Teachers, Board agree

Monday night the Clarkston Board of Education and a negotiating team for the Clarkston Education Association reached an agreement on a master contract covering one year. Copies of the contract were sent to the teachers, Tuesday.

On July 25 a teacher's meeting will be held to ratify the contract. "Lawyers for the Education Association stated that there must be a real fine relationship between the teachers and the Board." They recommend that this contract be ratified.

June Building Permit value rises sharply

During the month of June there were 49 building permits issued in Independence township. These 49 permits had a total value of $464,100.

The Building Department report for the township showed that permits were issued for the construction of 16 new houses. These homes will have a value of $334,050. There were also permits granted for the building of 11 residential garages. The garages were to have a combined valuation of $20,400.

One service station will be constructed in the township with a value of $24,000 and a retail store permit was issued. Value of the structure is to be $30,000.

In addition there were to be 19 additions and alterations, which would be miscellaneous construction work. These represent a total of $55,650. One demolition project was also granted a permit.

The total value of permits was up $131,975 over those issued for the month of May.

No injuries recorded in 3 weekend accidents

A Clarkston driver lost control of his automobile and hit a utility pole last Friday afternoon about 1:00 p.m. Ralph Ruiz, 22 of 4590 Circle, Clarkston, hit the pole on Ennismore street about 100 feet west of High street. He was not injured but the left front of his car was damaged.

Later that afternoon a collision occurred on Dixie highway at the entrance of Ottawa Park Cemetery. Margaret Slaughter, 59, of Pontiac, had stopped and was preparing to turn left into the cemetery when she was struck from behind by a car being driven by Harry Hartwell, 23 of Goodrich. Upon hitting her car, he bounced across the center lane and struck an oncoming car being driven by Ronald Robbins, 26 of Pontiac. Mr. Hart-

Township budget hearing

A copy of the budget is on file at the office of the Independence township clerk and it is available for public inspection. The clerk's office hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and from 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The office is closed on Saturday.

Grant was the legal investigator for the Probate Court, Mental Health division, in 1960, and handled hundreds of cases involving mentally ill persons. He has been very interested in the mental health field.

Grant is a Probate Judge candidate and former Assistant Prosecuting Attorney of Oakland County.

Absentee deadline

Township Clerk Howard Altman this week urged all persons who will need an Absentee ballot for the August 2 Primary election to make application now.

State election laws state that the voter must make out an application. This may be done with a simple written request or by phoning the township office for an application blank. If these are filed now, the ballots will be mailed as soon as they are received in the clerk's office—in plenty of time to be mailed back before Aug. 2.

The deadline for securing these absentee ballots is 2 p.m. on Saturday, July 30, states Mr. Altman.

well, told sheriff's officers that he did not see the Slaughter car stopped with the directional signal operating until too late to stop. He couldn't swerve to the right lane as there was a truck in that lane. No one was injured in that accident.

At 1:35 a.m. on Sunday, July 10, a car driven by Thelma Clyburn, 30, of Detroit, went out of control and ripped out about 30 feet of wire fence. She was travelling south on I-75 at about 65 miles per hour. The accident occurred about 1/2 mile east of Ortonville road. The driver apparently fell asleep and then went off the road. There were 3 other people in the car with her, but no one was injured.

Oakland county sheriff officers investigated all three mishaps.

Mrs. Winston Farmer, secretary to Howard Altman, Independence township clerk and Mr. Altman proudly display a plaque recently awarded. The Township was 4th place winner in voting percentage and registration gains at the last general election. They were in competition with townships of over 700 registered voters. It was presented by the State of Michigan by James Hare, Secretary of State.

Public urged to attend election school

For the first time this year the general public is invited to attend the Instruction class for election inspectors, states Howard Altman, township clerk.

Preceding each election a school is held to acquaint these inspectors with procedures used during an election. It is one of the state election law requirements that these inspectors must attend this course. Usually the township clerk attends one on the county level, then proceeds to conduct one in the township a few days before the election.

This year Mr. Altman felt that the general public might be interested in voting machine operation. He hopes that people will respond and attend this school which will be held on Thursday evening, July 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the Township Hall. Anyone is welcome to observe, to study the operation of the voting machines or to ask questions pertaining to the election. Many persons do not understand why they cannot split their ticket on Primary election day. They fail to understand that actually in this state two primary elections are being held on the same day — one for the Republican party and one for the Democratic party. It is hoped that this meeting will clarify some of these points.

The township clerk picks these election inspectors according to rules and regulations set up by the state elections commission. They must be selected between the dates of June 23 and July 12 from applicants who have stated their party preference. An equal number must be selected from each party. Approximately 25 inspectors will be needed to man the 5 precincts in Independence township for the August 2 primary.

Child struck by motorcycle on Sunday

A three year old girl was hit by a motorcycle near her home about 6:50 p.m. Sunday. She was Mary Groves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Groves of 5063 Cecilia Ann, Clarkston.

Harold Bowker, 37, of Pontiac, who was on the Triumph motorcycle, told sheriff officers that he was riding his bike on Cecilia Ann near Sunnyside when the tot crossed the street, then turned around and came back and he could not avoid hitting her.

The child was taken to Pontiac General hospital with injuries. Sheriff officers report stated that the driver's speed was too fast.

Re-zoning paves way for another subdivision

A 90 acre parcel of land, which lies on Maybee road near Sasshaw has been approved for re-zoning. Ben and Frank Soave had requested a zoning change on this property for future subdivision construction. It had been zoned for suburban farms, but will now be residential. This action was taken at last week's township board meeting.

At the same meeting the board decided to launch a study to determine the cost of supplying water to subdivisions. A preliminary land plan has been approved for the proposed Spring Lake subdivision which is located on the southwest corner of Waterford and Maybee roads. This was approved with 3 yes votes and 2 abstentions providing in 2 weeks the board receives these cost estimates. Township officials feel that it is not advisable to put individual well systems into this new subdivision in which there are 59 lots. They recommend instead that a central water system be installed. The developers, Lytel, Hursfall and Ross Inc., say they cannot afford the cost of a central system.

Therefore a proposal to link a water system with the one already installed for Pelton Heights has been fostered. These two parcels are about one-half mile apart. If this were to take place, the township would pay the costs of the line and would be reimbursed by the developers.

Already the Pelton Heights system has a well, a reserve well and a 5,000 gallon storage tank. The township has not arrived as yet upon a decision about how large a development must be before a central water system becomes necessary.

In other action the board rejected a plan for street lighting on Goyette street. Several residents opposed to the plan which would have amounted to about $6 to each of the 25 lot owners involved were present. It was evident that those who circulated or signed petitions were not aware of what was involved and opposition developed.

First basic report submitted by planner

Development Planning Company of Pontiac is in the process of drafting a new Zoning Ordinance for Independence township. This project is being done in conjunction with federal funds under Project 701. The Federal government granted 2/3 of the cost which was $21,000 and the township furnished the other third. The funds are administered by the Department of Economic Expansion in Lansing with the approval of the federal government and that department.

The new Ordinance will be patterned after a model zoning ordinance developed through the use of the American Society of Planning Officials Model Zoning Ordinance. This model is structured so that all parties concerned can readily find what they are looking for.

Recommendations which Development Planning Company have made include the necessity of including additional districts; the division of the commercial districts into three or possibly four commercial districts such as Neighborhood Shopping District, Highway Business District, Expressway Service District and Regional Shopping District. In addition they recommend that the township needs a Planned Industrial Park District and a Vehicular Parking District.

In the planned new ordinance there would be 23 sections. A draft is now being prepared which will be submitted later to the Planning Commission and the township board, according to Robert C. Dieball, Planner for the Development Planning Company.

Genesee valley authority working on water sources

Howard Altman, Independence township clerk and Merle Bennett, Trustee, were in Flint last Thursday where they attended a meeting of the Genesee Valley Authority. The two men had been named by the township board as delegates.

This Authority is composed of members from 15 communities seeking a common source of water. Townships or areas principally represented are on the southern and eastern section of Genesee county and the northern and western sections of Oakland county. While attending the meeting of the authority, the group inspected a flowing well site in Richfield township of Genesee county that has been recently explored. It is believed that sufficient water could be obtained from that well to supply several communities.

Clarkston students go abroad six weeks of study and tours

A group of nine happy young people accompanied by a High school English teacher boarded an American Airlines jet at Metro Airport in Detroit on Tuesday morning. It was the first of a flight that will take them on a 6 weeks tour of England, Scotland and France. Seven of the teen-agers were from Clarkston. They were accompanied by Mrs. Tilleen of Ann Arbor, an English teacher at Clarkston high school.

Among those headed for New York and the beginning of the tour were: Chris Quinlan, Nancy Richmond, Kathy Hoffman, all Seniors this year at Clarkston high school; Katie McCann, Katie Rossano and her brother, Andy Rossano, who were 1966 graduates and Karen Norman who will be a Junior when school starts in the fall. Two girls from Bloomfield who have been in Europe before, also were part of the group. They were Peggy Darragh and Debbie Stackable. Meeting the group in New York but coming from Greenfield, Massachusetts was Trek Tisdale.

Under the sponsorship of the "American Institute for Foreign Study", located in Greenwich, Connecticut, the group went directly to Glasgow, Scotland. They left Kennedy airport in New York later in the day on Tuesday aboard a Trans-International plane.

From Glasgow the group was taken by bus to Dundee where a branch of St. Andrews University is located right near the Scottish Highlands. Here they will spend 4 weeks taking courses at St. Andrews. Offered a wide selection of courses, several of the youngsters will be studying English literature. St. Andrews University was founded in 1410 and is the oldest one in Scotland. It has an enrollment of 3500 students. Dundee, the city in which the group will be staying, is a very modern city and a most important industrial center. It has a population of 200,000 and is located on the north shore of the beautiful Firth of Tay. Nearby, is Glamis castle the birthplace of Queen Mary.

St. Andrews University is described as one of the most haunting of all Universities and anyone who has seen it, is never able to forget it.

Students studying there will be hosted at receptions given by the Mayor of Dundee and the English Speaking Union. In addition to tours of the nearby area, there will be golf, tennis, swimming, sailing and trips to the theater available to the young people. During the time available for sight-seeing, the group may have the opportunity to see Balmoral castle in the Scottish highlands, the summer vacation spot of the Royal family.

Following the 4 week class session, the youngsters will embark on a 10 day tour of England and France. They will be accompanied by 2 other groups from the same institute. They will visit the English Lake District, Birmingham, Coventry and Stratford Upon Avon where they will see the Birthplace of Shakespeare and Ann Hathaway's cottage. They will go on to Oxford, and Runnymede where the Magna Carta was signed. Upon their arrival in London, they will stay at the Hotel Royal there and tour the city before departing for the continent.

In Paris they will be headquartered at the Hotel Moderne Palace. From there they will go to the Louvre, Notre Dame, Montmartre, Napoleon's Tomb and the Champs Elysees and the Palace of Versailles.

On August 18, they will depart for home. The trip will climax almost a year of planning by the group. Reservations were sent in prior to December 31st of last year. They had their choice of 14 different universities in the British Isles and on the continent at which they could be located for summer study.

Also in Europe right now, are several other Clarkston students who are studying the French language under the sponsorship of the Foreign Language League with headquarters in Salt Lake City. They will be returning on August 16.

Camp pledges reach half way

A total of $275,740, or better than half of the campaign total, has been pledged to the Clinton Valley Council Boy Scouts of America Lost Lake Reservation Development Fund.

The drive's goal is $550,000.

The major gifts division, headed by Robert M. Critchfield, has solicited $191,949 to date, or 55 per cent of its $360,000 goal.

John Z. DeLorean, who heads the campaign for the purchase and preliminary development of 2284 acres of land near Clare, Mich., as a Boy Scout reservation, said he was "encouraged" by reports funneling into campaign headquarters.

He said the Boy Scout council's executive board is spearheading the drive by pledging $29,991. This, he pointed out, was 112 per cent of the amount targeted.

The council's staff has also topped its target amount by 17 per cent.

However, reports from various districts are lagging and he urged campaign workers "to make a concerted effort to conclude this drive successfully." Macomb District has collected 32 per cent of its goal; Manito District 9 per cent; Ottawa District 37 per cent; and Pontiac District 37 per cent.

More than 1,500 scouts, and friends of scouts are hard at work in the 33 townships of Oakland and Macomb counties that make up the geographical area of the Clinton Valley Council.

This is the first time in the history of the council that the public has been asked to assist in a capital fund campaign.

Congratulations and Best Wishes to

Beach-Schwarze vows spoken on Saturday

The altar of First Baptist Church in Pontiac was decorated with bouquets of glads, mums and daisies for the Saturday evening wedding of Pamela Jean Beach and Robert William Schwarze, both of Clarkston. The double-ring candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Shelton at 7 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Herbert Beach of 6281 Middle Lake Road and the late Mr. Beach. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Schwarze of 6014 Pinehurst, Clarkston.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Herbert Beach wore a gown of white silk organza with accents of Swiss embroidery. Fashioned in the empire style the gown featured a bateau neckline and elbow length sleeves. The A-line skirt formed a watteau train and her headpiece was a petal cap of lace with pearl and sequine which secured her bouffant 3 tiered veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of Phalaenopsis orchids on a white Bible.

Miss Edye Beach was Maid of Honor for her sister and the bridesmaid was Bertha Thorton of Waterford. They wore floor length sheath style gowns in the empire style. The dresses had white lace bodices and maize crepe skirts. Yellow petal headpieces matched their dresses and they carried bouquets of Daisy poms, carnations and ivy.

Frederich Schwarze, the groom's brother served as his best man and ushers were; Gerald Galligan, Charles R. Beach and William Beach.

A reception followed in the Church parlors. Mrs. Beach greeted guests wearing a turquoise blue gown with matching accessories. Mrs. Schwarze, the groom's mother wore a pale blue gown with matching accessories. Both mothers had corsages of yellow roses and white carnations.

The five-tiered bride's cake was on a table which was Small, but Growing.

We may be small, but we're trying to do a big job. In this age of bigness, this is one enterprise when size is not necessarily relative to the quality of service nor the importance of the enterprise. We are speaking of your hometown community newspaper.

Local readers and advertisers have been most kind in their remarks about our new printing method and the new format of the paper. In our first month of publication we are happy to note a steady increase in circulation. We hope to increase this many fold in the month's to come.

A national directory of weekly newspapers reports that there are more than 8,000 "hometown" newspapers in the country. These newspapers reach approximately 32 million homes. While metropolitan papers have been beset by circulation troubles, strikes and shutdowns, the smaller papers have been flourishing.

Without these papers, there would be no record of community life and no reporting of important community events and there would be no local expression of editorial views or opinions that gradually become public sentiment on main issues of the day. Without these thousands of editors trying to do a good job, there would be no free press. The local newspaper is a small enterprise that does a big job.

Not Free at All

Last week Medicare went into effect for hundreds of thousands of the nation's older citizens. As the government and the medical profession seek to discharge their duties under the Medicare law, everyone should be reminded again that there is no such thing as a "free" service. By law, the taxpayers are paying some of the medical bills of a selected group of people. As time goes on, the law will doubtless be revised to include the care of other age groups. It could even become a national health service such as Britain adopted nearly 18 years ago.

The medical profession in the United States is going to do everything possible to facilitate the operation of Medicare. We hope it will do its utmost to keep the doctor-patient relationship that is so vital to the high medical standards to which we have become accustomed. It is the obligation of people, all of us, to remember that Medicare does not mean "free" medical care. The more that is demanded in the way of service from hospitals and doctors, the more it is going to cost unless we wish to end up with a bankrupt medical system as Great Britain appears to have done.

Tolls Do Make a Difference

There are those who contend the high Mackinac Bridge toll has little effect on tourist travel and industrial development in the Upper Peninsula.

Consider then the words of Marty Heim, writer for the Alma Record, who had this to say last week:

"Like to visit Michigan's Upper Peninsula for a day? Forget it . . . unless you're the major stockholder in AT&T."

"While attending the annual summer meeting of the Michigan Outdoor Writers at Cedarville I left Cheboygan Saturday a.m., crossed the Mackinac Bridge with my tent-trailer ($6.25) slipped over to Drummond Island via the car ferry ($3.05), returned (another $3.05) and back across the bridge ($6.25) later in the afternoon. Total toll fees, for one day, came to $18.60. Almost unbelievable, isn't it?"

"I briefly stopped at Ft. Michilimackinac at Mackinaw City and talked with one couple without a trailer. They said they'd love to cross the bridge but come right back, just for the sake of telling their grandchildren in years to come. When they found out the charge ($3.75 one way) for a round trip total was $7.50, they quickly abandoned the idea. Thousands of others during the tourist season are doing likewise.

"I'd say it's about time the State realized the people traveling north want to view and cross the bridge, not buy it! The State's defense is summed up thusly: 'Remember the long wait for the ferries?' Or . . . 'You can always swim if you like!'"

PEEKIN' into the PAST

TEN YEARS AGO IN THE CLARKSTON NEWS

Arthur Rose Jr. of Independence township has been named Chairman of the 1956-57 United campaign.

It seems that each year the Fourth of July crowd in Clarkston grows. This year the Firemen planned a full day and everyone had a good time.

A new barn has been erected on the Alex Solley farm on Hadley road to replace the one that was blown down when the tornado passed through here in May.

Rockwell's Cities Service has been sold as of July 1st by Charles Rockwell to Keith Stephens.

Frank Green, William Boyns, Sherman Lowery, J.C. Miller, Roy Norton, Glenn Kerion and Glenn Nowland have all received "diplomas" following attendance at a conference on School building maintenance at M.S.U.

At the Clarkston Community Schools annual election held on Monday, Walter Wilberg was elected to the School Board. He defeated Kenneth Thayer by 10 votes. Mr. Wilberg will serve for 3 years.

25 YEARS AGO IN THE CLARKSTON NEWS

This month the firm of Hubbell and Hopkins which was established 16 years ago was dissolved when Clair Hopkins sold his interest in the firm to Robert Parker, formerly of the Dixie Bar. A new name for the restaurant has not been decided upon.

The Clarkston school board met and elected the following officers: Joseph Hubbard, President; Mrs. Carrie Davies, Secretary; Alfred Hubbard, Treasurer; Roy Spencer and Robert Beattie, Trustees.

Michigan's bluegill fishermen are advised by the conservation department to get their fill of bluegill fishing this summer. A new law enacted by the legislature will protect bluegills as black bass are protected.

Roy A. Alger is the new president of the Rotary Club. The Young People's Dancing club enjoyed a picnic and evening's outing at Walled Lake one night recently.

Reaching out . . .

God be merciful unto me a sinner. Luke 18:13.

Even if a man feels conscious of having lived a reasonably right life, the powers of destruction loose in our world bid well to overwhelm him with the sense of a great wrong in which we all share. He feels the pain of world error and seemingly helpless, is yet made increasingly sensitive to his own shortcomings and more highly aware that all have sinned and come far short of the glory of God.

Today's text verse leads us into confession, but it also gives voice to our trust in God and in His great mercy. The true nature of religion is not alone regret concerning that which is of yesterday and today. Much more than that, it is unending hope and confidence in the future, confidence that the new days will be better days and that however unworthy the past and the present, we can and surely will attain to nobler personal and world behavior.

Jesus points out that the Kingdom of God is within our reach and how much we hunger and thirst for a rebirth of the spirit in all men everywhere, that rebirth which will bring in God's Peace, from the great River to the ends of the earth.

Eternal God, our Father: Endow us, we pray with hope for a better world. Strengthen us to overcome evil and inspire us, we beseech Thee, to serve the right, that all men may see Thy great salvation. AMEN.

Large crowd fetes Ethel Rowley at party

A smiling Mrs. Rowley poses with the decorated cake served at her farewell reception last Sunday. Many former pupils and friends gathered to extend their best wishes to her.

A group of over 100 people gathered at the Independence township hall last Sunday to honor a former teacher upon her retirement. Mrs. Ethel Rowley, who retired this summer from the Clarkston school system was the honored guest.

The party was in the form of a potluck dinner. It had been planned and arranged by Mrs. Russell Rhynndress and Mrs. Richard Swain. Guests were present for the affair from Auburn Heights, Holly, Davisburg, Pontiac, Drayton Plains, Utica, and Clarkston. More than 60 of those present were former pupils of Mrs. Rowley. Others were parents of the pupils, their children and other teachers who had been associated with the honored

She was also given a corsage and gift of money. A guest-book complete with cards, pictures and clippings is also being prepared for her.
