Growing in membership and deeds of community service, the Clarkston Rotary Club this week celebrates its 25th anniversary.

Highlighting the event was a Ladies Night Banquet held Monday at the French Cellar on Dixie Highway. Addressing the group was District Governor Elect, Proctor Dick of Ontario, Canada.

Included in the 7 p.m. program, chaired by retiring president, Keith Hallman, was a speech delivered by Roy Alger in which the club's founding and founders were discussed.

Following the motto, "Service Above Self," the Clarkston Rotary has a background of community contribution. Most noteworthy is the annual Goodfellow paper drive with monies used to buy shoes for needy children, the Crippled Children Society, Wolverine Boy's State, the school student loan fund and to decorate the business area at Christmas. The group achieved national recognition in 1951 when they were featured in The Saturday Evening Post.

Founded in 1940, the club's first president was Gerald O'Dell. Of the 20 original members, five still are active Rotarians.

Ending his year as president of the organization, Hallman stated, "The club points with pride to its achievements of the past and to its worthwhile current projects."

Family Picnic For Legionnaires

Campbell-Richmond Auxiliary Unit 63 will hold a family picnic Monday, June 28 at 6:30 p.m. at the Legion Hall north of Clarkston. There will be a short meeting following the meal.

Sulphuric acid was first produced in America in 1793 by a young Philadelphia chemist, John Harrison, and sold for 40c a pound.

The cotton plant occurs in five distinct species, some of them perennial.

UM High in Peace Corpsmen

The University of Michigan is one of the leading contributors of volunteers to the Peace Corps.

According to figures released by the Peace Corps, Michigan has 11.3 volunteers for each 1,000 students. Among large universities, Stanford heads the Peace Corps list with 22.3 volunteers per 1,000 enrollment.

Others in the top ten among large universities are Yale, California at Berkeley, Colorado, Harvard, Princeton, Notre Dame, Oregon, and Chicago.

Township Offices Broken Into

Oakland County Sheriff's are investigating the illegal entry of Independence Township offices which occurred some time over the weekend.

Entry of the building was discovered by a janitor early Monday. Although nothing of value was disturbed, the intruders pried open and rifled a storage cabinet and unsuccessfully attempted to open a safe. According to the Sheriff's department, desks had also been rifled.

Budget Approved By College Board

An estimated budget of $2,581,500 for 1965-66 and the appointment of 62 faculty personnel were approved by the Oakland Community College Board of Trustees at a public hearing held last week. George Mosher, OCC Board Chairman announced.

Among key appointments approved last night were: Mrs. Joyce F. Garrett, 19701 Cheyenne, Detroit, presently Job Development and Placement Specialist, Mayor's Youth Employment Project, Detroit, as Administrative Assistant - Personnel.

Water Accident Toll Climbs

Water accidents are on the increase in Michigan.

Eighty-three persons have died in 104 water accidents in the first five and a half months this year, respective increases of 24 and 30 compared with the period up through June 12, in 1964, according to State Police provisional figures.

In addition, 43 persons have been injured in water mishaps. The breakdown on 62 of the deaths on which official reports have been received includes 14 boat passengers, eight boat operators, 11 swimmers or waders, 15 who fell from bridges, banks, docks or piers, 13 who fell through ice, and one skin or Scuba diver.

Vigilant supervision of children at play in or near water and proper attention to safety rules when boating, the State Police emphasize, can help hold down the water accident toll which reaches its peak during the warm weather months in Michigan. Last year 290 persons lost their lives in 606 water accidents in the state.

Man Arrested In Check Case

Quick action on the part of a suspicious cashier resulted in the arrest Monday of Ronald Gay, 21, of Ohio, on the charges of altering a check.

According to State Police, the youth, who is a magazine salesman, had changed an eight dollar subscription check from a Clarkston area resident to eighty dollars. Upon close examination, the cashier noted irregularities and contacted the signer of the check.

Shortly after contacting the police, the youth was arrested and taken to Oakland County Jail where he awaits arraignment. Handling the case were Troopers Gerald Zielinski and Howard Kelly of the Pontiac State Police Post.

Heart Association Elects Officers

Among the executive committee members recently elected to the newly organized Oakland County Unit of the Michigan Heart Association was Dr. Robert Liechtman, Clarkston Internist.

Other officers are, Dr. E. J. Mueller, Birmingham Internist, president; Dr. Donald Albert, Berkeley Internist, president-elect; Edward Barker, vice-president of the Pontiac State Bank, vice president; and Mrs. Howard McIntyre, a supervising nurse in the out-patient department of St. Joseph Hospital, Pontiac, secretary-treasurer. The officers are also members of the executive committee.

Three additional members of the executive committee are, Mrs. Kenneth Block, Birmingham housewife and co-chairman of the Oakland County Heart Information Center; Mrs. Raymond Papaport, Bloomfield Hills housewife and Dr. Bernard Berman, Director, Oakland County Health Department.

Public Hearing Date Set

Independence Township Planning Commission has scheduled a July 15, 7:30 p.m. public hearing to consider a zoning change request.

A map showing the proposed changes, from Suburban farm to Residence-2 may be seen at the Township.

Civil Air Patrol Promotions

The progress of any organization is usually in direct ratio to the achievements of its members. Promotions in the Civil Air Patrol program are positive indications that members are actively participating.

Two Cadets Kathy Eudis, 53 Church Street, and Robert Grace, 2334 Sasabaw Road, have been promoted to the rank of Cadet 2nd Lt. after completing courses at Cadet Officer Training School at Selfridge AFB, Michigan.

One senior member, Marilyn Moore (Mrs. C. E. Moore) 6650 Amy Drive, has been promoted to Chief Warrant Officer. Mrs. Moore, who has been serving Clarkston Squadron as Information Officer, recently completed preliminary CAP training and has applied for further courses in Extension Course Institute.

The last day of school is usually a signal for most organizations to halt their activities for the summer. One exception is Civil Air Patrol. Over half of the Cadets of Clarkston Squadron have prepared applications for Michigan Wing Summer encampments to be held at Selfridge AFB, Michigan July 10-19 and at Shaw AFB, S. C., August 22-29.

Captain Charles Klann, Commander of Clarkston Squadron, who is also Acting Encampment Commander of the Selfridge AFB Encampment, states: "Civil Air Patrol's Summer Encampments offer Cadets the opportunity to acquire training in CAP's Cadet Program while observing and participating in the routine of a working Air Force Base."

Independence Fire Report

Total loss of a barn and various farm implements resulted from a June 17 fire at 2390 Sasabaw Road, according to Independence Township Fire Department records. The fire run was an assist to Brandon Township Fire Department.

Two fires within the past few days were attributed to youngsters playing with matches. Fire was contained and resulted only in smoke damage in a garage fire on Lakeview Street. The home owner's son was said to have started the blaze by building a fire in a can and adding gasoline which caused the fire to flare up and spread to surrounding structure.

A grass fire which spread 100 feet before being brought under control was attributed to a five year old boy playing with matches. Five men and two trucks were needed to extinguish the Walters Lake fire.

Rubbish burning at the back door of a new home under construction was the cause of a June 21 fire on Church Street. The blaze was brought under control before extensive damage occurred.

No Injuries Listed In Week's Accidents

Two accidents involving Clarkston residents were reported this week by Michigan State Police.

Francis Federspiel, 17, of 6361 Sunnysdale Drive Clarkston, and Robert McCormack, 22, of Waterford, were the drivers of two cars which collided Friday on Dixie Highway, north of M-15. According to the police report, the McCormack auto struck the car driven by Federspiel as it was turning into a driveway. No injuries were listed and the two vehicles were able to be driven away.

A bicyclist, darting from the sidewalk on Holcomb Road, was responsible for an accident last Friday. Eleven year old John Bates of 6208 Paramus, Clarkston, was injured after being struck by Darryl Hicks, 16, of Clintonville Road. Hicks stated that he did not see the youth in time to stop.

U. S. Air Force Recruiting Office Has New Quarters

The U. S. Air Force Recruiting Office will move to new quarters in the Federal Building, 35 East Huron Street, Pontiac, it was announced by TSgt. LeRoy L. Bancroft, Recruiter for Pontiac and Oakland County. The move will take place on June 14. The office will be open for business during the move. With new office hours as follows: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday thru Friday and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday.

All personnel scheduled to take the Air Force Aptitude Test on June 14 should report to the Federal Building at 9 a.m.

Millage Figures OK'd by Board

Final tax rate allocation figures were released by the Oakland County Tax Allocation Board Monday.

Results of the morning meeting to approve the millage split gave Clarkston Community Schools 8.32 (8-31 this past school year.) Independence Township was allocated 1.32 mills (same as the present figure) and Oakland County was set at 5.30, up .04 mills.

The mines of Guadalupe, Spain, were reopened in 1951 with 200 German miners and metallurgists in charge.

Governor To Address Youth Project

Young people who may be the state's governmental leaders a generation at Michigan State University June 15 - July 2.

Operation Bentley -- a project of the education division of the Michigan Association of Supervisors, with assistance from the Alvin M. Bentley Foundation -- provides three weeks of experience in mock school board, village, township and county government situations. This year, for the first time in its three-year history, the event provides experience in monitoring a bill from introduction through passage in the house of representatives.

Chosen to participate in the operation are 100 Michigan high school senior boys and girls with marked leadership abilities. They are being tutored by five top college presidents and administrators, by the state's key officials, from the governor through the administrative board; by more than 100 legislators, supervisors, other county officials and legislative representatives.

Gov. George Romney will address the young people when they sit in the Michigan House of Representatives June 28. Mrs. Romney will talk to them at lunch on June 22.

Robbers Apprehended

Ten minutes after two men robbed Taylor's 5 and 10 store, on M-15 and Dixie Thursday, State Police had apprehended them. The hold up men, 24 year old Clark Dotson and 29 year old Henry Washington, Jr., both of Detroit, were heading north on I-75 when trooper Terpstra began pursuit, according to the State Police.

The robbery occurred at 12:40 p.m. when Dotson went into the building and picked up a small item for purchase. At the cash register he dropped his change on the floor. As clerk, Mary Lou Smith of East-Lawn, bent to retrieve the money Dotson reached into the till and snatched about $50.00. Washington was waiting outside the store and drove the get-away car.

With only a vague description of the two men and their vehicle, Trooper Terpstra became suspicious after spotting them and observing them watching him. According to Terpstra he then began pursuit and radioed for assistance. State troopers Terpstra, Sibel and Veurink made the arrests.

Both Dotson and Washington stood mute at their arraignment before Independence Justice William H. Stamp. They were placed under $5,000 bond and are awaiting a July 1 hearing.

Survey to Note Available Jobs

A survey of hiring policies of 150 firms in Oakland County began last week.

David Soule, Oakland Schools director of vocational education, said the survey is being made by 27 representatives of school districts within the county.

This is a phase of an overall study of job needs of both employer and potential employee which began in March. The door-to-door May school census included a questionnaire for every resident above the age of 14 on which both the employment and educational status of the individual was recorded.

In personal interviews with personnel directors of large firms, school district representatives will determine how many entry jobs are available each year and the experience and educational requirements for beginners. They will also want to know which areas of employment are critical and the nature of anticipated changes in jobs in the next four or five years.

Employers of fewer than 100 people will be surveyed by mail beginning June 7, Soule said.

The study is a cooperative venture of the 29 school districts of Oakland County and is subsidized by a $26,400 Federal grant.

Rev. Donald Sinclair pictured above with his wife and son, Jeffrey, has accepted a call to the First Presbyterian Church, Grand Haven, as assistant pastor. He has served as minister of Sasabaw United Presbyterian Church, 5331

Maybe Road, for the past three years. Rev. Sinclair, who will begin his new work the first of August, will leave the parish June 27. Clarkston News Photo

It wasn't "bees in their bonnets" that prompted residents of Buffalo Street in Clarkston to call in a specialist for assistance . . . but it did concern bees . . . lots of them. Apparently a queen bee, discontent with her previous living quarters, decided to move to the cool tree lined comfort of Buffalo Street . . . and brought many unwanted guests with her. The fuzziness of the picture? ? ? Well, how close would you get to a swarm of unwelcome and displaced bees? That's the way our photographer felt too.

BEEN SHOPPING LATELY?

Sure! People go shopping for many things. Even a Church! But, then, they take Dad along!

Before you go shopping for a Church, make sure you know what you're looking for. For a Church isn't a theatre to provide entertainment, nor a club to fortify one's social position, nor a foundation to channel our charities.

A Church is a SCHOOL that trains whole families in spiritual perception. It is a FACTORY that makes earnest Christians. They're in evidence all over town.

A Church is a TOWER, giving a glimpse of life's horizons, far beyond the petty problems of each day.

A Church is a WORK-SHOP where one volunteers his talents in the most challenging tasks that confront humanity.

And, of course, a Church is HOME — the place where we're appreciated, where we're one of the Family!

But it doesn't hurt to admit that in one respect our churches are like our stores: There wouldn't be one in town if we didn't need what they offer!

Clarkston Student Wins Contest

Though only 14 years old, Joan Willis has already achieved honor for her ability in creative writing. She was recently announced as one of the first place winners selected from 11,485 entries, in a Detroit News sponsored scholastic writing contest.

JOAN WILLIS

Joan, who has many years to go before deciding upon a career, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Willis of 5051 Whipple Lake Road and has just completed her freshman year at Clarkston High School.

The contest, having a junior (7th, 8th and 9th grades) and a senior (10th, 11th, and 12th grade), was open to students living in Oakland, Wayne, Lenawee, Livingston, Macomb, Monroe and Washtenaw Counties.

Her winning essay, titled, "My Mississippi," follows.
"MY MISSISSIPPI"
It was a beautiful, warm spring day. The sky was clear blue, inhabited by only the smallest and fluffiest of white clouds. The sun poured golden warmth on the earth and melted the last of the snow. The day influenced me, and I felt bright and happy. I wanted to engulf myself in the warm spring air, so I decided to take a walk.

I walked slowly and only where fancy took me. I thought not about where I went because it did not matter. I wanted merely to be outside in the warm spring sunshine.

Soon I found myself in the narrow lane a short distance away. The path was a two lane path used only for walking and occasionally by a brave automobile. Houses and civilization were out of sight. I continued down the lane wondering what I would do when I nearly stepped into the smallest of streams. "That was never there before," I thought and I wondered where it had come from. I stood up and skipped along beside the tiny brook, curious to find the source. It was strange how I enjoyed skipping beside the tiny stream. The feeling was as if I were racing nature, and it was a strange, free feeling I enjoyed. I paid little attention to the stream itself and was driven only by the curiosity of finding its origin.

At one point I thought I had lost the little stream, because suddenly there was a flat, sandy spot directly in the middle of the little brook. The sand covered only one side of the path and was barely two feet long, but it seemed gigantic if it were going to stop the little stream.

I examined the spot more closely to find tiny threads of water running through the sand. Beyond them was the stream again. The stream seemed as big as the Mississippi compared to the tiny threads.

I resumed my journey and came shortly to small tributaries at the foot of a hill. Suddenly I realized my stream was only temporary; it came from the melted snow. This thought gave me a feeling of loneliness and dejectedly I turned around. I had never experienced before. I wanted it to stay forever. I decided to see how far it flowed. I walked silently and slowly back, noticing more about the stream on my return journey, because I wanted to remember it exactly forever, as it ran swiftly and steadily on.

Soon I came to the sandy spot again. Even the sand cheered me a little because there existed a sense of familiarity. Sadly I remembered the stream was only temporary. But then it occurred to me that everything in nature was temporary. From the mighty mountains which gradually wear down, to man himself. It cheered me to think my stream had to be temporary because every natural phenomenon was. Once again I had faith in my little stream.

I walked on. Something inside me told me that this river was special and that I must touch it. I dipped my hands into the clear, cool water. Even though the water came from the melted snow and had traveled over sandy ground, it seemed the cleanest and the purest of waters, for it washed my heart of all unhappiness and all unfaithfulness I had left for the little river. There was left a clean, closer, refreshed feeling for the little undaunted river.

I continued, but even in the cool spring air came the desire to feel the river again. So at a wider point, I shaped the mud to form a small pool. Immediately I wondered if it was right for man to change nature. But man was a part of nature. I wondered if it was really wrong for nature to change nature? I could not believe it was and my pool remained.

As I continued I noticed that my Mississippi contained a Niagara Falls. The sand had worn away on one side of a tree root, but not on the other. The water fairly danced over the root and gave my river a sense of gaiety. I liked this because my river seemed more important. So when I found an appropriate place, I fashioned another falls out of stones.

Ahead I could see a road. I was nearing the end of the lane and just before the road was a lake and into it flowed my river.

It was not my river and it was not my lake. I had not created them. They belonged to nature. Yet somehow I felt deeply attached to them both. The sun was sinking lower and I turned back along the river towards home. I did not want to leave the river, the falls, or the lake, but I had to, so I silently said good-night and good-bye.

Letters to The Editor

The Girl Scouts of Clarkston would like to thank each and every person involved in making Clarkston Day Camp a success. They would also like to give special thanks to Mr. Leslie Smith, Past President of the Oakland County Sportsman's Club, staff, and members for the use of their camp grounds. They have been most generous.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Sidnev Centilli, Director of Day Camp
Mrs. Gilbert Gallivan, Co-Director Day Camp

Dear Editor:
I hope you felt personal satisfaction in the two-to-one victory for Special Education.

The support your paper gave to this issue was certainly reflected in the returns in your district.

In the years I have worked with newspapers, I have watched the emerging recognition of the dignity of the handicapped child and the fact that parents of these children and the public at large are increasingly willing to admit a handicap and then try to do something to help the child compensate. In recognizing children who accomplish these small - and large - miracles and the adults who help them, the newspapers are a major factor in making it possible for the community to honor the right of every educable child to education.

Sincerely,
Polly Cartliffers

Old West Theme at Club

An atmosphere of the Old West was evident in the dress, decor and taste tempting food last week at a chuck wagon get-together of Pontiac Better Home and Garden Club members. Host and Hostess of the round-up affair were Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Adams of Maybee Road.

Donning chefs' caps to pass out the vittles to some 40 guests were Alfred Rothweiler and Mr. Adams (shown above). Appreciating the cook's efforts and waiting with Western style appetites are, l-r, John C. Cowe, Mrs. Rothweiler, Mrs. Earl Campbell, Mrs. Walter DeNio, Mrs. Cowe, Mrs. Roy Haeusler and Mrs. Adams.

One reason is the 5-year/50,000-mile warranty** on the parts that keep you going.

** Here's how Plymouth's 5-year/50,000-mile engine and drive train warranty protects you: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1965 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential and rear wheel bearings. Required maintenance: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

Clarkston Girl Scouts Have Annual Outing

Camp Cadets. Absorbed in acquiring the new skill are Nancy Cole, Mary Hennig, Jane Morse and Ann Chad.

Directing the various programs, activities and instructing classes was a fulltime duty of love for the camp staff. Shown in the midst of their day's work are Barbara Olney and Marge Daniels. (kneeling) and standing left to right, Camp Director Lois Centilli, Co-director Dorothy Gullivan and Staff Consultant Ella Richmond.

Learning about nature, cooking camp skills, conservation and arts and crafts were but a few of the programs offered Clarkston area girl scouts during their annual Day Camp project last week.

One hundred sixty scouts at the levels of Brownies, Juniors, Cadets and Seniors participated in the annual week long event which was directed by Mrs. Sidney Centelli of Clarkston. Highlight of the day camp activities held at Oakland County Sportsmen Club on Waterford Road, was an overnight camp-out and parent's night conducted last Thursday.

Opening and closing each day was a flag ceremony in which all scouts and their leaders participated. In addition to the above mentioned activities, the various scout units were offered archery, hiking, dramatics, folk dancing, singing, games and language (French).

Staff members assisting in the Day Camp included co-director Mrs. Gilbert Gullivan, staff consultant Mrs. H. E. Richmond Mrs. Roger Olney, Mrs. Robert E. Green and Mrs. Gary Ushman.

Others were Wanona Hillman, Mrs. L. V. Cushman, Mrs. Walter Nuberg, Barbara Meek, Mrs. Norman Daniels and Mrs. B. J. Alumbaugh.

Parents of scouts visited the camp grounds Thursday, inspected finished projects and displays and were invited to a specially prepared program. Climaxing the week's activities was a program of songs presented Friday.

Highlighting the week's events was the overnight camp out. Now let's see, does this rope go here ... seems to be the atmosphere in the tent rising area. Becoming experts in getting all contributing their efforts in completing the teepee center before parents arrived.

Minutes can seem like hours when you are hungry and waiting for the food to get done. Waiting patiently around the camp fire while Brownies Linda Olney, at the left, Sandra Clark and Margaret Barry apply the finishing touches are members of the Hiawatha camp out area. Leaders Marlon Lohff, Ruth Yoh and Sue Filbert are shown in the background.

The entire scouting group participated in the Parent's Night program. Scheduled for Thursday evening, Scouts are shown in the program bowl practicing the songs they will present. Directing the youngsters is Mrs. Robert Green.

On Mosquito Hill, and the varmints were really out in force, Juniors Michelle Humphrey, Rebecca Ryers and Susan Elliot work on craft items to be displayed. Using reeds and bits of material the girls were fashioning baskets and beach bags.

The Travelers, a Brownie camp under the leadership of Norma Ford, Virginia Carpenter and Phyllis Fox, learned new and novel ways of providing means for shelter, cooking and cleaning. Among the unusual items found in this campsite

Adarmes — Collick Wed in Candlelight

MRS. HERMES F. ADARMES

Wearing floor length gowns of yellow linen and carrying floral arrangements of daisies and ivy, the bridal attendants preceded Sharon Lynn Collick in her marriage to Hermes F. Adarmes. The June 19 candlelight ceremony took place in the First Methodist Church, Clarkston, with Rev. Lewis C. Sutton officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Collick of 91 East Church Street, Clarkston and Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Adarmes of Caracas, Venezuela.

Chosen as maid of honor was Margaret Collick and bridesmaids were Linda Evans, Sammy Ellen Vallos and Barbara Collick. Flower girl was Tina Marie Easley.

Serving his friend as best man was Ismael Cordero and seating the guests were Antonio Maal, John Collick and Carlos Rozo.

Sharon selected a floor length gown of French crepe and lace applique with a fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her controlled skirt was accented by two bands of lace applique and had a floating detachable train. The bridal headpiece was of matching fabric attached to a silk bouffant veil and she carried a bou-

Road Races

This Weekend

Sports cars will meet on the track on June 26 and 27, as the Sports Car Club of America holds its annual Road Races at the Waterford Hills Road Course. Drivers from the ten states in SCCA's Central Division will compete for Regional Championship points in 14 races during the weekend. The wheel-to-wheel races, beginning at noon each day, will feature as many as 30 cars in a race, all competing with cars of similar engine size or performance.

An interesting new car which will make its first appearance at Waterford this weekend will be the NSU Wankel powered by the revolutionary new rotary combustion engine. This engine, quite different from conventional engines, uses only one spark plug, and no pistons, crank, etc.

Other cars will include Production Sports Cars (cars built primarily for road use), Modified Sports Cars (those built for racing), Formula Vees and Juniors (single-seat, "Indy" type cars, and Slicars (Mustangs, Corvairs, Volkswagens, etc.).
