Jim's Jottings

By Jim Sherman

That great silence that followed the nation-wide sigh of relief was caused by the closing of polls.

Can anyone explain why the postal service had a 4-color stamp printed on their postal cards saluting the "weather services" on their 100th year? Are blue, orange, black and yellow the services' colors?

Maybe postal rates have now climbed sufficiently high to cover costs of 4-color printing. It would be nice to know my postage bill of over $17,000 a year wouldn't be any higher next year.

I'm not too sensitive to criticism of our media. I don't jump when the journalism is attacked and scream out for "freedom of the press." I thought some of vice-president Spiro Agnew's comments concerning dispensers of news was justified.

Mr. Agnew is, of course, a politician. Being such he has that peculiarity many of his breed have of saying what his particular audience wants to hear. Cheers and acknowledgement are their fertilizer.

Eric Sevareid of CBS Evening News, did take some exception to Mr. Agnew's remarks on TV news commentators in Chicago 2 weeks ago. Some of his comments fit people in public office on all levels, just change a few words.

I'm not going to reprint the entire statement. This will do: "We can't cast one vote in committee, an opposite vote on the floor; can't say one thing in the North, and opposite thing in the South. We hold no tenure, 4 years or otherwise, and can be voted out with a twist of the dial."

Democrats, Altman win

The Democrats, except for the clerk's office, swept to victory in Independence Tuesday . . . and by a wide margin.

Unseated after 13½ years in the office of supervisor was Duane Hursfall, 119 N. Holcomb. Moving into the office in January will be Gary Stonerock, 34, of 4780 Mohawk. It was the first time he sought public office.

In gaining the victory Stonerock carried every precinct except the incumbent's own. The unofficial tally was Stonerock, 2964; Hursfall, 1767.

Going down to defeat with Hursfall, in what must be considered a protest vote, was incumbent trustee Harold Bauer, a Republican like Hursfall. Bauer served 13 years as trustee.

Keith Humbert, 47, 6440 Snow Apple, will take Bauer's place, based on the 2758 to 1799 totals. Humbert gained popularity in recent petition campaigns seeking referendums on 3 rezoning decisions favored and passed by Hursfall, Bauer and the other trustee, Merle Bennett, who was not up for election.

Over 2300 people had signed at least one of the petitions. The 3 favored a vote on a mobile home park, multiple dwelling complex and shopping center.

Incumbent Ken Johnson led the Democratic ticket with 3118 votes over his Republican challenger, Shirley J. McDonnell, 1505.

The one Republican to survive Tuesday's vote was clerk Howard Altman. He outpolled his opponent, Louis J. Gavar, 2855 to 1856 in unofficial returns.

Altman, who has been Independence's clerk, for 9 years, did not vote in favor of the rezoning for the trailer park or shopping center. The same is true for Johnson.

The above results are unofficial and printed before the 197 absent voters ballots were counted.

The closest race in Independence was for constable. In it a second Republican on the ballot won. Harry Fahrner, incumbent, won along with Donald Trarop. Defeated were incumbent Earl R. King, Dem and Harry W. Yoh, GOP.

Trarop polled 2335, Fahrner, 2318; King, 2243 and Yoh, 1980.

The request for one mill for police protection in the township passed by the narrow margin of 21 votes. The final tally, unofficial, was 1997 to 1976.

columnist, recalls that her husband, Gene, always took time to play with their two sons when they were small. No matter how long or tiring a day, when the kids said, "Let's play ball," Gene grabbed a mitt.

It's not that way with me, nor has it been. I've let them play with their peers or alone. But, I'm trying to overcome this habit. That's why, when Luan asked, I dug out the Kodachrome slides of the family the other night and flashed them on the wall.

My next job will be removing and destroying all pictures of myself that are over 10 years old. However, it was a pleasant hour. The kids are all still young enough to get a kick out of seeing themselves in the buff on the bathinette.

The thought came to me while sitting in the dark with the family . . . many breadwinners in my general age bracket have been generous gift givers to their offspring with the comment, "Nothing's too good for my kids," or "I want my kids to have all the things I couldn't have."

One thing many of us didn't have as youngsters was the companionship of our fathers. They were too busy and worked too hard. Is this the excuse today?

Are we substituting gifts for companionship?

David S. Nadolsky, 9 N. Holcomb St., has recently become a pharmacist-partner to Keith Hallman in the Hallman Apothecary.

Nadolsky, who is married to the former Shanna Stewart is a 1966 graduate of Ferris State College.

After graduation he did his internship with the Walgreen Drug chain in Chicago. Recently he has been the manager of the Birmingham branch of the Perry Drug chain.

He is a director of the Clarkston Jaycees and a member of the United Methodist Church.

The Nadolskys have 3 children, David, 5; Erik, 3 and Elizabeth, 8 months.

Behind the Counter FROM KEITH HALLMAN

Recent studies indicate that many cancer victims had suffered periods of sadness and hopelessness some months or years before their cancers appeared. "A bleak hopelessness about ever attaining any meaning, zest, or validity in life" was more the pattern in histories of cancer patients than among others. Cheerful, wholesome attitudes seem to contribute to health.

Research has raised hopes for a protective vaccine against leukemia and other cancer forms. The tragedy is that many illnesses now occur for lack of use of the vaccines already available. Check with your doctor to see if your children are immunized against whooping cough, tetanus, measles, smallpox and polio.

Mother fashions gown

Kathleen Jo Ann Cummings, wearing a dress made by her mother, became the bride of Albert H. Morris on October 17. She is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Roy Cummings of Sunnyside and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Morris of Pontiac.

The ceremony at the New Hope Bible Church was performed by Rev. Elden Mudge, Sr.

The gown was fashioned of silk organza with rose appliques and the bride's 3-tiered veil was trimmed with lace. She carried a cascade of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Gloria McIntyre of Lake Orion was the maid of honor in dark lavender dotted swiss. Bridesmaids, Margaret Ridgeway of Clarkston and Kathy Cook of Brantford, Ontario wore pink and blue respectively. They carried matching bouquets of carnations.

Flower girl was a cousin of the bride, Becky Cowdrey. Her dress was fashioned of orchid dotted swiss. Dan Hill of Drayton Plains was the ringbearer.

Standing as best man was Duane McIntyre of Lake Orion, and Philip Campbell, Daryl Smith, Alexander Bigger, III and John Bigger, all of Pontiac, seated the guests.

Before leaving on a northern Michigan honeymoon, the newlyweds and their parents greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlors.

The new Mrs. Morris is a 1970 graduate of Clarkston High School. The couple will make their home in Pontiac.

Concert series announced

The Clarkston Conservatory of Music and the Ministry of Music of the Clarkston Methodist Church are cooperating in the presentation of 4 concerts for the coming year.

On November 15 at 3:30 p.m. a program of folk music, featuring the artistry of Rowena and Gypsy will be held in the fellowship hall of the church.

Nancy Hoover, soprano and Dennis Moffat, pianist, will appear on January 31.

A conservatory student program will be presented in April and in August, a chamber music concert with members of the Detroit Symphony will be held.

Kutting Korners

By Jean Sura

Autumn is a colorful time. Here are some colorful ideas for your fall menus.

PUMPKIN FLAN

1½ cups sugar, divided
1 cup canned pumpkin
1 teaspoon ginger
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
1/8 teaspoon each, cloves, nutmeg
1 tablespoon molasses (can be omitted)
1 tablespoon butter or oleo, melted
4 whole eggs
3 egg yolks
1 large can evaporated milk
1 cup strong coffee beverage (milk can be used)

Pour 1 cup sugar into heavy frying pan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until a clear brown syrup forms. Pour syrup into 12 4-oz. ramekins, tip back and forth to coat sides of ramekins. Cool.

Combine pumpkin, spices, molasses and melted butter; mix well. Beat eggs and egg yolks together; add remaining ½ cup sugar, evaporated milk and coffee; beat until well blended.

Pour egg mixture into pumpkin mixture, mixing well. Pour into caramel-coated ramekins. Place in pan of hot water with the water level with the top of custard. Bake at 350 degrees for 1¼ hours or until inserted knife comes out clean. Chill, top with whipped cream. Makes 12 servings.

Here is another delicious dip to try if you are tired of those you have been serving all year.

AVOCADO DELIGHT

Buy 4 very ripe avocados. Cut in halves, peel and place in small deep bowl. Cover with lemon juice, about 1 tablespoon. Using silver fork (I don't know why but that is what the recipe said) mash and whip until smooth.

Stir in ½ clove garlic finely minced, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon tabasco with a tablespoon more lemon juice.

Now add 2 teaspoons mayonnaise and ¼ cup tomato juice, beating well.

Top with a blob of sour cream.

I received 2 more assists for my SOS on stale potato chips. Mrs. Marilyn Moore and Mrs. George Wait both make them into cookies. Here's the recipe.

POTATO CHIP COOKIES

1 cup margarine
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup brown sugar
2 beaten eggs
2 teaspoons vanilla
1 teaspoon baking soda, sifted with 2½ cups flour
1 cup crushed potato chips

Cream margarine with sugars until fluffy. Mix in eggs, vanilla and blend in flour. Stir the chips through the dough. Drop by teaspoonsful on a greased cookie sheet and bake at 350 degrees temperature for 10 to 12 minutes.

Mrs. Moore says she places stale chips, soggy crackers and rubbery pretzels on a cookie sheet and places them in a 350 degree oven for about 5 minutes to snap back to freshness but when she gets down to the crumbs they go into cookies as a last resort.

Thank you.

Birthday cakes for goblins

by Donna Fahrner

Halloween was a double celebration for the following three children in Clarkston this week. Kathi Dennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis, entertained a friend for dinner before going out to trick or treat. It was Kathi's 9th birthday.

Bill Falardeau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Falardeau combined his 4th birthday with Halloween.

Roberta Swift made her birthday celebration a triple one. Along with her 9th birthday, she celebrated Halloween and a weekend visit from sister Gloria from North Olmsted, Ohio.

Mrs. Harry Harrington of Glenburnie Lane has returned from a four day visit with relatives in Binghamton, New York. She enjoyed a pleasant flight and said the fall colors from the air are so much prettier than on the ground.

Eight couples enjoyed a full evening of fun at a masquerade party Friday, October 30. They were the guests of the Ed Johnsons and the Ed Mandilks.

Members of the Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church are busy completing plans for the smorgasbord to be held at the church on Maybee road Saturday, November 7th from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to enjoy a delicious home cooked meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schroeder of Orion road have returned after a week's stay in Los Angeles, California. It was a business trip for Harvey and a greatly appreciated vacation for Helen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson and children of Laurelton enjoyed a weekend visit with grandma and grandpa, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pekkala of Gwinn, Michigan and Pat's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Osmo Aalto of Rock, Michigan.

Address changes in our office this week must mean it is time to head for the sunny skies of Florida. I wish you all a very happy winter while we here at home are looking forward to ice, snow, colds and a very early spring.

Neighbors Penny Bixby and Diane Neff joined forces on Saturday, October 31 and entertained 12 of their friends at a Halloween party. The girls enjoyed dinner, trick or treating and an all around good time. Penny and Diane are the daughters of the David Bixbys and Robert Neffs of Snowapple.

Dinner at the Beef Eater, with her family and a friend, was the choice of Teresa Schroeder to celebrate her 9th birthday on October 30.

Need solutions not just critics

Several groups have set forward in great detail all the things that are wrong with America.

A little research, however, reveals some gratifying statistics on the other side of the coin.

In the coming year:

More than 196 million Americans will not be arrested.

More than 49 million students will not riot or petition to destroy our system, and more than 9 million of our young men will not burn their draft cards.

More than 115 million individuals will maintain a formal affiliation with some religious group.

More than 89 married persons will not file for divorce.

Congressman Jack McDonald garnered these items from a West Coast newspaper who provided these statistics as an answer to its many readers who considered the United States "a sick and divided nation."

There is no denying that we have major problems with which we must deal in this decade. Crime, pollution, education, defense and urban problems all warrant sound solutions.

When people speak of our "unprecedented" problems of our times and intimate that the nation is in a decline, they seem to come to a dead end when faced with the necessity of offering a substitute for the great American experiment.

Perhaps they have difficulty because there is no worthy substitute. What other nation in a brief 200 years has ever done so much for so many people? What other nation has enjoyed a greater degree of freedom and opportunity?

In short, finding fault with America is a tough assignment — even for the skeptics.

The idea is to keep plugging ahead.

"If It Fitz . . ."

A fellow columnist recently told his readers he has terminal cancer and will soon die.

I couldn't help wondering: If the doctors put a black X on my forehead, would I tell you about it? Outside of being born, the most important thing that happens to a person is dying. If I had advance notice of my funeral date, would it be fair to withhold the news from my constant readers (Mother and Aunt Madeline)?

Let's say the doctor gave me 6 months. Chances are I could press words out of this typewriter right up until the last week or so. I base this estimate on past experience. Neither snow nor rain nor terminal hangover has ever kept me home from work.

This isn't because I'm brave and rugged. It's because anyone who sleeps during the day in my house risks a cat in the face or a vacuum cleaner in the ear. My home is no place for an unhealthy man.

I could probably write 24 goodbye columns before finally leaving. My friendly mortician would wear out his tongue licking his chops.

And I could write more than soggy farewells. I could tell everyone off in fine fashion. I could prick balloons and name names and expose all sorts of foul hypocrisies. I could finally write without fear of a punch in the nose because no one would punch a doomed man. I would

Letters to the editor

Grateful thanks

October 30, 1970

Dear Editor:

Two weeks ago when my little boy became suddenly ill and needed emergency treatment, I made a frantic call to the Birtsas residence followed by one to Dr. James O'Neill. Within minutes after hanging up, Gus Birtsas arrived at the door with Mrs. Mary Muscat who began giving artificial respiration to my son while Gus called the Independence Township Fire Department.

When a mother can only watch as her child needs the help of others, the wait for those to arrive can be unbearable. But in my instance that experience was almost non-existent as everyone arrived immediately and emergency treatment began.

It seemed that the entire force of the volunteer fire department was here to offer assistance even though the call came during the dinner hour. These men are to be commended for the untiring job they perform as a group and for the personal importance they place on each call.

Not enough can be said about Dr. O'Neill as he continues to perform his practice with such dedication, skill and confidence.

Our little Matthew is home from the hospital and appears not to have suffered any ill effects after his seizure. My husband and I gratefully thank all those who answered the emergency call and the many neighbors and friends who contacted us afterwards to express their concern and willingness to help.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Bryan Prucher

walk with a limp just to make sure.

I could also make it clear what I want done with my body. I want the doctors and scientists to help themselves . . .

—The eyes should go to a blind girl so that I might finally see what women see in clowns like Elvis Presley, Engiebert Humpertink and Tom Jones.

—My heart should be transplanted into anyone living in San Francisco. Then the band will always know what to play when I walk into a nightclub in heaven.

—My liver should be made available but not forced upon anyone.

—The doctors can decide the distribution of any other parts that might be in demand at the time. The remains should be cremated and the ashes put in a Mason jar and stored on a shelf along with my wife's jams and jellies. This will help her to remember me every morning just before she spreads her toast.

These are all persuasive reasons for announcing my death in advance, if I should ever get the chance. But the best reason was supplied by a friend.

"Is it fair to force readers to react to my death before I die?" I asked him. "Should I print my obituary months in advance?" "Sure," he answered. "That way you can go to all the parties."

School enrollment dips in county

On the 4th Friday of each school year, the official attendance count is made for the State of Michigan.

The number of students counted on this day determines the amount of State aid to be paid to the individual school districts for the entire year.

This year's count was made on October 2 and for the first time since the end of World War II, public schools enrollment in Oakland County showed a decline.

The official count was 238,407, 127 fewer students than enrolled in 1969.

The Clarkston schools were among 16 districts that showed an increase in over-all enrollment. The count showed 143 more students than registered in '69.

Doctored treat investigated

Undersheriff Leo Hazen reported that there was one confirmed incident of a child in Independence Township receiving harmful treats on Halloween night.

The child, who had gone begging with a group, had been warned by parents about eating the goodies before returning home. Consequently, the apple, with cuts in it, was detected and no injury resulted.

The incident, according to Hazen, is under investigation.

Several other complaints were reported according to Oakland County Sheriff's records. They were not substantiated.

In one instance children reported that they had received doctored treats. When the sheriff's deputies arrived, the children had gone on their way and the report was not confirmed.

Teachers discuss teaching methods

Teachers Night at the Sashabaw PTA meeting on November 9 will be highlighted by a special program.

The teachers will discuss teaching methods used today in local schools.

Refreshments will be served and the meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. Members and friends are encouraged to attend.

"Our 10 year enrollment projection is holding steady," said Superintendent Leslie Greene. "Actually, our count probably would be higher but I feel that the General Motors strike has caused some movement of students who would normally have been on our rolls."

The Clarkston system, as most others, showed a definite decline at the elementary level.

Pontiac, losing 627, Birmingham with a loss of 616 and Royal Oak, who lost 681 students, led the downward trend. Berkley, 203; Ferndale, 233 and Oak Park, 328 followed. Six other districts lost less than 100 students each. Neighboring Waterford lost 68.-

The sprawling community of Troy accounted for the largest growth with 463 added scholars. Milford followed with 379, Walled Lake, 358 and Rochester swelled by 330.

Clarkston, with 143 additional students, fell into a category between 1 and 2 hundred additional enrollees with Farmington, 135; Holly, 199; Lake Orion, 132; Oxford, 172; South Lyon, 193 and West Bloomfield, 194.

Five schools reported less than a 100 student increase.

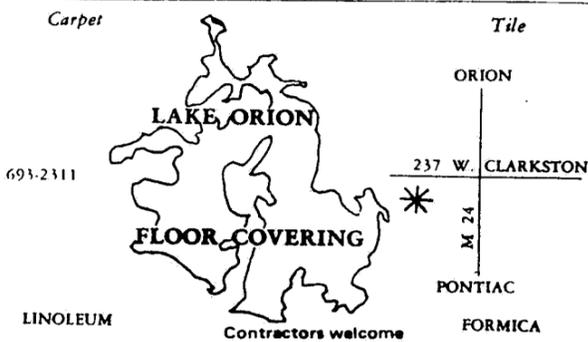

Whooooooo are these characters? Well, Kathy Muscat is the terrible witch with the green face and Billy Bassinger is that horrible cave man. Mrs. Sue Cattin, a room mother, is the fat lady and Mrs. Rosemary Lewis, a teacher, is the funny dwarf.

C.E.A. drops grievance

The Clarkston Education Association (CEA) has withdrawn their grievance against the Clarkston Board of Education. The grievance had protested the procedure of evaluation used by the Board in the dismissal of Richard Schadel, high school band instructor.

Agreement was reached when both sides appeared before Dudley Whiting of the Michigan State Arbitration Board on November 2.

Further agreement was reached when both parties signed their willingness to expedite similar matters in the future. If any grievances are presented to the Board by the CEA while the 1970-71 contract is in effect, the case will be taken immediately to arbitration. The intermediate and intervening steps will be waived by both sides.

Cl. Jr. Hi. parents go "Back to school"

On Monday evening, November 9 at 7:30, the staff at Clarkston Junior High School will present a "Back to School Night" for parents. Activity will begin in the gym area where the principal will start the meeting by introducing the staff and making some brief comments about the educational program that is offered at the junior high school.

Immediately following, the parents will proceed through their sons' or daughters' regular daily schedule. Each session will be approximately 10 minutes in length. After parents have completed their child's schedule, all will meet in the school cafeteria for refreshments.

The main function of such a program is for parents to meet their children's teachers and for them to become more familiar with the educational program that is being offered.

Next we made a wine probe and everyone had 5 different glasses of wine. I guess I don't need to tell you how much fun we had doing that.

Saturday morning we headed south on the Rhine on a small scenic cruiser. It wasn't too crowded and all of us had almost all of the upper front section of the boat.

The Rhine flows amazingly fast for such a large river.

We saw lots of really fantastic castles sitting up on their invincible mountains along the side of the river.

The weather was great and the trip was just as one might imagine it.

The trip back to Hanover took 7 hours by bus. I hope all of my travels in Europe are this much fun.

So long for now.

SECTION 5, SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS DISTRICT AND INTENT:

RMT - MOBILE HOME PARK DISTRICT

The RMT Mobile Home Park Districts are intended to provide sites for mobile home parks which are characterized by relatively high density, by transient structures which are replaced periodically and by dwelling units which are permitted by State law to exist without conforming in all respects to all local codes and ordinances applicable to other types of dwelling units. Because the mobile home park further possesses site characteristics similar to multiple-family residential development and because they typically develop with private street and utility systems thereby creating an interruption in the continuity of the local street and utility systems, they are not compatible when located in an otherwise single-family area. Therefore, in this Ordinance, mobile home parks are intended to be located so as to provide a transition of use between extensive non-residential districts, i.e., ML Limited Industrial and MH Major Industrial and Multiple-Family Residential Districts. It is further intended that Mobile Home Park Districts not be located abutting or adjacent to any single-family district.

SECTION 5, SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS DISTRICT AND INTENT:

RM - MULTI-FAMILY DISTRICT

The RM - Multiple-Family Residential Districts are designed to provide sites for multiple-family dwelling structures, and related uses, which will generally serve as zones of transition between the nonresidential districts and lower density Single-Family Districts. The Multiple-Family District is further provided to serve the limited needs for the apartment type of unit in an otherwise medium density, single-family community.

SECTION 5, PARAGRAPH H

H. Site Plan Review (All Districts)

1. A Site Plan shall be submitted to the Planning Commission for its review and approval prior to the issuance of a building permit for the following uses:

- a. Any use or development for which the submission of a site plan is required by any provision of this Ordinance.
- b. Any development, except single-family and two-family residential, for which off-street parking areas are provided as required in SECTION 9, OFF-STREET PARKING AND LOADING REGULATIONS.
- c. Any use in an RM, RMT, ERO, C-1, C-2, C-3, C-4, C-5, ML or MH District lying contiguous to, or across a street from, a single-family residential district.
- d. Any use except single or two-family residential which lies contiguous to a major thoroughfare or collector street.
- e. All residentially related uses permitted in a single-family or agricultural district such as, but not limited to: churches, schools, and public facilities.
- f. Building conditions or accessory buildings shall not require Planning Commission review unless off-street parking in addition to that already provided on the site is required.

2. Every site plan submitted to the Planning Commission shall be in accordance with the requirements of this Ordinance. No site plan shall be approved until same has been reviewed by the Building Department in coordination with other Township departments, for compliance with the standards of the respective departments.

3. Any persons may file a request for a site plan review by the Township Planning Commission providing the subject property is properly zoned for the intended use, by filing with the Township Clerk the completed application upon the forms therefor furnished by the Clerk as an integral part of said application, the applicant shall file at least six (6) copies of a site plan, which shall conform to the following minimum requirements:

- a. A scale of not less than 1"=50' if the subject property is less than three (3) acres and 1"=100' if three (3) acres or more, and of such accuracy that the same can be readily interpreted.
- b. The property shall be identified by lot lines and location, including dimensions, angles or bearings and areas, correlated with the legal description of said property. Such site plan shall be designed and prepared by a Registered Land Planner, Registered Architect, Registered Professional Engineer, or Registered Land Surveyor. Such plan shall further include the name and address of property owners, developers and designers.
- c. The site plan shall show the scale, northpoint, existing elevations (at least at two-foot contour intervals or at 50 foot grid intervals), boundary lines and topography showing such natural features as woodlots, streams, rivers, lakes, drains, and similar features.
- d. The site plan shall show existing man-made features such as buildings, structures, high tension towers, pipe lines, existing utilities such as water and sewer lines, etc., excavations, bridges, culverts, drains, and easements and shall identify adjacent properties and their existing uses.
- e. The site plan shall show the location, proposed finished floor and grade line elevation, size of proposed main and accessory buildings, their relation one to another, and to any existing structures on the site, the height of all buildings and the percentage of lot coverage of all main buildings. In the case of multiple-family development such site plan shall include a density schedule showing the number of dwelling units per net acre, including a dwelling schedule showing the unit type and number of each unit type, and also a parking schedule showing parking spaces per dwelling unit.
- f. The site plan shall show the proposed streets, driveways, sidewalks and other vehicular and pedestrian circulation features, within and without the site, the location, size and number of parking spaces in the off-street parking areas, the identification of service lanes and service parking.
- g. The site plan shall show the proposed location, use, and size of open spaces and the location of any landscaping, fences or walls on the site. Any proposed alterations to the topography and other natural features shall be indicated.

4. Upon receipt of such application from the Clerk, the Planning Commission shall undertake a study of the same and shall within forty-five (45) days, give its recommendation for approval or disapproval of said site plan. In addition to reviewing the items required under paragraph 3, above, the Planning Commission shall consider:

- a. The location and design of driveways providing vehicular ingress and egress from the site, in relation to streets giving access to the site, and in relation to pedestrian traffic.
- b. The traffic circulation features within the site and location of automobile parking areas; and may make such requirements with respect to any matters as will assure:
 - (1) Safety and convenience of both vehicular and pedestrian traffic both within the site and in relation to access streets.
 - (2) Satisfactory and harmonious relationships between the development on the site and the existing and prospective development of contiguous land and adjacent neighborhoods.

c. The Planning Commission may further require landscaping, fences, and walls in pursuance of these objectives and same shall be provided and maintained as a condition of the establishment and the continued maintenance of any use to which they are appurtenant as provided in SECTION 6, Item 8.

d. In those instances wherein the Planning Commission finds that an excessive number of ingress and/or egress points may occur with relation to major or secondary thoroughfares, thereby diminishing the carrying capacity of the thoroughfare, the Planning Commission may recommend marginal access drives. For a narrow frontage, which will require a single outlet, the Planning Commission may recommend that money be placed in escrow with the Township Treasurer in an amount to be determined by the Township's Consulting Engineer as sufficient to provide for a marginal service drive equal in length to the frontage of the property involved. Occupancy permits shall not be issued until the improvement is physically provided, or monies have been deposited with the Township Clerk.

5. After the site plan is reviewed and approved by the Township Planning Commission, one copy shall be retained on permanent file with the Planning Commission and two copies shall be filed with the Township Building Inspector along with written notification of such approval. If the site plan is disapproved by the Planning Commission, written notification of such denial shall be given the applicant within ten days after such action. The applicant may thereafter file an amended site plan, which shall be reviewed in the same manner as hereinbefore set forth.

6. The approval by the Township Planning Commission of any site plan under this provision shall expire one year after the date of such approval, unless actual construction and development have been commenced in accordance with said site plan prior thereto. If such construction and development is commenced within said one year period, then such approval shall continue for a period of five years from the date thereof; provided, however, that in the event a lapse of more than one year in continuous substantial construction and development does occur, then in such event, said approval shall expire. The Township Building Inspector shall not issue a building permit for any type of construction on the basis of the approved site plan after such approval has expired.

7. Any substantial modification, revision or variation in the site plan submitted to the Building Department in conjunction with an application for a building permit from the site plan approved by the Planning Commission, shall be subject to review and reapproval in accordance with the same procedure as required under SECTIONS 3 and 4 hereof.

Clarkston youth work together for UNICEF

On Sunday afternoon, October 25, between 125 and 150 youths of junior and senior high school ages gathered to receive materials promoting the United Nations' Children's Fund (UNICEF).

For 2½ hours these young people canvassed the territory of Independence Township, seeking donations for food, clothing, medicine, vaccines, and other relief aid for refugee children in over 100 countries around the world.

The people of the township contributed $381.00 in those 2½ hours for UNICEF.

As a result of the combined interest of our youth and adults, those dollars may cure 7,620 children of trachoma, buy 266,700 vitamin tablets, immunize 5,334 children against malaria, and protect 30,480 children from TB.

On October 11, the youth met at Calvary Lutheran Church to view a film strip on UNICEF, and discuss the program and plans for the 25th. The First United Methodist Church was the rallying point, both before and after the collection, and a meal was prepared by the people from Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church.

Church of the Resurrection-Episcopal counted the gifts that came in, and the Methodist Youth Fellowship provided a band for entertainment after the outing. St. Daniel Roman Catholic youth also assisted.

The program, begun in 1969, was again sponsored by the Independence Township Pastors' Association.

Band urges that citizens vote

Seventeen young people from the Sashabaw Junior High School pep band traveled through the subdivisions Saturday, playing music to urge all people to get out and vote on Tuesday.

George Woody, father of one of the band members, organized the trip and Pontiac Motors donated the use of the truck.

The band met at the school at 9 a.m. and traveled to Independence Commons. They played their way through all the areas of town, urging people to get out and vote.

Lunch was served at noon, after which they traveled to the Pontiac Mall parking lot.

On their way home they stopped for an ice cream treat.

"In all, it was a very enjoyable trip and a day well spent," said D. A. Doty, band director.

Wolves accept defeat by

By Craig Moore

Kettering started slowly but dominated the game last Friday night and upset the Wolves, 20-6.

"We didn't stop Gratz," commented coach Rakow after the loss. Truer words were never spoken, as Gratz set a new school record of 223 yards on 28 carries.

Whether Gratz was carrying or executing a tackle, he was everything a coach dreams of.

Aided by a face-masking penalty, Kettering was situated on the Clarkston 9, first down, goal to go.

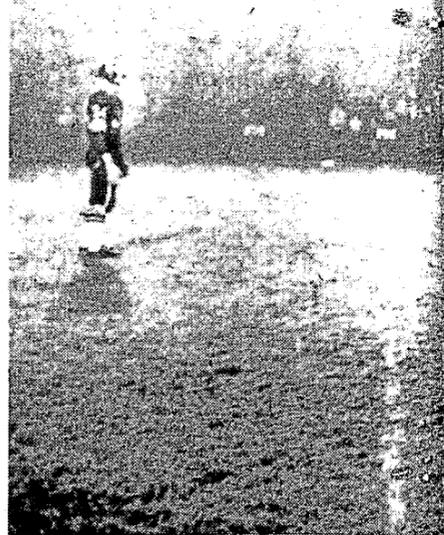

Mark Majoras, Kettering halfback scored, but the touchdown was called back on an illegal procedure penalty.

Gratz moved to the one, tried to dive in on the next play, but fumbled.

Mike Turk picked up the fumble for Clarkston. But the Wolves couldn't dent the Captain defense and were forced to punt.

Gratz and Majoras drove 84 yards in 11 plays to the Clarkston 13. With 1:27 left in the half, Gratz scored. The two-point conversion run failed.

Gratz scored his second touchdown late in the third quarter. He climaxed an 85 yard drive with the 17 yard run in. The pass for a two-point conversion was incomplete, giving Kettering a 12-0 advantage.

Kettering started its third drive. It looked doubtful they'd move and punted out to the Clarkston 35. An illegal procedure penalty was called against the "Happiness" is receiving the Clarkston News.

Like-a crazy, man

By Haslett Hemmor

Grandma Buzzatino still talks like she just got off the boat. Fact is, though, that except for some smart-alec newcomers, she's maybe the most respected old lady in these here parts.

Her boy Vito is a big shot city attorney but when he comes home, she still orders him around like she just caught him in the cookie jar. Minds her real good, too, and says, "Yes, Mama" with a great big old grin. He sure worships that little old lady.

Don't really know why we call Vito Buzzatino her "boy." Guy must be near sixty and they do tell that he's one of the top attorneys in the whole country. But around here, he's still the "Buzzatino boy."

Grandma Buzz never goes to a doing unless she gets a written invitation. Near everybody, for example, sends her an invite to all the weddings. And it's not for a present, either, because long ago she gave her piece of mind on wedding presents. "Make-a the biga show for wedding," she advised all within hearing, "Itsa most important time. But don't spoila the keeps with presents. Got too moocho already."

In a way, whether Grandma Buzz comes or not is a sign of how well the family stands in this here area. Don't think I'm talking about wealthy families or prominent families, mind you, or even if you attend St. Mary's regular - but just if you've always been good honest folk and never spoke bad of your neighbors. Stuff like that there. Somehow that old lady knows about any hanky-panky - past or present. Can't read a newspaper, but near every day someone comes by and visits with her. The old grapevine bit, but she spots and shoots down mean gossip like she was on a skeet range.

In a way, it kind of came a surprise when Eff and me heard she was going to the sunrise wedding of the Furney boy and little Mary Lou Roman. Jeff Furney had been in a heap of scrapes and just a couple months back got picked up on a narcotics charge. They even quoted the kid in the papers on how he said the Pigs busted him, but neither they nor "all the rest of the cruddy establishment could keep him from doing his thing."

Bragged about it, he did, and fair shamed his pa and ma with his loud talk about how our good local constable, Larry Briggs, was "just your typical fat-headed, fat-bottomed fuzz that even had to read the constitutional rights jazz off a card because he was too dumb to remember it."

Nice guy, Larry Briggs is, and always did lean over backward to help any kid in trouble. Many's the time when old Larry dipped into his own pocket to do for a youngster.

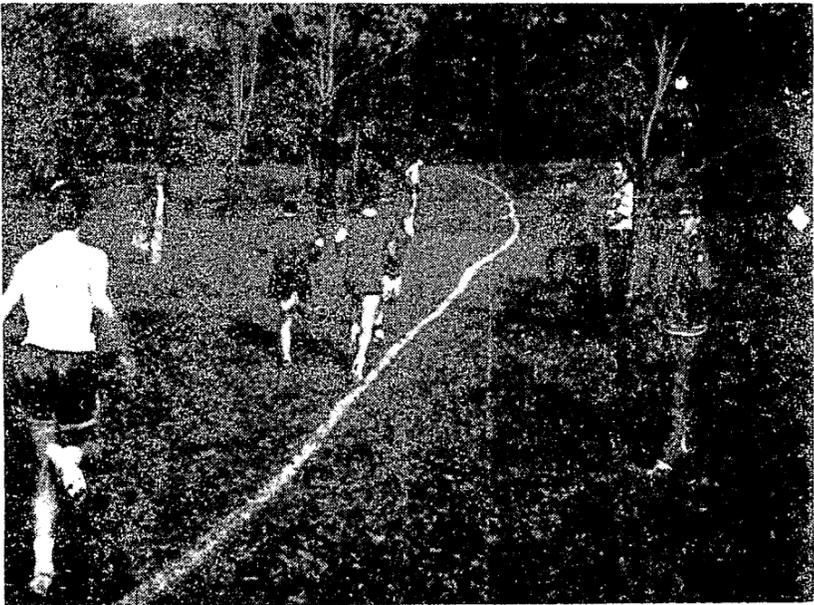

So it's a shocker when we hear that notwithstanding, Grandma Buzz is coming to the hippie-type wedding that's planned.

Whenever Grandma Buzz goes to a doing, her nephew, Marino Capicci, drives her in the big old Capicci Cadillac. Old, this big boat is, but still right impressive.

The crowd is gathered on the lawn around the pastor when Grandma Buzz comes wheeling up in Marino's personal car. The kid's car is like maybe a ten year old Chevy with the top cut off down to seat level and all painted with glittery spatter paint. They pull up in the drive and beep-beep with a goofy bulb horn.

Everyone gasps when Grandma steps out in a clown suit and with a harem veil. Hair's down, hippie style. One of the fifty look-alike kids mutters something about this being a wedding and not Halloween.

She chuckles. "Justa doing my thing," she chirps, "justa doing my crazy thing!"

Clarkston High School's J.V. cross country team hit their stride in the Wayne-Oakland League meet. They took first place.

CHS. Cheerleaders shine in contest

The Clarkston Varsity cheerleaders, under coach Pat MacArthur, competed in the Pontiac Catholic Invitational on Saturday, October 31.

The varsity squad placed first among 40 schools. They represented the elementary, Junior Varsity, and Varsity levels.

The girls, Bev Arrowsmith, Kim Blasey, Jan Easton, Cindy Porritt, Gail Ragatz, Sue Surree, Pam Toutant and Debbie

Wychoff attended a clinic in the morning where they learned new chants and routines. In the afternoon competition they were allowed to perform two cheers and were judged on ability, spirit and appearance.

Next weekend the squad will travel to Northwood Institute in Midland to compete against schools all over Michigan.

Calvary Lutheran launch fund drive

On Sunday, November 8, at 10:00 a.m. members of Calvary Lutheran Church in Clarkston will be asked to pledge their financial support to the work of the congregation for 1971.

Each year the church conducts a financial campaign for funds for the work of the coming year. Typical items needing support are the 20 colleges, 9 seminaries, and 113 social institutions of the Lutheran Church in America. There are also world and home missions, social action projects, and relief work around the world.

Missions carried out at home include the weekly worship and educational opportunities for the members of the church and the public; pastoral services to the membership and the community; offer of church facilities for community service organizations such as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and until now the Clarkston Area Jayettes.

Highlight of "Commitment Sunday" will be an address by Mr. Clarence G. Carlson of Bloomfield Hills. Carlson is a member of the Michigan Synod Stewardship Committee of the LCA.

At the close of the service, members may fill in cards pledging their financial support and calls will be made on those families not able to attend that morning.

Calvary Lutheran is a member congregation of the Lutheran Church in America, and of the Independence Township Pastors' Association.

Legion announces

November plans

The November schedule of events for the Campbell-Richmond Post 63 of the American Legion is a busy one.

November 9th has been set aside for the Auxiliary Party which will be held at the Post at 7:30 p.m. The members (all Legionnaires' wives), will play bingo and enjoy refreshments. There will be no admission charged.

Chairman John Lynch plans a beef dinner to celebrate Veterans Day at 7:30 p.m. on November 11. A token contribution of $1 will be asked from all members and their wives.

Notes from recent meetings announced that the Legion had a successful Labor Day weekend and that the work contributed by the members had been well worth while.

Witch Kathy Kent and "Mrs." Curtis Liles are wary of Dragon Brad Beattie. They are all dressed for the Halloween Parade at Clarkston Elementary.

p.m., Warren Miller will narrate his new color film, "The Sound of Winter."

The J. L. Hudson Company will present a ski fashion show just preceding the show. The Youth Hostels will benefit from the performances.

Tickets will be available at the door.

Drama Club formed

Name play cast

by Polly Hanson

Under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Gibson, a Drama Club has been formed at Clarkston High School.

At the first meeting on October 6, standing committees and future plans for the club were discussed. Members of the club will be responsible for many of the production aspects of the upcoming plays.

Members who have participated in plays before and have accumulated enough honor points will be eligible to join the National Thespians Society. From this honor group, Mrs. Gibson will be choosing her student directors.

No definite schedule of meetings has been set up, but any interested students may get further details by contacting Mrs. Gibson.

Mrs. Pat Race, choral director, has chosen the Madrigal Singers for 1970-71. They are as follows: Earla Davidson, Pam Davis, Kathy Fletcher, Debby Fritch, Darla Hoopengartner, Debbie Hoopengartner, Cheryl Mielke, Karen Mielke, Mary Ann Northcote, Kirk Peters, Dan Race, Kim Salzano, Ken Shelton, Rick Shoun, Nancy Somers, Ellen Taylor, Vickie Walden and Dick Welch.

Being in Madrigals carries a double honor this year. All of the students who were chosen for Madrigals are also members of the Wayne-Oakland County League Choir.

All juniors who registered to take the PSAT test this Saturday are reminded that the test will begin promptly at 8:30 a.m. No one will be admitted after this time. Be sure and bring two soft-lead pencils with you when you come for the test.

After two days of rigorous try-outs, the cast for "The Torchbearers," the first play of the year, has been announced. A hilarious comedy by George Kelly, it promises to provide a laugh-filled evening of entertainment.

Mrs. Barbara Gibson, director, and Debbie Hoopengartner, student director, selected the following: Jan Lundy as Mrs. Ritter, Bruce Rose as Mr. Ritter, Debi Slade as Jenny, Polly Hanson as Mrs. Pampinelli, Alan Rose as Spindler, Julie Wilford as Mrs. Fell, Jim Gordon as Mr. Hossefrosse, Mark Peters as Twiller, Kirk Peters as Teddy, Karin MacDougall as Florence, Tudi Robinson as Clara Shepard, and Gerry Kenyon as the Stage Manager. Rehearsals were begun on November 2, and the play will be presented in December.

"The Torchbearers" could not be presented without the aid of the newly formed Drama Club. Since there are very few play production students this year, other students are needed to help in the production of the play. The following students have been named as permanent committee chairmen and assistant chairmen, respectively: Make-up Committee, Tudi Robinson; Set Committee, Jeff Hawke, Kyle Vargo; Publicity and Tickets, Carolyn Jorgensen, Laurel Little; Ushers, Kirt Stalker, Vikki Rowland; Props Committee, Becky Byers, Toni Westover.

The officers of Drama Club are Polly Hanson, president; Debbie Hoopengartner, vice president; Julie Wilford, secretary-treasurer and the sponsor is Mrs. Barbara Gibson.

More and more people in Independence Township are reading the News for news of this area. Just $4.00 a year in Michigan. Call 625-3370.

Meadow Brook opens

with 'Skin of our Teeth'

The Pulitzer-prize winning play, Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth," will open Meadow Brook's 1970-71 season at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, November 5.

Broadway actor Harry Ellerbe will play the lead role of Mr. Antrobus, Wilder's hero-clod who takes his family through the Biblical calamities all the way up to the Jazz Age.

British-Canadian actress Elisabeth Orion returns for her third year at Meadow Brook to perform as the play's eternal mother courage, Mrs. Antrobus.

Playing the plum role of the sensual, seductive Sabina, first brought to life on Broadway by Tallulah Bankhead, will be Meadow Brook discovery Barbara Quinn.

The production will be under the direction of Meadow Brook Theatre's Artistic Director, Terence Kilburn.

The play will run at Meadow Brook, Oakland University, from November 5 through November 22, then moves to the Detroit Institute of Arts for seven performances November 25 through November 29.

Tickets for "The Skin of Our Teeth" are available at all Hudson stores or call the Meadow Brook Theatre at 377-2000, 362-0353 (in Detroit). Detroit Institute of Arts, call 832-2730.

"Choose this day whom you will serve... Joshua 24:15

This week saw another round of elections in our country. It is every citizen's duty and privilege to vote for the candidates of his choice.

But there's another dimension to politics, and living too. To elect someone to represent us is to abdicate, in a small way, our own responsibilities toward life. Too often we silently agree to "let the other fellow handle it." Hence the many millions who don't even vote, let alone get involved in working for the common good.

If politics is a rotten business, we citizens have helped make it that way. And the same could be said about life.

If Life is a rotten business at times, we creatures have helped to make it that way. In every one of the trouble areas of our world we have abdicated our responsibilities toward life.

Pollution is not only a result of corporate sloppiness; it comes in part from our trash thrown out a car window, and our inconsiderateness where the beauty of nature is concerned.

If people live in squalor and deprivation, it is not only the fault of welfare and lack of education and laziness; it is also the fault of our subdivisions and our intemperate concern for the quality of our own interests and needs.

Christianity says, you see, that we are the elect. God has chosen us to be His representatives in the world. Every one of us. Which means that in His sight we cannot put off our responsibilities onto another's shoulders. We are God's spokesmen. It is up to us to choose whom to serve, not who will serve us.

Briefly told

The Joseph C. Bird OES 294 will hold its annual smorgasbord and bazaar on Friday, November 6 at the Temple on Main Street.

The bazaar hours are from 12 to 8 and the smorgasbord will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. Tickets for children under 12 are $1.00 and adults are $2.00.

Among the things for sale will be Christmas items and baked goods.

Meanwhile, out in Davisburg at the United Methodist Church they will be holding their Mini-Pearl Bazaar on November 7 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Many handmade items will be for sale. Jewelry, Christmas novelty items, flowers, aprons, homemade candy and baked goods will all be available along with delicious sloppy joes and desserts.

Proceeds will be donated by the WSCS to the expansion fund which includes a recreation area, outdoor worship center and parking lot.

The Women's Society of the Methodist Church (WSCS) is busy making final plans for its annual "Holiday Bazaar" to be held on Friday, November 20.

There will be a variety of hand-crafted gifts, toys, Christmas and Thanksgiving decorations and baked goods for sale.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served in the morning and a delicious luncheon is being planned. "Plan to come and shop, enjoy a coffee break with friends, or treat yourself to lunch out that day," said Mrs. C. L. Reichert, General Chairman.

The Rae Vens Booster Club will hold a benefit to raise funds for the girls on their drill team to attend the national and international exhibitions in the coming year.

The benefit event will be a Las Vegas Nite and will be held at the VFW Post 3952 at 2652 Loon Lake Rd. in Walled Lake, at 8 p.m. on November 13.

Free lunch and refreshments will be served.

Tickets may be purchased at the door and information may be obtained by calling 681-2094.

American Legion Auxiliary, Campbell Richmond Post 63, will hold a get-acquainted night for all wives of Legion members. It will be held on Monday, November 9 at 7:30 at the Legion Hall on M-15.

There will be bingo, prizes and refreshments.

"This will be a good time to meet and get to know each other," said the committee.

A bingo party and auction will be held on November 7 to benefit the Youth Hockey program in the area.

The party will be held at the VFW Post 1008 at 1690 Airport Rd. and will run from 8 p.m. until midnight. There will be free bingo and refreshments.

The donation asked is $3.00.

A meeting was held recently for people interested in the organization of the 9th annual Pontiac Mall art show. It will be held from Feb. 7 through 21.

Mrs. Robert Belknap was named chairman.

For further information phone 334-6276 or OR 3-1775.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 210 held their rededication at the Township Hall on Wednesday, October 21. Something new was tried this year when the girls held a potluck dinner.

The tables at the dinner were centered with witches they had made at troop meetings.

After dinner, the rededication ceremony was held and new girls were welcomed into the troop. A busy year is scheduled.

SCOUTS FEED PARENTS

The members of Boy Scout Troop 49 are singing "O Sole Mio" after last Tuesday.

On that day, October 27, all 17 members of the troop got together at the American Legion Hall and prepared enough spaghetti to feed themselves and their parents.

Along with the spaghetti and under the guidance of their leaders, Jim Allard and Stan Roosa, the boys also tossed a huge salad.

"There was plenty to eat and the boys did an excellent job," said the leaders.

PACK 126

Magic was the word at the October meeting of Pack 126. Each Den performed various feats of magic that astonished the spectators.

The following boys received awards at the meeting: Scott Brumback, Denner Bar and Wolf Silver Arrow; Dale Pontiac Oakland Town Hall will feature as its second speaker of the season, Paul Haney, NASA's Public Affairs officer, who as the "Voice of the Astronauts" will deliver a lecture on November 11 at the Huron Theater.

The 10:30 lecture will be followed by a celebrity luncheon at the Kingsley Inn on Woodward Avenue.

Tickets are still available. Call Mrs. William Taylor at 332-2418 or Mrs. S. V. Sekles at 851-1355.

Regional win easy

Cross Country Team eye State title

By Craig Moore

Twenty-one class "A" teams competed in the cross country regionals on October 31. There can be only one winner, that being Clarkston.

Fred Seyler, first place runner, was clocked at 12:58. Dan Dankert took fourth with a 13:16 time. Rick Svetkoff came on strong in the end and edged into 8th place. Fifteenth was taken by Gerald Baker and Kurt Carlsen was 18th. Right behind him was Bob Hoy in the 19th spot. Rounding out the 7-man team was Rick Plummer.

According to coach Bruce, "Hoy is really coming on strong. A strong sixth man really makes a difference."

The places of the first 5 Clarkston runners were pretty tightly woven. Scoring 46 points, by adding the first 5 team places, Clarkston beat 2nd place Pontiac Northern who totaled 77 points.

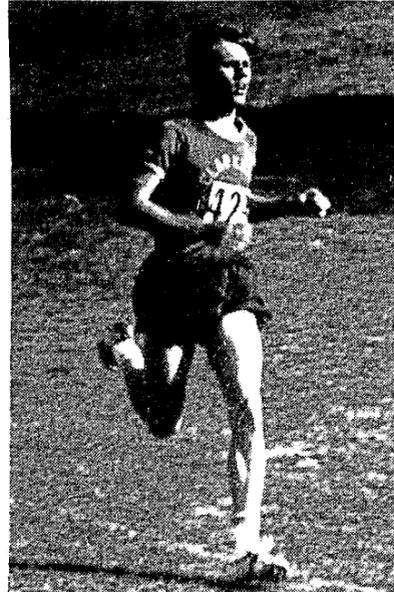

"I think we put everything together," said coach Bruce, "all the boys ran well. If we do as well on November 7 at the state finals, we'll be in the running for a state championship."

Each of the runners received a team medal. A beautiful trophy proclaiming the Clarkston cross country team the class "A" regional winners was presented to the coach.

The state finals will be held in Ypsilanti.

J.V. mash Northville

The Clarkston High School JV football squad humbled Northville last week by a score of 46 to 8.

Coach Hanson's boys were strong in all departments as they cleared the bench to beat unlucky Northville.

They are scheduled to play their last home game of the year this week when they will meet Waterford Kettering.

The last game of the season will find them at Milford. Game time is 7 p.m. on November 10.

Joggers meet

The Springfield Township Senior Citizens (Joggers) will hold their monthly cooperative dinner meeting on Saturday, November 7.

The meeting will be held at noon in the Davisburg Township Hall.

Comments sought on burning ban

The Clarkston Council is seeking public reaction to a proposed ban on burning within the village limits.

An ordinance was discussed at the October 27 Council meeting that would make burning illegal. The topic will be taken up again at the Nov. 10 meeting when public comment would be heard.

Meetings start at 7:30 in the village hall.

Also, Tuesday night M. A. Benson, owner of Deerfield Farms Subdivision told the Council he would place sandbags at Holcomb and Miller Rds. to prevent further run-off onto adjoining property owners.

A standpipe will be installed to run excessive water into the storm drain.

Hunter safety course scheduled here soon

Charles Herman has announced that registration for his next "Hunter Safety Course" is now open.

Boys and girls between the ages of 11 and 17 are eligible. The course will be held from 6 to 7 p.m. on Thursday evenings.

"All young hunters will need this certificate next year if they have never been licensed before," said Herman. "It will be wise if they take the course now and be prepared."

To make application, call 625-1688.

Swingin' on a star

by Jean Sura

Some things never change when you have kids. You never stop worrying about them or bursting your buttons when they sneeze. This is how it went for me last week.

A hush fell on the audience. The first-nighters hurried down the gym aisle to their seats. The lights dimmed. The curtains parted and the play began.

We sat in our front row seats through a scene and a half trying to stay calm. I could feel prickles of perspiration on my face. My heartbeat was erratic.

Then, to the strains of "How Are Things in Glockamorra?" the lovely lady on stage pulled on the rope to raise the bucket in the well.

My breath caught in my throat. There he was, my school-teacher son — hanging on the rope — resplendent in green face, pointed ears and false eyelashes — our son, the leprechaun! think you're Muhammad Ali or Joe Louis?"

It isn't that I don't have any confidence, but I said a fast prayer that he wouldn't forget his lines and that his voice wouldn't crack during his solo. I threw in a special request, just in case, that he not fall over his big feet in the dance sequence.

"Stop waving," said my husband. "You'll embarrass him to death. And for heaven's sake, sit down and quit nodding to everybody in the audience."

"Oh, yeah. How come that everytime he speaks a line, you stand up and bow. And stop raising your hands and shaking them over your head every time he finishes a line. You think he's Muhammad Ali or Joe Louis?"

Intermission never went so quickly. Fortunately they sold cider in the cafeteria. It took a long time for all our relatives to get their drinks.

I didn't think that it was necessary for Gene to greet everybody he met with an Irish brogue. I was content to stand on a table and just wave modestly.

I didn't think that it was necessary for Gene to use the cow-bell and bull-horn for the curtain calls either.

"What is it like to be the parents of a leprechaun?" asked one dear friend.

"Tell me," asked another, "are you serving ham at your house tonight?"

"Just sour grapes, that's all it is," I told myself. "I'll bet that if a talent scout had seen that production the whole cast would be called to New York and probably Hollywood."

I wonder what it is like, weather-wise, to live in California all year around. I wonder if any of those ocean front mansions are still available. Maybe it would be better to build to suit ourselves.

I was also thinking that if our son has this talent that we never discovered, maybe the whole family has some kind of an acting gift.

The Von Trapps did "Sound of Music" and the Farkle Family is doing their thing.

Let's see — Sura Shuffle? Sura Shake? Sura Sideshow? A Symphony of Suras?

I'll think of something. Anyway, it's better to be the parent of a character actor than the parent of a character.

I am? He is? My gosh!
