Jim's Jottings

Coming along I-75 at 5 p.m. Friday I became fully aware of how nuts we drivers are who head north for some fun. That is, "we" who don't begin that fun trip from the time we get into the car.

There was 12 inches or more of snow in the ditches and the pavement was far from adequate for speed, yet past me went car after car with ski racks and snowmobiles. Blinking their lights and demanding by horn wider berth.

Wild. It slowed me down and I only had a few miles to go. I couldn't believe anyone in those cars was having any real enjoyment as they searched for faster ways to get to their destination... a destination that will probably find them having to do the same thing to get to a ski lift or trail.

Slow down, relax. You may not live longer, but maybe someone else will.

During deer hunting season a guy joined us who was once connected with the Dodge advertising account. I'm not going to name him, only tell of an experience he had during the Dodge sponsored Harry Bellafonte show.

It was taped, of course, and during the show Bellafonte put his arm around Petula at the close of a number or something. I believe it was the first time these two races, boy and girl types, had touched on the tube.

My friend objected. He felt there were Dodge dealers in Atlanta, Ga., who would really object. He was overruled by New York ad execs. My friend was soon with a different account and will shortly be giving up all this big-city stuff for a real estate office in Antrim County.

There was quite a furor raised at the time of the contact. Today? Nothing. Anyone who objects likely won't even be able to get a job selling for my friend up north, or even a sympathetic ear.

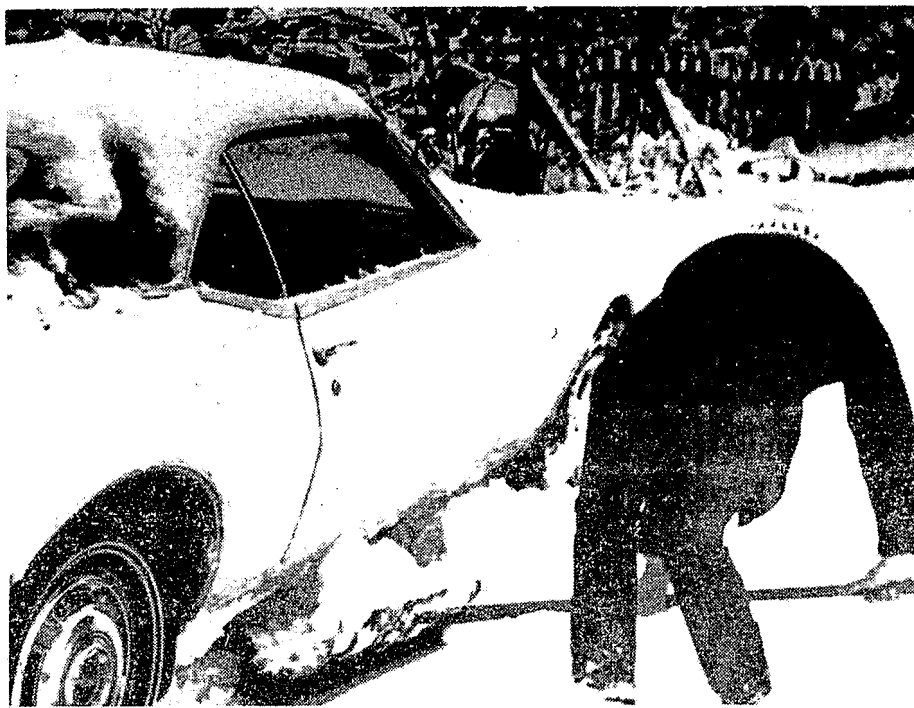

We've changed in these years... some of it for the better.

On Thanksgiving day, 1969, some friends came to our house on a snowmobile. Why can't we remember these dates and snows? Why do we always get caught without our snowtires on?

To make matters worse, this year my small tractor was without a battery, and even if I had one I wouldn't have been able to get it up the hill to get to my drive. A really look-ahead guy, that's me.

Area buried in heavy snow

By Jean Sura

On Thursday night last week, late Christmas shoppers drove home in a mist of snow. The afternoon shift, leaving their jobs for home, were greeted with a heavy downfall and a 3-inch blanket of wet snow.

By daylight Friday morning the Clarkston community was covered with 8 to 11 inches of snow. Branches bowed gracefully under their heavy wet burden and traffic was scarce. The sound of spinning tires was common.

Shovels, snow blowers, snow plows and towing trucks added to the sound as they assaulted the task of "digging out." Schools were canceled for the day because of school employees' inability to move the large fleet of buses.

Sleds and toboggans were hauled from their summer storage place.

The busy whirl that accompanies the preparation for the coming holiday was slowed to a walk, and a slippery one at that.

Deep drifts were reported in some areas.

The snow continued at a slower rate through the day. By Saturday the Oakland County Road Commission had made headway in clearing the main arteries, and secondary roads were passable.

By Monday, it was "Business as usual." Everybody got back on the merry-go-round.

A two-headed animal arises from the snow. Closer inspection proves that it serves to trundle rubbish in fairer weather.

A CPA specializing as a financial consultant to municipalities has been appointed to the Independence Township Board as a trustee.

Tom Bullen, 5935 Kingfisher, was sworn into office Tuesday night. He will serve the last 2 years of the unexpired term of Merle Bennett, who resigned Nov. 30. Bullen is a Republican.

The Board agreed to the appointment of Bullen at a special meeting Monday evening. This meeting had been urged by some people at the last Board meeting when it was evident the 4-man board wasn't going to agree to an appointment at that time.

The new trustee is a principal with the firm of Arthur Young & Co., which has offices in Bloomfield Hills and Detroit. Bullen went with the firm after graduation from the University of Michigan in 1957. He spent 10 years in Milwaukee and 2 in Toledo before coming to this area in 1969.

He told the News that the bulk of his work the past 6 or 7 years was being a financial consultant, with most of his experience coming with municipalities... "how to gain, spend and conserve" federal funds.

Born in Lansing, Bullen came to Clarkston with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bullen, 50 Robertson Court, in 1940. He was graduated from high school here in 1953.

He is married to the former Sally Stageman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stageman, also of Clarkston. They have 5 children: Linda, 15; Ben, 13; John, 11; Julie, 9 and Sandra, 6. They are members of the Clarkston Methodist Church.

Take News and Save

February 1, 1971 the News will cost you more. Subscribers in Michigan will be paying $5.00 instead of $4.00. Subscribers out of state will be paying $6.00 instead of $5.00.

We could give you costs and comparisons aimed at justifying the need for the increase; however, the main point is the increase is necessary.

We think the Clarkston News would be a bargain at twice the price. Now it's up to you. Sign up for as many years as you wish at the current $4 and $5 a year rate (instate and outstate) before February 1.

It makes a darn good Christmas gift, too.

J.C.'s christmas show set for Dec. 19

The Clarkston Area Jaycees will present their annual Christmas show for children in the Clarkston Community on December 19 from 1 to 2:30 p.m. The show will be staged in the gym of the Clarkston Junior High School.

Tana Carli will get the show started with Christmas songs and tap dancing. The Pisanis, a 5-person acrobatic and balancing team; Danny Carey & Doree, novelty juggling and hand balancing duo, and the Jumping Jays, acrobats on the trampoline, will round out the performance.

Clarkston's Junior Miss, Debbie Hoopengartner, will make a special appearance as "Christmas Carol."

The Clarkston Jaycettes will furnish special treats at the conclusion of the program.

"All children in our area are welcome," said Bruce Rogers, chairman. "There will be no admission charge. The program is supported by the community through various Jaycee fund raising activities.

State Police add holiday patrols

Special holiday traffic patrols will be operated by the Michigan State Police for the Christmas and New Year weekends, Lt. Col. Melvin G. Kaufman, department director, said.

Kaufman reported that the state's traffic toll so far this year is showing a reduction of about 275 deaths, compared with the same period in 1969, a decrease of about 12 percent.

In a holiday traffic safety plea to motorists, Kaufman urged, "Let's try to extend this improved record right through to the end of the year. I'm confident that the continued cooperation of drivers and pedestrians can effectively counter the added road and weather hazards at this season. Drive and walk so that you keep your holiday unspoiled by an accident."

He said Christmas patrols will begin at noon Thursday, December 24, and continue until midnight Sunday, December 27. The New Year weekend patrol hours will be from 12 noon Thursday, December 31 until midnight Sunday, January 2.

Maximum patrol coverage will be provided by the State Police from 3 p.m. to at least 9 p.m. each day of the holiday periods. Special attention again will be devoted to the sections of highways having bad accident experience.

Last year Michigan had 36 persons killed in 30 fatal accidents during the 102-hour Christmas weekend while 29 were killed in 23 fatal accidents during the equally long New Year period. The holiday periods for traffic death count purposes this year will be 78 hours each, from 6 p.m. Thursday to midnight Sunday each weekend.

December 7, 1970

Meeting called to order by President Cooper.

Roll: Present - Basinger, Hagen, Johnston, Jones, Kushman. Absent - Westlund.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Trustee Johnston reported on the status of the Sewer Construction plans per Mr. Ringler of the Oakland County Department of Public Works. The plans are nearing completion and when complete will be directed through the proper channels for approval. A comprehensive report on the county project will be presented to the Council by the County after the first of the year.

Trustee Kushman reported that Mr. Billie Farnum is continuing his work with Lansing legislators in regard to the grant application. No action was required on the sewers at this meeting.

President Cooper reported that the Village Attorney had suggested a formal resolution by the Village Council directed to the Water Resources Commission regarding the complaints of the Village directed towards the Deerfield Hills Subdivision drainage. Trustee Jones reported that he would attempt to contact the Water Resources Commission representative for direction on this matter.

The Burn Ordinance discussion was tabled for further study. Mrs. Basinger was requested to present to the Council further findings at the next regular meeting in regard to a Burn Ordinance.

The Lot Splitting and Zoning Ordinance discussion was tabled until after the first of the year.

Moved by Jones that the following bills be paid:

The Council was reminded by the Clerk that petitions for the coming election were due by December 28, 1970.

The study of the Township Police Department was tabled. Trustees Jones and Hagen requested additional time for an evaluation of this situation.

Trustee Jones reported that the Tree Trimming Project would require an additional $100, due to additional work required.

It was reported to the Council by President Cooper that the Village would be free to post an Orion Road sign as opposed to Clarkston Road signs within the Village limits.

Trustees Jones and Hagen were requested to get a status report of the bonding of Village Police and to establish a correct procedure for this activity.

Trustees Hagen and Jones were asked to make recommendations on wages for Municipal Service employees.

The meeting was called adjourned by President Cooper.

The Pisanis, acrobatic team, ready their act for the performance at the Clarkston area Jaycee Christmas show on December 19. All Clarkston children are invited to attend.

"Toys for Tots" still needed

The collection of "Toys for Tots" is being conducted in the area by the Clarkston Area Jaycees.

The organization has arranged for drop boxes in 6 area places of business to accommodate donors.

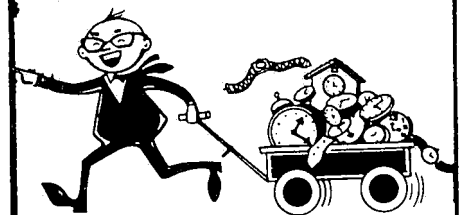

The drop boxes are located at:

Rudy's Market, Pontiac State Bank, Taylor's 5 & 10, A&P and Howe's Lanes.

"Due to the effect of the recent strike, we have a greater need to fulfill," said Bill Halsey, Publicity Chairman. "We hope that citizens will be generous in sharing."

The Jaycees ask that all toy donations be turned in by December 19 to allow time for repairing and wrapping. They also request that donations that are wrapped bear the designation of male or female and the acceptable age of the recipient of the gift.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Oakland County Road Commission, which has been operating the "Dump" on M-15, north of Clarkston, has notified the Township that operation of the site will be discontinued after Saturday, December 26, 1970.

Midget football games approved

The Clarkston Board of Education approved 3 teachers for tenure at their regular meeting on December 14. Those teachers are Mrs. Nancy Gardner and Keith Poulson, both from the Clarkston Junior High School and Roger Bower from Sashabaw Junior High.

Board member, Richard Funk, was reappointed to serve on the Oakland County Constituent Board. The board will review the 1970-71 budget for Oakland County Schools.

In further action, the Board rescinded the tentative approval which they had granted for participation in the drug program proposed by Michigan Jaycees.

The action came after a mutual recommendation was made by both the local Jaycees and an advisory committee, which had been appointed by the administration.

It was agreed that the district would develop its own program working in conjunction with local committees.

Duane Richardson, representing the Clarkston Booster Club, encouraged the Board of Education to consider the purchase of an exercise machine to be used in the athletic and physical education programs.

The Boosters have volunteered to contribute $1,000 toward the $2,500 purchase price.

The machine is a mechanical device that enables approximately 30 youngsters to exercise at the same time. The exercises have been highly recommended for the development of muscle tone and strength.

The matter was tabled for the present and will be taken under advisement.

Kenneth Ross of Frankwill, representing a committee of 6 people interested in Midget Football, requested the right to use the athletic field on Sunday afternoons during the football season as well as other school fields, for practice purposes.

Ross is the secretary of the Independence Township Football Association, who will sponsor the program.

A Board spokesman said that in as much as the property belongs to the district and is open to all children, permission should be granted with the proviso that all restrictions be observed.

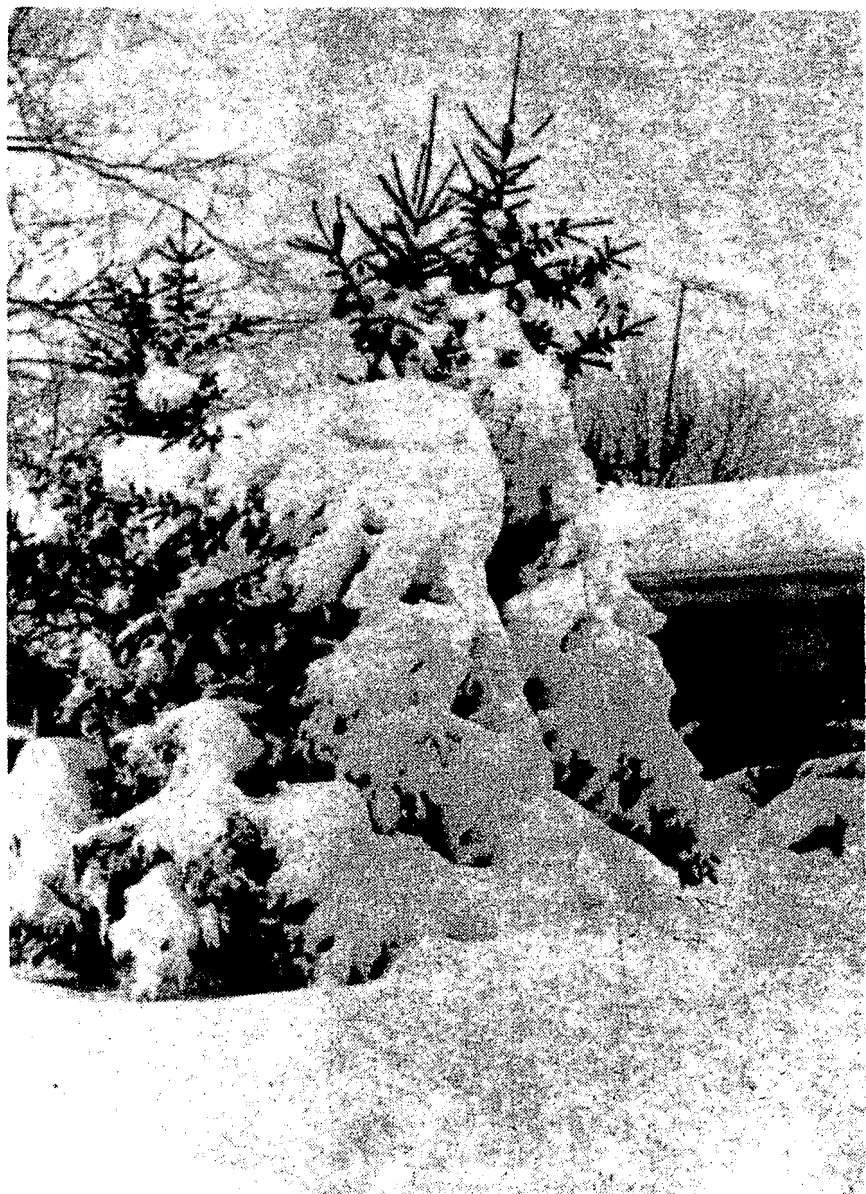

Approval was granted.

Village post petition time

The deadline is coming up for filing nomination petitions for the General Election in Clarkston. Monday, December 28 at 4 p.m. is the deadline. March 8 is the election date.

FROM KEITH HALLMAN

Home Remedies

Every once in a while somebody reminds us of an old "home remedy" or herb medicine that worked wonders for their great-grandparents in the days before "miracle drugs."

Garlic was supposed to be great for high blood pressure, and herb tea was recommended for diabetes and rheumatism. Poultices of lard and black pepper were used to treat asthma, while chestnuts and molasses were a sure cure for the croup.

Most folk medicines sound funny (or revolting) today, but even in their heyday they were so weak as to be of little value. When a doctor couldn't treat his patient in any other way, they were better than nothing. Now, of course, he has safer and more effective drugs at his command.

This doesn't mean there are no values in herb medicine. One whole field of pharmacy is devoted to this subject. We have obtained digitalis from foxglove, and atropine from belladonna; quinine from a bark, and morphine from poppies. These medicines were used long before their true nature was recognized, because our forefathers were shrewd and perceptive enough to observe their effects.

Also, many diseases (such as the common cold) are self-limiting in nature, so the home remedy would be given the credit for a cure that was just the normal outcome of time and rest. The tragedy today is when home treatments are used instead of seeking the proper medical care that would save the patient's life.

What would Christmas be without fresh baked sweet breads for breakfast? Here it is, tried and true.

CHRISTMAS BREAD DOUGH

4 packages activated yeast
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup sugar
7 egg yolks or 3 whole eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
4 to 5 cups flour
½ cup softened butter

Dissolve yeast in 1 cup lukewarm water, add salt and sugar. Stir in eggs, vanilla and lemon rind. Add enough flour to make a soft dough. Work in butter. Add more flour if needed.

Knead dough on floured surface for 10 minutes or until it is shiny and elastic. Place in a floured bowl. Dust the top lightly with flour. Cover bowl with a towel.

Place in a draft-free place to rise for 30 minutes, or until dough doubles in bulk. (The inside of an unlighted oven is ideal.)

Dough has risen enough if it does not spring back when fingers are poked into the center. Punch the dough down. Knead it briefly.

Dough will keep up to four days in a covered container in the refrigerator. At first, it may need punching down every hour or two - so don't make dough at night. Once thoroughly cold, it needs to be punched down once a day.

This dough is used in all the following recipes for sweet breads.

BABKA

Christmas dough
1 cup white raisins
¼ cup brandy
2 to 4 tablespoons heavy cream, lukewarm
1 cup confectioners' sugar

Let dough rise until doubled in bulk. Grease one 10-inch or two 7-inch gugelhupf pans (1 use an angel-food pan). Punch dough down, work in raisins. Fill pan half full. Let dough rise in pan until it doubles again. Bake in moderate oven (375) 45 minutes for 10-inch, 30 minutes for 7-inch, or until deep brown. Remove from pan. Sprinkle with brandy. Add enough cream to sugar to make a thin icing. Brush on warm Babka.

STOLLEN

Christmas dough
¾ cup white raisins
½ cup currants
1 cup mixed, diced candied fruits
¼ cup brandy
1/3 cup blanched, sliced almonds, lightly toasted melted butter
Confectioners' sugar

Mix fruit and brandy. Let stand 1 hour. Drain excess liquid, knead fruit and almonds into dough.

Lightly grease a large baking sheet. Cut dough in half. Roll each piece into an oval 1/3 inch thick. Fold each oval so that bottom edge extends beyond the top. Roll lightly to set fold.

Place ovals well apart on baking sheet. Let rise only until puffy. Brush with butter. Bake in moderate oven (375) for 45 minutes or until brown.

Brush with butter while hot, and again after cakes cool. Dust with sugar. Before serving, sugar again.

SCHNECKEN

Christmas Dough
½ cup soft butter
1½ cups light brown sugar

1 tablespoon white corn syrup or honey
2 cups pecan halves
1 cup currants or raisins
1 cup finely ground pecans
2 teaspoons ground cinnamon

Cream butter with ½ cup sugar. Beat in corn syrup. Grease cups of two 24 muffin tins with mixture. Place pecan halves in muffin cups.

Roll dough into a long rectangle ¼ inch thick. Sprinkle with 1 cup sugar and the currants or raisins, ground pecans and cinnamon. Roll up dough tightly, pressing seam closed, to make a long roll about the diameter of the muffin cups.

Slice roll into pieces which will half fill depth of cups. Place slices in cups and press down firmly. Let rise only until the dough looks puffy.

Bake in moderate oven (375) for 10 minutes or until brown. Turn pans upside down on the cake rack immediately to remove Schnecken from cups and to allow sugar syrup to run over sides. Makes 4 dozen.

Smith-Chester Wed in Pontiac

Sandra Kay, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Smith of Northview Drive, was given in marriage by her father to Philip W. Chester. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chester of Pontiac.

The Rev. Robert Vance performed the November 28 ceremony before a candle-lit altar at the Pontiac Church of God.

The bride wore a hand made gown of ivory lutesong. A juliet cap held her cathedral length veil. She carried white roses.

Linda Braun of Berkley was the maid of honor. Debbie Smith, Joan Arsenault, Linda Ryan, Linda Combs and Karen King were bridesmaids.

The maids were identically gowned in Victorian styled gowns of cranberry red velvet. Their hair was coiffed in the Victorian manner.

Beckie Leffeu was the flower girl and Lynn and Todd Johnston carried the rings.

James Leffeu stood as best man while Dan Sheffer, Ray Brown, Tim Crane, Mike Sheffer and B. Combs seated the guests. Ronald Lemert was the junior groomsman.

They will make their home in Oscoda where the groom is stationed at the Air Force Base.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of Clarkston High School.

Briefly told

Independence Township families are requested to begin saving all waste glass containers for collection early in January.

The "Bottles for Building" committee is presently making progress in working out the details for the collection.

They ask that all containers be washed or rinsed to remove food particles and that all metal be removed. They point out that it is not necessary to remove paper labels.

If you're planning to call your son, husband or special friend in Vietnam this holiday season, ask him to call you instead.

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company reports that it will be a lot easier for him to find a phone than for a phone call to find him.

Arrange a date and time for him to put the call through. It will be best if he calls collect.

The time difference between Eastern Standard Time and Vietnam is 13 hours; when it's 12 noon in Michigan, it's 1 a.m. the next morning in Vietnam.

Provide stockings for children

Mrs. Robert J. Beattie of Kingfisher Lane was hostess to members of the Clarkston Child Study Club on December 3 for their annual Christmas party.

The group discussed plans for providing stockings to children in the area who are receiving shoes from the Rotary Club at Christmas time.

The evening was spent playing Christmas games. An ornament and white elephant exchange was also held.

Mrs. Richard Johnston was co-hostess for the evening.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Bell of Snow Apple Drive.

Happy reading to our new friends.

Just 9 shopping days until Christmas. Have you tried to do most of your buying in your own area? The local stores in Clarkston, Waterford, and Drayton Plains have very find selections this year.

The Clarkston State Bank send out checks totaling $8,350.00 on Dec. 1st to members of its Christmas Club during the past year.

Plans of the B-Square Realty, building contractor and exclusive agents for Clarkston Acres, to build 150 low cost homes one mile east of Clarkston on Waldon Road has been temporarily stopped due to Independence Township Zoning Ordinance. It is hoped that the difficulties can be worked out satisfactorily to the parties concerned in the near future.

Shopping

I think it is safe to assume that most people like to go shopping. I do. Even if you're a general "looker" like me, it's still fun. What better way to indulge yourself than by being a "looker?" Besides, you won't regret this kind of shopping on the tenth of the following month. Thanks to inflation, not only is "looker" shopping more fun, it's even more necessary.

With Christmas fast approaching the shopping crowds have gotten bigger. At today's prices I doubt if they are spending bigger. I picked up a shirt recently that looked good to me. I stopped admiring it when I read the price tag.

I'm probably more of a "looker" shopper than the average person. My job calls for periodic travel. As a result, I've been in most major cities east of the Rocky mountains in the past five years.

If I'm not traveling between cities at night, I kill a lot of time by visiting shopping centers. You don't really need to know where they are located. Just find a major road and start driving. You'll probably hit one at the first major intersection.

Shopping centers are getting very elaborate. I was in one recently that had a giant bird cage right in the center. There were about fifty birds living in it. This center also provided transportation from the front doors to wherever your car was parked.

One mall in Dallas, which is supposed to be the largest in the nation, is constructed according to your pocketbook. It is el shaped and has 154 stores. The stores at one end cater to the more affluent. In one of these shops I saw a toy stuffed giraffe, seven feet tall, selling for $750. As you proceed toward the other end of the el, the prices gradually drop. I thought this layout made sense.

But in all of my "looking," I believe my favorite "looker" place is right here at home. I've heard it affectionately called the Springfield Mall.

You probably don't know it by that name. Drive north on Dixie Highway about a mile or so beyond the I-75 interchange. You'll see it on the right side of the road. It's marked with a sign over the door that reads DISMUSBEDAPLACE.

For a true "looker" spree, this is the place to go. More than once, I've found "things" I've needed that I just couldn't find anyplace else.

I've also found things I didn't need, but they were such bargains I couldn't resist buying them.

Dismusbedaplace. They're right. There isn't any place around this place anything like this place, so dismusbedaplace.

Take it from an expert.

"OF COURSE I KNOW THE VALUE OF A DOLLAR. THAT'S WHY I'M ASKING FOR TWO."

Plumb crazy

By Haslett Hemmor

Looks like the whole batch of raises is going through for the state officials. Poor guys sure do need 'em. Why, in some cases, even with the raises, they'll only be making three-four times what they'd draw working their regular jobs.

Reminds me of the story that was making the rounds in the shop last week. Seems like Doc Bream's wife, Evelyn, called in a plumber. Mike Joseph being in the hospital and all, she called that new outfit, Consumers' Plumbing and Heating.

Guess maybe they don't have too much local work yet, because they sent out a fellow real prompt like. Shakes his head, the fellow does, and says it ain't just a dripping faucet, not just a washer job, got to be refaced.

So old Evelyn says reface it, whatever that means, and the plumber takes the best part of an hour to do the job. Shuts the water off three-four times to test her and says it should be good for years except maybe a washer occasional.

Pulls out his pad and makes out the bill. Thirty-three dollars it was, and old Ev near swooned.

Some mistake here, she says, I didn't order no new water heater. Just put in a simple request to have a leaky faucet fixed.

So this joker says, "Look, lady, we got to cover our minimum expenses or go out of business. You think that we get the loan of that truck out there for free? You somehow got the notion that maybe a couple thousand dollars worth of tools is donated by the Salvation Army? Took me near five years apprentice work at peanuts to wise me up so I can do in twenty minutes what it takes an amateur all day to do and then maybe wrong. Then there's the telephone and the shop rent and the office girl and . . ."

"Didn't mean to give you an invite to tell me all your troubles," Mrs. Doc says. "Just wanted a plain little old faucet fixed and I sure wish I'd waited for our regular plumber, Mike Joseph, to get off the sick list."

Guy just snorts, "See what they're planning to pay our state legislators?" This fellow asks, "See where they're trying to railroad through a raise to bring 'em up to seventeen thou?"

"They're public officials," Evelyn says.

"They got a heap of responsibility and worry on their hands and they have all that expense of living away from home."

"Crumb-bums, that's what they are. Dirty chiselers too lazy to put in a regular day's work. Not one out of a hundred that could pull that kind of dough selling real estate or driving truck or whatever they did before they got elected to the old state gravy train."

"Bet you don't personal know even one," Evelyn snaps. "Just shooting off your mouth and charging people ten times what a job is worth."

"Look, lady, we make a flat charge of $12.50 for a call plus 20c a mile for mileage and our time starts when we leave the shop. Ends when we check back in or we allow enough time to cover return if we got another call."

"It's outrageous," old Ev tells him. "My husband's a good doctor and even he doesn't charge such high rates. Seven years of college and his charges are lower."

"So were mine, lady, when I was a doctor. So were mine, up until six months ago when I got my master plumber's license."

Spiritual Message

CALVARY LUTHERAN CHURCH

Rev. Arlon K. Stubbe

"Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people." St. Luke 1:68.

No doubt you will have company coming this week. Holidays always bring crowds, public and private. No doubt, too, you will spend half of your time this week cleaning up for the guests who will soon arrive.

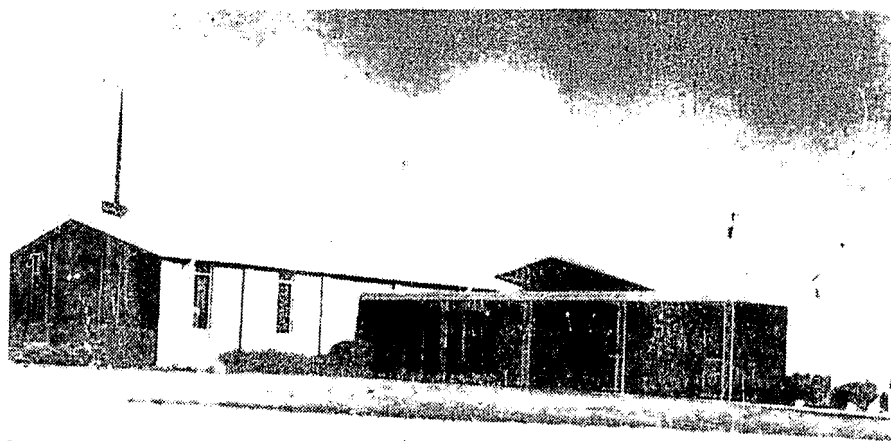

Churches have often complained that Christmas comes at the wrong time of year. People are too busy, too hurried, to notice the coming of Christ. Ministers and lay people alike cry each year, "Put Christ back into Christmas!" (Or, like one church I know, they move the birth celebration of Jesus to July, so it will have less competition.)

It would seem that we have missed the point of it all. The word "holiday" comes from "holy day." Any day on which God visits us has become a holi-day, just by His being there.

It might not be too far-fetched to suggest that we go on with our festivities. Rush about buying presents! Search for that special tree, and decorate it to the hilt! Wire Aunt Jane and Uncle Joe and all the rest that the turkey or ham is in the "fridge" and just can't wait! Clean the house 'til you're physically exhausted!

And then, just before the company comes, take time to set one more place at the table (maybe even a baby chair) . . . really; let that remind everyone that God is visiting this week too; a fellow celebrator by the name of Jesus, from Nazareth and Bethlehem.

Wolves shoot down Barons 58-52

By Craig Moore

The Clarkston Wolves' Varsity picked up their initial league win in Wayne-Oakland play on Friday, December 11 by shooting down Bloomfield's Barons, 58-52.

The Barons had to work hard for a good shot against the Clarkston defense. Poor shooting often killed their offensive effort.

This was true in the opening quarter when Don Brown, game's high scorer with 25 points, and Gary White sparked the Wolves to a 12-1 lead. The first quarter ended 17-10 for Clarkston.

Bloomfield pressed in the second quarter which forced several Clarkston turnovers. The Barons managed to tie the score 23-all before Brown led the Wolves into a 33-26 advantage at the half.

The Barons held a slim 45-44 margin at the end of the third quarter.

At the start of the fourth quarter, Ted Karbownik pumped in 2 consecutive buckets, which put Clarkston in the lead to stay as Brown gained control of the backboards. 58-52 was the final score.

Brown totaled 12 rebounds and was supported by Gary White, who grabbed 7.

Coach Hanson said, "We had some very good streaks of team play, especially in the first and fourth quarters. Defense hustled. There were lapses in the third quarter that cost, but the team recovered nicely in the fourth." He continued, "Shooting was by far better in this game than in the other two. We scored 44.9% from the floor and 62% at the foul line."

Clarkston's Wayne-Oakland League record is now 1-1. Overall the team is 1-2.

The Wolves will meet Hamtramck on Tuesday, December 15 and travel to Clarenceville the following Friday. The JV game starts at 6:30 and the Varsity game follows.

The JV took an early lead in their game and held it to bomb the JV Barons, 62-45.

The Wolves' zone defense in the first half kept the Barons from shooting.

As a result of this defense, Bloomfield scored only 7 points to Clarkston's 13 in the first quarter.

The Wolves increased their advantage to 28-16 at the half.

Bloomfield got a defensive surprise in the second half. They had barely adjusted to the zone defense when Clarkston came out with a man-to-man defense in the third quarter.

The Wolves stretched their lead to 19 points at the three quarter mark and finished the game 62-45 for the win.

Larry Miracle, who led in scoring with 22 points, also grabbed 12 rebounds.

Coach Pierson commented, "Our real weapon was a varied defense. This was a great team effort and I feel we give a good showing for the first home game of the season."

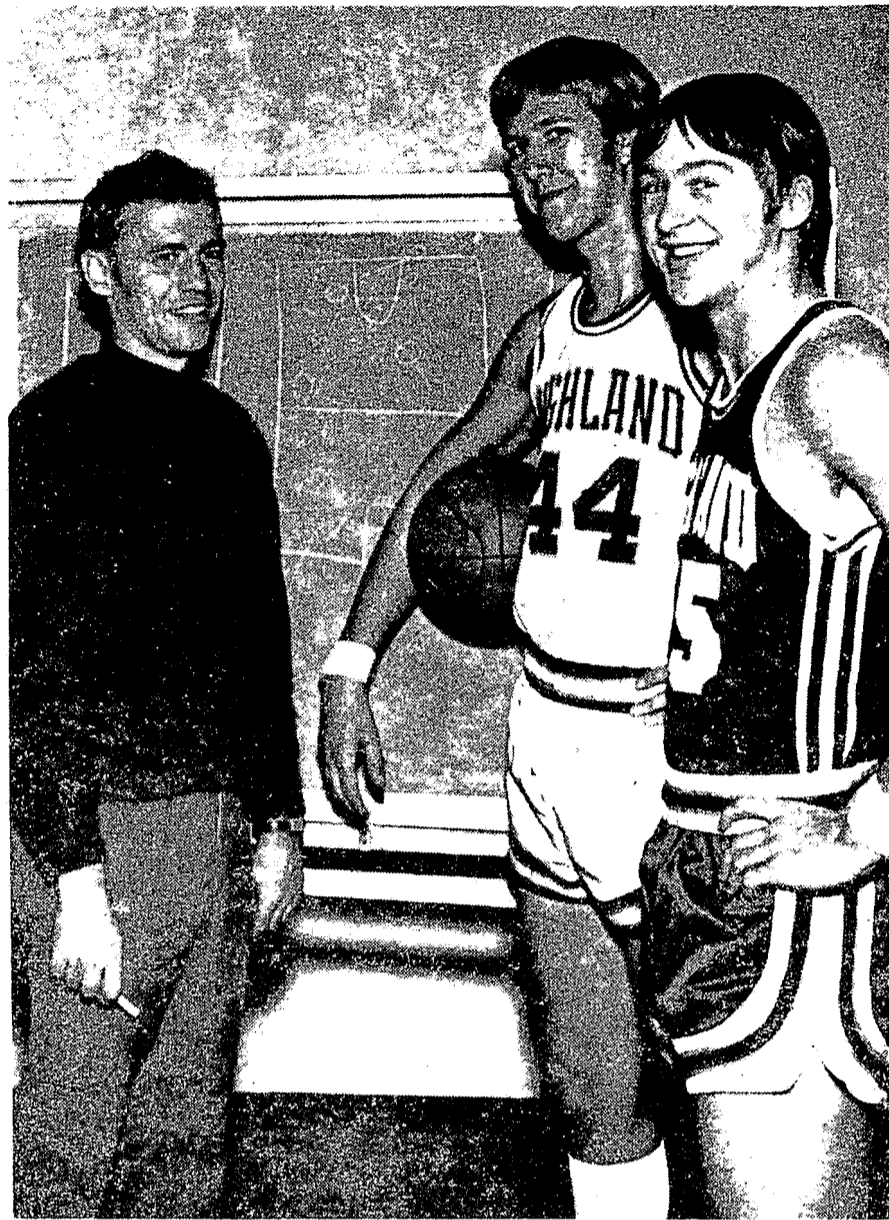

This victory gives the JV a 2-1 record.

Oakland-Highland Lakes basketball coach, Lynn Reed, left, completes his chalk talk. Players Chuck Granger, center, and Dave Kelley (who both played for CHS) are ready to go into action.

Wolverines win first 2 games

By Lynn Surre

Clarkston Junior High opened its 1970-71 9th grade basketball season with 2 victories. On Saturday, Dec. 5, the Wolverines defeated their inter-school rival, Sashabaw Jr. High, by the score of 58 to 45. Scoring leaders were Gary Mason, 20 points and Steve Mauti and Tom Anderson, 13 points each.

The Clarkston Junior High School

Wolverines sped past the Scotts of Milford Highland, 82-39 in their second game of the season. As the first string started building their lead, coach Dave McDonald started putting in substitutes.

As a result, every player came off the bench and scored some points. The score was 52-16 at the half and the Wolverines coasted to the win.

Clarkston prep players star at O.C.C.

The Highlanders of Oakland-Highland Lakes will be counting on a former Clarkston High School standout when they go after the Auburn Hills Christmas Basketball Classic title next week at Oakland University.

Expected to be in the starting lineup is 6-4 sophomore Chuck Granger, one of the leading scorers on last year's squad.

Granger and his teammates are off to one of the squad's poorest starts in years they're now 1-4 - but they're hopeful of making a come-back at O.U.

Eight teams are slated for action in the classic. Four games are scheduled daily with the championship game at 8 p.m. on Wednesday.

In the opening round Monday, Highland Lakes takes on Muskegon at 8 p.m., while defending champion Highland Park meets Oakland-Orchard Ridge at 6 p.m.

"Granger has been coming along well," says coach Lynn Reed. "We haven't done much on offense, but our defense is strong and Granger is one of our best."

A couple other area players who could see some action in the Classic are 6-1 Dave Kelley, a graduate of Clarkston, and Pat McColgan of Waterford Our Lady of Lakes. Both are freshmen.

Admission daily at the Classic is $1. Parking is free at the OU Activities Building. The campus is located just off Walton Boulevard near Rochester.

Enroll students for swim session

Registrations are now being taken for the 2nd session of the Jaycees' "Waterproof Clarkston" swim program.

The Clarkston Junior High School office will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. on December 17, 18 and 21 to enroll interested children.

This session will run for 8 weeks and will begin on January 9.

All children in the Clarkston school district who are 4 foot 6 inches tall or more are eligible.

Transportation will be provided by the Clarkston Schools and will be chaperoned by the local Jaycee chapter with the assistance of parents.

Students will be required to furnish their own swim suits, towels and pay $4 to cover the cost of the 8 sessions.

Bus pick-up assignments will be made at a later date.

Clarkston Jr Hi honors athletes

Approximately 450 students and parents attended Clarkston Junior High's fall sports dessert banquet last Wednesday. Awards were given in boys' football and to 9th grade cheerleaders. Athletic director, William Potvin, was the master of ceremonies. The main speaking duties were handled by Roy Warner and Paul Rakow, the varsity football coaches.

The 7th grade flag football program was directed by Gerald Granlund with over 50 boys participating. The Raiders won the championship with a 6-1 record. The most valuable 7th grade player was Mike Fahrner and runner-up was Scott Searight.

In the 8th grade intramural tackle program, over 80 boys participated and were coached by Dennis Bronson, Cliff Irwin and Roger Petri. The Vikings, coached by Mr. Irwin, won the championship with a 5-1 record. George Porritt won the most valuable player award with Chris Vosie the runner-up.

Mrs. Nancy Gardner presented cheerleading necklaces to the Wolverine cheerleaders, who in turn presented Mrs. Gardner with a dozen roses.

In the 9th grade interscholastic program, the Wolverines played to a 4-3 season by defeating Sashabaw Junior High twice, Avondale and Milford Highland, while losing to Pierce, Milford Muir and West Bloomfield. The Wolverines were coached by Dave McDonald and Dave Bihl.

Each of the 44 boys on the team received their "C" letter, a golden football pin and their high school graduation numerals, "74."

Special awards were given to: Kent Thorn, most valuable; Marc Harris, most valuable lineman; Ken Foster, most improved; Bill Trim, most improved, runner-up.

Matmen bow to Northville

After Clarkston wrestlers again suffered a dual meet defeat, this time on Thursday night to conference member Northville, the team snapped back to place in the annual Waterford Invitational tournament on Sat., Dec. 12 at Waterford Mott High School.

The host team, Mott, tied down the first place trophy with Waterford Kettering placing second and Clarkston edging Haslett for third.

Coach Dick Moscovic took 3 boys into the finals for the gold, and finished out the day with 3 champions.

At 98 pounds, Mike Packer scored his ninth win in 9 starts this year to win his third tournament in as many Saturdays. At 112 pounds, Rick Detkowski for the second Saturday in a row again won his weight class, defeating the No. 1 seeded wrestler from Mott.

Al Knake came out on top at 167 pounds, having a good day. Scoring two pins in preliminaries, he defeated a tough Waterford Township wrestler in the finals.

In the consolation finals, team points were picked up for third places when Kirk Dougherty won a tight one at 126 pounds; Mark Willis scored a fall for his bronze medal at 185 pounds; and Mark Hoxie pinned his man at heavyweight. One fourth place was secured by Dave Richards at 138 pounds.

Thursday, Dec. 17 they have scheduled a dual league meet with Clarenceville at home. The 32 school Oakland County Christmas tournament will be held at Oakland University on Fri., Dec. 18 and Sat., Dec. 19.

The Clarkston team will enter the competition with one wrestler, Mike Packer, seeded first and Al Knake seeded fourth.

This meet will afford a good opportunity for a potential fan to see some fine wrestling, as this tourney presents some of the best Michigan has to offer.

Protest pay hike

The State Officers Compensation Commission on Dec. 4 recommended wage increases for unclassified elected officials.

Last week Representatives Loren D. Anderson and Powell offered a concurrent resolution.

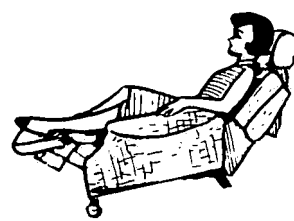

Their resolution, No. 578, pointed out that financial hardship, already effected by the recent strikes, makes the increase unwarranted at this time.

They further contended that they could not concur with the raise when it was felt necessary to delete $62 million from the present budget.

Armchair travels

from Kim Beattie

Dear Folks:

Last Wednesday our only class was art and our art teacher wasn't there! We all went to the Historische Museum here in Hannover instead. On Thursday morning the girls didn't come to class at all because they were all over at Herr Bungenstab's apt. cooking our Thanksgiving dinner.

After class all of the boys went and played a game of football with a real American football we got. It made it seem a little more like Thanksgiving, anyway.

That night we had the most amazing feast with about 50 pounds of delicious turkey, all the dressing and mashed potatoes that you could possibly dream of, sweet potatoes, green beans, corn and about 8 pumpkin pies.

Everyone ate so much and there was still a little bit left. Then afterwards, Herr Bungenstab started brewing these wild concoctions with wine and a burning sugar cone that burned and melted into the wine when he poured rum over it. It tasted really good.

Speaking of brewing up things, tomorrow we are making a tour of a brewery here in Hannover. Tonight we are going to listen to Herr Bungenstab give a lecture to his old fraternity.

The kids that were going to Copenhagen got turned back at the border because they didn't have any passports. Two guys who were trying to go to Amsterdam got turned back too.

Glad that we stayed in Germany because all of them turned green with envy when they heard about our fantastic trip.

Our plans for Christmas time have been changed now, which really doesn't surprise me. We're staying in Hannover for three days when we get back from Moscow, to celebrate Christmas with our families (Mike, Bruce and I). The 24th is the Holy Day and the 25th is the celebrating day.

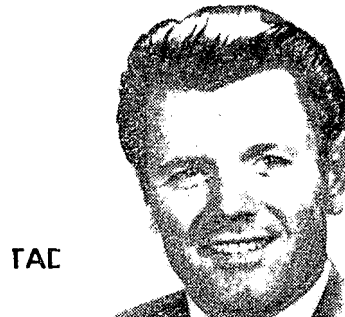

We're leaving on the morning of the 25th. I think that I will call you the night of the 23rd. I'm quite sure that we are exactly 6 hours apart. My plan is to call from here at 1 a.m. on the 24th, which would make it 7 p.m. on the 23rd for you.

Now, we'll be spending New Year's in Innsbruck, Austria and Bruce and I are going to ski the whole day of the 31st there. Boy, we can't wait.

Please don't expect any gifts from me, as I haven't seen anything that I've wanted to buy any of you. Your Christmas presents may well come home on the plane with me in March, for all I know right now.

I'm enclosing our full schedule for Christmas vacation. Here is my itinerary for Christmas vacation.

Dec. 17, leave for Moscow; Dec. 20, get to Berlin; Dec. 21, arrive back in Hannover. Dec. 26, Munich; 27, Vienna; 29, Salzburg; 30, Innsbruck. Jan. 2, Florence; Jan. 4-8, Rome; 8-9, Venice; Jan. 10, return to Hannover.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor:

In its most trying year, the Torch Drive has once again gone comfortably over the top. Despite a year-long economic slowdown, unemployment, the General Motors strike and the pressures of inflation, this community has once again asserted confidence in the United Foundation and its willingness to care for its own. And backed them with $30.4 million.

Surely, the UF's success this year must be attributed to communication. Volunteer workers and contributors must understand the purposes and advantages of the UF in order to respond with enthusiasm and generosity. Communication with workers and contributors brought this vital understanding.

Your newspaper helped greatly to bring about this understanding by informing your readers about the Torch Drive and the services it supports.

John J. Nevin, the general chairman; Timmy Jones, 8, our Torchlighter, and the thousands of others who worked so hard to make this year's drive succeed are most grateful for your outstanding support.

Sincerely yours,
John W. Fisher

Navy plays post office

By Jim Fitzgerald

Just as I was trying to figure how many 6-packs I could buy with $98.5 million, I received this thrilling communication from the U.S. Navy. It said:

"Manned Spacecraft Recovery Forces of the U.S. Navy will provide commemorative cachet and cancellation services for the upcoming Apollo 14 manned flight to the moon. Philatelic coordinators designated for the Atlantic and Pacific Fleet Recovery Forces (Task Force 140 and 130) will receive all such covers and make distribution to assigned recovery ships."

Huh?

This was obviously classified information. Otherwise, why would it have been sent in code? Fortunately, I know a bartender who used to be an admiral. He decoded the message for me.

I was most interested in learning what a "philatelic coordinator" is. It sounds almost erotic. But no, worse luck. According to the ex-admiral, a philatelic coordinator is the officer who orders the enlisted men to lick the stamps.

What the Navy was trying to tell me is that we're going to the moon again in January, whoopee!, and the Navy will cancel my 8-cent stamp in memory of the billion-dollar event. News like that certainly makes me feel a lot better about paying taxes. It is comforting to realize that out there somewhere there is a philatelic coordinator ready to serve me.

Briefly, it works like this: After leaving the moon, astronauts always land in the water. This is to give the Navy something to do. You can't row a boat to Mars, you know. What the Navy does is fish the astronauts out of the water and loan them a razor. An admiral also answers the phone and says "Hey astronaut, it's for you" when President Nixon calls.

It goes without saying that every True American wants his stamp cancelled by the post office located in the ship that picks up the astronauts. And the postmark should be the same date as the pickup, of course. So get your blank stamp and self-addressed cover to your friendly neighborhood philatelic coordinator soon. Apollo 14 goes up next month.

All of which is just darling. But how about that Orbiting Astronomical Observatory which carried the world's largest space telescope into the atmosphere the other day? It was the most expensive scientific payload ever built. The telescope was supposed to provide the clearest picture yet of the little stars twinkling. But something went wrong, the nose cone didn't jettison, and the whole schmeer turned into a $98.5 million fizzle.

That grand telescope is now in pieces, possibly at the bottom of the Indian Ocean. If the Navy ever recovers the remains, I trust a philatelic coordinator will be present to cancel our stamps for us.

In the meantime, I'll be darned if I'm smart enough to figure how many 6-packs $98.5 million would buy. In fact, I'm so dumb I can't even understand how my country can afford to shoot billions of bucks into the air but can't afford to feed every hungry mouth and plug every polluting smokestack.

Ah, there'll be a day when I'll want my stamp cancelled but I'm not going to live that long. I hope there's a philatelic coordinator somewhere over the rainbow, in the great Military Post Office in the sky. †
