Jaycees to hold Auction

Duane West (left) and Donald Bostwick are shown loading a lawn mower in a truck. The mower, as well as hundreds of other items will be sold Saturday during the JC Auction.

The Clarkston Area Junior Chamber of Commerce reported that their spring auction will be held this Saturday, May 16, across from the public parking lot in downtown Clarkston. The sale is scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m. and will continue until everything is sold.

According to Paul Wilmot, co-chairman of the project the jaycees have accumulated a good variety of things to be offered for sale. A professional auctioneer, Jack Hall from Lake Orion will be on hand to do the auctioneering.

The jaycees went door-to-door this last Saturday seeking articles for their project and it is estimated that about two hundred articles were donated.

The monies received from these projects which the jaycees sponsor are used to help support Jaycee projects such as their annual Junior Miss Pageant which seeks Clarkston's most average High School Senior also their Halloween calling and Christmas Gifts given to youngsters who would otherwise not have a Christmas.

Jim Gardiner also co-chairman announced that the articles would be displayed before the auction and also there would be provided a refreshment wagon staffed by the Clarkston Jaycees, for those who require nourishment.

26 File For College Board of Trustee Race

Twenty-six persons are officially in the race for six positions on the board of trustees of a proposed Oakland County community college.

Whether or not the winning six take office will depend on voter approval of two propositions to be submitted at the June 8 annual school election.

The first proposition, to establish a community college district, carried in a similar election last year. A second proposition, a one-mill tax for support of the college, lost in last year's election. State law requires that both propositions be approved before trustee candidates may take office.

The proposed community college would be a two-year institution that would offer both academic and vocational-technical courses to Oakland County residents at minimum cost. Financial support for the college would come from the one-mill tax, state subsidy and student tuition. There are 19 similar institutions in the state.

The list of candidates includes Earl M. Anderson of Madison Heights, Donald H. Arsen of Waterford, Daniel T. Berry of Clarkston, Harold Julian of Berkley, Clifford H. Smart of Walled Lake, Charles F. J. Spahn of Clawson, Robert E. Wurtz of Ferndale, Marshall Keltz of Oak Park, Jay Eldred and David Hackett of Rochester.

Four candidates from Birmingham are Frederick A. Chapman, Vernon M. Fitch, Ralph A. Main and George Mosher. Another four are from Bloomfield Hills, Wheeler Lovell, Mrs. Grace F. Mezey, Paul L. Connolly and J. T. Martin. From Pontiac are Mrs. Leona Simmons, Dr. Roy V. Cooley, Rollie L. Jones and Howard A. Sites.

Also in the race are William J. Ruppel, Pleasant Ridge; Mrs. Lila R. Johnson, Huntington Woods; Beecher C. Eaves of Royal Oak and Mark Reibine of Southfield.

Dr. Bettelheim to be Speaker

The Oakland County chapter of the Michigan Society for Mental Health will hold its annual membership luncheon May 19 at Devon Gables. This meeting is open to the public.

Dr. Bruno Bettelheim of the University of Chicago will speak on the subject, "The New Approach to Mental Illness at the Community Level."

Dr. Bettelheim is principal of the Orthogenic School of the University Treatment Center and a professor in the departments of education, psychology and psychiatry.

Widely known as a child psychologist and author, he has written a book, "Dialogues with Mothers", based on his years of helping parents with child problems.

Luncheon reservations for the noon affair may be made with the Detroit office of the Mental Health Society, 1528 Woodward.

Showers Fete Carene Denne

Showers have been given for Carene Denne, who will be married in June.

The Detroit Boat Club was the scene of the first shower given for Carene. Mrs. Milton Osgood of Detroit and Mrs. Wolter of Birmingham were hostesses to the luncheon.

This Friday evening Mrs. William Miller of Elizabeth Lake, Waterford, will honor Miss Denne with a shower.

Carene is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Denne of Ellis Rd. and the bride groom to be is Samuel Richard Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel David Miller of Bridge Lake Road.

Among those receiving trophies at Howe's Lanes last Friday evening were (from left) Virginia Violette, Jim Devine, Tom Devine, Noreene Skerratt, Caroline Moore and Lorrie Dulzo.

Trophies Awarded

A buffet luncheon was held Friday, May 8 at Howe's Lanes before the presentation of the house and tournament trophies.

The house trophies, given by Les and Barb Howe, went to the top men and women bowlers of the year for high game and high series.

Winners were Bud Janis for his 300 game; Joe Roerink, 289; Tony Zografos and Al Swaney with 716 each; Jackie Haxer for her 266 game; and Lorrie Dulzo a 683 series.

The second annual Howe's Singles Tournament was held April 25 and 26. Grand champions this year were Noreene Skerratt, Ted Moore and Steve Oliseck. Trophies were awarded in three divisions for the men: A div., Ted Moore; B div., James Devine; C div., Tom Devine; women — A div., Noreene Skerratt; B div., Ginny Diolette.

Tom Sines won the Elma sewing machine by increasing his average 20 pins since December 31.

Andersonville Family Experiences Tornado

The Alvin Day family of Andersonville waited for the weather to clear Friday night before starting for Onaway, where Mrs. Days sister, Eleanor McMillan lives. It was just after the tornado hit at Anchor Bay that they left, arriving at Onaway around 8:30.

It was nearly 11:00 when they were watching TV, hoping to hear or see news of what had happened at Anchor Bay, that without warning the farm was hit by a crazy tornado. The house was spared, but things were damaged on all four sides of it. Barns, tool shed, a tractor, shed and garage (both were pushed off). The garage door left without leaving a mark on the Days car which (the car was also lifted and moved about 1 foot) was parked within 4 feet of the front of the garage also three big tree limbs missed it and landed on the house and between the car and the house.

The cow barn lost one wall 1/4 of its roof, the main barn was also damaged. A tool shed was completely lost. Three 40 foot stately pines were uprooted from the front yard, one within 3 foot of the house. The porch lost two posts. A cabin was moved from its foundation and one side taken out.

The tornado was like a family of playful tigers all going in a different direction at the same time.

Many places were hit in the Onaway Area, at the little town of Hawk quite a lot of damage was done, also Ocyuece and Belnoph.

There are many paths through the forest where a tornado has downed stately pines and twisted them together with brick and elms.

It went over so silent and quickly that many people slept through it. At one place it picked up a house where a man was sleeping and was put down on a different corner of his farm without him knowing it.

A large barn was taken just 10 years and 1 day from where it was taken before.

The Days and McMillans certainly have God to thank for letting them live through it.

Mrs. McMillan lost her husband 3 years ago and lives with her youngest son Charles.

State Police Plan Open House

For the eighth year in succession, the Michigan State Police will hold their annual open house at each post Tuesday, May 19, Hospitality Day of Michigan Week, it is announced by Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

Visiting hours at the Pontiac post will be from 12 noon to 9:00 p.m., according to Sgt. John Amthor, commanding officer.

All are invited, Sergeant Amthor said. Visitors will be escorted on tours of the post and see an exhibit of equipment and facilities. Questions will be answered and information given on the services provided.

"Although visitors are always welcome at a State Police post, open house offers an unusual opportunity to find out how a post operates," Sergeant Amthor said. "We are planning a special reception and hope to make this a very interesting occasion for those who call on us. We'll be glad to see them."

The Pontiac post is located at 1295 N. Telegraph and is easily identified.

The success of open house has been increasing each year and many look forward to the program, Sgt. Amthor said.

Michigan Week is being observed from May 17 through May 23 and in addition to open house, the State flag as well as the American flag will be flown all week at each post.

Clarkston's track team participated in the Oxford invitational meet last week-end and represented their school well. Oxford won the meet with 58 points. Bad Ax had 42 points, Romeo 45 points, Clarkston 29 points, Lake Orion 19 points, and West Bloomfield was last with 12.

Bob Gray broke his own record in the high jump with a 5' 11" effort. Bob is one of the top high jumpers in Oakland County. Bob has only been defeated by Earl Hook of Waterford Kettering. Bob has won ten high jump events. Everett Fredericks was 2nd in the pole vault with a vault of 11'. Fredericks is becoming one of Clarkston's finest vaulters. Mike Turek ran a 4:34 mile, way off his top mark of the year. But the weather conditions were not conducive to running a true mile race. It was raining and the wind had gusts of 30-35 m.p.h. Mark Seath continued to impress me with his fine hurdling. Mark sets a new record every time he runs the hurdles. Mark is the finest hurdler in Clarkston's history. Seath set a new Oxford and Clarkston record with a time of 21.3 in the lows. Rick Blimka placed 4th in the 440. Bob Swayne placed 5th in the 880. Clarkston's other fine hurdler, Mike Madison continued to have tough luck by falling over a hurdle and had to be scratched from further competition. If Clarkston could find a top dashman and a shot putter to go along with Turek, Gray, Seath, Fredericks and Blimka, they would be contenders in the W.O. County meet.

Clarkston was defeated by Grand Blanc in a track meet by the score of 73 to 36. Gray, Seath, and Turek took their customary 1st places and Swayne, Blimka, and Fredericks took seconds. But Clarkston was shut out in the dashes and in the shot put. The two same events that have given coaches McGrath and Jones fits all year.

The baseball team continued in hot pursuit of Milford by defeating Holly and West Bloomfield by the same score of 3-1.

In the West Bloomfield game, John Williams pitched a 4 hitter. John had good control and also struck out 12 batters. Again Rod Allen knocked in one of the key runs in the game.

In the Holly game it was Pete Thompson's turn to pull out the outta board. Clarkston scored three runs in the 7th inning to win a big game. You see "Detroit Tigers" a team can win games in the last inning.

Dan Larkin pinched hit for Jon Gary and singled to left field. Johnny Williams sacrificed him to 2nd base. John Wooley tripled up the alley and the score read 1-1. Dan Craven struck out, but Dan Fife walked. Gary Pearson won his own game by banging out a single. Gary Pearson pitched a very strong game, by pitching a 3 hitter and striking out 4 Holly batters. Clarkston still has a chance for the title, with more timely hitting and continued strong pitching, they could accomplish the feat.

Mortality is a dream from which we need to be awakened. This is the theme of the Bible Lesson to be heard at Christian Science churches on Sunday. The subject will be "Mortals and Immortals," and the Golden Text is from Ephesians (5:14): "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this: "Mortal existence is a dream; mortal existence has no real entity, but saith 'It is I.' Spirit is the Ego which never dreams, but understands all things; which never errs, and is ever conscious; which never believes, but knows; which is never born and never dies" (p. 250).

Role Of The Community College

The community college is a new phenomenon in our time.

It is an institution that provides a two-year program at post-high school level. It is locally controlled. It is financed by a combination of local funds, student tuition, and state aid. It offers a program designed to meet the educational needs of the area it serves.

The growth of these institutions in Michigan from a total enrollment of 49 students in 1941 to 39,286 in 1963-64 indicates that the community colleges have been able to serve their populations economically and well.

On June 8, Oakland County residents will vote on three propositions that will enable them to provide a community college for their youth and themselves. The first proposition will be the question of establishing a community college district; the second will be for a one-mill tax for support of a college; the third will be the election of six trustees to carry out the wishes of the voters in the establishment and operation of such a school.

Need for more college classrooms becomes apparent in a quick look at the increasing number of people in the college age group. In 1959 14 percent of the Michigan population was in this age bracket. By 1970, thirty percent will be of college age.

The Citizens Committee on Higher Education in a report issued November 15, 1963, predicted an increase of 10,000 students per year, until 1970 in degree-granting programs of the state universities. This is the equivalent of a new college every year.

"A problem of this magnitude in higher education is entirely without precedent in our past experience," the Committee report states.

Since the people of this county comprise one-tenth of the population of the state, it is apparent that at least one tenth of the problem be faced by the people of Oakland County.

A look at the number of seniors in high schools of the County localizes the state-wide picture. In 1962 there were 6,980 seniors; in 1964 there are 9,383; eleventh grade enrollment now stands at 12,944, tenth grade at 13,109 and ninth grade at 14,421. These figures do not include students in non-public schools.

An ever increasing percentage of college age people are seeking and must seek education beyond high school. In addition, the adult population — to increase on the job skills to develop professional competency or to retrain for new work — is returning to the classroom as never before in the history of the country.

There are also other forces at work which tend to strengthen the demand placed upon the nation's colleges.

The technological advances in business and industry which demand more highly-trained employees.

The rapidly diminishing number of unskilled and semi-skilled jobs available to those with minimal formal education, particularly to youth between the ages of 16 and 21.

The more effective identification of youth with college-level mental ability, regardless of their financial circumstances.

Five studies of higher education in this area concluded that a community college, with strong emphasis on technical-vocational training, is an urgent need.

Six years ago studies were made by Dr. John Dale Russell at the request of the Michigan Legislature, and by the American Association of University Women. A six-county survey of community college needs was conducted by Wayne State University, Michigan State University and the University of Michigan at the request of the Department of Public Instruction in 1960. Two years later the Oakland County Citizens Advisory Committee released the findings of a six-months study.

All studies based their findings on the increasing population of Oakland County, projections of the number of college age persons in the years ahead, the growing demand by business and industry for employees with more than high school education, the increasing percentage of young people who attempt to enter college and the capacity of existing facilities for post-high school education.

The Michigan Citizens Committee on Higher Education stated that "the community colleges seem destined to play an increasingly important role in the educational system of the future." Indeed, the anticipated enrollment of the public community colleges is approximately 71,000 in the fall of 1969.

The community colleges "academic role in providing the first two years of college work for degree-credit college students is already spectacular," said the Citizens Committee, "and that role is enlarging rapidly. ... In addition to the provision of the first two years of college work for the thousands of college-bound youth whom they will serve, the community colleges perform other functions. Increasingly we are coming to recognize that the vast group of high school graduates who do not go on to college are tragically ill-prepared to enter the world of work. The beginning unskilled jobs they once filled are rapidly disappearing. ... And there are many adults whose work skills have become outmoded, and many who have little skills of any sort. The community colleges are ideally situated to take on most of these kinds of education and training."

The institution proposed by the Community College Citizens Committee, and strongly urged in six different survey reports, could do the following things for Oakland County residents:

(1) Provide accessible classrooms and accredited courses for the first two years of a four year degree program.

(2) Give young people and adults a chance to improve their earning power and consequently increase the prosperity of the com-

Governor Romney Reports

Michigan faces the possibility of election chaos this year, even though there is no valid reason for it.

Unless the Legislature agrees on congressional and legislative districting plans, voters may face the unhappy prospect of elections-at-large.

If this is allowed to happen, the blame will fall squarely on those who would rather see chaos than orderly elections.

Congressional and legislative districting plans already developed clearly indicate that remaining differences are slight.

There is no reason why these differences cannot be overcome in the short time that remains before it is too late.

Members of both parties have worked hard to develop reasonable solutions to what is admittedly a complex issue.

Community by offering vocational and technical training.

(3) Offer training tailored to the specific needs of this community.

(4) Reduce the cost of higher education to the student by offering, as do other community colleges a tuition rate of $200 with the possibility of living at home during two years of post-high school education.

(5) Reduce the loss of Oakland County's promising young people by offering educational opportunities near their homes.

(6) Bring into Oakland County $24 per student state aid now being paid for community college students.

The problems are intensified by the entirely understandable determination of congressmen and legislators to preserve their own districts in a way that will permit their re-election.

I have worked hard to help develop plans which would be fair to members of both parties while meeting the expressed and implied requirements of both the State and United States Constitutions.

The remaining stalemate is only one of the problems which must be resolved to assure that the fall election is held in the most efficient and orderly way.

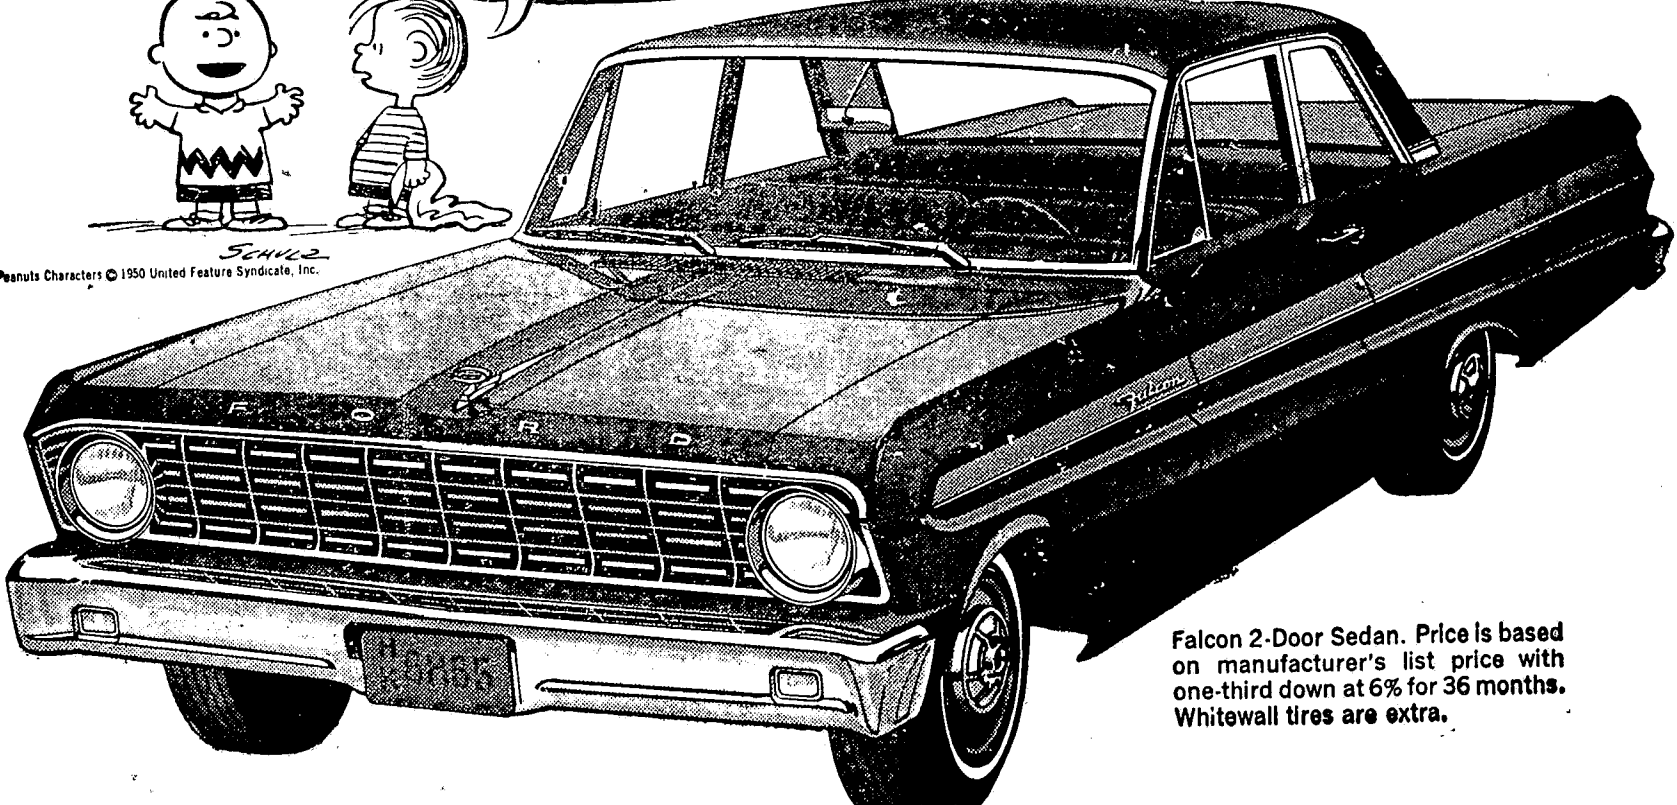

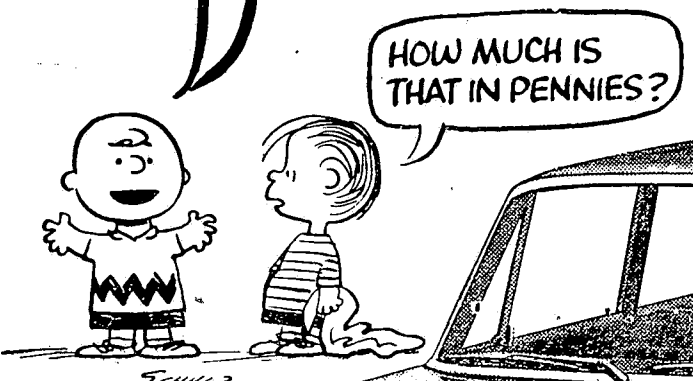

Other matters under consideration include postponement of primary dates and additional election bills that still require action.

The Massachusetts ballot also has been under consideration. Experience in other states shows that it is a superior election procedure. It does not prohibit an individual from voting a straight party ticket but it does require voters to select between the candidates individually rather than to vote a straight party ticket blindly.

These and other election matters are of the utmost importance if Michigan is to be sure to have an orderly election this year.

In Michigan... after a swim, beer is a natural

On a hot summer day, a dip in a cool stream can be wonderfully refreshing. Equally refreshing when you're relaxing afterwards with friends is a hearty glass of beer. There's hardly another beverage around that suits what you do for fun as much as beer. Camping, hiking, or just lounging on a lawn chair—beer brings to each just the right touch of extra good living.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Michigan... beer goes with fun, with relaxation

Now if you're saying to yourself "That's a swell looking car, but I couldn't afford it," we'd like a quiet word with you.

That car is a Pontiac Catalina, lowest priced of the big Pontiacs. Catalina has everything that makes a Pontiac a Pontiac — the superlative style, the extra-careful construction, the big-muscled Trophy V-8 performance, the road-wedded Wide-Track ride. Everything. And, the price is very, very right. It must be. After all, you don't get into third place in sales just by selling cars to rich people. Now, how about having a quiet word with your Pontiac dealer. Wide-Track Pontiac
