Completes Police Course

Robert G. Phillips, Clarkston Chief of Police has just completed a Command Officers Course held at Oakland Police Academy, a division of Oakland Community College.

In addition to carrying on his regular duty assignments, he attended 8 hours of work in the classroom.

Among the courses in which Chief Phillips participated were Duties and Responsibilities of a Supervisor, Fundamentals of Oral and Written Communications, Administrative Devices and Controls, Personnel Management Practices and Problems. Police Management Planning, the Administrative Use of Police Records, Police Budgets, Conduct, Discipline, Principles of Leadership, and Developing Morale.

Upon completion of the course Chief Phillips was presented with a certificate attesting to successful completion of the course.

It was conducted on Featherstone Road on the Auburn Hills campus.

It will be hats off to this fourth of July float and the Clarkston Rotarians working on it. In the hat last Sunday was Bob Wertman, while the new Rotary president, Paul DeLongchamp lines up the red ribbon. Directing from the top of the ladder is Bob Skerratt.

Floating through Clarkston this Fourth of July was a Betsy Ross scene, compliments of the Clarkston Jaycettes and Nancy Tilley. Nancy is shown here adding the final pinning touches on the two costumes she had made for models, Mrs. Lew Wint and her daughter Joy.

Pedestrian injured

Raymond DeGrow of 4694 High in Drayton Plains was struck by a car while walking on Lakeview at 8 P.M. Sunday evening. He received type A injuries according to a report issued by the Sheriff's office.

Claude Snyder of 6660 Walters in Clarkston was the driver who hit him. DeGrow told officers that he was walking on Lakeview in the roadway against traffic when struck by the car. The impact knocked the mirror off the car as it struck his right arm.

In another area accident last week, a school bus fell sideways in a ditch on Clintonville Road on Thursday morning. Rev. David Dee, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Clarkston was driving the bus picking up children for Vacation Bible School. Thirty six children were on the bus, but all escaped injury.

Chuckholes were washed in the road from the torrential rains and the bus slid off the edge according to the report that Rev. Dee gave to the State Police.

Beach management plans announced

Several rules are being considered by the Independence Township Board relative to the operation of the Deer Lake Beach. Restrictions are being set up to protect swimmers, the boating enthusiast and the fisherman. The Township is taking over the operation of the beach area from the Village of Clarkston.

Two accidents reported

A single car accident on June 27 sent the driver to Pontiac General Hospital with type C injuries.

Bradley Green, 19 of 4008 Joyce in Drayton Plains was driving on North Holcomb Road when the front wheel of his car came off throwing him against the steering wheel. He was taken to the hospital by private car. The accident occurred at 9:45 at night.

In another accident also investigated by the sheriff department an Oakland County Road Commission truck was involved. The mishap occurred at the corner of Main Street and Waldon Road in Clarkston at 9:15 A.M. on June 28.

Joy Holler of 2830 Hummer Lake Road in Ortonville told officers that the truck driver made a left turn in front of her and that she could not avoid hitting the truck. The driver of the truck, Orville Lawson of 908 Winfred in Holly was cited for driving to the left of center.

Supervisor speaks at R. O. Twp. gathering

Independence Township Supervisor Duane Hursfall spoke in Royal Oak Saturday night at a meeting of The Committee For Good Government of Royal Oak Township. Mr. Hursfall is President of the Michigan Township Association.

Also speaking to the group was The Honorable Benjamin L. Hooks. The Judge is the first negro Judge in Tennessee since the days of reconstruction. He is also the Minister of the Greater New Mt. Moriah Mission Church of Detroit. He is a member of the Tennessee Council on Human Relations and the Board of Trustees of the United Nations.

The "Voices of Thunder" a male chorus of the Greater New Mt. Moriah Missionary Baptist Church comprised of 80 voices provided music.

The Committee For Good Government was formed to create more interest in Community affairs. The affair was held in the Carver Elementary School on Mendota. A film was also shown on the History of Township Government.

official rules, but are those that are expected to be adopted and put into effect by the Board. The area is to be closed to all but residents of Independence Township. Identification cards will be issued to the users to show proof of residency. It is anticipated that the charges will amount to approximately $5.00 per year per family.

For card issuing purposes the season has been set from the third Saturday in May until the third Sunday in September. Hours during which the beach will be open during the season are expected to be 10 A.M. until 6 P.M. during the months of May, June, and September. Hours during July and August would be from 10 A.M. until 8 P.M. The area will be closed on Monday's for clean-up and maintenance and repair.

Users of powered boats and water skiers are expected to abide by the same hours as the swimmers. Charges for boating will be $1.50 per boat.

There will be no picnicking, no alcoholic beverages consumed or taken there and no glass containers. According to spokesmen for the Township Board everyone using the facilities is expected to conduct themselves in the best interests of the public and general welfare.

It may be necessary to hire additional personnel and solicit some volunteer help to man the beach, but tentatively township personnel will be handling the area.

The fence along the road is expected to be constructed this week.

It's memory unpacking time for these three delegates to Girl's State. Back home after their weeks stay at Ann Arbor are Joan Willet, Debbie Head and Sue Bennett.

Township loses Trailer park suit

Independence Township has lost its law suit which was instituted by Humphreys and Eaton to construct a trailer park on Clintonville Road. Judge William Beer on June 27 granted the Humphreys-Eaton petitions for a trailer park and ordered that a permit be issued by the township for the construction of same.

The township has 20 days from the date of the Writ of Mandamus was issued--June 27 in which to appeal the case. The property in question is located in the southeast quarter of Section 35 on Clintonville Road. This ends months of controversy between the township and the property owners.

The township was represented in the suit by their attorney, Paul Mandel while Philip Dexter was the attorney for Jim Humphreys and Stan Eaton.

Swimming lesson time at Deer Lake

"Mac" calls out directions to his afternoon swimming class.

A crowd of mothers watch from shore as around 90 youngsters participate in the swimming program.

Heads up as the race starts for the girls at Deer Lake.

Sandy Schwab, Waterford is beginning her second year of swimming lessons.

Jim's Jottings

I just love having new machinery. I don't enjoy studying all the brands to see if one is better than the other, or better serves our use. Too, I don't enjoy paying for it.

Then there is the extreme pain one gets when that new machine breaks down and it takes 2 days to get repairs and deadline is in 1 hour.

In buying this equipment I find it's a lot like buying a car. You know... The price is $1.98 for this brand new 1967. But, of course you'd like seats, paint, power this and power that and all of a sudden it's $4,000.

I have now come to the conclusion GM, Ford and Chrysler are pikers. They haven't learned anything about extra charges for accessories.

They should take a course from IBM.

I've purchased an IBM typewriter. Excuse me, they don't call it a typewriter, it's a Selectric Composer. It looks like a typewriter. The price is that of a Selectric Composer. Somewhere around $4,000.

But, of course, you'd like keys, roller, and paint job. Or, in their terms, the accessories units to have a completely automated composing system.

You could get by, with only the essential units. This would cost only $17,000. However, if you do this I'm sure you'll want the next step which will bring the total cost to $21,000.

Now that's what I call adding

The other day a guy came into C & C Hardware and asked Neil Coulter if he had anything to kill mosquitoes. Without hesitation, Neil said, "Sure. Shotgun shells!"

Then there was the new employee who asked his boss if there was something he could tell him to do. The boss had other things on his mind and quickly answered, "Hurry up."

Note from out of the past - I'd completely forgotten about using boots in tires. For the present generation, these were not boots like you wear, but pieces of oblong shaped rubber with cords embedded for strength. When a tire blew on the car a boot would be put over the hole and a new tube put in, or a patched tube put back.

Some guys, like our printer, Fred Kastelic, used to put a tire inside the tire for reinforcement. He'd cut the cords around the rim of one and put it inside the other.

Ah, for the good ole hard time, depression days.

FISHING A SHORELINE

Bass and certain other game fish are frequently found along the shore. Here they seek shelter among rocks, logs and vegetation, prey on small fish and animal life that abound there. When fishing a shoreline, the Mercury outboard people suggest that you put the motor in reverse and proceed astern. You can go slower because the broad transom acts as a brake when proceeding in reverse. The slow pace will enable you to carefully fish each log, rocky point, or weedbed. Proceeding in reverse offers better directional control also.

Around the Town

By Shirley Lynch

Phone 625-1065

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kelley have returned from a ten day vacation to the Smokey Mountains where they were joined by Gordon Kelley Jr. and his wife, Carol from Pennsylvania. They had a wonderful time and among the many thrilling sights they enjoyed watching lots of bears.

An Anniversary dinner and dancing Saturday evening in Detroit celebrated the fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Cothen. Mr. and Mrs. Ethen Cothen joined them for this special occasion.

Mike Lynch has entered Wheelock Hospital in Goodrich where he will have his tonsils removed Friday. After missing the last part of school and lots of swimming he is eager for the hospital visit. Of course, he is looking forward to making up the lost swimming.

Visiting relatives in Joliet, Illinois for a week Mr. and Mrs. Byron Jenkins are getting reacquainted with friends and relatives they haven't seen for over ten years.

Birthday greetings were sung by four friends of Mark Harding at a surprise party June 27. Mark was 9 years old and did an expert job of blowing out candles and cutting his cowboy cake.

Mrs. John Lynch and daughter Kelly were guests Wednesday and Thursday of Mrs. Stanley Roosa and son David at the home of Mrs. Roosa's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kuenger of Bear Lake. The trip was a special one to visit Douglas Roosa a friend of the Kelly's who is spending the summer with his grandparents. Doug has just gotten over the chicken pox and has been confined to the house but was well enough to take Kelly on a tour of all his favorite places. Joyce Kuenger accompanied them for the visit.

Back from their northern vacation is Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Belson and children, Todd and Anne. They brought back a lovely fish that Todd had caught and had packed in ice so they will enjoy it later in the year.

A broken arm doesn't keep Carl, son of the Carl Ardens, from being around the lake. Carl broke his arm falling out of a tree but even though he is unable to swim for some time he still gets in a lot of fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson and sons, drove to Tawas City last weekend to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Worden, family friends.

Jody and Kirk Grandland are spending several weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grandland at their home in Coldwater. Jody and Kirk are busy riding ponies and swimming but wish all their friends were able to join them.

Mrs. Harold Westover is doing nicely after surgery the first of the week. Mrs. Westover is a patient at St. Joseph Hospital.

Batching it is John Grant and son Tim this week while they are eating out most of the time either to get away from dishes or the food is better they haven't decided yet. One thing is sure they will be glad when Mrs. Grant returns from Charlevoix where she is visiting her sister for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurin Waters and family have just returned from a camping trip where they stayed at several state parks during the two weeks they have been gone. Only one thing was wrong and that was they were unable to get much swimming in and didn't get enough sun.

A buffet Saturday evening, June 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F.G. Robart celebrated the birthday of their daughter Margaret's twenty first birthday. Friends from Flint, Detroit, Novi and several villages around Clarkston gathered for the occasion swimming and dancing followed by the buffet with a birthday dunking for Margaret was enjoyed by everyone.

AT RIDING CLUB

Chip Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harland C. Greene of 10405 Big Lake Road, Davidsburg left Thursday, June 22 by Northwest Jet for Philadelphia. He will be spending the summer with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Greene at their Black Diamond Riding Club in Morristown, New Jersey.

Couple married July 1 will live in New York

Will live in Pontiac following July 1 rites

Judith S. Grant and Raymond V. Kerns spoke their marriage vows Saturday evening, July 1st at the Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Mark Caldwell officiated at the 7 P. M. service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William Grant of 4924 Sashabaw Road, Clarkston and Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Kerns of 1379 Shenandoah in Rochester.

The church was decorated with white glads and mums for the ceremony in which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

She chose a gown of sequined chantilly lace over white taffeta. Her train was of the same material and she wore a bouffant veil. She carried white carnations and red roses.

Maid of Honor was Miss Linda Cox of Pontiac. Her gown was of blue and white taffeta. Michael Ireland of Jonesville was Best Man and ushers were Douglas Grant and Glen Kerns.

A reception for 150 guests followed in the church parlors. The couple who will live at 3159 Pontiac Lake Road in Pontiac travelled to northern Michigan and Mackinaw Island on their honeymoon.

The bride is employed at Montgomery Wards and the groom at Boutell Drive away.

Clarkston man named to Exec Board

John C. Kinnally of Clarkston has been elected to a one-year term on the County Executive Board of the National Foundation, March of Dimes.

Fifty county volunteer leaders of the Oakland County chapter held their 28th annual Chapter Meeting recently at Fox Hills Club House in Bloomfield Hills.

Annual committee reports on the Birth Defect Program were presented on chapter finances, national research on birth defects, local diagnostic and treatment centers, and direct patient-aid services. There was also a report on the newly established Cleft Palate Clinic.

During the year $124,580 has been allocated and disbursed for birth defect research, local treatment center grants, direct patient services, health career scholarship, a Salk Institute for Biological Studies and public and professional education according to the executive director.

The First Methodist Church in Clarkston was the scene of the Saturday evening, July 1st wedding of Vicki Sue Burley. She was united in marriage to Kenneth J. Langenmayr at a candlelight double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Burley of 9848 Hadley Road, Clarkston and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Ditch of Syracuse, New York.

The altar of the Church was decorated with vases of stock and roses for the 8 p.m. ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father chose a gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta. It featured a bateau neckline detailed with venise lace. The long tapered sleeves were edged with the same lace as was the court train. A garland of stephanotis secured her bouffant chapel length veil which had motifs of the same venise lace. She carried an arm bouquet of white calla lilies.

Miss Fayann Burley of Ortonville was the Maid of Honor and bridesmaids were Jean Oliver of West Caldwell, New Jersey, Anne Langenmayr of Syracuse New York, Kathryn Montford of Geneva, New York and Blair Ballard of Clarkston. Their floor length short sleeve coat and dress ensembles were of aqua silk organza. Their sleeveless sheaths featured a bateau neckline. A cluster of rose buds secured their floor length veils in matching aqua. Mary Susan Ditch and John Thomas Ditch were the flower girl and ring bearer. Mary Susan's gown was also of aqua with an empire waist. She wore a garland of stephanotis in her hair.

Best Man was John Carroll Jr. of East Syracuse, New York. The groom's other attendants were Donald Langenmayr, Richard Carroll, James Brigadier and Wayne Lyke.

A reception followed at the Atlas Valley Country Club in Grand Blanc. The couple left on a wedding trip to New York and the southern states. Upon their return they will make their home in Spring Valley, New York where both are with the Ramapo School District as teachers. Both are graduates of Ithaca College in Ithaca, New York.

Unitarian Church scene of Sheppard-Hayden nuptials

Andrea Hayden and Keith Sheppard were united in marriage in the presence of the immediate family at the Birmingham Unitarian Church on Lone Pine Road at 8:00 P.M. June 29. Reverend Marshall performed the ceremony which included readings from the Song of Solomon and a poem by Dylan Thomas.

Andrea wore a street length A-line dress of bridal blue silk organza fashioned with a sabrina neckline and short sleeves and carried a round hand bouquet of sweetheart roses and pink carnations. Her only attendant, Mrs. Robert Kennedy wore an A-line pink print crepe. Her flowers were pink roses.

The gold wedding ring used in the ceremony in octagonal shape was cast from an antique mould.

Roy Wesley of Detroit served as best man for Keith who is the son of Mrs. Lyle Sheppard of Houston, Texas and the late Mr. Sheppard.

Andrea's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lektzian of Plum Drive, Clarkston are honoring the young couple with an open house Sunday, July 9.

They will make their home in Detroit where both are working on their advanced degrees at Wayne State University. In the fall, Mr. Sheppard will be teaching at Michigan Lutheran Junior College.

Playground activities in full swing

Things have settled down into a basic routine at the Independence Township Recreation Program's Playgrounds. From 8:30 to 12 noon, Monday through Friday, children gather at the various playgrounds to play games like four-square, red rover, checkers, or uncle sam, sing songs, and learn different arts and crafts projects. The first week, Cathy Richardson, Arts and Crafts Director, taught the children to make "Sit-Upons" out of woven newspaper strips. During the second week, the children became involved in the messy job of applying homemade play-doh to jars which could be used as pencil holders or vases. A sack-mask decorating contest will be the main activity during this short week.

Directors at Andersonville Elementary School are Karen Caldwell, and Missy McGrath, with Mike Hughson supervising the baseball activities.

Linda Heath, Salli Radoye, and Joette Schultz direct activities at Clarkston Junior High. Jack Dougherty, Rich Johnson, and Kirk Phillips are in charge of the T-Ball and other baseball games.

At Sashabaw Elementary School as directors are Nancy Weiss and Cilla Wice; Fred Hall and Bob Nicolson supervise the baseball games.

GRADUATES

John L. Nicol, 6249 Maybee Road, Clarkston, has graduated from the Famous Artists Schools of Westport, Connecticut. Mr. Nicol specialized in commercial art and illustration during his three year course with this home study school. Directing the art courses is a faculty of distinguished artists among whom are Norman Rockwell, Austin Briggs and George Giusti.

Vows spoken at Calvary Lutheran

The bride's brother, Matthew Witherup was the ring bearer.

Best Man was Dennis Sommers while the ushers were Ed Glennie and Mark Witherup.

A buffet dinner reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following which the couple left for a northern Michigan honeymoon. They will live in Clarkston Manor Apartments.

Both Clarkston High School graduates and the bride studied at Eastern Michigan University while the groom attended Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Cheryl Ann Witherup and Don Steven Spangler were united in marriage on June 17 in a ceremony performed at Calvary Lutheran Church in Clarkston. Parents of the couple are the John Witherups of Chickadee Lane and the J. F. Spanglers of Perry Lake Road.

The Rev. Arlon K. Stubbs performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with yellow and white mums. For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white satin fashioned empire style. Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion featured lace appliques to match the skirt. It was secured by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a nosegay bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid.

Serving as her sister's Maid of Honor was Cathy Witherup. Bridesmaid's were Sandy Hatfield of Royal Oak and Janet Glennie of Clarkston. Their floor length empire gowns were of yellow and white and they carried bouquets of yellow and white carnations.

Flower girls were Sherry Beardslee and Jan Seator. Their gowns were like those worn by the other attendants.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Boy Scout Troop 126 went on a canoe trip down the Rifle River. They started near West Branch at 8:00 A.M. on June 24th and paddled about 38 miles. It took them approximately 7 hours with a stop for lunch. During the trip down the river a new club, the Bobbers (those who flipped their canoes), was started with four eager members.

Troop 126 will be going to summer camp at Camp Agawam in Lake Orion, from July 9th through the 15th. Some of the skills that the troops will be doing are cooking, pioneering, signaling, nature study and water sports.

Troop Scribe, Marshall Perry

Methodist Church to greet new Minister

On Sunday afternoon, July 9th First Methodist Church will honor Reverend and Mrs. Frank A. Cozadd at a Reception which will take place in the north wing of the new Church building from three to five o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Cozadd assumed the duties of Pastor at First Methodist on Sunday, June 18th, coming to Clarkston by transfer from Orchard Methodist Church in Farmington. All members and friends are cordially invited to be present to greet and to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Cozadd and their family of four children. All arrangements for the Reception are being carried forward by the Womens' Society of Christian Service.

Clarkston teacher will direct at Center

A summer program, offering youngsters and adults of southeastern Michigan an opportunity to understand the out-of-doors and man's place in it, is scheduled to begin this week at the Drayton Plains Nature Center, 2125 Denby Drive, Drayton Plains.

Herley B. Moore, a sixth grade teacher in the Clarkston Schools system, has been hired to direct activities for the summer months, according to Nature Center officials.

Nature hikes will be scheduled daily at 9 a.m. Lasting approximately two hours, these will cover trails over the 140 acres. Participants will explore the relationship of plants and animals, the succession of plants and many other phases of ecology of interest at the moment.

In the afternoons there will be half-hour tours for tree, wild flower, plant and rock identification plus aquatic studies. Folklore of wild herbs and survival foods also will be included in the program.

Mrs. Dee Lommerson, a former art teacher, will conduct art classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 to 11 a.m. These will be open to all ages and a small fee will be charged to cover materials used.

Instruction in taxidermy and fly-tying will be given by Acting Director James Shea and will be scheduled according to interest shown.

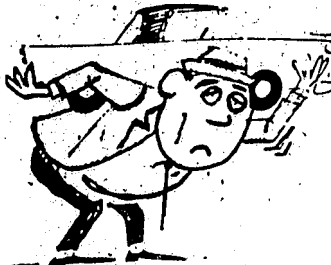

A second program on snakes is slated for 10 a.m., Saturday, July 8.

The Center is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. The museum now houses some 100 birds, animals and reptiles plus an aquarium of water species. An attendant is always on hand to explain feeding habits, life cycles, etc.

Youngsters may fish in the outdoor ponds and river but have to register at the office before going out. They must report number and kinds of fish be- number and kinds of fish caught before leaving.

Heads up Driving - Deer

It doesn't matter where we took the above picture. We have seen the same type of accident on M-15, north and south of Clarkston. For those of us heading for Michigan's north country, deer darting in front of our cars is a problem.

One thing for certain, hunters have for years been trying unsuccessfully to exterminate our deer herds. We also know that there isn't any way to train these lovely creatures to mind their own business and stay in the woods.

The problem is even more complicated, as with the above incident, dogs were running in hot pursuit of a young buck. The driver, and his family were not injured, their vehicle was damaged and their vacation ruined; a deer was dead and someone's pet, a dog, was killed.

It appears to us that, many times, incidents like this are unavoidable. But, like so many insidious "accidents", if the driver would only ease off the throttle and pay attention to his driving, we wouldn't have to write about things like this.

PEEKIN' into the PAST

10 YEARS AGO IN THE CLARKSTON NEWS

The Youth Variety Activities now boasts a membership of over 50 upper teens and is planning a beach party, a mystery bus trip and a trip to Bob-Lo. The group's sponsor is Terry Thomas.

A large crowd was in Clarkston on July 4 to enjoy the celebration sponsored by the Township Fire-fighters. The parade dis-banded on the school grounds where there were field events for the young people. The children enjoyed horse back riding and this event realized $43.20 for equipment for the room for the handicapped children at the new Pine Knob School.

Officers of the Clarkston Gardens Improvement Association include, De Vere Ganes, Terry Thomas, George Brinkman, William Dalton and Parker Bates. Directors are Don Auten, Richard Becker and Harold McCann.

The Rev. James Braid will be preaching at First Methodist Church through the month of July in the absence of Rev. William J. Richards.

25 YEARS AGO IN THE CLARKSTON NEWS

Six young people are attending the Flint District Institute at Lake Louise. They are: Stanley Perrin, Marjery Moore, Adrienne Volberding, Raymond Smith, Dale Scott and Inez May Miller.

Don Smith, Stanwood Radoye and Dick Shaughnessy spent several days last week in Chicago.

This week several more of the Clarkston boys leave to enter the service of their country. Dan Addis left on Thursday and King McIntyre will leave on Saturday. Frederick Steiner and Donald Steiner both left for duty with the Navy.

As in Starting a Car -- BOOM!

by Jim Fitzgerald

(NOTE: Until the June 29 issue, (Jim Fitzgerald has been on vacation. To fill this space, he has swiped the summer rerun idea from TV. The 3 old columns were prize winners in state or national contests.)

If you were a native of Mars making your first visit to the United States, you might find it hard to believe what grown men are doing 60 feet underground in South Dakota. You'd probably think some joker was pulling your leg, if that's what Martians put in their pants. If they wear pants.

The Nov. 6 Life magazine told all about it. Many men of the Strategic Air Command have deserted the Wild Blue Yonder to a ridiculous degree. They have become pistol-packing moles, highly trained in the fine art of blowing up the world. Education is a marvelous thing.

The airmen live in buried cement silos with their fingers literally poised to push the button which will send Minutemen missiles screaming toward targets they can't miss. The missiles have nuclear warheads that can ravage an entire continent. They travel at a peak speed of 16,000 mph and once they leave they have practically arrived and that's all she wrote for several thousand poor slob who are probably wondering why no one can invent a bicycle light that will work for more than 2 days.

The missiles are already zeroed in on various bullseyes and I think it's a lovely touch that the button pushers don't know what their targets are: The Pentagon brass probably figures that Major Killemeal might have a distant cousin in Cuba, or a mother-in-law touring East Germany, and they don't want any family arguments influencing our national defense.

The "pretend" procedures that these missilemen go through daily are fantastic. The big button is actually a double-lock. The 2 keys are held by 2 officers. Rehearsals are regularly directed by phone. An ominous (what else?) voice gives the countdown: "Rotate key on 5, release on 2 . . ." and so on.

The 2 men hold their keys out, inches from the keyholes. Life described it this way: "Both men turned their hands to the right as in starting a car." In 15 seconds they repeat the intricate maneuver in case they haven't started a car lately and are rusty. It is easy to see why enlisted men are not allowed to perform this monumental task.

What bugs us about this scientific killing is the golden rule -- "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." There's no question that the Russians rehearse key turning every day, too. Detroit would be a prime target for a Red missile. Have you made out your will yet?

We denizens of the space age see nothing extraordinary in what is going on beneath South Dakota, farmlands. We are used to the idea of planning mass murder as our contribution to the joys of cold warfare. We are used to spending billions of dollars in a search for quicker ways to wipe out more people.

But forget everything you know and pretend you just got off a Mars saucer. Doesn't it strike you as rather strange that civilized people dedicate so much brain and sweat to producing fearful weapons which can lead only to their own destruction?

Sure, it is purely defensive. We gotta do it because the other guy is doing it. The trouble is, you'll hear the same explanation if your saucer lands in Moscow. If you were really from Mars, your smartest move would be to head for home quick. Earth is full of nuts.

This weekend the newspapers will be full of year-old news. You will be reminded again, as if you could ever forget, of how John F. Kennedy was murdered a year ago Sunday.

For days following the assassination, countless stuffed shirts pontificated about the faint silver lining in the gloomy cloud which shrouded a grief-stricken country. They wishfully predicted that John Kennedy's tragic end would awaken the nation -- aye, even the world, verily -- to the folly of hate and greed and bombs.

You bet your life. And that's exactly what you are betting. As their men and our men turn their hands to the right as in starting a car, I wish you luck.

Really, I wish you love. Δ

Another Day By Constance Lektzian

The Nelson Walter home

When Nelson and Josephine Walter decided to leave their farm several miles northeast of Clarkston, they built for themselves a gracious two-story house in the village. Today over 80 years later, that well-planned and well-built house still stands at 81 North Main Street. A product of the days of plentiful lumber, the house was sturdily constructed and bears its years gracefully.

Guy A. Walter, second oldest son of the original owners, lives there today with his wife, the former Viola Alger. Over the years, he has seen a few changes take place in the house, doors added and bays removed but basically the house has remained the same. He can recall, when a very young boy, watching the carpenters build the big spacious rooms. The labor and the lumber were both local products and the stone that is in the foundation came from nearby farms.

Mr. Walter can recall that it took just a little over a year to build, and while the carpenters of those days had none of the modern equipment used in present buildings, they were very exacting and spent long hours over every detail. The front door has been relocated in the middle of the house and directly inside is the large reception room. This room seems to give a special welcome. There are two antique Victorian chairs covered in purple velvet and snugly to the door, is a tall narrow secretary that Mrs. Walter uses as her desk.

One of the most delightful rooms is the former woodshed. When the house was built central heating was virtually unknown, so stoves were set up throughout the house. These supplemented by the huge black kitchen cookstove, kept the occupants warm. Of course, they were wood burning and wood being plentiful and the house ample, the shed contained almost an entire winter's supply. Between the kitchen and the woodshed, was a pantry. Mrs. Walter had the standard windows in the woodshed wall replaced with two huge windows and incorporating this space of the pantry, now has a room with a beautiful view of the millpond and a grove of ancient trees growing at the edge of the pond. The pass through cupboards that were between the kitchen and pantry have had the doors removed and are now used as bookcases. The window ledges and a nearby table contain Mrs. Walter's collection of pressed blue glass, winning the room the nickname of the "Blue Room".

Mr. Walter can recall when the grove of trees at the edge of the pond was the scene of Fourth of July activities. There were, in those yesteryears, platforms built for the speakers of the day. At night there were firework displays and of course, the village band was out in full force. There had been a huge flagpole at the pond's edge and during the day picnickers and swimmers enjoyed the festivities.

The nearby garage replaces a large barn that once stood in the back yard. Nelson Walter had been in the teaming business and at least six horses had been kept out there at one time. The barn was torn down years ago and some of the trees removed so that today there is a beautiful view of the millpond.

Mrs. Walter has many lovely pieces of antique furniture in the dining room and the most interesting is a walnut braid box. This came from her father's store and contains two shallow long drawers in which merchants years ago kept bolts of braid. In dim gold letters the name of the company can still be read and advises that this is the best braid made. The door between the reception hall and the dining room slides back and disappears into the wall. At one time, however, when the house was first built, there were huge folding wooden doors between these two rooms as well as at the entrance of the parlor which sits on the other side of the reception hall. In the fashion of that day these doors were rounded at the top.

Directly across from the Walter home is the site of the old wooden school that had been built by Mr. Walter's great-grandfather, Nelson Clark. Later replaced by a brick school that is now used as township offices, there are still trees growing in the yard that Nelson Clark set out. Mr. Walter who will be 93 next December 9, can remember when all grades of the school including high school contained only 150 people.

He can remember, too, when a railroad line was started that was supposed to help open up the country north of here. There were so many miles and miles of track that ran through empty desolate land that it earned the nickname of "Pontiac, Oxford and Nowhere". There was a honeymooning couple, who after their wedding in Clarkston, drove by horse and buggy to take a train from Pontiac. Not wanting to leave their rig in Pontiac, they paid Mr. Walter fifty cents to walk into Pontiac and drive the horse back to Clarkston. He got there by following the railroad tracks into town, and located the horse at the Pontiac depot. He recalls that he was about 10 or 12 at the time.

The Walter's home contains five bedrooms and the beautiful hard wood floors throughout the house speak of the plentiful lumber in the 1880's. Despite the fact that today's living has stepped up the tune of traffic in the streets outside, the house with its heavy doors and thick walls, is quiet and gracious. Mrs. Walter has a flair for decorating and there are evidences of this everywhere. During the Christmas season she decorates her house in lovely and unusual holiday arrangements. She has a very unusual mirror display with colored Christmas balls that we thought was particularly striking.

In fact, the entire house speaks the gracious living of yesteryears and the vitality and color of today. A truly fitting life for a lovely old home.

On Saturday, June 24, the Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church youth group gave their annual Strawberry Festival. The waitresses were Jan Hall, Nancy Caldwell, Nita Wheeler, and Cindy Swick. Sally Caldwell, Sandy Swick and Daryl Caldwell prepared the hot dogs, hamburgers and strawberry desserts consisting of short-cake and sundaes. The sponsors of the youth group are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Barry, and the president is Brenda Woodworth. The food was delicious and everyone had a good time.

The Hullabaloo club over the 4th of July weekend will be very active with many good singing groups. These are Scot Richard Case on June 27, The Hands of Thyme and The Reigns of Thyme on June 30, the Plogg on July 1 and The Thyme on June 4. Next week the Rationals will be playing on the 11th. Groups who appeared in June were the Rationals along with Panic and the Pack on June 9, the Apostles on June 10 the Unknowns on June 16 and 17 and again on the 24th and the Poor Boys on June 23.

The Clarkston Conservatory is holding a series of music workshops for 6 weeks during the summer months. They will consist of theory and appreciation mainly of folk music and its development. This will be touched off by a long picnic-like lunch with recreation. Also this summer the Conservatory will be going to Camp Clarkston for a luncheon, and to Meadow Brook

Hard at work doing something they love is this group of Barbershop singers. Each Monday finds them singing the old songs in preparation for the 25th anniversary show scheduled for January. Men interested in blending their voice with this favorite group may call Rawley Hallman. for an orchestral rehearsal. There are 20 youths in the workshop, ages 5 to 14, sponsored by Mr. Ivan Rouse. The workshop is being held between 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. on Wednesdays.

On May 14 the Clarkston Conservatory held a student concert and choir. In the concert, playing the piano, were Jaime Hinkley, Timothy Hinkley, Stephen Rose, Scott Bean, Thomas Bean, Katherine Auten, Mary Lisa Naz, David Wiley, Buddy Mumbower, Sue Lamphere, Richard Carlson, Jan Hanson, Lucinda Ellert, Jeanne Shoots, Linda Heath, and Mark Parker, all students of Mr. Ivan Rouse. Playing the violin was Michael Wiley and a vocal selection was performed by Cynthia Parker. The choir was the Clarkston High School Honors Choir led by Mrs. Charlene Rice.

Linda Heath and Jeanne Shoots, Clarkston High School graduates will be leaving the Clarkston Conservatory after 6 years of study with Mr. Ivan Rouse. Linda will be going to University of Michigan and Jeanne will be going to Oakland University.

The Girl Scouts have been very active this summer under the leadership of Mrs. Dorothy Gallivan. A day camp was held at Oakland County Sportsman's Club between the dates of June 19 through June 23. Brownies, Juniors, Cadettes, and Senior Girl Scouts participated, ages 7 through 15. There are four units made up of Brownies, one unit made up of Juniors, one Caddett unit and the Seniors were program aids. Activities included living out of doors, overnight cookout, and nature hikes. The Juniors, Cadettes, and Seniors learned about archery. Their theme this year was "Pied Piper".

Sheila Cole, a Cadett Girl Scout of troop 89 thought that day camp was fun. Among other things she made a felt hat and a decoration shaped like a rooster and made out of seeds, beans, and wood. Another girl, Shelly Gray, although she did not participate in day camp went to Sherwood on Friday, April 28 through Sunday, April 30 and camped out overnight. They went on hikes and visited other Girl Scout camps and worked on first aid. Shelly thought that the food was good. Everybody had their chores to do. Shelly likes Girl Scouts and thinks Scouting provides her with lots of things to do which keeps her busy. At present she is working on her interior decoration and food raising badge. Shelly is also with Cadett troop 89.

Drivers Training for 16 year olds is being held at Clarkston Senior High School. It began June 19 and will end July 26 and there are approximately 270 students participating in it. Two students, Debbie Atwood and Judy Weeks feel that learning to drive will be a great advantage and they think that this is the general attitude among all of the students.

Many thanks to the teenagers who are supervising the playground at Clarkston Junior High School. There are 6 supervisors in all, 3 boys and 3 girls: The 3 boys, Jack Dougherty, Rich Johnson, and Kirk Phillips coach the younger boys in baseball, catch, and other games, Linda Heath, Joette Schultz, and Salli Radoye are the three directors who assist the small girls in art projects and games.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily.

and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The rose comes very close to man's standard of perfection. Its delicate beauty seems to mock every effort of the artist or camera to capture it. But is the rose really God's masterpiece? Hardly!

For its beauty is passive. It brightens life only for those who seek it out and gaze upon it. And in but a few days it withers and is ugly.

God's masterpiece is MAN. For with all his waywardness and selfishness, Man is capable of reflecting the love of God. When he lets God touch his life he is able to bring happiness and faith to others. He doesn't have to wait until he is noticed. He can actively bring spiritual blessings to his fellow men.

As the gardener cultivates the rose, the Church cultivates the lives of men. Always it strives to help us become all that God wants us to be.
