4th of July Festivities are Scheduled for Monday

Picture proof that last year's 4th of July Clarkston Parade was one to remember is shown above. Those planning this year's celebration promise an even better day for Clarkston spectators and participants.

Three Clarkston Youths Attended Boys' State

Rod Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen of Clarkston, was elected to the city council in city and county office elections held at the American Legion's 28th Wolverine Boys' State. Rod was among the three Clarkston High School boys sponsored by the American Legion of Michigan who attended the event. Paul Hoxsie son of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Hoxsie and Dennis Pine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pine also attended the workshop. The youths were elected from the 1250 teenagers from all parts of the State of Michigan who are participating in the annual "51st State" which is designed to instruct and educate the boys in the principles and values of a democratic and constitutional form of government. The two simulated political parties, Federalist and Nationalist, loudly caucused in direct imitation of national conventions at this "learn by doing" seminar in Democracy.

Youths selected to attend the one week American Legion sponsored convalesce are chosen for their qualities of leadership and good citizenship. The American Legion Wolverine Boys' State goes beyond politics to include glee club performances, organization and operation of a newspaper, softball games, a swimming clinic, variety show and many other activities.

Bike Stolen; Need Information

State Police have asked area residents to be on the look-out for a new 26 inch boy's Western Flyer bicycle which was taken from the owners residence at 4780 Independence Drive, Drayton Plains Monday.

Painted red with chrome fenders, the bike has a red and white seat, pedals enlarged with blocks and a Vv-room motor. Anyone knowing the whereabouts or having information on the bike should call the State Police or Mr. Joseph Ulman of Drayton Plains.

Michigan has the largest Boys' State program in the United States and enrollment has increased from 809 boys in 1938 to the present high of 1250. Registrations now total 25,000 boys who have participated in this unique "workshop in good citizenship training." That many youths have gained a better sense of leadership and a finer understanding and respect for our democratic form of government.

The Clarkston Rotary Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce also provided funds to send the three boys to Boys' State this year. Commander Lynch expressed his appreciation for their help.

Bids to Open on I-75 Project

The State Highway Department today announced bids on 25 projects at an estimated cost of $2 million will be opened in Lansing July 7. Among them is 11.51 miles of sodding, seeding and erosion control on I-75 from Walton Blvd. to M-15 in Independence Township. Completion date was set for June 15, 1966.

New Program at High School

The Business Education Department of Clarkston High School is initiating a pilot program of Co-operative Training. Students participating in this program attend classes for a half day and work at a useful occupation for a half day. These occupations are to be in the office and distributive (retailing) areas.

"Co-op" programs have been in existence for many years in high schools throughout the country. It is felt that the school can better prepare students for good citizenship and occupational competence with the use of the community's facilities.

The school will become a partner in education with businessmen participating in this program. Students will have their programs arranged as to relate school work with actual on-the-job training. A school coordinator checks the progress of the students both in school and on the job.

Advantages are many in such a program. Students receive specific occupational training while attending high school by being engaged in an organized plan of training under actual business conditions. There is a correlation of work and school activities and an opportunity to develop good work habits.

Employers take an active part in the school program and are provided with better trained and more intelligent employees. The employer also gains a better acquaintance with prospective employees of the community.

The school in a cooperative training program broadens the curriculum and allows training in occupations at low cost and keeps the school abreast of business trends. Further information about this program may be obtained by contacting Clarkston High School, Maple 5-5841.

Board Gives Consent on Road Projects

During a special meeting of the Independence Township Board Tuesday night two resolutions were passed concerning dangerous conditions on Waldon Road near the Clarkston schools.

The township has agreed to share costs with Oakland County on the removal of the hill on Waldon Road between Eastlawn Avenue and Wealthy Road and prepare for a possible sidewalk from the elementary school to Almond Lane.

Another resolution concerning the hill and curve on Waldon Road east of the Methodist Church was approved by the board. The proposition has been delivered to the Village of Clarkston for discussion at their regular monthly meeting.

Before this second project can be undertaken the village must agree to pay one third of the cost. The other two-thirds will be paid by the Township and county.

$100 Fine for Use of Firecrackers

Don't play with fire crackers! Clarkston Village police chief Robert Phillips has announced strict enforcement of the law forbidding the use of these dangerous explosives.

Chief Phillips said, "Possession or use of fireworks in the state of Michigan is punishable by $100 fine or 30 days in jail, or both, and we are enforcing it to the letter."

Local Teachers at NEA Convention

Mrs. Bernard Mousseau and Mrs. B. J. Hanson are attending the National Education Association Convention in New York City from June 27 to July 2. Mrs. Mousseau, immediate past president of the Clarkston Education Association, is the official CEA delegate to the Convention. Mrs. Hanson, CEA treasurer, is alternate delegate to the convention.

As representatives of state and local associations, the delegates are determining the policies and program of the NEA for the school year 1965-66. All meetings of the NEA Representative Assembly are being held in Madison Square Garden. The theme for the Convention is "Education for World Responsibility."

Raw onions and wine were a favorite food of the early Greeks.

The Independence Township Fire Department has prepared a bang-up 4th of July parade for this weekend. Because the fourth falls on Sunday this year, the parade has been scheduled for Monday, July 5th, 10 a.m. in downtown Clarkston.

Fire equipment, floats and antique cars are among the entries.

Three $10 prizes will be awarded the best floats and free hats will be given to attending youngsters.

Between 4 and 6 p.m. the 31st annual Cranberry Yacht Regatta will take place on Cranberry Lake north of Clarkston. "Doc" Hamilton and crew, "Tink" Ronk are planning to take home the trophy for the third straight time, while the other six crews say "this year will be different."

Fireworks sponsored by the fire department, will start at 9 p.m. Monday at the Clarkston High School.

4th Celebration at Ortonville

Jack Goodwin, Daytona 500 race driver, will be one of the star attractions at the 1st annual auto-rama of Ortonville to be held Saturday, July 3. The day's festivities, sponsored by the Brandon Township Veterans Memorial Association, will begin at 10:30 a.m. with a parade. The parade will wind up on the Brandon Township High school football field where the races will be held.

Mr. Goodwin is the auto city speedway champion and holds that track record. He has also shattered all previous track records in Mt. Clemens and holds the record at Lansing. He has raced locally at auto city motor speedway, Flint, as well as Daytona Beach and many others.

Among the entries will be a Buick powered rail dragster driven by Roland Shaffer of Flint.

Four speedway racing tires made to the drivers specifications have been donated through the courtesy of Firestone Manufacturing Corporation, according to Guy Foster, Commander of the Brandon Township Veterans Memorial Association and general chairman of the program.

Police Chief Issues Warning

Clarkston's police chief Robert Phillips has issued a warning to motorists parking on White Lake Road at Deer Lake. No parking signs mean exactly that, and violators are being ticketed. Strict enforcement of the law is necessary to retain a smooth flow of traffic in that area.

Local Schools to Hire Diagnostician

On the heels of a two-to-one voter endorsement of increased taxes for special education, the Oakland Schools Board Thursday outlined the spending of $1.2 million which the additional half-mill tax will produce in revenue next year.

The largest allocation was a $340,000 item for new building space in local school districts. Seventeen new classrooms as approximately $20,000 each were contemplated.

More than a third of the increased income will repay school districts for classrooms, operating and equipment costs incurred during a 16-month moratorium on growth in special education program. Nine classrooms, built before the moratorium went into effect will be paid for with $180,000; the sum of $300,000 was allocated to meet claims from local districts for operating and equipment costs incurred by school districts during the moratorium.

Subsidy for new programs was set at $129,000. The remainder of the new income will be used to meet rising costs of programs for handicapped children already in existence.

Dr. Paul Thams, director of special education, presented superintendents' requests for 93 new programs. Forty of these were granted priority and districts were authorized to put them into effect next year.

Programs for mentally handicapped children were approved for Birmingham, Ferndale, Hazel Park, Holly, Huron Valley, Lake Orion, Lampere, South Lyon, Pontiac, Royal Oak, Waterford and West Bloomfield.

New entitlements for rooms for deaf and hard of hearing children went to Bloomfield Hills, Farmington, Rochester, Berkley and Southfield.

Five diagnosticians were approved. Birmingham, Clarkston and Royal Oak were each authorized to hire full time diagnosticians. Clarenceville, Novi and South Lyon will share the services of one diagnostician; Huron Valley and Holly will share another.

Visiting teacher entitlements were approved for Avondale and Hazel Park. Three visiting teachers were assigned to Brandon and Oxford, West Bloomfield and Dublin and South Lyon and Novi on a share-time basis.

The Board approved increasing the central psychological services and the employment of a social worker for the vocational rehabilitation program.

Speech correctionists were authorized for Avondale, Clarkston, Farmington and Ferndale.

The Board approved increasing the central psychological services and the employment of a social worker for the vocational rehabilitation program.

Three property damage accidents in the Independence Township area were investigated by the Oakland County Sheriff's Department recently.

A pick-up truck parked on 9 South Main Street in Clarkston was struck by a car driven by Glenn Boner of Clarkston on June 23, according to sheriff records.

Robert Young of Warren lost control of his car Saturday as he applied his brakes on Maybee Road upon approaching the Dixie Hwy. Damage to his vehicle was incurred when he rammed into a stop sign and a street sign.

Two cars were involved in an accident Saturday on Clintonville Road near Mann Road. Mrs. James Baird of 5330 Cecelia Ann was making a left turn when an automobile driven by Francis Allen of Drayton Plains struck her car. Mr. Allen stated that he did not see the Baird car in time to stop according to the Sheriff Department records.

Despite its name and strange appearance, the seahorse is a true fish.

A teacher counselor was approved for Pontiac and a half-time occupational therapist was granted for Ferndale's orthopedic rooms.

Speech correctionists were authorized for Avondale, Clarkston, Farmington and Ferndale.

The Board approved increasing the central psychological services and the employment of a social worker for the vocational rehabilitation program.

Finding 40 new special education teachers during the summer is expected to be a problem. Dr. Thams said. The number of new programs that can actually be put into effect in September will depend on the availability of qualified teachers.

Officers Elected

Devon Gables was the setting for the installation meeting of the Waterford-Clarkston Business and Professional Women's club last Thursday.

The theme, "The Time Is Now" was carried out in name badges in the shape of small gold lapel watches worn by the members. The club flower, chrysanthemums, surrounding a sun dial was the table centerpiece.

Mrs. W. H. Stamp chose a flower ceremony as she installed the 1965-66 officers. Among these are Mrs. Homer Tinney, president; Mrs. Harold Soper, 1st vice president; and Mrs. Elizabeth Ronk, 2nd vice president. Others were Mrs. Velma Britton, recording secretary; Mrs. Oliver Dunstan, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Velma Baynes, treasurer.

An initiation ceremony and welcoming of new member, Mrs. George Talladay, was conducted by Mrs. Leo Puglise and Mrs. L. V. Kline, following the installation. Guests at the dinner were Mrs. Dorothy Davis, Mrs. Olive Stewart, and Mrs. Carol Fleming.

Three Cyclists Injured in Area Accidents

Four personal injury accidents in Independence Township were included in the Pontiac State Police records during the past week. Three of the accidents involved motorcycles.

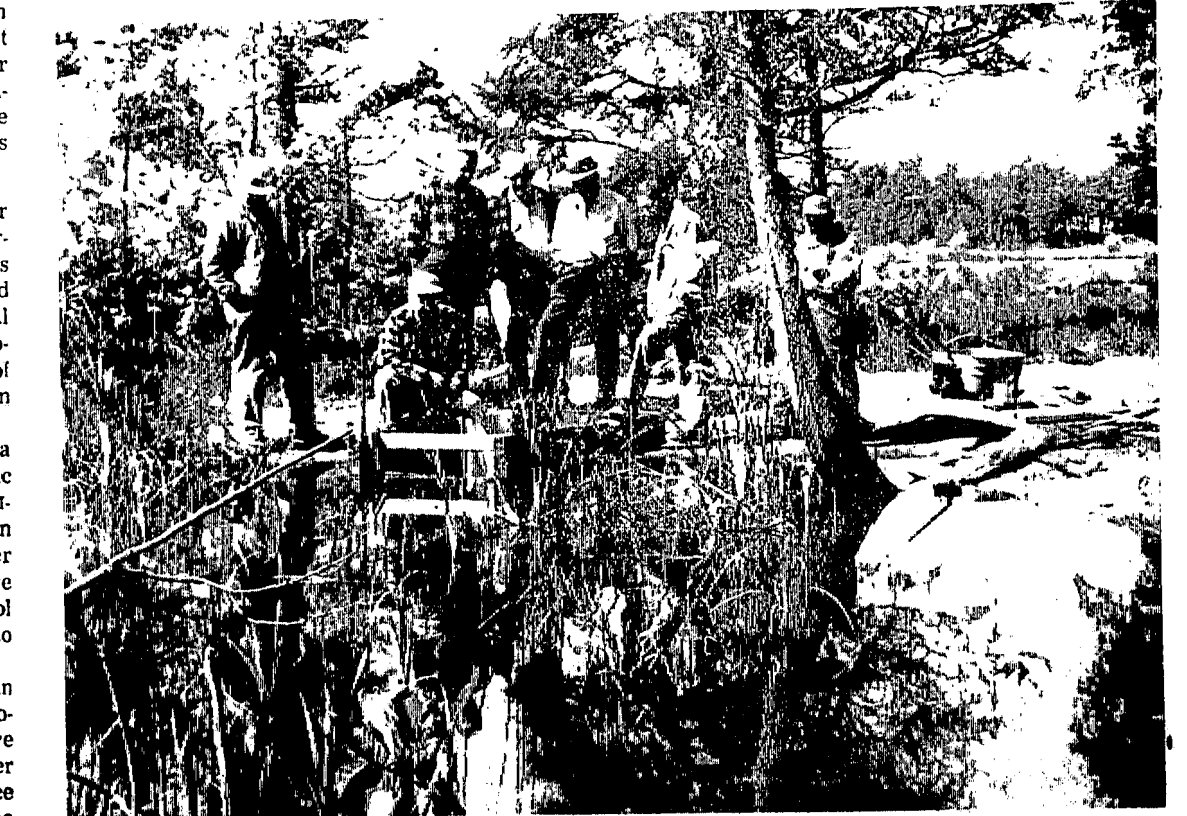

Patrick Audet of Algonac was taken to Pontiac General Hospital for injuries received when his car overturned on I-75 north of the Holcomb overpass.

Sunday morning a cyclist, Donald Sharrow of Royal Oak and his passenger, 7 year old Stanley Clucus, were injured when they hit a car on Dixie Hwy. at Waterford Rd. According to police records, Constance Spicer of Grosse Pointe, driver of the car pulled off Waterford Rd. into the path of Clucus. She stated she did not see the motorcycle.

injured Monday afternoon when his motorcycle rammed a car driven by Richard Harvey of Pontiac. Franklin was taken to Pontiac General Hospital.

According to police records, Harvey hit the motorcycle which was making a left hand turn on Clintonville Rd. 1/2 mile north of Mann Rd. Harvey was ticketed for failure to yield right of way and driving without an operators license.

Paul Massingill of Oxford was taken to Pontiac General Hospital Sunday evening after his motorcycle hit a car driven by Agnes Crain of Lake Orion. The accident occurred on Sashabaw Road at the I-75 ramp. Massingill was traveling south on Sashabaw when he struck the Crain auto which was turning onto Sashabaw.

Three acres of specially flooded ground and 18 State Conservation donated pike fingerlings have resulted in producing 10,000 pike fingerlings, released recently by the Oakland County Sportsmen Club. The project, begun last fall, is to become an annual event which will benefit Michigan fishermen. The two-inch fingerlings were released into Townsend Lake where they will eventually work their way into the Clinton River. Watching as the pike fill the fish tank, prior to being emptied into the lake, are club members Joe Rhoades (kneeling) and Art Perry (at the left), Vern Harcourt, Cliff Neville, Jack Greathouse, Henry Tipolt, and Paul Gabor. Also assisting in the pike release was State Conservation District Fish Manager Clifford Fuller, not shown in the picture.

One Nation Indivisible

"... That this Nation, under God..."
Words that bind a Nation's wounds — healing hearts that have affliction known.
We pause, this day, to remember and to forget:
Yet, not to forget the battles lost or victories won, or soldiers' silent sleep,
Who, by their death, gave life; life that throbs and pulsates in this Nation's womb.
We pause to remember our gifts from God from whom our blessings in abundance flow.
We find our God, at home in church, in hearts that this day sing out in joy.
We thank Thee, Dearest Lord. Now, bless us, and this Thy land and all therein... our own, our native land!

Time Speaks Softly in Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church

By Lee Thompson
 "During the last quarter, things have worn a much more encouraging aspect at this place than formerly. Our Sabbath school, containing about 25 children, is making steady and encouraging progress. Our prayer meetings and monthly concerts have been rather better attended. The worshipping congregation has increased so that our school house is far too small, and the society talks of building a meeting house of some kind. I discover also an unusual seriousness and tenderness with individuals with whom I converse in visiting from house to house."

 So spoke Rev. George Hornell in 1837, as spiritual building block were laid for what later became the founding congregation of Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church on Maybee Road; the second oldest Presbyterian church in Oakland County.

 Opening the door in 1823 in the formation of the Presbyterian church in Michigan, was Rev. Joshua Moore, sent to Detroit, and Rev. S. Goodmen who worked among the new settlements.

 It is noted in church history that "Rev. Mr. Goodman traveled on horseback on his tours of exploration and preaching and his exposures and hardships were so great that his health was utterly broken down and that he never afterwards fully recovered from the effects of the years labor." He returned to the east after establishing the First Presbyterian Church of Pontiac in 1824.

 In 1842, Rev. Albert Worthington became the first acting pastor of the local congregation. Rev. George Hornell, in 1842, assumed leadership of the group which met at two locations: "The School House, Sashabaw Plains," and "The Block School House, Orion." Early pioneer families, several of whom have descendants still active in the church, included the names of Beardslee, Waldo, Lacey, Stephens, Mabee, Galloway, Walters, Clark, Voorheis, Fisher and Fair.

 In 1845 the church officially became known as the First Presbyterian Church of Orion and Independence and Rev. Andrew Govan was appointed their minister. Under the leadership of Rev. S. A. Clayton in January of 1855, a building society was formed. Board of trustee members Peter Voorheis, J. M. C. Fisher, J. M. Fair, E. T. and George Beardslee were instrumental to "use immediate and efficient measures to raise the requisite funds and build a suitable church." So it was that in the summer of 1855, the New England shape of Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church, known then as the First Presbyterian Church of Independence, took form.

 And so it was that the quest for a better understanding, compassion, meaning peace and love, added to Still in the old Church: four oil lamps on windows, the pulpit is original made of oak. All the pews also are original made of oak, called the Martha Washington pews. The three chandeliers are also original.

The present building was erected in 1856, the only house of worship the church has ever had. The place of worship before 1856 is unknown. The first regularly installed pastor was the Rev. Albert Worthington who came in 1841. The Church is a fine example of the classic New England architecture, it was built and furnished for $3,000, and still has about eighty percent of its original furnishings. The congregation had been organized in 1810 under the Plan of Union as the Church of Orion and Independence. The original steeple has been restored and the building carefully preserved.

MICHIGAN HISTORIC SITE

SASHABAW UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

This church structure, one of the oldest in the Detroit Presbytery, was erected by a church building society which was organized on January 20, 1855. A fine example of the classic New England church, it was built and furnished for $3,000. It was dedicated in June, 1856, as the house of worship for the First Presbyterian Church of Independence. The congregation had been organized in 1810 under the Plan of Union as the Church of Orion and Independence. Because of a small membership, the church in 1932 was dissolved. When Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church was organized in 1946, this building became its house of worship. The original steeple was restored and the building carefully preserved.

On September 17, 1961, the Michigan Historical Commission, made a resolution, to instate the Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church as a historical location for Oakland County in 1856.

Recognition of its historical significance to the United Presbyterian Church U.S.A. and to the history of Oakland County.

the silver thread of eternity that flows through and into all that has been and will be, flowing through the human mind and body to

With 1963 closed away behind the scenes, the stillness and quiet of 100 years is felt. Sitting on the back pew hewn from heavy oak lumber, as sunlight filters through windows carved 60 years ago, one captures the grandness that life, after all, is made of. Here truth in its state of glory exists today as it did in 1856.

There are no "gingerbread" trimmings where half truths may seek refuge. All is stripped bare with only the essentials left to deal with: the sturdiness of the pews, the original oil wall lamps and chandelier, an old grandfather's clock and the original Bible, now dry and stained by time's breath.

One again one discovers that when we live in a world of distractions, TV, Saturday afternoon football and the hectic daily goal of the rat race, the goal of the struggle, clearing the way for a church social... We seek meaning and the ability to extend our hands to touch another's fingertips and say, "I love."

Times have advanced, and our lives have moved beyond our own shadows, but have we changed? Was it any different yesterday when a man named Poole laid down the church pews? Was it any different in 1855 when a group of 70 people banded together in friendship and combined ideas, talents and work to house God's truth?

The splendor of today's modern architecture is missing, the elaborate trimmings, the thickly carpeted floors, but this tiny church still speaks, softly, simply, honestly.

Close your eyes and hear what is said and in that pause the past 100 years since this church rose melts away, because you hear the voice of timelessness. It was only a moment ago.

Ode to "Pioneers"

On June 20th Girl Scout Troop 547 went to Camp Sherwood for three days of Troop Camping. Because there were 34 girls going it was necessary to divide the girls into two groups. In Wildwood the three counselors were Mrs. Norberg, Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Jadwin. In Pioneer the counselors were Mrs. Goyette, Mrs. Altman and Joette Schultz, who is a senior scout.

While we were at camp, we enjoyed swimming, boating, outdoor cooking, hiking and singing around a campfire. And we all had lots of fun. We learned many new skills, and passed many badge requirements. Lots of unexpected things happened while we were there. Sunday night the girls from Wildwood accidentally caused some disturbance and mess in the Pioneer camp Monday night Pioneer invited Wildwood for some homemade ice cream, and singing around the campfire. Some of the Pioneer Girls tipped out of camp and paid a visit to Wildwood. In half an hour they switched every night stand in every tent, and put pine cones in every bed. The following poem written by Mrs. Norberg and the girls from Wildwood explains the whole thing.

TO PIONEER WITH LOVE?

Last night when we returned to camp, We felt so tired, but gay, Our counselors gave us each a lamp. And we were on our way, Jane and Debbie had to go, And much to their surprise They followed the Path, and lo, Our latrine was in disguise, "Oh," They squealed, someone had wrapped our latrine, With sterile seats, won't we have fun, No more we'll have to clean.

Then we all prepared for bed, And did we ever look silly, Nancy in Mollies pajamas red, With pine cones scratching in our beds, And then we looked, and we felt dumb? Where's my radio? Where's my mum? My cameras gone? My cassettes are missing, And everyone was really hissing, But we recovered everything Even our sense of humor, And who the pranksters really were, We should have guessed much sooner, But who would suspect our sisters dear Of causing us discomfort, We'd like to tell you for all to hear, We know you came from Pioneer, We thought and thought and thought and thought About what we could do for thee, To show our feelings and still Act like Girl Scouts, But that's impossible, Don't you agree? So we got up with the sun today, And made these necklaces for you, Wear them with pride, and just be glad, That our counselors wouldn't let us get too mad, YOU DIRTY RATS

We are looking forward to next year when we can go Troop Camping again. We would like to thank the Mothers who were brave enough to go with us.

Kathleen Altman, Scribe Troop 547

CAP Squadron Names Two Cadet Officers

Cadets Kathy Eudis and Robert Grace received the insignia of Cadet 2/Lt recently at Clarkston Composite Squadron Headquarters. Presenting the insignias was Capt. Charles Klann, Squadron Commander. The two new Cadet Officers attended Cadet OCS classes at Selfridge AFB, Michigan May 21-23 and successfully completed courses in drill, military courtesy, inspection and administration procedures.

John Lynch, Post Commander, Campbell-Richmond Post, American Legion, visited Clarkston Squadron Headquarters May 26th to discuss the Cadet Program with Captain Klann. Clarkston Squadron welcomes visits from those in the community who would care to learn more about the Cadet or Senior Programs of Civil Air Patrol. The last day of school is usually a signal for most organizations to stop their activities for the summer. One exception is Civil Air Patrol. Most of the cadets have prepared applications for Michigan Wing Summer Encampments, with most of the male cadets hoping they will be selected for the activities scheduled to take place at Shaw AFB, S.C., June 22-29. There will be a summer encampment for cadets of Michigan Wing at Selfridge AFB, Michigan July 10-18, and while not so far from home, it will offer the cadets valuable training.

Only a male cicada is capable of making a noise.

In a double ring nuptial rite performed before an altar of white and pink gladiolus, DeAnna Mary Alice Ward became the bride of Larry Stanley Stelmach. The June 19 ceremony was held in the First Methodist Church of Manistique.
