At its December 1st, 1964 meeting, the Independence Township Board retained Development Planning Company of Pontiac as its planning consultants. The Township Board's action culminated the interviewing and consideration of several planning consultant firms by the Planning Commission and Township Board.

Development Planning Company has been retained to conduct a two year Township planning program which will produce an overall plan of the Township and the Village of Clarkston, a complete review and updating of the Township Zoning Ordinance, preparation of Subdivision Regulations, and various basic studies that will guide planning for future growth. One such initial study will be preparation of an existing land use map, showing existing use of all properties in the Township. A field survey of all areas of the Township will be conducted as a basis for preparing this map. After the map is prepared, the planning consultants will measure and statistically analyze the existing land use. Projections will be made on future population growth, provision of water, sewer, school facilities, recreation, and other basic factors in the Township's future growth.

The planning program will be conducted as an areawide program representing the Village of Clarkston as well as Independence Township. Mr. Jacob Driker, President of Development Planning Company, and Mr. Robert C. Dieball, Senior Planner, will furnish the professional services to the Planning Commission. Mr. Driker has been a planning consultant for 10 years in the Detroit Metropolitan Area. His firm is presently doing planning work for Livonia, Ludington, Utica, Farmington, Mount Morris Township, Village of Armada, and other municipal clients. Earlier in his career, Mr. Driker worked on the city planning and urban renewal of Pontiac, Jackson, and Mount Clemens.

Mr. Driker received his Masters Degree in City Planning from Harvard University in 1952.

Mr. Dieball, who recently joined the staff of Development Planning Company was for three years the Township Planning Director of Waterford Township, and supervised the preparation of Waterford Township's Master Plan. His previous experience includes participation in the Downtown redevelopment planning for Pontiac, campus planning for the expansion of Wayne State University, and planner for the Camden Planning Department in New Jersey. Mr. Dieball holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Landscape Architecture from Louisiana State University, and is an Associate Member of the American Institute of Planners and the American Society of Landscape Architects.

When asked about his assessment of Independence Township's future development, Mr. Driker said, "Independence Township has unique and outstanding potential because of its yet unspoiled physical features of varied topography, lakes, and wooded areas, its accessibility from the I-75 freeway, and its strategic location between Pontiac and Flint. With the completion of the Chrysler Freeway to Downtown Detroit, this area will undoubtedly witness an acceleration of growth. The question is whether or not this growth will take place in a way that will preserve and enhance the physical amenities and character of the area. The Village of Clarkston has a unique charm and historic character which can and should be preserved. While it is never too early for a community to plan for its future, Independence Township should be commended for their foresight in taking these steps now, before being overwhelmed with subdivision and building activity."

The planning program is scheduled to be completed within 2 years. Individual reports on various aspects of the program will be furnished to the Township Planning Commission for their review. The planning consultants will meet with the Township Planning Commission monthly, and in addition to reviewing plans for future development, will assist in processing current zoning and subdivision matters.

Emphasis will be given to a public information program that will keep residents, service clubs, businessmen, public officials, and

Local Quintet Enters City Loop

Ben Powell Trucking has entered in the Pontiac Parks and Recreation City League. The team includes such former Clarkston basketball stars as Ken Miskin, Bill Powell, Dick Lippert, Harold Weston and many others. Also on the squad is former Junior Varsity Basketball Coach, Mal Vaara. With these players as a nucleus, Powell Trucking expects to field a strong squad.

It has been 3 years since Clarkston has entered the city basketball league in Pontiac. The members of the team hope to receive support from the local fans.

Results of the games will appear in the Clarkston News, weekly. Any questions as to scheduling, time and location of games may be answered by calling 635-6621 or 625-6581. Jerry Powell, coach.

Clarkston Area Jaycees to be Busy During Holidays

As this Christmas season approaches local Jaycees are busy preparing for several projects which will be of interest to local residents.

Lew Wint, local president announced today that Jaycees would again attempt to see that every child in Independence Township received toys for Christmas. As was done last year a box will be placed in the Clarkston State Bank for local residents to place toys in that may be used by Jaycees. All presents will be wrapped by members and their wives and delivered Christmas Eve. Any residents knowing of deserving children may call 625-5231 to submit their names. Last year several groups at their Christmas parties instead of exchanging gifts gave toys that could be used by the Jaycees for this fine project. Also this year the Jaycees are bringing back to Clarkston an old fashioned Christmas party for all the kids of the Clarkston area. The party will be December 19th at the Clarkston Junior High school at 4 p.m. Santa Claus will be present with a gift for every child and also there will be a surprise visit for a well known TV personality whose name will be announced next week. Clarkston's new Junior Miss, Sandra Smalley will also be present to assist Santa Claus.

Jaycees also will bring back to Clarkston on January 13th an exciting Donkey Basketball Game. Residents will have an opportunity to see some of the finest basketball players in the area test their skills playing on the backs of a donkey. This night should prove to be one of many laughs and filled with excitement.

Local Jaycees will truly be busy for the next few weeks.

Second Annual Judging Planned

The Clarkston Jaycees are sponsoring the second annual Outdoor Christmas Decoration Contest. It is hoped the contest will encourage more residents to decorate their homes, thus making Clarkston a special attraction at Christmas time. All decorations will be judged for attractiveness and originality.

Any family in Independence Twp. may enter this year's contest. Decorations will be judged on the evening of December 19. To assure that no home is overlooked, the contestant is asked to write his name and address on a post card and mail to Box 203, Clarkston, Mich., before December 18. A gift certificate of $25.00 will be awarded to the winner. Second and third place awards of $15 and $10 will also be made. These certificates will be redeemable for merchandise at any of the Clarkston area merchants. The traveling trophy, now in the possession of last year's winner, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dark of Robertson Court, will also be presented to the 1964 Christmas Decoration Winner.

First Methodist Church Presenting Christmas Opera

Daniel Addis, Leroy Sargent and Jackson Byers will sing the roles of the Three Kings. The Chancel and Wesleyan

Choirs will sing the parts of the shepherds and villagers. The Page, Joseph Jennings; dancers, Linda and Becky Byers and Robin Ridley. Choreography by Carol Wolf.

On December 20th, "Amahl" will be presented at the Methodist Home in Chelsea, Michigan, with Barbara Wilson and Sophia Gemoias in the title roles.

The two-piano score will be played by Kathleen Aldrich and Louise Sargent; organist, Barbara Clark. The program is under the direction of Adele Thomas.

Jr. Hi. Students Decorate Windows

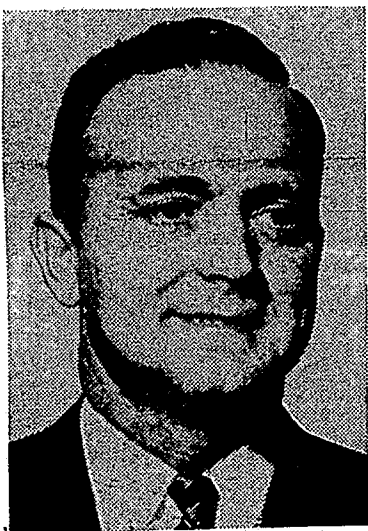

The Clarkston Jr. High Art Class has once again done a beautiful job on decorating the windows at Howe's Lanes. Everything from Nativity Scenes to Santa Claus have been painted on the windows of the snack bar and entrance doors of the building.

The Howe's invite area residents to stop in and look over the work of these talented students.

W.S.C.S. Plans Special Program

"The Birthday of a King", the story of the Nativity in tableaux with scriptures and music, will be presented at the First Methodist Church, 6600 Waldon Road, Clarkston, on Wednesday evening, December 16th at 7:30 P.M. The program is being presented to the general public by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the church. Guest soloist will be John Dietz, Baritone, Head of Vocal Music at Mercy College, Detroit. From the local church, Soprano Soloist, Connie Grabaugh, and the Epworth Choir under the direction of Joy Norberg will also sing. Pat Breidenbaugh is staging the tableaux.

Following the program, the Church Commission on Membership is providing a Fellowship Coffee Hour in the north wing of the church.

All in the community are invited to enjoy this inspiring Christmas Program.

Santa to Visit Dixie Saddle Club

The Dixie Saddle Club will hold their annual Christmas party, December 12, at 7 o'clock. There will be a pot-luck turkey dinner.

Santa will be coming from his ranch in Texas.

This year the club will honor the Glen Ellis family and Mrs. Glen Ellis will be the main speaker along with Chuck Grant.

Entertainment will be furnished by Walt Taylor who will perform his magic tricks for you. All horseshoers who have been members of the club or would like to join are invited to come. Your ticket is a dish to pass and a gift to exchange.

Socks Donated by Child Study Club

The Child Study Club held its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. James Cowen on Overlook Drive with Mrs. Sam Radoye as co-hostess. A gift exchange was held with gifts the women had made themselves.

The club donated anklets to be put in the shoes at the Rotary Club hands out at Christmas. Mrs. Davis Vincent and Mrs. Martin Stelner volunteered to make sure not a single pair of shoes were missed. Refreshments were served later.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Edson on Hummingbird.

Teacher's Sorority Sees Jewelry

On December 4th the members of the Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa, International Honor Sorority for Teachers, met at the home of Mrs. Lester Mack on Beverly Island Drive in Pontiac.

The president, Mrs. Cornelius Crowley, presented Miss Vonnie Hackett, fashion show stylist for Kimberlee Jewels, Inc. Miss Hackett showed a beautiful display of costume jewelry.

Afterward, Mrs. Crowley conducted the regular sorority business meeting followed by the annual Christmas party.

Each member brought a gift for a child in the Oakland County Children's Home. Each package was beautifully Christmas wrapped.

The hostess, Mrs. Mack, assisted by Mrs. Owen Wright, served delicious refreshments to the members. Lovely decorations set a holiday mood for the occasion.

Post Office Sets Holiday Hours

The Clarkston Post Office has announced that they will have regular hours on the 12th and 19th of December. They would also like to remind everyone to keep their walks cleared. The mailman has a heavy load this time of the year and he finds it difficult to push his cart through the deep snow.

OU Chorus to Present Messiah

The 140 voice Oakland University chorus, the nation's only traveling university chorus specializing in singing with symphony orchestras, will join with the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra for an on-campus performance of the Christmas portion of Handel's Messiah at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, December 13, in the Intramural Building.

This will be the Chorus' second year of performance with the Pontiac Symphony, other appearances have been with the Detroit, Minneapolis, Saginaw, and South Oakland symphony orchestras, and a performance scheduled for next spring will be with the Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra.

Conducted by George V. Cripps and Felix Resnick, the Christmas portion of the famous oratorio will be performed in its entirety including the choruses, "And the Glory of the Lord Shall Be Revealed" and "For Unto Us A Child is Born" as well as the famous arias, "Comfort Ye My People," "Thus Saith the Lord of Hosts," "Rejoice Greatly," and "He Shall Feed His Flock." Cripps is Associate Professor of Music and Director of the Oakland Chorus and Resnick is conductor of the Pontiac Symphony.

The concert is under the joint sponsorship of the Oakland University Community Arts Council and series. Tickets will be available at the door.

For further information contact Mrs. Milton Cooney, MApple 5-9841.

"Bobbins" from Bob

When an organization spends over $700 to make their village one of the best decorated in Michigan for the Christmas season, it should not go unmentioned. The Clarkston Rotary Club has shown very good taste in their selection and installation of the ornaments in downtown Clarkston. They also deserve a pat on the back for the 62 pairs of shoes distributed to needy children in the area through the sales of their Goodfellow papers last weekend.

The Clarkston Child Study Club was kind enough to put a pair of socks in each pair of shoes bought by the Rotarians.

Clarkston's Jaycees are again preparing for the judging of outdoor Christmas decorations in Independence Township. We hope that this year more consideration will be given to the amount of imagination used and not just the number of lights used. There is more to decorating for Christmas than stringing lights.

It would be impossible for me to end this column without mentioning the beautiful morning residents north of the village on M-15 were confronted with yesterday (Wed.). A fog Tuesday night which blanketed the area from Dixie Highway at Waterford Hill to Waldon Road at M-15, left moisture on the trees, houses, fences, etc., which by morning, had turned to a spectacle one is seldom fortunate enough to see. Every branch of every tree was coated with frost, sparkling in the morning sun.

Remember it's fun to live and shop in Clarkston. If you're tired of the crowded, impersonal, unfriendly conditions of shopping in the cities, why not shop in Clarkston where friendliness with the personal touch make shopping at Christmas and year 'round a pleasure. Few people realize that our local bank still has nickle checks. This is rare indeed, and only one of the savings awaiting you in Clarkston!

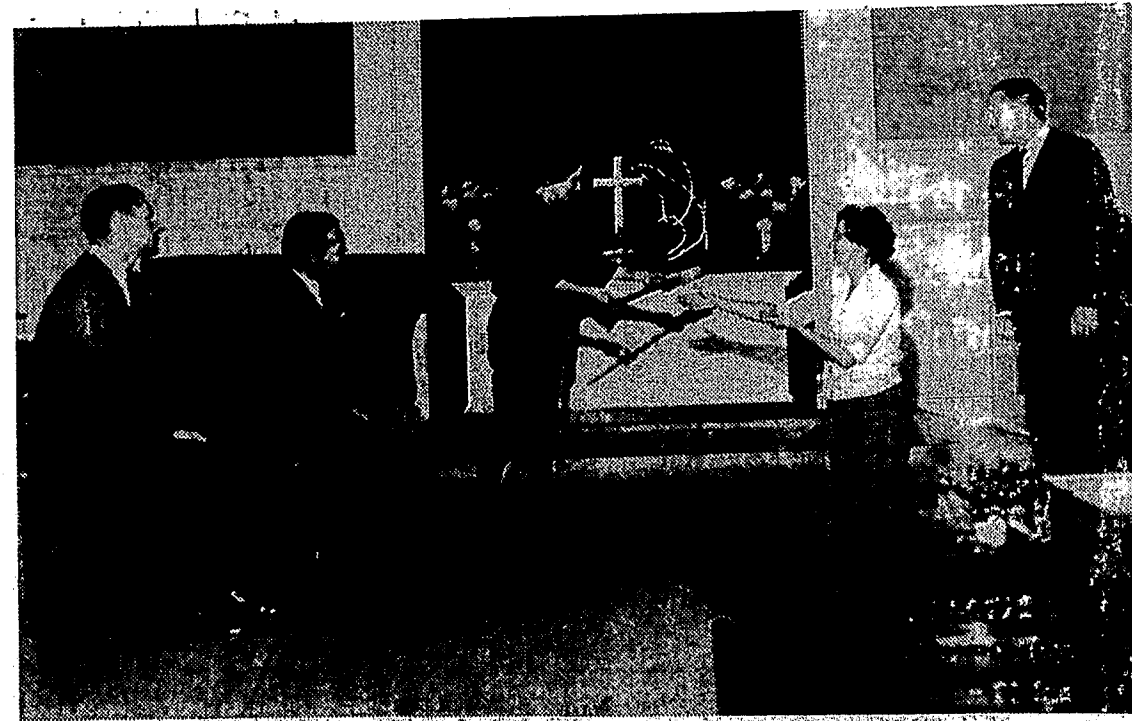

Senior Girl Scouts Plan Ahead

Senior Girl Scout Troop 48 held its monthly meeting at the Clarkston Community Center Annex. Some of the topics discussed were working at the Pine Knob Rest Home and the John F. Kennedy Memorial Project.

The troop is now planning for the summer of 1965, a trip to Washington D.C. Various money-making ideas will be carried out in the future.

Girls from Lake Orion, Clarkston, Davisburg and Holly belong to the troop. On December 22, the girls will go Christmas Caroling in Lake Orion.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Churchill, Lincoln and others have called attention to a dangerous deficiency in our free societies. I refer to the inability to secure fundamental reform without a crisis. The reluctance of public officials and candidates to discuss controversial issues for fear of losing votes denies the public the knowledge required to support action before events themselves produce such knowledge and support.

One question of our times that cries for an answer is: How do we get the modernization of state and local government without a crisis?

In a crisis, basic changes and improvements can be made more easily than if things are going along smoothly. But if there is no crisis, most citizens and most officials prefer not to rock the boat. Just as you cannot make an omelet without breaking eggs, you also cannot make fundamental improvements in government without rocking a few boats.

But for government to be forced into a crisis situation before improvements can be made is not only inefficient but also dangerous. We are all familiar with cases where the crisis arose, but the governmental structure could not respond fast enough to meet the crisis.

We must find an answer to this question. We must discover how to make improvements without being forced into a corner by crisis conditions.

This is a goal to which we must all put our shoulders. It is a task for citizens as individuals, for voluntary groups and, importantly, for political parties. It is a process that must begin with education, greater citizen responsibility and spelling out of alternatives to secure action without a crisis.

When citizens are aroused, and informed, and know what to do, they can accomplish anything on earth. A crisis, unfortunately, usually must arise before such motivation and determination are created.

We must develop the means and methods to get people informed about short-comings and involved in their solutions before these short-comings lead to crisis and disaster.

The political parties can play a vital and determining role in this new process. Today neither party on a broad scale fills this role.

I have no doubt that Michigan would still have its old, horse-and-buggy constitution if it were not for our political and financial crisis that resulted in payless paydays back in 1959.

The crisis of 1959 woke up people to the fact that there were some fundamental shortcomings in the way of their state government was doing business and that the tools that the Constitution provided its public officials were simply not honed for the job that they were expected to do. The most important of these deficiencies were in hamstringing state and local government, and in bad legislative apportionment.

The air of crisis, in my opinion, was directly responsible for the success of our efforts at constitutional reform in Michigan.

Our times are marked by an ever-growing concentration of power in big government. And it seems that the federal government never waits to rush in where state government fears to tread. If state and

Know Your Michigan Law

By Attorney General Frank J. Kelly
(This is a public service article explaining in general terms a provision of Michigan law. Individuals who wish to determine the effect of any law upon their private legal affairs should consult a private attorney.)

With all the attention being to wage negotiations in Michigan industries, little attention has been paid to Michigan's new minimum wage law which sets a minimum of $1 per hour and goes into effect on January 1, 1965. There are several items in this new law which are important:

1. All employees in the State, who are not subject to the provisions of the federal minimum wage law and who employ 4 or more persons between the ages of 18 and 65 at any one time are covered.
2. Any employee between the ages of 18 and 65 who works for an employer for more than 13 weeks in any 4 consecutive 3-month periods is entitled to be paid the minimum wage.
3. Seasonal as well as permanent employment is included.
4. Room and board provided to the employee by an employer may local governments continue to abdicate their responsibilities, they have only themselves to blame when and if the federal government assumes authority over what should be state and local responsibilities.

Through its provisions for effective state and local government, Michigan's new Constitution is an important example of what can be done to halt the dangerous trend to centralism. It is an example of aroused and informed citizenship.

be determined by the Wage Deviation Board to be a part of the minimum wage paid to such employee.

The new law applies to all types of employment, including service establishments such as hotels, motels, nursing homes, dry cleaners, laundries, retail stores, gas stations, etc. Farm employment is also included. The Michigan Department of Labor is charged with the administration of the act. Any inquiries concerning its application should be directed to that department at Lansing, Michigan.

However, it is important to remember that the Michigan minimum wage law does not apply to employers who are subject to the minimum wage provisions of the federal wage and hour law. The federal law is generally limited to those employers who are engaged in interstate commerce, or are producing goods for interstate commerce. It also covers certain other limited specific categories. If anyone has any question as to whether he is covered by law, he should contact the Wage and Hour Division of the Federal Department of Labor in Detroit or Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Time for Decision

REMARKS OF J. EDGAR HOOVER DIRECTOR, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION "SWORD OF LOYOLA" AWARD DINNER CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, NOVEMBER 24, 1964

I am deeply touched to be selected as the first recipient of the "Sword of Loyola." It is very difficult to express happiness in words, but I assure you I will always cherish the great honor you have paid me tonight. I am humbled by the meaning of this distinguished Award.

Saint Ignatius Loyola belongs to that glorious band of men who make the history others write. And he is an enduring symbol of fierce determination and the dauntlessness of soul which swing the human race a little nearer to the ultimate fulfillment of that divine purpose toward which the whole of creation moves.

It is most fitting that you should establish this Award in the name of a man who turned aside his narrow self-interest to dedicate his life and his sword to God! By your action you remind the world that Saint Ignatius proved there is sufficient divine power in the soul of each of us to move the universe—if we will use it.

I am convinced there is a compelling necessity for us to make that effort now.

To every man and every nation there comes a time when decisions must be made about grave problems. Further delay in seeking solutions can bring disaster. That time has come for the United States.

The moment has arrived when we must face realistically the startling fact that since 1958 crime in this country has increased five times faster than our population growth! Serious crimes—murder, forcible rape, robbery, burglary, aggravated assault, automobile theft—have mounted steadily since the end of World War II. In 1951 these crimes for the first time topped the one million mark, and more than two and one-quarter million serious crimes were reported during 1963.

Even more ominous is the fact that this terrifying spiral in crime has come about through a growing wave of youthful criminality across the Nation. Last year for the fifteenth consecutive year crimes involving our young people increased over the previous year. For all serious crimes committed in the United States in 1963, youthful offenders were responsible for a staggering 72 percent of the total arrests for these crimes!

What a grim and unhappy commentary on the moral climate of this great Nation! The moral strength of our Nation has decreased alarmingly. We must return to the teachings of God if we are to cure this sickness. These shocking statistics together with the public's apparent indifference to them are indicative of the false morality we are tolerating today. It is a false code which is based on the worship of things of man's own creation. It is as imperfect and feeble as man himself! However captivating to the senses, this type of moral climate cannot give the support nor the strength which is so vital to our national survival. This breakdown in our moral standards can only as a Nation.

Law and order are the foundations upon which successful government must stand. Without law and order, society will destroy itself.

We must never forget that government cannot favor one group or one special interest over its duty to protect the rights of all citizens. We must constantly guard government against the pressure groups which would crush the rights of others under heel in order to achieve their own ends.

The law of the land is above any individual. All must abide by it. If dangerous game which can only result in total defeat for all of us because if we destroy our system of government by law, we destroy our only means of achieving a stable society.

It is a great misfortune that the zealots or pressure groups always work with their emotions seldom with reason. They have no compunction in carping, lying and exaggerating with the fiercest passion. They cry liberty when they really mean license!

Justice has nothing to do with expediency. It has nothing to do with temporary standards. We cannot, and will not, permit the FBI to be sued to superimpose the demands of those who would sacrifice the very foundations on which our government rests. I take humble pride in emphatically stating here tonight that as long as I am Director of the FBI, it will continue to be objective in its investigations and will stay within the bounds of its authorized jurisdiction regardless of pressure groups which seek to use the FBI to attain their own selfish aims to the detriment of our people as a whole.

Unfortunately and too often humanity, if left to itself, moves along the line of least resistance. That is the reason we make such slow progress, and why we are prone to wait for pathfinders to blaze the way for us to follow.

Each of us hopes that beyond the despair and darkness of today there is something better in store for tomorrow. It will be tragic if nothing but hope is brought to bear on the problem of crime in the United States today.

We must have men and women with ideals, with faith and hope and determination who will transmute noble purpose into accomplished action. If we are to reverse the crime picture in this country, we must make a sustained effort to stir the complacent ones to awareness.

We molluscoid young criminals and release unreformed hoodlums to prey anew on society, he bleeding hearts, particularly among the judiciary, are so concerned for young criminals that they become indifferent to the rights of law-abiding citizens.

We must have judges with courage and a high sense of their duty to protect the public and to adequately penalize criminals if we are to stop the spread of serious and dangerous crimes against society.

We must adopt a most realistic attitude toward this critical problem. We have tried the lenient approach and it has failed.

It is the fashion among many to sneer at ideals, to flout them with derisive jeers as the insubstantial dreams of the naive, and to scornfully prophesy that most men will abandon their ideals as are too often right, but the fault is not with the ideal—remember that. A worthwhile ideal may be difficult, but it is never impossible, of attainment.

I believe in the omnipotence of the human spirit. Man has repeatedly shown that he can both make and master circumstances. It will take this type of determination on the part of the majority of our people if we are to halt increasing numbers of our young people from swelling the crime statistics columns each year. We badly need a moral reawakening in every home in our Nation.

The voice of integrity, honesty and decency must speak out. The forum cannot be taken by a free society. Hate, greed and selfishness are not the American way.

I trust you will continue your attention to this problem and will press them to a solution of national importance. I am confident that you will continue to take serious steps to curb the growing moral deterioration in this land.

It is a grave responsibility being steadily reloaded by the attitude of contentment and complacency of our people. Let us face the facts which make the Nation what it is today.

Today, patriotism is a thing of style. Those who are in the forefront of country are often looked upon as pariahs, persecuted by right-wing extremists.

Let me quote from an address which appeared in a student publication of a student publication in our Midwest area: "Sixty-four percent of the 'Six-Patriotic' group of students, 'Patriotism is not a religion, it is a mark of a man's character, a quality, a principle, a way of life.'"

We can only pray that the desirable trend which is evident among students in our country will be reversed before it is too late.

This attitude can be reversed if the will of the majority of our people concerning the real threat of communism is made known to the environment where the problem exists. It has been applied in the past with material and moral results.

It is our duty as Americans to support the young citizens in their analytical search for truth and its application to the world and establish a firm foundation upon which to build a better future for our Nation.

When men are guided by the law and honor, they will find on his own. He will find the aids, the common sense, the efforts to do the right thing in a free society. He will find the courage to resist the temptation to justify his actions in the name of the common good. He will find the doctrine of the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. He will find the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

What kind of a tiger do you want under your hood?
(Have you priced a tiger lately?)

If you're handy with a whip and chair, you could go for the 360-hp GTO. It bites. But then, even the 315-hp GTO bites. So it all depends on how much you think you can chew. If you want a slightly more civilized package (but with all the growl and lots of the muscle of the GTO), try the LeMans. You can get it with a six or either of two V-8s. They all have magnificent interior appointments that make you feel you're languishing in luxury. They all have great, great, great styling. Yet they cost less than some very tame cats that go around trying to pass themselves off as tigers but who can't even make the grade. How do we do it? That's our secret. See them all in captivity at your Pontiac dealer's.

Clarkston Dumps Milford 58-46

Mel Vaara
Coach Bud McGrath unveiled a pack of scrappy Wolves as they defeated the Redskins of Milford by the score of 58-46. Every- one around the league figured Milford as one of the contenders for league honors, but after last Friday's loss they wonder if Milford played a bad game or is Clarkston a better team than they predicted.

Clarkston outthusted, out fought and out rebounded the more experienced Milford team. Clarkston's tight man-to-man defense led by John Wilberg completely dominated Milford's offense. The defense made Milford play ragged ball and which resulted in unorganized play. Milford played a zone defense, but Clarkston penetrated it with many short jumpers. Milford tried to press in the later stages, but they didn't have much success.

Dan Fife led all scorers with 17 points and 12 rebounds. He also led the team in assists and steals. The sophomore scored most of his points on driving lay-ups.

A team must have a bench if it hopes to be a contender and Bob McCarrick entered the game late in the 1st half as a replacement for Dave Coulter and responded with 12 points, mostly on 20 foot jumpers. Gary Pearson added 10 points and 6 rebounds. Ron Lippert playing his finest game in the Clarkston uniform added 11, John Wilberg had 3, as did Dave Coulter. Mike Madison scored the final two points.

The J.V. team lost to Milford's J.V. team by the score of 50 to 46. Randy Nicolson and Larry Duncan were the high scorers for Clarkston.

Clarkston will travel to Brighton for their 2nd ball game of the season.

News Notes from Clarkston High

It's Christmas time at the high school. Last Friday, school ended seven minutes early, which didn't hurt anyone's feelings. The reason was that the busses might not be back in time to pick up the elementary students.

Monday morning, a host greeted the students as they entered the school. A Christmas tree with already wrapped gifts under it is set up in the commons area.

Dozens of Christmas cards are pinned onto the first bulletin board.

in the cafeteria. On the second is a cutout picture of the three wise men drawn with chalk. Some student put a great deal of work into this one. The third board holds a picture of Santa Claus in spectacles.

The boys' and girls' choirs teamed up Tuesday night to present a Christmas program at the Lutheran Church.

A lot of students were present at our first basketball game Friday. We were a very happy lot as we watched our boys by-pass Milford's Redskins to victory. The Clarkston High School choir will be giving a show next Wednesday. They've really put a lot of work into this show. It will be presented in the high school auditorium. As far as I know, there is no admission charge. A good sized audience will be appreciated. It starts at 8 p.m.

Another group whose work is rarely appreciated is that of the publications class. There are two this year, but one is a regular class.

The other puts out two separate publications. The one that comes out most often is the high school paper "The Wolf Cry".

It is published somewhat irregularly but is usually on sale once every three weeks.

The second publication is, as you may have guessed, our year-book, the Hilltopper.

In it are compiled pictures of events that took place during the school year. Also they have group pictures of the various clubs and organizations, a write-up on each.

Their sponsor is a graduate of Oakland University, Mr. Mike Gorrie. He's teaching English at the high school this year. He's a newcomer to the halls of C.H.S. and in his first year of teaching.

Being qualified to teach both English and Art, he was the logical selection to take the reins of publications. He holds a bachelor of Arts degree.
