The groundbreaking ceremony for the new Michigan Bell Telephone building was held Monday, August 2, on Dixie Highway near Maybee Rd.

Teen-Ager Drowns In Bridge Lake

A sixteen year old boy, George Van Kuren of 354 Midway, Pontiac, drowned Sunday after he had been warned by Walter Simons that the water was too deep and cool for an unprofessional swimmer, according to Oakland County Sheriff Department records.

The drowning occurred at 2:30 p.m. in Springfield Township's Bridge Lake.

George and a friend, Ronald Gilmore, 15, had been swimming from dock to dock when George called for help. Ronald stated that he went to his friend's aid but had to go for additional help after he was almost pulled under.

Oakland County Sheriff diver, Medward Tessier, recovered the body in 35 feet of water over 100 feet from the west shore of Bridge Lake at 2:50 p.m.

Van Kuren and his mother were visiting at the Simons home at 10370 Dixie Hwy. prior to the drowning. His mother stated that she had told George not to go swimming, but had given him permission to fish.

Thieves Active In Local Area

Three breaking and entering complaints in the Clarkston area are being investigated by the Oakland County Sheriff Department.

Lloyd Puckett of 9581 Dixie, reported that his fruit and vegetable stand on Dixie and Grange Hall had been broken into during the night of July 28. Produce and equipment valued at nearly $200.00 were taken.

Camping equipment valued at $160.00 was reported stolen from the backyard of the Cecil Franklin residence at 6480 Pine Knob Road. This theft took place on July 30.

Mr. C. H. Lippincott of Grand Blanc filed a complaint stating that his home at 7110 Deer Lake Road, Clarkston was broken into on July 31st. Thieves, who entered through a kitchen window, were reported to have taken an AM-FM radio and silverware.

Oakland County Sheriff Department detectives, Raymond Bills and Gerald Gaedt are investigating the crimes.

Child Injured By Lawn Mower

Six year old Eric Strilecky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Strilecky of 6384 Sunnydale, completely severed his right foot in a lawn mower accident Tuesday. Eric was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where he underwent a four hour grafting operation. Mr. Strilecky is a Michigan State Trooper.

Young Eric was injured when he fell from a riding lawn mower driven by Donald Ross, 18, of Lakeview. Eric and his friend, Ronald Ross, had hitched a ride on the back of the mower without the knowledge of the driver, according to Donald. Donald, who stated that he had warned the boys repeatedly against riding the mower, said Eric must have fallen when he stopped to back up.

A spokesman for the Pontiac General Hospital stated that it is too early to predict the outcome of the operation. Eric, whose condition is reported as fair, is in room 28 of the Pediatric section of the hospital.

Several Contests for Kids at Fair

Contests for kids will be big again at this year's Michigan State Fair, which opens Friday evening, August 27, and runs through Labor Day, September 6.

They'll be held daily at 10 a.m. in the TV Fun Circus area. An exception will be the shiny pole contest, slated for the Picnic Grove area on Thursday, September 2.

New contests this year include one for old-fashioned dress of girls competing in the pony tail contest and a hot-dog eating contest (get out the bicarb, Mom).

The contest schedule: Saturday, August 28 - Pony Tail and old-fashioned dress; Sunday - Bubble gum blowing; Monday - Hot dog eating; Tuesday - Watermelon eating; Wednesday - Cow milking; Thursday - Shiny pole; Friday - Blueberry pie eating; Saturday - Sack race; Sunday - Balloon blowing; Monday - Egg toss.

Besides the contests, there'll be plenty for the young-uns to do at the State Fair: The TV Fun Circus, for example, will feature children's television show personalities as emcees and performers. Afternoon and evening shows will be staged.

Veterans will be admitted free to the Michigan State Fair until 3 p.m. on Veterans' Day, Saturday, August 28. The fair runs from August 27 through September 6.

"Sunday", a miniature brown and white shetland pony is shown with his masters Westley 9; Mike, 7; and his mistress Bobbie Jean Cogger 6; receiving a loving welcome shortly after his return home.

"Sunday" was stolen during the night of July 26 from the night of July 26 from the Wesley R. Cogger yard at 5624 Cuthbert, Davisburg. The Coggers notified the Oakland County Sheriff Department who assigned Detectives Fred Tender and Harry Jones to the "pony theft" case.

The thieves were either not aware that pony thieves are no longer hanged, or they had a change of heart, for "Sunday" was freed early the next day.

The homesick pony wandered to a motel on the Dixie Highway and peered into a window. The proprietors called the Sheriff Department who immediately arranged for his transport home giving this pony theft story a very happy ending!

Blind to Receive Further Aid

The Metropolitan Society for the Blind is launching a search of Detroit-area hospitals for blind persons who may require unique aids and appliances to better perform the routine tasks of everyday life.

The Society, a United Community Services agency supported by the Torch Fund, can aid blind persons in obtaining special kitchen equipment such as a bread slicing device, braille timers and measuring containers, writing implements, tools and games.

"We are contacting the hospitals to alert them and their blind patients to the services we are able to provide," said Charles F. McLaughlin.

He said a pamphlet detailing some of the aids is being sent to the hospitals.

Some of the newest devices for the blind that can be obtained through the Society include special tools for blind piano tuners, radio-television test equipment with braille labels and audible signals, braille shorthand machines, relief maps, braille labeling devices, diabetic syringes, games and an 8-inch "kick ball" that emits an electronic tone. McAllister Upshaw, executive director of the Society, said his agency is able to provide complete information on the special aids available to the blind, help obtain them and provide complete instruction for their use.

The campaign in Detroit area hospitals is the latest example of the expanded service now offered by the Metropolitan Society for the Blind since its recent merger with the Blind Service Center.

"One of the main goals of the merger was that the new agency be able to accomplish the most complete effort possible for the blind," said McLaughlin, a Campbell-Ewald Co. vice president.

"We believe the Society, now Detroit's single agency for the blind working with United Community Services and supported by the Torch Drive, is accomplishing this goal."

THREE CHEERS

Here comes the winner! Can he hold that first place position, or will he fail? In the eyes of these youngsters, victory is the most important thing in the world. Everything hinges on the outcome of this contest!

Enthusiasm is part of successful living, stimulating the imagination, and inspiring the mind. It is contagious, too, and can affect co-workers, friends, families. It is essential to organizations as well as to individuals.

Through the centuries a rich spiritual enthusiasm has been handed down by the Church, one of the greatest institutions on earth. Its members, working together, fired by the enthusiasm of faith, can give you renewed inspiration, and strength.

Why not attend church next Sunday? Become a part of this great fellowship of believers! You, too, can be a winner.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

If you were among the impatient string of motorists traveling M-15 last Thursday perhaps you would like to take a better look at the traffic obstructor. With a slight stretch of the imagination we could dub this, "a new concept in mobile homes."

However, we have a feeling that this mobile home will be fairly stationary in the future. The new site of the former Drayton Plains residence is now in Ottoville.

Candles . . . in the Making

By Gracemary Young

Candle making, a centuries old art, has been given a new and distinctive aspect by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goings of Davisburg. Pioneering a unique method of candle production the Goings have become distinguished for their colorful, hand-made beeswax candles.

Located on a 150 year old farm the Goings candle factory is the center for their personal production method. Each candle begins as bees wax - purchased by the ton - is polished to remove the bloom, a cloudy surface characteristic. The wax is then formed either into a candle of the desired length or into sheets to be cut into various decorations.

Both candles and decorations are dipped into any of twenty eight different colors. After dipping, the decorations are heated to precisely the required temperature then hand-molded to the main candle. Next the ends are put on, dipped in coloring, and then the completed candle is dipped finally to secure the pieces.

The candles are packaged in puncture proof plastic containers and sold in the Goings gift shop and stores throughout the United States and in Canada.

Because their candles are not made in the traditional manner, the Goings admit that they have experienced several difficulties. The exact temperature required for the various stages of production had to be found by long experimentation. In addition all the tools and machinery in the candle factory were designed by Mr. Goings as none of the type they required had been made before.

The Goings' first thoughts of the candle business came ten years ago when, as industrial gift purchasers, they were asked by a large auto firm to obtain candles. Unable to find any, Mr. Goings conceived the idea of his own candle business but did not realize this dream until three years ago when he began the candle factory. "Now we make more candles than anything else," said Mr. Goings.

New among their many varieties of candles are Mr. Goings' "Paintings in Wax". These molded candles, hand made by Goings at the rate of only sixteen a day, are each individuals. Multi-colored and textured they are truly distinctive works of art. In addition to "Paintings in Wax" the Goings also produce decorative seasonal as well as conventional candles for every decor. "It is their attractive colors which make our candles so desirable," said Mrs. Goings.

Creative and artistic their art works in wax are truly unique, both in method and design. In their own words, "They must be different - they shall not conform."

Behold, now is the acceptable time—(11 Cor. 6:2)

God's way for us is well defined—it is to live today, to look to Him for guidance, new ideas and abundant blessings. Let us resolve to live now and get the good out of every experience that comes to us. Let us not regret yesterday or look to tomorrow, but use all our energies, all our talents to build up our own spiritual life now—today.

Candle maker Charles Goings inspects one of his hand-made "Paintings in Wax."

Fair Art Show is Open Competition

All resident artists of Michigan are eligible this year to enter original works in the Art Exhibition at the State Fair, which opens Friday, August 27, and runs through Monday, September 6 (Labor Day).

In previous years, artists must have won awards at regional, museum or gallery exhibitions in the state.

Besides opening up the exhibition to all of the state's artists, the show has been expanded to three classes. They are oil-based media, water color-based media, and prints. The latter class is new this year. Three prizes - not purchase prizes - are to be awarded in each class. They are $125, $100, and $75.

One entry is allowed from each artist. Only works not previously shown at the State Fair are acceptable. Entry fee, which must accompany the entry blank, is $3. Entry blanks can be obtained from Mrs. Pauline Harris, Community Arts Department director, State Fair, Detroit, Michigan, 48208. Please specify Fine Arts entry blanks.

All works should be delivered to the Community Arts Building at the Fairgrounds on or before August 6. Judges then will choose the works for exhibition during the 11 days of the fair and will award the prizes.

New Phone for Mich. Bell

The new Trimline wall phone, with its dial-in-the-handset feature, fits out of the way locations that would be awkward for the standard wall phone. Because the dial, dial-tone button, receiver and mouth-piece nestle in the palm of the user's hand, the new phone can be installed in convenient spots such as under kitchen cabinets and counters. The new phone, being introduced by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, also is available as a desk model.

Mothers Reaching Goal

The working wife and mother, like her pioneer forebears, is seeking the best the world has to offer for her family and herself. It may not be the easiest way to live; but it has distinct advantages, according to a current report.

Findings include that she says she works for the money mostly, but also for stimulation and her main problem is finding time enough for everything that must be done. She's among 16,000,000 working women, according to the current issue of Changing Times magazine.

To survey working wives and mothers in 35 states the monthly Kiplinger publication joined with the Bureau of Laundry and Dry Cleaning and queried a random sample of about 600. Asked why they work, a solid 88% listed a financial consideration first. The three most frequent were: to provide better living for the family; provide for the children's education; and, to get out of debt.

Even those working for financial consideration revealed a secondary interest when asked in another question "why do women like to work outside the home?" Replies were heavily weighted with such comments as "it keeps them young."

Although 63% of the wives report they are able to get the necessary tasks done at home with a feeling of satisfaction and a minimum of fatigue, they candidly admit that they don't have enough time.

Half of those surveyed think "schools should place more emphasis on the dual role of a working wife or mother," and they readily say why: "Schools are unrealistic in educating girls - most women are trained for one role or the other, but never for both." Almost unanimously, they think girls should be taught to budget time as part of their education.

Lacking the extra hours, how do they cope? More than half report that they get help from husbands and children. In addition, they use an average of three outside services apiece. Most common are dry cleaning and laundry, home delivery of dairy products, and beauty parlors.

Despite the lack of enough hours in the day, 67% of the mothers told Changing Times they manage to have some unhurried time for each child. Although only 50% have unhurried time for themselves, they do manage to read an average of three magazines regularly and to participate in church or community activities.

CLARKSTON WOMAN ON TOUR IN BRITAIN

Pictured at Buckingham Palace during a tour of London is Mrs. Ruth Leece of Middlelake Road, Clarkston, who is visiting Britain on a summer tour. With other members of the group, Mrs. Leece recently arrived on the S.S. France and is spending several days exploring the famous capital, London, visiting the many historic landmarks and colourful daily ceremonies. They have also toured the Shakespeare country in Warwickshire, visiting Stratford-upon-Avon and Warwick Castle as well as the university city of Oxford in Oxfordshire. A visit to the Tower of London, with its amazing history and traditions was one of the highlights of their stay in London. Their visit to Buckingham Palace, home of the Royal family, coincided with the state visit of the President of Chile and the streets of Westminster were gaily decorated with flags and bunting for the occasion.

Father Performs Wedding Ceremony

Wedding vows were exchanged by Mary Lynn Hinz and Robert Vankleek at a lawn wedding before a rose covered arbor, July 31. Rev. Allan Hinz, father of the bride performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white brocade taffeta featuring an empress waistline, and complimented by a finger-tip illusion veil held by a tiara of crystals. Carrying a cascade of roses, feathered carnations, and stephanotis, she was escorted by her brother Lannie Hinz.

Sandra Bandy, maid of honor, wore a buttercup yellow gown of brocade taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet of white shasta daisies.

Serving as best man was Kenneth Reger, with Roger Vankleek and Gary Bandy seating the 200 guests.

"Because," and "My Wedding Prayer," were sang by soloist, Dorothy Wyllie, who was accompanied at the organ by Hazel Griffin.

The mother of the bride chose a turquoise embroidered silk dress, complimented by a corsage of pink roses and carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore an ensemble of off-white metallic. A corsage of yellow roses and carnations completed the effect.

"The Five," from Detroit, provided music for dancing following a buffet supper at the wedding reception held at the Clarkston Community building.

Parents of the couple are Rev. and Mrs. Allan Hinz of Waterford, and Mr. and Mrs. Eston Vankleek of Pontiac.

All persons will be admitted free to the Michigan State Fair until 8 a.m. Sunday, August 29, the day of the Sunrise Service. The Fair runs from August 27 through September 6.

Know Your Michigan Law

An earlier article in this series discussed the right of a former landowner to get back his property after it had been forfeited to the State for nonpayment of taxes.

Another situation which sometimes occurs involves a landowner who has paid his taxes but through an error on the part of the local assessor has had his land deeded to the State of Michigan without his knowledge because the taxes, though paid, had not been properly recorded. While a taxpayer is under an obligation to make certain that he pays the taxes on his own property, it is obviously unfair to hold him accountable for errors due to the negligent administration of the tax law.

The law protects a landowner who pays his taxes even though a statute provides that he must file an action to set aside the deed to the State within one year after he has notice of the fact that it was erroneously deeded.

In a recent case the owner of the north part of a parcel of land failed to pay the taxes due on his portion while the owner of the south part did pay his taxes and was not in default. Due to a mistake made by the local assessor the entire parcel was returned delinquent and through tax foreclosure proceedings the entire parcel was deeded to the State of Michigan.

The Conservation Department which has jurisdiction over all property reverting to the State of Michigan for delinquent taxes offered the entire property at a public auction. The former owner of the north part matched the high bid — a privilege available to him by law. The deed given to him by the State contained the same description appearing in the Auditor General's petition for the sale of the property which included the south part on which the taxes had been paid.

Upon learning the fact that a deed was outstanding against his property, the owner of the south part, who had paid his taxes, immediately requested that the sale be cancelled.

The Michigan Supreme Court held that no valid lien for taxes attached to that part on which the taxes had been paid. Therefore, no jurisdiction was acquired for the tax sale and consequently a decree taking the land from the owner who paid his taxes was not proper.

under the law, any taxpayer who has paid his property tax only to have it improperly assessed a second time may request the Auditor General to set aside the second tax assessment.

What type of title a purchaser acquires from the State will be discussed in a future article in this series.

AT THE FAIR

Clarkston CAP Wins Recognition

Cadets from the Clarkston Area have returned from the Michigan Wing, Civil Air Patrol Cadet Summer Encampment held at Selfridge AFB, Michigan July 10-18.

Three of the Clarkston cadets received Encampment promotions: Cadet Robert Grace, 5234 Sashabaw Rd., Clarkston was appointed Cadet Major and served as Squadron Executive Officer of the male Squadron.

John Bushart, 4861 Pontiac Lake Rd., Pontiac, was appointed Cadet 1 Lt. and served as Squadron Adjutant. Cadet Kathy Eudis of Clarkston was appointed Cadet/1 Lt and was Flight Commander of a Flight of 25 female cadets. Miss Eudis filled her position so capably that her Flight was selected the Honor Flight of the Encampment on the basis of cadet behavior, military courtesy, inspection reports and drilling ability. The Honor Flight was that group with the best showing each day. They were invited by the 1st Air Police to stand Retreat each afternoon at the Wing Operations Building at Selfridge.

During the encampment the cadets attended classes, tours and demonstrations conducted by Air Force personnel which familiarized the cadets with the many important phases of the operations carried out at Selfridge. All were taken on an orientation flight in a C-47 by Major R. W. Nyles, Encampment Project Officer. The cadets were also invited to witness a Broken Arrow Exercise which simulated the firefighting, evacuation and decontaminating processes used by Air Force crews when informed that a plane with a nuclear device aboard had crashed. Smoke bombs indicated to the observers the progress of the "disaster". Briefing on the exercise was conducted by Captain Charles Klann, Encampment Commander.

The Encampment's mission — to help cadets of Civil Air Patrol learn the mission of the Air Force — was successfully accomplished with the splendid help and cooperation of the Air Force personnel at Selfridge Air Force Base.
