot. French (who had just entered the game) had two free throws. He missed them both, Craven rebounded and was fouled with 3 seconds left. Dan sunk both free throws to make the score 48-45.

One would have to say Miskin won the game for Clarkston by his two key plays near the end of the game, but, if it wasn't for Dan Craven's 29 points Clarkston never would have been in the game. Dan still hasn't found his complete fine touch in shooting, when he does, look out opposition.

With Miskin being very ill, Northville had Clarkston on the ropes the whole ball game. With a healthy Miskin, Clarkston is a different team. Under Dr. Buehrig's orders Miskin could only play 11 minutes of the game. (It was just tremendous of Dr. Bob to take special interest in Miskin and the Clarkston basketball team).

With Miskin ailing, Craven carried the whole team with his shooting arm by hitting on 10 out of 28 attempts for 36%. The rest of the team couldn't hit a barn with a big full of beans. Dan Fife made 1 out of 12, Ron Lippert 1 out of 11, Mike Bray 3 out of 10, Gary Pearson 0 out of 7 and Jon Gary 0 out of 3 attempts. Jon played a fine game as a replacement for Mike Bray. As a team Clarkston hit on only 22% of their shots. Basketball men say 33% is average, but when Ohio State hit on 37% of their shots against U. of M., coach Fred Taylor claims it was poor shooting. When a team shoots as poorly as Clarkston did, they were lucky to win the game.

The N. Y. Yankees claim, "If you have desire to win, the breaks come your way." Clarkston stole a chapter from the rich tradition of the yankees by winning a cliff hanger. Next Friday the Wolves play Holly, the chant now reads Go-Go-Go nine and 0.

The Clarkston J. V. team also won their 8th game in a row by the score of 52-45. This is a second time in three years that a Clarkston J. V. team is working on an undefeated record.

The J. V. team played an outstanding 1st half, and led by the score of 29-13. Their fast break was working well, they rebounded with authority and the zone press was working up to capacity. In the 2nd half it was almost a different story, Northville started to score with vengeance. But as has been the case in the past, the opposition gets close to overtaking the Junior Wolves, then the boys start exerting defensive pressure and the lead is a 10 point margin once again.

Tom Allen and Dave Osgood each led the Wolves in scoring with 14 points. Mike Madison scored 9 points. Bob Gray 6, Rod Allen and Jim Shannon each had 4 points. Jim Shannon and Rod Allen led the team in rebounding with 9.

This Friday we journey to Holly to start the second round of play. In the first contest, the Wolves overcame the Broncos, but coach Bob Pence will have his horses off and running for this contest.

Polio Clinic

Maid of honor, Nancy Fulton, the bride's sister, and bridesmaids, Brenda Greer and Nancy Bain wore long-sleeved blue velvet sheaths. They carried white fur muffs with flowers and wore matching white fur coronets with small veils attached.

Acting as best man was Mr. James Caraway of Detroit, ushers were Michael Fulton, brother of the bride, and Lawrence Ehr.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fulton wore a beige knit suit with beige accessories. Mrs. Greer, mother of the groom, wore a pink suit with pink accessories. Both mothers wore zymbidian orchids.

Music for the ceremony was directed by Mrs. R. Cox, pianist, and vocalist Miss Jane Sikkila, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Approximately one hundred fifty guests attended the ceremony and the reception immediately following in the church parlors.

SKATING ON THIN ICE — Scott Altman, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Altman of 24 S. Holcomb, discovered the hard way, the dangers of thin ice. While skating last Saturday near the falls on the mill pond which lead to Parke Lake, Scott fell through the ice. A friend, Stanley Ash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ash, also of Holcomb, pulled Scott out of the water. The boys are pictured as Scott "warms up" in the

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

If some tragedy should wipe out the entire population - every man, woman and child - in a town the size of Utica or Kalkaska or Grand Blanc or Frankfort, public shock and reaction would be unmeasurable. Or if a gang of thieves somehow managed to steal three out of every four cents paid each year in Michigan state sales tax, public officials couldn't move fast enough to see that it didn't happen again.

Yet this is what happened on our highways last year. And early reports from 1964 are even more ominous.

Traffic accidents killed 1,859 individuals on Michigan highways during 1963. That's almost 300 more than were killed in 1962. In addition, 123,000 were injured, and of this group 50,000 received serious injuries which may cripple them for life.

Although not as meaningful as the human statistics, the economic impact of traffic accidents is staggering. The cost of accidents on our highways in 1963 totals $335 million, an increase of $55 million over 1962. If the present trend continues, the cost will be $400 million this year.

What makes it even more tragic is that it isn't necessary. We have the resources and ability to cut this shameful toll.

We have more cars on the highway; they're traveling more miles; we have more drivers. But death and sorrow need not increase apace.

Many local law enforcement agencies and safety organizations have done outstanding jobs in Michigan. Many have won national citations for their work. There is no telling what the death toll might be if our existing efforts on both state and local levels had not been as effective as they have been.

But we can do more. I have placed before legislature a comprehensive and extensive program for traffic safety. One focal point is more state police troopers. We need at least 200 more troopers, with 130 troopers assigned to our freeway system.

Certainly our freeway system is a safer way to cover more miles than non-freeways. But this does not rule out the need for adequate and persistent patrol and enforcement. Without police patrol, drivers develop bad habits on expressways and carry these habits over into non-freeway driving. We need more troopers, for traffic enforcement, for enforcement of other laws, for citizen protection, and to help motorists in need. In my opinion, highway patrol is a distinct highway purpose.

THE HIGH ROAD

L.W. PRENTISS

Winter Driving

The automobile has become so much a part of the life of the typical American family that most of us feel handicapped when the family car is out of commission even for a few hours. When a severe winter storm brings highway travel to a halt, the individual family's frustration is multiplied many thousandfold.

The inconvenience of being snow-bound is bad enough, but the hazards of driving on icy or snow-covered roads are even worse. States, counties and municipalities are meeting the public demand by extending and improving their winter maintenance programs.

The fight against the elements is well worth the cost. In Ohio, for example, researchers calculated that every dollar spent for snow and ice removal in that State—using snow-plows, chemicals and abrasives—returned more than $2 in benefits to highway users in the form of lower operating costs, time savings and the reduction of accidents.

There are also extensive indirect benefits when good winter maintenance makes "business as usual" possible.

Despite all that is being done by States, counties and municipalities to improve the effectiveness of winter maintenance operations, extra caution is still recommended when cold weather strikes, and this is true even in the areas where snowfall is a rarity. Icing conditions can be tricky. For example, water freezes faster on bridge decks because these surfaces are exposed to the air from beneath as well as from above. This means that a bridge may be icy at times when the road at either end is merely wet.

To do your part in avoiding accidents and inconvenience in driving on ice or snow, I suggest that you follow these "ten commandments."

- 1. Remove ice and snow from windshield and windows before you start, and keep them clear. 2. Start easy. Apply power gradually to avoid spinning the wheels and digging in. 3. Stop easy. Let the engine slow you down. Anticipate stops and avoid quick braking that causes skidding. 4. Drive slowly and avoid braking on curves. 5. Keep plenty of distance between you and the car ahead. 6. Keep your gas tank at least half filled. 7. Invest in snow tires and put them on before the first snow. 8. Avoid chance of carbon monoxide poisoning by checking exhaust pipe and muffler for leaks. 9. If you must use alcohol, use it only in the radiator. 10. If your car has dual transmission, drive in D2.

It's Time For... EYE CARE

Dr. Newton K. Wesley VISION AND DRIVING

It is a common thing to accept vision as part of driving—so common, in fact, that very few of us even think of it. Yet, ninety percent of driving decisions are based on our ability to see and to react.

A National Safety Council study of 685,000 traffic accidents reveals that nearly nine in ten occurs at speeds below 40 miles per hour. Actually, most accidents happen under "safe" conditions, in clear, dry weather, on straight roads, and at low traffic volume.

What causes the trouble? Worry, daydreaming, impatience, and the plain fact that drivers just can't see where they're going. Regardless of the reason, it's your business to see everything necessary to drive without injury to you or anyone else.

Unfortunately, millions of drivers don't know their visual shortcomings. The American Optometric Association points out that one out of every five drivers—with or without glasses—has at least one vision deficiency which affects safe driving.

License tests are not designed to eliminate drivers but to enforce the maintenance of the best possible driving skills and aptitudes of each driver.

But the driver can help, too. He can visit his eye doctor at least once every six months. He should remember that he has a legal and moral obligation to employ and maintain the best driving vision possible.

TRICK OF THE WEEK

RELIGHT MATCH TRICK

When the party gets dull, pull out your matchbox and ask someone to light a match. Then state that you'll do the same, except that the match you will light, will be the one that was already lit and blown out. If your superpowers don't seem to impress the gathering, prove your statement. Note the illustration. Light two matches, blow one out and as soon as you have blown it out, place the end that is smoking to the bottom of the lit match in your other hand. The rising smoke will carry sparks of the flame down to the lower match, relighting it. If the stunt fails, it is only because you didn't bring the match that was blown out to the bottom of the lit match fast enough. Try again...you can't miss.

★ Know Your Michigan Law ★

By Attorney General Frank J. Kelley
(This is a public service article explaining in general terms a provision of Michigan law. Individuals who wish to determine the effect of any law upon their private legal affairs should consult a private attorney.)

Frequently an unemployed person, who files a claim for unemployment compensation, is denied unemployment compensation benefits because his employer is not subject to the Michigan Employment Security Act. The question which many ask is:

"Under what circumstances does an employer become subject to the Act?"

An employer is subject to the Act when it has 4 or more individuals in its employ in each of 20 different weeks in a calendar year. It is not necessary that the weeks be consecutive, nor that they work full time.

An uncovered employer becomes subject to the Act if he purchases one or more of the following from a covered employer:

1. The organization.

2. Trade or business.
3. Seventy-five percent or more of the assets of the covered employer.

Finally, an employer not otherwise covered by the Act may become subject to it on its own initiative by filing an application for elective coverage if such application is approved by the Commission.

Many types of services are specifically exempted from coverage under the Michigan Employment Security Act, and therefore an employee cannot acquire rights to unemployment compensation for performing such services.

Some of the common exempted services are those in agricultural labor, domestic service in private homes, college clubs not operating for profit, service performed by one in the employ of his son, daughter, or spouse.

Others are services performed by a child under the age of 21 in the employ of his father or mother; service rendered in purely professional capacity not in the nature of permanent employment; and service performed by real estate salesmen, sales representatives of investment companies and agents or solicitors of insurance companies who are compensated principally or wholly on a commission basis.

Ski Injuries Rise

Skiing is rapidly becoming one of America's most popular winter sports. In northern climes skiing always has drawn its quota of fans. In recent years interest has spread over virtually the entire nation.

There are ski clubs in cities in east Texas. The members annually make a pilgrimage or two to the ski runs of the Rocky Mountains by chartered plane.

With the widespread increase in skiing there has come a consequent increase in ski injuries. Exact figures on skiers injured each day are hard to come by, but studies at individual resorts have shown that about three of each 1,000 skiers on the slopes each day likely will get hurt. On days when skiing conditions are poor the ratio sometimes mounts to as high as 13 injuries for each 1,000 participants.

Medical men who have studied ski injuries report that most accidents involve beginners who attempt ski runs that are too daring for their ability. Loss of control which usually means going too fast to be able to stop in an emergency, is the single leading cause of accidents.

Loss of control stems from poor physical conditioning, lack of experience, faulty technique, fatigue and excessive speed. Most accidents occur at noon and late in the afternoon, at the end of long periods of activity.

The better run ski resorts keep up a constant campaign for prevention of injuries. The instructors and the ski patrol remind participants of the elements of ski safety and urge avoidance of fatigue. Trails must be well marked and slopes closed when conditions become dangerous.

The individual skier can help to prevent injury to himself by being physically fit, having good equipment and learning how to ski under control. Pre-season exercises to strengthen legs, particularly knees and ankles, are important. Good equipment includes release bindings, goggles and safety straps on skis. Most important is to remember that an early sign of fatigue is loss of control. Learn to ski under the guidance of a good instructor.

Individuals are strongly advised to learn about the safety precautions of the resort before taking the lift up for their first run. Information on condition of the slope and danger areas is readily available.

Skiing is an excellent sport and is encouraged as a part of the nation's physical fitness program. Most ski injuries could be avoided.

Sec. 18

This Ordinance shall become effective on the 1st day of July, 1964.

Moved by Altman, supported by Johnson, that the above amendment to Township Ordinance No. 47 be adopted and published as an amendment to said Ordinance No. 47.

Motion carried.

Passed the 14th day of January, 1964 at a regular Township Board meeting.

MINUTES OF TOWNSHIP MEETING

At a regular meeting on the 14th day of January, 1964, the Township Board approved the establishment of a special assessment district for street lights to be installed in the Richmond Knolls Sub., located on Orion Rd. north of Sashabaw Rd.

The street lighting district was established following a petition and public hearing for such purpose.

Two plat proposals were presented to the Board for consideration and an amendment to the Township Sign Ordinance was passed, changing the effective fee date. A special permit was issued to Howe's Lanes for operation of a Public Billiard and Pool Room together with the Bowling Alley.

A copy of a Consent Judgement was presented to the Board by the plaintiffs' Gerald R. LaBonte et al, (Pelton Heights Home Owners Assoc.) involving defendants, the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club and the Oakland County Road Racing Corporation. The issue between the two parties results from the yearly racing program sponsored by the Sportsmen's Club. The Township, while not immediately involved, has been requested to consider such a position.

New Detergents Will Benefit Water Supplies

Do you have froth appear when you draw water? Does your drinking water have a "head" on it? If so, probably the culprit is ABS, alkylbenzene sulfonate, a component of modern detergents. In areas such as this where wells are in close proximity to the septic disposal areas it is inevitable that waste water finds its way, by seepage, into drinking water taken from wells. ABS is only one of many substances which may be present in your water supply.

The disturbing fact of the matter is that any drinking water bearing froth has at some time borne sewage!

While it has never been proved harmful to man, ABS is an annoyance, so much so that chemical companies have spent ten years and millions of dollars to develop new detergents for the housewife which do not contain this substance. Among those detergents which are now free of ABS are:

Lestod, Mr. Clean, Lux, Ivory Liquid, All and Liquid All, All for Dishwashers, Spic and Span, Cascade, Vel-O-Matic, Fels Naptha Cleaner, Thrill, Quick-Soly.

More detergents will be on the market this year and next. There is no doubt that ABS is doomed. Let us then turn our attention to the remaining pollutants of our water supplies and support every effort to conserve and purify our most essential resource.

In Uniform

Charles M. Beck, storekeeper second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Beck of 2840 Maiden Waterford, Mich., reenlisted for six years, December 18, while serving aboard the submarine tender USS Howard W. Gilmore, operating out of Charleston, S. C.

He is assigned duty in the Supply Department.

Before entering the service in July 1954, Beck attended Keego High School at Keego Harbor, Mich.

March of Dimes Plans to Double Birth Defects and Arthritis Centers

Announcing plans to double the present number of March of Dimes birth defects and arthritis centers in the nation, the world's most successful voluntary health organization this week launched its traditional January fund-raising appeal.

Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, which financed development of both polio vaccines, said the goal this year would be $45 million, "a sum our medical and scientific advisers agree we can wisely use to combat the ravages of these crippling diseases. This sum would apply to patient care, research, professional and public education."

The March of Dimes now supports some 77 birth defects and arthritis treatment centers across the country. According to Dr. William S. Clark, director of the medical department of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, the national dimensions of the health problems posed by birth defects and arthritis "have grown to a point where this nation requires at least 100 centers for birth defects and 50 for arthritis."

"Through the generosity of the American people, we will build up our chapter and center programs across the United States to meet their needs. Our offensive against both these crippling afflictions will be redoubled in 1964."

Leading in this offensive will be the members of the 3,000 March of Dimes chapters in the nation plus the volunteers they enlist—an expected army of two million people. The campaign continues throughout January and culminates with the Mothers' March during which some 15 million homes are visited from coast to coast. In addition, a total of 36 million "mailers" are distributed nationally to inform families of the health aims of the March of Dimes and they also serve as a means of returning contributions to local chapters. The Herculean task of addressing these envelopes regionally is unselfishly assumed by volunteers—thousands of teenagers, homemakers, grandmothers. Helping to dramatize the campaign will be the cross-country tour of winsome Mary Lou Graves, 5, of Flint, Mich., who was born with an open spine, since repaired, and who developed excess water on the brain, another birth defect which has now rectified itself. Mary Lou, however, is paralyzed in the legs but moves with surprising alacrity with wheel chair. In addition to victorious Mary Lou as the National March of Dimes Child, many states, counties and municipalities across the country designate their own March of Dimes Child symbolizing the aims of their local campaigns.

In her travels this month, accompanied by her parents, Mary Lou is scheduled to call upon President Lyndon B. Johnson at the White House and has already visited with many Senators, Congressmen, Governors and other high officials. The pretty five-year-old has "interviewed" the heads of such influential national organizations as the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Elks, Rotary, Kiwanis and other service clubs including the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Amvets, Catholic War Veterans, Jewish War Veterans and others.

An estimated total of 250,000 infants are born each year in the United States with serious birth defects. This is equivalent to one in 16 births, or 700 children a day. Of the quarter million total, more than 30,000 die, including stillbirths. As to arthritis, the other major health area in which the March of Dimes leads the attack, fully 11 million Americans are tormented by one or another form of this, the Nation's No. 1 crippling.

New and Easy Money-Saving Main Dish

Acorn squash and sausage are delightfully compatible, and this recipe for sausage-stuffed squash provides a particularly delicious way of bringing the two together. The sausage-squash stuffing is blended with double-rich evaporated milk for creaminess in the baking. It boosts the food value, too.

Sausage-stuffed Squash
4 medium size acorn squash 1 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 pounds sausage meat 6 tablespoons brown sugar
1/2 cup evaporated milk

Wash squash and cut in half crosswise. If squash halves do not sit level, trim stem and blossom ends carefully. Place halves cut side down in a shallow baking pan. Pour in boiling water to depth of about 1/4 inch. Bake in preheated hot oven (400° F.) until tender, about 30 minutes. Remove squash from pan and set aside to cool. Meanwhile, cook sausage in a skillet until lightly browned, breaking meat into small pieces with a fork. Remove from skillet and drain on paper toweling. Four fat from skillet. When squash is cool enough to handle, scoop pulp out of shells into skillet, saving six shells to stuff. Mash squash, then blend in evaporated milk and salt. Stir in the drained sausage. Spoon squash mixture back into the six shells. Sprinkle mixture in each squash half with 1 tablespoon brown sugar. Return to hot oven (400° F.) and bake until sugar is melted, about 15 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

TO THOSE LIVING IN THE COMMUNITIES SERVED BY DETROIT EDISON

As you grow and prosper, so do we. The nature of our business makes us very much a part of the 67 cities, 76 villages, 214 townships and 258 other communities that make up Southeastern Michigan.

It is mutually advantageous for us to encourage farmers to follow good agricultural practices, for example. Electrically driven machinery, so vital in combating the cost-price squeeze, is fast turning farms into food factories and there is much to learn in the process. The successful farmer of the future will be the one who best knows how to evaluate and use these "wired hands."

In behalf of business, we're constantly searching for new and improved ways to put versatile electric energy to work. This helps make our recommendations to our industrial and commercial customers more valuable and meaningful.

To aid in bringing new business enterprises into this area is another goal of ours. We help firms in search of new locations to find the best sites. Of greater long-range importance, we help communities make themselves more attractive to industrial newcomers. One way of doing so is by assisting in the research and work which lead to community planning and to the establishment of industrial development committees.

As you grow and prosper, so do we. We seek always to be staunch and enthusiastic boosters of the area and the people we serve.

Sincerely,

Walker L. Cisler

CREDIT - - What it Costs

Do you compare price tags when you shop for a new refrigerator or a new dress? Then why not compare the cost of consumer credit? Credit is the rent you pay for money. The four major sources of credit are: 1. credit unions, 2. banks,

3. small loan companies, and 4. retail stores. Credit costs vary widely. Before you buy, find out how much you are paying for credit. What is the difference between the cash price and the total price you will pay if you buy "on time"?

An easy way to figure the dollar cost of credit is to multiply the monthly payment figure by the number of months to pay. Add the down payment, if any, and compare this total with the original price of the merchandise.

People often make the mistake of finding out only the down payment and monthly payment figures. They neglect to shop for the best buy in credit.
