Jim's Jottings

By Jim Sherman

Do you get the feeling we're being prepared, propaganda-wise, for war in the Middle East? I do.

And for what cause this time? The domino theory... if Israel goes communist will the entire Middle East fall? They're already lost.

Are we protecting the little guy's interest? These little guys took just six days to whip the last nation to attack them.

My son, and yours, will be just as dead if killed in a war in Jordan as they would in Vietnam, although it would probably be a more "popular" war.

If I could make a suggestion to our President it would be to stop making promises to defend or support various countries around the world. Then he wouldn't have to commit men to die to "save face."

Even sporadic readers of this column know I seldom have any good luck fishing. Perhaps for that reason those who have made a decent catch like to tell me about it.

Tuesday morning a guy went to an unnecessary extreme to stick his knife of ridicule between my shoulder blades and twist it gently.

At 7 a.m. (that's early to start taunting even an enemy), Billie Van Arsdel of Sanders Rd., called to report his string of bass and "wouldn't I like to drop by on my way to work to see them?"

I don't think my calling him a dirty rat was strong enough. Like so many instances in my life, this was another time I thought later, "I should have said..."

It borders on cruelty to call anyone, anytime, let alone early morning, and chide him for his ineptness.

But I went to his house, and sure enough, he'd gone out behind his place and caught one real fine bass and a couple of smaller ones. I hate guys who back up their boasts with truth. A guy who does that isn't a true fisherman.

At times I get the feeling (like when I wrote the opening article in this column) that nothing is really right with the world. The latest government report on crime in America is scary with its huge percentage increases, they're the watch count

The Clarkston Board of Education unanimously approved the proposed school budget presented to them at their regular meeting on September 14.

The budget calls for $4,880,443 for total General Fund expenditures.

The James F. Moore & Company's, a firm of certified public accountants from Birmingham, audit of last year's expenditures was presented and approved.

Dr. L. Greene reported an enrollment of 6674 students for the 1970-71 school year. "This," he pointed out, "is not an official count." Last year's enrollment was 6485. The projected enrollment figure had been estimated at 6600.

"The slight increase may indicate," said Greene, "that our need for more buildings will be eliminated in the next few years. Our kindergarten enrollment this year is the smallest since 1961. This downward trend began in 1966. We are watching it closely."

The decrease is reflected in the total enrollment in the elementary schools. The total for 1969-70 was 3780. This year, 3744 students have reported.

Assistant Superintendent Milford Mason reported that 400 students had been processed through the driver education summer program. The 9 week program was staffed by 7 instructors.

Mason complimented local automobile dealers Haupt, Rademacher and Hahn for their cooperation.

wars, Black and White Panthers, Mafia, corruption in government, and the list goes on.

But once in a while, especially since I moved to a home of my own, I pause and look out the window. This morning, I strolled out for the Free Press at 6:30. The sun was coming through the neighbor's trees. Fog was sitting over the lagoon. It was refreshing in its beauty.

That, friends, is peace. Even the slight scent of skunk in the air didn't detract from my feeling. In fact, I became conscious of a smile growing over my face.

If there is a time of day I've come to love it's early morning. I thought I'd never like to get up in the morning, but its beauty has even made that time of day welcome.

Life isn't all bad.

Mothers take a last peek to make sure first day of kindergarten is a happy occasion.

Scrimmage raises Clarkston hopes

By Craig Moore

Preseason contact practice was concluded Saturday, September 12, as the Clarkston gridders went through a two-hour scrimmage with Flint Beecher of the Big Nine Conference and Lake Orion of the Oakland County Athletic League on the Clarkston gridiron.

Because Flint Beecher and Lake Orion were tops in their leagues last year, coach Paul Rakow found the scrimmage a fine test for the Wolves.

During the course of the scrimmage, the team hit a number of high spots. The Wolves' defense looked very good, as they were hitting well. Clarkston's offense, even though limited, looked great at times.

Coach Rakow was especially impressed with Paul Thomas, who will be competing with Rick Prasil for starting position.

The Wolves are in fine shape physically, and exhibited great spirit at the scrimmage.

Clarkston is looking forward to their first season game with Oxford Friday, September 18. As it looks now, starters at the Oxford game will be: tight end, Mike Turk; tackle, Bill Housefield; guard, Ted Karbownik; center, Rich Butler; guard, Mike Crabtree; tackle, Marshall Perry; split end, Kurt Richardson; quarterback, John Hux; fullback, Mark Swanson; tailback, Rick Prasil or Paul Thomas; and middleback, Tom Gates.

Also scrimmaging Saturday at Clarkston were the junior varsity teams of Flint Beecher, Lake Orion and Clarkston.

According to coach B. J. Hanson, it was a satisfactory scrimmage. Coach Hanson said his team is progressing well at this time.

Clarkston man wins golf tourney

Guy Carter of Clarkston and Butch Karvala of Pontiac tied for first place in the first annual Al Hanoute Open at Clarkston Hills Golf Course Sept. 5-6. Each shot 71's, low gross score.

Winner of the handicap round, Peoria system, was Dennis Wait of Oxford with a 62. His sister, Denise, won the women's low gross title with an 89.

The golfing event was termed "highly successful" by both the club owners, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frechette. Auto dealer Al Hanoute sponsored the event.

Over 200 golfers participated during the two day contest. The Tourney was set to run only one day, but the number of entries forced an extension. Several golfers had to be turned down.

Hanoute gave out $1,000 in prizes and offered $150 for a hole in one, which wasn't claimed.

The Frechettes said Hanoute would be sponsoring the event again next year, but would suggest an earlier date.

Here's how the golfers finished:

Championship flight winners were Carter and Karvala, who tied for first with 71's. Joe Fritch of Clarkston fired a 73 for second place.

The low net winner (Peoria system) was Dennis Wait of Oxford with a 62. Herb Remley of Pontiac shot 63 for second spot.

(The Peoria system is figured thusly: six, 4-par holes on the 18 are used. The strokes over par on these six are multiplied by 3 to give an 18-hole handicap. Then 80 per cent of this is the actual handicap).

The first flight winner (Peoria) was Robert Theobald of Pontiac with a fine round of 56. Kurt Lussier of Clarkston shot 59 to gain the runnerup position.

Winner of the second flight was Earl Webber of Pontiac at 60. G. Calgon of Pontiac and Les Purslow of Clarkston shot 61's to share second place.

Third flight: Ken Funderbeck, Pontiac, 61. Bob Woodhull, Pontiac, 65.

The longest drive was hit by L. D. Geror of Pontiac. Dave Williamson of Lake Orion was about a foot short of Geror.

Larry Leach of Lake Orion was the only one to drive the first green during the tourney. He was also the first to do it this year.

Mrs. Gary Shults

Deborah Wiechert weds Gary Shults

Deborah Elizabeth Wiechert was escorted to the altar of the Davisburg Methodist Church on September 12 by her father and given in marriage to Gary Ray Shults.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyel Wiechert of Davisburg and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Shults of Holly are the parents of the groom.

The bride chose a floor length gown of silk organza with a chapel length train for her wedding. Her silk illusion veil was elbow length and she carried an arrangement of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

The honor maid was Jeanne Shafer of Davisburg. Julie Montgomery, Ruthann Ulicne, Carol Brendel and junior bridesmaid Cindy Walters were the other bridal attendants.

All were identically gowned in apricot floor length gowns.

Jerry Leece was best man. Andrew Ulicne, Marvin Scramlin and Roland Wiechert seated the guests. Mike Wiechert was the junior usher.

Three hundred guests offered best wishes to the couple at a reception held at the Davisburg Masonic Temple.

After a northern Michigan honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Waterford.

Bride and bridesmaid make wedding gowns

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bentley

Wearing a floor length gown of white brocade that she had made. Marjorie Sue Tower, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tower, Jr. of Lakeview Drive became the bride of Michael Charles Bentley. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Bentley of M-15 in Clarkston.

Pastor Arlon Stubbe performed the ceremony on August 29 at the Calvary Lutheran Church before approximately 50 guests.

The bridal gown was complemented by a bouffant veil and she carried a Bible, trimmed with daisy streamers.

Bridesmaid Barbara Morgan of Pontiac wore a floor length gown of yellow silk and a yellow veil of her own making. She carried a basket of white and yellow daisies.

The brother of the bridegroom, James L. Bentley, was the best man and Edward Cahoon was the usher.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, in the church parlor.

The couple will make their home in Germany where the groom is stationed with the United States Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Rawley Hallman

Golden wedding bells ring

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Rawley Hallman of Ortonville Road feted their parents on September 13 on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The children, Keith of Clarkston and Karol of Birmingham, decorated Keith's home on Overlook Drive with snapshots of the senior Hallmans' high school days in Yale and those taken on their wedding day back in 1920.

Eighty-five guests congratulated the couple. Among those attending were their daughter, Marilyn from Allentown, Pennsylvania; 18 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

A special surprise was the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beadle of Florida. Mr.

Beadle is a retired Michigan State Senator from St. Clair County and an old friend of the Hallmans.

Mr. Hallman owned and operated a pharmacy in the Waldron Hotel in Pontiac for many years. He later had a store on the corner of Elizabeth Lake Road and Telegraph. About 10 years ago he moved to Clarkston to work on a part-time basis for his son, Keith.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hallman are in good health and are looking forward to spending some time in Florida this winter. When here in Clarkston they enjoy working in their yard.

What makes a marriage work successfully for 50 years?

"Give and take," said Mr. Hallman.

Take advantage of the fresh vegetables available now. After you have your fill of just eating them raw, here are a few twists that may be new to you.

COMPANY CAULIFLOWER

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Clean and wash thoroughly, a whole head of cauliflower. Cook but be sure that it isn't overcooked. Insert cubes of cheese into the crevices. Place in a baking dish with a little milk or cream. Sprinkle with buttered crumbs and crisp crumbled bacon. Bake for 15 to 20 minutes or until cheese melts.

Caution. Be sure that you never overcook cauliflower. It gets soupy and mushy. Of course it is a matter of taste and training but a lot of flavor is lost with over-cooking.

I sometimes get carried away in the vegetable department at this time of year and buy more than I can use. To make amends for overbuying corn I make corn pudding. It can be made from canned or frozen corn too.

CORN PUDDING

2 cups drained whole kernel corn (I cook it on the cob and then cut it off)
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt

¼ teaspoon pepper
2 eggs (well beaten)
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon butter
2 tablespoons cracker crumbs

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Mix all ingredients thoroughly. Pour into greased 1-quart baking dish. Use a fancy casserole if you want to bring it to the table for company. Set the casserole in a pan of hot water one inch deep. Bake 60 to 70 minutes or until a sharp knife inserted 1 inch from the edge comes out clean. 8 servings.

By the way, have you used your imagination in putting fresh vegetables to work in a sandwich? I lost a bet on this one. I was sure it would be terrible. Instead, I liked it so well it is one of my favorites.

Make a peanut butter sandwich. Place slices of fresh cucumber over the top of the peanut butter. Add a little salt and the top slice of bread. Presto, something crisp and new. My kids used to love bananas instead of the cucumber.

Can't you suggest some ideas for preparing vegetables? It may be old to you but new to us. Drop a card or call the Clarkston News, 625-3370.

Positive attitude solves problems

Each week we exchange papers with a number of small communities. After reading them for a while we are aware that they all have about the same problems and goals.

Most of them are searching for more industry, better schools, more public services, feasible zoning plans, more recreation areas, preservation of historical landmarks and they seek elbow-room in which to live.

On the other hand they are striving for lower taxes, clean air, fewer eyesores, less traffic and little personal involvement.

They all succeed or fail, in varying degrees. Generally the cause of their success or failure is beyond their control. Still, most of these communities are in the same boat. There is one thing that makes them different. The thing that makes them different is that one of these communities is your home town.

Boost your community. We aren't original in our problems. Let's take a positive attitude.

How women should dress

By Jim Fitzgerald

Victor Costa, the fashion designer for Suzy Perette, has invited me to "a special press showing of his daytime, casual and cocktail clothes."

The invitation adds that a continental breakfast will be served in Hudson's Horseless Carriage Room.

What do you bet you can't get oatmeal with brown sugar at a continental breakfast?

It beats me how I got asked to such an affair. I don't know Suzy Perette and Victor Costa from Lum 'n Abner. I am bewildered by the idea of daytime, casual and cocktail clothes. What are the differences? It seems 1 outfit should cover all occasions. If you can't be casual in the daytime, when else? And it's just good sense to wear casual clothes while getting swacked on cocktails. You don't want to dribble all over your Sunday suit, do you?

What's probably happened is that Suzy and Victor somehow heard I am the world's foremost girl-watcher. They want to know what I like most to watch — micro, mini, midi or maxi? They want to observe my reactions as their lovely models parade past my bulging eyeballs. Saliva tests will be administered at regular intervals.

I'll be happy to lend my expertise to such a humanitarian project. Generally speaking, women are lovely, liberated or enslaved. But many of them appear in public looking as if they snuck out on the porch to get the morning paper and the door locked behind them. Or as if all their "sanforized" labels were phony. Or as if they lost an election bet and were forced to wear their infant daughters' clothes for a year.

My advice to Victor and Suzy will be simple:

Young gals with smashing legs should wear minis, the micro the better. The same thing goes for old gals who look young. But the majority of women over 30 should face facts, as flabby or scrawny or wrinkled or blue as those facts may be. Their skirts should reach their knees and should be flared enough so as to cover all situations adequately when they sit down. When Mary Margaret Mead sits down to talk to Johnny Carson, I wonder how she can be so smart about some things, and so dumb about others.

The midi and maxi are atrocious. Any woman who has that much to hide might better just stay home.

Those knee-high boots make me think the women's lib has won, a matriarchal government has been installed, and those boots are made for stomping men.

The décolletage should be mentioned, seeing as it borders on the part of the female anatomy with which America is most fascinated. The key word is "border". The border should always be north, and not too far east and west, of the main points of interest. Never south. Topless waitresses turn me off and prompt me to shield my soup with my hands.

And I'm told that real swinging gals are now going braless. They're the ones who shouldn't. Think about it.

That's it, except to Xerox my usual request that the Almighty topple stacks of canned food down upon all women who wear curlers to the supermarket.

Onward and Upward, Suzy and Victor. †

Letters to the Editor

My kind

September 10, 1970

Dear Editor:

On Labor Day, shortly before the parade, a young man was driving north on Main Street in an open sports car when it started to rain. Being possessed of at least the traditional amount of intelligence which suggests one should come in out of the rain, he pulled into a driveway to put up the car's top. While thus engaged he was verbally assailed by the apparent occupant of the property, ordered off the property and repeatedly told, "We don't want your kind here!"

"Here" is where this boy has resided since he was in the first grade. "Here" was first quaint little run-down Holcomb Street and for the past five years "Here" has been the poverty row locally called "Birdland." "Here" is a home currently valued slightly under forty thousand dollars that is literally filled to overflowing with reading material.

"Your Kind" had a four day old haircut with sideburns above the bottom of his ears. "Your Kind" was dressed in a new clean mock turtlenecked sports shirt, corduroy long pants with a slight flare to the bottom of the legs and dark brown shoes. "Your Kind" was even wearing socks. "Your Kind" is a senior in Clarkston High School with marks good enough to enter any of a number of colleges next fall. "Your Kind" has an I.Q. measured at 146 by an independent psychologist when he was in early grade school. "Your Kind" was second highest in the school in the National Merit Scholarship tests last spring. "Your Kind" has been on the track and wrestling teams. "Your Kind" spent part of one summer vacation in Europe and part of another summer in the British Isles. "Your Kind" represented Oakland County in the All-American Soap Box Derby. "Your Kind" worked this past summer in the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office and will probably be a lawyer. Although he must occasionally be ashamed of the affiliation, "Your Kind" is a W.A.S.P. "Your Kind" was not smoking tobacco, let alone pot. "Your Kind" was even tolerant of the person who ordered him off the driveway.

I am the father of "Your Kind." I'm the older generation and I'm not tolerant! I'm incensed!

MISTER, IF "YOUR KIND" ISN'T WHAT YOU WANT "HERE," WHAT KIND DO YOU WANT?

Protest

Dear Editor,

I am a senior at C.H.S. and I reside in Drayton Plains. Last Friday night an incident took place which has me extremely angry at the Clarkston Police Department.

I, and four of my friends were standing in town on the corner near the planter, just minding our own business. There was a good sized crowd across the street breaking light bulbs, pop bottles, and doing a lot of reckless driving, nearly killing one time.

All the while this was going on, the police force was nowhere to be found. But, later on after the crowd had dispersed and we were the only five left in town, who showed up to harass us for no apparent reason but two Clarkston policemen, in their car. They brazenly followed me all over town without their lights on.

Apparently, the boys in blue weren't doing their job when they were supposed to, and they were when they weren't supposed to.

Yours truly,

About 10 million Americans are allergic to ragweed and other pollen, and these hay-fever sufferers have been described as "one of the nation's most anguished minority groups."

Perhaps because hay fever is seasonal, very little is done about it, beyond announcing pollen counts. In most parts of the country, there is certainly not enough done to control ragweed, the main culprit.

You probably know the symptoms of hay fever: spasms of sneezing, stuffed-up and runny noses, itching and swollen eyes. Sufferers may be unable to read or work. It can lead to ear or sinus infections and, in severe cases, to the loss of hearing.

No wonder the Allergy Foundation of America insists that "Hay fever is a serious disease. It shouldn't be regarded as a joke."

Anti-histamines are commonly used to help suppress the symptoms by fighting the histamine produced by the body in response to irritating pollens. Others rely on allergy shots, cortisone and other steroid hormones, and nasal decongestants. All of these probably cost hay fever victims $20 million a year.

While ragweed isn't the only cause of hay fever, its control would do much to reduce the problem. In the meantime, drug researchers are continuing their search for the medicine that will relieve this and other allergies all year round.

Is your home going to turn into a desert this winter?

A lot of homes will.

In wintertime, people in houses with flame-type heating wake up mornings with that stuffed-up feeling. With hoarse, dry throats. Furniture dries out and starts creaking.

Sound familiar? You bet it does. The best way to stop it is with electric heat.

You see, electric heat isn't a dry or drying heat. So you usually don't need a humidifier. The moisture from bathing and cooking is all you need for natural comfort.

Dough in diamonds

by Jean Sura

Do I have dough in diamonds? You had better believe it. I've known for years that it was a good investment, but never got around to it, until last week that is. It took one of my crazy friends to give me the shove that got me started.

I got a card in the mail.
Dear Jean,

You are invited to a fun and games party honoring our friend. It is her birthday. Please bring an old apron and 6 pain tablets. Don't discuss this card with anyone. R.S.V.P.

"What do you suppose the 'Mystery Woman' is up to now?" said a mutual friend at lunch a day later. "I got an invitation to her party and it said I was to bring a bottle of cinnamon. She gave strict instructions that I was not to discuss the invitation with anyone."

We just shook our heads condescendingly. We love her in spite of her loony ideas.

The great night arrived. The guest of honor was seated in a prominent chair and surrounded with lovely beribboned gifts.

The first package that she opened was the cinnamon, followed by my old apron and pain tablets. Next came a bag containing 20 cups of flour (plainly marked). There was a bag of brown sugar, white sugar, and one package was disposable pie pans and plastic bags.

When all the gifts had been opened, we sat there looking at each other.

"Okay, what's up?" somebody said.

"I know," said one, "it's a do-it-yourself birthday cake."

"With twenty cups of flour?" said another. "That would make a cake big enough to invite the whole town."

There were all kinds of solutions volunteered. None fit.

"Okay, everybody," said our puckish friend. "That is the fun part of the party. Here is what you do for games. Jean, put on your apron and start taking your pills. Here is the recipe that you printed in the paper last week telling how to make 8 pies at one time. Here are your ingredients, all measured. You get to mix and roll out the crust.

"The rest of you get out in the other room. There are apples and knives. Start peeling. We are making 8 pies for our birthday girl's freezer."

Discounting the honored guest (who wasn't allowed to work), there were just seven of us. You should have seen the flour and apple peels fly. We put the seven dwarfs to shame. In no time at all, we were up to our eyebrows in apples and pie crust.

Within the hour the eight gift pies were in the freezer and one was in the oven for our dessert.

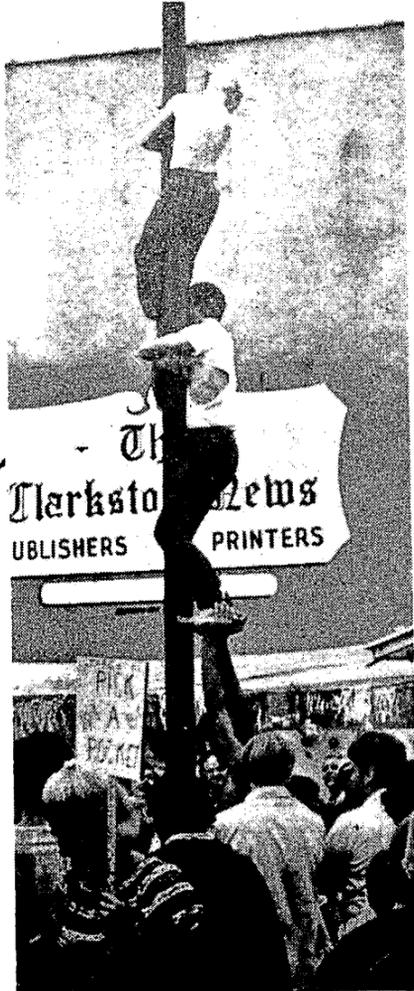

Did I have dough in my diamond? What do you think? I know that you don't have to be crazy to have fun, but it sure helps.

Around the Town

A bad day to fly

by Donna Fahrner

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Buehrig and youngest son, Dana (Chipper) spent their vacation in Disneyland and Las Vegas. The helicopter ride from Anaheim to Los Angeles was a most harrowing experience since the Smog-Fog closed in on their night flight, and what was to have been a 20 minute flight turned out to be an hour and 20 minute flight.

Jerry Ann (Mrs. Buehrig) vowed she would kiss the pilot if he ever landed safely. They did, she did, amen.

The next day found the whole Buehrig clan, including daughter, Bobette and son-in-law, Dave in Jackson, Michigan for the baptism of one Christopher Kevin Buehrig. Christopher is the Buehrig's first grandchild. He is the son of Capt. and Pat Buehrig.

Mrs. Mel Vaara and Mrs. Gus Birtsas entertained the faculty of Sashabaw Junior High School on Wednesday, September 2, at the Vaara home on Church Street. Guests included Superintendent Dr. L. F. Greene, Asst. Superintendent and Mrs. Milford Mason, husbands and wives of the faculty members, and Mrs. John Vaara visiting from Ironwood, Michigan.

Mrs. James Eston and daughter, Janis have returned from New Jersey where they went to get Mrs. Eston's mother, Mrs. Mary Williams, who has been visiting in the East. She will spend a month in Clarkston before returning to her home in Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Stark and children have returned to Germany after a most enjoyable stay with Mr. Albert Peterson of Orion Road. While here they visited Northern Michigan, and Niagara Falls. Hope they have a safe journey home.

A belated Happy Birthday to our good friend and neighbor, Rudy Schwarze. Many, many more, to a great person.

Tim Birtsas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Birtsas of Robertson Ct. was the guest of honor Saturday, September 5. The occasion was his 10th birthday. His party guests enjoyed games, ice cream and cake.

Happy anniversary to Ken and Kay Johnson of Snow Apple Drive. They celebrated their 17th on September 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Bass of Oak Park Drive have returned from a two month tour of Europe. They went scuba diving in Spain, witnessed a bull fight in Portugal (where the bull is not killed), attended the Opera "Aida" in Rome, climbed a mountain in Switzerland and ran into Mrs. Ruth Leece Damiens of Overlook Drive, a family friend. Small world! Douglas Bass of Oxford accompanied brother Bob and Heidi on the tour.

Nick Nicholas of Northview Drive is spending a month in Greece. His wife, Jo, informed us that a vacation for father makes a double job for mother. She now is the chief cook at Nick's Platter and will be very glad when he returns.

Brooke and Sue Bennett celebrated their 17th anniversary on September 12. A dinner out was on the schedule, but Sue had not found a place expensive enough at the time of this writing. She did have the Chicago loop in mind. Good luck, Sue.

Words of cheer to our many friends who are in the hospital. Mrs. Nora Hamilton and J. Ward Robbins are in Pontiac Osteopathic. Howard Huttenlocher, St. Joseph Mercy and Albert Peterson, Pontiac General.

David Leake informs us that the Duplicate Bridge will be starting on September 17 at 7:45 p.m. at the Episcopal Church of the Resurrection on Clarkston road. All bridge players are invited to play. Further meetings will be held on the 3rd Thursday of each month.

A happy anniversary to Reverend and Mrs. Alex Stewart, who celebrated their 22nd on September 11. Many more happy years to you both.

C.H.S. matman in international meet

Mike Packer, a senior at Clarkston High School this fall, was one of a small number of prep wrestlers invited to attend a week long Olympic conditioning camp in Worlds End, Pennsylvania. Many of the United States Olympic and world team wrestlers were in attendance to coach the young athletes.

Upon returning home, Packer received an invitation to attend the Canadian National Exposition as the only high school student team member of the Michigan Wrestling Club.

As guests of the Canadian government, the team wrestled in a dual meet against an all star Canadian team, and won decisively.

Wrestling Greco-Roman style, at 105½ pounds, Mike made a good showing, even though losing his match on close points. His opponent was Faim Kaljanac, Canadian national champion and world team member.

There's nothing wrong with doing a little advertising during a parade, especially when it's done in good taste and spirit.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Beginning October 1, 1970, an additional penalty of $3.00 will be added to each 1968 and prior years' delinquent tax that appears unpaid on the records of the County Treasurer.

This amount is added according to the provisions of section 211.59 compiled laws of Michigan for 1948 to cover the expense of sale on those taxes and descriptions subject to sale at the next May tax sale.

Immediate payment will save you this additional penalty and keep your property from appearing in the public list of lands to be offered at tax sale.

Lucky number wins snowmobile

The Clarkston Athletic Boosters presented a snowmobile and trailer to Don Sutton of Thendora Drive last week. He held the lucky ticket in the September 7 drawing.

"We have 3 boys who will really enjoy it," said Sutton. Son, Dave, is at home; Rich is with the Air Force in California, and Steve is in service, stationed at Goose Bay, Labrador.

"If they all get home this winter, we'll really tear up Walters Lake."

Proceeds from the drawing will be used by the Boosters to provide additional athletic facilities for Clarkston area

HOW MUCH DO YOU WANT TO EARN ON YOUR SAVINGS

PICK A NUMBER

There's a lot of confusion about interest rates . . . and there doesn't have to be. You decide how much you earn. Based on three factors. One, the size of your deposit. Two, the length of time you can leave it undisturbed. Three, whether you take, or accumulate your interest.

Every family saves differently. Some deposit small amounts regularly, and never touch the principal or earnings. Some deposit a large lump sum, and use the earnings as income. Some take advantage of the higher earnings available through time deposits. Some, . . . well, you get the picture.

Community National Bank has a variety of savings programs for individual families. Because, no one program or service could ever be best for everyone. Savers select their own rates here. They pick plans with supplementary services appropriate to their needs. Like free checking, personal check guarantee identification and automatic lines of credit.

Call or visit us. Describe your plans and requirements. Let us help you to pick the number that best meets all your savings objectives.

The following admission charges will be effective for varsity football and basketball.

Admission at gate, $1.25; student (presale only), 75 cents; J.V. football, all admissions, 75 cents.

Welcome new exchange students

Rieko Tsukahara waves greetings to her new friends. Rieko is an exchange student from the Youths for Understanding program. A senior at CHS, she is making her home with the Donald Johnsons on Hogback road.

Rev. V. Carlos, Jr., an exchange student from Manila, Philippine Islands, is attending Clarkston High School. He is living with the Audley Arpoikas on Andersonville Road.

By Jean Sura

Clarkston is again the host community for 2 exchange students from the Youth for Understanding program. This year's students are Rey V. Carlos, Jr., 15, from Manila in the Philippines and Rieko Tsukahara, 18, from Tokyo, Japan.

Rey, who is attending the Clarkston Junior High School, comes from a family of 6 children. His father is a businessman in Manila. His family here in the United States are the Audley Arpoikas of Andersonville Road.

Rieko has 2 brothers and 1 sister at home. Her father is a professor at Keio University where he teaches commodities. She is the 3rd exchange student to make her home with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson on Hogback road.

Rieko, who loves to ski, is looking forward to the winter here. She is effervescent about the opportunity to talk to many people and broaden her understanding.

Rey, a native of tropical climate, is reluctant to say just what his feelings will be regarding cold weather. He is looking forward to the basketball season.

Both the exchange students had an opportunity to greet the community when they rode in cars in the Labor Day parade.

The Clarkston News wishes them a happy year in the community.

Jaycees barbecue Sunday

"On Sunday, September 20, the air in downtown Clarkston will be filled with the aroma of chicken being barbecued over a hickory fire."

This announcement was made by Terry Lopucki, chairman for the 2nd year of the Clarkston Jaycees' annual chicken barbecue.

"The demand for our barbecued chicken seems limitless," said Lopucki. "Last year we doubled the number of chickens that we cooked over the previous year's quantity. This year, by popular demand, we are again increasing the amount."

"We are glad to announce that because of the volume we are handling we will be able to hold the price at the same level as last year," he said.

The menu will include baked beans, potato salad, rolls and dessert in addition to the chicken.

Jaycee Associate members, nicknamed the "Exhausted Roosters," will be in charge of the grills. Their president, Bob Newland, will oversee the operation. Dr. Al Hamilton and Bob Krick will be head chefs. Chief Fire Tenders will be Kelly Burnett and Harry Fahrner.

Barbecued chicken will be available from 12 noon 'til 5 p.m. in the lot adjoining the Clarkston News office on Main Street.

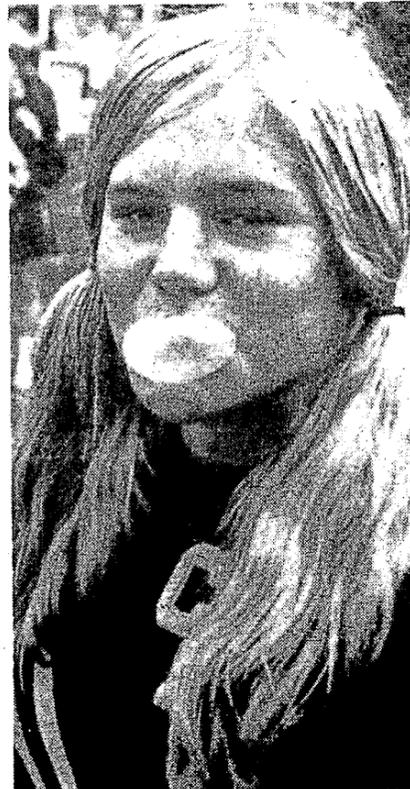

Sewing classes still open

Enrollment in the Bishop sewing courses to be given by the Clarkston High School adult education program are still open, according to Jan Gabier, assistant principal.

The Monday night class will meet at the Sashabaw Junior High School from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesday's class meets from 1 to 3:30 p.m. at Jan's Sewing Basket. Both of these classes are Bishop No. 1.

A Bishop No. 3 will meet at the Senior High School on Wednesdays from 7 'til 9:30 and Thursday's Bishop No. 1 will meet from 7 to 9:30 p.m. at the Clarkston Junior High.

All the classes will meet for 8 weeks and the tuition is $12.

Veterans return to debate squad

The outlook for a successful season is bright for the Clarkston High School debate team. Three out of the four varsity debaters from last year's District winning team are back for another season. In addition to these veterans, the team has a number of promising novices who worked with Mr. Bartlett, team coach, this summer.

Five debaters attended a debate clinic at Georgetown University in Washington D.C. this past summer for an intensive 3 week study of debate strategy and this year's topic. The five debaters were Gail Pawley, Robin Ridley, Arline Moore, Mike Pryomski, and Barry Stamper.

Mike, Barry, and Arline were varsity debaters last year, and Gail and Robin have worked in Forensics for two years. Barry also attended a two week workshop in extemporaneous speaking at Georgetown University.

In addition to their work at Georgetown, Mike, Barry, Arline and Gail debated the topic for this year last spring at a tournament on Mackinac Island.

The varsity plans to compete in the Flint Northwestern Earlybird Tournament on September 19, at Flint Northwestern High School.

Mr. Bartlett said, "This is an extremely important tournament for us because it could give us the motivation needed to reach our goal this season." The team hopes to make it to the state semi-finals in Class A.

The novice debaters are Vicki Johnson, Sandy Nagel, Craig Moore, Dana Fitzthomas, Jeff Hawke, Dave Topolinski, Dawn Wilson, and Mike Saile. The novices worked very hard last summer to learn the fundamentals of debate. Many of these people can do a fine job debating, and Vicki and Sandy have already been given a position on one of the varsity units. Bartlett plans to enter them in a number of novice tournaments this year.

The team is currently in the process of recruiting new debaters. Any student interested in debating should see Mr. Bartlett at the high school.

An active schedule is planned for the year. The debate team plans to compete in three leagues and a number of tournaments. The proposition for this year is - Resolved: That the Federal Government should establish, finance, and administer programs to control air and water pollution in the United States.

Spiritual Message

FROM
Rev. Alexander Stewart
EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION

"To Philemon, our beloved fellow worker."
Philemon 1:1

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This familiar form of address to no one in particular often prefaces letters of recommendation and the like which, when carefully read, do not really recommend nor demand very close attention. Their impersonal nature makes them easy to lay aside and even disregard. Actually, the more personal a letter is, the more carefully we will read it and the more obligated we will feel to respond to it.

In looking through the New Testament we find that it contains a number of literary forms, some as impersonal as "To Whom It May Concern" but some, like St. Paul's letter to Philemon, give us a key to them all. He addresses it, "To Philemon our beloved fellow worker." It is a letter from one deeply committed laborer in the Christian faith to another. And all of the books of the New Testament were written in like manner, from faith to faith. They weren't written to convert but to strengthen people in the faith and to help them to be more like Christ, rather than to win them to Him. The task of winning people to Christ requires a person to person approach. As someone said, "Religion is caught, not taught." You rarely teach anyone religion, but if you live your faith beside him, he may catch the flame. The message of the books of the New Testament can be appreciated only by those who have caught the flame, who know that they are "beloved of Christ" and wish to know all they can of Him who loves them and Whom they love.

Fulton Oursler calls the story of Jesus, "The Greatest Story Ever Told." However, its greatness only can be appreciated when it is read as a love story - in which the reader is one of the lovers. No book of the New Testament ever should be read as if addressed "To Whom It May Concern," but always as to "Dearly Beloved."

Kids love parades

You really reach the heights when you're on Dad's shoulders — wearing his policeman's cap.

Maybe Casey Jones wasn't known in his day either. This engineer on the mid-way express at the Labor Day Carnival was too busy to tell his name.

Lori Marietta, 5 months, liked her fist. Her mother, Mrs. Dave Marietta liked the parade.

The spectators at this year's parade got a little dousing from the early rain. It dampened their hair but not their interest.

They're off! Carol Olney's steed, right, leads by a nose. Coming up on the outside is the charger ridden by Jennifer Jones and little cousin Cheryl Ann. They all had their ups and downs at the Labor Day Carnival.

Rain gear comes in all guises. What is wrong with a plastic trash liner, belted in the middle?

Amy West, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane West, may have found the people along the street as interesting as the parade.
