Jim's Jottings

By Jim Sherman

Men! Does your wife ever sharpen a knife?

If women really want equal rights, let's see them get out a whetstone and keep up the edge of a carving knife. Until they do that, I won't even consider discussing the NOW group.

---O---

And another thing... how do you figure a guy or gal who puts a bumper sticker, "My Country - Love It or Leave It" on his Volkswagen?

---O---

Room temperature roast beef left from dinner is the next best thing to nibble on. Best is the carcass of a duck.

Remember, you're getting all these gems here first.

---O---

Ah, the newspaper business is great. I went to the Oxford Chamber of Commerce installation of officers banquet recently and one speaker berated the "local paper" for doing a lousy job, then the next speaker praised something we were doing for the community.

But, as the politicians say, "If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen."

It may look like that is what I've done. We've always had an editor to do the writing at the Clarkston News, now I've hired Bob Gregg to do my work at the Oxford Leader.

It's really not that I can't stand the heat, I just want to go out and look for more kindling for the fire. Anyone scared?

---O---

Somewhere in the decision making of hiring another editor lies the new house. Having been a renter for a dozen years, I'd lost track of the feeling of comfort a home of your own can bring.

I find I'm not as willing to drive back to the office or run to 2 to 7 meetings a week as I have been. It's suddenly important to me to be home.

But the adjustment isn't easy. I find I still do the same thing I did when I came home before. Collapse in a chair and drop off to sleep. I haven't gotten into the habit of putting on some old clothes and going to work on the Model A, cleaning up the lawn tools, or doing any of a hundred things that don't really have to be done.

Right now I'm waiting for Swarms of workers from the Clarkston Junior High School practice for this Saturday's clean-up. Ten areas will be tackled. Assisted by teachers and disposal trucks, the students hope to make a clean sweep on "Grub Day."

"Clean sweep" for Clarkston

The Student Government of the Clarkston Junior High School is planning a "clean sweep" of the Clarkston area on May 2. The day will begin at 12:30 when 11 groups of students (about 10 in each group) under the direction of at least 1 parent will spread out into 11 areas to "clean them up."

The groups will work until 4:30 and then will return to the Clarkston Junior High School for refreshments and a party with a student band providing music in the street until 6 p.m.

The 11 areas include: The Orchard, shopping center, downtown, Mill Pond, Holcomb, Middle Lake and the school areas.

Trash pick-up is planned at Waldon road, the shopping center and downtown. Other trash will be hauled to the school for a central pick-up by a Powell truck.

The Clarkston Jaycees have donated plastic trash bags for each student.

Prizes will be awarded to the grubbier students (quantity of trash).

Co-chairmen of the event are Stephanie Altman and Nancy Craft. Map chairman is Jerry Douglas.

Miss Shirley Keneipp and Mrs. Carolyn Moser are faculty advisors.

New meeting date

There are new meeting hours for the Village Council. They voted Monday night to change from Monday nights to Tuesday. The time will be 7:30. The next meeting will be Tuesday, May 12.

warmer spring evenings to work outside the house, but I have mixed feelings about it. I think I'd like to work in the yard, but I love lying back in that chair.

Police will have car

Clarkston Police will soon have their own patrol car.

Through the combined efforts of the village and police, plus some help from Haupt Pontiac, a 1968 Pontiac Catalina will be leased to the village.

The cost of equipping the car and the lease amounts to $2510 for 2 years. The police asked the village to pick up the second year lease and the insurance. The police have raised most of their share of the balance. One year's lease is $960. Each year's insurance is about $300.

Sgt. Jack Frost said the car "would be a great help." Up to now the police have been driving their own cars and the village paying mileage. He said they were scheduled from 9 to 1 Friday and Saturday nights "but we will volunteer our service many more hours with the new car."

The police have raised their money through public donations. So far they have about $700.

2nd meeting

The second public hearing on closing areas to hunting and discharge of firearms in Independence will be May 5. It will start with the opening of the regular meeting, 7:30.

Erosion giving Holcomb residents, Mill Pond troubles, seek agreement

The erosion of a hill in Deerfield Farms Subdivision is giving bordering residents problems. Silt was reported 3 inches deep in one garage and his neighbor on Holcomb street had even more.

Fran Larkin, who lives at the corner of Holcomb and Miller, told the Council "Mud is 35 feet back on my lot. I've had to clean out my garage 3 times. I don't think I have to sit here and take this."

Under discussion at Monday night's Council meeting was a proposed agreement between the village and the subdivision developer. The agreement states that seeding is to be done "forthwith" and if it isn't, the village has the right to seed the bare hills and charge the property owner.

It also sets the holding basin dimensions as approved by the County Road Commission and Dept. of Natural Resources.

The agreement will be sent to the developer.

Council member Jack Hagen said his next step would likely be contacting the Water Resources Commission. He said he might do it "tomorrow." (Tuesday).

He said the silt comes off the hill so fast "and we haven't had a heavy rain yet," that it fills the catch basin on the village property. Then, he said, the silt fills the property and runs direct into the Mill Pond.

He thinks the Water Resources people would be concerned with silt flowing into the Pond.

Auten's building by parking lot ruled out by Council

It would appear that Don Auten's hope of building a furniture store plus rental units adjacent to the village parking lot have been dashed.

He proposed to purchase a portion along the north edge of the lot for parking for his business. He also wanted a right-of-way dedicated as an alley through the west end of the lot. This alley would extend across his property, then turn east to M-15.

Village attorney Jack Banycky said the village couldn't dispose of the land without a vote of the people.

Auten said he had optioned 2 other pieces of property and said he had told the Council before that if they decide not to sell he would re-locate on Dixie. He said it wasn't a threat, just his position.

Councilman Willis Kushman said there was a good chance the post office and Pontiac State Bank wouldn't build in Clarkston and consideration should be given to building downtown.

Councilman Jack Hagen answered, "Shut the doors the village is going out of business. I've heard this for 10 years. I think it's time the people stood up and announced that this was a good place to live and it would be just as good to leave it that way."

The discussion ended with the matter being referred to the planning committee, which the Council and Auten apparently agreed ruled out his building in the village.

Committee seeks outstanding youths

The Clarkston Area Youth Assistance Committee is working to initiate an annual "Youth Recognition Night."

The "Youth Recognition Night" is designed, according to the committee, to recognize those young people who are doing worthwhile deeds, that are going unnoticed. Youths performing personal acts of heroism, hospital or nursing home services, beautification activities, working on school service projects, or church youth programs are some of the types of young people they are seeking.

Citizens of the community are asked to assist in finding candidates from whom the Selection Committee may choose.

Nomination forms are being distributed and may be obtained at all local churches, Clarkston Senior High School, Clarkston Jr. High School, Sashabaw Jr. High School and the office of the Clarkston News. They will also be available at the Township offices or from committeemen.

Any adult or organization may submit the name of a deserving youth. The candidates must live within the area of the Clarkston Community School District.

Awards will be made in 2 categories, grades 7 to 9 and grades 10 to 12, and all nominations must be submitted on the official entry form. They should be mailed to "Youth Recognition Night" Committee, 90 North Main Street, Clarkston no later than May 10.

Plan fair on May 2

It's School Fair time. The big day at Bailey Lake is scheduled for Saturday, May 2 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Judy Beach is fair chairman.

There will be games (for all ages), a white elephant sale, and a bake sale. The clown with pretty balloons will be floating around the halls all day. The pick-a-pocket lady will be loaded with goodies for the boys and girls.

There will be cotton candy, sno-cones and popcorn. The kitchen will be well supplied with goodies to keep the hunger pains away.

Poisonous Plants

Most people know they should avoid poison ivy, but they often don't realize that the buttercup and sweet pea are the really poisonous plants in the field and garden. Wyeth Laboratories recently sent a booklet to your family physician that lists 56 common plants and trees which contain substances that, when eaten or allowed to come in contact with the skin, cause physical harm.

The major area of concern, the booklet notes, "hinges on the natural curiosity of childhood. The most toxic parts of poisonous plants are usually the most attractive to children, who are prompted to experiment with roots, fruits, flowers and stems, whether they happen to enjoy the taste or not."

Also, there are still thousands of people who experiment with wild plants and berries as foods, "teas" and in various homeopathic medicine. These persons can harm themselves if they don't know exactly what can be safely used.

The booklet lists a half-dozen sensible safety tips:

- 1) Never eat any part of an unknown plant.
- 2) Eat only properly-prepared foods from well-known sources.
- 3) Never chew on jewelry made from imported seeds or beans.
- 4) Never use anything prepared from nature as medicine or "tea."
- 5) Learn to identify the poisonous plants in your neighborhood and home.
- 6) Firmly impress these rules on children.

"Campus Clown"

The Clarkston News will print in this column outstanding student writings that are sent to us by teachers.

by Madelyn Knox
Contributed by Janet Gabier

Every campus has its share of clowns. They come from all walks of life, and each one is a unique personality. The advising office of a university provides an ideal opportunity to see these Emmett Kelleys of the campus.

A day would not be complete if at least one "Major Changing Mazie" didn't drop by to see if perhaps education isn't what she should be pursuing. Mazie's only a sophomore, and already she's attempted a major in psychology, economics, music and art, not to mention a half-semester stay in philosophy.

Here comes "Drop and Add Dewey." He'd love to take the three courses he has enrolled in, but he finds there is a conflict — they all meet the same days at the same times. He could add "The Plays of Ugo Betti," but this interferences with "The Flame and the Olive Stone," which already overlaps with his basketball practice. The whole mess wrecks his social life. The situation is finally resolved. He has decided to drop out for this semester.

In strides "Petitioning Percy" with a look that can only mean one thing, he's noticed a slight flaw in his last grade report. The credits have been added incorrectly, the G.P.A. is wrong, and he has been given an incomplete in a course which he has completed. He must petition the registrar, the Committee for the College of Arts and Sciences, and if need be, the Chancellor. He demands immediate satisfaction.

"Lost Class Louie" appears on the scene, wearing his usual baffled, "Where am I?" "Who am I?" expression. For two weeks now he has been unable to locate Sociology 251. After checking with the sociology department, Louie reports the professor, who was assigned to teach the class, has passed away. The sociology department told him the professor had terminated. Pour Louie! A good dictionary would come in handy.

"What classes can I waive from the program? I've heard the required course in mathematics is irrelevant and a waste of time. Besides, my boy friend is coming home and I want to get married two semesters sooner." "Waiving Wanda" is at it again.

Last but not least, "Trials and Tribulations Tess" pops in for her usual expose of a wild and woolly weekend of campus activity. After a blow-by-blow description of everything, including the cafeteria menu, she departs, leaving behind a soggy sandwich, an empty pop can, and two bubblegum wrappers.

This group of individuals is the lifeblood of a college campus. Without them, college wouldn't be much fun, and the advising office would become dull and boring. Thank goodness for clowns!

Letters to the Editor

Strength in numbers

Dear Editor,

On all the rezoning attempts being made in Independence Township, each little group is trying to fight "progress" alone. It seems that a concerted effort by all groups working together would be more effective.

I have heard of an Association of Associations working in other areas. It is a thought. Maybe the vast resources at the command of the developers could be met and stopped in this manner.

The wrong kind of father

By Jim Fitzgerald

The right kind of a father spends his weekends doing jobs around the house and playing with his odd kids.

Or something like that. Sometimes it is difficult to understand exactly what my wife is saying, especially when she talks at the same time she is doing something else, such as hitting my ears.

Anyway. It was Saturday and the sun was shining and the air was warm. Perfect weather for outdoor athletics. And that's what I was doing — watching some outdoor athletes on TV.

"Come out and play basketball with me," my son Eddie asked.

"I'm too old for that game," I answered.

"Gee," he said.

"What kind of a father are you?" my wife asked. "Your only son asks for your companionship but you'd rather watch TV."

"Speaking of TV," I said cleverly, "I keep seeing these commercials where the mother and daughter are frolicking together and they are both so well-stacked no one can tell which one is the mother until she opens her mouth and you see it is full of Grape Nuts. But you never see commercials where no one can tell the son from the father. The reason is that Dad works too hard to stay young and trim, with soft hands. He is too busy making money to buy jeweled identification bracelets for his wife and daughters so they can tell each other apart. I think I'm going to cry . . ."

"If you don't play basketball with Eddie, you will have something to cry about," my

Dear Editor,

Tuesday night, April 21st, the Township Board held its normally scheduled public meeting. On the agenda was an application for a lot-split, submitted by Mr. Stan Eaton.

The split called for the creation of two lots, but could not be approved as submitted because one of the lots did not meet the width-to-depth ratio. Someone on the board suggested that the split be made to create three lots instead.

This was passed without further discussion. The lot, in question, is in what appears to be a platted subdivision.

The interesting thing is that the split created a land-locked piece of property.

I wonder if the township can create land-locked property, but I'll leave the legality of the situation to others to argue.

I would ask, however, if a land-locked lot can be considered the highest and best use of land, Duane?

Sincerely,
Robert W. Kraud

wife said (or was it my daughter?).

Anyway, I played. And in only 5 minutes my weary legs buckled and I fell hard to the ground. I heard a rib crack. Every kid in the neighborhood was watching. I wanted to bounce right up to show them what a great sport the old man was. Except I couldn't move.

"Are you ok, Dad?" Eddie asked after he'd picked up the ball and made 2 points while standing on my hand.

I assured him I'd live. The only question was whether I'd ever get on my feet again. I kept hoping my moaning and screaming would bring my wife to the door, tears in her eyes. But she never showed. I finally staggered into the house and collapsed at her feet.

"The bulb over the sink in the bathroom just burned out," she said. "Change it."

"Don't you care that I have been mortally wounded while making my son my buddy?" I asked.

"Do you want to shave in the dark?" she answered.

I had to stand on the sink. A huge globe enclosed the bulb. It stuck. I jerked. The globe fell, breaking into millions of pieces and smashing a hole in the side of the sink.

I do not make these things up. Just stop by and ask to use our purple rest room. Move the soap dish a few inches and you'll see the hole which shall remain in our family forever as a reminder that the man of the house is not the right kind of father.

Onward and Upward and my ribs still ache.

Tom Boszuez, Pam Novosel, Eddy Martin, Sina Olafsson, Tim Westover and Brenda Robins are sixth graders who are tuning up for their first spring concert. It will be presented from the Clarkston Junior High School gym stage at 1 p.m. on May 1st. All parents and friends are cordially invited to attend.

6th graders present Spring Concert May 1

On Friday, May 1, the sixth grade classes at the Clarkston Junior High School will present their spring music program.

The 183 students have been working hard on the 15 different selections for this concert. They are making ribbon bows for the girls to wear and ascots for the boys.

Under the direction of Miss Grayce Warren, the performance will offer folk songs, spirituals, show tunes and an interesting number with unison chorus movement.

Parents and friends of the students are welcome to come. It will be held in the gymnasium beginning at 1:15.

A 200-year-old working windmill, De Zwann, dominates the lowlands and tulip fields around Holland, Michigan. De Zwann was brought over from the Netherlands and reconstructed and it is open to visitors.

Announces for twp. trustee

One township trustee office is to be voted on this year. Keith A. Humbert, 47, 6440 Snowapple, hopes to fill it. It is presently held by Harold Bauer, who has not announced his intentions.

Humbert has been active in his neighborhood getting a referendum on a zoning decision by the Independence Township Board.

He has lived in Clarkston 11 years, and is a mechanical engineer employed by General Motors Truck and Coach in advance design for truck chassis. He is a 1945 graduate of GMI.

He and his wife, Inez, have 2 daughters, 17 and 18 in Clarkston High School, and a son who is attending Western Michigan for his Masters degree in chemistry.

Humbert is president of St. Stephens Lutheran Church board and is active in the Pontiac Area Campers.

Once Over Lightly

By Jim Sherman

This is a personal note to Richard Sims. Everyone else can read along, there might be a message for them.

For background...

Richard, I don't even know him well enough to call him Dick or if he'd like it, was at the Independence Township Board meeting Tuesday night. A senior at Clarkston High, he says he organized the SPEED group. (Special Panel for Environmental and Ecological Development.)

He got the crew together to help clean up Woodhull Lake sub. 2 weeks ago.

Richard, you mentioned during the meeting that you were disappointed that the township board didn't show more enthusiasm for the letter you read on pollution.

Thinking about it later, I thought the Board did well. Supervisor Duane Hursfall asked to have it read into the minutes. I attend some board meetings where I doubt even this would have happened.

And, when you say they lack enthusiasm for your words, don't read something into it that isn't there. One thing, this is the first time you have been before this body. They may have never heard of you or your group. Others have appeared before them, with just and noble causes, demanding immediate attention, only to lose interest as quickly as it was gained.

They nor I want to dim your enthusiasm or interest. We all hope you and the many fellow students you have found willing to help the cause will continue, grow Wayne-Oakland League wide, even further, as you indicated as a goal.

You asked about newspaper support, and I said we'd be glad to give it, but we need you to contribute too. Remember, just as you are now gung ho on pollution, others want (some demand) our undivided attention for other major problems.

Abortion is one. Then there is drug addiction, poverty, United Fund, United Nations, churches, juvenile delinquency, Wallace, charities for everything, county agencies, population explosion and the list goes on.

Richard, you might want to say that none is as important as pollution control. Without it we die. And we say, "so what else is new." Twice recently the world was supposed to have come to an end.

The next time is 1977 or '78. A couple years ago California was supposed to drop into the Pacific.

While this may seem fantasy to you, I ask where were you or any ecologists (including Arthur Godfrey) in the last 4 years while we were running picture after picture, and story after story about litter and pollution?

Baby, we've tried to alert the readers.

But we're not discouraged. We're not going to quit.

And you shouldn't either. Don't lose that enthusiasm. Don't give up pestering officials, this paper, your neighbors, fellow students, everyone... demand and get their attention on pollution control.

The name of your group says it well... the initials do too, but sometimes substitute "patience" for the "P" in SPEED. Not too often, though, lest we older folks forget.

Editor's note: This feature is a slightly condensed version of the article "Age of Reason?" which was written by Ralph MacMullen, Director of the Department of Natural Resources for one of the state agency's publications.

Man is an animal who may very well be driven to extinction in this century by natural and physical forces over which he now exhibits almost no control. Man is also a higher form of life with reason, spirit, courage and the will to survive.

In the decade ahead, in ten short years, the age-old struggle of man versus nature will pass through what may be a final crisis. In this decade, we will discover whether man the animal will ultimately be destroyed by nature, or whether man the reasoning spirit will once again conquer those vital earth forces with which he has grappled for nearly two million years.

For all that enormous length of time — 20,000 centuries — man's long struggle as a species has been to survive by producing more children at all times than disease, famine, weather and all the adverse forces of nature could kill off. Man has been successful in this approach to survival, and the human population of the earth has increased steadily over the centuries.

Now, however, in the brief span of this century, the struggle for survival has entered a new arena. It is a battleground on which man has only his reason to guide him, and virtually no experience whatever.

The solution is simple, but not easy. Man must alter his basic approach to survival and bring population growth to a virtual standstill.

The next ten years will tell us whether man in fact intends to adopt this course, or whether nature will be allowed to provide the answer through starvation, pestilence, or — perhaps because of the horrors of crowding — through nuclear holocaust.

We continue to pollute the air, and are perhaps changing irretrievably this gaseous envelope surrounding the earth.

We all see it happening, yet to date we have taken almost no collective action toward correction.

Man's reason, man's courage and will to survive, man's higher spirit will have no meaning or value when the food runs out, or pernicious man-made chemical combinations corrupt the environment, or the oxygen is depleted, or we are buried in our own garbage.

The picture I have painted for the coming decade is indeed gloomy, yet virtually every student of world population, of conservation affairs, of ecology and the environment agrees in principle with what I have said.

Nowhere on earth is there a nation known to me where the human population has stabilized at present levels. On the contrary, every nation is showing a steady, and in most cases, rapid increase in population.

Such human increases necessarily mean natural resources will be rapidly depleted, and that pollution of the environment will increase just as steadily.

There is now no hope that we can avoid additional serious damage to both our environment and to mankind in general during the coming decade. On the other hand, there has to be hope that we can apply the brakes soon, that we can slow down human population increases, and that we can begin to repair some of the damage to both our environment and to mankind in general during this decade.

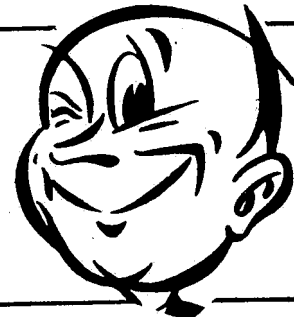

This is the crucial task facing the coming generation. Right now, 40 percent of the world's population is 15 years old or younger. In the next ten years, most of these youngsters will enter their fertile, family-creating years.

If they fail to control population, man with all his reason, his spirit and his will to survive, will go the same path as other species declining in numbers.

The 5½-mile long Mackinac Bridge which joins Michigan's upper and lower peninsulas is designated by the American Institute of Architects as one of the seven man-made wonders of the world.

Moon moans

by Haslett Hemmor

"How come," old Eff asks me, "that our astro nuts can go a half million miles around the moon and land within two hundred yards of perfect, and you get lost going seven miles to the new shopping center?"

Far as I can remember, Eff hasn't let up on me in the 50-75 years we been married. Mostly she just kind of needles me about nonsense things, but this getting lost business sort of gets under my skin.

"First off," I tell her stern like, "I didn't get lost. Just had to drive around a few minutes to get my bearings. If a fellow don't drive an area frequent, it gets all built up so nothing looks the same. Just had to cruise around a bit to be dead sure where —"

"Humph," Eff snorts, "You was as lost as a baby kitten. Don't give me none of that stuff about just driving around to be sure. Until you went into that gas station to ask, you was lost, lost, lost."

"So you think that's why I went into the station," I says. "Didn't you see me walk around to that side door?"

"Humph again," Eff snaps, "don't think I didn't see you asking the boy there at the side of the station. Don't think I didn't see him grin and point to the shopping center. Or was he just telling you which way to look for the sunset?"

"So what's the big deal?" I ask her sharp-like. "You can't even find the parking lot after you go downtown to have Doc Wood pull a tooth. Don't even remember which side of the building you parked on. Admit it."

"Good thing," Eff kind of says to herself, "our astro-nuts don't have to ask a boy which way is earth."

"Women," I say. "Women — always anxious to overlook the facts and see if they can make a dirty dig out of every little thing. Besides, I didn't have 250 guys in Houston with a billion dollars worth of equipment to steer me right. Columbus and I got along without ten acres of instruments."

"Oh, wait just one durned minute," Eff answers, "wait just a bit. You don't really figure that finding a shopping center, WITH HELP, is exactly as big a thing as finding America, do you?"

"Just using that for comparison," I explain. "Just remarking on the nitty gritty of the difference between having hundreds of experts and thousands of instruments to help. I might not even tell too many people how dumb you are as a navigator. That is, I just might not blab if you behave yourself."

"Ornery old goat," I mumble real soft under my breath.

"You call me a name?" demands Eff.

"Just said need my coat," tell her. "I'm going downtown to find out if Charlie has time to grease our bus."

"Do be careful," Eff cautions me real sweet. "Be right careful to check the old landmarks on the way into town so you don't get lost." Then she laughs real mean as I go out the door.

Actual fact, if Eff and me didn't spar a little now and then it wouldn't seem like we was even married. Got a pretty good head on her, Eff has. And she don't hardly even rib me about some of the more serious mistakes I make. Or at least, if I really pulled any big boners, she wouldn't keep yak-yaking about it the way she does with no-count stuff.

Does seem funny, though, when you give it a serious think, that we got billions for a space program that maybe don't do nothing for us except make us international big shots, but we got no dough for the thousands and thousands of kids that are begging for help to kick narcotics.

We're broke, too, when it comes to feeding or educating our own Indians, proper. And we can't afford even 1% of what's needed to start a full scale national program to do something about water, land and air pollution.

Maybe, if this here "now" civilization survives at all, we'll be remembered as the idiots who flew to the moon to maybe get away from our troubles.

Wins Outstanding Soldier Award

Specialist 4 Ronald G. Brock, who is stationed with the U. S. Army in Wurzburg, Germany, has been named the "Soldier of the Quarter." Just last month he was distinguished as the "soldier of the month" in his unit.

This last award was accompanied by a plaque and $25, according to a letter from his wife, Joette.

Brock is now eligible to compete for the "Soldier of the 3rd Division" and the winner of that award will then vie with other division winners for the "Soldier of the 7th Army" title.

Selections are made by a board of officers and non-coms.

Candidates are judged on appearance, military information, military background, particular job information (Brock is in personnel work) and current events. It is extremely unusual for a young draftee to win the honor.

Brock and his wife, Joette (nee Schultz), both graduated from Clarkston High School in 1967. They were married the following year. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brock, live on Guyette Road. Mrs. Brock's mother teaches at the Clarkston Elementary School.

In December, Jan Schultz, 16, (Joette's sister) entered a "Christmas Wish" contest at CKLW radio station. She wished that she might have the plane fare to fly her sister to Germany to join her husband who was stationed there.

Her wish was granted and Joette flew to Germany on January 16.

Joette did have one reason to be sad when she left for Germany. It was impossible to take their pet, Nikki (part huskie and part shepherd), to their new home. The decision was made to give Nikki to the Leader Dog for the Blind program.

Nikkie was not to be overshadowed by his master. About the same time that word was received that Spec. 4 Brock had distinguished himself in his new life in the service, word was received that Nikki had completed his training and had been assigned to a blind person. He was well on his way in his new life of service.

To add a happy ending to a happy ending, Ron's parents and Joette's mother are all planning to vacation in Germany this summer.

Wolves bow twice in week

Tom Gates, player of the week

Last week Clarkston's Varsity baseball team dropped both games, but, according to their coach, still played good baseball from the standpoint of hitting and pitching.

Three games were scheduled last week, but the game with Milford on Monday was rained out and will be played at a later date.

Clarkston was defeated by Bloomfield Hills with a score of 7-4 and by Clarenceville 2-1.

For the week the Clarkston team gathered a total of 13 hits, but only scored 5 runs.

The Most Valuable Player of the Week award goes to Tom Gates, who had a triple, batted in 3 runs, and hit the ball well all week.

Wolverines undefeated

Clarkston Jr. High Wolverines have won 4 games in a row while suffering no defeats.

On April 23 they defeated Detroit Country Day School for their third victory with a score of 8 to 2.

Reggie Alexander faced 20 batters in the four inning contest. He struck out 6 and gave up 1 hit. Al Hux batted in the most runs.

Trailing the Sashabaw Jr. High squad by 2 runs for 3 innings in their April 25 game, the Wolverines pulled themselves together in the 4th and scored 5 runs. Alexander and Hux's stolen bases set up part of the scoring when Bill Hamilton smashed a double and scored both men. A wild pitch and a home run by John Walts boosted the score to 5 runs and that was enough to put the Sashabaw Cougars on ice.

John Walts, the starting pitcher, struck out 5, gave up 1 walk and 8 hits. Reliever Dave Partlo, faced 14 batters with 5 strikeouts, 1 walk and 1 hit.

The Wolverines are coached by physical education teacher Roy Warner.

Trackmen off to slow start

Clarkston High School's varsity track team dropped 2 meets last week when they were outrun by Northville and Bloomfield Hills Andover.

One Northville runner hustled his way to 4 1st places, and helped his team to a 66 to 52 win. Bloomfield Andover set a fast pace to the final score of 74 to 44.

On April 25 the Wolves were guests at the Waterford Invitational meet. Fred Seyler and Dan Dankert came through with Fred taking 2nd in the mile (4.31) and Dan taking 3rd in the 2 mile (9.51).

Rick Svetkoff ran an excellent, but out of the money, (4.36) mile.

Scoring a track meet is based on 14 events and 118 points. Placing 1st in any event gives the team 5 points. Second place earns 3 points and 3rd receives 1 point.

In the mile and 880 yard relays only the 1st place team receives points (5).

My head's tucked underneath my arm

by Jean Sura

My family can beg on bended knees but it won't get them anyplace. I have just resigned from the position of entertainment chairman.

"Okay, you guys, I've read the reviews and we're going to ride into town to see the big Academy award show," I said one night.

"A movie - in a building?" moaned one. "You have got to be kidding. My legs are too long. I get cramps wedging myself into those seats. Anyway, 'Dracula's Revenge on Dr. Jekyll' is the double feature with 'I Am Not Curious, Purple.' You'd like that one. It is an adult's version."

"Besides," chimed in some other smartie, "we can't carry a dishpan of popcorn through the lobby. What will people think?"

"Why can't we just stay home, Mother? There is a nice war movie on TV tonight," reasoned syrupy old Dad.

"Don't call me Mother and take those pamajas off. We are not staying home and we are not going to the drive-in. We're going to get a little culture - with class. We're going to the cinema, in a building, with other people who are dressed-up in clothes and we are going to eat 'store boughten popcorn.' Anyway, the movie is 'Anne of a Thousand Days.' You'll love it," I yelled!

This is how you get to be chairman, yell louder.

I must have yelled loud enough because the next thing I knew, we were shaved and shined and on our way to the big city.

"I'll bet we're late," intoned "Old Cheerful." "I'll bet we should have made reservations."

"That isn't necessary. The ad in the newspaper said that seats were guaranteed," I defended.

"They must be showing the darn thing in a train," reasoned some trouble-maker. "Then if the crowd gets too big they just add another car."

The line outside the theater was only one block long when we got there. My luck was with me.

"See, what did I tell you. This is real class," I bragged as we neared the ticket window.

Just then an usher came out of the theater and walked up and down the line delivering my death sentence as "head programmer."

"Seating in the front row only. Front row seats only."

The flip of a coin took over the chairmanship. We stayed.

I felt like Alice in Wonderland right after she ate the shrinking pill when I looked at the wide screen.

Eating popcorn out of a paper cone while lying on your back is a little like attending a Roman orgy and it sure was hard to hit your mouth from the prone position. You just aimed, pitched and prayed.

"Listen, lady, you're getting salt and butter in my eyes," some crank behind me complained.

"Don't get smart or I'll charge you for the popcorn," I replied.

I made a big discovery. There just isn't any man alive, Richard Burton included, who can carry off the role of a sex symbol while his adoring audience is gazing straight up his nostrils.

Oh, well, you win some and lose some too.

We walked out of the place feeling just like poor old Anne Boleyn - "with our heads tucked underneath our arms."

"You can't fire me. I quit." I said haughtily.

Needless to say - we're back to golf, replays of last year's Rose Bowl game and old flicks on the "boob tube."

Install officers at Pine Knob PTA

Pine Knob PTA announces its last meeting to be held Monday, May 4th, 7:30 at the school on Sashabaw road. There will be installation of new officers for 1970-71.

The program will be led off by some selections by the 6th grade band, followed by a brief presentation of the newly revised social studies program by the Principal, Mr. David Westlund. Then 6th graders of Mr. Gary Haner, Mr. Herley Moore and Mr. Tim Hewelt will conduct a college bowl review as related to the social studies curriculum. This week each class has been conducting college bowl reviews serving as review and elimination procedures, so that finally by meeting night the field will be down to 2 teams of 4 members each. Hopefully, the program, in a rather novel manner, will serve to inform the parents of the total social studies curriculum, particularly as it relates to the 6th grade.

The theme for programming this year has been the "Now Generation" and apropos of this the 6th graders will also act as hosts and serve refreshments and aid with babysitting.

They are hopeful all parents will be interested in attending this meeting.

May 8 deadline for registration

The last day to register for the June 8 school election is May 8 at 5 p.m. The 1 seat to be decided at the election is on the Clarkston Board of Education and is for a 4-year term.

The position is presently occupied by Walter Wilberg, a 14-year veteran on the board. Mr. Wilberg is undecided and has not indicated, at this time, what his decision is in regard to seeking re-election.

All candidates must be qualified electors and their petitions, bearing the signatures of 50 registered school electors of the district, must be on file at the office of the Board of Education not later than 4 p.m. May 11.

Petitions may be obtained from the office on Middle Lake Road.

Mrs. Dale Pomeroy

Honeymoon in Bahamas

St. Stephen's Lutheran Church in Drayton Plains was the site of the April 18 wedding ceremony that united Carol A. Srock and Dale L. Pomeroy in matrimony.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Srock of Foster road are the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pomeroy of Lake Orion, the groom's parents.

The bride chose a floor length A-line gown that featured an empire bodice of peau de soie with Venice lace. The long sleeves and chapel train were highlighted with sheer panel accents.

Her shoulder length veil of illusion was secured by a headpiece of Venice lace, crystals and pearls.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Sharon Srock, and Jerry Pomeroy acted as best man for his brother.

After receiving their guests at the Waterford C.A.I. Building following the ceremony, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Florida and the Bahama Islands.

Barbie better for birthday

By Barb Humphreys

Our special reporter, Susie Kevern, called to report that Barbie, her 6-year-old sister who is recuperating from triple surgery, is making steady improvement. Last week she was permitted to sit up for a couple of hours at a time and she was able to stand for a short time on the tilt table.

Barbie's birthday is May 3rd and Susie has promised to let us in on any of the plans that are made.

Just in case we don't get out in time though, everybody who works at the Clarkston News sends our very most urgent wishes for a very happy birthday for Barbie, a very valiant little girl, and we salute a very helpful and unselfish sister, Susie.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mammen and son, Billy, of Perrysburg, Ohio (formerly of Clarkston) were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Powell of Holcomb Street.

Albert Peterson came in to tell us about a neighborly act of kindness. It seems that dogs had gotten into some plastic containers of garbage and paper and strewn it all over the Petersen property. One of his neighbors (sorry, we failed to get his name) hired some boys to clean up the mess.

"That is the kindest thing anyone has done for me in over 20 years," said Mr. Petersen.

Mrs. Homer Biondi, Worthy Matron of Joseph C. Bird Chapter, announced that all those folks who have been enjoying the monthly luncheons at the Masonic Temple will have to fend for themselves on May 1. They will not be serving lunch on that day.

Mrs. Biondi also announced that she hopes everyone will attend Friendship Night on Saturday May 16th at 8 p.m. at the Clarkston Jr. High School.

Election of officers for 1970 was held at a recent meeting at Spring Lake Country Club.

For the coming year Mr. William McClean of Clarkston will hold the office of Membership President. Newly elected Vice President is Michael Houran of

Mrs. Benny Cooper

Couple wed in Pontiac

Susan Katherine Swank, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swank of Pontiac, became the bride of Benny Antoni Cooper in a ceremony at the St. Benedict's Catholic Church in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Cooper of Ascension Street are the parents of the groom.

The April 18 vows were spoken before the Reverend Richard Thomas and 150 guests.

The bridal gown was fashioned of organza and featured long sleeves, lace paneled front, stand-up collar and a detachable train. Her veil was finger-tip length and she carried a bouquet of multi-colored carnations.

Kathleen Swank, the maid of honor, and bridesmaid, Carol Ann Cooper, were identically gowned in pale orchid floor length gowns with bodices of white applique.

The best man's duties were performed by Jack Hancock, and Willy Cooper, Greg Ronk and Don Hughes seated the guests.

A buffet was served at the church and the couple left for a Niagara Falls honeymoon.

On their return they will make their home in Oxford.

Birmingham. Homer Biondi of Clarkston was elected Secretary-Treasurer. President of the Board is Ward Blaine of Flint.

A semi-formal Presidential Ball was held on April 10 at Spring Lake Country Club honoring these men and their new offices.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pelton of Waterford road celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last Sunday at Kingsley Inn. Co-hosts for the happy occasion were their daughter, Mary, and her husband, the Howard Hughletts of Waldon road and friends, the Robert Bothfelds of Birmingham. Attending the dinner were grandchildren Jim and Diane Hughlett, and Holly Bothfeld. Following this, a surprise open house was held at the Hughlett home.

Columbus, Ohio was the scene of the wedding on April 26, 1920, and the couple have lived in the area all of their married lives.

Receiving congratulations are Mr. and Mrs. John Curry of Hummingbird on the birth of Judy Belle, born on April 17, weighing 8 lbs., 9½ oz. Judy joins the other little Curries, Greg, Ed, Diane, Scott and Janet at home. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Porritt of Clarkston and Mr. and Mrs. Al Pollock of Pontiac.

The winners last week in the Episcopal Church Men's Club duplicate bridge learning sessions were Mrs. C. L. Reichert and Mrs. Doris Wilkinson, north-south and all of the east-west teams tied.

There is still room for many more couples to participate and learn the game, and who knows, you might be a winner next time. Grab a partner and come on Thursday, May 21, at 8:00.

Here is something for you kids that want to learn to play golf. Any boy or girl between 10 and 16 is eligible. Classes will be starting in June. At the end of the season there will be a banquet. For further information call Tom Thomson, 625-2153 or Mrs. Maxine Davis, OR 3-8103.

Kutting Korners

By Jean Sura

Along with the spring cleaning, you may wish to get in some entertaining before vacations break up the social routine, or maybe your family just needs something a little different to tempt their appetite. Try this casserole. It serves about eight and it is a double duty dish. See for yourself.

Captain's Casserole

2 fryers, cut in pieces (minus giblets)
salt and pepper
½ pound butter or oleo
1 large yellow onion, thinly sliced
1 green pepper, thinly sliced
2 cans solid pack tomatoes, 1 lb. 12 oz.
½ teaspoon garlic powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
½ teaspoon powdered thyme
½ teaspoon oregano

1 heaping tablespoon curry powder
Sprinkle the chicken with salt and pepper and fry quickly in butter until golden brown. Remove.

Into the butter now put onions and peppers and fry slowly until glossy.

Mix remaining ingredients into undrained tomatoes, but chop up tomatoes a bit. Add this to onions and peppers and cook, slowly, for 5 minutes.

In a 3-quart casserole arrange chicken pieces. Pour enough sauce over it to cover and refrigerate until baking time.

Bake, covered, for 1½ hours at 350 degrees. Serve with wild or brown rice.

We like mustard pickle with this dish.

This sauce will breeze well so the surplus can be frozen until another time. And this is where the "double duty" comes.

Add 1 can cream of shrimp soup and 5 pounds of prepared shrimp to 2 quarts of the above sauce. Heat it until it is piping hot and serve it on fluffy rice. It should serve about 10 or 12 more guests.

Here is a wonderful dessert that can be ready to serve ahead of time.

Forgotten Dessert

(with lemon or crushed fruit filling)

6 egg whites
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cream of tartar
1½ cups granulated sugar

Heat oven to 450 degrees. Add salt and cream of tartar to egg whites and beat. Gradually add sugar and continue beating until stiff. Grease and add flour to the bottom (not sides) of 9"x12" pan. Spread mixture in pan and put in oven. Turn off oven and forget overnight.

NEXT DAY:

6 egg yolks
¾ cup sugar
1½ lemons - juice and rind
Pinch of salt

Mix egg yolks with sugar, salt, lemon juice and grated lemon rind. Cook over low heat until thick. Cool.

Beat one pint whipping cream and spread ½ over meringue. Spread lemon mixture over whipping cream, and then add the other half of whipping cream over the top. Refrigerate for 24 hours before serving.

The easier method is made by substituting ice cream and crushed fruit for the lemon filling. Or use the whipping cream with the fruit.

Not much help for your diet but yummy!

Women's Club elect officers

Mrs. Charles Weichel of 6609 Amy Drive was elected president of the Clarkston Women's Club for the next year at their April 23 meeting.

Other new officers will be Mrs. Frobe Gruenberg, vice president; Mrs. William Vastine, secretary; Mrs. Charles Webber, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Harken, treasurer and Mrs. Donald Harrison, two-year board member.

The new officers will be installed at the June luncheon which is scheduled for June 24 at the Sheraton Motor Inn.

A program on creative stitchery by Carolyn Hall of Birmingham preceded the business meeting.

3 drivers lose control, injures 7 on weekend

Three single vehicle accidents and a motorcycle collision marred the weekend traffic record.

Frederick C. London, 16, of 6255 Shappie Rd. apparently lost control of his car on April 25 at 12:30 a.m. at Sashabaw near Sally and was injured when his car overturned, according to Oakland County Sheriff's records.

London was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital.

At 9:05 a.m. on the same day Carolyn L. Ashe, 21, of 5744 Hummingbird Lane, was reported by Sheriff's deputies to have lost control when her car hit a bump. The car hit an embankment and rolled over. The driver was injured and taken to Pontiac General Hospital. Her passenger, Dale Fitch, 22, was not injured.

A third accident caused by loss of control, according to County Sheriff's records, occurred when Dean Martin, 16, of Pontiac hit a tree at Dartmouth at Oakhill at 1:35 a.m. on April 26.

Injured and taken to Pontiac General Hospital besides the driver were 4 passengers: Betty Benton, 17; Cheryl Calvary, 14; Judy Calvary, 15; and Louie Florice, 18. All the passengers were from Pontiac.

Dennis Rachel, 14, of 4900 Pine Knob Lane and Donald Wilson, 14, and his passenger, Dawn Wilson, 14, both of 5111 Oak Park, were all taken to the Pontiac General Hospital by their parents for injuries suffered in a motorcycle mishap on private property at Maybee Road and Oak Park.

According to Sheriff's records, Rachel lost control and fell on his cycle. Wilson, with his passenger, was unable to avoid hitting the other cycle. The impact caused his cycle to flip.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Thirteen families and thirty-four Boy Scouts of Troop 189 spent the weekend of April 17-19 camping at Lost Lake near Clare, Michigan.

This campout provided an excellent opportunity for the Scout families to get better acquainted as well as to enjoy the natural beauty of Clinton Valley Council's Lost Lake Boy Scout camp.

The weather was cool and brisk — just perfect for outdoor fun!

Friday night was spent setting up camp. The families stayed in the Family Camp Area and provided all their own meals. The troop set up camp near Wood Lake and cooked their meals by patrol method.

Saturday the Boy Scouts started their day bright and early with breakfast at 7:00 a.m. followed by a Flag Ceremony and troop formation. While on a 5-mile nature hike, the boys observed beaver dams, trees recently felled by beavers and a porcupine, scurrying up a tree.

Baseball and a tug-of-war were part of the afternoon activities for the men and boys. The scouts also worked toward advancing their rank.

After dinner the families and scouts sang, performed skits, and told jokes around the campfire. The entertainment was highlighted with a hilarious mock Court of Honor. Many of the Boy Scouts were presented awards for their foolish blunders during the course of the weekend.

On Sunday morning Scoutmaster Fry and Ass't. Scoutmaster Hunt conducted a worship service in which the troop and their families participated. The rest of the morning was spent breaking camp and departing for home.

Leadership for the campout was provided by Scoutmaster Herschel R. Fry, assistant scoutmasters Dr. Forrest D. Hunt, Ray Loba, and Richard Hammerstein, committee chairman John Mayo and committeeman Richard Smith.

Scouts attending were: Rick Butler, Craig and Matt Moore, Mark Willis, Jim and Dennis Loba, Mark and Paul Zelenak, John Mayo, John Fry, Kirk and Mike Robenault, Gary Graham, Dwight Sexton, Charles Fletcher, Norman Galligan and Gerry Runkle.

Also present were James Norberg, James Shiff, Tom Waterbury, Franz and Karl Tresenreiter, Eric Gruenberg, William Keller, Daniel Watson, David Johnson, David and Brian Minton, Mike and Rusty Jewell, Craig Walker, Charles Jorgenson, Curtis Smith and Raymond Grant.

The families of Herschel R. Fry, Dr. Forrest D. Hunt, Ray Loba, Richard Hammerstein, John Mayo, Richard Smith, Roger Willis, James Zelenak, Robert Runkle, John Shiff, George Mann, William Keller, and Lewis Jewell also attended.

Troop 189 is sponsored by Calvary Lutheran Church of Clarkston.

Graduate

Led by 98 honors graduates, Western Michigan University seniors were awarded diplomas in the April 18 commencement ceremony held in Read Field House.

During the afternoon program, degrees were conferred on Paul Allen, Church Street; Keith R. Faler, Andersonville Road and Cathy T. Richardson of White Lake Road.

Featured speaker at the ceremony was Dr. Charles I. Schottland, acting president of Brandeis University at Waltham, Massachusetts, and national authority on Social Security.

ACCESSORIES FOR THE WEDDING RECEPTION. Cake boxes, place cards, coasters, cake bags, place mats, ashtrays, stirrers. All available with name and date imprinted. Come in now and place your order at the Clarkston News, 5 South Main, Clarkston.

Whaley to head

Sanatorium

Howard Whaley, 163 Glenburnie, has been named interim director of the Oakland County Sanatorium. The appointment was announced last week by the Board of Institutions, after the resignation of the previous director, Anthony Wodek.

Whaley, 56, is chief investigator for the county medical examiner. He has been employed by the county since 1966.

When the announcement was made, no indication was given to the duration of the assignment.

A petition signed by 130 of the sanatorium's 180 employees requested that Wodek be reinstated but the request was tempered by its stipulation that Mrs. Maxine Van Riper be relieved of her duties.

At a personnel appeals hearing, employees had objected to Mrs. Van Riper's allegedly influencing some of Wodek's decisions. The hearing had resulted in Wodek's resignation.

Orphaned animals find aid

The Drayton Plains Nature Center, Inc. is expecting a rash of injured or orphaned animals to descend on their premises.

Spring is just around the corner, according to the calendar — and in the animal kingdom, this means new families and babies of all kinds, many of which will turn up at the Nature Center.

The center, according to director Bruce Radabaugh, will accept animals native to Michigan and do their best for them. Those animals able to return to their own territory or to establish a territory will be released.

A contingency fund will be established to supply money to defray the cost of caring for the sick or injured animals.

Youngsters should be discouraged from seeking out young animals. They are better off in the care of their natural parents. Those which seem deserted are often really being cared for by parents who are merely out of sight of humans.
