DAN FIFE

Fife chooses 'M'

The wait is over, the decision is made. Dan Fife has chosen the University of Michigan to continue his education and extend his competition in basketball and baseball.

During the past several weeks he has visited many campuses from Wisconsin to LSU and had invitations from east to west. In the final weeks Dan has had to weigh the many considerations offered and include his own wishes.

He will attend "M" on a grant-in-aid scholarship. He expects to compete in basketball and baseball his freshman year, but football is out until his sophomore year, at least, or so it appears now.

Dan had an amazing record in basketball in Clarkston high school. He holds 14 records. He was never outscored by an opposing player or teammate since part way through his sophomore year. He was all League, first team, 3 years in a row, all-Oakland county 2 years on the first team and led all scorers in the county both years, and he was all-state, first team, his last two years.

When recognized for his achievements at the CHS Awards banquet, Dan's favorite number, 33, was retired. He'll find it retired at U-M, too. That was Cazzie Russell's number.

His achievements on the baseball diamond are not small either. He is an outstanding pitcher and carries one of the highest batting averages.

Dan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Fife and they live at 5553 Dvorak, Clarkston.

Clarkston business to close out

An announcement was made this week that a Main Street business will close after 67 years of operation. Roy Alger owner of the Alger Hardware at 6 Main Street states that he plans to go out of business and liquidate all of the merchandise and fixtures in the establishment.

Mr. Alger who has been active in the business for over 30 years carried on the hardware operation started by his father in 1900. He said that he has been influenced in making this decision by the drastic change in the retail hardware situation today.

In the year 1900, J. H. Alger moved to Clarkston and opened a store in the building that now houses the Clarkston Cafe. It was a wood frame building and Mr. Alger was waiting for the present building to be built. That took about 2 years and when completed he moved the stock and carried on the tradition of hardware merchant until his death in 1939. But in the meantime, the present owner, Roy had always worked with his father and was continued its operation until announcing the present plans.

Before coming to Clarkston, Mr. Alger had been associated with Zimmerman Brothers who were in the hardware business in Pontiac and later Marine City.

Mr. Alger told the News that he has thoroughly enjoyed his association with the people in this trading area and wishes to thank them for their valued patronage. Future plans are incomplete—the sale which begins today will continue until all merchandise is sold. Then there will be a vacation before he announces other plans.

Building permits show April rise

Building permits with a valuation of $440,135 were issued in Independence Township during the month of April. This is $126,135 over March.

Eighteen permits for construction of new houses were issued at a value of $351,885. Permits were also granted for 12 garages valued at $28,990. $29,260 was the amount placed on 10 additions and re-

Receive Regents-Alumni scholarships

Four Clarkston high school seniors have been awarded scholarships by the University of Michigan. They are among the 1,000 students throughout Michigan who have received them.

The scholarships range from $50 honor entrance awards to a maximum of $696. In some cases awards were combined with state competitive scholarships and federal educational opportunity grants to assure sufficient aid.

Those receiving them were Linda Kay Heath; Chris Thomas Maier; Joette Kathleen Schultz and Clayton Don Wilson.

Selections were made by the Committee on University Scholarships with the assistance of alumni interviewers and high school counselors. Students were selected on the basis of character, citizenship, academic achievement, and potential for success in their chosen field of study. Stipends were set according to financial need.

Most of the awards were provided by the U-M Regents-Alumni Scholarship program. Other awards include those provided by foundations, corporate programs, and friends of the University.

Area accidents send 3 to hospitals

Another motorcycle accident in the area sent two youths to the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital last Monday with type A injuries. Sheriff officers report that the accident occurred at 5:25 P.M. at the corner of Waldon and Sashabaw Roads.

Injured were Terry Bellows 17, the driver of the cycle and Roderick Boyle 16, a passenger. Bellows resides at 4203 Windiate in Waterford and Boyle at 4419 Windiate also in Waterford. The driver swerved to avoid hitting a car and lost control.

Officers cited him for "speed too fast" and for passing a stop sign.

HERE'S HOW!

The Clarkston Elementary PTA will meet on Thursday evening, May 11. As part of the program Independence Township Clerk, Howard Altman will be demonstrating the proper use of voting machines.

These machines will be used in the school election on June 12. Mr. Altman will also discuss other items pertaining to the election such as eligibility etc.

Birthday calendar sale Saturday

No home can be without one! All mother's should use one! All children like to see their names on one!

What is one? Of course, a Women's Club calendar.

Friday and Saturday May 12 and 13 will be the annual village sales. This is the last chance to buy a 1967-68 birthday calendar.

With all other prices going up, the calendar costs the same as it did five years ago. For one dollar one can buy a calendar and have a birthday or anniversary listed. Each listing thereafter sells for 25 cents. However, no calendar can cost more than two dollars, regardless of the number of listings.

The calendar runs from September 1 through August 31 to coincide with the school year. Many school events and P. T. A. meetings are listed.

Plan to stop in front of the Clarkston bank this weekend to buy a Women's Club Community Birthday Calendar.

School board approves summer school program

The Board of Education in its Monday night meeting approved plans for a summer school program. The program will be most comprehensive including all grades—elementary through high school.

It is an experimental schedule with details to be worked out as soon as possible so that it may be put in operation this summer. There has not been sufficient response before to warrant such a program, but the board felt that due to the tremendous growth in the district that now was the time to institute the summer school.

Dr. Greene reported to the board that no information has been forthcoming about the school bonds from the Michigan Finance Commission. Although phone calls have been made to Lansing and more information supplied, approval has not been forthcoming.

The board heard a report that 3 members of their group attended a meeting with representatives of AAA relative to safety conditions at the Clarkston Elementary School. They were Mr. Weber, Mr. Barrie and Mr. Ronk. This investigation of safety conditions there was launched by the PTA.

Representatives from the school will be attending meetings of the Allocation Board on May 11 and May 23 hoping to get a rate which will be favorable for the school. The County allocation board will meet on May 10, 11 & 13. Preliminary rates will be set on May 15 and the Board will meet again on May 23 & 24 with final rates set on May 26. The sessions will be held from 9 A. M. until noon on each of these days.

A report was given on the progress of additional playground equipment purchases at Clarkston Elementary school. A second softball diamond is about to be added. Play equipment will also be added at the Andersonville school and also at the North Sashabaw Elementary. A new backstop has also been added at the Junior High.

The deadline for filing school board petitions is May 13, but because this falls on a Saturday, petitions will be taken until Monday, May 15. The terms of 2 members of the board are expiring. The school election will take place on Monday, June 12. Voters on that day will also be voting on a proposal to appropriate funds for a vocational education set-up in the county.

April fire report

The Independence Township Fire Department in their report for April show that 21 calls were answered.

Even though the spring weather has been exceptionally damp, there were 11 calls to fight grass fires or fires of a similar nature. On April 20, this department assisted Davisburg on a grass fire set by the Railroad.

The only house fire was on April 9 when the local men assisted in Springfield Township. There was one local fire when trash in a basement caught fire. Five calls were for the use of the resuscitator.

Two car fires were answered, one in which an auto belonging to Vern Parsell Sales in Holly had the interior completely destroyed by fire.

Local firemen also helped wet down the pavement following a serious automobile accident near the A & P parking lot early in the month.

NEW OFFICERS of the Clarkston Education Association are Tom O'Brien, President Elect; Sue Koslosky, Secretary; William Hanson, Alternate delegate to Representative Assembly; Judy O'Brien, Treasurer; Ken Wolven, Delegate to Representative Assembly and Jerry Grandlund, President.

Jim's Jottings

Our congressman, Jack McDonald, has a great public relations man working for him. We recently got a release saying Jack was going into a medical hospital to have his back worked on. The next week we got a picture of him working while still confined to his bed.

This public relations man, probably under orders from Jack, insisted it was a medical hospital. Yet, according to a news release I received this week, I'm convinced Jack must have spent this time in a mental institution.

The nerve of this guy. He's got to have flipped his wig. Do you know what he's dared suggest in the August halls of the House of Representatives in our nation's capitol?

He introduced legislation which would increase the personal exemption for Federal income taxes from the present $600 to $800 beginning in 1968.

But, that's not all. This kook would have the exemption raised still further, to $1,000 by 1970.

I've got to get hold of his analyst. We have to get through to Jack that the theme in Washington (or Lansing) doesn't run to this kind of thinking. He's got to learn to take, take, take, and over spend, over spend, over spend.

What difference does it make that the present $600 exemption was put on in 1948, and since that time prices have continued to rise at such a pace that today it takes $822 to purchase what someone could buy for $600 twenty years ago, as he points out.

Jack has got to quit being practical and thinking of giving relief to the taxpayers. It's just not done, not acceptable. Better he should spend his time on something that will be agreeable with the majority of congressmen, like increased postal and social security rates, higher and more excise taxes, and maybe invent some new way to gouge the taxpayers. . . like . . . heck, I can't think of any they aren't using.

Our congressman will never be tossed out of the House for losing control of his faculties, but he'll surely be shunned like the plague for suggesting the taxpayer keep more of what he earns.

Just in case he might be serious, I wish Jack every success. That extra $1,000 will sure come in handy next year and might, just might, take care of the increase in taxes that will be coming out of Lansing this year.

Clarkston area schools are a source of much news and pictures in the News. In gaining this copy our contacts have been primarily with the administration, coaches, office personnel and a few teachers. Not enough contact has been made with teachers and very little with the Board of Education.

That's why I looked forward to a meeting Wednesday night with the new and immediate past officers of the Clarkston Education Association and school board.

It was the first time the teachers' group entertained the board and I tagged along, by invitation. The get together was so successful it is expected to become an annual event.

I would guess neither side knew exactly what to expect, but outcome was rewarding. The teachers entertained the board simply to get acquainted. No school business was to be discussed. No board business was to be brought up. It was a fine, friendly meeting.

The only thing related to school-teacher business was the introduction of the new CEA officers by Carolyn Moser.

She's the outgoing president elect, Ken Wolven, president the past 4 years, was there along with his replacement as of May 1, Jerry Granlund. Other new officers are Tom O'Brien, vice president, Sue Koslosky, secretary, Judy O'Brien, treasurer and Dick Latta, salary chairman.

Board members present were Dick Funk, Ron "Buck" Weber, and "Tink" Ronk.

If we were to draw 1 conclusion from this meeting it would be that communications are so very, very important.

Young mechanics to compete

Clarkston High School will enter a team in the Flint Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest, it was announced today by Mr. William Dennis.

The contest, which will be held Saturday, May 20, at Flint Community College is expected to attract teams from 13 schools in this area.

They will be competing for valuable prizes and trophies. The top award to the winning team will be an all-expense trip to Detroit as guests of Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corp. to compete in the 1967 National Finals on June 19, 20 and 21. There, the local winners will compete against other outstanding young auto mechanics from all areas of the country.

More than $100,000 in college scholarships, trophies, tools and equipment will be offered as prizes in the national contest.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting contest is a program which rewards the speed and skill with which students locate, diagnose and repair a series of mechanical difficulties concealed on purpose under the hood of a new car.

Mr. Dennis said the Clarkston team will be selected from the high school automobile mechanics class which he teaches.

The Clarkston High School entry will be sponsored by the Kessler-Hahn Chrysler-Plymouth dealership.

Sure, you can get a great deal on a new car right now.

But be sure you get a great car.

Leave it to Pontiac to take the mediocrity out of car deals. You see, Pontiac dealers aren't limiting you to a so-called "special" deal on a so-called "special" car.

Their specials carry names like Firebird, GTO, Le Mans, Grand Prix, Bonneville,

2+2, Executive and Catalina.

Their specials are endowed with distinctive split-grille styling, the road-hugging security of Wide-Track—a Pontiac exclusive—and years-ahead styling slickerics like disappearing windshield wipers.

If all that sounds like your Pontiac dealer has great cars, you're getting the message. Now all you need is the great deal.

You can get that at your Pontiac dealer's today.

Only Pontiac dealers have both.

Clarkston dumped Bloomfield Hills 4-1. Mike Dougherty played in the #1 spot won 6-0 and 6-1. Mark Erickson had more difficulty and won the last two sets after losing the 1st one. Kirk Beattie lost in two straight sets 4-6 and 3-6. Tom Bullard and Kim Beattie again won in doubles play 6-2 and 7-5. Jack Sansom had a new partner in Rich Barry and they won 2 out of 3 sets. Brian Gallipo was on the Senior Class trip.

The Wolves almost blew their undefeated status as Mike Dougherty lost in singles 1-6 and 3-6. This was Dougherty's first loss of the year. Tom Bullard and Kim Beattie also lost for the first time.

Mark Erickson and Kirk Beattie won in singles and Jack Sansom and Rich Barry won the other doubles match. Al Ventigimelia and Doug Rowden won in doubles match 61-64 and Mark Griffiths won 6-2 and 6-3 in a singles match.

These three wins up's the total to 8-0 overall and 7-0 in league play.

BASEBALL

Coach Thompson minus a bunch of seniors won two games and lost one. Defeated Clarenceville 2-0, Waterford Township 2-0 and lost to Northville 5-1.

Dan Fife pitched a 2-0 victory over Clarenceville as he allowed only 3 hits and struck out 12 boys. John Getzan scored both runs for the Wolves. John walked in the 2nd inning and eventually scored on Thompson's favorite play the delayed double steal. Randy Nicolson layed down a perfect bunt to knock in John Getzan from 3rd base. Getzan rapped a single to start the one run rally.

The Waterford victory was a sweet one for Coach Thompson. Only 3 boys were playing their normal positions. Mike Cummings was the winning pitcher. Waterford had only 4 hits. Pallidino walked to open the 2nd inning and Gary Ostrum singled. Thompson singled for the delayed double steal, it worked beautiful. Pallidino scored and Gary Uban. singled in the 2nd run.

Northville defeated the Wolves 5-1, the loss enabled Bloomfield Hills to tie the Wolves for 1st place in the league race. Johnson was the losing pitcher; one of the few bright spots was Gary Ostrum's 350' home run.

This will be a busy week for the team—they play Holly, Waterford Kettering, West Bloomfield and Brighton!

VARSITY TRACK

Coach Inman's boys lost two meets over the past week. In a triangular meet, Bloomfield Hills scored 100, Holly 38 and Clarkston 12.

Powerful Oxford took Clarkston 113-5. Oxford won every 1st place and swept 12 of 14 events. Dawson Bell took a 2nd in the mile with a time of 5:00 even. Larry Nicol took a 3rd in the mile and hard working Mark Adams took a 3rd in the 440.

Oxford has won something like 26 dual meets in a row. I can remember when Oxford was very weak in track and it was too long ago. However, in the last 5 years this team has come on strong and the track team has put Oxford on the map.

I see where Healy of Oxford broke the magic # of 10 in the 100 yard dash.

J.V. BASEBALL

Coach Tungates nine had a rough week as they lost two games. Pontiac Northern 4-1 and Waterford township 11-0.

Steve Warman was the losing pitcher and had the only hit for Clarkston. Steve rapped a triple in the 6th inning to knock in the only run. Clancy, a starting guard on Northern's Basketball team, struck out 10 Clarkston batters and according to Tungate was rather impressive on the mound.

Waterford township had only 3 hits in their win over Clarkston, but scored 7 runs in the 1st inning. without a hit. Tungates team also suffered due to the Senior Trip, as some of his players were promoted to the Varsity.

All the boys played in the game and all of them had plenty of fielding experience—the team had 8 errors.

Tom Lane, Doug Green and John Sexton had the only hits, Tom Grace and Marshall Sealy handled the pitching chores.

Dennis Starrs leads the team in hitting with a .250 average, followed by Gary McMillan .244 and Rich Porritt .277.

GOLF

The golf team had only one match and defeated Holly 173-177. The match was played at Waterford Hill Country Club. Larry Parker had a fine score of 39. This is the 4th time that Larry has had the top score for Clarkston. Larry, if you keep playing that well, you must give me at least a 8 stroke handicap.

Tracy Tuscon and Kurt Maslowski followed with 44's and Jim Navarre had a 46.

This week the team will have matches against Milford, Bloomfield Hills and possibly Brighton.

Ortonville woman injured

Mrs. Oscar Reed, 34 of 71 Cedar Street in Ortonville was injured in an automobile accident last Friday afternoon. She received a broken leg and is in Pontiac General Hospital.

A car driven by her daughter, Judith Ann, 16 went out of control on Ortonville Road about 4:15 p.m. The driver and two other passengers in the car escaped injury.

She told sheriff officers that she was travelling south, passed a truck and went off the right side of the road after returning to her lane. The car went out of control in the soft dirt and rolled over.

The St. Daniels card party Friday was attended by twelve women, which included the Wednesday night bridge club, from Clarkston Gardens.

only did the ten women who provided the sale items get a good start with spring house-cleaning by getting rid of unusables, they also earned a combined profit of about $160.

A night out was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Batchelder of Waldon Road a week ago Saturday when they joined Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Broome of Walled Lake for dinner at a local restaurant and then went to a theater in Detroit to view "Sand Pebbles". The occasion was in recognition of Mrs. Broome's birthday, as she is Mr. Batchelder's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dougherty of Pear with children Peggy, Kirk and Jack Junior spent last weekend in Tawas visiting Mrs. Dougherty's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Montgomery. Although the male members of the families went perch fishing Saturday morning, trout fishing Saturday afternoon and smelt dipping Saturday evening, the women still had to prepare and serve a turkey dinner Sunday.

Two eleven-year-old girls, Elizabeth Clark of Drayton Plains and Lori Vincent of Detroit, who became acquainted with each other two years ago, were able to rekindle their friendship last weekend when Lori stayed with her cousins the Larry Thompsons and Eliz-

The shower was given by Gail's sister-in-law, Mrs. Roger Rowland and Gail's sister, Mrs. Gloria Vincent, who is Lori's mother. During the shower Mr. Larry Thompson, with children Wendy, Ronnie and Todd, had dinner with Larry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Thompson of Drayton Plains. Later the grandparents launched their new boat by taking their son and grandchildren for a lengthy ride on Loon Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parker of Almond Lane with children, Linda and Ron, and Mr. and Mrs. Cedrick Tyler of Ascension with children, Don and Gail, traveled to Harrison last weekend to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker. fair were a sister Mrs. Grey Passmore of Pontiac and Connie's mother, Mrs. Gordon Buzzell of Whipple Lake Road. Included among the thirty-five guests were Connie's mother-in-law, Mrs. Laura Bieu of Flint, a cousin Mrs. Mike McDonald of Lapeer and two more of her sisters, Mrs. James Lorenz of Whipple Lake Road and Sandra Kay, who still lives at home. Just a few dollars more

While attention is focused on state general fund problems and the consequent income tax controversy, it is evident that taxes of another sort are certain to go up. The proposed highway tax increases, a cent a gallon for gasoline and 20 cents more per hundredweight for auto licenses and 10 percent more for commercial plates, will cost the average car owner $15-$18 a year. A small sum, but like other tax increases, it is the cumulative effect that counts.

These are highway user taxes and specifically earmarked for highway use. One may wonder about the proportions of the tax increases, but one can hardly argue that additional highway money isn't needed. Building roads to keep up with more cars going more places, and then maintaining them, is a never-ending battle.

Guest Editorial: Royal Oak Daily Tribune

The Hawks Are Grounded by Guilt

by Jim Fitzgerald

It was March 17, 1966 that I wrote a column about the "Incurably sick feeling a father gets in his gut when he learns his son is coming home in a coffin." I wondered which Lapeer County father would be the first to get that feeling when his son was killed fighting in Vietnam.

That father just walked out of my office — dragging a leg that was cruelly wounded 24 years ago in World War II. He is Jesse Edwards of Columbiaville and I ache for him. His 19-year-old son, Rodney, is dead. There is no word more final. Dead. The Viet Cong killed Rodney Edwards April 9, 1967 — a little more than a year after I asked who he would be.

My question was prompted, 13 months ago, by a news article which said: "Some Pentagon planners anticipate a war of 3 to 7 years, with American casualties during heavy engagements reaching 500 killed and 15,000 wounded a month."

I was bitter at a civilization that can calmly plan the death of boys still wondering who to take to the senior prom. I was heartsick at the future agony already penciled in for thousands of families. I shivered at the certainty that, sooner or later, one of those boys and one of those families would be from my town. Maybe someone I knew; maybe someone I love. I have a son and his age puts him barely beyond the Pentagon death-planners. But if the war lasts 9 years, instead of seven as scheduled...

OVER A YEAR LATER, after meeting the father of one of the boys the Pentagon was planning on, I am no less bitter. Rodney Edwards' parents are also bitter. They don't think the United States should be fighting in Vietnam. Neither do I.

Which brings us to the heated Dove vs Hawk debate. The Hawks say Communism must be stopped and Vietnam is the place to stop it, and besides, we have a commitment there. The Doves say the Vietnamese are fighting a civil war and the U.S. has no business meddling; and certainly no business dropping bombs on innocent women and children.

That is a capsule summary. There is a lot more to both arguments but that's enough for my purpose. Like most of us, I don't have the information necessary to form reliable opinions on the war. My brain knows I don't understand all the international ins and outs of this bloody business. But this doesn't stop my heart from beating a pacifist pit-pat. War is wrong, no matter who is fighting where for what, and I can't get angry at anyone for being against it. Not even Cassius Clay.

I guess that makes me a Dove. So coo. But I am also a realist and I know this world wasn't made for us sissy pigeons; I can accommodate myself to circumstances — I got through 3 years of World War II without hanging myself in gullit. But this Vietnam mess would bug me even if I were the meanest Hawk in the nest. The following paragraph tells why. It was written by a Marine lieutenant a few days before he was killed in Vietnam:

"I think when one man dies in war, that suddenly there should be no half-way effort to end the killing. When anyone dies, it is a war, and should be crushed with all the ability we have to do so."

If the Vietnam war is worth the life of Rodney Edwards, that war is worth the greatest effort possible to end it. Just ask Mr and Mrs Jesse Edwards. Ask Rodney Edwards' young widow.

But the U.S. is not making that effort. There is no sacrifice on the go-go homefront. And we aren't using our best weapons on the warfront because we are scared silly of touching off World War III. This fear of a nuclear wipe-out is fed by the knowledge that the huge majority of nations and people in the world think the U.S. is grievously wrong in Vietnam.

A guilty conscience is preventing the Hawks from flying full speed. And a stubborn refusal to lose face keeps them from taxiling back to the hanger.

In truth, it is a bitter war for both the Hawks and the Doves. Neither bird can win.

But boys like Rodney Edwards will continue to die and the fact that his father still limps from World War II is searing evidence that we never learn, we never learn...

-SPIRITUAL HEALTH-

It came to pass that Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when He ceased, one of His disciples said unto Him, Master, teach us to pray. Luke 11:1

As children we spoke to God at bedtime, asking him in simple faith our souls to take, if we should fail to awaken after sleep. When we grew up, some of us still prayed; perhaps not so often, yet always in times of stress and strain, and whether or not our prayers were answered, we knew that the praying had done us good, that at least it had brought relief from tension. But the prayer force can do much more than that. The right kind of prayer gets the most important results obtainable in our world of human minds and spirits. Here is a man afraid of himself, and with good reason. He is troubled, disturbed, spiritually divided, his mind a whirlwind of conflicting currents. The only force that will pull him together is prayer. Let him earnestly and honestly pray for a return of stability and for strength to overcome and control his weakness, and he shall be heard, for truly, in the realm of the heart and mind and spirit, the really great things are always wrought by prayer.

Eternal God, our Father; Constrain us to know, we beseech Thee, that only through prayer can we gain that unity with Thyself which brings spiritual health and peace. In Jesus' name we pray, AMEN.

Darn, I've really been tripped up this week. Took off last Wednesday to indulge in a sport that has always endowed me with a million words. In fact nothing automatically gives me the ability to talk a mile a minute like coming home with the back of the car full of antiques, and imagination. I never pay more than a few dollars for all of it. Could that be why HE calls it junk? I have a special shell I slip into when he attacks those beautiful treasures.

Well I hadn't taken "off" for months and I was so sure last Wednesday that the long gone were calling me. Found just the perfect partner and away we went. A good junker never reveals the source of his junk, who his junking partners are and what he pays for things. Fortunately I'm not good, well I'm not really bad either but the where, who and what aren't important cause the the whole venture didn't pan out, I was a fish out of water from the first. We got sidetracked with antique hunting for a special blanket chest and didn't even find that. To top it off we decided to back-track on a tip from someone and missed our turn. With a grand sweep I made this wide graceful turn into muck and mire up to everything that makes a car go. Nothing sobers me like the sight of my new white tennis shoes sinking with me in them. Remember that stove pipe that was in my trunk at Christmas time. From Thanksgiving, well of course it was still there, so I tried that but the car was sinking faster than I could scoop the mud away. Decided to send a few short S.O.S.'s to Saint Jude who is supposed to handle hopeless cases and has practically raised me. His message was to stop standing and start flapping. I don't care who the redhead is, when she's wearing a red plaid hunting jacket and a look in her eye that wild, nobody can miss her and someone's sure to stop. The first truck that stopped had two men in it. One too old and the other too young (for car lifting) and both with the look of one about to panic and run. But the presence of their truck did help give the general scene a total accident look and another truck stopped. This time we had a sweet old man loaded with personality, a sense of humor and a strong hook chain. In jg time he had pulled us out and we were on our way. All in all it's the very first time I have ever gone out looking for trouble and came home empty handed and the worst part of all is I just can't forget that hook chain. It would be just perfect hanging from the beams in our living room. The kids could swing on it or I could hang the T.V. Guide on it. . . Gosh I wonder how much I could have bought it for ???

Another Day

By Constance Lektzian

Auto pioneers were frequent area tourists

The sign in the village said "$100 fine if bathers do not wear a long coat to the bathing beach. Legs must be completely covered with long black hose." The little black trains that chugged into Clarkston Depot on a Friday night sometimes pulled twelve coach cars full of vacationists from Detroit, Flint, and Pontiac.

Twice a day the horse drawn busses from the village met the train. There was the huge "Belle of Clarkston" driven by Herbert Lewis and the horse drawn carriages of the Greens, and Skarritts. These exuberant, summer visitors poured into town and doubled the village population. They could rent rooms in a private home for $2 a week and whole families found a welcome at "Vliets on the Hill". They crowded the ice cream parlors and helped fill up the Opera House. They swam in Deer Lake with more clothes on than the average girl now wears in the wintertime. They weren't wealthy people, just people who could afford a vacation and they added a special jingle to the coffers of the local merchants and any homeowner who had a vacant bedroom to rent.

Some of the bankers and businessmen took a close look at the way the hot summers brought in so much cold cash. They wondered out loud what could be done to increase this business and provide more jobs. It was through the effort of some of these men that one William Barry became interested in opening a summer hotel in Clarkston.

No novice to the art of running an inn, Bill Barry had first entered into the hotel business in Chicago. Later he and his two sisters, Nellie and Mae, owned and operated the popular Mountain View Hotel on Maceday Lake. A perfect 'mine host' Bill Barry ran Deer Lake Inn with zest and good taste. Genial and well-liked, many of his hotel guests returned as personal friends to visit and reminisce with him after his retirement.

Large, airy and sprawling, the many-porched hotel was not intended for year around use. The 35 guest bedrooms with thick lace curtains and heavy furniture of those times featured oriental rugs that are still in use today. Near the edge of the lake sat a dozen or so frame cottages, also for the use of the guests.

Opening day was July 3, 1912 and the advertisements offered "Boating, bathing and fishing", but the one single thing that made the fame of Deer Lake Inn grow and grow was the food. The Barry's hired the best chefs they could find, bought the best quality food and filled their dining room with impeccably trained help. Nellie and Mae took upon themselves the task of personally training the kitchen and dining room help.

Beulah Walter was one of Clarkston's young people that found summer employment at Deer Lake Inn. She was there on the opening day, waiting for the first customers, complete in dark dress and white ankle length apron. The working day was 12 hours long and the duties were many, yet these jobs were eagerly sought after. One Sunday afternoon would net a waitress at least $2 in tips. During the winter, Beulah taught school in South Dakota for a prime wage of $62.50 a month and returned to Clarkston in the spring to work in the hotels and inns here. She had already worked several seasons at "Vliets on the Hill" before Deer Lake Inn opened and was considered an asset because she didn't require as much training as some of the other girls. As a further inducement, the Barry's gave room and board to their help and cottages and a section of the hotel were set aside for them.

People from out of town looking for a new place to dine were quick to discover the Inn and after the motor car became more popular, groups of people came from Detroit and Flint caravan style to have dinner at Deer Lake. Everyone who stopped, whether for a vacation or for just a meal signed the register. There are the signatures of Louis Chevrolet and A. Champion who came for lunch on many occasions. Walter Chrysler and C. W. Nash brought their wives for dinner, and a group of lawyers drove out from Pontiac and added names such as Dondero and Doly and Hartrick to the register. The fame of their food and service spread and the Barry's were host to people from as far away as New Zealand and Tokyo, Japan, Norway and Cuba. It became fashionable for people to entertain their house guests at Deer Lake Inn and at the tables every state in the Union was eventually represented.

In 1925 the Barry's sold the Inn. Boarded up after a time, the Inn sat desolate, its lawns untended, its beaches empty. Eventually it was torn down and a symbol of elegance disappeared.

Our thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haupt and to Mrs. Forrest Jones, the former Beulah Walter, for information and pictures.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Customs may differ among the races and may change with the times, but certain institutions in human life have remained constant through the centuries. One of these is Motherhood.
Progress has given Mother new methods and new equipment for her age-old responsibilities. But the love and understanding which are the heart of Motherhood have never depended on science for their expression.
One unchanging sphere of material responsibility has been the religious development of children. From primitive tribal religions up to Christianity, mothers have guided and encouraged the growth of each successive generation in spiritual faith.
The Christian Church salutes all faithful mothers. They have led their families to an ever deepening realization of the sacred bond which unites the Church and the Home in a common devotion to Jesus Christ.
