THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1967

3 SECTIONS NUMBER 35

A Japanese garden will back these three boys on stage as they go into their humorous performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado". A total of sixty Junior High student voices will join those of Kirk Peters, Jerry Flannigan and Jeff Mansfield, on May 3 and 4th. Tickets may be purchased from the music students at the school.

$500,000 damage suit filed against board

Nicholas Manzella who owns Manzella's Bar at 7504 Dixie Highway has filed a suit in Federal District Court against the Independence Township Board. Earlier this month a suit against the board was dismissed in Oakland County Circuit Court.

A year ago Manzella's bar license was revoked by the M. L. C. C. because of a fight that took place in his bar. This was upon recommendation of the township board. Manzella who was charged with assault and battery of a patron, John Adams, 35 of 6501 Maybee Road was later acquitted. His brother, Angelo, however was found guilty of the charge. He was sentenced to 30 days in the Oakland County Jail.

In this suit, Manzella is asking $500,000 in damages. It also asks the court to declare the action of the board illegal as an infringement on Manzella's right under the 14th amendment and the Civil Rights Act.

Manzella's attorney, Stanley W. Kurzman of Pontiac said "Because of the Constitutional issues involved and the violation of federal law, it was felt that federal court would be a more appropriate forum."

Council adopts budget; appoints Keith Leak to fill vacancy

At the last meeting of the Clarkston Village Council appointments and committee members were named, a budget submitted, and a vacant council seat was filled.

A. E. Butters recently resigned from the council and sent a letter of resignation to that body. His resignation was accepted with regret and David K. Leak was appointed to fill the vacancy created by his resignation.

The following appointments were made for the year: President Pro Tem, Harold Goyette; Police Chief, Robert Phillips; Village Engineer, Kieft Engineering; Village Attorney, Jack Banycky; Forester, Robert Osgood; Health Commissioner, R. Colton; Fire Marshal, Don Beach; Deputy Clerk, Charles Robinson; Deputy Treasurer, Kathleen Waters. Appointed to the Zoning Board of Appeals for 2 year terms were R. E. Spohn and Mrs. Dean Smith.

Council committee appointments were made as follows: Finance, W. Kushman and D. Leak; Legislative, W. Kushman and J. Mahar; Police and Fire, H. Goyette and K. Hallman; Streets and Sidewalks, D. Cooper and K. Hallman; Planning, J. Mahar, W. Kushman and H. Goyette; Properties, D. Leak and D. Cooper.

A budget of $40,150 was adopted. For further details of the budget readers should see the budget as printed elsewhere in this paper.

In other action, the council authorized the village Engineer to proceed with street improvements. They also accepted the contract as presented by Kieft Engineering for preliminary plans for sewage and water supply within the village.

Psst. Just a fiendish word of advice from the most fiendish villian the Clarkston Village Players have ever cast (that's me, Karl Wampfler). Get your tickets now for the most fun filled show of the season. It's a melodrama called "For Her C-h-e-ild's Sake" and bound to steal your sense of humor. Set for May 5, 6, 7 (that's Sunday at 7:30 p.m.) the 11th, (a Thursday) the 12th and 13th. If you don't see a Player running by please quietly walk down to King's Insurance where Mrs. Fahrner will assist you. Please read the above with a French accent. It helps give it flavor. P.S. That sweet young thing with me is Kathy Cummings.

Clarkston News represented at WSU workshop

Two columnists from the Clarkston News will take part in a panel discussion at the 26th annual Workshop of the Wayne State University Press Club.

Publisher James A. Sherman and Jim Fitzgerald will be two of the panelists who will discuss that important editorial form, the personal column—its functions, purposes and conduct. The session will be held on Friday, May 5th.

Serving with them will be Don Wolfe of the Toledo Blade; Dave Rood of the Manistique Pioneer-Tribune and Tom Riordan of the Tecumseh Herald. Mr. Riordan will moderate the discussion. This will comprise the morning session of the all day affair.

The workshop sessions will be held in the Alumni Lounge in the building connected with McGregor Memorial Conference Center. The WSU Press Club is highly unexclusive states the president, William Clogg. The attendance of publishers, editors, staffers, wives, husbands and friends is encouraged. The one requirement is interest in newspapering.

to attend college, but there is no limitation as to how these awards can be used.

In addition to the cash prizes, a 54 volume set of the Great Books of the Western World will be given to the schools attended by the winners in the 4th international competition.

Pine Knob School PTA

The Pine Knob School P. T. A. will meet Monday, May 1st at 7:30 p.m. for its final meeting of the season.

"Eyes of Pine Knob are upon the Teachers," who will present the program, along with selections from the Pine Knob Elementary Band.

The installation of 1967-68 P. T. A. officers will be held.

Everyone welcome, let's show we're interested in our P. T. A.!

Attention: Parents

Parents of youngsters eligible for the Fluoride treatments are reminded that the series starts next Monday. Children who may have them are the kindergartners, second, fifth and eighth graders. The treatments will be given in all of the elementary schools in the area.

The series of treatments will take 6 weeks and the fee is $3. Children should be registered this week and the fee brought to school.

Drama club presentation this week Fri. and Sat.

The Drama Club of Clarkston High School will present "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners" on April 28 and 29 at 8:15 in the Little Theater of Clarkston High School.

The play, a three act drama tells of the trial of the janitor of Carson Corners School. The students, who enact the trial on the stage of Carson Corners High School, accuse the janitor of pushing a boy off the fire escape and killing him. Their parents, very much surprised and horrified, become involved acquiescently.

The play will be presented in an unusual fashion without scenery or costumes, and several flashbacks are used.

The cast includes: Terry Dutcher, Elizabeth Russell, Chris Rose, Joan Willis, Tim Wall, Kathy Donohoe, Lance Lerous, Lynn Race, Mark Adams, Chris Quinlan, Hugh Rose, Carol Taylor, Eric Wooley, Mike McMillan, Stewart Moore, Cindy Swick, Carrita Lassfolk, Ellen Fellows, Kathy

Hoff, Neil Mansfield, Mary Fellows, Susan Griffiths, Mark Taylor, Scott Embrey, Dean Poeppe, and Miss Nancy Roberson.

"The Incident at Carson Corners" is directed by Mrs. Barbara Gibson. Diane Lundy is serving as student director. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the cast or at the ticket office prior to performances.

Named a Finalist

Raymond F. Cooper of 9960 Dixie Highway, Clarkston is one of 60 High school and college students from 27 states, Australia and New Zealand who are finalists competing for a top prize of $5,000 in a contest sponsored by Great Books of the Western World. The next top ten scholars will receive $1,000 each. The remainder are eligible for $500 prizes in the Award Program.

The cash awards are intended to provide assistance to children who wish

Board gives approval for license

At the last meeting of the Independence Township Board an application was approved for a Resort Class C License and Dance Permit for the new Pine Knob Golf and Country Club. The Club is located on Maybee Road near Walton. Just recently opened the club will operate on a 10 month basis.

A corrected copy of the lease being drawn up between the Village of Clarkston and the township pertaining to the Deer Lake Beach was presented to the board. As plans call for the installation of a chain link fence along the road way of White Lake Road at the beach, Clerk Howard Altman was instructed to contact the County Road Commission for permission to do so. The final signing of the contract will hinge on whether it is possible to put up this fence. If constructed the township would then limit use of the beach to residents of the township.

American Stone Products Company representatives attended the board meeting asking that their property at the corner of Sashabaw and Waldon Roads be rezoned to allow for relocation of some of their processing equipment. This item of business was tabled for further consideration.

Appointed to the Recreation Committee by the board was Richard Warren. He is a resident of 6788 Snow Apple Drive in Clarkston.

John Garlach, who is planning another teenage dance hall is seeking a permit to operate the hall at Dixie and White Lake Road. The board will inspect the new premises before a permit is authorized.

Receive O-U Degrees

Gladys I. Alexander, 9870 Dixie Highway, Clarkston and James W. Atkins of 5454 Maybee Road also of Clarkston received their degrees recently at the fifth annual commencement exercises of Oakland University.

Thomas H. Hamilton, president of the University of Hawaii and a former vice president of MSU delivered the commencement address. His topic was "On Under standing Asia."

Miss Alexander received her degree in elementary education and Mr. Atkin received his in Business Administration.

With trust and confidence Lana Lovett places her small hand against the blue silhouette of the "Helping Hand" sign, held here for her by her twin sister Laura. This week as the "Helping Hand" signs begin to appear in windows of homes within the Clarkston Elementary School area, teachers like Mrs. Davidson will be asked to explain the sign to their students. The response to this project has been excellent. However, there are still a few areas that haven't been heard from. Those people who still intend to fill out the form brought home by their child are urged to do so immediately.

Jim's Jottings

Doesn't it give you a warm chill when you read of our elected officials in Lansing, the highest paid group of its kind in the U.S., put daylight saving time and implied consent legislation ahead of tax reform?

I get about as excited about daylight saving time as I do in getting up in the morning to shovel snow.

I'm not interested in paying higher taxes either, but there must be more equitable way of collecting them than through business activities tax, personal property tax and sales tax on medicine that is to keep you healthy enough to pay the rest of the taxes.

By golly, them mini skirts are all right. I've only seen, live, one gal in a mini, and she is a live, doll gal.

I'm sure mini skirts, like slacks, should be worn by only certain type gals, but Carol Webster is one of those types.

If she would just walk through the sales room at Haupt Pontiac, where she works, every once in a while sales are bound to go up. Of course, Jack may have to put blinkers on his salesman to keep their minds on the sale, or he could cut commissions because of the added fringe benefit.

difference in the style of type in this issue. If you look for it you will because there will be a mixture of the old and the new in news columns.

We've installed some new type setting equipment called Justowriters. They're glorified typewriters. "Glorified" means expensive. You need two of them to do the work. On one the type setter, in our case Carolyn Trent, touches the keys and as she does this a paper tape is punched full of holes.

This process is much like a teletype punch machine. The holey paper is then fed through another Justowriter. The first impressions on the paper have a ragged right edge, like most type-written letters. When the copy comes out the second machine the right hand edge is justified, straight, or so we hope.

Some companies would tell you "This is just another forward step we are taking to improve the looks of our product, to increase speed to enable us to print more news and have later deadlines to better serve our customers."

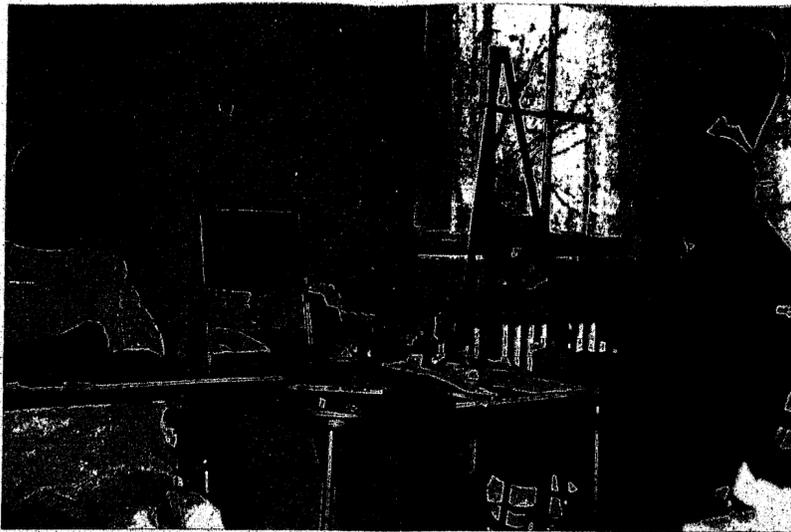

We're doing it cause we got a good buy on the machines, because this process is something we were going to have to go to someday anyway, and because it cuts down on time to enable us to distribute the time of our typist to relieve others in the office of some of their work.

You don't have to read between the lines to get our meanings. We'll give it to you straight.

ABOARD DESTROYER

Machinist Mate Billy E. Cagle, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cagle of 4461 Major St., Drayton Plains, is on extended anti-submarine exercises off the United States east coast as a crewmember of the destroyer USS Douglas H. Fox.

The Fox was part of a task group of nine destroyers and an aircraft carrier that recently visited Miami, Florida. This was the largest complement of warships to enter this port in over 20 years.

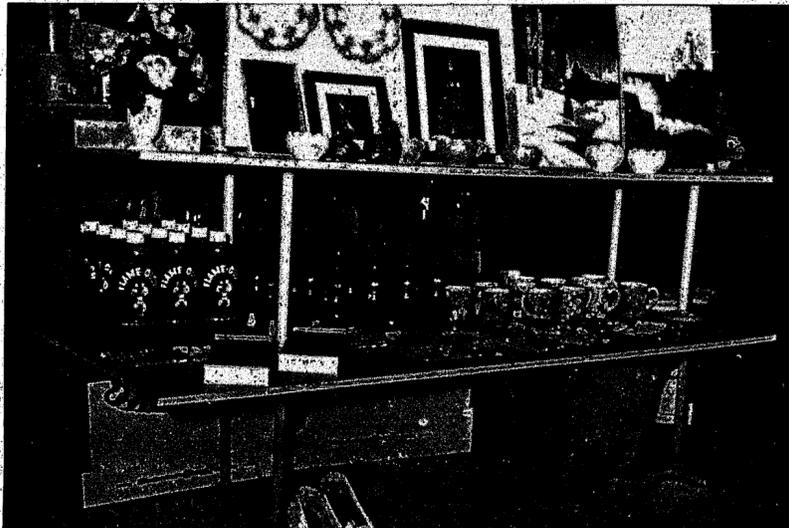

A measure of recreation is put into the lives of these patients as they become partners in this painting venture. Here Miss Hagan, the occupational therapist, watches as two of the projects that will go on display for sale at Al's Waterford Hardware, reach completion. It is sincerely hoped their determination will be rewarded with your future attention.

Letters to the Editor

Are you aware of the fine facilities that are available in Oakland County? Or do you neglect to realize this fact because you do not have to use them?

We are speaking of the Oakland County Sanatorium. The members of the Waterford Hammond Organ Club can verify this as they have been playing there for over two years on the second Monday of each month. At Useful items such as these will be sold from a special display shelf at Al's Waterford Hardware. Occupational Therapy patients will keep the shelves supplied with their hand made items.

Modernizing?
New Heating System?

Decisions.
Decisions.
Decisions.

(May we help you with an important one?)

Your choice of a heating system is one you'll live with for a long time. So, naturally, you'll want to make sure you get a system that won't cost too much to own. That's where our new electric heat guarantee comes in.

Before you start the job, consult with Edison: We'll see that you get a written estimate of heating costs—before you buy. Then, your monthly bills may be less, but they won't be one cent higher than the estimate. We guarantee it.

If the installation needs adjustments to meet the guaranteed cost figure, we'll see that it's done. And if at the end of three years, the system is still not operating within our estimate, we'll remove it and refund your money.

Before you make any more important modernizing decisions, get the facts on modern electric heat. You can't lose!

that time a musical program is provided for the patients. We have seen how lovingly the Old Folks have been treated and since the TB Sanatorium moved there too we are in a limited way permitted to know that their facilities are very fine.

Members of the Organ Club go in during the day and play the organ (that various organizations helped to pay for) or the piano for the patients. Mrs. Leone Stanaback of Drayton Plains, plays Tuesdays and John Hausaer, of Orchard Lake comes in every Friday. We all have a wonderful time on the 2nd Monday of each month from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. with the organ piano and a saxophone providing music for the "sing along" of the patients. Anyone who can play either an organ or the piano and would like to help pass the time for these fine folks, please contact Mrs. Margaret Evans, 334-9982 at the Oakland County Sanatorium.

The picture of the Occupation Therapist with two of the patients lets you know how eager people are not to resign themselves to whatever may be their ailment. To help these people, to give them added incentive Al's Waterford Hardware will have a space reserved for saleable items made by these folks. They have a lovely display case in the Sanatorium but unless you have someone there to visit you would not make a special trip there to buy a gift. We hope you will remember to come in and see if there isn't a gift that you use. The Bible quotation "Whatever ye do unto the least of these, ye do it unto me" There are many fine organizations "doing" for these patients but don't you want to help them in this small way, provide the necessary incentive that is often the greatest need in our life. The Waterford Hammond Organ Club would welcome new members for details contact Mrs. Emily Hagerman, Secy., OR 3-2546 or Mrs. Beryl Hinz, 623-1074.

Sincerely,
Beryl Hinz

Spring Sports

By Mel Vaara

Clarkston High School is now in full swing with the spring sports of Baseball-Track-Golf-Tennis.

Clarkston has visions for the All Sports Trophy and with reasonable success in spring sports it could belong to Clarkston.

Baseball

Coach Thompson's nine is tied for the League lead with a record of 2-0. Clarkston defeated West Bloomfield 8-0 and Holly 6-2. Dan Fife was the winning pitcher in both games.

Wolves also defeated Pontiac Northern 7-5 in a non-league game. They lost to Oxford 3-1 and Waterford Kettering 4-3. Fife pitched a no-hitter against Oxford but still lost and Johnson was the losing pitcher in the Kettering game. One of the highlights in the Kettering game was the base stealing of Tom Allen. Allen walked to reach 1st base, then he stole 2nd, 3rd and home on pitcher Dick Miceli.

Coach Thompson hasn't been pleased with the hitting of his boys and has only one player hitting 300. Mike Schweitzer a most pleasant surprise is the only one hitting 300. Mike also hit a home run in the West Bloomfield game. Gary Ostrom is the next leading hitter with an average of .298.

Fife pitched another no hitter against West Bloomfield and also contributed with a home run. In the Holly game he limited the Bronco's to only 3 hits.

Tom Allen has now 11 stolen bases, but he and Fife are still having trouble with the bat.

Three boys also quit on Thompson and all three of them lettered last year. Evidently they don't know "Quitters never win and winners never quit". Thompson was forced to pull up Mike Cummings from the J.V. Team. This boy has good potential and the team can use his fine right arm.

This week the team has three games against Brighton, Milford and Bloomfield Hills on a rare Saturday date.

J.V. Baseball

Coach Tungate has a hustling bunch of boys and this former catcher from Michigan State is doing an outstanding job with the team.

They defeated Waterford Kettering 4-0 and Brighton 7-3.

They lost a tough one to Holly 6-5. Cummings won both games for Clarkston, but Grace, Warman and Sealy have shared the mound duties for the J.V.

Tungate is having the same trouble as Thompson, both teams are anemic with the bat. The J.V. Team is hitting only .167. Dennis Storrs and Mickey Cummings are both hitting .500, and only Steve Warman and Rich Porritt are the only boys hitting in the 200 bracket.

The J.V. has a classy infield with Lane, McMillian, Porritt and Craven and they are held together with the all around hus-tier of the catcher Dennis Storrs.

Track

This is a rebuilding year for the grasses boys as Freshmen and Sophomores comprise most of the team.

Max Inman's boys had two practice meets against Ortonville and Warren Lincoln, then they ran against a couple of track powers. Grand Blanc squashed them 116-2 with Dashman Doug Morgan getting the only points. Waterford Kettering tallied up 102 points and Clarkston ran for 14 points. They looked a lot better against Kettering as Inman did some juggling and it paid off. Dawson Bell looked great as he took 1st 458. This was only the 2nd time Dawson ran the event.

Mark Adams responded with a 56 second 440 good for 2nd place. Freshman Buddy Mumbower took 2nd in the mile and a couple of seniors John Simmonds and Lance Leroux added a point each.

This week Clarkston will compete against Flint Ainsworth and Milford. Now if Inman can find some field event men his chances should improve, especially in the pole vault—there should be some vaulters in the 1300 student body somewhere.

It wasn't a total loss for Inman as his two prize dogs walked off with numerous honors at a dog show in Lansing. His two pedigreed dogs "Elk Hounds" earned three 1st and one 3rd place.

Tennis

Coach Thibault and his net minders defeated Waterford Kettering 5-0 and Bloomfield Hills 4-1. In the Waterford encounter Mark Erickson won 6-2 and 6-2. Mike Dougherty won 6-0 and 6-0, Kirk Beattie won 6-1 and 6-2.

In doubles play Kim Beattie and Tom Bullard won 6-4 and 6-0, Brian Gallip and Jack Samson white washed their foe 6-0 and 6-0.

Mark Erickson was pressed to win at Bloomfield Hills, but survived the 1st frame to win going away 2-6, 6-2 and 7-5. Mike Dougherty won 6-3 and 6-0. Kirk Beattie lost the only match 2-6 and 4-6. Both doubles teams of Bullard and Beattie--Sanson and Gallipo won with relative ease.

Round the Town

By Joyce Thompson
625-1929

Several children of local families made their first Holy Communion Saturday morning April 15 at Our Lady of the Lakes Church in Waterford.

After the Communion service which their daughter Kathleen took part in, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glowzinski Jr. of Warbler Drive had an afternoon open house. Besides her godparents Mr. and Mrs. William Waller of Milford who were there, Kathleen's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Zielinski and Aunt Cheryl from Waterford attended. Mrs. Mac Morrow with Therese Victor and Rosann of Transparent also attended along with aunts and uncles Mr. Donald Zielinski of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. George LaForest with Valerie, Raymond and Sherry of Commerce, and Mr. and Mrs. John Zielinski with John Jr., Bobby, Kathy and Jerry from Warren. Because of the pleasing weather, Grandpa was able to take several good coloroid pictures. Mother served a very nice buffet dinner with an attractive cake for the occasion. Many nearby neighbors visited in the evening.

Dinner at the Old Mill by his parents Mr. and Mrs. James Desmond of Warbler Drive with grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoppe of Warren and Mrs. James Desmond of Detroit helped signify the day of Christ's first Holy Communion.

Also going out for dinner after son Richard's (Ricky's) Communion service were Mr. and Mrs. William Pahlert Jr. of Warbler Drive with grandmother, who happens to be Ricky's godmother too, Mrs. Eugene Schmansky of Pontiac.

Matthew's parents Mr. and Mrs. David Coleman of Chickadee arrived home from the Bahamas only five hours before he made his first Holy Communion. Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. William Coleman and an uncle Mr. William Coleman Jr. from Flint visited for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman thoroughly enjoyed their week's vacation with seven other couples from the area on the Bahamas. They flew to Miami and boarded a private yacht at Fort Lauderdale for the islands. After a day and a half on Bimini where the hotel had an impressive salt water pool, the yacht docked at the Pilot House Club on Nassau where most of the week was spent. There they rented hondas to tour the island, and in the evenings the couples enjoyed very good entertainment at the various clubs. Mrs. Coleman was happy for the chance to spend a day at Pompano Beach visiting her mother Mrs. Gladys Koth.

Dinner for twenty-nine guests was served by Mrs. Charles Klann after daughter Lee Ann's first Holy Communion service. Along with her dad and brothers and sister Gary, Bob, La Ree and Mike, Lu Ann's godfather Mr. Tom Satwicy with his wife and children Paul, Mary Jo, Barbara and Jim from Dearborn and her godmother Miss Clara Bobrow from Detroit attended the occasion. Relatives included grandmother Mrs. Harry Klann of Detroit and aunts and uncles Mr. and Mrs. John Pilot with Mary Kay, Michael and Jack from Dearborn; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Klann with Harry and Allan, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Madson with Danny from Royal Oak. Aunt Shirley made and decorated a beautiful huge cake in the form of a cross for the dinner. Along with the lovely gifts she received, Lu Ann especially appreciated the bond from her godmother and the Bible from her godfather.

Mr. Frank Glowzinski's parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glowzinski Sr., who arrived before Christmas from Atlanta, have recently returned to Atlanta and found everything as well as they left it. They were able to divide their time here with their children and families the Frank Glowzinski's, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Glowzinski and Mrs. and Mrs. Cyril Glowzinski of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. George La Forest of Commerce. Joining Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meeker of Almond Lane last Sunday for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Max McClusky with children Kim and Kenneth and Mrs. McClusky's sister from Georgia Miss Jeanette Dent.

A bowling banquet at the Old Mill last Tuesday was held by the Coffee League from Howe's Lanes. The Lucky Strikes' team consisting of Mrs. Jack Dougherty of Pear, Mrs. John

Meadowbrook Festival tickets available in Clarkston

Mrs. Charles Robertson of Clarkston headed a group of women who met last Wednesday morning at Oakland University to receive instructions for this year's ticket sale for the Meadowbrook Music Festival.

Others on Mrs. Robertson's committee are: Mrs. Gerald Anderson, Mrs. Douglas Cowdin, Mrs. Richard Huttenlocher, Mrs. Richard Johnston, Mrs. Ralph Kenyon and Mrs. Bernard Toutant.

The season which runs from June 29-August 20 will be a full 8 weeks. Subscribers may buy season tickets for the entire season or for either 4 week series. Concerts will be given Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings.

The 8 week season ticket costs $22.50 for the pavilion, $12.50 for the lawn; the 4 weeks series tickets are $12.50 and $7. Children will be admitted for half price, up to 12 years.

In addition to ticket sales, $50,000 must be raised elsewhere to help finance the season.

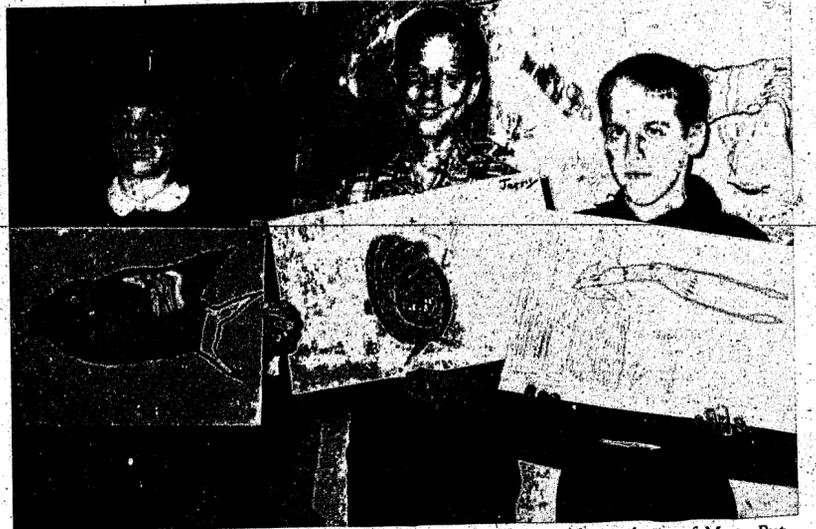

Weber of Pear, Mrs. Pete Lektzian of Plum Drive and her sister-in-law Mrs. Melkon Lektzian of Waterford evidently didn't accumulate enough "lucky" strikes as they concluded the season in twelfth place out of fourteen teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Humbert of Snow Apple Drive took a pleasant drive Sunday to view a coin show. An avid collector of coins himself, Mr. Humbert is especially interested in foreign coins.

Mr. and Mrs. John Womack of Shelley Drive were treated to three whole days at the Bahamas as guests of Eastern Airlines recently. Because of a four-hour layover in Miami when flying down, Eastern rented cars for Mrs. Womack who's a travel agent and her husband and the 45 other agents of the Midwest and took the group for a tour of the Miami area. The Womacks were accommodated by the King's Inn on Grand Bahama Island. There they took a lovely boat cruise from Freeport to West End to view and judge the hotel for tourists. Dinner was served on the return trip. Besides being dinner guests at the King's Inn which had a floor show and dinner guests of the Lucayan Hotel which also had a floor show, the Womacks were invited to visit the Casino. One afternoon they walked to the interesting International Bazaar, which is still in the process of completion. Each day there was also the contentment and relaxation at the hotel pool. While their parents were luxuriating in the beautiful weather at the Bahamas, children Ted and Lori were enjoying their visits with relatives here. The first and third nights were spent with grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Orville Womack of Pontiac, and the second night Ted stayed with grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Smith of Pontiac while Lori stayed with an aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Mark Thatcher of Bloomfield Hills.

Still in Pontiac General Hospital for an indefinite time is Mr. Robert Hoopingarner of Church. Because Mrs. Hoopingarner works and the older children Martha, Jackie and Betty Ann attend school all day, Mrs. Russell Inman of Almond Lane is helping the family by caring for the younger children Steven and David during the day. Mr. Hoopingarner was admitted to the hospital two weeks ago for surgery, but complications arose which prevented the surgery and he has since been under observation while undergoing many tests.

Turning the colorful seas into an artistic medium are sixth grade students of Mrs. Butters Clarkston Elementary class. Having studied the beauty of the ocean the class duplicated their thoughts in chalk, water crayons, tempera paint, crayons and colored pencils. Displaying their work are Claudia Tuson, Jerry Douglas, and Albert Domroese.

Last Friday Greg Prebe was an overnight guest of his boyfriend Ted Womack Jr., while Lori Womack was an overnight guest of Alicia Pohlkotte of Shelley Drive. The boys enjoyed playing records and watching television, and the girls attended a movie at Bailey Lake School.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Larry Thompson of Almond Lane last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wallace from Birmingham who were in the area to pick up their son Chuck and three more Boy Scouts from an overnight stay at a local farm. Later that afternoon Joyce's folks from Grosse Ile Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hiske with Carol and David stopped in after visiting friends in Lake Orion. Mrs. Hiske showed home movies of a week's deer hunting trip in which Mr. Hiske and Larry were subjects.

Saturday, Christina Smart and her cousin, Jim Muscat, received their first communion at Our Lady of Lakes. A buffet lunch was held at the William Smart home after with Jimmie's grandmother Mrs. Zwicker of Clarkston and Christina's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smart of Walled Lake attending. Christina is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smart and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muscat Jr. Jim's parents.

Mrs. Arnold Jones is eagerly awaiting the closing of school because Mike and Cindy along with their mother will be leaving the following day for Tulsa, Oklahoma where they will join Mr. Jones. Mr. Jones is manager of a new clothing store that has started there and they will be making their home there.

Dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norton Wood were Mrs. Wood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T.O. Wright of Romeo. Miss Judy Wright, Mrs. Woods sister, also joined them.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiley and family, Sharon and Mary, have just returned to their home after spending several weeks with friends and relatives in their home town of Charlotte, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. William

Gord and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gord attended the showing of "Hawaii" Saturday evening with dinner after.

Mrs. James Shoots with daughter Jeannie, spent two weeks the first part of April with Mrs. Shoots parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burder of St. Petersburg, Florida. Mrs. Shoots and Jeannie enjoyed seeing the different scenery during their drive down.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Wilson joined Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mason for dinner at their favorite restaurant and dancing after.

The James Buets attended a dinner dance Friday evening honoring a life long member of the Potter Club, Mr. George Warren. More than a hundred people attended many meeting Mr. Warren for the first time though they had read his column for years in the monthly letter of the Potter.

Mr. Warren was presented with a suitcase loaded with invitations to visit from the members.

A drive in the country followed by dinner was enjoyed by the D. Talberts and their three children, Mary, Scott, and Jackie. They took time out to explore the country side and see nature starting to show its head.

A surprise birthday party was held Wednesday evening, April 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gleason on Villa Crest in honor of their son, Wayne Jr.'s seventh birthday. Seventeen girls and boys were waiting for Wayne when he returned from the store and as soon as he realized what was going on the party got swinging. Everyone enjoyed dancing with time out for food including a large cake with one candle notched for each year.

A swimming party was organized by Sharon Newell with five of her girl friends gathering at her home Friday after school. Even though they decided it was too cool for swimming yet they made sure their bathing suits were ready and started projects for new ones. The girls made dinner with each offering to make their favorite, hot dogs.

Jill, little three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wyler, has to stay in due to measles. Mrs. Wyler is helping Jill paste her many get well cards in a book so she will have something to remember her spots when she gets older.

A broken arm didn't keep David Vernon from leaving Thursday by plane for a two week vacation in sunny Florida. He may not be able to swim but the sun will still feel great.

A trip north for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clare and family was made this week-end for the purpose of getting their cabin ready for summer. This time of year always makes them eager for school to end as it seems that there is never enough time to do all that they want to do.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ray had as their guests Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pierce. They enjoyed an evening of bridge followed by dessert.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Pence and family of Ohio stopped to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Puter on their way through Clarkston Tuesday. Family friends for years, they rarely see each other but the trip to Traverse City brought them to Michigan so they took advantage of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson and family were weekend guests of Mr. Jackson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jackson of Rogers City. Trudy and Cindy were thrilled with a box of toys that their grandparents made up just for their visit.

Mrs. David Fouler is confined to her bed due to a broken hip she received when she fell down an incline. Mrs. Fouler is making her home with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. F.F. Landing of Flint, during her confinement.

We need your help

You could help the Clarkston News be the best little community newspaper anywhere around. Yes, that's right, we said you could help us! You can help us by keeping us informed of the special events for the clubs and various community activities in which you are personally involved.

It recently came to our attention that we were not on the mailing list of a local club's monthly newsletter. As a result, we've missed out on some stories and picture possibilities that we would like to have covered had we known. However, that is now remedied and we hope we can build a better rapport with that organization and their activities.

We are only too happy to include news stories about your organization in the News, but we must know about them before we can publish them. This also pertains to various social events such as showers, weddings etc. If you have any questions about getting news in the paper just give us a ring.

Clubs should appoint one member specifically to keep in touch with The News on newsworthy items from that club. Churches and their affiliated organizations would do well to do the same. Thus we will be able to put out a more informative and entertaining newspaper and clubs will get the kind of publicity which they want and deserve.

We are interested in you and we want to build this paper into the kind of newspaper that one can pick up and read about everything that's going on in our town.

Just Like a Woman

April is a month to try men's souls. Full of promise, she delivers nothing.

First, there's the income tax. Just when all good men and true should be out fertilizing their lawns and raking and rescuing bare spots, the Ides of April force them to their financial figures. And when that soul-searching job is done, there's no money left for either feed nor seed. The lawn embarks on one more year of brown spot, bald spot and magnificent dandelion crop.

Oh sure, if you look closely, buds are swelling and sap is stirring, but the branches that your wife brought in for forcing will have bloomed and died before lazy April brings the outside ones to blossom.

Of course, those 2 or 3 first bloomless weeks are full of sun and warmth—you're sure that spring is coming early this year. Ha! The very day the daffodils appear, we have a cold snap.

If, encouraged by April's early smiles, you get your self muscle-bound clearing the leaves off the garden, spading it up and raking in the 5-10-5, April will give you the gift of weeds. Before you can get your seeds tamped in, all that lovely, velvet-brown earth is dotted over with chickweed, cheat, sorrel, pigweed, plantain, buckhorn, purslane, smartweed—you name it and you have it.

April is a spiteful month. If it's rain you need, April will stay dry. If you're swamped with mud from March, she'll beat you anyway. There's nothing you can do about April—she's just like a woman.

April is a month to try men's souls. But when April comes, May can't be far behind.

PEEKIN' into the PAST

10 YEARS AGO IN THE CLARKSTON NEWS

Members of the Official Board of the Methodist Church will entertain over 100 new members of the Church at a Fellowship meeting and an evening meal.

Half the male population of the township attended their annual Bowling banquet last Saturday night.

Ground was broken last week for the new Waterford Post Office on the east side of Dixie Highway near Andersonville Road.

Pat Hart will be the Toastmaster for the C. H. S. Junior-Senior banquet on Saturday. 195 are expected to attend.

25 YEARS AGO IN THE CLARKSTON NEWS

Barbara Roehm of Maple Drive has been awarded an Alumni Undergraduate scholarship to the University of Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Jones and son Bobby returned from a southern trip on Monday night.

A notice was carried in the News of savings interest reduction by the Clarkston State Bank to 1%. Officials at the bank explain that this rate is due to the almost complete stoppage of demand for loans. Building loans are apparently out for the duration. Automobile and household items are under ban. So until conditions change, bank surplus funds will have to be invested in government bonds and held incash.

"If It Fitz . . ."

How to Live Well on Welfare

by Jim Fitzgerald

Does it make you angry when someone else gets something for nothing—especially if the taxpayers bought the "something" and you just had to borrow from the bank to pay your taxes?

Does it steam you even more if this freeloader is a relative?

If your answer is "no" to both questions, you are a saint and really should not be reading this devil's column. If you answered "yes" to only the last question, there is still hope for the loss of your soul. Keep snarling.

For the majority of you who answered "yes, yes, I got a lazy brother-in-law drawing unemployment and I hate the bum"—for you I reprint a letter received from a Southgate woman. Stiffen your jaw, steel your eyes, and prepare to enjoy some delicious anger. This is what she said:

Dear Mr Fitzgerald:

My pet peeve is welfare.

How do the social workers from the welfare select the chosen few who are to receive donations from us, the working taxpayers? I know of 2 people who receive welfare who are as healthy as I am.

One is an unwed mother of 19, who has working experience in an office and has average intelligence. This girl does not use the welfare support for her baby, but more for her own personal wants, such as hip-huggers, poor boy shirts, motorcycle jacket and helmet. Is this the type of clothing the well-dressed mother wears?

She is a Miss Know-It-All—wild, mouthy, and sloppy. She gets thrills on motorcycle rides and is neglectful of her baby. She gets the best medical care possible because welfare foots the bills. There are many working women who cannot afford these specialists but yet this girl with no job, no husband and no responsibilities has learned to expect the best of everything from us, the taxpayers.

How do I know about this healthy specimen of a woman? I just happen to be lucky enough to have her for a niece through marriage.

THE SECOND person is a woman with 4 children. The last 3 years that she has been getting welfare, she has been living with a man who has a full time job and makes a good salary.

Now, this woman has rent free from welfare, utility bills free from welfare, plus an allowance to live on from welfare, plus the salary of the man she lives with. They have a color TV and live in the lap of luxury. She intends to buy a camper, which every well-living family should have, with the money she gets from welfare. She won't marry because her welfare will be cut off, and she might not be able to live in the style she is accustomed to.

How do I know this woman? I just happen to be lucky enough to be the sister-in-law of the man she lives with.

Is it fair that you and I and millions of other taxpayers pay these people our hard earned money because they think the world owes them a living?

I am sure that there are a lot more cases such as these who are living off us, the taxpayers. I do believe in welfare for those that deserve it. But how closely do the social workers check that they can miss a color TV in the welfare house, or men's clothing in a supposedly manless house, and a black leather jacket and helmet in a supposedly reformed girl's apartment?

I REPRINTED T.K.'s letter because she did a much better job of being indignant than I could do. I am one of those bleeding liberals who believes that most unemployed people would rather work if they had the chance and the skills. I don't mind when my tax money is spent on families not so lucky as mine. What the heck, I can already afford more hangers than I can stand, and there are no poolrooms in cemeteries.

But I also can get angry when the Great Society administrators bungle the job. Sometimes they become so infatuated with their lofty positions, and so hypnotized by red tape, they forget what they were hired to do—help people who need it. Instead, they help everyone who asks as long as the applicant asks sweetly and gives the right answers to the right questions.

The real tragedy of this official ineptness is not that your tax money might put fat on a lazy slob. The big sadness is that money wasted might have helped someone with a real need. No matter what LBJ says, there is only so much money.

Let's not use any of it to buy a camper for T.K.'s free-loading friend. Let her stay home and watch color TV. Δ

Ripples from the Pool

By Faith Poole

What could be a better job on a dismal cold Saturday than cleaning the basement? Of course the correct answer is most anything. But that isn't the way life is and so in our household last Saturday was the appointed day. By that I mean, for several days in advance I had given notice that I was appointing that day as the one that Friend Husband and his attire must have been faded, baggy corduroy pants and old hats. Never have I seen such an accumulation unless it was my own collection of jelly glasses and jam jars. I must never throw one away—I think I could make jam for everyone in the township, and have glasses to spare. But those went back on the shelves to be re-stored, naturally!

Every family should clean a basement regularly! It can really be quite revealing as well as relieving.

Parents although already well notified should not forget the Fluoride Clinic scheduled to begin next week in the various Elementary school throughout the district. The program will last for 6 weeks and kindergarten, second, fifth and eighth grade children are eligible. The $3 registration fee should be sent to the school by the child yet this week.

Pardon us if our mistakes are showing this week. We're pretty inexperienced on these new Justowriters and although they would arrive at these deductions. The family obviously had trouble with the flush boxes of their toilets—I really think I counted 3 separate sets of insides. The explanation—"when one goes bad, you take a good part off from one you discarded." They would also deduct that the man of the house was a golfer, a fisherman and his sole attire must have been faded, baggy corduroy pants and old hats. Never have I seen such an accumulation unless it was my own collection of jelly glasses and jam jars. I must never throw one away—I think I could make jam for everyone in the township, and have glasses to spare. But those went back on the shelves to be re-stored, naturally!

I knew it, I just knew it would all catch up with me someday, and last week it arrived in the form of a cold chunk of grey metal. My Judge and Adjuster. Everyone else thinks all it wants to do is take in the ribbons of tape Carolyn feeds it and justify the type, but it doesn't fool me a bit. I can tell by that humming when I go near that one of these times it plans to gobble me up, spit me out, all peacefully adjusted. Gone will be the fun things in life . . . like tearing the plaster off the walls before Dick says it's all right . . . taking pictures with the lens cap on (well sometimes everything looks so darn dark) . . . will have to give up the habit of re-washing the ironing each week, and maybe even do it . . . I'll probably go blonde. Why not? My daughter shot all illusion when she informed me she wanted to be a blonde first and have more fun, then she would dye her hair red and get married. To think I thought I was having such a good time. . . The real low blow will come in giving up Chicken Man, that's asking too much. Of course the column will need a new head. Something suitable like Mrs. Walter Leaf's Monitored Remarks should do. . . Great day! My chicken man crush has paid off. We decided to buy a radar controlled plug puller. Cha, cha, cha. . .

have great promise, we haven't quite mastered yet how to handle our own corrections. But seriously, we hope you like the new type!

-WHAT IS MAN?-

O Lord, our God, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth. When I consider Thy heavens, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars which Thou hast ordained; what is man that Thou art mindful of him? Psalm 8:1-3-4.

Only with our lives can we make reply to the Hebrew Sage's question, for in the character we set forth, in the mercy, compassion and charity we exercise, in the quality and worth of our lives in God's sight lies the answer. In these things alone does a man reveal his true inner self.

Jesus makes it wholly clear that man is a child of God whose spirit is destined for eternity in Him and that he is endowed with great capability for good, which must be developed if he is to gain fulfillment and acceptance. He bids us build upon the basic law of life . . . Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and mind and strength. . . Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself . . . and He rebukes us when we fall short of the level of nobility which could and would be ours if we but willed it so.

Do we try to live as children of God should live? That is the question. To do so is to gain the better sunlight of a greater happiness.

Eternal God, our Father: Renew a right spirit within us, we beseech Thee, that we may truly be Thy children. In Jesus' name we pray. AMEN.

Cub Scout Pack #126

A special flag ceremony by Den 6, with Mike Humphreys as Den Chief, opened the April pack meeting. A bugle accompaniment was effectively played by Pat Humphreys.

The monthly Father-son outing will be a hayride Sunday, April 30th, at 1:30. Meet at First Methodist.

Mrs. Humphreys', Show-O-Ree chairman, urged all families to attend this annual event on May 20th. Each cub scout will be working at an appointed time in the pack booth. Fun for all is promised!

A special ceremony initiated Grady Packer, Jim Muscat, Brad Fairse, Mike Levengood and their parents into the pack. We also wish to welcome our March Bobcats: Ricky Prano, Billy Hux, Michael Cumberworth and their families.

The following awards were earned during March and April. Wolf: Jeff Schatz, Brad Katala. Bear: Mike Sawyer, Terry Johnson, Tim Humphreys, Bob Wilkinson. Lion: Malcolm MacDougall. Den Chief Cord: Brad Funk, Pat Humphreys. Graduation Arrow of Light: Gregory Cole, Chris Vossie. Congratulations to our Cub-of-the-Month: March--Mike Vossi, April--Danny Fox. Kenneth Leslie, Committeeman, was recognized with a one-year service award.

Excitement reached a high peak as Cubmaster Vossi announced the beginning of the annual Pinewood Derby Race. Den 1 stepped forward, had their cars checked for the regulation 5 oz. weight, placed the first four cars on the track and the race was on. Each Den was awarded a First, Second and Third prize ribbon. All First prize winners entered the final heat which determined the Grand Champion of the Pack, won by Cary Leslie. Den ribbons were won by the following boys: Den 1--1. Brad Fairse; 2. Mike Cumberwoth; 3. Ricky Prano. Den 2--1. Hoxsie; 2. Campbell; 3. Fahrner. Den 3--1. Dan Fox; 2. Mike Klann; 3. Kevin Hawkins. Den 4--

1. Cary Leslie; 2. David Vidlund; 3. Dan Hollis. Den 5--1. Jim Muscat; 2. Gary Claffin; 3. Jim Sandburg. Den 6--1. Tim Humphreys; 2. John Anderson; 3. John Morrow. Webelos--1. Malcolm MacDougall; 2. Chris Vossi; 3. Bobby Golding. The Totem Pole was presented to Den 2 for the highest parent participation. Den 6 closed a most exciting and eventful meeting with the bugle and flag retreat.

Effort not wasted on Richard Cranick

By Faith Poole

A former Clarkston Junior High star athlete helped his team mates win the championship recently in the Mid-American Conference competing against teams from Indianapolis, Chicago and Cleveland. Readers may wonder what is so unusual about that feat until they realize that this player, Richard Cranick, a double amputee was playing in the National Wheelchair Basketball Association tournament. Cranick and his mates won the national championship defeating Richmond, Virginia, 64-46 in the finals. He was voted the most improved player in the tournament.

Richard had a promising football career ahead of him when in the 8th grade at Clarkston Junior High. He held the junior high sit-up record--1,642 in youth fitness tests and he played on the Star Football team composed of 9th graders while in the 8th grade (they were short of boys that year). His team won every game and Dick was so proud to be part of it.

But in August of that year (1962), the family moved to Utica and shortly after that black tragedy struck for the family. While visiting on a farm near Marlette Dick got caught in an automatic auger that took off the left leg above the knee, and the right one below the knee. For a period of 8 weeks he was a patient in Port Huron General Hospital. Complicated surgery was necessary and then the slow tedious and painful fittings of artificial legs. The accident happened on August 16, and just 2 days before Christmas of that same year Dick was standing on his artificial legs.

The Cranick family was shattered when the accident occurred--they knew that they must spend every available minute with Dick in the hospital at Port Huron--there were four other children at home and they were absolute newcomers to Utica, as they had only recently left Clarkston. The way in which Clarkston rallied to the cause was phenomenal. Townspeople flocked to their sides--contributions of blood for the injured boy, food for the family, moral support for Richard and the family--these are only part of what the Cranick family received.

As Mrs. Cranick tells it, "There were days which we all thought would never end, but now we look back and know that God had his way of showing us a new tomorrow--something seemed to happen every day to help us see tomorrow better."

From the day of the accident, Dick's mother tells "the little village of Clarkston got together and started to make plans for Dick and the family. Throngs of visitors drove to the hospital in Port Huron--even though they couldn't see him because he was listed as critical, they sent messages, notes and gifts to him. From then on, it was no stopping these Clarkston youngsters, they got together and sent cards, letters, gifts, and flowers. Many of them would visit real often. They all had their own ideas to make Dick feel better each day. Many of the parents and Terry's Market and our neighbors got together and sent pot luck to our new home in Utica. God only knows we needed it as I had no time to be at home to prepare meals for the other four children. They were home alone and completely puzzled over the outcome of their lives. Close friends visited the children knowing their loneliness and fear and what a blessing that was."

Dick was allowed to go home for 4 days before the major surgery, but the problem arose about how to move him without danger of infection. An ambulance was deemed as the only safe way--someone contacted Harold Goyette, who delivered Dick safely home for the brief respite, then back to the hospital in time for the scheduled operation. Dick laughingly told Harold that perhaps someday he could repay him. Harold's reply was "My pay will be on the day that you walk alone and I can see you do it and I can see you develop into a fine good person." That started a friendship that has endured for the five years.

During the long operation, Dick needed 15 pints of blood. This had to be replaced so the First Methodist Church of Clarkston granted 15 pints in Dick's name. "We weren't members of this church but we did attend there when we lived in Clarkston. They gave us all the blood we needed and would have given more had it been necessary," said his mother. Close by Dick's side during these crucial hours was the Rev. Richards of the Methodist Church who reminded Dick of the special prayers being said in his behalf. His assurance to Dick that he was only a phone call away helped to reassure the boy.

When the family were in deep depression over the accident, a letter and check arrived in the mail with this note--"We are sending a check for $101.35 with our deepest sympathy. We hope it will help a little to ease the strain"--signed by the Clarkston Junior High Student Government. In the meantime cards and wonderful letters from fellow students came in a steady stream.

One Sunday that fall, Denise Novatney went to visit Dick bubbling over with plans for a Student Benefit Dance. She said to Dick, "All of us want to give a dance in your honor to help buy your artificial legs." From that moment on Denise and her fellow students began organizing. With the help of their parents they spent many hours arranging the affair for mid-November when Dick would be home. The Community House was packed with young people who danced to the music of the "Initials". Over 500 tickets were sold, which meant a wonderful start on the purchase of the legs--the first pair were to cost $1,000. As Dick tells it, "there are some things that money can't buy and that's the friendship I've received from Clarkston. These people certainly had a lot of faith in me to do all this. Someday I hope I'll make all of them proud of me and that their time and effort wasn't wasted on someone who didn't care."

There were other manifestations of kindness: A friend, Pat Waite wanted to do something completely on his own, so he talked his mother into letting him give Dick a poodle. Pat felt that the dog would be company for him during his long convalescence. It seemed that Pat's prediction was so right.

After months of being a home-bound student, where the teacher loaded Dick down with home work to distract his attention from his misfortune, he was given permission to take driver-training, as riding a school bus was out of the question. Upon completion of the driver course, it meant a change of family auto--Dick must have an automatic shift. Again a Clarkston family came to the rescue! The Cranick family had exhausted their finances and not yet had time to establish themselves in Utica. A Clarkston family helped with the car purchase--also saw that Santa came to visit the Cranick family and did some Easter outfitting the following spring. Mrs. Cranick tells "they made many long strained hours turn into hours of joy and happiness for the family--God bless all of you".

There were the bright days and the bleak days. Governor John Swainson, himself a double amputee called on Dick in the hospital when told of the boy's accident. There were trips nearly every day to the Orthopedic Service to get the legs to feel just right. As soon as possible his father provided Dick with parallel bars. Never once did the boy complain of the pain, even though he would work out until his clothes were soaked with perspiration.

Came September, 1963 and Dick was able to enroll in the Utica schools, but he knew no one. As he tells it, "I had left my life in Clarkston on August 16, 1962." took him to Clarkston sports events where he could renew acquaintances, sports events where he could renew acquaintances but he finally realized he must take each day as it came and make new friends. "I knew I was a handicapped person and there were so many things that I couldn't do." Soon an opportunity came, he was given a chance to learn watch repairing in his spare time. He eagerly jumped at the chance and he was soon meeting business people who were quick to give him encouragement. I soon learned to look at people with a little more friendliness--they treated me like a whole person and encouraged me to keep pushing for the best," Dick says. Still later, he was employed at a drug store in Utica where his employers and fellow workers helped in many ways: "I had a restlessness in me that was hard to slow down." His energies were channeled into the occupation of drafting which pursuit he is now following since his graduation from High School last June.

But perhaps the "spark" that Dick needed came from the "Sparks". They are a non profit athletic association set up like many sports clubs in big cities. But with one exception--its members can't walk. All the action originates from wheel chairs. Basketball, track and field, swimming, bowling, water polo, touch football--they'll try them all. He was introduced to this organization by Bob Dilday, Utica's football and baseball coach. It opened up a whole new world for Dick. In just his second year of wheelchair sports Dick has also gained fame in track, too. He won the shotput in a Detroit meet last year with a heave of 34 feet, 7 1/2 inches. And he took seconds in the javelin (110 feet) and discus (115 feet) in other meets.

And what looked like an empty life for this young man just five years ago has now become a very full one. In addition to the sports he loves, and a job he likes, he now has romance. In August he will marry Chris DiPaole a fan who has watched him play as a member of the "Sparks".

Clarkston can look fondly on this boy, and be proud of what they did to give him and his family the courage to go on when adversity struck.

Editors Note: Our thanks to Jim Porter, Sports Editor of the Utica Daily Sentinel for the Sports Record Dick has compiled.

An older sister of Dick's Ilona is now married and the mother of 2 little boys. She was in the first class to graduate from the new CHS. A brother, Grant is now a Junior in Utica High and 17 and hopes to play Pro-baseball. A sister, Denise, is 15 and a Freshman at Utica. John, 6 is a 1st grader.

The Horton family- Settlers of Waterford and Davisburg

Today, despite all our modern conveniences, planning a trip that covers hundreds of miles, takes a month or more and includes eight children, would be considered a tremendous undertaking. One thing foremost in many peoples minds would be some amusement to keep the children occupied and out of trouble.

When Jane and Caleb Horton, in 1835, left Palmyra, New York such frivolities as amusements for their children were further from their thoughts. Rather they were concerned with how much of their household supplies and farm equipment they could afford to freight on the Erie Canal, in addition to paying fare for ten people.

Children being the same in that long ago yesterday as they are today, the eight Horton children no doubt had their share of being fished out of the canal or begging to ride the tow horses. Only rarely were these canal barges built for speed and since most emigrants didn't have the extra money they had to pay for this speed, it was a slow, plodding trip to Buffalo.

From Buffalo, the Horton family crossed Lake Erie to Detroit in one of the packetboats that plied between the two ports. This trip could take from four to ten days, depending on the ship's taking a direct route across the water or following the shore line, tying up every night at some small settlement.

At Detroit, Mr. Horton got a team and wagon for the last leg of their journey. It was here that pioneer families were cautioned that they could depend on camping along the way at least two nights while traveling into Waterford or Independence Townships.

On June 3rd they arrived in Waterford. The year before, Caleb Horton had come to Michigan by himself to prospect and had purchased 100 acres that already had a log house built on it. Apparently, no one had ever told the forty year old Caleb that he was too old to make a new start or perhaps people in those times were too busy to worry over such things. Caleb served as Justice of the Peace in Waterford for many years.

In appreciation for his public spirited and valuable contributions to the Correction Program of the State, Mr. Floyd Vincent was recently presented with a Certificate of Service from the Michigan Department of Correction.

Another child was born to the Horton's after their arrival in Michigan, and all of them received what in those days was considered a better than average education. A log school house was built near their farm and here the children attended. Schools were not yet tax supported and the rate bill system was in effect, a fact that must have caused a lot of scrimping in the Horton household. For seats, the schoolhouse had slab topped benches, not much more than split logs, set up on pin legs. Fastened to the walls all around the room was a projecting ledge, the surface of which served as a writing desk. This put the teacher on a podium in the middle of the room, from which point he could keep an eagle eye on his pupils.

The Hortons prospered and some of their children were sent back to Palmyra to stay with relatives and get a year or so of higher education. Among them was Darwin, a son who had been nine years old when he made the trip to Michigan with his family.

Darwin began farming in Waterford but soon began to look for another means of earning a livelihood. At that time, in 1860, despite the coming of the railroad, there was a great deal of travel by coach and horses. The railroad simply didn't stretch their service to include many hundreds of little towns scattered throughout Michigan. Coach travel required stopping at inns and hotels along their route, for meals or overnight stays. Darwin traded his Waterford farm for property in Davisburg and began a hotel there. This proved an auspicious move for ten years later, he built a four story hotel, considered a very imposing building, complete with livery barns. This was known as 'Horton House'. This proved a very thriving business and Darwin and his wife Sarah soon owned a great deal of business property in Davisburg. They were among the pioneer members of the Methodist Church in that village.

This is a small well behaved group of children preparing to cross Waldon Road on their way to the Clarkston Elementary school. The day is warm and pleasant, the picture is the other side of the coin that has shown large groups anxiously flood from the school at the end of a cold or rainy day. At the curb they are forced to huddle together against the elements, while cars, helpless to help them, parade by. The circle in front of the Clarkston Elementary school has been spotted as one of the prime hazard points in school crossings. The parents themselves have been cited as the offenders. All motorists are warned not to stop their cars in an attempt to hold back traffic. This act of consideration could backfire, causing a tragic pile-up of cars coming over the hill.

Mrs. Janet Luckadoo of 43 N. Main Street is returning Friday from an extended visit in Richmond, Virginia where she was the guest of Mrs. Edith Schaefer. Mrs. Schaefer is motoring back with Mrs. Luckadoo and will remain to attend the wedding of the latter's cousin, Janet Lambert Martin.

Saturday Mrs. Arnold Barrett of Sashabaw Road will welcome home daughter Maria from Goucher College in Baltimore Maryland where she is a junior. The very attractive Maria is flying home with a classmate for the week-end.

Mrs. Blanche Jones of 55 N. Holcomb Street arrived home from St. Cloud, Florida on Friday. She is now a patient in Pontiac General Hospital in Room 323.

NEW BABY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parsons of Lansing are the parents of a baby girl Julie Marie born recently. She weighed 8 lb. 10 oz. at birth. This is the first daughter, but they have a son, John, who is 3. Grandparents are the Cecil Jennings of Waldon Road, Clarkston.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Dawn Mercer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Mercer of 4145 Windiate in Waterford has been awarded a Bentley Foundation Scholarship to Michigan Technological University in the amount of $500. She will graduate in June from Waterford-Kettering High School.

Scholarships were given this year to students who had achieved a high degree of academic excellence and who applied for the scholarships at the 59 Michigan institutions receiving the grants. Selections of the winners were made by the scholarship committees of the colleges and universities.

The Bentley Foundation is currently contributing $78,000 for scholarships for the academic year 1966-67. Its commitments for the school year will bring total contributions to near-$439,000 for the 6 years the Foundation has been in operation.

About 550,000 U.S. homes are hit by fire each year, and over 6,000 persons--33% of them children--die in these fires, National Fire Protection Association records show.

ROMANCE.... AND A BENT STRAW

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Emmett E. Nelson

Funeral services for Emmett E. Nelson, 56 of 5805 Everest were held last Saturday morning at 11 A.M. from the Huntoon Funeral Home in Pontiac. Burial took place in the Sashabaw Cemetery.

Mr. Nelson who died on Tuesday, April 18 was an employe of the press room at Pontiac Motor Division.

He is survived by his wife, Dixie; three children, Pat, and Eugene Nelson, both of Battle Creek, and Mrs. Kittle Thomas of Clarkston; also a brother.

Waterford Lions start White cane sales

This week all members of Lions Clubs will sell miniature white cane lapel pins to raise money for sight conservation. The Waterford Club members will be stationed at the Pontiac Mall on Friday and Saturday, April 28 and 29.

The Lions sponsor free eye clinics and donate eye glasses to the needy. The Waterford Club also supports the Pendrickton Childrens Nursery for the blind and handicapped and the Leader Dog School in Rochester.

All citizens are reminded that there is a Michigan law which states that all blind persons carrying a white cane have the right-of-way, and all vehicles must come to a full stop while they are crossing a street or highway.

There are more than 15,000 Michigan citizens who are blind or partially blind. The Lions are trying to help those so afflicted to help themselves.

GOODWILL COMING

The next visit of the Goodwill Industries Trucks to Clarkston will be on May 1st and 2nd. Persons who have household discards which they wish to contribute should call Mrs. Alfred Lee at 625-3381. She will arrange to have the truck stop to pick them up.

MANAGERS TO MEET

The first meeting of the Little League Managers is scheduled for Monday, May 1st in the High School Cafeteria. The meeting will begin at 7:30 P.M.

Father, Mothers or anyone interested are urged to attend, states Bud McGrath, Recreation Director.

"A Day with the Detroit Tigers" was a privilege enjoyed by Curtis Robertson of 6042 Sunnydale in Clarkston last Saturday. He was accompanied to the game and the festivities by his mother, Mrs. W.C. Robertson.

Curtis had the winning entry in a contest sponsored by Coca Cola Company. Included in the day for the ten winners and their parents was a closed practice session with Al Kaline and other players. During this time Curtis had his picture taken with several of the Tigers. He was also presented with a complete baseball outfit and received the various players autographs on a baseball.

The guests were taken to the Holiday Inn for lunch and had 2 box seats at Briggs Stadium from which to view the game.

The day would have been complete had the Tigers been able to score a win, instead they were defeated by the Minnesota Twins by a score of 4-3.

BELL RINGERS TO PERFORM

The Eastern Junior High School Bell Ringers will entertain Wednesday, May 3, at the Pontiac YWCA Ladies' Day Out. The talented young people will present their program immediately following luncheon.

All area residents are invited to attend the Ladies' Day Out Luncheon at 12 noon and hear the Eastern Junior High School Bell Ringers. Reservations will be appreciated. Call the Pontiac YWCA--269 West Huron.

ABOARD AIRCRAFT CARRIER

Aviation Structural Mechanic Airman Calvin E. Rolston, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Rolston of 260 N. Baldwin Road, Clarkston, is in the Guantanamo Bay area as a member of Fighter Squadron 103 embarked on the attack aircraft carrier USS Saratoga.

Guantanamo Bay is the United States' oldest overseas Naval base, acquired through a lease agreement with Cuba in 1903. The base includes a harbor, ship repair facilities, and two airfields. Guantanamo's wartime role is to support combatant Naval forces operating the Atlantic.

From this base, the southern approaches to the United States can be controlled. Its peacetime role is to support fleet operational training. Guantanamo's aerial gunnery range, which is available to the Atlantic Fleet, is the only one unhampered by commercial air traffic.

The Saratoga is scheduled to go on a Mediterranean cruise in May.

The first cat shows were held in Maine as early as 1870.

Water has always held a natural attraction for children. It spells mystery and adventure to them, but all too often, danger as well. Places such as this, located off Almond Lane, have become an increasing cause of concern for the neighbors near it as they attempt to ward off the small wanderers. It is believed that new residents of the area may not be aware of the presence of the low lying piece of land that has reached dangerous depths.

Shower honors Janet Martin

Mrs. Arnold Barrett of 10275 Sashabaw Road opened her home Tuesday, April 18 at a luncheon shower in honor of Miss Janet Martin of Bloomfield Hills, who on April 29 will become the bride of Raymond Rabidoux in St. Hugo of the Hills. Mrs. Frank Lambert of 43 North Main Street was co-hostess at the shower which featured an ingathering of recipes from the guests. With all best wishes for a house with a happy kitchen, these were carefully placed in an attractive file box for the bride's future use.

Centering the luncheon table was an unusual brass umbrella, about two feet long and tied with bunches of yellow daisies and china cups. This attractive centerpiece, flanked by dark green candles, proved quite a conversation piece. The Barrett home was decorated throughout with lovely arrangements of greens and cut spring flowers.

One unhappy note was struck. Shortly before the luncheon took place, Janet was hospitalized with a sudden attack of asthma. It was decided, however, to proceed with the plans. So Janet was given a stand-in, a tall white gowned bride doll who occupied a place of honor in the center of a small table. Many colored pictures were taken so the real bride to be will be able to see what went on at her shower.

Janet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Martin will be official residents of Clarkston June 1 when they will be moving into their newly remodeled home at 58 North Main Street. This lovely Greek Revival house formerly belonged to Mrs. Walter Thompson, mother of Mrs. Martin.

Spring Revival

The Drayton Heights Free Methodist Church, Maybee at Winell Roads, Independence Township, will hold spring revival services April 30-May 5. The Rev. Frank Van Valin will be guest speaker. He will be speaking at the 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Sunday worship services and nightly at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Van Valin is currently pastor of the Dearborn Free Methodist Church. He has traveled throughout the country as Gospel soloist, song evangelist and youth evangelist.

The main emphasis of these special services will enter upon the family aspect of Christian living. The host pastor, Thomas Dunn, cordially invites you to attend.
