Jim's Jottings

By Jim Sherman

If there was ever an argument against the stand - "Set a higher pay for the job and you get better men" - it is the current legislature in Lansing. Both bodies.

The stands are few, accomplishments nil. The year passed without a budget. There have been no major bills passed, unless they call allowing wider house trailers to travel the roads a major bill.

The only group accomplishing less is the county commissioners, and as I recall we pay them $10,000 a year.

Put down "expertise" as the latest over-used word by public officials.

Country and western singers have thin-line upper lips.

Wouldn't it be nice to go out this afternoon, put a golf tee in the ground and have the feeling that you could play a round in comfort?

If a beard were a sign of smartness, the goat would be Socrates.

If you have a folding water bed, would you keep it in a water closet?

It's like the old man said: It used to be wine, women and song - now it's bingo, buttermilk and the old lady.

RESIGNS - Jack Hagen resigned his position as Councilman for the village of Clarkston Thursday night. He said his reasons were "personal." Hagen, a Democrat, was first elected to the Council in March, 1968. He was re-elected 2 years later. He has lived here 34 years and is vice president of Infra-corporation on Dixie Highway.

Pass local law against disorderly conduct

An ordinance designed to give police authority to deal with loitering and disorderly persons in public places has been passed by the Clarkston council. The new law prohibits and defines disorderly conduct and provides penalties for those found guilty of violating it.

Specifically, 40 descriptions are given of acts that are prohibited. The penalty for the guilty is up to $500 fine, 90 days in jail or both. The law takes effect July 21. The complete ordinance appears in this issue of the News.

Robert Boynton used the flag for many things, including being patriotic whether he knew it or not. He's the 15-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boynton of Ann Arbor and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William Mansfield of Clarkston road.

June glass collection nets 55 tons

Bottles for Building reported 55 tons of household glass trash were sent to Charlotte's glass recycling plant in June. A breakdown of tonnage by the four townships follows: Independence-28 1/2 tons, Waterford-18 1/2 tons, Brandon-Groveland-4 tons and Lake Orion-4 tons. Independence is assuming the transportation costs and paying the outlying areas $10.00 a ton. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. pays $20.00 a ton. Smaller communities are not financially able to ship small amounts of glass.

Next collection will be July 17 with the Fraternal Order of Eagles acting as volunteer collectors.

Richard Ankersen, specialist in solid waste disposal will be the speaker at a regional Bottles for Building meeting, July 12, 1971.

Ankersen will present a slide program to representatives and interested public on new disposal techniques. Ankersen acted as a consultant and inventor in the solid waste program adopted in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The meeting will be held in the Clarkston High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. The public is welcome to attend and hear Mr. Ankersen's approach to the mounting garbage problem we are faced with.

Swimming classes offered

The Independence Township Recreation Department is sponsoring a pilot swimming program to determine the possibility of using private pools for community swimming instruction. Dr. and Mrs. Al Hamilton, 6076 Middle Lake Road, have provided the use of their pool for this program which will run for 5 days a week for 3 weeks.

The program will get under way with a testing on July 9. Classes will be held from 8 a.m. until 12 noon, Monday through Friday, July 12-16, July 19-23, and July 26-30.

Qualified instructors, Nancy Watson and Tom Larson, will be heading the daily sessions. Each swimmer enrolled in the program will be required to pay $10.50 to cover the costs of the 15 day one hour classes.

There will be no more than 8 beginners and 5 intermediate swimmers in each class.

Advance registration must be made before July 8. Regular registration will take place on that date at the Clarkston Special Services Building (next to the High School-old Board of Education office) between 6 and 8 p.m.

Checks should be made for the $10.50 amount to the Independence Township Recreation Director, Robert Brumbach.

Jaycette summer schedule heavy

The Clarkston area Jaycettes met for their June membership meeting at the home of Shanna Nadolsky on Holcomb Street.

Committee chairmen reported that the months of June and July would be filled with activities.

In addition to entering a float in the July 5th parade the club held a bake sale on the same day.

Jaycette members also performed as clowns and pick-a-pocket ladies.

The members will serve coffee and doughnuts to the workers at the July 11 Village Clean-up.

The committee members in charge of the "Jobs for Teens" reported that just 10 girls had been placed in jobs during the 17 days the program had been in operation.

In the first 23 days of the 1969 program 15 girls were placed.

Numbers to call starting July 12 are: Nancy Tilley, 625-5759; Gwen Wilton, 625-2009; Donna Draper, 625-1785; Nancy Ward, 625-1955; and Judy Gorrie, 625-1738.

Area residents who desire the services of a teen-aged girl are urged to take advantage of the service.

Upper Mill Pond filling up

The upper Mill Pond is unsafe for swimming, it's polluted and filling with silt. People living on this water have been concerned about it for some time, and now have a commitment from the township to help.

A group of Pond residents, led by Jules Ruerat of Buttercup street, explained their case to the Board Tuesday night.

Supervisor Gary Stonerock helped their cause when he read a report from 1959 that the Pond was unsafe, healthwise, for swimming.

Ruerat said a recent health dept. test showed the water heavily polluted. In health dept. language, the ideal reading is 1,000 MPN. The upper Pond is 3300 MPN.

Slides were shown of the Pond, which is split in half between the village and township, during the time the water was let out of the dam. It showed silt 3 to 4 feet deep. When the water is in, there is 3 or 4 feet of water above the silt.

Residents say the Pond started filling when I-75 was put through. They claim the flow of the Clinton River was changed, slowed, allowing the silt to settle.

Too, the grading and filling involved in building the road created more silt, the residents said.

The Pond is slowly filling up and the residents are asking for help from whatever quarter they can get it. An estimate of removing the silt a few years ago was $40,000.

The people are asking the township and village to lend their louder voices for whatever state and federal monies might be available to help.

A committee was named to get the program under way. Ruerat will be joined by trustee Keith Humbert, Mike Burdick, 180 Glenburnie, and B.J. Mann, 107 Wömpole. They hope the village Council, which hasn't been contacted, will also name a member to the committee.

Stonerock announced that the Standard Oil Co. has requested a permit to build a station at the corner of Bluegrass and M-15. There'll be a hearing.

***
Carolyn Place, of Chickadee, and Norm Schaller, of Waterford Hill, have been named to the Planning Commission. This gives the Commission a full compliment of members, nine.

The others are George Woody, Jean Bray, Jack Belby, Mel Vaara, Whitey Towers, Keith Humbert and Joe Rhoades, chairman.

Barring something unforeseen, a man whose home is Calcutta, India, will become the new librarian here. His name is Sushil Lahiri and he was recommended by the library advisory board. He has several degrees including one in library science. The job pays $7800.

news

By Mark Cowen

Bailey Lake Playground receives this week's focus as the feature playground. Three very enthusiastic high school seniors supervise the 74 children who have been attending this playground the past three weeks.

Last week, Kim Blasey, a cheerleader; Jane Weaver, GAA president, and basketball player, Gary White, tried especially hard to bring excitement to the hundred-degree-plus mornings.

After a competitive four square tournament, the properly-attired children engaged in an outdoor water balloon fight. The next day the children exhibited their Picasso hands, while transforming Gary's gravel trailer into a parade float.

Along with creating, the children spent most of their time in various supervised sports: dodge ball, softball and relay races, in addition to the official stand-by, four-square.

Mothers have also been very cooperative, having baked cookies almost daily for the playground. Yet the children themselves determine the final success of an activity, by their enthusiastic involvement, or lack of.

This playground then, has all the elements for beneficial enjoyment, children, parents, supervisors, sports and art. These five remind those Bailey Lake children, not attending playground, of the fun that could also be a part of their summers.

The week of July 12 to 19 all playgrounds will feature girls' softball competition, boys' volleyball, relays and paper mache in arts and crafts.

TWO BOYS AND 2 St. Bernard puppies made a mighty full wagon.

17th annual fair set at St. Mary's

St. Mary's-in-the-Hills will hold their 17th. annual Country Fair on July 17 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The fair will be held on the Church grounds at 2512 Joslyn Road, just south of Antique Village. Plenty of parking will be available according to a spokesman for the committee.

"We have even sprayed against mosquitoes," said Mrs. E. D. Thomson of Clarkston who is in charge of publicity.

Mrs. Thomson reports that the usual auction will be run by local auctioneer, Bud Hickmott. There will be colorful booths, food to snack on or take home. An antique fire engine will provide rides for children and helicopter rides will be available.

Dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. Tickets for the meal will cost $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

All proceeds from the fair will be used to support the church.

Pest Control Runs on Time

The time insecticide is applied, not the amount, may be the key to effective garden insect pest control. Insects spend their lives in cycles and most cycles have a "weak link." Failure to control at the proper time may lead to disappointing results.

Lawn Moles Controlled

To get rid of moles, get rid of their main food source. Moles feed mainly on grubs. The recommended method of destroying grubs is properly applying granular chlordane. This works both as a control and at reducing environmental contamination.

What have our leaders done?

Who will fight the next war the United States is involved in?

Between the Supreme Court decision permitting anyone with a religious belief against wars to be ineligible for the draft . . . and . . . the Pentagon papers showing how our presidents lied to us, who, indeed, will die for their country?

Who will believe any man or woman who is president after what has been revealed in the Pentagon papers?

Will you let your son go to Vietnam?

And, getting down to a closer to home question . . . How much wider is the gap now between us and our sons who are at or nearing draft age?

We, who maybe had misgivings about the war in southeast Asia, but acknowledged our leader's call.

We, who accepted the domino theory of communist takeover.

We, who listened and believed as our president said a vote for his opposition would be a vote for war . . . and have now found that on the same day he made the speech in Detroit he went back to Washington and planned to escalate the war.

We, who disagreed with our sons as they opposed the war with the

Bury me not

By Jim Fitzgerald

And then I wrote . . .

A Massachusetts man has been buried beneath the 18th green at his favorite golf course. I guess, he was dead.

If I am ever buried on a golf course it will be because I committed suicide there and no one would drag my body away.

Golf is an incredibly stupid game. Hit a ball and then look for it and then hit it again. I don't know why I play. Tennis is really my game but I can never get a court. It has been 24 years since I played tennis which will give you an idea how crowded the courts are — and how hard I've tried to get one.

I often tell people I was once tennis champ of Port Huron. Usually, I tell them after I play golf with them. I want them to understand that golf is too slow a game for an athlete of my vigorous abilities. Any old man can play golf, I tell them with a sneer as I pay what I owe for losing 18 holes, 3 balls and 1 friend who was my partner.

"Yes," the golfers with my money usually say, "but fat old men can't play tennis so it is easy to see why you switched to golf."

That's another thing I've discovered about golf — a lot of wise guys play it. They are always saying things that upset my game and my stomach.

For instance, I slam my usual drive smack down the center, at least 30 feet. "That won't hurt you," says Harvey Hustler. What he means is that lousy drive won't kill me, it will just leave me maimed and limping. It is the lousiest shot he ever saw and 15 more just like it might get me on the green which is that pretty patch of grass with the hole in it in case I've never been there before.

Another thing Harvey often says is, "You had the distance." This means I should have hit the ball 200 yards and, by golly, I did hit it 200 yards. The trouble is I should have hit it north but I hit it south.

The reverse of this comes when Harvey says, "You hit it right on line." This means I pounded that ball straight at the hole, 350 yards away. But the ball went only 20 yards.

And at the end of the game as he takes my money, Harvey explains that I got a lot of tough breaks out there today, while he was lucky, and if a couple of putts had dropped for me it would have been a different story, falls, and any game is getting better all the time and I'm sure to get my money back next week.

Harvey knows it wouldn't help my game if I were Arnold Palmer's little brother. He knows if a long putt had dropped for me I would have got 7 on the hole, instead of 8. He knows I have been playing the stupid game for 15 years and I still address the ball as if I'm afraid it will attack my right foot. He knows all these things but he still mouths the bologna for fear I might quit playing him and he'd have to get his booze money by some more honorable means — such as pawning his mother's wheelchair.

The only time Harvey's language gets precise is when he asks for my score on a hole.

"Let's see," I say, and then I get a faraway look in my eyes and move my lips slowly as my mind backtracks through 2 traps, the right rough, the woods on the left, a rockpile, the freeway, the bushes by the pro shop and that lake where 2 fishermen threatened to sue. "I think I got a 5."

"You got an 11," Harvey says, and writes it down — in ink. I don't know what bugs me worse, his fountain pen or the money changer he wears on his belt.

But back to the Massachusetts man. I wasn't kidding. His name was Edward Faber and his ashes are buried beneath the 18th green at Stow Acres Country Club in Stow, Mass. Cremation was necessary because the greenskeeper didn't want lumps in the green.

Faber requested the unusual burial site in his will. "He just loved the game so much and this is what he really wanted," his widow explained.

Owners of the club are so enthusiastic about the idea they plan to erect a plaque to mark the grave. The possibilities do appear promising. Why not a grave or two at every green, and perhaps some by the traps and rough? A guy wouldn't mind attending a funeral if he could chip up onto the burying surface. Of course, the undertaker would have to add a few services — such as caddies for pallbearers — but I'm sure all such problems could be solved with a minimum of keeping.

Just so long as slow funerals allow faster funerals to play through.

Onward and Upward.

Letters to the Editor

"What I write is the truth,"

says Marie Brendle

Dear Editor:

I am one of the property owners and taxpayers who is not guilty of being lax in attending township functions. I don't rely on the local paper.

I get my information right from the horse's mouth (Township board officials) every first and third Tuesday as others do, whose only interest is good government. I am curious too but in regards to the change in an incumbent.

I have worked for the Republican party in this township for over 13 years. Working hand in hand with the republican officials. For your information and others in this last election (Nov.) all my source of information came from Mr. Altman including how to set-up a Split-Ticket.

Electors vote these men in to make decisions that will improve our township by their knowledge of use of land for development and progress not personal differences.

When good government is unfair or not in the best interest of the majority in the community, then the public should know.

I am paid by the township board as a republican canvasser of voters and I consider it an honor and privilege and take my job seriously. I am on my second term of serving. I was offered a job in the township office but refused it.

It's sad when people don't broaden their friendship to include those who have knowledge and are interested in their community functions and who give a few hours of their time to attend these meetings.

These people are the only ones that have a right to voice their opinion because they're knowledgeable, and can speak with authority.

Before you pass judgement on the new officials, why not go and find out for yourself. Take five minutes of your time and go to the township office and ask questions of your officials.

Don't rely on others or the paper to do your duty as a citizen if you are sincere in your interest in good government. When synopsis of a meeting is printed, that's all you get.

This applies to our eighteen year old voters. Before the next election go and find out for yourself about the men that govern your township, ask questions of them and attend some of the meetings. Acquire your knowledge yourself.

I can understand you being curious but the rest of your letter you answered yourself in your first paragraph. What I write is the truth and I guess I should write more frequently to keep you stay at home taxpayers informed.

Marie C. Brendle

Junior golfers make good showing

Young golfers from the Independence Township area made a strong showing in the recent Oakland Junior Invitational Golf Tournament held at Waterford Hill Golf Club.

The 3 day medal play event divided contestants in 4 age brackets, and was played over both a Par 3 and a regulation course.

Nine year old Eric Booker of Holcomb Street picked up a 4th place in the 11 and under category with a 136. Tim Hertler had a 166.

Kim Raedeke took a 3rd in the girls' 11 and under, with a 192.

Fined

An Independence Township trustee was found guilty of exceeding the basic speed law on April 17 while driving the Township truck for the Bottles for Building Campaign.

According to the records of Judge Gerald McNally's 52 District Court, Keith Humbert, 6440 Snow Apple was ordered to pay $15 and was released.

The ticket came as the result of an accident that occurred on Sashabaw Road between I-75 and Pine Knob Resort entrance. Humbert told State Police that he failed to see signals on the car ahead that had stopped before turning into the drive at 7165 Sashabaw. The truck swerved, hit the soft shoulder and upset.

Humbert had pleaded not guilty to the charge.

John Anderson, 13, of Kingfisher, lines up a putt which gave him a 43-37 in the opening round of the Oakland Junior Golf Invitational. Tending the pin is Don Short, 15, of Rattalee Lake Road. Don shot a 40-42.

Honeymoon in Pocono Mountains

Wearing gowns of pink and white dotted swiss that they had made, the bridal attendants for Debra Gay Cohoon preceded her to the altar as she became the bride of Willard L. Vallance.

Rev. Price performed the candlelight ceremony that united the couple at the Central United Methodist Church in Pontiac on July 3.

Debra chose a floor-length A-line gown with long sheer sleeves and train trimmed in lace. She carried roses and carnations.

Mary Davis of Clarkston was the maid of honor. Mrs. Robert Silverburg and Mrs. Chris Hineman of Detroit, both cousins of the bride, were the bridesmaids. The bride's sister, Linda Cohoon was the Jr. bridesmaid and Kim Watson of Pontiac was the flower girl.

Michael Lesko was the best man and ushers were Russell and George Vallance, Ron Dibble, Roger Crotts and Robert Silverburg.

They will make their home in Clarkston.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood J. Cohoon of Waumegah Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. Willard J. Vallance of Pontiac are the parents of the groom.

Kutting Korners

A reader asked if we knew the recipe for an old favorite. She had lost the recipe for the Tunnel of Fudge Cake. Here it is and if you have never tried it start now.

TUNNEL OF FUDGE CAKE

1½ cups of soft butter
6 eggs
1½ cups sugar
2 cups flour
1 package double dutch fudge buttercream frosting mix
2 cups chopped walnuts (I prefer pecans)

Cream butter in large bowl at high speed with electric mixer. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Gradually add sugar; continue creaming at high speed until light and fluffy.

By hand, stir in flour, frosting mix and nuts until well blended. Pour batter into greased bundt pan or 10 inch angel food tube pan. Bake at 350 degrees 60 to 65 minutes. Cool two hours; remove from pan. Cool completely before serving. Since cake has a soft fudgy interior, test for doneness after 60 minutes by observing dry, shiny, brownie type crust.

***

Somebody else inquired about the grand winner of a flour company contest. It was Pecan Pie Surprise Bars and here it is.

PECAN PIE SURPRISE BARS

1 package (18½ oz.) butter or yellow cake mix
½ cup butter or margarine, melted
1 egg
Filling
1 cup chopped pecans

Generously grease bottom and sides of 13x9 in. baking pan. Reserve 2/3 cup dry cake mix for filling. In large mixing bowl, combine remaining dry cake mix, butter and 1 egg; mix, until crumbly. Press in prepared pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes or until light golden brown. Meanwhile, prepare filling. Pour filling over partially baked crust; sprinkle with pecans. Return to oven and bake for 30 to 35 minutes until filling is set. Cool. Cut into 3 dozen bars.

FILLING

2/3 cup reserved cake mix
½ cup firmly packed brown sugar
1½ cups dark corn syrup
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 eggs

In large mixer bowl, combine all ingredients; beat at medium speed one to 2 minutes.

Laura Soncrant has garden wedding

Mrs. Russell L. Piering

The Rev. Henry W. Powell officiated at the afternoon wedding, in the garden of Addison Oaks in Lake Orion, that united Judy Soncrant and Russell L. Piering in matrimony.

Laura chose a floor length white peau de soi gown that was accented with baby blue ribbon and white eyelet. Her long veil of illusion was trimmed in the same fashion. She carried a bouquet of blue fiji mums, white roses and baby's breath.

Her sister, Mrs. Linda Kolaz of Davisburg was the matron of honor and wore a gown of blue nylon.

Mrs. Beverly Howey of Clarkston and Mrs. Brenda Hamilton of Flint were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns of yellow and pink respectively.

Richard Piering was the best man and Charles Reddich Jr. and Lawrence Thompson were ushers.

The reception followed the ceremony in the gardens of Addison Oaks after which the couple left for a trip to northern Michigan.

They will make their home in Flint where the groom will complete his senior year at Hurley School of Nursing. The new Mrs. Piering graduated from the school in June.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Soncrant of King Road in Davisburg, and Mrs. Vera Yerke of Southfield and the late Mr. Alfred Piering are the parents of the groom.

Mrs. Darrel L. Goodson

Fife-Goodson exchange rings

Waterford Community Church was the setting for the June 26 wedding of Debra Louise Fife and Darrel Lee Goodson. The couple spoke their double ring ceremony vows before a candlelit, flower decked altar. Rev. Roger Campbell officiated.

Debra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fife, of Waldon Rd. and a graduate of Clarkston High. Darrel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Goodson, Union Lake and a graduate of Waterford Township High.

The bride's gown was a floor length white silk organza, with an empire waist and a bodice with a ribbed daisy flocked inset. Her gown was trimmed with daisies and the chapel train was detailed at the end with daisy flocked ribbing. Her daisy headpiece secured her waist length veil of bouffant silk illusion. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of white rose buds, carnations, and yellow centered daisies.

Mrs. Roderick W. Blimka of Clarkston was matron of honor. She wore a floor length yellow crepe gown. Her headpiece of yellow daisies, fashioned after the bride's, secured a yellow illusion veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of white yellow tipped carnations and daisies.

Bridesmaids, Linda Glavach, Clarkston and Joyce Putman, Waterford, wore similar gowns and headpieces in colors of pink and blue, respectively. David Powell, Waterford, was best man. Groomsman were Donald Goodson, brother of the groom, and Mike Vailecourt, Waterford.

Ushers were brothers of the groom, Dale and Dennis Goodson and brothers of the bride, Everett and David Fife of Clarkston.

A special highlight of the wedding was the attendance of two of the bride's former pastors, of the Wright VanPlew, Calif. who officiated at her baptism, and Rev. Robt. D. Winne, now ministering in Phoenix, Ariz.

A reception and buffet supper was served to 250 guests immediately following the ceremony, in the lower auditorium of the church. The wedding cake was made by the groom's mother.

The couple left for a northern honeymoon and tour of eastern states after which they will make their home in Pontiac.

Grandmother-bride fashion wedding veil

Mr. & Mrs. Carleton Mancier

Cheryl Stuemke was escorted to the altar of the Davisburg United Methodist Church by her father to exchange wedding vows with Carleton Mancier on June 26.

The Rev. Henry Powell performed the ceremony before a candle-lit altar.

The bridal gown featured tiers of lace and a chapel train trimmed with sequins. A beaded crown held the floor length, lace trimmed veil that had been fashioned by the bride with the help of her grandmother, Mrs. Delmont Walter. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, feathered carnations and baby's breath on a white bib.

The bride's sister, Leitha Stuemke was the maid of honor. Claudia Schoonover, Troy, Peggy Rutledge, Drayton Plains and Elain Mancier, Troy were the bridesmaids.

All the attendants were gowned in floor length aqua chiffon. They wore white shoes and carried streamered bouquets of carnations and daisies in their white gloved hands.

Arthur Mancier was the best man. Lyle Stuemke, Wayne and Lawrence Yeager were the ushers.

The bridal couple greeted their guests at the reception at the Fellowship Hall of the Church following the ceremony. After a wedding trip through Northern Michigan they will make their home in Davisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stuemke of Crosby Lake Road are the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mancier of Troy are the parents of the groom.

Winner of the 3rd place award for floats was this Liberty Bell by the Clarkston Rotary Club. Dixie Baptist Church was first with its statue of liberty and Uncle Sam, and Jobs Daughters was second.

THE NEW APATHY

The Church may be in trouble today because many feel they no longer need God—and in one sense they are exactly right. It is directly related to Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theory that man has come of age and feels he no longer needs God. This notion of a destiny dependent

In the old primitive sense this is upon others is not an easy one for right. Man does not need God—to protect him from storms and wild beasts, assure him health and a good harvest, to provide him a daily miracle.

But of course in the more profound sense—man's true relationship to God and a mature understanding of that relationship—he needs Him quite as much as ever. In fact, he cannot really escape God.

The Gospel traditionally has been mixed up with the whole pattern of American life: success, goods, job status—all highly individualistic goals. That's why the individualistic Gospel has always been proven popular.

on rugged individualism. Now, at this point where we see our destiny has bound up together, religion is going to have a new meaning. It will bind us with a new set of values.

The Church is always going to have trouble being accepted by large numbers of people, so long as it truly is the church Christ meant it to be. The prophetic ministry has never been popular. But the Bible says, "Beware when men think well of you." The Church must always be on the avant-grade of social consciousness. As we become embroiled in this king of consciousness, we can never say we no longer need God.

In Christian bonds,

Got water weeds? You can kill them fast.

If you own a pond or lake-front and are tired of having water weeds and algae reduce the value of your property, Pennwalt and your local dealer can help you.

Pennwalt makes aquatic herbicides—Aquatol and Hydrothol — and they kill most water weeds and algae.

For less than the cost of a good rod and reel, you can rid an average size pond or lake-front area of water weeds that are spoiling your recreational plans.

Both Aquatol and Hydrothol are easy to apply and quick-acting. In less than two weeks you should be enjoying a weed-free lake or pond.

You should have fun in your water, not weeds.

Behind the Counter

From Keith Hallman

Tooth Decay

The National Institute of Dental Research recently reported new evidence that tartar (or "calculus") can be transmitted from one laboratory animal to another, apparently by bacteria. Then other NIDR researchers came up with the news that an enzyme called dextranase helps to block tartar formation.

These findings can be important because calculus is such an important factor in tooth decay and diseases of the gum.

Two strains of laboratory rats were tested: one known to form lots of calculus and one which formed little. New-born litters were then nursed either by mothers of their own breed, or by mothers of the other strain.

They found that either strain of rat followed the calculus-forming tendency of the mother that nursed it. This supports the argument that the transmission factor is a bacteria.

Then the other research team reported that dextranase attacks dextran—the sticky, gummy coating which forms around the bacteria and clings to the tooth. This substance, which is manufactured by the body when sugar is consumed, appears to be an essential part of tartar formation.

Hamsters were injected with the bacteria believed to cause tartar and then fed dextranase. It appears that the enzyme not only breaks down the dextran already present, but prevents more dextran from forming—at least in the animals tested up to now.

Hit me again

by Jean Sura

I learned in Sunday School, when I was a kid, that if somebody slapped you on one side that you should just turn the other cheek and let him belt you again. Practicing that kind of behavior can sometimes give you a headache.

We've been accepting invitations to the calm little scenic country town of Hillsdale for quiet weekends for over 30 years.

The quiet time has never quite materialized. When I accepted the last invitation I was really just turning the other cheek because I knew what would happen.

The quiet weekend started as we drove in the yard, early, we thought, for dinner. "Where have you been? Grab your golf clubs. Never mind your suitcases now, the starting gun went off ten minutes ago. If we hurry we can catch up," called our hostess, Grace.

In seconds we were across the road and on the tee, waving back frantically to all the greetings called to us. Three holes later, I collapsed in the golf cart. It had begun. They were going to do it to us again!

Hours later, as we headed for bed, my husband said to me, "Do you think that it might rain so I could sleep in and get my health back?"

"Forget it," I answered. "The only time a golf date was cancelled in this town was when the tornado went through a couple of years ago. And then, I understand, it only delayed their game until they could get their civil defense clearance to enter the area."

"Buckle your seat belt, dear. The roller coaster at the Hillsdale Fair will be pale compared to this weekend."

The foursome for Gene's golf match the next day included our host, Dale. Dale always uses a little psychology on Gene and makes the sleeping arrangements so we have to walk through a hallway that is lined with his golf trophies and medals.

In addition to Dale the others included were the club Pro, Skip, who knocks the ball right off the world. Then there was a gray-haired fox who limped on the course with the aid of two of his clubs and promptly proceeded to shoot a perfect game.

"I feel like a duck in a shooting gallery when these guys get on the firing line," said Gene as he paid up his bets—all around.

The ladies were kind to one another and each took a turn at being my partner. Naturally I ponied up my 25 cents to each one at the end of the game, the only loser.

In between golf rounds they kept us in a stage of exhaustion. They wine and dined us. They took us dancing, swimming and for boat rides. Then we wine and dined some more.

The torrential rain on Monday only slightly dampened their ardor. The Gray Fox bowed out to rest his leg and Skip, the Pro, had to stay in the shop and sell rain-gear and floating golf balls.

They plugged the holes in the foursome with a local car dealer who must have a lot of time to work on his game and Grace's Dad, a wary golfer, aged 78, who invented the game.

The water was so deep on the fairways that their golf carts threw up roostertails. It hampered their games so much that they only beat Gene by a few strokes — each!

In the course of the storm, the ladies proceeded to their second station of the "operatus get Jeanicus." They led me, screaming, to the bridge table.

Grace's dad was playing golf with the fellows, so her mother, (she invented the game of bridge) would be available and happy to make a fourth for the game.

There I was — in the lions' den.

But here it is, July 6th. We have survived. We're bruised, and beaten but unbowed. If they really were trying to get rid of us permanently — they lost!

We shall return. But like they say in Black Jack, "Hit me again — but easy — my head hurts."
