Jim's Jottings

By Jim Sherman

How's your disposition lately?

I quite suddenly became aware of my own depressed feelings last Monday. I had just come back to work after four days of vacation in the UP. It was four days of the kind of weather that allowed me to do what I wished... adequate rain to get slept out, one good day for woods walking.

I couldn't have been more relaxed, more ready to go back to work. My mind was clear, my health and attitude perfect.

Halfway through Monday I was down in the dumps - right back where I was four days previously. I wondered why, but I knew the answer.

THE strike.

Tuesday I vowed to start smiling again and go back to doing more than grumble at the employes and family. This is just Wednesday, so I don't know how long the mood will last.

Whether injured in the flesh, mind or pocketbook, I made no pretense of my feelings. I knew a businessman, who, in the recession of 1958-59, said to every greeter, "Business is great"... right up to the time he went bankrupt.

I don't worry about using psychology on my customers. I convince myself, then try to avoid injury or at least fend off deep wounds.

When I say THE strike is hurting my business, I mean it. Maybe less than some, but probably more than others. And, you don't have to be in business to feel the effects. The GM and UAW families are being hurt, too.

We can argue that they voted themselves out of a job and we didn't, so they are getting what they deserve. But, I wonder about the voting. I have talked to several GM workers in this area and have found only one who admitted he didn't want to go back to work.

THE strike seems very unpopular to everyone. More so than any I can remember. I am left wondering why. Why are both sides willing to let the stoppage continue?

Who's to gain? What's to be gained?

I don't like writing questions (or reading them) that have no answers, now or likely ever, especially when they are the same questions being

Clarkston saddened

Floyd Vincent dies

By Jean Sura

The flags at the Clarkston schools are flying at half mast. They are flying at half mast in honor of Floyd Vincent, who died on October 17.

Vince, as the affable school administrator was known, was born in San Rafael, California on December 18, 1922. After serving in the U.S. Navy in World War II he completed his education in 1949 at Ferris Institute and received a B.S. degree in accounting and law.

In 1950 he was awarded an M.A. degree in marketing and economics from the University of Tennessee.

After graduation he worked at General Motors Truck and Coach, where he was in the Field Accounting Section.

His career with the Clarkston schools began in 1954 when he was hired to teach commercial subjects.

In July of 1961, Vince was named Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent. His duties over the years encompassed the areas of dealing with transportation, food service and asked by so many people.

But, I wish the great thinkers of the UAW and GM would let us in on the background of their decision making.

It would make interesting reading and it might make more friends for one side or the other.

As it stands, both sides are hurting hundreds of thousands of people as they quest for conclusions that were likely drawn months before the strike deadline.

His experience and expertise soon earned him the reputation of being an authority on the business management phases of the Clarkston School District.

Under his direction the transportation system of the schools developed into one of the most outstanding in the State of Michigan.

Floyd was currently completing his 3rd year as a member of the Independence Township Planning Commission.

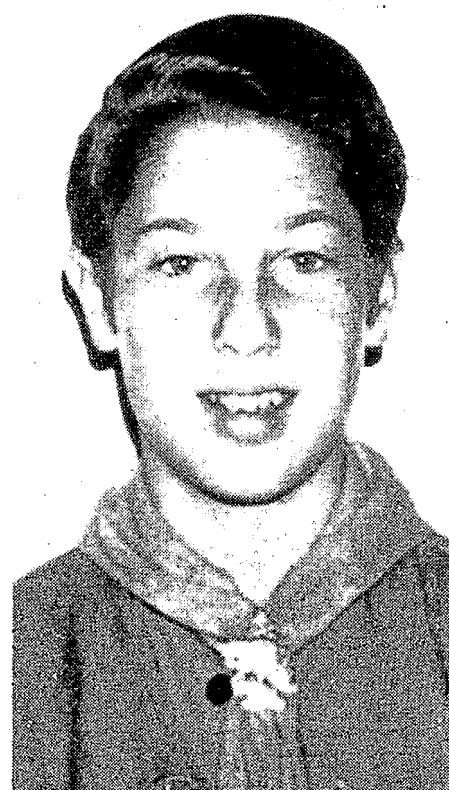

A devoted husband and father, he lived with his wife, Barbara and their four children on Foster road. The children are John, 14; David, 12; Julie, 11 and Lisa, 9.

Funeral services were held on October 20 from the family church, Central United Methodist, and burial was in Ottawa Park Cemetery.

Floyd lived and died with warmth, humility and dignity.

It is fitting that the flags are dipped to show in some measure the affection, respect and loss that is felt in the Clarkston community.

Achieves rank of Eagle

Michael Smart

Clarkston's newest Eagle Scout is Michael William Smart. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Smart of Eastlawn and a member of Troop 126.

Mike is 13 years old and is an 8th grade student at Clarkston Jr. High School, where he plays tenor saxophone in the honors band. He started his scouting career as a Cub Scout here in Clarkston.

Many of his interests in sports, music and things mechanical have been stimulated by his scouting activities.

Special guests at Mike's Eagle Award Ceremony at the United Methodist Church on October 6 were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muscat and the Honorable Rep. and Mrs. Clifford H. Smart, all of Walled Lake.

Also present was Father Francis A. Weingartz of St. Daniel's Catholic Church, who worked closely with Michael in leading him toward receiving the Ad Altari Dei Award last year.

Richard Funk presented him with the award.

Sept. traffic claims 15 in county

Fifteen persons died in Oakland County traffic accidents during the month of September, reports the Traffic Improvement Association of Oakland County (TIA).

The toll, said Bruce B. Madsen, TIA managing director, is more than double that of the same month a year ago, when seven fatalities were reported.

The cumulative death toll for the first nine months of 1970 now stands at 125, as compared to 148 for the first nine months of 1969.

Jehovah's Witnesses assemble at Caro

The members of the Pontiac (North Unit) congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses were among the 1764 present at the semi-annual assembly held at Caro, recently according to Mr. Buchbinder, local presiding minister.

On Saturday morning 26 were baptized by water immersion as a symbol of their dedication to do God's will. Mr. Buchbinder stated, "Throughout the world over 250,000 have been baptized as new ministers during the past two years." He further stated that it is not just a matter of one submitting himself for baptism, but before one is accepted for baptism, he has carefully followed a prescribed course of study in the Bible and has made definite changes in his life to conform to God's righteous laws.

Regular meetings will be resumed this week at the Kingdom Hall, 4400 W. Walton Blvd., Drayton Plains, Michigan.

Halftime found the teams at an 8-8 deadlock.

West Bloomfield scored first in the second quarter when Bob Hugulet pushed 3 yards to the goal line. The 2 point conversion was good.

KENNETH L. JOHNSON, Incumbent, Democrat For Independence Township Treasurer

I am asking for your support in the election on Nov. 3rd. on the strength of my record as treasurer over the past eleven years.

During that time, the population of the Township has increased from 11,000 to approximately 17,000.

I have handled the increased volume of business efficiently, honestly and with courtesy.

Accounting procedures have been updated during this period and are up to the standards recently set up by the State of Michigan.

I have been active in the Oakland County Association of City, Village and Township Treasurers, and was President of the Association in 1969-70.

As a member of the Township Board, I have consistently voted on all matters in the way I considered to be in the best interest of all the people in the Township.

Letters to the Editor

Nov. 3 election different

Dear Publisher,

Jim, as publisher, you serve this community as a whole, and I believe you lost sight of that with your editorial. You have Democrat non-partisans besides Republican (whom I have worked for since 1958) subscribers to your paper. These issues affect us only who reside in Independence Twp. as you stated you live in Oxford.

An editorial on how to split your ticket is more important to new and old voters. Unlike the Primary election, where you must vote a straight ticket, the Nov. 3rd election allows you the right as citizens to split your ticket in voting on each office and select whom you want, regardless of party.

I never could see the reason for parties at a township level. Maybe years ago, but this is a different era. Even the Teamsters Union vote for the man and split this year by endorsing both Democrat and Republican.

The village board officials must reside in the village. Here we have five (5) members on the Township Board and we have four (4) members residing in the village running the township. Why not let the township people run the township with representation for the village on the board. We have a qualified man running for office this year that is not in for political purposes, but for the people and what is best for the community as a whole.

Never has there been 3 referendums in 6 months in any county. Do we have to resort to more and more referendums in order to maintain our present ecology and suburban life we moved out here for? Citizens use the privilege given you as individuals when you go to the polls to vote Nov. 3rd.

Marie Brendle

Happy for stand, but Kraud disagrees

October 16, 1970

Dear Jim:

In reply to your recent editorial of September 24, I am happy to see that you as Publisher have decided to take a stand.

I, too, have carefully followed the affairs of our local governmental unit over the last four years and as you well know, there were many Township Board meetings at which you and I represented a majority of those in attendance.

During all of these meetings, I made every effort to keep you alert and awake. After having read your editorial, it would appear I failed, because you have not been paying attention.

I certainly don't disagree that the fellows on the board have made a contribution through their many years of service to the community and with so many years to try, they have had to accomplish something!

However, if we used your reasoning and returned the incumbents because they've been around so long, we could do away with elections except at time of retirement or death.

It would appear that the position that you've taken in your editorial is strictly your own opinion and is not based upon the facts as they exist.

Therefore, let's take a quick look at a few facts.

In the past few months the township board has been able to accomplish the following:

1. They approved a rezoning for condominiums, a mobile home park and a shopping center . . . over the strongest opposition on the part of the people that our township has ever seen. One heavily attended meeting went well past midnight.

2. Because of the unyielding position of the Supervisor and the Trustees on these matters and their refusal to listen to the people, three referendums have been submitted requesting a vote of the people on the above zoning approvals. According to the Clerk, this is without precedent and indicates a serious problem exists.

3. The discussions and public hearings clearly indicated and demonstrated that a

Dear Editor

In our Oakland Tribune, they have space on the front page of the second section which they devote to "good news" (of which there is so little nowadays) and I was thrilled to see an article about the Pete Rose family from Clarkston, and more so because we knew the Rose family.

I also wish to commend you for the editorial by Jim Sherman entitled, "Incumbents earn return." I know all those men, they are the kind that have helped Clarkston to continue to be a good place to live and will keep it so.

It's been 17 years since we left that friendly locality. When one lives and is part of a community for over 40 years, one puts down roots that are hard to sever. We value highly the friendship and concern of our many 2nd and 3rd generation friends that still keep in touch with us.

With kind regards to you, the editor and your staff,

We are sincerely,

P.S. We had the pleasure of attending the annual Michigan picnic which was held in Palo Alto. We went with the Norman Bowmans, formerly of Clarkston and we met the Harry Webbers of Santa Clara who have relatives in Clarkston.

Deeper, murky bunches of poplar and birches pulp were kicked free of their earthbound perches, cast in chance by soldiers

The pungent breath of decay,

The FBI in action

By Jim Fitzgerald

Law enforcement has made great strides in this country since the vulgar old days when G-men gunned down James Cagney and George Raft.

There may even be some truth to the gossip that J. Edgar Hoover is now doing Pat Nixon's hair.

You youngsters probably don't even recognize the term "G-men". That's short for "Government men". That's what they used to call the FBI back in the 1920's, before Efram Zimbalist Jr was born and Ed Sullivan was the only thing to watch Sunday nights.

Those were the bootlegging days when Hoover was young but certainly not gay. G-men had just been issued guns and they lost no time in rat-tat-tatting themselves a rugged reputation. They were tough and they scared the crooks. They were nice to have around if you expected John Dillinger for dinner. But goodness, you'd hardly want a G-man stationed permanently in your boudoir. He might show up in a checkered jacket, scratching, and spit tobacco juice in the philodendron.

That was yesterday. Today's FBI man is ever-ready to have tea with Queen Elizabeth. He's a college grad with a degree in horticultural criminology. He's dressed fit to pallbear and he's so polite he never points his gun without first announcing he's from the FBI (This gentlemanly gesture admittedly gives the criminal a headstart but so what? The FBI knows that fleeing crooks always end up on the top of water towers and where can they go from there?).

A present issue of Life magazine showed the modern FBI man in action. The story was about Attorney General Mitchell's wife Martha, the Washington hostess with the mokest mouth. Two of the pictures showed how the FBI helped Martha solve some crucial problems of state.

Martha needed to iron a dress to wear later to an important reception. She also needed a loose thread snipped from the back of the dress she was wearing. She obviously needed the FBI. And, fortunately, an FBI agent was present, guarding Martha against Communists.

The pictures show the agent maneuvering the hand-iron with incredible dexterity and capturing the wayward thread through intense concentration.

Professional criminologists were probably fascinated to note that the agent wore horn rimmed glasses for ironing, but took them off for snipping.

It is typical that Life didn't give the FBI agent's name. He was identified only by occupation. The FBI is made up of selfless men who want no personal glory for their marvelous achievements. They want only to protect you taxpayers, you people who pay their salaries, from wrinkled dresses and loose threads.

If an ordinary, glory-mad maid had been pictured ironing that dress, she would probably have demanded that Life print her name. But there was no maid around that day.

She was probably out fighting the Mafia. Somebody has to. †

Seniors plan cruise

by Polly Hanson

This year the CHS senior trip is headed for Bermuda by cruise ship.

The 8-day trip will take place during Easter vacation and the cost is $249.00.

The tour will begin with a trip by chartered bus to Metropolitan Airport in Detroit, where the group will board a flight for New York City. Here they will board the luxury liner that will take them to the island.

The days spent on shipboard will be filled with activity. Students will be able to swim, play deck games, see movies and shop in the ship's duty-free store.

On April 11, the ship will sail into Hamilton Harbor, Bermuda, where the students will disembark for a six-hour bus tour of the island. Highlights of the tour will be Harrington Sound, Devil's Hole, aquarium, Subterranean Caves and Fort St. Catherine. They will return to the ship for dinner and overnight.

The next day will be spent on the island, where the students will be able to enjoy water skiing, golf, deep-sea fishing and other sports under the Bermuda sun. Besides athletic activities, there are always the many stores and shops in the city.

On April 14, the ship will leave the island to begin its return voyage to New York. On April 16, the students will again be at Pier 97. After a short transfer, the students will board their return flight for Detroit.

Any students who are interested in this trip may contact Mr. Hartwell or Mr. Rosso, senior class sponsors.

Around the town

Go blue! Go green!

by Donna Fahrner

Clarkston was well represented at the Michigan-Michigan State game on Saturday in Ann Arbor. I don't know who rooted for whom, but with this list I am sure both sides received their share of cheers. The Charles Robertsons, Richard Bullens, Thomas Bullens, Charles Robinsons, Richard Johnstons, Donald Coopers, Dom Mautis, Gerald Hunters, Lewis Wints, Leslie Greens, Donald Place, Bill Putnam, the Rick Huttenlochters and the Jim Huttenlochters were all there.

A belated happy birthday to Bill Wint, who celebrated his ninth on October 16. He had Mike Olney for dinner and then went to the Homecoming game.

There was a bus boy at Spring Lake who had a surprise on Saturday night when the band played Happy Birthday and a cake was rolled out in his honor. I know his birthday was on Friday and lasted until Sunday, when he had a birthday pie with his family. How long can one birthday last?

The annual Women's Club Treasure Hunt held on Saturday, October 17, started in the town parking lot with 65 couples in pursuit of the prizes to be awarded at the evening's end. The first place winners arrived at White Oaks Hall in Oxford at 10:45 p.m. They were the Richard Kroningers, Calvin Barrs and Richard Lunds. The second car and second place winners were the Greg Clovers and Mark Moutrups. Third place was taken by the Ed Johnsons, Ed Mandilks and Harold Lees. A buffet was served and door prizes awarded. The proceeds from this event will be decided at this month's meeting.

Stewart Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Moore of Amy Drive, has arrived home after spending 18 months with the Air Force in Guam. Stewart, a 1968 graduate of Clarkston High School has been in the service for two years. After his stay at home he will go to Grand Forks, North Dakota.

Linda Bennett was feted at several showers before her October 10 wedding to Dale Ryan.

A miscellaneous party was given by Mrs. Fred Cockle for the bride's co-workers. A personal shower was given by honor matron, Mrs. Rod Allen and the bridesmaids, Sandy Smith, Mrs. Steven Bar, Mrs. Pat Schriber and Mrs. William McArdle. It was held at the home of Sandy Smith.

Mrs. Gar Wilson and Mrs. William Wilson entertained the bride's family and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley White of South Main Street have returned home after a visit with son, John, who is with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad in Huntington, West Virginia. John is a 1970 graduate of Michigan State University.

They tell me that the place to be next Saturday or Sunday night is over at the Oxford Senior High School, where the Oxford Music Club is presenting "Finian's Rainbow." This wouldn't normally mean too much to the people of Clarkston, but the lead is being sung by Clarkston's Ron Lundy and Og, the Leprechaun, is being played by somebody with the name of Tom Sura (like in the Editor).

Debbie Goyette and Marcia Fahrner attended Homecoming festivities at Western University this past weekend.

State antique group meet at Pine Knob

The Questers, a Michigan antique study group which is affiliated with the National Antique Study and Historic Preservation Society, met on October 14 at the Pine Knob Ski Lodge.

Mrs. William Paratone, State President from Roseville, presided over the day of events.

The theme of the meeting was "Herbs and Spices and Antique Culinary Items." In keeping with the theme, Mrs. David Bates, a member of the National Board of Directors of the Herb Society of America, addressed the 250 members.

On hand to extend a "Welcome to Clark's Town" was Mrs. Milton Clark of Commerce Lake. Mrs. Clark is a member of the Clark Family that founded the town of Clarkston.

NOTICE

The Planning Commission of the Township of Independence, County of Oakland, State of Michigan will hold a Public Hearing at the Township Hall, 90 North Main Street, Clarkston, Michigan at 7:30 p.m. November 12, 1970 to consider amendments to the text of Independence Township Zoning Ordinance No. 51.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TEXT OF INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE NO. 51

SECTION 5, SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS DISTRICT AND INTENT:

RMT - MOBILE HOME PARK DISTRICT

The RMT Mobile Home Park Districts are intended to provide sites for mobile home parks which are characterized by relatively high density, by transient structures which are replaced periodically and by dwelling units which are permitted by State law to exist without conforming in all respects to all local codes and ordinances applicable to other types of dwelling units. Because the mobile home park further possesses site characteristics similar to multiple-family residential development and because they typically develop with private street and utility systems thereby creating an interruption in the continuity of the local street and utility systems, they are not compatible when located in an otherwise single-family area. Therefore, in this Ordinance, mobile home parks are intended to be located so as to provide a transition of use between extensive non-residential districts, i.e., ML Limited Industrial and MH Major Industrial and Multiple-Family Residential Districts. It is further intended that Mobile Home Park Districts not be located abutting or adjacent to any single-family district.

SECTION 5, SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS DISTRICT AND INTENT:

RM - MULTI-FAMILY DISTRICT

The RM - Multiple-Family Residential Districts are designed to provide sites for multiple-family dwelling structures, and related uses, which will generally serve as zones of transition between the nonresidential districts and lower density Single-Family Districts. The Multiple-Family District is further provided to serve the limited needs for the apartment type of unit in an otherwise medium density, single-family community.

SECTION 5, PARAGRAPH H

H. Site Plan Review (All Districts)

1. A Site Plan shall be submitted to the Planning Commission for its review and approval prior to the issuance of a building permit for the following uses:

- a. Any use or development for which the submission of a site plan is required by any provision of this Ordinance.
- b. Any development, except single-family and two-family residential, for which off-street parking areas are provided as required in SECTION 9, OFF-STREET PARKING AND LOADING REGULATIONS.
- c. Any use in an RM, RMT, ERO, C-1, C-2, C-3, C-4, C-5, ML or MH District lying contiguous to, or across a street from, a single-family residential district.
- d. Any use except single or two-family residential which lies contiguous to a major thoroughfare or collector street.
- e. All residentially related uses permitted in a single-family or agricultural district such as, but not limited to: churches, schools, and public facilities.
- f. Building conditions or accessory buildings shall not require Planning Commission review unless off-street parking in addition to that already provided on the site is required.

2. Every site plan submitted to the Planning Commission shall be in accordance with the requirements of this Ordinance. No site plan shall be approved until same has been reviewed by the Building Department in coordination with other Township departments, for compliance with the standards of the respective departments.

3. Any persons may file a request for a site plan review by the Township Planning Commission providing the subject property is properly zoned for the intended use, by filing with the Township Clerk the completed application upon the forms therefor furnished by the Clerk as an integral part of said application, the applicant shall file at least six (6) copies of a site plan, which shall conform to the following minimum requirements:

- a. A scale of not less than 1"=50' if the subject property is less than three (3) acres and 1"=100' if three (3) acres or more, and of such accuracy that the same can be readily interpreted.
- b. The property shall be identified by lot lines and location, including dimensions, angles or bearings and areas, correlated with the legal description of said property. Such site plan shall be designed and prepared by a Registered Land Planner, Registered Architect, Registered Professional Engineer, or Registered Land Surveyor. Such plan shall further include the name and address of property owners, developers and designers.
- c. The site plan shall show the scale, northpoint, existing elevations (at least at two-foot contour intervals or at 50 foot grid intervals), boundary lines and topography showing such natural features as woodlots, streams, rivers, lakes, drains, and similar features.
- d. The site plan shall show existing man-made features such as buildings, structures, high tension towers, pipe lines, existing utilities such as water and sewer lines, etc., excavations, bridges, culverts, drains, and easements and shall identify adjacent properties and their existing uses.
- e. The site plan shall show the location, proposed finished floor and grade line elevation, size of proposed main and accessory buildings, their relation one to another, and to any existing structures on the site, the height of all buildings and the percentage of lot coverage of all main buildings. In the case of multiple-family development such site plan shall include a density schedule showing the number of dwelling units per net acre, including a dwelling schedule showing the unit type and number of each unit type, and also a parking schedule showing parking spaces per dwelling unit.
- f. The site plan shall show the proposed streets, driveways, sidewalks and other vehicular and pedestrian circulation features, within and without the site, the location, size and number of parking spaces in the off-street parking areas, the identification of service lanes and service parking.
- g. The site plan shall show the proposed location, use, and size of open spaces and the location of any landscaping, fences or walls on the site. Any proposed alterations to the topography and other natural features shall be indicated.

4. Upon receipt of such application from the Clerk, the Planning Commission shall undertake a study of the same and shall within forty-five (45) days, give its recommendation for approval or disapproval of said site plan. In addition to reviewing the items required under paragraph 3, above, the Planning Commission shall consider:

a. The location and design of driveways providing vehicular ingress and egress from the site, in relation to streets giving access to the site, and in relation to pedestrian traffic.

b. The traffic circulation features within the site and location of automobile parking areas; and may make such requirements with respect to any matters as will assure:

- (1) Safety and convenience of both vehicular and pedestrian traffic both within the site and in relation to access streets.
- (2) Satisfactory and harmonious relationships between the development on the site and the existing and prospective development of contiguous land and adjacent neighborhoods.

c. The Planning Commission may further require landscaping, fences, and walls in pursuance of these objectives and same shall be provided and maintained as a condition of the establishment and the continued maintenance of any use to which they are appurtenant as provided in SECTION 6, Item 8.

d. In those instances wherein the Planning Commission finds that an excessive number of ingress and/or egress points may occur with relation to major or secondary thoroughfares, thereby diminishing the carrying capacity of the thoroughfare, the Planning Commission may recommend marginal access drives. For a narrow frontage, which will require a single outlet, the Planning Commission may recommend that money be placed in escrow with the Township Treasurer in an amount to be determined by the Township's Consulting Engineer as sufficient to provide for a marginal service drive equal in length to the frontage of the property involved. Occupancy permits shall not be issued until the improvement is physically provided, or monies have been deposited with the Township Clerk.

5. After the site plan is reviewed and approved by the Township Planning Commission, one copy shall be retained on permanent file with the Planning Commission and two copies shall be filed with the Township Building Inspector along with written notification of such approval. If the site plan is disapproved by the Planning Commission, written notification of such denial shall be given the applicant within ten days after such action. The applicant may thereafter file an amended site plan, which shall be reviewed in the same manner as hereinbefore set forth.

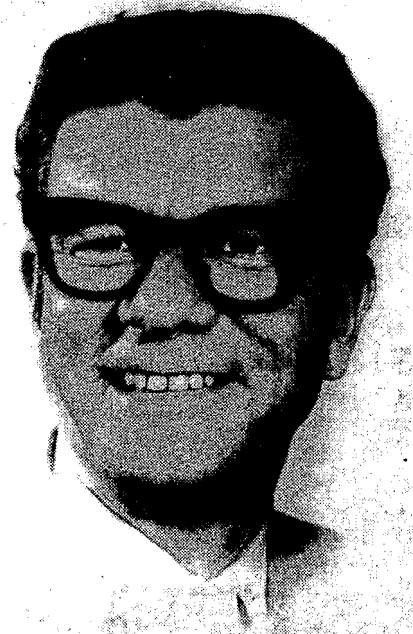

6. The approval by the Township Planning Commission of any site plan under this provision shall expire one year after the date of such approval, unless actual construction and development have been commenced in accordance with said site plan prior thereto. If such construction and development is commenced within said one year period, then such approval shall continue for a period of five years from the date thereof; provided, however, that in the event a lapse of more than one year in continuous substantial construction and development does occur, then in such event, said approval shall expire. The Township Building Inspector shall not issue a building permit for any type of construction on the basis of the approved site plan after such approval has expired.

7. Any substantial modification, revision or variation in the site plan submitted to the Building Department in conjunction with an application for a building permit from the site plan approved by the Planning Commission, shall be subject to review and reapproval in accordance with the same procedure as required under SECTIONS 3 and 4 hereof.

Helps adjust

Dear Editor,

Please send us your newspaper for the coming year.

Having just moved into the area, we find that having the community news is a wonderful help in finding activities for our five children, making it easier for them to adjust to the change of homes.

Thank you,
Mrs. F. Jasso

Seyler sets record

Thinclads take 5

Victory was sweet for the Clarkston High School cross country team last week as they added 5 more wins to their impressive record.

Their decisive victory in the October 17 Oxford Invitational was a fitting finale for the week's efforts. With 16 schools competing, they won the meet with a score of 53. Rochester Adams was 2nd with 70; Bloomfield Lahser, 3rd with 93; Detroit East Catholic took 4th with 101; and Oxford, the host school, was 5th with 160.

Fred Seyler set a course record with a time of 12:47 over the Oxford Hills Golf Club course as he led the field to win 1st place. Doug O'Berry of Oxford was 2nd.

Dan Dankert placed 4th, Jerry Baker 10th, Rick Svetkoff, 18th and Kurt Carlsen, 20th.

It was the first time back on the starting line for Svetkoff, who had been temporarily sidelined by a bad leg.

Clarkston chalked 2 more wins on October 13 in a dual meet with Bloomfield Andover and Waterford Kettering. Their score against Andover was an impressive 17-44 and they defeated Kettering 18-38.

Seyler again ran first in 12:48 with Dankert and Baker close behind, taking 2nd and 3rd with times of 12:52 and 12:57. Kurt Carlsen took 6th and Bob Hoy was 8th.

Rick Plummer and Rick Dancy took 12th and 13th, respectively.

"Team effort is still the secret of the team's success," said coach Bruce. "But the boys are really beginning to hit their stride. We are particularly proud of Seyler's performance and pleased with Svetkoff's return. But the real secret is the total performance and Dankert, Baker, Carlsen, Hoy, Plummer and Dancy have all contributed their share."

On Saturday, October 24, the team will compete in one of the most important events of the season when they run in the Wayne-Oakland League meet. Starting time is 10 a.m. at Marshbank Park on Hiller Road in West Bloomfield Hills.

Bulletin: The Clarkston Cross Country Team won a dual meet on October 20 to chalk up 2 more victories. They beat Clarenceville by a score of 15-50 and West Bloomfield, 19-36.

This closed out their league competition with a perfect 8-0 record.

Jayettes named

"Jaycee of month"

The Clarkston Jayettes were presented with the "Jaycee of the Month" award at their dinner meeting on October 15.

President Jerry Powell presented the award as a token of thanks for the many Jayette assist projects.

The dinner was given by the club officers to show appreciation for all the work that had been accomplished by the members over the Labor Day weekend.

Jayette immediate plans include their annual pie and coffee sale which will be held on October 23 and their children's Halloween party the following week.

Work on the Junior Miss program has already begun.

Local CAP attend State conference

Oakland County Group Civil Air Patrol was well represented at the 1970 Michigan Wing Cadet Conference held Sunday, October 18, at the Willow Run Terminal Building. More than 30 cadet and senior members from CAP units in Clarkston, Holly and Waterford were guests of the Michigan Wing Cadet Council, hosts for the conference.

Purpose of the Council is to provide Civil Air Patrol cadets with leadership experience at a higher organizational level than their local CAP unit and to aid the Wing Commander and his Deputy for Cadets in monitoring, implementing and improving the CAP cadet program.

Guest speaker was Clyde Murtaugh of the Bendix Corporation. As mission support engineer for Bendix, his prime interest has been in the lunar surface experiments conducted during the Apollo program.

Displays prepared by council members outlined some of the activities of the cadet program and included communication capabilities, model aircraft and rockets and first aid and survival equipment. Pictorial exhibits featured highlights of the CAP survival course at the USAF Academy in Colorado and the Cadet Summer Encampment at Phelps-Collins Airport, Alpena.

Are you resourceful?

Do you know what to do in a difficult situation? Or do you freeze up?

You can learn to find the right answer when you need it by turning confidently to God, as the unlimited source of ideas.

Roy J. Linnig of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship says if we ever struggle for a solution without finding it, we simply aren't listening for God's constant direction. The key, he says, is to acknowledge this source of ideas, and let go of the belief that we must always devise solutions ourselves.

Come and hear Roy J. Linnig talk about how you can become more resourceful through prayer.

George Miller, a 1960 graduate of Clarkston High School, has found an exciting occupation. He is an archaeologist.

Miller, a senior at Wayne State University, is working toward a Bachelor's degree. This he does during the cold weather, for when it warms up he is employed at various excavations.

In 1965 he assisted in the restoration of the Walker Tavern, which is located near the Irish Hills. The work was done for the state of Michigan.

The restoration of a Mormon community which dates back to 1844 and is located near Nauvoo, Illinois occupied his summers of 1967 and '68.

This past summer Miller has been the overseer of the diggings of the Franklin Glass Works which were located in a cornfield near Kent, Ohio.

The men have dug 2,000 square feet of earth by hand since June, carefully preserving bits of pottery, glass and other artifacts that have turned up.

When the cold weather sets in, George will return to Wayne and continue his studies.

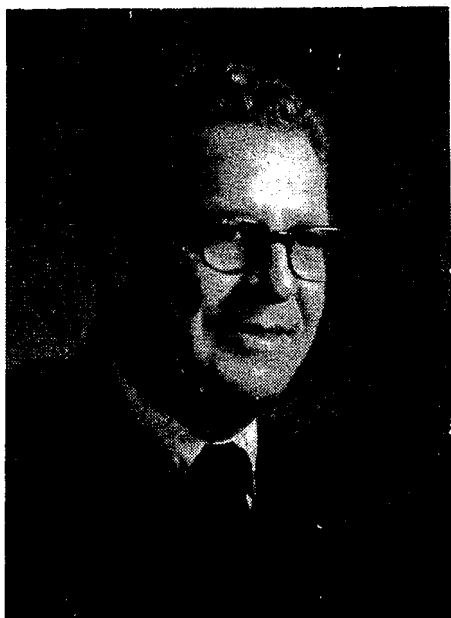

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gray of Middle Lake road. He has 3 sisters and 1 brother.

The dig or excavation of the old Franklin Glass Works in Kent, Ohio was discovered in the middle of a corn field. The knife, spoon and toothbrush excavation operation was started by Case Western Reserve University in the summer of 1968.

Alan Hugley, left, and George Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gray of Clarkston, anthropology students at Wayne State University, have been working all summer at the site of an old glass factory which dates back to 1824 in Kent, Ohio. The men have dug 2,000 square feet of earth by hand since June, carefully preserving bits of pottery, glass and other artifacts that have turned up.

ONE THING

There is a very real sense in which every one of us should have some things resolved concerning life. The importance we attach to a certain area of life will determine the measure of priority which that area receives. The priority of St. Paul in his letter to the Philippians, Chapter 3, verses thirteen and fourteen, is that of pressing "toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Jesus Christ." In order for him to do this, he is forgetting the past, and applying himself totally to the present and the future.

In this passage one gets the feeling that if Paul had lived for fifty more years, he would have still been pressing toward the mark. It seems this was a determined course of action.

If we are to be very effective in our Christian life, we, too, must have some things completely settled. It seems to me, that among these things need to be the following:

1. We ought to PLAN that in all of life we will be FAITHFUL TO GOD. Salvation is found only through Christ. For an effective witness, there must be a consistency in the life which tells the world that we are Christian seven days a week. We can have it settled in our own hearts that no persons, words or activity will be allowed to separate us from Christ.

2. We need to have a ready testimony of what Jesus Christ means to us presently. In other words, we need a NOW religion, something which is alive and vibrant.

3. We need to have a mind to willingly work in God's vineyard. How long has it been since you have joyously shared your faith with another person? Do you know the happiness which comes from leading a soul to Christ? What are you actually doing to communicate the Gospel to those around you?

Paul says, "This one thing I do..." What would your Lord have you do? Do it, with a full desire for His Glory.

Mrs. Donald F. Alexander

Travel to Australia for honeymoon

Escorted to the altar by her brother, R. Keith Cadman, Marilyn Eileen Cadman exchanged marriage vows with Donald Floyd Alexander.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Theodore Allebach at the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church in Pontiac.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. William P. Cadman of Pontiac and the late Mr. Cadman, wore a floor length satin gown of her own creation. It was trimmed with re-embroidered Alencon lace. She carried white roses with stephanotis and ivy.

The bridal attendants were identically gowned in emerald green.

Dawn Cosgrove of Lansing was the honor maid, Barbara Butler of Pontiac and Christine Rettich of Ann Arbor were the bridesmaids.

Douglas L. Alexander was the best man for the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander of Davisburg Road.

Tom McAllister and Tom Simpson, both of Pontiac, were groomsmen.

Michael Szabo and Roger Wolfe, also of Pontiac, seated the guests.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Their wedding trip will take the couple to Australia and New Zealand. Upon their return they will live in Clarkston.

Mrs. Dale G. Ryan

Gladioli and mums decorate altar

Before an altar of candles which were lit by her brothers, Linda A. Bennett became the bride of Dale G. Ryan on October 10.

The Rev. Roger Campbell performed the ceremony at the Waterford Community Church.

The bride, gowned in floor length chantilly lace and silk illusion with a shoulder length veil of silk illusion, was escorted to the altar by her father.

Mrs. Rod Allen of Clarkston was the matron of honor. Her gown was fashioned of radiant blue linen. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Steven Barnett of Waterford, Mrs. Pat Schriber of Drayton Plains and Mrs. William McArdle of Pontiac, wore floor length turquoise linen gowns.

Niece and nephew of the bridegroom, Laura and David Ryan, served as flower girl and ringbearer, respectively.

David Carter of Ortonville was the best man. Groomsmen were Philip Felice, Richard, John and Jerry Ryan.

The groom's brother, William, and nephew Kenneth Ryan of Romeo assisted Larry and Mark Bennett, the bride's brothers, seating the guests.

After a reception at the Waterford Community Activities Building, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls.

They will make their home at Union Lake.

Colorful, plentiful, nutritious, economical. That is the way that the Family Living bulletin of the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service describes Michigan squash. Further, they say, "These are good words to describe hard shell squash at this season. Michigan varieties of hard shell squash include: Buttercup, butternut, delicious, acorn or table queen and Hubbard.

You'll find peak supplies of these squash through November.

All varieties are excellent sources of Vitamins A and C and minerals . . . and all are easy to prepare.

Butternut squash is bell or gourd shaped with smooth, thin, light beige to orange skin that is easy to peel. It is fast becoming a favorite because the flesh is fine-textured, orange in color and sweet in flavor. The butternut squash also cooks more quickly than other hard-shelled squash.

An easy way to prepare squash is to cut it in half and remove the seeds. Then place the cut side down in a pan and add one-fourth inch of boiling water. Bake the squash about 30 minutes in a 425-degree oven. Then turn the cut side up, reduce the oven heat to 375 degrees and continue baking until tender - about 30 minutes."

I learned a trick from a dentist friend of mine who likes to putter in the kitchen. He adds a dollop of butter and a sprinkling of brown sugar when he turns the squash.

For eating convenience I find it handy to scoop the meat out of the shells and mash it lightly before serving.

Mrs. James Gagnier of Oxford was kind enough to call to help me out of my stale potato chip dilemma. I haven't had a chance to take her advice, but she tells me that if you put the chips in your freezer until they are frozen, they will return to their original stage of crispness. "The advantage," she says, "is that you can even eat them while they are still frozen."

Thank you.

Mrs. Arthur Klemm of Clarkston suggests that you try a layer of slightly crushed, stale potato chips, a layer of peas and then a layer of tuna. Alternate the layers until the casserole is filled. Over the top pour a can of mushroom soup. Bake until bubbly.

She says that it is delicious and a quick meal if you round it out with a salad.

Of course, I may as well be honest and tell you that several of my very best friends suggested that I be sensible and buy smaller bags of chips in the first place.

Don't forget to call or write the Clarkston News, 625-3370, with your helpful tips and recipes.

Moshers celebrate golden anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Mosher of Main Street were honored on October 3 on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The celebration was planned by their sons, Kenneth of LaSalle and Gordon of Clarkston.

A buffet dinner was served for 70 friends and relatives at the Mosher summer home in Stonington. In the evening over 200 guests greeted the couple at a reception and dance at the Stonington Community Hall.

The Moshers are natives of Worcester, Massachusetts where they were married on October 6, 1920 at St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

Mr. Mosher was employed by the U.S. government for 36 years in the Immigration-Naturalization Service Department of Justice. From 1946 to 1949 he served as Veterans' Administration sub-regional manager of the Upper Peninsula, with offices in Escanaba.

In 1949 he was transferred to the V.A. Regional office in Detroit as a member of the rating board. He retired in 1961.

In 1957 the Moshers purchased property at Stonington, near Escanaba, where they built their retirement home in 1961. They spend their winters in Clarkston with their son, Gordon.

While in Clarkston they attend the Episcopal Church of the Resurrection.

Their sons, their 6 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren were with them for the anniversary celebration.

Mrs. Mosher likes to hook rugs, sew and knit. Her husband said he is engaged in the furniture refinishing hobby at present, "by necessity, not exactly by desire."

HE COMMUNICATES

Howard is a friendly, cooperative person who works constantly to promote sound and effective Leadership.

RE-ELECT

HOWARD ALTMAN

Independence Township Clerk

REPUBLICAN

I consider serving you as Independence Township Clerk a public trust, a full time occupation, and ask that you renew that trust on November 3rd.

I consider it extremely important to all of us that our Township Officers be persons of experience and leadership ability; that all office seekers be persons who can place the needs of a growing community above politics, personal differences, and outside interest.

I consider the days ahead to be ones for serious deliberation and caution. Days that will require the wisdom and experience of a Public Official who can recognize a problem, offer remedial action, be properly informed, hold open debates, invite citizen participation and LISTEN TO THE PEOPLE.

While there may be other important topics of concern in our Township today, it seems that Zoning - Land Use - and Legal Action - are familiar words, so I say - - - - - "TIME OUT or SLOW DOWN" is still a worthy thought because concern over zoning and planning issues are just as controversial today as they were LAST APRIL (Clarkston News, 4-2-70) because that "Silent Majority" is now an aroused community.

We continue to need professional assistance, to update our planning program, to establish purpose for zoning and do a better job of keeping you, the public, INFORMED.

With 18 people today for every 10 at the last census, our responsibilities have increased in proportion and the price of error, confusion, or delay, can result in a Community of MISFIT DEVELOPMENT and/or bedroom strangulation, wherein meaningful tax base is choked off or a community need is overlooked or ignored.

Development that truly benefits the Township demands perceptive answers to urban questions, such as water supply, sewer service, drainage, fire and police protection, solid waste, and landfill, dog control, school safety walks and crossways, recreation as well as a realistic approach to land use in terms of $$$ return to the Township - NOT AN INDIVIDUAL OR DEVELOPER.

Tomorrow we will live with today's decisions and if a TRAILER PARK or QUICKIE APARTMENT Complex is to become an eyesore, perhaps it's planning and imagination that is lacking. More apartments, more cars, more trailers, more dogs, septic tanks and vagrancy, is not growth; nor is progress just a little more of the same ol' stuff.

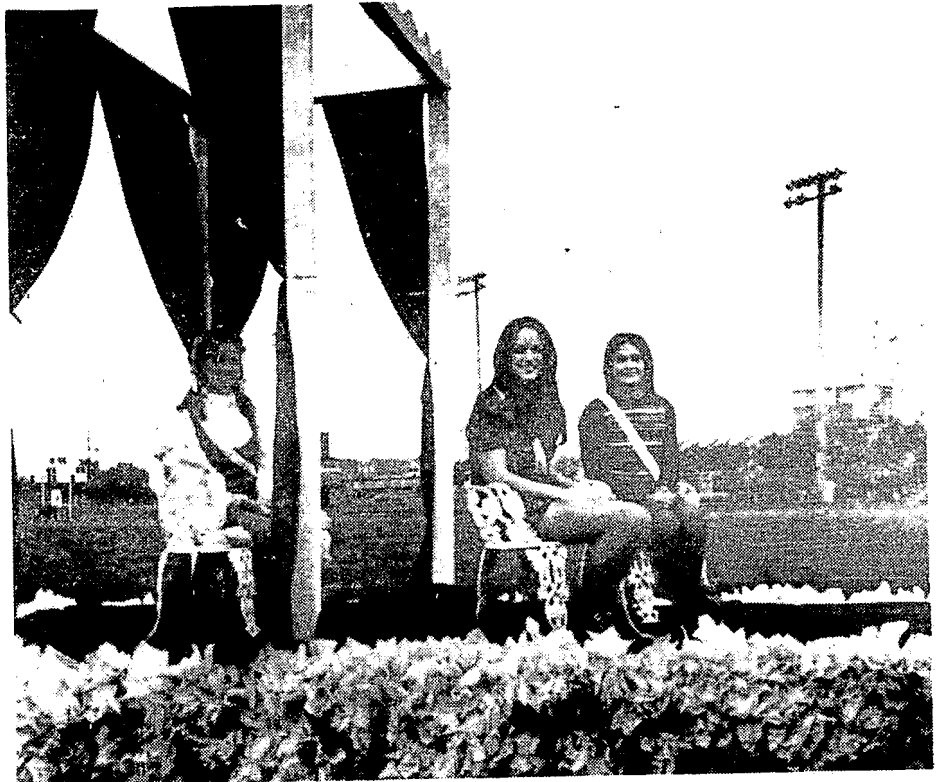

Overwhelming support of my position on this and other important issues indicate strong public approval of my personal efforts to establish a public awareness and involvement in matters that so seriously affect all of us. Informed people are necessary to any worthy program, and I will continue to argue against such official action without proper public notice.

If you consider yourself free to vote for a man who has and will represent you - if you are not a captive vote of any group or party - if you are one of those intelligent voters who VOTE FOR THE MAN who can do the job; a man who places politics second to you and second to the health, safety and welfare of the Community - then you can vote for me.

Start Jr. Miss contest

The 1970 Junior Miss Pageant got under way on October 15 when 15 contestants and their parents attended an informal meeting at the Clarkston High School Little Theater.

Under the auspices of the local Jaycees, the campaign will attempt to select the ideal high school senior girl to represent the Clarkston area in regional, state and national competition.

Judging is based on consideration of: scholastic average, physical fitness and individual talent.

Jim Chamberlain, chairman, will be assisted by co-chairmen, Jaycettes Judy Gorrie and Shanna Nadolsky in rehearsing the girls on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. until the night of the pageant on November 28.

This year's pageant theme is "Do something for America."

Girls who are interested in participating are invited to attend the meetings at the high school before November 3.

The committee suggests that girls contact former contestants and verify the worthwhile experience the contest provides.

Do you ever notice how we struggle in our efforts to give our children a moral code by which to live? Even when we have only mediocre success, if the end result is for the best, we plug ahead. Our minds and intentions somewhat resemble concrete — thoroughly mixed and permanently set.

Recently I was exposed to a new theory. Actually I guess the theory isn't new, but the method of application certainly was. It is called "creative alternatives." Simply, this implies that when an obstacle slows our progress, we look for a creative way to reach the same end.

Shortly after my exposure to "creative alternatives," the opportunity arose to put the whole method to the acid test.

Our Sunday noon meal had been prepared and put into the oven. On the menu was a roast with carrots and onions. Three baked potatoes were included. Now I seldom eat potatoes. Vanity tells me they are fattening. This meant that there was one potato apiece for the other three members of the family.

For some unknown reason, when the food was put on the table, one of the potatoes was placed on my plate and none on the plate of our three-year-old.

Of course, our intentions were to either give him my potato or perhaps share one with him. To him, however, all he saw was that he had been left out. His lower lip told the whole story.

"Hey, my not got any potato."

His mother countered, "Son, we'll share one with you."

It didn't work. His lower lip was on chapter two. He wanted a whole one just like the rest of us. And I could understand this.

A creative alternative? But where and how? Then an idea came to me.

I picked the potato up from my plate and held it out to him. "Here, son, Daddy will give you his potato." (Keep in mind that I wasn't going to eat it anyway. But he didn't know that.)

His immediate response was, "Dad, I'll share mine with you."

We could have stuck with the old way and insisted that we would share, and that after all, "Mother and Dad would never cheat you, etc., etc." Three-year-old boys don't understand this approach.

When he saw that I was willing to give up my "right" to that potato, his response to my "creative alternative" was exactly what we had so often tried to teach him!

Life is so daily.

The risk of a heart attack can be greatly reduced in many persons by a small change in living habits. For heart health, things to avoid are: excessive weight . . . eating too much rich food . . . cigarette smoking . . . not getting enough exercise.

The hunter with a heart ailment should let at least one member of his hunting party know his condition and medicines — how and what medicines to give in an emergency. List the heart medicines with instructions on a card and keep it in a pocket with the medicines at all times. Also on the card have your heart doctor's name and phone number, and your home phone.

by Jean Sura

The other day my friend Persephone said she almost died. This fellow came up to her and said, "Hi. Know who I am?"

"Honestly," she said, "I could have killed him."

She didn't have any more idea who he was than the man in the moon, but she took a wild guess. "You can't kid me. You're good old Bill from Kalamazoo."

Naturally, she was wrong. When he finally got through playing his stupid game he told her who he was and she died of mortification because she really should have remembered his name.

"I double your two spade opener," said Helen. "But if you think that is a bad experience, let me tell you what that crazy husband of mine did."

It seems that Helen and her husband had a dog that looked just like one that was owned by their neighbors, sort of a long-haired setter type.

One day this stupid dog gets a squirrel up a tree and sits there raising a terrible ruckus. It got so bad, according to Helen, that the family hero got off the couch, put down his beer and went to see what was causing the trouble.

"Hey, stupid," he yelled, "cut it out. Knock it off."

Old Rover just kept right on baying and barking.

"I said knock it off, you dumb mutt."

There was no reaction from man's best friend.

So pulling a sweater over his undershirt, the hero goes out and grabs the dopey dog by the collar and gives him a jerk. That's when things really got going.

The dog twisted around and with a snarl took a nip out of old hero.

"Well, you really are a dumb mutt," said Hero. "I'll show you a thing or two." He hauled him by the collar to the back yard and tied him to the clothes pole with a rope. Then he gave him a few good whacks on the backside.

"That will teach you to bite the hand that feeds you."

Back in the house he muttered a few unprintables about dogs that bite their masters and flopped back on the couch.

"We ought to have that ungrateful, mean mutt put to sleep."

Minutes went by and then there was a loud barking and pounding on the front door.

"Now what?" said Hero as he unfolded himself from the couch.

Just as he opened the door he slipped. In leaped a dog. The brute was all over him, with tail waving, he lapped his face and cried with joy.

"Down," Hero roared. The dog obeyed.

He looked up to see the neighbor that owned the look-alike dog standing in the doorway.

"Hey, big shot, what are you doing tying my dog up in your yard? Why don't you take care of your own problems? You want I should give you a punch in the nose?"

"Didn't you ever hear of mistaken identity? Oh, forget it. Go ahead, punch me," said Hero. "It might feel good."
