Jim's Jottings

By Jim Sherman

Rambling on . . .

As my son turned into his teens I commented here that I was concerned that the Vietnam war would continue and he, too, would be called to serve the unknown cause.

Events of the last couple weeks reaffirm my concern. The only thing that might be different is the location he'd be sent to with what our President calls incursion-American units.

The basis for hanging traffic lights in Oakland County is the traffic count. A definite number of vehicles have to pass a given point before the highway department will move.

Sounds like a reasonable way of handling the requests, but how does it actually work. That is, when is the traffic count actually taken? We know of one corner, M-24 at Drahner, where the official counters clicked their switches during the mid-day hours, but left the scene during the rush hour traffic.

Another instance where you can prove anything with figures.

When I went to Western Michigan in 1943 I got a job in the book store working for a Mr. Thompson. He was a studier of hands. I figured at first that he was overly friendly with freshmen, shaking their hands, then looking down at their hand while he sort of turned it over.

He told me later, "You can learn a lot about people by their hands. You can tell the workers. Of course, sometimes you miss."

The calluses, creases, cracks or something in hands would occasionally let him give credit at first handshake, while softer hands needed cash.

Looked at your kid's hands lately?

Ever return to the old swimming hole? Neither have I, but I'm going to one of these days. Think I'll start at the first one I knew, Knaggs Bridge. Used to fish for bullheads there, too.

Later we moved further north on the Shiawassee, East of Bancroft. The hole wasn't too big but the blood suckers were. We looked forward to haying season, cause Dad would load us in the Hupmobile and take us for a dip.

We also had a hole on the edge of

CEA, MEA question Board on tenure action

The Clarkston School Board has been charged by the Clarkston Education Association with violation of the contract in the action taken refusing tenure to Richard Schadel, band director at the high school.

Mrs. Carolyn Mosher, teacher at Clarkston Junior High School, presented the allegations. It was the complaint of the CEA that Schadel had not been properly observed nor evaluated, according to Board policy, as stated in the master agreement.

Spokesman for the CEA recommended that these procedures be followed and that the Board take no further action until properly advised by designees.

Mrs. Mosher, speaking for the CEA, further recommended that Schadel be placed on tenure, as the Board has not furnished evidence that he was not qualified.

The Board of Education responded that they had complied with terms of the contract and had not violated terms of the contract as implied.

R. A. Weber, school board president, contended that the board had not discriminated against Schadel because of his strike activities or any other activity, but stated that he was denied tenure because of his non-performance record.

Mrs. Mosher asked that Donald Cameron, MEA representative, be allowed to assist in the questioning. The Board agreed, with the understanding that he limit his questions to the area of tenure and not discuss the grievance phase.

At Cameron's request, a meeting was scheduled for May 19 at which time the grievance will be heard.

Cameron's questions were directed at members of the Board, school administrators and at Schadel.

The Board of Education had denied Schadel tenure at their meeting of April 13 and appointed members Weber, Cattin and Sanchez as a special committee to further investigate the matter.

They reported this meeting was held on April 27.

The public hearing on Richard Schadel will be continued on May 19.

A petition with signatures of 50 band students asking for Schadel's reinstatement was presented to the Board.

President Weber announced that 2 petitions had been filed for places on the ballot for the June 8 election. They were filed by Ingrid Smith and David Leak. There is 1 vacancy.

Permission was again granted the director of the summer recreation program to use the school facilities. The program will be directed by Paul Tungate this year.

Mrs. Mary Caverly requested the personal attention of the Board of Education in reaching an understanding with school personnel regarding her sons's absenteeism.

Mr. Weber promised to take the matter under advisement and answer her request in the immediate future.

Clarkston students win in State Contest

Students from the Industrial Arts Department at Clarkston High School recently competed in the state finals with the following results:

1st place, Wood: Greg Salk, Jim Wallace and Greg Pierce. Gary Harvey took a second place and Rich Ogg and Willie Cooper placed third.

Honorable mention in wood went to Jim Wallace, Dean Eldred and Lewis Fancher.

First place drafting awards were won by Terry Bunton and Mike Violete. Greg Faust, Mike Violete and Neal Philpot placed second in the drafting category.

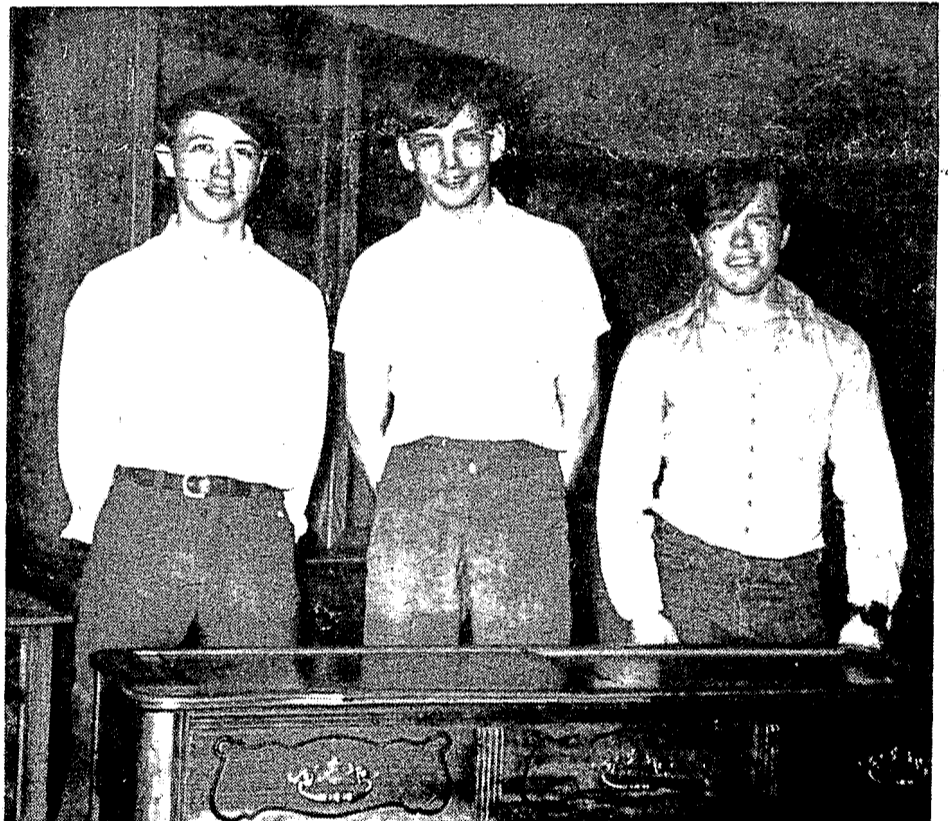

Honorable mention in drafting was won by Don Widener, Mike Packer, Jo Lessard and Bill Latoza.

Vernon where we could have drowned and another at Newburg where I nearly did. Brother Dair pulled me back.

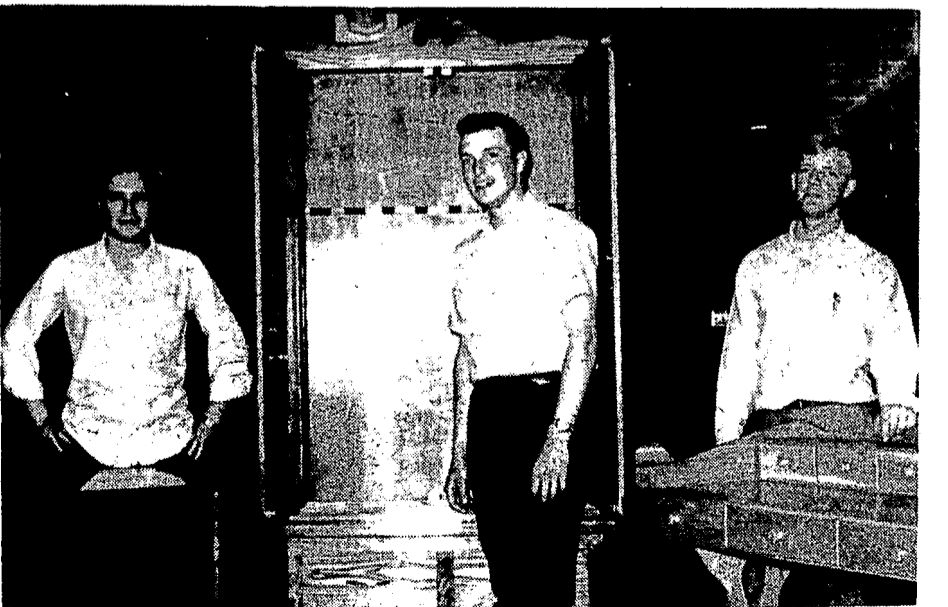

Then there was the Shia-town dam. We'd climb up the steel-pipe railings and jump 20-25 feet into the water above the dam. Great fun. Water was 40 feet deep. Of course, there was no beach to crawl out on, just a raft.

I wouldn't think of letting my kids do that . . . and I wonder why . . . why am I more strict on many things than my parents?

Are you?

Louis Fancher, left, Bob Hoy and Greg Pierce take their finished products to the regional finals, where they won 2nd places. The projects were made in wood shop classes at Clarkston High School.

Subdivision affect on flood plain concern of township residents

Representatives of 5 area subdivisions have contacted the state concerning the possible effect a subdivision might have on the "flood plain" in the northern portion of the township.

The request for state consideration went to the Dept. of Natural Resources. These area citizens said it was their understanding that approval from the State of Michigan is necessary before a flood plain might be filled.

The request was for the DNR to notify the officials of Independence of the fact that such permission is necessary. The 5 representatives want local officials to have these facts when considering rezoning and for them to inform the developer.

Signing the letter to the state were Frank Matous, Pine Knob North; Lucy Thompson, Supervisor's Plat No. 11; Keith Humbert, Clarkston Gardens; Gary R. Stonerock, Walter's Lake and Eleanor Blumenschein, Whipple Lake Improvement Assn.

Township to let county construct sewers, may stop Village grant

By Jim Sherman

Independence Township has agreed to contract with the county Department of Public Works for construction of its lateral sewer system.

With this agreement, and a like one agreed to by Pontiac Township, the county DPW now has some involvement with each of the 6 units of government in the Clinton Oakland Interceptor ... Independence, Orion, Pontiac, West Bloomfield, Avon and Waterford.

Independence and Pontiac Township had formed an authority with the proposed purpose of having this unit oversee sewer construction in their areas. Independence signed the resolution of intent last July.

Asked if the Authority would now be dissolved, Township Clerk, Howard Altman, said "No." He said there just wasn't sufficient time nor did they have enough experience to continue with the Authority. "It might be used in the future for branches or further sewer construction," he said.

The delay in signing to have the county construct the lateral may prove costly to the village. Altman said, "If the township doesn't build, the village doesn't."

The possible loss to the village would be state grant money. They have been approved for $191,237.00, if construction starts by December 31, 1970.

The deadline for the township to apply is October 31, 1970. Altman quoted Don Ringler, deputy director of the DPW, as saying the township would be "extremely fortunate" to meet the deadline. Two 30-day extensions can be asked, but Altman said getting a state grant by Dec. 31 would not be likely. "It's doubtful, if all goes smoothly ... getting approval from the state finance commission, selling bonds, etc. ... we could qualify by Dec. 31."

He said the township would be asking the state legislature to extend the deadline beyond Dec. 31 for applications received for 1970. It is expected to take from 9 to 12 months to complete the work necessary before turning the first shovel.

The township is asking for $1 million grant.

The published completion date for Independence and Clarkston hooking onto the interceptor was July, 1971. Altman said they were now talking of October.

Should the two communities not qualify for sewer grants this year, they could apply for next year. Ringler told the News "The grant program is a continuing one," and they could apply next year.

Michigan's western boundary on Lake Michigan includes more than 500 miles of sand beaches.

Letters to the Editor

We have an obligation

Someone once said, "Few people ever see the forest, only the trees."

Sunday morning we almost saw neither. We, meaning our family and the people of Clarkston.

Sunday night a fire almost destroyed our "mini" forests and had it not been for some very observant and thoughtful person who reported the fire and the skill and perseverance of the Independence and Springfield Fire Departments, and all of those dedicated volunteers, we would have had only a mountain of char and ash as a monument to our inability to preserve our habitat.

How does one buy back 30 to 120 years of life for a sturdy oak, the grace of a stately maple, the haunting, drooping arms of a Norway pine? How does one replace the fine lacy limbs of the pine quilted with strokes of white birch, bursts of dogwood and wild cherry trees that embrace the few animals left to really roam free and trust that we won't destroy them or "save" them by caging them up.

The answer is, of course, elementary. The solution is constant prevention and conservation by everyone.

We, our family, and I hope other people, feel the deep debt we owe to the hands that planted these trees and, those the other night, who preserved them.

As a point of interest there have been approximately 130 thousand more trees planted here, up and down roadsides and on vacant property all around us. They were planted because we're as confident in the next generation, 30 to 120 years and beyond, as those hands, stilled by time but not by love, were in us 30 to 120 years ago.

With deep appreciation,
The O'Neill family

Youth praised

May 8, 1970

Dear Editor,

We, the Clarkston Area Jaycees, think that recognition should be given to the youth of Clarkston Jr. High for the many map hours they donated in cleaning up the Clarkston area.

Their cooperation and dedication was a refreshing contrast in an era of dissention and social unrest.

We look forward to these young enthusiasts assuming the leadership of tomorrow and we think they should know that we are sincerely proud of them.

Gratefully,
Jerry Bradley, president

Did you know?

Dear Editor,

And all people concerned about the future of OUR Independence Township. Do you know . . .

Mrs. William Parker left last Friday to spend ten days with her husband who is stationed in Atlantic City.

The first annual air show in the history of Clarkston High was held May 16th. First prize for the rubber band propelled craft was awarded to Jim Hack. First prize for the solid models was taken by David Lee. Mike Thayer took first prize in the glider models.

Returned soldiers are advocating pocketbooks with handles for men to carry. How about babushkas for men? Great for windy days.

Sometime Sunday night the Clarkston High School was broken into and an attempt made to force the safe. Although the culprits caused some damage and seemed to know just about where the money was kept, they must have been pretty disappointed with the fruits of their night's work. Although they went to a great deal of work only about eight dollars was taken.

"If It Fitz . . ."

2 different trips

By Jim Fitzgerald

You might call this a tale of 2 trips.

It was during the last meeting of our poker club that I was struck by the big difference between these 2 trips.

The Apollo 13 astronauts were on their way back from moon country. That's 1 of the trips. Between beers and shuffles, there was considerable talk about the 3 men risking their necks in space.

And later, when the space talk faded, the host of that night's party was asked the whereabouts of his wife. He explained that she was out of town but "she'll walk through that back door at 10:20 p.m."

He was predicting a splashdown time for his wife. And he did it with the confidence of a scientist broadcasting instructions from Houston to Apollo 13.

Which brings us to the 2nd trip.

None of the other players asked Mr Host how he could be so certain of the time his wife would return. We knew. She had made the same trip so many times before, and so had he, that it was easy to set the clock by their departures and arrivals.

At 10:20 p.m., Mrs Host came through the back door.

For the umpteenth time, she had been visiting their son at a veterans' hospital in a nearby city. A year ago, he suffered a head wound in Vietnam. He is now almost totally paralyzed, almost speechless. There's almost no hope for recovery. It appears that this 22-year-old man, once so tall and straight and handsome, will spend the rest of his life in hospital beds. And his fine family will spend the rest of their lives visiting him and praying for the medicine or miracle they so richly deserve.

I haven't identified Mr and Mrs Host because that's the way they want it. Their friends already know. They see no reason to parade their tragedy before strangers. They don't want pity for their heartache; they don't want publicity for what they and their son have given to their country.

But I had to wonder, that poker night of Apollo 13.

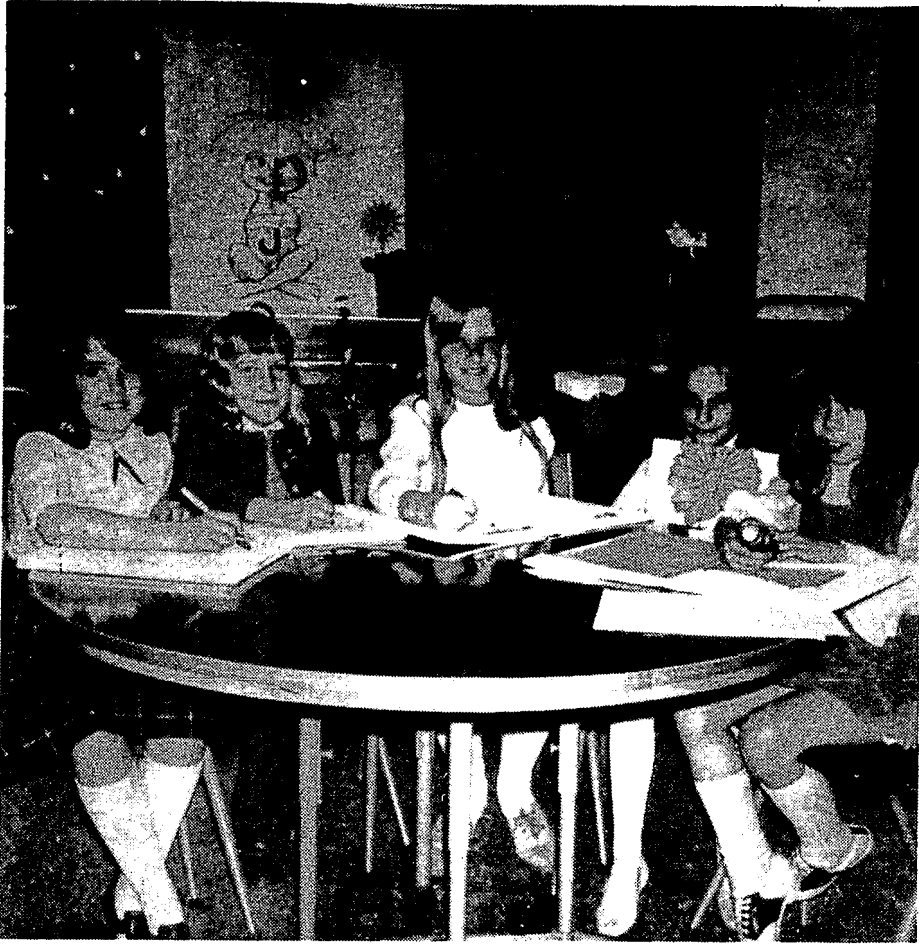

Three astronauts soar away and return to the adulation and tears of an entire nation.

Thousands of boys go to Vietnam and return battered, or in boxes. And only their families weep and care, really care.

Sure, I am awed by the incredible technology and courage that puts us on the moon. But I am saddened by a nation that sweats blood with the astronauts and doesn't care that 300 men were killed in Vietnam last week. Or that thousands of young men are doomed to hospitals for life.

Who has given the most for his country? And when will this country deserve what these few people are giving?

"Shoot me if you will, but I don't give a damn about trips to the moon. Not as long as my friends are making trips to that hospital."

Each room at the North Sashabaw School and the 6th grade rooms at the Sashabaw Jr. High selected finalists in the first annual Young Author's Conference here in Clarkston.

Young authors receive medals

For the past years, Oakland University has held a contest for young authors in the neighboring communities. This year the practice was discontinued.

Students at the North Sashabaw Elementary School and the 6th grade students at the Sashabaw Junior High School, under the supervision of teachers, Richard Swarthout and Ann Buckley, decided to hold their own contest. The contest was run by the school paper "Why? Because."

Sixth grade winners were: Dawn Lunch, Cindy Karpovck, Debbie Thompson, Julie Oliver, Jill Salzano and Cindy Harris.

Fifth grade winners were: Deanna Robenault, Dotty Salash, John Adams, Scott Traver, Glenn Curtis and Ken Drechel.

Fourth grade winners were: Sandra Smith, Robin Furman, Susan Shuler and Joni Covarrubias.

Shelley Tegart, Debbie Harrell, Tom Steinhoff and Neil Haven were the winners in the third grade.

The finalists, Deanna Robenault, Debbie Thompson, Cindy Harris, Robin Furman and Shelley Tegart were presented with medals by Principal Lynn Jervis.

Clarkston nine win 2 - lose 2

Clarkston High School's varsity baseball team won 2 and lost 2 games during the past week. The most dramatic event was the team's victory over Waterford Mott.

Going into the game on Wednesday, Mott had a record of 16 wins and 0 losses. Clarkston became the first team to defeat them this year.

Outstanding players in the game were Mike Turk, who allowed only 4 hits; Bob Hoy, who collected 3 hits and drove in a run; and Don Brown, who tripled and drove in 2 runs.

"The entire team is to be commended for their outstanding performance," said Coach Tungate.

The team met West Bloomfield on Monday. Clarkston lost, 1-0. On Thursday Clarkston regained their stride and beat Brighton 3-0. Saturday's game with Milford was a tight contest with Milford edging by for a win in the last inning. The score was Milford, 6 and Clarkston, 5.

Bob Hoy was selected as the most valuable player of the week for his shut-out pitching against Brighton and his record 7 hits. Hoy drove in a run in each of the last 3 games.

Bob Hoy is named "Most valuable player of the week." Hoy pitched shut-out baseball against Brighton and collected 7 hits with 3 rbi's to his credit.

Netmen's string ends at 10

The Clarkston tennis team extended its winning streak to ten consecutive matches. However, the streak was ended Friday by the Barons of Bloomfield Hills Andover. The Clarkston netmen defeated Northville and Milford 6-0 before bowing to Andover in a close 3-2 decision.

May 4, Clarkston 6, Northville 0; May 6, Clarkston 6, Milford 0; May 8, Andover 3, Clarkston 2.

Dick Ruelle, in second singles, and Scott Robbins and Mark Walter, in first doubles, will lead the Wolves into the league meet Friday, May 13.

The three boys are undefeated in competition this year.

Quick action averts drowning

Mrs. Arthur James, 4763 Lakeview, jumped into 6 feet of water in Woodhull Lake to rescue 22-month-old Keith W. Bradley from drowning.

Mrs. James applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation until the child started breathing and he was then taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac, according to Oakland County Sheriff's records. Keith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradley of 4690 Hillcrest and had apparently wandered out of the front yard of the family home with his brother, Todd, 7 and a sister, Cheryl, 3.

Mrs. James had been called by Steve Tappin, 14, a neighborhood youth.

3 school track records broken

While they ran out of contention at the Oxford Invitational, the Clarkston track team broke 3 school records at that meet on May 9.

The old pole vault record of 11'3" tumbled when Tom Mauti cleared the bar at 11'6".

Fred Seyler ran the mile in 4:26.4 to beat the old school record of 4:29.8.

The 3rd record to fall was the 3:37.4 that had been posted by the mile relay team. Mike Humphreys, Kurt Carlsen, Harold Ballough and Fred Seyler shaved 3 seconds from that time when they ran the distance in 3:34.

Fred Seyler picked up individual honors when he placed 2nd in the mile and Dan Dankert took a 5th in the 2 mile.

In the May 4th meet with Lake Orion, Clarkston lost by a slim margin of 60 to 58. The sprinters on the Lake Orion team made the difference as they left the Clarkston runners behind.

The match with Warren-Lincoln on May 6 found the Clarkston speedsters taking more than their share of 1st places, but a solid Warren-Lincoln overpowered them with their depth and built up a solid 77 points to Clarkston's 41.

Wolverine 9 lose 1st game

The Clarkston Junior High baseball team picked up 2 more wins last week before bowing for the 1st time this year.

The Wolverines trounced West Hills with a 13 to 2 score on May 4. Starting pitcher, Rich Hunt, pitched 7 innings, striking out 6, walking 2 and giving up 3 hits.

The team's 8th straight win was chalked up against Our Lady of the Lakes on May 6 with the same decisive score, 13-2.

RBI's were credited to Greg Swanson, (5); Rich Hunt, (3); Bruce Soulby, (3); Mark Hallman and Bill Hamilton, (1 each). Starting pitcher, Greg Fogg, pitched 5 innings, striking out 2, walking 2 and giving up 7 hits.

Two double plays were executed by Clarkston, under pressure, in the 2nd and 4th.

East Hills blew the Wolverines' 8-game win streak when they exploded for an 18-3 final score on their home field, May 8.

Home runs by Bill Hamilton and Dave Partlo of Clarkston didn't furnish enough momentum to overcome the strong East Hill team.

Sashabaw wins 2 out of 3

By Tony Karrick

After running their winning streak to five in a row with 2 more wins last week, Sashabaw lost to Mason Junior High 9 to 2. Mason is a team they had defeated in the first game of the season.

In Monday's game, the Cougars bombed Linden J.V. 9 to 1, behind the one-hit pitching of Larry Miracle with Brian Gerber and Steve Graham providing the RBI hits.

On Wednesday the Cougars came from behind twice to defeat Bloomfield Hills East 9 to 8. Sashabaw tied the score in the seventh, after trailing 8 to 5 at the start of the inning. Then in the eighth, Steve Graham doubled and scored on a clutch single by Curt Johnson, who is leading the team in batting at a .588 percentage.

Ed Medlin took the win and, along with Larry Miracle, continued his hitting in Thursday's loss to Mason.

In the next week the Cougars will play 2 home games. Friday, May 15, they will host Linden J.V. at the Clarkston Junior High diamond and next week on Tuesday (May 19) they will play a return match here against Brandon J.V.

The Cougars' record is now 6 wins and 4 losses.

Donna Brown Caston

By Jean Sura

The 3rd and 4th grade students of Mrs. Donna Caston, at a Pontiac elementary school would be amazed if they knew where their teacher goes after school and on weekends.

They might find her at her parents' farm, exercising one of her 8 horses. Or, they might find her cleaning a stable or brushing one of the lovely animals.

Then again, they might find her feeding the horses or the 11 cats that thrive in the horse barn.

Better yet, on a weekend they might be thrilled to see Mrs. Caston, who is considered one of Michigan's outstanding young horsewomen, put her Michigan Grand Champion, Lucky Rock, through his paces as a jumper. Or, it might be Flamenco, her beautiful hunter, who is known for his manners and style that she is guiding through his paces.

Mrs. Caston, whose husband (not too surprisingly), is a veterinarian and works at the race tracks down in the Detroit area, started riding when she was 10 years old. She learned her horsemanship well at the Outlands Stable in Birmingham. She has ridden as a junior rider at Madison Square Gardens in New York.

That was before she graduated from Oakland University and met Dr. Caston, a Michigan State grad.

The Castons have just bought a home on Hadley Road and are building a barn to stable their 8 horses and will provide space for an indoor riding arena.

Mrs. Caston will be a featured rider at the "America, the Beautiful" horse show and exhibition which will be held on May 16 at the Lakewood Farms, Oakland County's newest riding and recreational facility at 2369 Bogie Lake Rd., Union Lake, White Lake Township.

There will be 2 complete shows at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Donna will give a thoroughbred jumping exhibition on Lucky Rock.

Trevor Winfield, also of Clarkston, will be the ringmaster and Mrs. Louise B. Weeks of Ortonville is the show promoter. Bill Ray is serving on the committee.

The kids in that 3rd and 4th grade room might hesitate before recognizing their pretty teacher in her formal riding gear, but kids are adaptable. It didn't take them any time last December to change from calling Miss Brown, Mrs. Caston.

It's great to have a slick teacher. They probably wouldn't be surprised at anything she can do. If you had asked them, they might have told you so!

Students to walk "for mankind"

Students of Clarkston's High School and the 2 Junior Highs have undertaken a project to raise funds for charity. On Saturday, May 22, close to 1,000 students will set out on a twelve mile walk through Independence Township.

Students are now obtaining sponsors in the community who will pay them money for each mile they walk. The object is to get as many sponsors as possible to collect from after the walk. The money collected will be divided between Project Concern (50%), Jayshop (40%), and charities of the students' choice (10%).

Project Concern is a medical relief organization with hospitals and clinics in four areas of the world. Jayshop is a half-way house for the mentally retarded at Pontiac State Hospital.

The "walk" is coordinated by the Clarkston Area Jaycees with involvement from the student governments of the three schools.

The members of the community are asked to cooperate when a student approaches them with a Project Concern Sponsor Sheet. Contributions made are tax exempt and receipts from Project Concern will be given upon request.

Chairmen for the walk are Jeff Kitson, representing the students, and George White from the Jaycees.

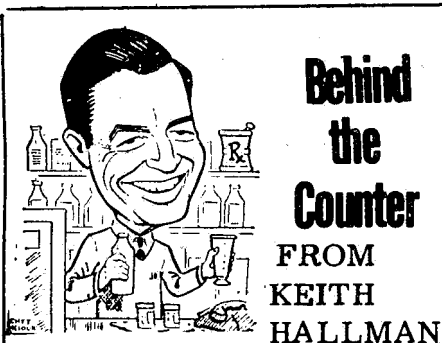

The walk will begin between 7 and 8 a.m. on Saturday.

Library gets copy machine

Users of the Independence Township Library have access to a coin-operated copying machine as a result of a special project grant to 15 member libraries of the Wayne Oakland Federated Library System by the Michigan Department of Education, Bureau of Library Services, according to Walter H. Kaiser, System director.

The copying machine has been installed in the library for a one-year trial period, after which evaluation will be made to determine whether to continue the service.

For ten cents a copy, residents will be able to make copies of standard and legal size papers and of books and periodicals.

Tranquilizers

Tranquilizers have become one of the most widely-accepted of the newer drugs, especially those used for non-psychotic patients who experience occasional anxiety.

Whether or not a person receives these drugs is decided by his physician. But while tranquilizers are prescription drugs, the doctor has no control over the number of pills that a patient takes at any one time. If he ignores the doctor's orders, the patient may become "intoxicated" — drowsy, confused and irritable. He has impaired judgment and movement, and has difficulty in thinking clearly. He is more apt to get into a fight, or to be involved in an automobile accident.

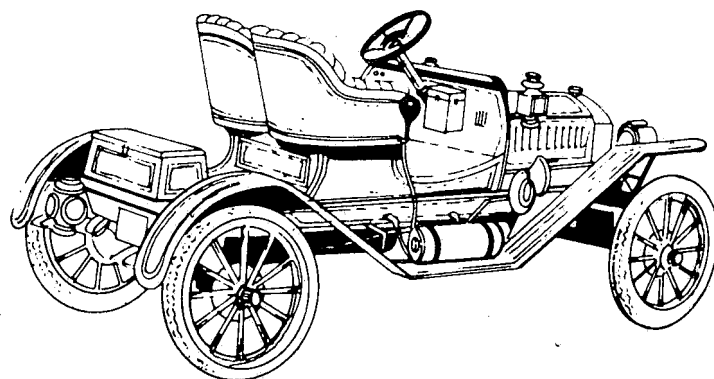

Tranquilizers have proven to be too valuable for them to be abandoned because of occasional abuse. They are widely accepted as safe, effective and non-addictive, when taken in small doses. The "major tranquilizers" have been helpful in treating mental illness. Others, who are not ill enough to be put in an institution, can function effectively with "minor tranquilizers."

It is the patient's responsibility not to misuse this (or any other) prescription drug. He should consult his doctor if he intends to drive, drink alcoholic beverages or take other drugs while taking tranquilizers. And he should not attempt to refill the prescription without his doctor's instructions.

MICHIGAN WEEK

Sawbones are obsolete

by Haslett Hemmor

Doc Bream is sure a funny little guy. Guess you could say he's one of the few old-time family Doc's. Still makes house calls and stuff. Takes a right personal interest in his patients but that don't change the fact that he's a funny little guy.

Town's full of bullheaded fellows but maybe Doc is the most mulely of all. Take like how he was about the broken arm our boy Jack got last summer. Broke her up at summer camp and they took him in to that hospital up North to get it set.

Week later Jack comes home and says his arm still don't feel too good so we take him to see old Doc. Wouldn't let old Eff drive him in because he said it would make him look like a baby if his Ma had to come in with him. So I drove and Jack even let me go in with him while Doc examined the arm.

"Take this slip down to the Andover Clinic and get that wing X-rayed," Doc tells him, "my eyes are still pretty good but been having a little trouble examining deep buried bones without mechanical help. Must be old age creeping up on me. Doctor Andover will give you the film to bring back and I'll discuss it with him by phone. Annie'll set up an appointment this afternoon or tomorrow."

Jack and me came back the next morning at 9:15. Tugboat Annie has been Doc's nurse for long enough to know that Doc sees people at the appointed time and no fooling. Right soon after she started she gave five people an appointment for the same time and Doc laced her out pretty good. Way she tells it he told her he was just a country Doc and didn't care to get into no group therapy practice. Don't know just what that means - technical speaking - but I do know that you don't come for a 2:00 o'clock appointment and twiddle your thumbs 'til 4:00. Some different from my eye doctor and dentist.

Anyways we come in at 9:15 and Doc looks over the X-rays. Mutters something about "shouldn't have a license to practice."

"Well," Doc finally says, "I already talked to Doctor Andover about this and it's just like he says. Got to be reset."

"Crooked?" I ask him.

"Worse, than that," he says, "the veterinarian up North just plain screwed it up. Fortunate thing it really hasn't had time to start healing. Fellow obvious didn't have it rayed or he'd know it really had to be yanked out good before it could slide back to natural reunion. Want me to do it or shall I send you to a good bone and joint man who'll do the same thing for maybe $175.00 that I can do for $10.00?"

"Well," I say, "I guess, - -"

"Didn't ask you to guess," Doc snaps. "Young Jack here is near 18 and it's HIS arm I'm asking HIM about."

"Insurance will probably cover it anyway, won't it Doc?" I ask.

Doc kinda glares at me. "One of them, are you?" Doc quizzes me. "Don't care how much you jump other folks rates. I'm still asking Jack. What say, boy?"

"You do it, Doc," says Jack. "Guess you wouldn't even ask if you really had a question."

So Doc takes off the split cast and yanks and hauls after giving Jack a shot of something to numb and relax the arm. "Now get you down to Andover again and we'll have another ray to see if it's as good as it feels to me."

Jack's a little shaky but we whip down to the clinic and get another picture.

"Perfect," says Doc Andover, "best orthopedic man in the area. Matter of fact, that country bumpkin doctor of yours is our best man in a lot of fields. Too bad that it isn't fashionable to be a real doctor any more. Dirty shame. Give my best to the old goat."

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bennett, Jr. of Northview drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda, to Dale G. Ryan, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Ryan of Waterford. Miss Bennett is a graduate of Clarkston High School and Mr. Ryan was graduated from Waterford Township High School. An October wedding is being planned.

Around the Town

Chicken lickin' Mother's Day

By Barb Humphreys

The Gray Robertsons of Robertson Court spent Mother's Day at the home of their son, Charles, and his family on Hummingbird Lane. Daughter-in-law, Kay (being a mother of three), made it a complete celebration for all mothers by letting Colonel Sanders fry the chicken for dinner.

"What are we doing to celebrate our anniversary?" said Barbara (Mrs. Roger) Olney of Hidden Lane. "Well, let me tell you. Our daughter, Linda, is celebrating her 13th birthday and that is the same day my Bluebirds meet."

"Who has time to celebrate?"

Well, there is nothing like being busy to stay happy. Many happy, busy returns, Rog and Barb.

Speaking of anniversaries, Mr. and Mrs. Max Marrow of Transparent are planning a quiet 16th and we send them our best as well.

Mrs. Dean Winston and her new son, Jeffrey, were honored at a baby shower at the home of Mrs. Richard Roy on Orion road last week. Mrs. Roy is Mrs. Winston's sister. Their mother, Mrs. Vern Kath, baked 2 cradle cakes that made a lovely centerpiece on the lunch table.

Twenty-two guests enjoyed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gavar of Parview drive have enjoyed a visit from their daughter, Mrs. Ramon Elosegui and children, Ramon, Jr., age 2, and Roberto, age 1, for a few days. They formerly lived in Los Angeles and now Linda and the two boys are on their way to Mexico City where Mr. Elosegui is employed and the family will make their new home.

Ron Gilbert, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gilbert of King Rd., Davisburg, has enlisted in the Marines. He will graduate from Clarkston in June and will report for training on September 1st.

Mother's Day was a popular time for baptismal services. Eleven children were baptized at the Clarkston United Methodist Church. They were: Scott and Linda, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Klingler; Jeffrey and Lisa Winston, children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winston; Linda Sue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jewell; Kristen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore; Steven, Daniel and Richard, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Harken; Jason, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hansen; and Teri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Parks.

A family camping trip was the highlight of the weekend for 5 Clarkston couples and their 11 children. All 21 campers pitched in to set up camp at the island Lake camp at Brighton. On

This is Michigan Week so I am featuring recipes that are made with some of Michigan's most famous products. Of course, that means blueberries and cherries.

For a starter, here is a recipe for muffins.

BLUEBERRY-PATCH MUFFINS

1 cup fresh blueberries
1 tablespoon sugar (for topping)
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
2 cups sifted flour
1/3 cup sugar (for batter)
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup milk
4 tablespoons (1/2 stick) butter or margarine, melted

Pick over blueberries; wash, spread on paper toweling to dry well. Put aside.

Combine 1 tablespoon sugar and lemon rind in cup. Save for later.

Sift flour, 1/3 cup sugar, baking powder and salt into medium size bowl.

Combine egg, milk and melted butter in small bowl; add to dry ingredients; stir quickly and lightly just until liquid is absorbed (batter will be lumpy); gently fold in blueberries.

Spoon into 12 greased medium-sized muffin pan cups, filling cups 2/3 full; sprinkle with lemon and sugar combination.

Bake in 425 degree oven for 20 minutes.

Makes 12 medium-size muffins.

Or how would you like to try Blueberry crisp?

BLUEBERRY CRISP

4 cups fresh or frozen blueberries
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 cup brown sugar (packed)
1/2 cup rolled oats
1/2 cup flour
3/4 teaspoon cinnamon

3/4 teaspoon nutmeg

1/3 cup soft butter

Place berries in greased 8 inch pan. Sprinkle with lemon juice. Blend remaining ingredients until crumbly. Spread over berries. Bake in moderate oven 375 degrees for 30 to 35 minutes. Serve warm with cream, whipped cream or ice cream. (You may omit the spices).

Here is a way to combine 2 of Michigan's products in one pie.

RHUBARB-CHERRY PIE

Pastry for 2-crust pie

2 cups pitted sour pie cherries

2 cups cut up rhubarb

1 1/2 cups sugar

6 tablespoons flour

1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

Line nine inch pie pan with pastry. Combine cherries, rhubarb, nutmeg, flour and sugar. Mix well. Pour into pastry. Cover with pastry and bake at 400 degrees until done.

Loving to substitute the way I do - I used a tablespoon of lemon juice in place of the nutmeg and as always, I dotted the top of the fruit with butter or oleo before putting on the top crust. Then, of course, I always paint the top crust with milk to give it a golden gloss.

Opera tickets

now on sale

Tickets for the 1970 Metropolitan Opera performances in Detroit are now on sale in several price categories at the Ford Auditorium box office, according to Henry Ledyard, general manager of the Detroit Grand Opera Association.

Operas for which tickets are available include "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci," "La Traviata," "Lucia Di Lammermoor," "Andrea Chenier," "Tosca," and "The Magic Flute." The Thursday evening performance of "Norma" is sold out.

The Ford Auditorium box office is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Mondays through Fridays. The Metropolitan will offer evening performances from May 25 through May 30 and a Saturday matinee on the latter date. All performances will be in the Masonic Temple Auditorium.

Among the lead singers to appear during the Detroit season are Richard Tucker, Pilar Lorengar, Roberta Peters, Placido Domingo, Joan Sutherland, Marilyn Horne, Marina Arroyo, Dorothy Kirsten, Cornell MacNeil, George Shirley, and Edda Moser.

Saturday the group took to their canoes.

The group has become acquainted through their mutual interests at the Calvary Lutheran Church.

The birthday party that was held at the Kevern home on Hummingbird Lane for Barbie was a huge success, according to sister Susie, our 8-year-old reporter. Barbara was delighted by all the aunts, uncles, grandparents, cousins and friends that dropped in to say "Happy Birthday." the whole family is waiting for another treat this week. Grandma and grandpa, who have been away for the winter, left Arizona on Barbie's birthday and will be arriving here this week.

Their arrival will be the cause for another celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Roosa and sons, Doug and Dave, traveled across the state to Bear Lake to visit Mrs. Roosa's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Duenzer for Mother's Day.

Eastern Star party

Table and door prizes will be awarded at the noon luncheon and card party of the Austin Chapter No. 396 Order of the Eastern Star of Davisburg.

The party will be held in the Masonic Temple in Davisburg on May 21.

All sophomores are reminded that their second senior trip payment is due before June 1st. The sophomores are assuring their trip by beginning to make small payments now. Their sponsors are Mr. George White and Mrs. Linda Dennis. Their class officers are Howard Bliss, president; Joe Lessard, vice president; Cheryl Shrapnell, secretary and Al Watson, treasurer.

Don't forget that the CHS Drama Department will be presenting "South Pacific" on May 15, 16, 21, 22 and 23. Tickets may be purchased during the lunch hours, at the door, or from any cast member.

A new parking system is being put into effect at Clarkston High School. In the south end of the parking lot, the first two rows of curb markers have been painted yellow to designate faculty parking only. Each day, all cars in the marked area are checked for parking permits. If the cars do not display them, they are towed away. All students must park in the north end of the parking lot or the back rows of the south end.

Students are becoming involved with the "Walk for Mankind." This is described as, "Project Concern's newest national plan for involving schools, organizations and communities in a rewarding fund-raising effort to help the helpless - the sick of all ages who desperately need medical aid, food and basic sanitation."

Operating without government subsidy and entirely dependent on public contributions, Dr. Jim Turpin has taken his organization, Project Concern, into neglected areas where the need is greatest.

Walk for Mankind is one of the contributors to this fund. Further information about the May 23 walk may be obtained by contacting the student chairman, Jeff Kitson; Jaycee walk chairman, Mr. George White, or president of the Jaycees, Jerry Bradley.

THE SDA'S INT'L & GLOBE ON MONDAY

Glen who?

by Shel George

Eat your heart out, Glen Campbell. If you didn't have several hit records to your credit, a current popular TV show, a talented guitar and several other pluses to your credit, the kids in our neighborhood wouldn't even know who you are.

Take for instance a recent Saturday "happening" with our local pre-schoolers. Since we have a pretty good sized paved driveway, it is only natural that the neighborhood kids should use it as a little "500." Frankly, I'm glad, because it makes it easier to keep track of our own, and besides that I like kids. At least up until this particular Saturday morning I thought I did.

I had been doing several spring chores around the yard. Since I don't plan ahead too well, before lunchtime had rolled around, I had every tool I own, stationed at some spot in the front of the house.

A call came from inside the house to bring our kids in for lunch. At that moment, most of the kids were congregated at one corner of the garage. The tool stationed there happened to be a plain old household broom. I guess they are referred to as a corn broom.

I grabbed the broom, tucked it under my arm like you would a guitar and asked the kids if they would like to hear me do a number. Most of them just sorta grinned a silly grin. Without waiting for an answer (I probably knew what it would be), I gave forth with the latest rendition of "Hot dogs, Armour hot dogs, what kind of kids eat Armour hotdogs?" Naturally, I plucked at the broom imitating a guitar player.

The "audience reaction" was about as thrilling as kissing your mother-in-law. Two kids actually ran across the yard for home. Several put their hands over their ears, somebody hollered "Oh, no!" and all of them laughed.

But a little boy saved the day. He was dressed in an old Air Force jacket of sorts, had on his uncle's oversized Army hat and was wearing a toy pistol in a western style holster.

When I had finished, he flashed a smile, drew his toy pistol, walked up to me and said, "Mister, you're under arrest." I put up my hands and asked, "What for?" He paused a moment to think, then smiled again and said, "For disturbing the peace."

Oh well, I never met a kid yet who truly appreciates good music. On second thought, this one probably did.

"By the time I get to Phoenix, dum de dum dum."

Install officers

The school band will present a spring concert when the Clarkston Elementary PTA holds its annual meeting on Thursday, May 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Richard Johnston will be installed as the new president. Others who will take office are: Kenneth Barks, father vice president; mother vice president, Kay Robertson; treasurer, Joy McKibben; secretary, Nancy Tilley; historian and parliamentarian, Judy Ushman; and Mrs. Gladys Alexander, teacher vice president.

The group will sponsor a book sale at the school on May 15 from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. and on May 16 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

All members of the community are invited to attend.

Gardens petition questioned, claim forgery, ask restraint

The law firm of Hartman, Beier, Howlett & McConnell have filed a restraining order against the Township of Independence in the name of their clients, the Real Estate Appraisal Brokerage of Anderson, Frome and Lipshour.

The action contends that the petitions that were filed in the name of the Clarkston Gardens Home Owners Association were executed contrary to law and contrary to certificates attached to the petitions.

The complainants have hired Richard G. Bowen, a handwriting expert for the Detroit Police Department. Mr. Bowen contends that, after examining 118 petitions, he believes 66 signers have signed 2 names. This would make 66 signatures fraudulent.

On this basis, the order asks that Howard Altman, Township Clerk, be restrained from certifying the petitions until the question of forgery is settled in a court of law.

Mr. Keith Humbert and others have been subpoenaed to appear on May 15 to answer the complaint.

A meeting was scheduled on May 12, according to Humbert, to study the situation and decide the course of action to be taken.

Building report

Building in Independence Township in April almost doubled that done in the month of March, according to the Building Department report.

Forty permits were issued and building costs ran $421,100 during the month. March permits totaled 24 and value ran $256,189.

The increase was below last April's total when 48 permits were issued and $619,332 was the total cost of the building.

This month's permits were as follows:

13 new houses	$337,500
6 garages	11,500
15 remodeling and add.	46,600
2 swimming pools	11,000
1 commercial garage	12,000

Mobile Park zoning slowed, coming up again May 19

The move to rezone 114 acres on Clintonville road to Mobile Home Park from agriculture was sidetracked at least temporarily, last Tuesday night.

After getting approval from the Township Planning Commission and county coordinating and planning committee, the township board voted to table the request.

Supervisor Duane Hursfall said he had some questions he wanted to ask the developers and engineers and would call them for a meeting. He said the decision would be considered at the next regular meeting, May 18.

The proposed park has a density of 4.9 units per acre. The ordinance allows 5.0. The total is 556 sites. A sewer line would be laid to the Clinton Oakland interceptor, about 1200 feet.

There would be an adult only area, and one that allows children, the owners said. The park, which would be privately owned and operated, would be run by regulations set up by itself. Hursfall said one of the questions he wanted to take up with the owners concerned having the township write the regulations into their building permit.

Band and chorus entertain PTA

Last PTA of the year will be Thursday, May 14 at 7:30 p.m.

New officers to be installed are: Tim Farough, president; Art Ripley, father vice president; Prudence Dawley, mother vice president; Pat Trulu, treasurer; and Duane Proctor, teacher vice president.

Bailey Lake School band and chorus group will entertain the parents and teachers.

Negotiations for the 1970-71 teacher master contract are now under way. The first meeting between the Clarkston teachers represented by the Clarkston Education Association and the Board of Education was held April 7th.

Since the initial negotiating session, three subsequent meetings have been held. The next scheduled meeting will be May 13th.

To date, some progress has been indicated but no "significant" results have yet unfolded.

The teachers are seeking a clarification in the Board's Rights and Responsibilities provision, modifications in elementary teacher hours and working conditions, clarifications on the status of department chairmen, personal business days, and teacher evaluation. The Board and the CEA must also establish a calendar or employment schedule for the upcoming school year.

The areas relating to financial compensation: salary, extra-curricular activities, and insurance benefits are of major concern to the negotiating teams.

Matters concerning financial compensation have not received serious attention as of this date due to the fact that the Michigan State Legislature has not yet enacted a school aid bill for the upcoming school year. Thus, the Board and the CEA cannot determine the amount of anticipated revenue to structure the economic package until the Legislature takes action.

Both negotiating teams do not expect the school aid bill to be enacted for several weeks; as a result, the CEA and Board are concentrating their efforts in the previously stated non-economic areas.

Representing the CEA, the teacher negotiating team is composed of the following: Tom Brown, spokesman; Ron Jacobson, Larry Rosso and Shirley Koneipp, secretary. Representing the Board of Education's negotiating team are: George Barrie, spokesman; Floyd Vincent, Milford Mason and Ruth Purslow, secretary.

The eyes have 'it'

by Jean Sura

My spring clean-up campaign isn't working. I had my hair frosted, thinking that it would do the trick of giving the old body a streamlining and a spring pick-me-up.

The only thing it did was make the surrey look like the fringe had been bobbed and a '70 model top grafted on to it.

A weigh-in on the scales added to my depression. My thrifty upbringing and my $100 bet was the only thing that kept me on the straight and narrow and cooled my nicotine fit.

A close look in the mirror added to my depression. "You no sooner outgrow your adolescent acne when the wrinkles set in," I said to myself. Under the unfriendly glare of the fluorescent bulb, I looked like I was in competition with the State of Michigan to see who could get the expressways to cover the whole map the quickest.

Then I made the mistake of taking off my glasses. The only time I do this is when I'm showering or sleeping. It isn't really any kind of an addiction with me, I just like to see.

Anyway, as I looked into the mirror I thought, "Well, no wonder, dumb. It's the eyes.

"Remember that gal on the TV commercial. After they put that eye make-up on her she was a different person. It gave her face dimension. Ho, ho, I can take care of that."

A quick trip to a cosmetic counter threw me for a slight detour. Finally, being a big spender, I took the two dollar "complete eye kit" (with false eyelashes included) that was specially priced. It had everything.

Back home I went. I cleared the deck and locked the bathroom door.

Cleopatra never spent more time than I did — smearing, pasting and drawing.

"Whoopsie, girl, you almost forgot the eyeliner. Eiiigh, that stuff stings when you get it on your eyeball."

Eyeliner, mascara, eye shadow (white, blue and green), they all went on. Then the coup de grace, the eyelashes.

Sadly enough, the glue from the eyelashes messed all the other glop by the time I got through sliding them around, so out came the soap and water and we started all over again.

Five treatments later and a little red-eyed, I was dazzled by my own glamour. With eyes like that, maybe I should go without glasses just for today, anyway. Some Hollywood scout might be eating at the lunch room.

I'd dazzle them in the print shop at work just blinking.

I nearly hit a tree while driving out of the driveway, so I decided I had better compromise and at least wear the old goggles while I was at the wheel.

To make a long story short, my eyes started to itch. My eyelashes bumped on my lenses. Carefully, I reached up and tweaked the corner. It still itched. I gave a good rub.

Now the other eye started to burn.

Five minutes later I walked into the office looking like I'd been punched in both eyes and inky tears streamed down my cheeks.

"Why, you poor girl. Did that brute hit you? Well, what in heaven's name happened to you? You look ghastly."

I headed for the lavatory.

Red-eyed, I went to work.

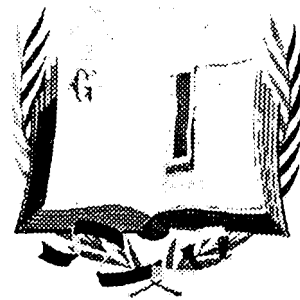

"Hey, look at that, she looks like an albino rabbit."

"Drop dead," I said, "the eyes have had it."

CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION
EPISCOPAL

THIS WEEK'S Spiritual Message

FROM

The Rev. Alexander T. Stewart

"When the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them." Acts II:1

The Scripture goes on to tell how, by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit, those early Christians were enabled to proclaim "the wonderful works of God" to the multi-lingual throng gathered from "every nation under heaven."

The Pentecost, which the church commemorates this next Sunday, was truly a unique happening in history. But the fact that it was does not mean that we cannot share in the great gift that was given that day, for the Holy Spirit is given to us, too, as we enter the Church in baptism. How we receive it and respond to it is the measure of our Christianity.

Our Lord said, "The Spirit of truth dwelleth with you, and shall be in you." And to those who have accepted Him God the Holy Ghost is ever with them, strengthening and moving each of us to witness to the wonder of the divine love.

It is every Christian's calling to be a faithful witness to the Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer of all things. Therefore, we must learn to heed the Spirit's promptings, yielding ourselves more and more to the fire of His love and the vigor of His indwelling power.

Since Pentecost, the gift of God's Spirit is no longer the exclusive property of a few spiritually-gifted souls such as were the prophets and seers of Old Testament times. God the Spirit is each Christian's Counsellor and He never ceases to remind us of our calling to worship Almighty God "in spirit and in truth" and of our accepted and promised mission to proclaim, through Christ's Church, the "fellowship of the Holy Spirit."

Hampering underground paper may spread efforts, adm.

The Reverend Philip Somers, Sr. of the Maranatha Baptist Church protested as a parent and clergyman the existence of the underground newspaper that has gained some readership at the Clarkston High School.

He made his complaint to the Board of Education Monday night.

Principal, William Dennis, explained that the difficulty in eliminating the problem (newspaper) was that experience in other areas has proven that attempts of elimination had met with a spreading of the activity.

Milford Mason, administrative assistant to the superintendent, upheld Mr. Dennis' views.

"This is an outgrowth of a college movement that has now passed down to the high school level," he said.

Mr. Dennis said they are working with some of the parents whose children are involved and hope to find a solution in this way.

Reverend Somers suggested that if these papers are allowed to circulate freely that the Christian students be allowed to circulate a paper that would defend their practices and beliefs.

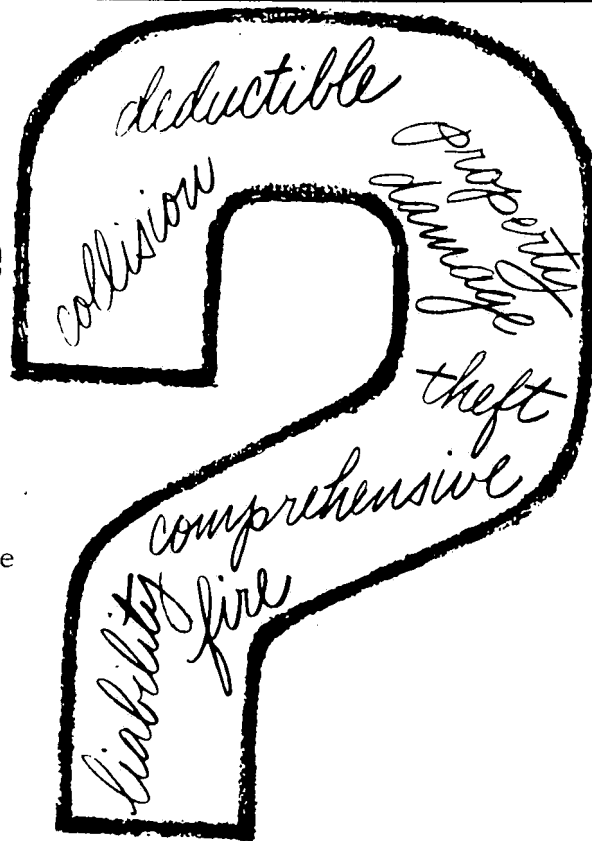

One question raised was that of from where the financing was coming to support these underground papers.

Reverend Philip Somers, Jr. asked if a policy might not be instituted whereby administration, faculty and parents took a stand and exercised their efforts to prevent the spread.

Miss Julie Grant, dental hygienist, applies a treatment of fluoride to the teeth of Arlene Fuller. Lindy Hart waits for the solution to dry. Peggy Logan and Terri Recknagel wait their turn. The children all attend the Pine Knob School.

Kindergarten registration taken for fall term

G. W. Barrie, assistant superintendent of schools, announced that the Clarkston Community Schools will register kindergarten children for the 1970-1971 school term on Friday, May 15. Registration will be conducted in each elementary building between the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, and 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

State law requires that children be five years of age on or before December 1, 1970, to be eligible for enrollment for the school term of 1970-1971.

A birth certificate or other proof of age will be required before a child may be enrolled in school. If a birth certificate for a child is not available, parents are asked to call their building principal for advice.

State law also requires kindergarten children to have protective shots and a doctor's statement attesting to the physical condition of the child. However, should this requirement conflict with religious beliefs, or there are other objections, the parent or guardian may be released from these requirements by filing a statement of objection with the building principal at the time of registration.

Physical examination forms may be obtained at all elementary buildings.

"The kindergarten material fee of $2.00 may be paid at the time of registration," said Barrie.

Honors students

Honor students for the recently concluded winter session at Oakland Community College have been announced by S. James Manilla, Executive Director of Educational Services.

Clarkston students who received all A's are: Janet Beaudette, Holcomb; Jean Benzing, Williamson; David Butler, Holcomb; Jerril Mohler, Cramlane Ct.; Linda Palace, Hummingbird Lane; and Gregory Sharrow, Caberfae Trail.

Those students from Clarkston who averaged B+ (3.5) or better are: Carol Broadway, Northview; Caroline Giles, Paramus and Carl Stierstorfer, Maybee Road.

"Family swim" planned May 22

Clarkston area families are invited to get into the swim on May 22.

The Clarkston Jaycees, the Clarkston schools and the Oakland University, co-sponsors of the children's Saturday morning swimming program, are inviting all parents to accompany their children for a free evening of fun at the Oakland University pool.

Bathing suits and caps, to cover long hair, are the only requirements. Children must be accompanied by their parents.

The pool will be open from 7 to 8:30 p.m. "This is a fine opportunity for area residents to get together for a family fun night," said Larry Thompson, Jaycee swim chairman. "We hope we have a good response."

Relics of the only monarchy ever established in the continental United States, ruled by self-styled Mormon King Strang, may be found on Beaver Island.

Don't Forget...

THE CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION IS PLANNING THEIR ANNUAL SPRING CARD PARTY FOR MONDAY, MAY 18, AT 8 P.M. THE MEN ARE INVITED TO THE PARTY WHICH FEATURES PRIZES, DESSERT AND A GOOD TIME FOR ALL. DONATIONS ARE $1.25.
