

Davisburg man killed in Vietnam

Word of the death in Vietnam of Sgt. Jarvis C. Lowder of 10485 King Road, Davisburg was received by his wife on Sunday night. He died there on July 23 of gunshot wounds while serving his country there.

Sgt. Lowder, who was 23, went to Vietnam last December. His wife, Thelma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Haynes of Davisburg. They were married in 1964 and had lived at army bases in Georgia, Washington State and Hawaii before he was sent overseas. She returned to her parent's home in Davisburg when he left for service there.

Sgt. Lowder had been in service since 1962. His funeral arrangements are pending at the Lewis E. Wint Funeral Home. A military representative was expected to arrive in Davisburg on Tuesday evening to furnish the family with more details concerning his tragic death.

Surviving besides his wife is his mother in Ohio, two sisters, one in Ohio and another one in Florida and also a brother stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Case dismissed

At a hearing held before the Michigan Liquor Control Commission in Lincoln Park on July 12, 1966, a case was dismissed against a Clarkston business place. On April 28, 1966 a charge was brought against the Maurice Boucard Estate with Betty Boucard, Special Administratrix, operating business at Rochon's Country Shoppe for selling to a minor. The parties involved hold a SDM license.

Record crowd at candidates night

The Independence Township Republican Club hosted a Candidates Night program on July 20 to a record turnout of over 75 local residents, and a nearly complete slate of Republican and non-partisan office seekers. Many voters had an opportunity to discuss viewpoints personally with the candidates during the coffee hour following the meeting.

The next monthly meeting will be held in the Township Hall on August 10 at 8:00 p.m. At that time, a set of by-laws for the organization will be presented for approval.

No opposition on local level Tuesday primary voters will face big non-partisan ballot

Area voters will face a full ballot when they vote in the August 2 primary. Although familiar with the gubernatorial candidates, some voters may not realize that they will be asked to vote twice for candidates for United States Senator. Cavanaugh and Williams are running against Griffin not only for the full 6 year term, but for the balance of the term which became vacant on the death of Patrick McNamara. Governor Romney had appointed Griffin to fill out the remainder of the term, but he is being opposed by Williams and Cavanaugh for the balance that is left.

Billie S. Farnum has no opposition on the Democratic side for his position of Representative in Congress from the 19th district, but there are 3 Republicans running for the nomination. They are: Richard D. Kuhn, Jack H. McDonald, and Larry Vander-Moien.

In the race for State Senator from the 17th district, Carl W.

O'Brien is pitted against Richard Campbell on the Democratic side while 3 men are seeking the nomination for the Republicans. Running are Stanley M. Brown, James N. Harsen and L. Harvey Lodge.

Seeking the job of State Representative from the 61st District are 2 Democrats, Donald L. Collier and Francis A. Crowley. Three Republicans are vying for the nomination on their ticket. Loren D. Anderson, John D. McKinlay, and Lawrence J. Vaillancourt.

Cemetery action tabled

The matter of another cemetery for the township was tabled at a meeting of the board last week. Action will not be taken until three major steps have been taken.

The developers (a corporation composed of 3 men, but headed by Merrill LaRue of Bay City) must present to the board a full plat of the entire 40 acres. At last week's meetings only one plat of a garden was presented.

They must also submit forms to the board which are supplied by the township and by the Cemetery Associations for evaluation of the corporation's soundness.

The board also wishes to await pending legislation regarding cemetery construction and operation.

The motion was made to table the action by Trustee Merle Bennett and seconded by Howard Altman. There was no roll call taken.

Cost of sewer participation reviewed

A meeting is scheduled for 11:15 a.m. this Thursday, July 28 at which time members of the Independence township board will hear the results of a survey authorized by them. It is a report on financing of the proposed Clinton-Oakland Sewage Disposal System.

At the June 21 meeting of the board they authorized Stratton Associates, Inc. to study the township's financial ability to proceed with plans for their participation in the sewer program. Members of the board have had a copy of the report for a week, but will meet with the financial consulting firm this week to go into more detail.

It is expected that participation in this area sewerage system would cost this community about 2.8 million.

Only 3 communities have not given their consent as yet. They are the city of Orchard Lake, and the townships of Avon and Independence. Those who have signed contracts are Waterford, West Bloomfield, Pontiac and Orion. Pontiac turned down a bid to participate.

About 10 percent of the cost would be assessed to Independence township. The project would be financed over a 30 year period.

Feather's doing well on the links again

FEATHER FRECHETTE

Miss Feather Frechette of Clarkston, is playing a lot of golf this summer and has a lot more play scheduled. She recently won the Women's Championship at Indianwood.

Last week found Miss Frechette playing at the State Tournament in Farmington. While playing in the Women's Michigan Amateur Golf Championship Contest there, she played perhaps her hardest match. She was paired with Joyce Kmierski of Grosse Ile but lost to her in a play-off. Miss Kmierski was the 1966 Women's National Collegiate champion.

On Tuesday of this week Feather was seeking the Women's District Championship at Bloomfield Hills. She recently came in second at the Best Ball Tournament held at Plum Hollow. While playing there she was paired with Harold Stewart. She also came in second at the Pontiac Best Ball Tourney while playing with Glen Valance.

During the first week of September, she will be entered in the Hole-In-One Contest at the Redford Golf Club. This event will be on television. Feather will wind up her golf for the summer when she returns to Northwood Institute at Midland on September 20 for the fall term. She is a sophomore at that school.

Private wells for subs

The Independence township board approved the re-zoning of the Shingledecker property from Suburban Farms to Residential at their meeting last week. This is a part of his development on the east side of White Lake Road near Clement Road.

In other action, the board declined any further action or study on a proposal to extend the water service line from Pelton Heights subdivision to Spring Lake Estates. The developers will install private wells as the subdivision is completed. Howard Keiff, as Engineer for the developers, gave a cost estimate of $27,000 for this project. He is also serving as Engineer for Independence township.

The Board also gave their approval for a fireworks permit to be issued to the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club. These fireworks are planned for August 7, the date of their annual picnic.

On the Non-Partisan Ballot, voters will be picking 3 candidates for Judge of the Circuit Court for a 6 year term. These candidates are as follows: William R. Beasley, S. Jerome Bronson, John H. Burke, Robert E. Cunningham, Vernon M. Fitch, Alice Lee Gilbert, Jack Hanna, Allen C. Ingle, Carl F. Ingraham, Ralph T. Johnson, Bernard S. Kahn, Cecil McCallum, John E. McGrath, Maurice A. Merritt, John N. O'Brien, W. Cadman Prout, Clarence A. Reid, Jr., Farrell E. Roberts, Philip E. Rowston, Walter D. Schmier, Robert L. Templin and Robert J. Turner.

Voters will be asked to select one candidate for an 8 year term as Judge of the Probate Court. Seeking that office are the following men: Barry M. Grant, Eugene Arthur Moore, Burton R. Shifman, Lincoln Welton and Hayward Whitlock.

On the local ballot, Duane Hursfall, Republican has no opposition within his party for the post of Supervisor but Robert A. Copeman is seeking the Democratic nomination. No Democratic candidate filed for clerk and Howard Altman is the lone Republican seeking the clerk's seat. Kenneth L. Johnson is unopposed in his own party (Democratic) and there are no Republicans seeking that job—that of treasurer.

For the trustee office, Charles S. Curry, Jr. is running on the Democratic slate and Harold Bauer on the Republican side. Three Democrats are running for 4 seats for Constable. They are Paul A. Derryberry, Donald H. Hester and Earl R. King. On the Republican side only 2 are seeking the 4 seats. They are Harry R. Fahrner and Harry William Yoh.

One afternoon last April, Good Friday to be exact, Mrs. Dorothy Curry of 5967 Warbler in Clarkston dialed an operator for assistance on a call. She was suddenly taken ill and collapsed. One of the operators, Mrs. Sue Newbill sensed that there was something wrong on the other end of the line. The shift was about to change and another operator, Mrs. Shirley Kuhn came on duty at 6:00 p.m. Intuition also told her that all was not right, so with persistence the call was traced, while the sheriff's department stood by. When the exact location was found, sheriff's officers radioed for help and called the ill woman's son, Charles Curry, Jr. Ambulance attendants were forced to take the hinges off from the locked garage when they arrived at the Curry home. But the seriously ill lady was soon on her way to St. Joseph Hospital in Pontiac. She was a patient there for a week, the second time that she had been hospitalized by a stroke. The first time was 3 years ago when she remained a patient there for 8 weeks.

Mrs. Kuhn, the operator has been cited by the company three times for similar assistance. She had never met the patient she helped until last Friday when "The Clarkston News" arranged to have the two ladies meet. Mrs. Kuhn, a shy, retiring person, who wanted no publicity feels that what she did was all in the line of duty, and that there were many others assisting with the call that deserved as much credit.

Mrs. James Kuhn, left, proudly displays the third citation she has received from her employer, Michigan Bell Telephone Company for assisting in saving a life. On the right, Mrs. Dorothy Curry of 5967 Warbler, Clarkston, meets the operator for the first time, who was instrumental in saving her life. Mrs. Curry was the victim of a stroke on Good Friday of this year. Quick action by phone operators and the sheriff's department brought assistance to Mrs. Curry who was hospitalized for a week following the incident.

Cycle accident injures two

A motorcycle accident on the morning of July 19th sent 2 people to the hospital with serious injuries.

Sheriff deputies received a call at 10:28 a.m. to go to a field near Michiganamme Road in Independence township where they found the 2 injured people. Sent to Pontiac General Hospital were John Gross, 21, of 27 Mariva, Pontiac and Janet Render, 21 of 6304 Orchard Lake Road, Orchard Lake. She was riding on the back of his motorcycle.

Gross told officers that he was unfamiliar with the sand trail in which he was driving the motorcycle and also unfamiliar with the cycle itself. He lost control and they were both thrown free of the motorcycle.

In fact the deputies searched for some time before they found the motorcycle under some brush. Lost also for a time was the man's wallet and driver's license.

In other accidents during the week, April Hetherington, 18 of 5731 Fleming Lake Road, Clarkston was attempting to turn left in her car at the corner of Fleming Lake Road and Sashabaw Road when she was struck by another driver. He was Edmund Adams 17 of Drayton Plains. He stated that he saw no brake lights or directional signal operating, but officers cited him for operating his car at speeds too fast. Neither driver was injured.

In another non-injury accident, one car came out of a driveway and was struck by another car. This mishap occurred at the corner of Ortonville Road and the Dixie highway on July 20 at 2:55 p.m. Drivers involved were Carol Kelley, 19 of 2518 Williams Lake Road, Pontiac and Alma Grondahl, 60 of 759 S. Windwing in Pontiac.

Polls are open 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday. Be sure to cast your ballot.

Marker dedication at Sashabaw cemetery

Dedication of an official local historical marker will highlight the annual meeting of the Sashabaw Cemetery Association to be held at the Sashabaw Presbyterian Church on Saturday, July 30. A potluck lunch will be held at noon, followed by the business meeting of the Association. The group will then adjourn to the adjoining cemetery for dedication of the marker.

Sashabaw Cemetery has been designated as a local historic site by the Michigan Historical Commission because of its long and continuous use. Although the first known burial was made as early as 1836, the Association itself was not organized until 1949. On May 19 of that year residents of the area organized for the purpose of "fencing, improving, ornamenting and keeping the burying ground . . . in proper repair." Since its beginnings the Association, which consists of owners of lots in the cemetery and relatives of those buried there, has maintained and expanded the cemetery. Among the interested families are the Beardslee, Voorhels, Phillips, Voorhees, Windate, Stevens, Stewart, Bailey, Earl, VanSyckle, Maybee, Bird, Riker, Petty, Cramer, Simerson, Sly, Mann, Brown, Leggett, Buzzard, Woodhull, Walker, Fisher, Morgan, Owen, Linderman, Linabury, Walter, Abbott, Dennis, Poole, Fleming, Fitch, Lounsbury, Stiple, Ganong and Buchner.

Anyone interested in attending the dedication is welcome to do so. It will be held at approximately 1:30 p.m. at the cemetery, and will be participated in by members of the Association and representatives of the Michigan Historical Commission. A similar marker stands on the Sashabaw Presbyterian Church grounds.

Representatives from the Michigan Historical Commission will be present at Sashabaw Cemetery on Sunday, when a marker is dedicated designating it as a local Historical site.

RURAL vs CITY BATTLE

The north, 360 square miles plus an additional 208 square miles on the western part of the County is known as the rural area with the heavy populated area on the South Eastern side of the County. This area comprises about 64% of the land area in Oakland County, with only about 13% of the registered voters in the County. Clarkston, In dependence, Springfield, Orion, Brandon, White Lake, Groveland and Oxford are in this rural area.

Is it any wonder that rural area voice in government is rapidly disappearing. Next Tuesday is election day. How many voters from this area will take the time to vote in this important primary remains to be seen. Many of those who do vote, overlook the non-partisan Circuit Court ballot which is printed on blue background and is usually at the bottom of the machine at the right hand side. This day and age, many of us find ourselves in Court at one time or other, yet we will not take the time to select good judges. After you pull your party lever and make your selections, then go to the bottom of the machine at the right hand side and pull the lever down over the name you want for Circuit Judge, then pull your curtain lever.

To stress the importance of the primary election, this rural area has only one candidate for Circuit Judge. If the rural area does not turn out and vote for him so that he will be nominated for the general election in November, then we have lost our chance to have a judge from this rural area in the Circuit Court at Pontiac.

Voters will find 22 candidates for Circuit Judge, and Allen C. Ingle is the rural candidate. Ingle is well qualified for Circuit Judge, having engaged in the general practice of law since 1949, and in addition has 12 years of judicial experience, during which time he handled nearly 50,000 civil and criminal cases. He gained a reputation throughout the state as a fair and impartial judge, and was called upon to be the judge in the Madison Heights Gambling case or Steren Assembly Club. He was also requested to be the Judge in the first cases brought by the State Police in Royal Oak Township, which finally resulted in a Grand Jury.

Ingle is a college graduate in both accounting and law. During his life he has lived in the big city, small city and on the farm, thus he has an excellent background to understand the problems of everyone.

As a result of his leadership in court reform, the protection of individual rights, and his service as President of the Michigan Justices and the Oakland County Judicial Association, Ingle was honored by being selected for the publication, "Who's Who in the Midwest."

Ingle is admitted to practice in all Michigan Courts, as well as the United States Supreme Court, U.S. Court of Appeals, and U.S. District Court. He is a World War II veteran, and member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Thus the battle line is formed. The rural area has Allen C. Ingle as their candidate. To keep our voice in government, we should get out and vote and see that he is elected, but in spite of this, we have an outstanding candidate who will be an excellent Circuit Judge for Oakland County, for he has already proven that he maintains an impartial court, protecting the rights of the public but at the same time protecting the rights of the individual who may be ignorant of the law.

Accidents and civil disputes are on the increase. Although we hope you will not find yourself in Circuit Court in the future, if by chance you do, wouldn't you rather appear before Allen C. Ingle, knowing that your rights would be protected and that the so called ignorance of the law would not prevent you from having a fair hearing. Join with us citizens interested in good judges, vote Tuesday, August 2nd, and urge your friends and neighbors to vote. Together we will elect Allen C. Ingle as our Circuit Judge. Remember to look for the non-partisan ballot for Circuit Judge on the blue background at the bottom of the machine. Pull the lever down over the name of Allen C. Ingle, leave it down, the same as you have for the candidates in the party you have selected. When you open the curtain the vote for Allen C. Ingle will register and you have helped us elect not only an outstanding candidate but our rural candidate as well.

Vote Tuesday for Allen C. Ingle for Circuit Judge

What was Clarkston like

What was Clarkston like 80 years ago? Clarence Vliet, former superintendent of the Birmingham School District reminisced recently with Betty Howe, a Staff Writer for the Birmingham Eccentric.

The occasion of the interview was sparked by the celebration of Mr. Vliet's 89th birthday which occurred on the 4th of July. He tried to describe to her some of the 4th of July celebrations that Clarkston used to stage when he was a young boy growing up here.

He tells that the village with the Mill Pond in the center was a perfect spot for a celebration. Water sports could easily be planned and there was always the village cannon which many times ended up in the mill pond—usually pushed there by someone who detested the long "bang" it made. Each year a committee was formed and the cannon was brought forth to be put in shape.

"All the farm families came to town for the Calithumpian Parade. Wagons and cars loaded with "horribles", people done up in unusual costumes were lead by a band down the main street. Then there were the usual politicians making speeches in the grove, followed by a huge potluck dinner. There was always homemade ice cream as a treat."

"There were water sports and tub races followed by swimming contests for the kids with the huge dam providing elegant reserved seating for the crowd. Highlight of the contest was probably the long tamarack pole which was greased and suspended over the clear, clean, cold water of the pond. The lucky individual who walked the greased pole won the prize.

Then there was square dancing and fireworks in the evening, with the usual pranksters. "There were burned hands and scorched clothing from firecrackers dropped into pockets," he told the reporter.

"Only late hours terminated the celebration. The next morning the downtown streets looked like a cyclone had hit. It was a grand and glorious Fourth of July," he states.

Letters to the Editor

Though the figures won't be in for a while yet, all signs indicate that St. Mary's 13th County Fair, held July 16, was probably our most successful one yet. Blessed with perfect weather and a steady flow of customers, many booths were sold out early in the afternoon. The dinner was a great success and, by early evening, only a few articles remaining to be picked up from the Auction gave any sign of the crowds and clutter and clamor of a few hours before.

It is only with the help of many, many individuals, each doing his bit, that such an enterprise can be a success. There is great joy in working together and a reward in knowing your efforts have been successful and appreciated and have helped the Church.

So let me thank you in the name of everyone at St. Mary's for all your help.

Faithfully yours,
Rev. John E. Lee

Swimming relays Sat.

Saturday, July 30 will be an exciting day at Deer Lake. The annual swimming relays will be held with youngsters participating from Everett MacDougall's swimming classes.

For the past two years the boys have won the annual speed relay. But this year Mr. MacDougall reports that the girls have been working extremely hard and things are looking up for them. According to the times posted, the girls seem to be on the favored side at present. Anything can happen in a good spirited race and Saturday may tell the tale.

Besides the advanced class there will be an intermediate class relay and individual races in the breast stroke, back stroke and the butterfly.

All races will be conducted from Mr. MacDougall's dock on Deer Lake.

Following is a list of the two teams:

Attending language seminar

Jan Gabier, Language Arts Dept. Head at Clarkston Senior High School, Clarkston, Michigan, is completing a six-week English institute sponsored by the National Defense Education Act and Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan.

Miss Gabier and 43 other English teachers from the United States were selected from 160 applicants recommended by their school administrators and department chairmen. Final selection was based on personal and professional abilities. Each participant has taught English in high school for at least three years and plans to continue teaching.

Miss Gabier lives at 7192 Perry Lake Road in Clarkston, Michigan. She holds a B.A. from Central Michigan University.

Blue and Gray "Shoot Out" this weekend

Once again men in different parts of our country, dressed in the blue uniforms of the Union Army or the gray uniforms of the Army of the Confederacy are busily engaged in cleaning and readying their Civil War muskets, carbines, pistols, and cannon.

Ammunition consisting of buck shot, lead balls, and cement cannon balls are being cast and readied not to shoot at one another, but rather at targets consisting of balloons, clay pigeons, dinner plates, "out houses", and an automobile.

This reflection on our history is being held at the 6th Annual Blue and Gray Shoot to be held on Saturday and Sunday, July 30th and 31st at the Davisburg Jaycee Rifle Range on the Andersonville road one mile south of Davisburg.

This shoot is open to the public with free admission and free parking to make this event accessible to all people interested in seeing this fine display of original and authentic reproductions of Civil War weapons and uniforms.

The "troops", members of mock military units which adopted Original Civil War company designation, names, guidons and uniforms will be encamped in tents at the park during the two days.

The Flag Raising Ceremony will open the competition on Saturday at 10 A.M. with the main events starting on Sunday at Noon.

Food and refreshments will be available on the range both days.

Of primary importance

Primary election week is a good time to examine this part of the election process. Most people underestimate the importance of the primary and therefore pay too little attention to the candidate and the voting. Yet the cross section of our public officials is determined at the primary. Let us consider a few facts:

In the state legislature, for instance, you can count on your two hands the number of districts which may swing back and forth from one party to another in the final election. In the overwhelming majority of cases, the top vote-getter in the primary will coast to victory in the final. The final election is a formality.

The overwhelming number of county, township, city and other offices throughout the state are also predictable as to party. The top man for the in-party has it made.

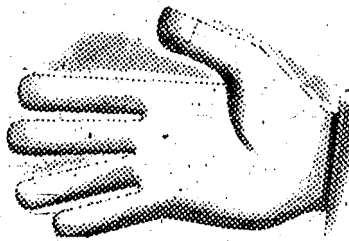

Or even assuming that there is genuine competition between parties in the final election, the choice is narrowed to a single candidate for each side.

The point is this. For a candidate to get himself elected to office, 9 times out of 10 his only real task is to come out on top in the primary. And this task is far different from winning a competitive election in November.

Greater participation by the general public in the primary is the only way to insure the kind of results we expect and need in elections. When we stay home on primary day, we weaken our free election system.

—REGENERATION—

I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven and before thee. I am no more worthy to be called thy son. Luke 15:18-19.

(Read Luke 15:11-32).

Quite often Jesus spoke to His disciples in parables, that they might easily understand His great Teaching, and a parable, we well know, is just a short simple story from which a moral lesson may be drawn.

'Who is my neighbor?' the young attorney asked of Him and forthwith Jesus related the story or the Parable of the Good Samaritan, that primary lesson for all men in the field of human relations.

One of Jesus' biographers said of Him, 'There is a sublimity, a distinctiveness and an originality in His ethical code and one can find no parallel anywhere to the artistry exhibited in His Parables; there He explains the truth in terms of the realities of everyday living.

Enshrined for us in Luke's Gospel are the Parables of the Mustard Seed, of the Lost Sheep and of the Lost Piece of Silver, but the most beautiful and most powerful of all is the Parable of the Prodigal Son, wherein Jesus points out the great truth that all the energies of Heaven can be brought to bear for the reclamation of one young man gone astray, once he comes to himself and repenting, greatly craves forgiveness and regeneration.

Eternal God our Father: Endow us, we beseech Thee, with the desire to see in Jesus and in His great Teaching the inexhaustible fountain of regeneration for all Thy children. AMEN. Everett Butters Ronk's Barber Shop at 25 S. Main street has acquired a new look. The shop has been enlarged and newly decorated. New equipment has been installed. Two full time barbers are ready to give quick service.

Also recently remodeled is O'Dell's Drug store. It was done to keep pace with today's modern trends and techniques. Special emphasis was placed on the prescription department.

Albert Cobb, Mayor of Detroit and a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor will open the final week of his pre-primary campaign with an Oakland county speech next week.

Mrs. Paul Eliason is attending the Piano Teachers workshop this week. She played in the orchestra featured at the Girl Scout Roundup recently—the largest gathering of Girl Scouts ever to be held.

site of the new Ford plant slid from the large planks on which it was parked and sunk in the muck in the bottom of the mill pond. It took a second steam shovel, several trucks and a number of men about 6 hours to get the huge machine pulled onto a new road bed. It was an interesting sight to see the mud covered men and machines at work and before the task was finished a large crowd gathered to watch the operations.

A shortage of nurses exists and patriotic young people are urged to apply for admission to accredited schools of nursing to help meet the need for nurses. It is expected to continue long after the existing national emergency is past.
