Jim's Jottings

By Jim Sherman

I'm absolutely amazed at the number of people who don't believe a sign that says "Road Closed."

During recent weeks the road we live on has been closed much of the time. The sewer constructors have been slowed while going under the railroad tracks and under a creek.

The superintendant told us he would keep one end of our circle drive open all the time, so we knew we could get to our house. For a while we had a 3 mile detour, but we knew it when we left the house, thus saving any backtracking.

Anyway, there were 3 signs in one mile that said the road was closed. Yet, driver after driver went past the signs and right up to the equipment or dirt blocking the road.

Then many of the drivers would apparently lose their tempers, slam their cars in reverse and squeal their tires as they swirled around and headed back the way they came.

Ree-diculous! Blaming the other guy instead of accepting the failure of your gamble. Might better blush and drive away quietly.

Once in a while one of these drivers will utter a remark as he nears the construction workers. That's got to be downright suicidal. Did you ever see the muscles on those guys? And, can you imagine how quickly help would arrive if a driver stepped out of his car to challenge one of them?

I've become such a believer in signs I've taken to reading the Horoscope... at least the schedule for Leo. One day it told me to go back to bed.

It sounded like sound advice, but then I figured the author was born during that cycle and wanted a day off.

It's getting so I look forward to the Monday Free Press more than the Sunday paper. Monday is the day the ad agencies schedule all those health spa ads with bikini clad gals a page high.

The Madison Avenue boys really know when to hit the potential dieters... those who might be receptive to an invite to a high class gymnasium.

Get 'em on Monday morning after a weekend of living it up and the regular Sunday night promise to yourself that "tomorrow I'm going to start losing weight."

If I ever need to lose weight the health club may get my business. Right now it's only my friends who think I'm overweight, but what do those fat slob know?

Vandals threw rocks through 3 windows at the Independence Township Library on Clarkston Rd. last week. Township maintenance man, David Burton, cleared away the evidence. The damages were estimated at between $500 and $600.

Sheriff seeks leads

Vandals hit Twp. library

Vandals caused between $500 and $600 damages at the Independence Township Library on Clarkston Road on July 8. Three windows were broken, a door frame was dented, flowers were torn from their beds and the new sun dial was bent.

According to Detective Sergeant Charles Whitlock of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department, tennis shoe tracks were discovered in the area.

Mrs. Bruce Embrey, librarian, discovered the destruction when she arrived at work at 7:20 a.m. on July 9. "I called Mr. Wilson (Superintendent of Township Maintenance) immediately and he called the sheriff," said Mrs. Embrey.

Rocks that were thrown through the windows on the south and southeast side of the building ricocheted through the building, dented the door frame. The window over the front door was also broken. Limbs were broken from two of the decorative cherry trees.

The case is under investigation and Detective Sgt. Whitlock said, "We suspect that the vandals may have been children in their early teens. We would appreciate the assistance of any citizen who can aid us in apprehending the culprits by supplying information they may have.

In the meantime, the beautification program undertaken by the Clarkston Jaycees and the Garden Club continues. Last week the Jaycees dug the trench for the underground water system and laid the sod in the front of the building.

All repairs of the destruction have been completed.

Cooper resigns village office

Donald Cooper, Village President for the past 2 years submitted his resignation to the Council on July 13. Cooper, who has taught industrial arts at the Clarkston Junior High School for the past 14 years has accepted a teaching position in his home town, Greenville.

Cooper was appointed to the council to fill the unexpired term of Herbert Beach in 1968. He was elected to the office of president in 1970.

The Cooper family expect to move from their home on Washington Street to Greenville in mid August. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cooper are graduates of Greenville High School.

According to the laws of the State of Michigan that regulate the incorporate powers and duties of villages, the vacancies of both trustee and president shall be filled by appointment of the Council.

Last week Jack Hagan submitted his resignation as trustee.

Playground

news

By Mark Cowen

More children attend the playground at Sashabaw School, than any of the other 4 Recreation Department playgrounds. Thus, finding enough activities for the more than 220 registrees challenges the imagination and talents of 4 high school supervisors.

September will find Cindy Gerber, a veteran supervisor from last year, traveling in the United States, prior to attend college. The other 3 supervisors will be seniors at Clarkston High School this fall. Bill Craig has played basketball, Bev Arrowsmith was a cheerleader last year, and Cheryl Shrapnell has been the Varsity cheerleading manager.

This year Sashabaw must defend its position as the 4 square and all-school track champions. Practice for these and other events, such as special softball for girls, has recently filled the activity schedule. In addition, the last 2 weeks have also afforded an opportunity to make paper mache moraccas, and a Mexican pinata; which gives all children a chance to participate.

Even though next Monday will begin the fifth week of the program, 4 full weeks still remain. The activities have not been slackening but rather, they have been increasing. A bicycle rodeo, track, and more Arts and Crafts await those faithful in attendance. Any non-participating child 5 to 12 should come and see for himself, what playground means to those involved.

Basketball is one of the activities that fill the program of the Independence Township Recreation Department at the playground in the Woodhull Lake Subdivision.

"If It Fitz . . ."

How to keep a clean kitchen

By Jim Fitzgerald

And then I wrote . . .

It was freezing out the other day, but my wife cooked steaks on the outdoor grill and then rushed them inside to eat. "I don't want to get the oven dirty," she explained.

I ate the steak with my fingers, so as to not dirty silverware, and that night I suggested we sleep on the floor, so as to not muss up the bed. And I was thinking how neat the hospital would be if the patients would just go somewhere else to be sick.

A week later I noticed something new spinning slowly on the outdoor barbecue spit (and isn't "spit" a lovely word for a cooking utensil?). It was a sort of wire cage, cylinder shaped.

"I bought that at Yankee's," my wife explained proudly. "You just fill it with chicken thighs and legs and then attach it to the spit and it revolves slowly over the fire. It's better than spitting a whole chicken."

"Gee," I said.

A few minutes later I heard a terrible scream, followed by sobs. The door on the revolving cage had flipped open and all the thighs and legs fell into the charcoal fire.

"As a chicken cooker," I told my distraught wife, "you do not remind me of that white bearded Kentucky colonel who always smiles as he produces delicious chicken on TV. But this is probably because you shaved this morning."

"I will wash this chicken and then put it back in the cage," she said. "No one will taste the difference."

"Certainly," I said. "And scrub it good. There is nothing I like better than Rinso chicken with a charcoal flavor. It's like taking a bath in the fireplace."

"You are a riot," my wife said. "It doesn't even occur to you that this is your fault. In other families, the husbands do the outdoor cooking. If you had been out here watching, the chicken wouldn't have fallen in the fire."

"That's right, Daddy," said 2 little brats. "Other dads do the outdoor cooking. How come you don't?"

"It's because I'm afraid of the wild outdoors," I explained. "I might get attacked by a bear or something. Gee, the last time I went alone to our outdoor cooking spot I almost got lost. I had to follow the extension cord back home."

Which brings us to the incredible part of this open air cooking mania which is swiftly burying our nation in charcoal dust. I wouldn't mind if all these nuts wanted me to go to an old-fashioned picnic in the woods. I would simply refuse, explaining I have still not recovered from World War 2 battle fatigue. I got my fatigue while battling to keep the peas out of my peaches, and the rain out of my coffee. I forgave the Germans and the Japanese long ago. But I have never forgiven the cross-eyed mess sergeant who splotted a whopping spoonful of creamed crud into my pocket containing a scented letter from my girlfriend.

Any patriotic American must understand my refusal to risk opening old wounds with a rusty can opener, around a campfire, swatting bumblebees, sitting on burrs, 30 feet downwind from a newly dug john. But that is not what outdoor cooking means today. The modern picnickers never leave home. They do their grilling and spitting on the patio, 10 steps from a $500 GE oven which is turned on every Christmas. During blizzards, some families cook in the living room fireplace. The important thing is to NOT cook in the kitchen.

A sane man might well wonder why an electric civilization is returning to the open flame of the cave men. The most often heard reason is that charcoaled food tastes better. This is hooey. Most outdoor-cooked meat is either burned or raw. The only way you can stomach it is to drench it in sauce made from hot peppers and brimstone. And the only way you can sleep that night is in an Alka Seltzer bottle.

The one big reason for the popularity of outdoor cooking is the cunning of the female. Mabel wants to move the mess out of her kitchen and into the yard, so she doesn't have to "get the oven dirty." With the aid of Sears Roebuck and national advertising, she has convinced her husband there is something rugged about preparing meals in the fresh air. It feeds his ego to don a corny apron and play Mrs Tarzan of the patio. He thinks it is man's work, so the big clown does it. It is really Mabel's work but she has escaped it by moving the pots and pans outside.

Mabel is no dope. But her husband is. Backward and downward.

Letters to the editor

Neighbor warns of Spillway danger

Dear Editor,

We citizens who live in the vicinity of the spillway on the Mill Pond are concerned about the danger involved in children playing there.

In the past weeks several children have cut their hands and feet on glass that has been maliciously thrown against the cement and lodged in the area.

We try to police it but the kids reply to our warnings that their parents said it was all right for them to play there.

When a child was injured recently and the parent contacted they were amazed that any danger existed.

We think that it is only fair that parents should be warned of the seriousness of the situation and exercise all precautions to restrain their children from playing in this dangerous spot.

PEEKIN' into the PAST

10 YEARS AGO IN THE CLARKSTON NEWS
JULY 13, 1961

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Erickson and sons Paul, Roger, Mark, and David spent last week vacationing at Lake VanEtten.

Mrs. George Lawson is on vacation this week from her work at the Post Office.

On Monday the first boy or girl over six and under twelve who spots a certain person known as a tramp clown, wearing one green shoe lace, will receive five silver dollars. The clown may be in any store, or other business place in Clarkston, or even on the street.

Mr. Milford Mason has accepted the position of Principal of the Clarkston Senior High School for the ensuing school year.

25 YEARS AGO IN THE CLARKSTON NEWS
James Huttenlocher, Spenceley Butters, and Roy Johnson left Sunday for a twelve day stay at Camp Agawam near Lake Orion.

Tom Bullen and Charles Robertson left early this week for Camp Lookout at Elberta, Michigan where they will spend several days.

Bobby Jim Beattie and Richard Huttenlocher have been at Camp at Hale, Michigan since last Wednesday.

Eighteen votes were cast at the school election on Monday. This must mean the electors are satisfied with the candidates.

Students return after Labor Day

School Bd. officers remain the same

Infantry soldier killed in Vietnam

All officers of the Clarkston School Board were returned to their former positions at the annual organizational meeting held on July 12. R.V. Weber will resume his duties as president. The offices of secretary and treasurer will again be filled by Walter Cattin and Richard Funk, respectively.

As in the past, the second Monday of each month will be the appointed night for the board meeting, and depositories will remain at Michigan National Bank of Flint and Pontiac State Bank.

Salaries for board members will remain at $150 per year.

Action was taken to borrow $410,000 to cover school expenses for the remainder of the year. It was explained that this move was necessary due to the delinquency of the State of Michigan in making State aid payments.

The low bid for the loan interest of 3.2% was submitted by the Pontiac State Bank.

The board discussed the possibility of making some improvements at the Clarkston Junior High School Building. It was noted that the bulk of the cost of these improvements could be taken from the buildings and sites fund.

A Student Code of Conduct was approved with minor revisions. When the corrections have been completed the code will be published.

William Genshaw, a representative of the Curriculum Committee C.E.A. requested that the Board of Education give strong consideration to the recommendation of the committee to hire a curriculum coordinator to better serve the school community.

The request from Oakland Community

College to renew their contract with the Clarkston Schools for the continuing education program was granted approval.

The resignation of teachers, Don Cooper and Kathleen MacKay were accepted and they were released from their contracts.

Tentatively both the School Board and the Clarkston Education Association (CEA) negotiators have agreed that students will return to classes following the Labor Day weekend. The specific date has not been established.

George Barrie, Assistant Superintendent and chief negotiator for the Board of Education reported that negotiations had been adjourned until August 17.

"By that time," he said, "we hope that we will have a State Aid Bill and our financial circumstances will be more clear."

The 19 year old grandson of a Clarkston family died on June 30 as a result of wounds received in action near the DMZ in Vietnam while serving with the 23rd Infantry Division.

SP/4 Joseph Walter Yingling Jr. was a graduate of Waterford-Kettering High School and the International Data Processing Institute and worked for the Farmer Jacks Market before entering the army.

He was a member of the Marimont Baptist Church.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Yingling Sr. and 4 sisters: Mrs. Bruce (Nancy) Shook Montross; Mrs. Marvin (Susan) Dafeo, Waterford Township; Janet and Ruth Yingling, Waterford Township.

Also surviving are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Yingling, Clarkston and Mrs. Lulu Hill, Waterford Township.

Spec 4 Yingling was buried on July 9, in the Christian Memorial Cultural Center in Rochester after the Rev. Robert F. Richardson presided at a funeral service with full military honors.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Coats Funeral Home.

Around the Township

It hardly seems necessary to introduce our new columnist, Mrs. William (Joette) Kunse. Many of you "Around the Township" (as she has requested the column be called) have become acquainted with her through her works as publicity chairman on the committee for Bottles for Building. Mrs. Kunse is a part-time student at Oakland Community College, a wife and the mother of 10 month old Suzanne. She is a busy person but they always say, "If you want a good job done - ask a busy person."

We hope that you will all cooperate and give Joette a hand by calling in the activities of your neighbors, relatives and friends as well as your own. Her number is 625-5030.

Katie, 9, and Patrick, 17, the children of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Smith of Eastlawn left on July 10 to spend the summer in Germany. They will be met in Munich by their maternal grandmother whom they will visit during that time. Awf weidersen. I can't even spell that expression correctly so I will just say, "Have a good time and hurry home."

The Jack Belby's of Mohawk Dr. have had guests arriving from both East and West this week. Visiting over the Fourth of July were the John Belby Srs. of Maywood, N.J. Their departure was followed by the arrival of the Frank McGory family of Kansas City, Mo.

A wet picnic was on the agenda for the Jack Harken family of Snow Apple Dr. following Monday's 4th of July parade. Guests were the Dick Daverly family of Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. James Easton of Northview St. arrived home last week after a 1700 mile camping expedition with 8 Senior Girl Scouts. The group traveled to Penn. and New Jersey visiting Valley Forge, Philadelphia, Gettysburg and the New Jersey shore. The girls viewed an active farm in the Amish countryside, a coal mine in operation, took a ride on the rapid transit in Philadelphia and made taste tests at the Hershey Chocolate Factory, in Hershey, Pa. A high point of the trip was a hike up Bowman's Hill at Washington's Crossing State Park, site of Gen. George Washington's crossing of the Delaware River.

We want to be sure and say, "Happy Birthday," to Lee Clark who will be 90 years young on July 17. Unfortunately, Mr. Clark is making his first stay as a patient, in a hospital right now. He is at the Crittenton Hospital in Rochester. Let's hope that he will be home and well soon. "Many happy returns, Mr. Clark."

Scott Embrey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Embrey of East Church Street took a sabbatical after 3 years of college last January and drove to California with friends. Right now he is pedaling his way home on a bicycle. His plans include a stop en route in Butte, Montana to visit with old Clarkston friends, the Birkelos.

While Scott is seeing the United States at close view, his cat, R. P. McMurphy, arrived home in style, by commercial aircraft.

The senior Embreys received quite a jolt when they got a call from the airport and a voice said, "We have your cat here to be picked up." They have that situation in hand are now stocking up on liniment and good home cooking to greet the traveler when he wheels in the drive.

Nancy Frady and her husband Jim spent the 4th of July in Oshawa, Canada. They went to pick up Mrs. M.J. Anthony, (Nancy's mother) of Drayton Plains who was visiting an old friend, Mrs. Glenn Parks of Oshawa. They all enjoyed a family get-together and hope the next reunion will be in Clarkston next month.

The Class of '72 from C.H.S. will be taking a trip to Cedar Point on August 15. The cost of the fun filled trip will be $10 payable at the Clarkston high school. Last chance is July 30 so hurry! Remember the bus leaves at 6 a.m. sharp!

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lessard of 6431 Havelock, Clarkston, celebrated their 24th wedding anniversary the 21st through the 28th of June by spending a week in London, England.

Do you believe that things happen in threes? There are two families in Clarkston who are convinced after the rain on Monday. For three years the Frank Muscats of Robertson Ct. and the Jack Frosts of Cramlane have planned parties on the 4th of July.

In 1969 Clarkston had a storm to end all storms, trees fell, sewers backed up and the rains came. In 1970 it just plain rained as it did this year. What do you do with 60 people in the rain? You move inside and hope it will stop. If you have a pool you hope the thunder and lightning stop and you swim in the rain. Good luck next year folks.

Speaking of luck - or maybe just plain hard work - Mr. and Mrs. Gary Duncan of Clarkston just returned from a whirl wind trip to England and Sweden. The trip was the reward that Mr. Duncan won through Pontiac Motors.

New babies usually fall in the category of good luck, at least for the new grandparents. So it was good luck for Mrs. Max Prosser of Stickney Road and Mrs. Alice Young of Holly last week. Mr. and Mrs. David Young (nee Teresa Prosser) announced the arrival of Tracie Lynn. Their new daughter weighed 7 pounds upon arrival on July 7.

Mrs. Bessie Bush of Holly is the lucky great-grandmother.

Mrs. James A. Sanford

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce M. Embrey of East Church Street, Clarkston announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucy Ann, to James Terry Bishop. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. Carl Falk of Ypsilanti. The wedding will take place on November 20 at the Episcopal Church of the Resurrection in Clarkston. Miss Embrey attended Western Michigan University and Mr. Bishop was graduated from Central Michigan University where he was affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon Social Fraternity.

Clarkston teachers exchange vows

Sandra Lynn Elliott and James Ardia Sanford, both teachers in the Clarkston Community Schools, were united in matrimony on July 10. The Rev. Kenneth Hodges performed the double ring ceremony at the Waterford Community Church before two hundred guests.

The bride chose a floor length gown of white organza for her wedding. It was fashioned in an A-line and featured delicate lace trim and a detachable train. Her veil was a cluster of small lace flowers and held the three layers of her silk illusion veil. She carried red and white carnations and blue bachelor buttons.

Matron of honor was Priscilla Alden of Clarkston and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Jacobson, Clarkston, and the bride's sister, Penny Elliott, of Pontiac.

The attendants wore navy blue and white pantdresses and carried nosegays of red flowers. They all wore white picture hats trimmed in red and navy.

Thomas Sanford was the best man and Christian Krueger, Ronald Jacobson, Randy Elliott, and Thomas Brown seated the guests.

A reception in the church parlor followed the ceremony.

After a trip to the East and through Canada the couple will make their home on Holcomb Road.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott of Pontiac, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sanford of Glen Arbor and Mr. Clifford Sanford of Lapeer are the parents of the groom.

Job's Daughters spend busy month

The Job's Daughter of Clarkston Bethel No. 25 culminated their month's activities when the flag float that they built for the July 5th parade was declared one of the winners.

The group started the month's activities when they attended the June 5 installation of officers at the Pontiac Bethel No. 5. Their own Honored Queen, Linda Skarritt, was installed at the Davisburg Masonic Temple on June 12.

Fourteen girls and 5 adults headquartered in the Pantland Hotel in Grand Rapids for the Grand Session where they witness the installation of the new Grand Bethel Officers.

Other June activities included the reception and dinner for Miss Joy Zerbe, DeMolay State Sweetheart for Michigan, the DeMolay Potluck Dinner and the Majority and Cross of Honor Ceremonies. Others were attending meetings of Pontiac No. 5 and Rochester No. 51.

A major money-making project for the year (a drawing for an afghan) was discussed and tickets to be sold were issued at the group's first meeting of the new year. It was announced that Mrs. John Mann, a former resident of Clarkston made the afghan which will go to the lucky ticket holder.

A committee for the bake sale that was held during the July 5 parade announced that the project had been successful and had shown a profit of approximately $18.

Forequarter cuts for budget grilling

Beef for the grill will be easier on the budget if you select forequarter cuts. This is the season when demand pushes the price of steaks up and the price of roasts down. The most economical buys will be chuck roasts, chuck steaks, rump, sirloin tip and round roasts.

Other reasonably priced outdoor cooking favorites are chicken - young, tender broilers - and turkey. If your barbecue has a rotisserie, don't miss the treat of barbecuing a young turkey. Frozen fillets of fish are another grill top treat. Best of all, they're never very high in price. To complete your picnic, patio or beach supper, there are plenty of budget supporting fresh vegetables and fruits on the market, and more to come.

ACCESSORIES FOR THE WEDDING RECEPTION. Cake boxes, place cards, coasters, cake bags, place mats, ashtrays, stirrers. All available with name and date imprinted. Come in now and place your order at the Clarkston News, 5 South Main, Clarkston.

Petunias were torn from the beds and tossed on the sidewalk last week at the Township Library. The Oakland County Sheriff is seeking information leading to the arrest of the vandals.

The News is gaining new friends and subscribers each week. Get 52 weeks of news of Independence Township for just $5.00. Call 625-3370.

Spiritual Message

The Rev. Alexander T. Stewart

"When Ye Pray . . ." St. Luke 11:2

What does it mean to you to pray? Jesus' disciples asked Him, "Teach us to pray," and He answered, "When ye pray, say, 'Our Father . . .'" and taught them what we know as The Lord's Prayer. He will note that Jesus didn't say, "If always with a 'Thy will, not mine ye pray'" but "When ye pray." He did not regard prayer as an option but took it for granted that people naturally would pray. How else would man communicate with God? Jesus himself prayed and in prayer found strength and direction so why not His disciples and others?

The power of prayer has been called the greatest source of unused power that exists in the world - perhaps because too many people prefer to exercise their prerogative in response to "if" rather than "when." But it also is true that many people do pray - but to no apparent effect. Their prayers always seem to go unanswered. But Jesus also taught it in His Name, by which He meant "according to His nature," as He humbly not selfishly, and expectantly not demandingly, and "Thy will, not mine ye pray" but "When ye pray." He be done" attitude. Perhaps an example from the past might clarify this matter. In the writings of an Englishman who died in 1727 this prayer was found: "O Lord, I beseech Thee to have an eye of compassion on the county of Hertfordshire, for I have a mortgage in that county. Likewise, give, I beseech Thee, a prosperous voyage to the sloop Mermaid, because I have not insured it." This man prayed, to be sure, and probably quite fervently, but who would say that it was in the "nature of Christ"? However, "when ye pray . . ." How do you pray, "when" for "if" you pray?

7th bottle drive set for July 17

July 17 will be the seventh "Bottles for Building" drive for Independence Township, Brandon-Groveland, Waterford, Holly-Rose-Springfield and Avon Townships will also be collecting Saturday.

Drop-off centers will be open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. The Fraternal Order of Eagles will begin roadside pickup at 9 a.m.

To date 149 tons of glass has been sent to Owens Illinois Glass Co. for recycling, with a profit of $1600. A large bottle has been set up on the lawn of the Independence Township Hall as a reminder of the tons and money saved by the township residents.

The Bottles for Building Committee has placed barrels in which glass may be deposited at the Township Hall parking lot for a trial period. The committee hopes this will provide storage of glass for residents who might not otherwise be able to save a month's supply of glass.

When placing glass in the barrels, residents are asked to separate by color, clear-white, brown-amber and blue-green. No paper bags or boxes are to be left at the site.

According to Donald Place, Chairman of the Bottles for Building Committee, the parking lot is an experiment and other sites may be available in the future depending on how well residents police the area for paper bags and boxes.

July 17th will be the next collection of glass trash in the township. Waterford, Brandon, Groveland and Avon Townships will also be collecting on that date.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles will be the service club in charge of the curbside pickup. Glass should be out at the road by 9:00 a.m.

Michigan Bell Report to Customers

A clarification of facts concerning your telephone service and usage

How much will the proposed new rates really affect your monthly phone bill?

New rates would apply almost exclusively to your basic monthly service charge. Don't be confused by numbers. You may have heard that Michigan Bell has proposed a rate increase of 20%, and you were understandably perplexed if you thought the 20% (more accurately 19.54%) applied to all charges on your total monthly phone bill. That, for example, if you made a lot of extra toll calls last month and your bill was as high as $20, it would increase another 20% to $24 after the increase. Not so.

The 20% increase would apply only to your basic monthly service charges and to special non-recurring services, such as installing an extension or other equipment. Any interzone or long distance calls made in addition to your basic monthly service charge would cost no more after the proposed new rates than before.

For more detailed information about your telephone service, please contact your Michigan Bell Business Office. We want to help.

Minimum Daily Requirements for Plants

Plants provide both physical and mental benefits for man. Plants can provide protection from noise, sun, winds and nosy neighbors. They also affect man's attitude. But no one knows man's minimum daily requirement for plants.

Letters from Marquerite

by Marquerite Slater

Dear Jeanie—

Last winter I promised you this bizarre story, an account of how a crime could have devastated the lives of all who knew my friend, Lauren. You'd have a letter as long as the Pentagon papers if I gave you her complete story because she was the most fascinating female I've ever known. The ending of our 12 year friendship is an ordeal which still makes me sad.

Lauren and I met, aged 15, when we visited the same girl in a small town in southern Michigan. She came home with me and my family and the whole town fell in love with her. From then on she spent every summer with us for the next 8 years.

Lauren's father was a cartographer and she hated the nomadic life his career necessitated; she had lived in every State in the U.S. Had she not had almost a genius IQ, she'd never have survived the dozens of schools and universities she attended. She graduated from college and while there an English professor published, at his expense, a volume of her poetry, so you see she had no slouch of a mind. Or did she?

Pick all the attributes, beautiful blonde, vivid personality, terrific wit, plus a high octane brain and you have Lauren.

Sometime at 5 p.m. come over and I'll bug your eyes with the really big adventures in her life that I can't type. I'll put your eyes back in their sockets with some Scotch and good Indianwood well water.

Lauren married an ultra-ultra Bostonian - Harvard Lit. and Harvard Med. who was director of a well known Medical School as well as a nationally recognized scientist in Bacteriology. They lived in a lovely place very near the South Shore Country Club in Chicago.

I had married about the same time as they but was widowed shortly after and so Allen and Lauren had me with them for visits several times a year.

On one of my visits one of her friends, Ethel, had a bridge luncheon in my honor, at her home out in Lake Forest. Lauren and I made the 45-minute trip on the train.

On our return trip Lauren opened her large patent leather box purse (newest thing that year) to pay the conductor. Paper money sprang up, out and all over our laps. I was amazed and told her that was a swell way to look flashy. She just crammed it back and said, "Gretch, you know I always carry money like that, I just love to see it jump up at me."

My visit over and back home in Detroit, I was startled by a 'phone call from Ethel at 3 o'clock in the morning. She said "Gretch, how much money did you lose at the party I had for you?"

I told her, "We didn't play for money—you had 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes and my bracelet as guest prize."

Ethel replied, "Lauren says you lost $38."

By that time I assure you I was wide awake!

There were 16 at my party and 3 of the girls were witnesses to the sight of Lauren going through purses on the bed and table. A dressing table mirror was in such a position that it mirrored her completely. In those days no one lugged her purse to the luncheon table in a private home, you left it with your hat and gloves!!

Jeanie, I have a dental date and if it's "Hey Ma, no cavities," I'll tell you the horrible ending to this very soon.

Your old friend,
Marquerite

WHEN THE camera closed in, Ranette Byers, 13, couldn't hold back. The band was minus a clarinetist for a while. Ranette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Byers of Middle Lake Road, was one of the bandmen taking part in the parade aboard a truck.

WARN CHILDREN ABOUT PLANTS THAT POISON

| Plant | Toxic Part | Symptoms |
|--------------------------------|-------------------|--|
| Hyacinth, Narcissus, Daffodil | Bulbs | Nausea, vomiting, diarrhea. May be fatal. |
| Oleander | Leaves, Branches | Extremely poisonous. Affects the heart, produces severe digestive upset and has caused death. |
| Poinsettia | Leaves | Fatal. One leaf can kill a child. |
| Mistletoe | Berries | Fatal. Both children and adults have died from eating the berries. |
| Lily-of-the-valley | Leaves, Flowers | Irregular heart beat and pulse, usually accompanied by digestive upset and mental confusion. |
| Iris | Underground stems | Severe, but not usually serious, digestive upset. |
| Rhubarb | Leaf blade | Fatal. Large amounts of raw or cooked leaves can cause convulsions, coma, followed rapidly by death. |
| Wisteria | Seeds, Pods | Mild to severe digestive upset. Many children are poisoned by this plant. |
| Laurels, Rhododendron, Azaleas | All parts | Fatal. Produces nausea and vomiting, depression, difficult breathing, prostration and coma. |
| Jessamine | Berries | Fatal. Digestive disturbance and nervous symptoms. |
| Yew | Berries, Foliage | Fatal. Foliage more toxic than berries. Death is usually sudden without warning symptoms. |
| Oaks | Foliage, Acorns | Affects kidneys gradually. Symptoms appear only after several days or weeks. Takes a large amount for poisoning. Children should not be allowed to chew on acorns. |

Drugs From the Sea

You might not think of studying starfish and sponges and sea cucumbers to learn about cancer or viruses or heart disease, but a group of scientists near New York's famous Coney Island are doing just that.

For instance, the sponge is believed to live forever. Researchers at the Osborn Laboratories of Marine Sciences hope to find out why. And how does the starfish regrow new arms?

The sea cucumber has poisons that can stop cancer in mice, but which will kill a man if injected into his bloodstream. Orientals cook and eat sea cucumbers without any ill effects — does this keep them from getting cancer?

The puffer fish, which blows up like a balloon when it's threatened, carries a remarkable poison that is 150,000 times more powerful than the curare used by South American Indians on their arrow heads. Now it's being used in experiments on heart and nerve-block studies.

"We are seeking drugs from the sea," said Dr. Ross F. Nigrelli, laboratory director. They hope to turn information over to pharmacologists on new antibiotic agents, substances that affect the development of embryos, drugs that prevent blood clotting, and a wide variety of toxic and anti-toxic agents.

The search for drugs has been going on for centuries, with almost every type of growth on earth having been tested and studied. It's really not so unusual that scientists are now looking for new pharmacologicals under the sea.

Kutting Korners

Here is a quickie soup that may taste good when you get tired of cold summer fare.

POTATO SOUP

- 1 large onion
- 5 large potatoes
- 2 tablespoons margarine or butter
- 1 cup water
- 3 cups milk
- 2 teaspoons salt
- Pepper to taste

Chop onion. Peel potatoes. Cut both into small pieces. Measure margarine into a large pan and place over medium heat and cook onion until tender. Measure and add 1 cup water. Add the potatoes. Cover pan and cook gently about 15 minutes or until potatoes are tender. Partly mash potatoes with a fork. Do not drain but add milk and seasoning. Heat slowly, stirring to keep from sticking. Do not boil. Makes 6 one cup servings.

Add bits of grated cheese; crumbled cooked bacon, croutons, sliced cooked frankfurters, or diced cooked ham, luncheon meat or finely cut up cheese for variety.

And here are some quickie desserts to get you out of the kitchen and out into the sun.

APPLE SASSY CAKE

Make up 1 pkg. spice cake mix according to label. Add ½ tsp. baking soda, ¼ tsp. cloves, 1 c. applesauce, 1 c. raisins, ½ cup nuts broken. Bake in 2 buttered, flour-dusted bread pans. Bake 40 minutes at 350. Slice when cool and serve with whipped cream.

HOT ROLL MIX CAKE

Prepare 1 pkg. hot roll mix as box directs, for coffee cake. But for ½ c. of liquid, substitute ½ cup brandy or rum. Add to batter 1 tsp. lemon juice, 1 tsp. grated lemon rind, 1 tsp. cinnamon, ½ tsp. nutmeg or mace. When dough has risen to doubled bulk, punch it down and add 1 cup raisins. Bake in greased bread tins according to pkg. directions. When cold cover with canned frosting.

SKILLET CHERRY CAKE

Drain syrup from a 1-lb. can pitted sour cherries. Save for sauce. Melt 4 TB butter in heavy frying pan. Add ½ c. brown sugar. Place cherries in close together. Pour on batter made from 2-layer pkg. white cake mix. Bake at 350 deg. for 25 min. Cool 5 minutes and invert onto plate, but let stand 2 minutes before removing pan.

FAST JELLY FROSTING

In top of double boiler over simmering water, beat with electric mixer 3 egg whites and ½ cup any flavor jelly. Add dash of salt, ¼ tsp. vanilla. Beat 7 minutes or until thick enough to spread. Will cover a 9-inch layer cake.

Flowers Need a Change of Scenery, Too

Small flowers or few flowers may indicate overcrowding. Bulbs can be transplanted but should be dug up in the summer and replanted in the fall. With properly dried bulbs replanted, better blooms can be expected in the spring.

Sailors compete on Deer Lake

The Annual Deer Lake Sailing Regatta was held after the parade on July 5th in a light rain and very thin winds. Sponsored by the Deer Lake Property Owners Association, the races drew 12 entries for the 2 races.

A 4 way tie had to be sailed off between Bill Pfahlert, Rick Bennett, Chuck Curtis of Dayton, Ohio and Vince Luzi. Luzi was the winner of the "sail-off," followed by Chuck Curtis and Rick Bennett. Pfahlert was unable to compete.

The second day of racing was held on July 10. Mac McDougal donated prizes for the event and then turned around and took first place. His crew was Katherine Porter of White Plains, New York.

John Hitchcock, 14, with his cousin, Peter Bailey, 11, as crew captured 2nd and Eric Hansen, 14, with 9 year old John Pappas as crew placed 3rd.

Races are scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m. on July 17. All skippers are invited to enter their boats.

NOTICE

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP RESIDENTS

In compliance with the requirements of the Independence Township Rural Zoning Ordinance, Sec. No. 9 (Mineral and Soil Removal); The Township Zoning Board of Appeals will conduct a public hearing at which time consideration will be given to an application to remove and process gravel deposits on a site west of Sashabaw Road, and approximately 1/2 mile north of Clarkston Road.

Hearing will be held on July 19, 1971 at 7:30 P.M., at the Township Hall, 90 N. Main St., Clarkston, Michigan.

Independence Township
Zoning Board of Appeals
J. Rhoades, Chairman

REGULAR INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP BOARD MEETING

July 6, 1971

SYNOPSIS

Having previous difficulty in attaining corrections to health and safety violation at the Tally Ho Bar on U.S. 10, the Board took action to serve notice upon the Class C license holder, at that location, that a hearing would be sought, the result of which could mean the revocation of the liquor license.

It was stated that two agents working for the Township, Ray Soncrant, Building Inspector, and James Webster, Inspector from the County Health Department, have been deputized by the Oakland County Sheriff's Dept. and have authority to issue tickets for violation of Township Ordinances.

Residents living on properties adjacent to or near the lower and upper regions of the mill pond requested Township assistance in removing the silt deposits that have steadily built into problem of considerable concern, along with pollution abatement. The Township Board agreed to assist in the formation of a "lake board" to seek a solution.

The Board approved the completion of a drain installation on Lakeview Street of Clarkston Estates No. 2, at a cost of $850.00. The installation by Betts Excavation Co., who installed the prior drainage system, will complete the total corrective drainage construction at a total cost of approximately $5500.

Previous bids to blacktop the Library parking lot were rejected as the Township Board decided to re-advertise for bids, which would include the blacktopping of two fire station lots.

Mrs. Carolyn Place, 5615 Chickadee, Clarkston, Mi., and Mr. Norman Sholler, 6522 Wellesley Terrace, Waterford, Mi., were appointed to the Township Planning Commission to serve the remaining portion of the terms of Glenn Brokenshaw, who resigned and Frank Reynolds, who moved from the area.

To replace Mrs. Phillip Smith, who recently resigned as Township Librarian, the Board accepted the recommendation of the Library Advisory Board to hire Mr. Sushil Lahiri, a native of India, and presently employed in Ontario, Canada. Mr. Lahiri would move to the area and assume his duties sometime in July.

A change in classification (from a Club license to a Class C full year license) application was approved for the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club.

Action on hiring an appraisal firm, an agreement with Oakland County for data processing of tax billing, a preliminary plan of a residential sub, and a proposed Township Building Authority, a resolution dealing with Township procedure for letting bids, were all tabled pending additional review.

Attorney Robert Carr, 3505 Elizabeth Lake Road, Pontiac, was appointed as the "hearing officer" as provided for in the Township ordinance dealing with dangerous and unsafe buildings.

Two to Tango

by Jean Sura

I've got a friend who has plastered a sign on the ceiling over her husband's bed. It says, "Don't forget to kiss Mrs. W goodnight." Her last name begins with "W."

"Yyyycchh," I said, "What mush! That kind of stuff is below my dignity."

Then last week I read a book, "The Adventure of Being a Wife" that was written by Mrs. Norman Vincent Peale, the wife of the preacher. She has the reputation of being an authority on how to keep your husband happy.

In the book Mrs. Peale said that appreciation takes a thousand forms. It can be a casual compliment, an expression of deep affection and closeness or an unexpected reminder, like little notes of affection in pockets.

She said that every day, a wife and a husband should take a look at each other, decide what traits are most admirable and seek ways of expressing that admiration.

"I guess that I have been remiss," I thought. "I had better get on the stick. If one note will do some good I'll mimeograph them and run off several hundred."

First of all I put notes in all my husband's long sleeved shirt pockets. If he ran out of short sleeves during the hot weather I figured that he would need the reassurance of my love. I stuck notes in all his socks, just in case I got the colors mixed up.

The results of my efforts had about the same effectiveness as sending a PTA meeting notice home with a teen-aged boy who wears bluejeans. It all came out in the wash - in wads.

"What's the use?" I moaned as I filtered all the paper out of the washing machine. "Mrs. Peale must be on the wrong track, or else my husband is a heartless beast."

The more I thought about that last idea the sadder I got, and pretty soon I sat right down and cried.

In the middle of the sobs I reached in my pocket for something to dry my tears. I put the paper to my face. It slid off my nose - NOT like a good tissue should.

I look closer. It was a crumpled note. It said, "You have a lousy golf swing. Your hair is so short I feel like I'm married to Prince Valiant. I hate TV dinners without a salad, long sleeved shirts in summer and a blue sock looks terrible when worn with a brown one. But you know - I don't remember ever being single and you're STILL my best girl! It was signed "Old Lovable."

I grew ten feet tall reading that note. I even got up and made a salad to go with the TV dinner.

After all - It takes two to tango.

Rate grasses for lawns

Variety "blends" are recommended for most Michigan lawns, because no single variety has all the "ideal" characteristics of attractiveness, durability, and resistance to disease and adverse weather.

A blend of two or three improved Kentucky bluegrasses is definitely preferred to the use of a single variety.

Since all available varieties have certain weaknesses, especially in terms of disease resistance, a blending of several improved varieties will result in a better overall turf.

No great differences are found among six different blends that contain Merion bluegrass.

Research showed that Merion, Fylking, Pennstar and Nuggett have the best general appearance throughout the season in trials comparing 66 bluegrass varieties.

For droughty, sandy soils and shaded areas, red fescue varieties are recommended. Pennlawn is generally considered to be the standard for red fescue quality, but Jamestown was equal or superior in appearance in last year's trials. Wintergreen, the new red fescue variety developed by MSU, had excellent color and quality until it and all varieties were attacked by leafspot in July.
