

Frank Crowley Supporting Activities Center in Park

State Representative Francis A. Crowley, D., of Clarkston, who has been known to challenge his colleagues from his wheelchair, to sprint races on the Capitol grounds, is backing a bill in the House of Representatives which will enhance the opportunities of thousands of children to play and learn together in Oakland County's Proud Lake State Park.

"My bill, No. 3722, would appropriate $75,000 for the construction of an activities center in the park," said Representative Crowley. "Such a facility is indispensable if we are to fulfill our responsibilities in this area."

"Thousands of children who share in nature classes each year are now required to improvise their own dining facilities. Because of crowded conditions, displays which are set up as part of educational programs must be dismantled before each meal. On rainy days the quarters are so overcrowded that the purposes of the program are defeated."

"We talk about keeping kids on the right road, but too often we do not give them much of a choice. A concentrated effort is being made during classes of a full week, to acquaint young people with the important aspects of conservation. The school systems provide the instructors and the Conservation Department assists in the programming."

Representative Crowley said that he plans to hold a legislative public hearing on the park grounds, which would give members of the House Conservation Committee and other legislators, the opportunity to see the program in action and to assess the need for this improvement.

"A visit to the camp is a thrilling experience," Representative

Crowley continued. "The kids are sometimes so busy chasing squirrels and chipmunks that an old-time round-up is required to get them in for meals. Graduation day finds the youngsters reluctant to leave and tears are not uncommon. A wonderful week at Proud Lake is an experience which the children will remember for the rest of their lives."

"The roster of Proud Lake classes includes the names of such well-known families as Romney and Swainson, who took their turns on K.P. detail."

"I am certain that my fellow legislators will rally around in support of this wonderful cause."

Jaycees Have Regional Meet

Three state vice presidents and a national director were elected Wednesday, March 30, at a regional Jaycee meeting held at the Pine Knob Resort.

Among the three elected vice presidents was Lewis Wint, Clarkston funeral director and past president of the Clarkston Jaycees.

Others elected were Carl Braun of Madison Heights and Charles Parks of the Milford Jaycees.

Howard Baker of the Royal Oak Chapter was named national director for region G, which includes all of Oakland County.

Acting as MC for the regional program was present state vice president Ted McCullough, Jr. of the Waterford Jaycees.

Over three hundred Jaycees were present at the meeting.

Jack Skriden, President of the Michigan Jaycees gave the keynote address which included a progress

A quiet moment for Frank Crowley, in front of the fireplace at his home on Deer Lake Rd. in Clarkston.

Increased $20,000 Residents Approve New Budget Totaling $195,738

A budget of $195,738.00 was accepted during the annual meeting of the Independence Township Board Saturday afternoon.

Twenty-eight residents were on hand to approve the budget which exceeded last year's by approximately $20,000.

Pay increases for Clerk Howard Altman and Treasurer Kenneth Johnson totaled $500 each. This brings Altman's salary to $8,500 and Johnson's to $7,500.

Clerical help in the township offices received a five dollar a week increase, which accounts for nearly $2,000 of the increase in the budget.

Altman suggested the possibility of a Township police department within a year as he mentioned the possibility of furnishing the assessing department with a car.

This would give the township three cars which could double as police cars.

Revamping of the heating system and repairs to the Township Hall roof and parking lot account for $5,000 of the increase, while the need for two additional voting machines at nearly $2,000 each tallies another $4,000.

$5,000 a year salary for a Township librarian plus monies needed for expanding the library facilities account for approximately $7,000 increase in library expenses.

The salary of Supervisor Duane Hursfall remained at $9,500, while assessor, William Cobb receives a $7,000 salary.

Trustees Merle Bennett and Harold Bauer will continue to receive $1,200 each year.

Expense accounts for the supervisor, clerk, treasurer and assessor total $3,200, while $12,000 was allotted for police patrol by the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

$4,000 was allowed for legal expenses with the total for clerical salaries amounting to $28,000.

New Sewerage Contracts Soon

"We are trying to work out problems in various sections of the contract as it was originally drafted," explained Donald Ringler when asked what was delaying the sewerage proposal.

Mr. Ringler is Deputy Director of the Department of Public Works in Oakland County.

The sewerage proposal from the DPW involves seven municipalities besides Independence Township.

"We should be able to remit new contracts to the municipalities within two weeks," Ringler anticipated.

"It is conceivable that the project could start within six months (if the new contracts are accepted) and be completed a year after that," he said.

Mr. Ringler emphasized that the eighteen month completion date could only be met if there are no problems obtaining the easements for the trunk line.

Clarkston Man in OU Production

The Meadow Brook Theatre Guild at Oakland University will present Pirandello's "Six Characters in Search of an Author" Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, April 7-9.

Written in 1925, the play deals with an artist's struggle to determine the difference between illusion and reality. The artist is Pirandello himself, into whose imagination walks a family of six characters who refuse to leave until he has set their drama down on paper.

"Six Characters in Search of an Author" was revived on Broadway several seasons ago and proved to be one of the most successful productions of recent theatrical history.

A Clarkston man, John Slade will play the son.

The OU production will be presented in the Little Theatre in the Sports and Recreation Building. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m., and tickets may be purchased at the door or at the Oakland University Activities Center desk.

Township to Revoke Bar's License

Steps are under way to revoke the class "C" license held by Nicholas Manzella, owner of a lounge by the same name.

Independence Township Supervisor Duane Hursfall moved that proper steps be taken to revoke the license. Trustee Merle Bennett seconded the motion which was then unanimously approved by Trustee Bauer, Clerk Altman and Treasurer Johnson.

The Board made their decision following a hearing last night (Wednesday) at the Township Annex building.

The alleged beating of John Adams, a postal employee in Clarkston, at the Manzella Lounge on March 18 was the reason for the hearing.

David Hertler, attorney for Nicholas Manzella, requested that the Township Board wait on their decision (whether or not to ask for the revocation of the class "C" license) until other witnesses for Manzella could be heard in court April 21.

John Adams was the first to take the witness stand. Independence Township attorney Paul Mandell asked the questions on behalf of the Board.

"What time did you arrive on the premises (Manzella's Lounge)?"

"9:45 . . . with four members of our bowling team."

"They (the four) left about 11:30."

"What time did your wife arrive?"

"About 10:30."

"What were you and your wife doing?"

"Talking with a friend, Joe Perry."

Mr. Adams explained that he ran out of matches and left his table and walked to the end of the bar and asked Mr. Manzella (Nick) for some matches.

According to Adams, Nick said "Get the from behind the bar!" Adams said he then returned to his table without the matches.

He went on to say that neither his wife nor Mr. Perry smoke so they didn't have matches.

Mr. Adams said he returned to the bar and asked Mr. Manzella again for some matches.

Then, he continued, "I was shoved — by Tony (Manzella)."

"Then I was taken to the men's room and beaten."

"Who took you in?" asked Mandell.

"Tony and Nick."

"I was beaten and held at the neck. Tony held my neck and they were both hitting me."

According to Adams, Mr. Perry then came and forced the restroom door open so people could see in.

"I was in the corner," Adams continued. "When Mr. Perry opened the door they stopped hitting me."

At this point Tony Manzella allegedly took Adams toward an exit where Adams went through a plate glass partition and sustained cuts on five parts on his body.

He was taken to the hospital where approximately fifty stitches were required to close the wounds.

According to witnesses, Adams' face was badly beaten.

Witnesses who attended the hearing in the Adams' defense were Jerry Scarborough, Mary Newman, Joe Perry and Owen Betser.

Mrs. Darlene Talbot, a bartender at Manzella's Lounge, testified on Manzella's behalf.

According to her, Mr. Adams went behind the bar and asked for matches, which she said she gave to him.

She then testified that Nick Manzella told Adams to step from behind the bar. With this, she said, Adams said something like 'do you think you're big enough to make me?'

Nicholas Manzella took the stand next in his own defense.

Manzella stated he couldn't "remember the man (Adams) being at my bar before."

Manzella continued, "He (Adams) went behind the bar approximately ten to 12 feet."

"Mr. Adams went behind the bar apparently to get matches."

"I asked him would he please step from behind the bar."

According to Manzella, Adams returned to his table and came back about five minutes later.

"When he came back the second time he was hostile."

"My brother got him by the collar and took him into the restroom."

"I went in with my brother."

"Mr. Adams grabbed my brother by the throat, kicked him, and that started the fight."

Mandel asked, "Did you strike Mr. Adams?"

"No!"

"Did you grab Mr. Adams?"

"No!"

"Did you grab Tony?"

"Yes!"

"Did you call an ambulance?"

"My brother went to the phone to call State Police. I assume he called the ambulance, I don't know."

"How long has your brother been working for you?"

"Nine months — since I opened."

Manzella admitted he made no effort to stop Tony from taking Mr. Adams into the restroom.

"Did you make a statement to your brother — 'Get him (Adams) out of the place?'"

"I'd have to say no to that."

Manzella insisted throughout his testimony that he didn't lay a hand on Adams.

Mandel finished his questioning with, "Did you make a statement to the Township Board when they were considering giving you the class 'C' license, that you would not hire your brother (Tony)?"

"I did not."

With this, Supervisor Hursfall, asked Manzella if there had not been discussion between he and the Board as to the hiring of his brother Angelo (or Tony).

The Board did not feel Tony should be allowed to work for Nicholas Manzella.

"Yes," he admitted, there had been such a discussion.

Mr. Adams officially filed charges against the two brothers. The charge against Angelo Manzella claims assault with intent to do great bodily harm, with the lesser charge of assault and battery charged against his brother Nicholas, who is the owner and operator of the Manzella's Lounge.

Angelo Manzella will appear before Independence Township Justice Robert Carr on April 21 for pretrial examination, and Nicholas Manzella for trial to the charge which is a misdemeanor.

Brandon Voters Reject Annexation

Brandon residents knew what they wanted and the way to get it.

Of the 1,600 registered Brandon Township voters 1,089 took the time April 4, to vote on the proposed question of annexing their school district with Clarkston.

Final tally showed 888 against the annexation, with 221 for the proposal.

Mandel finished his questioning with, "Did you make a statement to the Township Board when they were considering giving you the class 'C' license, that you would not hire your brother (Tony)?"

"I did not."

With this, Supervisor Hursfall, asked Manzella if there had not been discussion between he and the Board as to the hiring of his brother Angelo (or Tony).

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST
Oxford, Michigan

The ministry of Christ Jesus, his crucifixion according to St. Luke, and the resurrection account from John, form the basis for this Sunday's Bible Lesson at Christian Science church services.

Responsive Reading from Isaiah will include this verse: "Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense: he will come and save you."

Passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy) will include these lines:

"There were rock-ribbed walls in the way, and a great stone must be rolled from the cave's mouth; but Jesus vanquished every material obstacle, overcame every law of matter, and stepped forth from his gloomy resting-place, crowned with the glory of a sublime success, an everlasting victory. He proved Life to be deathless and Love to be the master of hate."
Subject of the Lesson-Sermon: "ARE SIN, DISEASE, AND DEATH REAL?"

Reaching Out

Serenity

Be still, and know that I am God. Psalm 46:10.

That fortunate man endowed with real strength of will is able ever to live nobly and happily within the security and serenity of his own mind. Whenever the sea of life is tempestuous he can, because of the compliance of his will with the Will of God, ride safely at anchor in a calm haven. He can look about him and with an even mind cope with the chance and change of life, never abating the least of his inner peace.

In him is seen that quality of mind that was in Jesus, springing as it surely did from His consciousness of God, the highest in the whole bosom of humanity.

In great quietness Jesus stood before Pilate on that fateful Friday long ago, secure in the conviction that though His body might be destroyed, yet would His living spirit ultimately move all men into His Kingdom of the pure and gentle heart wherein compassion and goodwill rule supreme, where the least will be heard with the greatest and wherein will be God's Peace for all men, from the great River to the ends of the earth.

OUR FATHER: We would see Jesus, Grant unto us, we beseech Thee, the incomparable gift of a trace of that consciousness of Thyself with which He was endowed, that we may truly be at peace with Thee. AMEN.

Letter to the Editor

Appreciation of 'Dr. Jim' Expressed by Family

Dear Editor:

With all the controversial articles in print these days, it hardly seems important that a letter such as mine be printed, but, I truly hope it will be. For it seems that in a busy dash-about world we sometimes forget to take the time to say a kind word to those who are the most important to us, and to our families.

Therefore, I wish to take this moment out of a very busy day to sit down and MAKE TIME to bestow thanks upon a man who truly deserves not only our praise, but the praise and thanks of his entire community, his friends and all those children who love him.

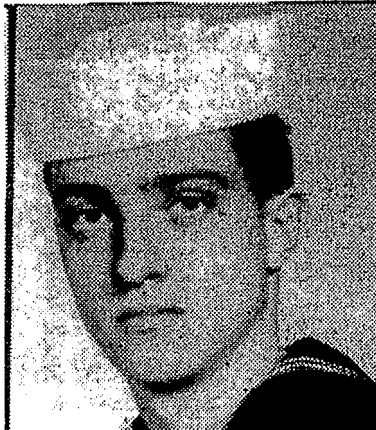

I speak of a young doctor living in our midst who does not know what it is like to go to bed and have one night of uninterrupted sleep. A man so dedicated to his calling that he never complains when he is aroused at 2 or 5 a.m. or goes without his breakfast to dash off to the hospital on an emergency.

How many doctors today will see a sick child immediately without an "appointment" or make you wait in his reception room hours on end rocking a sick child in your arms? Not many I am sure. How many good old fashioned doctors are left today that when called at any hour of the night will jump into his car and make a house call? Many of us think this is a thing of the past... and so it has seemed to be. And how many doctors can you call during their office hours when a frantic mother needs advice... not 5-6 hours later but THEN! How many open their office at the wee hours of the morning to take care of an emergency or less serious cases -- not too many I am sure.

When a doctor dedicates himself to Pediatrics he dedicates not only himself but his wife, his family and most of his friends. Most assuredly this man is not able to lead a normal family life. Perhaps the fact that being a parent helps a doctor to know a parent and all their mental anguish when it comes to a sick child. This must be so to give week after week of devoted and loving care to the children of others.

Airman Completes Aviation Course

Airman Apprentice Lewis R. Bierwirth, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Bierwirth of 264 N. Baldwin, Clarkston, has completed the Aviation Familiarization course at the Naval Air Technical Training Center in Memphis, Tenn.

The two-week course included the history of naval aviation, theory of flight, aircraft carriers and operations, cleaning and inspecting aircraft, survival evasion tactics, parachutes and jump techniques.

When a child will smile and "ask" to go see a doctor when sick... this bestows upon a doctor the highest of all honors... a small child's confidence, not too easily won. This is how it is with our children to say nothing of hundreds of others that make weekly or periodic visits to see their "Dr. Jim".

gratitude. They say marriages are made in "heaven" -- but we all know REAL and DEVOTED men such as yourself are made there too.

Sincerely,
The Swanson Family

Amblyopia Is Threat to Children's Eyes

Thousands of preschool children are afflicted with amblyopia . . . and each year hundreds pass the point beyond which they can be helped.

What is amblyopia? Amblyopia - often called lazy blindness - is not a disease but rather a failure to learn how to see. Until about three months of age, an infant sees with only one eye at a time. His brain cannot yet handle the images which come to it from both eyes. Eventually, he finds that if he overlaps these images in his brain, he sees more clearly. This overlapping - called fusion - is usually learned by the age of six months. But the child is two years old before the technique is fixed firmly.

With amblyopia fusion is never learned. The image from one eye is blurred by some disorder - perhaps farsightedness, a strabismus, or a muscle of the afflicted eye being too long or too short. So, when the child tries to fuse this image with that of his good eye, he does not see as well. So he suppresses the blurry image of his weak eye, and in so doing, he stops it from developing.

As a parent, you may find it difficult to detect amblyopia in your child, for his eyes may appear straight, bright, clear and often escape detection in many types of medical examination. And since no child knows how he should be seeing, he usually accepts his visual problem without complaint.

But your suspicions should become aroused if you notice him blink or frown at an object, close one eye, rub it, or tilt his head to look at something.

Even if these symptoms do not appear, all children should have an eye examination by the age of three or four - especially children born prematurely and those whose parents have amblyopia, a high degree of nearsightedness, or astigmatism. This age is vital because the development of vision stops by the age of six or seven. After that the amblyopic eye can no longer learn, and any attempt to correct it is long, costly and frequently useless.

Once the condition of amblyopia is diagnosed, your doctor can begin treatment immediately. Whatever treatment he recommends - whether it be glasses, exercise or minor surgery - amblyopia can be corrected. Although it may take a year or two to strengthen the weak eye, treatment at age three or four is almost 100 per cent effective.

No Injuries in Six Accidents

State Police

Thomas Moore, 4705 Sunfale, Clarkston, who had stopped at a traffic light at 10th and W. on Monday, April 4, was struck on the rear side by a car which was unable to stop in time and was driven into the ground.

The car, a 1965 Buick Wildcat, was driven by William J. Moore, 4705 Sunfale, Clarkston.

The driver of the Buick, William J. Moore, was not injured. The car was damaged.

Richard D. 6128 Ottonville Rd., Clarkston, claimed a car driven by a driver of Waterford, attempted to pass him on the right, and struck his car and subsequently drove into a ditch.

Mrs. D. stated he did not know who made contact with the Buick at the scene.

Mrs. Farise had started to pass a car when she noticed the Buick in the rear view mirror. She was struck on the rear side by the Buick but lost control of her car and hit the bottom of the ditch.

Both cars were unable to stop in time to avoid the collision.

Passengers in the Karen car were Pamela Moore and Doris Loney.

The accident occurred April 2 on I-75, north of US 10.

Insurance Hike Mirrors State's Safety Record

The substantial increase in automobile insurance rates announced by the Automobile Club of Michigan recently was described by Secretary of State James M. Hare as "merely a barometer of the trend."

Hare predicted other companies would follow suit.

"Insurance rate increases tend to follow the traffic safety pattern of the state," Hare said. "Our inability to hold down deaths, injuries, and accidents in Michigan continue to be reflected in rising premiums."

He said there was a single answer to the insurance rate problem - cut death and injury tolls.

"This can be done, but only if we employ the same methods used in the states that have better safety records."

He cited periodic motor vehicle inspection, applied consent law governing drinking drivers, improvement in driver licensing procedures and a method of controlling Michigan's "accident-prone" driver as four of the "most needed" programs.

Talent Show Has Enthusiastic Audience

Both sides of the footlights were pleasantly packed for the Toyland Fantasy Talent Show, held March 31 and April 1 at the Clarkston High School's Little Theater. On one side sat an appreciative audience and on the other an abundance of performing talent. Getting the show off to its successful start was this Rag Doll Trio consisting of Julie Wilford as Raggedy Ann, Tootie Robinson as Raggedy Andy and Annie Birtsas in the role of the little moppet.

Crime just has to pay when these eight Senior High School girls set out to sleuth. Top left to right are: Gale Getzan, Darlene Craven, Heidi Buehrig, Sue Peters

Know Your Michigan Law

By Attorney General Frank J. Kelley

(This is a public service article explaining in general terms a provision of Michigan law. Individuals who wish to determine the effect of any law upon their private legal affairs should consult a private attorney.)

In Michigan, as in most other states, a peace officer is authorized to request the aid of private citizens to aid him in serving process in civil or criminal cases, preserving the peace and in apprehending or securing any person for felony or breach of the peace. Any person failing to respond to a peace officer's request for aid is guilty of a misdemeanor and is liable to punishment by a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment for not more than 90 days.

On the other hand, a private citizen who responds to the call of one whom he knows to be a police officer is protected against suits for trespass and false arrest if he confines himself to the order and direction of the officer. This is true even though the officer may, himself, be acting illegally and thus liable for false arrest. Likewise, a private citizen communicating any information concerning the commission of a crime to the proper officials is protected against being sued for libel or slander.

Understandably, perhaps, many citizens are reluctant to become involved. This reluctance has recently been dramatized by news articles detailing the failure of bystanders to not only come to the aid of innocent victims of crime, but of their failure to call the police as well. However, if crime is to be dealt with effectively, then we must discharge our rights and responsibilities.

Of recent date I have suggested legislation for indemnification of the victims of crime or their families in certain cases, particularly where a person has suffered as a result of coming to the aid of an officer. I am pleased that the initial reaction to this suggestion is gaining wide acceptance. Legislation embodying my idea has already been introduced into the 1966 Legislature.

School Mergers Are Popular

Consolidations have reduced the number of school districts in Michigan from nearly 2,900 in 1957 to 1,100 today, the Michigan Department of Education reports.

A Day in the Life of a Page in Lansing

By Mark Hood

The life of a senate page begins early in the morning and sometimes lasts late in the evening.

There are certain duties he must perform before the day's session begins.

Among his responsibilities are the delivery of official legislature printing, maintaining decorum in the balconies during the session, and doing many official errands for the Lt. Governor, the officers and members of the senate.

He works closely with the Sgt. at Arms and helps to maintain privacy in party caucuses (strategy meetings) and officiates at public hearings.

They (the senate pages) inform the public of the various bills on the calendar for the day, and try to assist the many people who visit the capital each day.

The filing of bills, journals and calendars are just a few of the many everyday tasks which the senate pages are held responsible for.

A sponsor is always necessary before becoming a senate page. My sponsor was our state senator, the distinguished chairman of the conservation committee, Carl W. O'Brien. He has helped me in many ways in Lansing, with assistance in senate research and school work.

There is a proud heritage which a page gains through working with so many great men in our state capital. He receives the help of many of our lawmakers.

The page learns to help others as well as himself.

Even after a long day's session in the senate, a page must open his books and begin his studies so that he will keep even with his classes and weekly schedule at home.

My experiences in the senate have given me many happy moments. I have met such people as Gov. George Romney, Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Philip Hart the U.S. Senator, Lazzie Russell, Oliver Darden and many others.

I have learned to respect people's feelings and the people themselves, more than ever before in my life.

I shall always cherish my days in the Michigan State Senate, and in serving the people of the State of Michigan in this small way.

Announce Promotions at Pontiac State

Milo J. Cross, Chairman and Edward E. Barker, Jr. President of Pontiac State Bank announced two promotions today.

Robert D. Terry of 423 Parkdale, Rochester, an assistant Vice-President, has been named Personnel Director. He has been an employee of the bank for ten years and has been Manager of the Auburn Heights Office for two years.

Stuart E. Galbraith of 1950 South Hammond Lake Road, Bloomfield Township, an Assistant Cashier, was named Manager of the Auburn Heights Office. He has spent the last ten years with Pontiac State in various capacities including Manager of the Miracle Mile Office.

Cross and Barker stated that the promotions were in line with the bank's ever increasing expansion program, which includes the opening of three new offices in 1966, making a total of seven new offices in a twenty four month period.

Bag and baggage come and go each Monday and Friday with Mark Hood, as he carries on his active schedule as a Senate page in Lansing.

House Gutted by Fire

A forgotten cigarette left to smolder was the apparent cause of a fire at the Earl Winters residence at 4235 Meyers Road.

Fire, smoke and water completely destroyed the interior of the lakefront home.

Independence Township firemen answered the call at 3:09 p.m. March 31.

CAP Cadets at Ceremony

Parents of Civil Air Patrol cadets, members of the 9613th Air Force Reserve Squadron and Oakland County Group, C.A.P. attended the Recognition Night ceremony presented by Clarkson Composite Squadron on March 30.

To demonstrate how the classroom portion of an achievement is conducted, Major R. G. Lawson, USAFR, presented an accelerated lesson in "Aircraft in Flight", the current achievement in which cadets are participating.

Lt. James B. Hubbell, Squadron Commander, presented the Gen. J. F. Curry Ribbon and an appointment to Cadet/Basic to Cadet Simon Worden. The Captain Eddie Rickenbacker Ribbon and promotions were presented to cadets: Paul Hoxsie, C/2C; Gary Klann, C/1C; Tim Little, C/3C; Leonard Mann, C/1C; Stewart Moore, C/TSgt; Timothy Morris, C/TSgt; and Simon Worden, C/3C.

Local Postmaster Attends School

Postmaster Elizabeth Ronk of Clarkson has just returned from East Lansing, Mich., where she spent two days at the 5th Annual Postmasters Seminar. The school is sponsored by the Michigan Chapter, National Association of Postmasters in cooperation with the Chicago Regional Office of the Post Office Department.

This is a voluntary school that may be attended by any Postmaster in the lower peninsula of Michigan and entirely at the expense of each attending postmaster. A competent staff of instructors from the Regional office, assisted by some of the Postmasters, conducted classes in various subjects. These refresher courses each year not only help postmasters keep abreast of constant changes in postal operations, but afford an opportunity to compare notes with and exchange ideas with many of the 458 Postmasters from throughout the State who also attended the school. An opportunity also was presented to discuss individual problems with the various department heads from the Regional office.

Women's Golf League Meeting

The annual pre-season meeting of the Clarkson Woman's Golf League will be held Tuesday April 12 at 9:30 a.m., at the Clarkson Golf Club, on Eston Rd. in Clarkson.

All previous members and any women interested in joining are urged to attend. There will be discussions of old and new rules.

A pro will be available for those interested in taking lessons.

If interested, but cannot attend that morning please call MA 5-5721 or FE 8-2217.

Plans are now well underway for the 1966 Elementary Softball Program sponsored by the Waterford Recreation Department. Program director, Bill Wood expects approximately 50 teams to compete in this year's program with ideally a boys and a girls team representing each elementary school in the township.

The boys and girls divisions, as last year, will be divided into four geographic districts for regular season play with semi final, and final playoff action following.

Each entry will play two games weekly with the boys teams playing on Wednesday evenings and Saturday mornings, and the girls seeing action on Tuesday evenings and Saturday afternoons beginning April 16.

The boys division has been set for 7 p.m. Monday April 4 at the Schoolcraft School while the girls pilots will meet at the same place on Wednesday, April 6 at 7 p.m.

Donelson is the defending champion of the boys' division while the girls of Jayno Adams took the 1965 girls' crown.

We have a problem with our Catalina we just can't fix. It looks expensive.

It looks so expensive that a lot of people don't realize it's priced right down there within reach of most low price buyers. Which sort of makes you wonder why you should buy a low-priced car when you can buy a high-priced car for the same money. A Pontiac Catalina.

Wide-Track Pontiac Catalina
(A big, powerful Pontiac for less than $3000*)

Manufacturer's suggested retail price for 2- and 4-door sedans and 2- and 4-door hardtops are all less than $3000. These prices include excise tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge. Transportation charges, state and local taxes, accessories and optional equipment additional.

Don't Be Afraid of ECG's

Has your doctor's suggestion that you have an "ECG" left you terror-stricken?

If so, it shouldn't. ECG — the abbreviation for electrocardiogram — is merely his way of tracing the activity of your heart electronically. From this tracing he can tell a great deal about the activity of your heart:

1. If it is beating with a regular or irregular rhythm.
2. If it is beating too fast or too slow.
3. Where and how much it was damaged following a heart attack.
4. How the action of drugs — especially quinidine for restoring normal rhythm and digitalis for restoring normal speed — are affecting it.
5. Whether there is a strain on either side of it.
6. If you have suffered a very mild or "silent" heart attack.

How does the ECG reveal all of these secrets? The answers lies in the action of the heart itself. When a person is at rest, the only muscular activity of any importance is the alternate contraction and expansion of the heart. Like a large, throbbing transmitter, the heart sends electric current in waves all over the body. It is these waves that are picked up by pairs of small electrical conductors on the ECG and transmitted on a calibrated, moving sheet to form an electrocardiogram.

Usually the conductors — called leads — are connected to the forearms, left leg and chest near the heart. Each series of waves makes an electrical record of the changes that take place with one beat of the heart. Because only one wave may be abnormal in the presence of heart disease, more than one lead is necessary to make an accurate diagnosis.

Despite the great value of the ECG, it does not give all the necessary information about the condition of the heart. For example, it cannot tell for certain if the heart is all right or strong. When evaluated along with heart X-rays, exercise tests, heart sounds and blood tests, however, it helps your doctor to diagnose the exact condition of your heart with great accuracy. With this information he can be alerted to trouble early spare your heart for years to come.

So, if your physician has advised an ECG, be glad he did.

Dom Mauti Attends Meeting

Dominic Mauti is among the more than 4,000 educators who attended the 71st annual meeting of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools March 28-March 30, at the Palmer House, Chicago. Mr. Mauti, who is Assistant Principal at the Clarkston Senior High School, attended sessions which were devoted to a comprehensive survey of education's response to society's needs.

During the NCA meetings, special attention was focused on curriculum reform, urban schools and their problems, the task of educating disadvantaged youth, the implications of new Federal legislation, the vital impact of good subject matter programs for high schools, and new developments in the college disciplines.

Veneral Disease is a Serious National Threat

Veneral disease is spreading so rapidly that it now represents this nation's most urgent communicable disease problem.

VD is hitting particularly hard among teenagers and young adults, according to the American Medical Association.

The veneral diseases are infecting about two Americans a minute — 3,000 a day, or 1,100,000 a year. Cases of infectious syphilis have already tripled in this country in the past five years. More than a million new cases of gonorrhea are developing annually.

VD can blind, cripple, and even kill.

The ravages of veneral diseases are all needless tragedy, says the AMA, because both syphilis and gonorrhea can be avoided. If contracted, they can be cured by prompt medical treatment.

The cure for both diseases — penicillin — has been available since 1943. Any family physician or public health clinic can administer prompt treatment.

Veneral disease is caused by intimate personal contact.

Complacency, ignorance, and a free-and-easy attitude toward moral standards are partly responsible for the spread of VD; the increasing use of alcohol, especially among young people, also plays a role.

A person may contract syphilis and be unaware that he has the disease. After the first symptoms, the germs may remain hidden in the body for as long as 20 years before any damage is discovered.

Then the person may become crippled, develop heart disease, blood vessel disease, blindness, or show mental symptoms. Even death may result from this hidden stage of syphilis.

Authorities believe, however, that thousands of young people simply aren't aware of the dangers of VD. Once infected, they are complacent about treatment.

One of the first signs of syphilis may be a painless, ulcerating sore. Gonorrhea produces inflammation of the genital and urinary tracts, and a discharge of pus.

As these maps are considered of no value to the Clarkston area they will not be included in their new directories.

It will take 3,000 distributors about three weeks to deliver the books in the metropolitan area communities. Clarkston residents will receive theirs in the mail.

Michigan Bell Distributing Books

Michigan Bell Telephone Company began distribution of its 1966 directory last week in the metropolitan area.

Included in the distribution of more than 3.5 million directories are 417,000 North area books for 49 Oakland County communities.

These directories will not be automatically sent to Clarkston residents, however eight hundred and seventy one phone owners had applied two years ago for these directories and will receive them.

Anyone wishing one sent that is not on this previous list may call the business office to make the application.

Telephone customers who need one or both of the other two area white pages directories East and West-Downriver — may also obtain them through the business office.

For the first time, a page of individualized maps in color has been included to help the telephone user determine if he's making a local, message unit or long distance call.

As these maps are considered of no value to the Clarkston area they will not be included in their new directories.

It will take 3,000 distributors about three weeks to deliver the books in the metropolitan area communities. Clarkston residents will receive theirs in the mail.
