Jim's Jottings

By Jim Sherman

When someone says, "Now give me your honest opinion" they really mean "Give me your honest opinion as long as it agrees with mine."

And, when someone says, "I've yet to have anyone explain to my satisfaction..." you can know they are asking the impossible.

Anyone who has a desk probably has a place where clipped, useless information is collected. I have one and here are some of the notes.

Male ants live only a short time - a matter of months. Workers or soldier ants live 6 or 7 years and the queen ant lives for 10 years. Upon her death the ant colony disintegrates.

A ship at Duluth on Lake Superior is 600 feet above sea level. So if it were possible to sail east in a straight line to New York City maintaining that 600 feet above sea level, that freighter would be able to tie up at about the 60th floor of the Empire State Building.

I also clipped the observation made by one Dr. J. D. Fluke who determined with the aid of a big grant, a bevy of lab assistants and access to a few dogs, that today's canines are friskier, healthier and better adjusted temperamentally speaking than dogs of 20 years ago. It is comforting to know that dogs are less frustrated than they were, while we homo sapiens types are getting more frustrated.

If we really set our mind to it, though, maybe we can louse up our canine friends enough so that man and dog can regain their original relationship. Personally, I don't want Julie, the family Labrador, happier and friskier than the rest of the family.

This piece of poetry turned up again:

Tried to teach 2 young tooters to toot.
Said the two to the tutor,
Is it harder to toot, or
To tutor two tooters to toot?

Here's another pearl of wisdom gleaned from the back of the desk drawer: It takes a lot of practice for a girl to kiss like an amateur.

Civic club organizes

by Louise Cohen

"Who votes a straight ticket these days?"
 "It's the man, not the party that's important."

Nobody realizes that more than the established political parties. Come campaign time, the independent voter is courted and assaulted on all sides to cast his ballot for this or that candidate or proposition. Once the election is over and he is no longer useful, what becomes of him? It's back to the ranks of the "silent constituency" until the whole process gets into gear once again.

Surely an independent voter deserves something more than that. Without becoming party-affiliated, he should be able to join with others who feel as he does to work for more effective government.

Based on that idea, two dozen couples and individuals got together and formed the Independence Township Civic Club. Their aim is to encourage citizens to become actively involved in the political process. The Club will evaluate the propositions and candidates — regardless of party affiliation — and endorse those they find most qualified.

Feeling that "this is where we live and what we care about most," the organization is limiting its scope solely to township and school district affairs.

Throughout the year, club representatives will attend all open meetings of the Township Board, Planning Commission, Zoning Board, and Board of Education, and report back to the membership.

The club will also be a source of information on matters non-political as well, and will work for a better community wherever a need exists.

The next meeting of the club is scheduled for Friday, September 22.

Registered voters in Independence Township who would like information on joining are invited to call membership chairman, Dick Weld, at 625-4185.

Mobile home case starting

While Independence Township still awaits a Circuit Court decision on the K-Mart zoning case involving Waterford Hill Country Club, the township is gearing up to defend itself in the Singer-Kaplan mobile home case.

Rezoning to allow both were overruled by residents in a resulting referendum.

The Singer-Kaplan case involves land off Clintonville Road. It will start September 19 in Judge William Beasley's Circuit Court.

What did Joe DiMaggio say about being an outfielder? "A team is far better off with an outfielder who piles up errors trying for hard catches than with one who handles perfectly every ball hit to him but does not go after the tough ones." Joe was one of the great outfielders and hitters of all time. He was a pro with a pro's idea of what was right. He said, "No outfielder is a real workman unless he can turn his back on the ball, run his legs off, and take the catch over his shoulder." That doesn't even sound easy.

Salary contracts ratified, but there's "concern"

Both the Board of Education and the Clarkston Education Association have ratified the new teachers' contract which calls for an expenditure of $3,121,000 in teacher salaries. Salary cost last year was $2,871,000.

While the CEA ratified Friday morning on a vote of 96-9, the vote at the board Monday evening was unanimous but not without expressed concern.

The new one-year contract increased BA and MA 11-year maximums to $13,665 and $15,200. It did not alter the insurance package, and it provided for four percent increases for extra curricular duties.

Those engaged in athletic programs will receive the hike only if they have already attained the maximum pay level. Others such as music and drama directors, journalism and class sponsors will receive the hike directly.

Fees for adult and driver education and summer school were raised from $6.30 per hour to $6.55 per hour.

The concern at the board level was expressed by Trustee David Leak who said if increases accorded the teachers for the past two years were to be maintained, it would mean that teachers would be able to double their salaries every 11 to 13 years.

He also added that if the present trend continues a beginning teacher will be able to double his salary (assuming a master's degree is obtained in the meantime) within seven to eight years.

Leak also contended over Assistant Superintendent George Barrie's objections that some of the pay increases exceed the federal wage guidelines. Barrie maintained the total package increase is well within the federal regulations as required by law.

Leak added, "I know we're one of the lower paying districts in the county, but those districts which are paying more are not doing a good bargaining job. They are overpaying teachers."

"The question is," he said, "how to attract teachers if we are the lowest paying district. Yet, we can't continue (these kinds of salary increases) year after year and expect taxpayers to foot the bill. I wonder what we will do."

Dr. L. F. Greene, superintendent, differed with Leak. "I think our negotiating team has done a beautiful job. We have one of the lowest tax rates in the county. Our pay scale is competitive, and we still pay our bills."

He maintained that Leak's projections were not necessarily accurate. "Because something has been true for two years does not necessarily mean that it will continue for ten more. Teachers now admit their salaries are at parity and their demands have slowed down."

Barrie added, "In the past two years we did not increase staff due to the financial situation. This year we added 7½ to 8 teachers. This makes a difference (in salary totals)."

The board also granted 5.7 percent pay increases to ten non-union employees who work in the garage, and others holding special type jobs in the cafeteria and custodial staff.

It was said the increases were in line with total raises obtained by the rest of the staff.

Springfield bottle drive Sept. 23

Residents of Springfield Township have been asked to bring used glass and bundled newspapers to the school bus shelter at the Dixie Highway and Norman Road or to the Springfield Township Hall in Davisburg between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. Saturday, September 23.

Bottles are to be rinsed, sorted by color and the metal rings removed.

Dollar Lake getting a dam

An Oakland County Drain Commission project designed to keep Dollar Lake at constant level will be underway within the next two weeks, according to Bill McDonald of the Johnson and Anderson engineering firm.

A 25-foot long dam costing $13,940 will be built by Timmer Construction Co. of Livonia just east of the Dixie Highway.

The project is a part of the Multi-Lake Level Control Project which will also see the replacement of the dam on Van Norman Lake at a cost of $197,470.

Total cost of the project, affecting seven lakes in all, is $293,055 which includes $63,165 for financing, McDonald said.

The work is to be paid for by a five-year special assessment against the affected lakeside property owners, McDonald said.

The Van Norman project also involves the enclosure of the Clinton River for 134 feet where it crosses the Dixie Highway, he reported. He said the enclosure was one of the restrictions agreed to at the time the easement was obtained several years ago.

Water funds in question

Independence Township may have to reimburse its water fund $33,000, according to Township Attorney Richard Campbell.

The sum could be met through the general fund; Campbell said.

The situation which caused the financial question was the water and sewer survey which took place in the township about three years ago. Total cost of the survey — $77,000 — was met from the water system fund, according to Supervisor Gary Stonerock.

When sewer bonds were sold prior to the start of sewer construction this year, it became possible for the township to reimburse the fund $44,000 of the cost.

Campbell said his research of the question indicates that water funds are to be used only for water system maintenance. If that continues to hold true until he delivers an opinion to the township board next week, it is possible the decision might have some effect on water rate increases already adopted but temporarily stopped by the board.

During August the board voted to increase water rates from the present $4.50 for the first 1,500 cubic feet and 10 cents for each 100 cubic feet thereafter to $4.50 for the first 1,000 cubic feet and 25 cents per 100 cubic feet thereafter.

Clerk J. Edwin Glennie said the difference would increase the average $6.50 water bill per quarter to about $10.

He said the water department is presently just about breaking even on normal operation, but he said needed major repairs to pump houses and a well and equipment purchases in the last five months caused a $29,000 disbursement on a $19,000 income.

The water fund cash balance as of August 1 was $2,246.96 with another $10,000 in time certificates.

In the meantime a special meeting on a proposed new water ordinance requiring all new subdivisions to install community water systems is due for a hearing at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday; September 27, at the township hall.

About 700 homes are currently served by the township water system.

Douglas Green (left) is the man who will attempt to fill Sherm Lowery's shoes at Clarkston Senior High School. Sherm was feted at a retirement dinner Thursday night at the high school. Sherm spent 25 years with the school district, both as a bus driver and as a custodian. He and Mrs. Lowery plan to spend some time in California with relatives prior to settling down to "loafing."

"Conflict of interest" charged in voter registrar dismissal

"Conflict of interest" is the reason Republican Independence Clerk J. Edwin Glennie has given for his dismissal of two voter registrars.

He said he had notified Democrats Donna M. Buhl, candidate for treasurer, and Ronald Herron, husband of Karen Herron who seeks election as clerk, that they are no longer qualified to accept voter registrations. Mrs. Colette Kloc is unaffected by the order. She is the only other special Democratic registrar.

"It's a political move," said Ron Herron. "Of the six registrars designated — three Democratic and three Republican — Donna Buhl and myself have been the only two who have been doing anything. If there is a conflict of interest now, there was one during the primary. If he was going to remove us, he should have done it long before this."

Herron also added, however, that the conflict of interest law cited by Glennie applies only to election workers and not to registrars.

Glennie said he would appoint Robert Garner and Joette Kulse, two active Democrats, in their place.

Democrats objected on the basis that registrars would now be able to function only as designated by the clerk. One said that the appointment of the new people was on a one-day basis only.

Glennie admitted the possibility, saying that September 30 has been set aside for special registration efforts. He said teams of Republicans and Democrats would solicit registrations from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Food Town, the A&P food store and Clarkston Branch of Pontiac State Bank on that day. He said he is trying to make arrangements for special registrations September 23 but did not know whether workers would be obtained.

Democratic Supervisor Gary Stonerock said, "If it's a conflict of interest because registrars are involved in the election, I guess I should fire the assessor because he's running against me."

He noted it is Glennie's prerogative as clerk to designate the registrars and the times they will work; however, he pointed out that very few people are willing to become politically or civically involved and when those that are willing are lopped off, it hurts the project.

Glennie said problems with duplicate cards and incomplete information had led him to take the step. "I'm just trying to make the program more professional," he said.

By designating special times and places, he noted it did not stop people of either party from rounding up would-be voters and bringing them into the township hall to register.

Some 50 new registrations were accepted over the weekend by a team working at the Food Town shopping center. Those registrations will stay, Glennie said.

Editorial

Register to vote

It seems too bad that people can't take the time to visit the township hall long enough to fill out a voter registration application, nevertheless that's the way it is.

On a recent Saturday, 50 people signed up to vote at a shopping center, but the township hall which had advertised that it would be open the same day to accept registrations drew nary a customer.

We hope that the "professionalizing" of the voter registration system in Independence Township will not cut back on the number of citizens who should be voting in the November 7 election.

They have an opportunity to register both at the township hall during weekdays and during special extended hours prior to the October 6th registration deadline. Also there will be teams accepting registrations working at Food Town, the A&P and Pontiac State Bank on September 30.

Take the time, folks. Register, and exercise your inherent stake in the government. A registration slip is your share in what's happening.

Mother has a problem

By Jim Fitzgerald

The evening the kids found out about their mother, I tried to explain the situation to them this way:

"Everyone has some little thing they can't help worrying about. I don't mean a big thing, like the war or health or paying bills. But something little. Like I always worry on Saturday nights that I forgot and set the alarm clock by mistake and it'll wake me up on Sunday morning when the law allows me to sleep in. I keep waking up and checking, to make sure it's not set. I lose sleep Saturday nights worrying about losing sleep Sunday mornings.

"Your mother worries about someone taking her salad."

We were at the fancy Steering Wheel restaurant in Detroit. It was the first time the kids had been in a place which presented so many threats to their mother's salad. At home, all Pat has to worry about is the cats. But hovering around the Steering Wheel diners are dozens of waiters, waitresses, stewards and water boys. Not to mention a wedding party whose white clothing made my nervous wife embrace her lettuce.

At the completion of the meal, Pat went to the restroom, thus giving me a chance to explain her conduct to the children. It had been quite a dinner . . .

6 courses: appetizers, soup, salad, stuffed pancakes, the main course, sherbert and coffee. Notice that salad was number 3. The idea is to eat one course at a time, with the waiter removing the remains of the previous course before bringing the next one.

Pat's problem is that she

Letters to the Editor

Candidacy announced

Dear editor,

I am a student at Highland Lakes Campus of the Oakland Community College system. I'd like to bring to your attention information about the Human Rights Party.

There is an evident one party system in the world. Nowadays in politics there isn't a dime's difference between Democrats or Republicans. The median between them is money.

There's nothing wrong with money, but the goal of the Human Rights Party is love amongst persons. Every person should live to be 105 years old.

I also know the Republican and Democratic parties are destined to win several more elections in the future of the United States.

However, I'd like to announce I'm a write-in candidate for supervisor of Independence Township. I am 21 years old and have lived in Independence Township 20 years.

Sincerely,
Michael (Mickey) King

Some clarification

Dear editor,

Though I hesitate to burden further a hard working editor and Democrat candidate, I must take issues with your coverage of the state representative contest in the 62nd district as stated last week in the Independent View.

Your statements could be taken to mean that both Democrat Harrison and Democrat Law are against forced busing. Nothing, in fact, could be further from the truth. Mr. Harrison, an officer of the organization that brought suit in court, which led to busing, is not an anti-buser. Mr. Law, guilty of promoting the busing matter far beyond the realm of legislative authority - in a disgruntled and desperate effort, should know better.

While Harrison shirks leadership with "no comment," Law sits back opportunistically seeing what will happen next. Further, the Briney campaign is the only effort giving serious consideration and credibility to issues about which the state legislature can and must do something.

Jim Briney
Republican Nominee for State Representative

Like an iceberg

To the editor,

Quo Vadis. This multi-million dollar movie spectacle asks the question, "Where are you going?" I ask the same question of Independence Township. We cannot deny a person a reasonable use of his land. The courts see to that.

Yet the sewers and I-75 will bring unprecedented growth to Independence. You do not see this growth yet. It, like an iceberg, is mostly hidden in the zoning. Developers are in constantly for more rezoning.

There is over a square mile zoned multiple that is waiting for the sewer to be in operation. Spot zoning was done all over the township - single family in the middle of agricultural - multiple with no access. The old board couldn't say no to anything. By and large we are stuck with this zoning.

So where are we going? Let's wait and see. Don't be in a hurry to grant more rezonings. The population in the township could very easily double in the next five years due to this "hidden" zoning. Some roads are already overcrowded. Dixie and Maybee intersection has the worst traffic jams, and that is the area that would probably suffer the most from this population

Need air conditioning

To the editor,

Air conditioning for the Independence Township Library is long overdue. The two fans blowing in a large room with sealed windows do nothing to make it comfortable. In the summer the library is about as pleasant to visit as an oven.

I marvel that the two ladies who greet the public in our library remain so pleasant under such awful working conditions. When do township officials plan to give them, and the public, some relief from the misery in that building.

Mary B. Davis

explosion. The land will always be there. Rezone in haste, repent in leisure has been done too much. (Look to the south of us.) In the last two years things have gone fairly smooth except for the rezonings to apartments at Spring Lake Golf Course and Pine Knob.

By diligent effort we are working out of Pine Knob problems. There is a way to go yet, but this problem will be solved, and an excellent complex will result. I can't believe as much for Hel-Win at Spring Lake.

If you have a good imagination or are curious, stop in at the township hall and ask Gary Stonerock to show you the official zoning map. You may be surprised at what is next to your home.

Something new for seniors

A Clarkston man believes senior citizens can expect better things under the newly organized Michigan Federation of Senior Americans.

Ralph Richard, 6580 Northview Drive, director of the Waterford Township recreation program, is the Wayne-Oakland representative for the non-profit organization.

Now engaged in providing seniors with a variety of lowest cost possible trips, both local and overseas, he foresees the day when Michigan, like Minnesota, Almost 70,000 motor vehicles were involved in fatal highway crashes in 1971. Of these, more than 53,100 were private passenger cars, according to The Travelers Insurance Companies annual statistics.

might offer its seniors the privileges of group buying, information on pending legislation, and an aid in providing more low cost housing and health care.

Cost of joining the federation is $1 a year, Richard said.

He believes the federation can become instrumental in contacting more senior citizens than are presently involved in community programs.

"In Waterford there are 6,000 senior citizens, but the township is able to serve only 400. We're just not getting to the people who really need our services," he said.

He has hopes that a well-organized federation will be able to assist seniors in diverting federal funds to benefit programs for the aged.

Art store has grand opening

A mother-daughter enterprise to be known as the Janlee Craft Shoppe will have its grand opening Friday in the former Pine Knob Cleaners store of Pine Knob Plaza.

Jan Danielson and her mother, Virginia Beekman, both of them having studied various art mediums, are the owners.

The store will offer decoupage, and papier tole supplies as well as transfers and prints. General artist supplies will also be available.

Classes will also be conducted, both for teens and adults.

Mrs. Danielson was March of Dimes chairman the last three years in Independence Township.

Homeowners found to be contributing raw sewage to the Mill Pond will have to take temporary action to halt it, according to Jim Webster, Oakland County Health Department sanitarian. The temporary permits will carry the proviso that the homes be connected to the sewer as soon as it is available, he added. He refused to speculate on the cost of the temporary cure, saying it would depend on the part of the septic system which was faulty and on soil types involved.

Deer Lake isn't beset with detergent suds as some feared a couple of weeks ago. It's just what happens in a cleansing action of the water, according to Webster. "When you get a lot of rain and wind, the suds can mount up — but they're not detergent," he said.

When the Mill Pond was lowered last week it increased the level of Dollar Lake so much that the waterflow was for a time reversed, homeowners on the lake reported.

What seems to us a very good thing has been proposed by Independence Township Trustee Keith Humbert. He has insured that all candidates for elective office at the township level be furnished with current correspondence and data. The feed-in can be essential in helping whoever is elected take over with some knowledge of the existing situation. Township business moves quickly enough that an editor not on the scene for a month can be more or less at sea on many of the current issues.

Local residents are practicing their swings in anticipation of the Clarkston Cafe's second annual golf outing Friday, September 15, at Spring Lake Country Club. Rudy's Market will provide catering for the 200 expected to participate.

Schools offered

The Independence Township Recreation Department has been accorded use of school facilities for recreation programs. The Board of Education voted Monday night to allow Recreation Director Tim Doyle to proceed with plans for classes and recreational activities during the fall term on school properties.

Don't forget the Bottles for Building collection Saturday. Pickup spots are at Food Town, the fire hall on Clarkston-Orion and Sashabaw roads, First Federal at M-15 and Dixie Highway, and the township hall. Bundled newspapers and aluminum cans may also be contributed. Aluminum cans are rounded on the ends, and currently Carlings, Black Label and a malt liquor are the only items being sold in them. TV trays, foil, pie pans and lawn chair piping also fit the category, according to Carolyn Place.

Mark your calendar. Free immunizations for babies on up will be offered at Independence Center on Maybee Road from 1 to 4 p.m. October 5. Jane Stanlonis, a nurse with the Oakland County Department of Public Health, will officiate.

The Labor Day parade judges tell us that in place of the Independence Township Recreation Department which they had cited as winner of the President's Award, it was in reality the Independence Township Athletic Association. Ray Dawley was the one responsible for the float. The gal with the pack horse was Charrie Cascaddan of Oak Hill Road. She was unidentified in our pictures last week.

More parade news: Youngsters chosen as having the best costumes by the Clarkston Women's Club were Doug Gordon, 8, a clown; Mindy Gordon, 7, a clown; Laurie Booth, 6, an Indian; and Amy Booth, 3, an old fashioned lady. The kids each received a dollar.

Remodeling considered

Springfield Township will investigate a remodeling of the township offices in Davisburg to provide more office space.

Supervisor Claude Trim has asked that the section of the building used as a fire hall prior to construction of the new fire quarters be outfitted for voting space in the November election. He said the time is not too distant when township officials will also be needing more office space.

In other business the board granted a lot split to the owner of property in the southwest corner of Maple Row Subdivision on Davisburg Road. A lot 100 by 150 feet will be achieved.

HAPPENINGS

by Bob & Marvel White

What is so great about owning your own house? Believe it or not, there are many advantages. The home owner gets income tax benefits, local real estate tax exemption, protection of home against claims or creditors: all these are government programs. Then, Federal Housing Administration programs, Veterans' Administration housing programs — These make home financing much easier, and there are many other advantages as well. Why not own your own home? The time to look into it is now.

Call BOB WHITE REAL ESTATE, 5856 S. Main St., 625-5821, and let us show you the home to suit your taste and budget. We will guide you in avoiding the many costly errors inherent in home buying and provide you complete assistance in obtaining a mortgage. We handle all forms of real estate including commercial property, raw acreage and parcels of land. Hours: 9-8, Mon.-Thur.; 9-6, Fri., Sat.; 12-5, Sun.

An October 7 wedding is planned by Barbara Hunley and David Justus. Barbara, a senior at Clarkston High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hunley of Bridge Lake Road. David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Justus of Savoy Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Turner of Pine Knob Road have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Louise, to Leo Wayne Miller, son of the late Mrs. Doris A. Miller of Pontiac Township. December wedding plans are being made.

Ferris seniors wed

Seniors at Ferris State College, Edward Arthur Keeley and Joan Florence Starnier, were wed September 9 at Clarkston United Methodist Church.

Rev. Frank Cozadd and Deacon James Manning performed the double ring ceremony before 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Starnier of Cadillac, Michigan. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keely of 6445 Waldon Road.

White roses and baby's breath with ivy accented the bride's floor length white organza gown fashioned in empire style with bell sleeves.

Mary Ritter of Charlotte, maid of honor, wore an empire gown featuring dark purple lace. Bridesmaids, similarly attired, were Mrs. Arnold Bank of Zanesville, Ohio, sister of the bride; Maggie McLouth of Brutus, Barb Malek of Yale, Sally Baker of Cadillac and Linda Den Hollander of Grand Rapids.

Andrea and Shane Stelmach, cousins of the groom, were flower girl and ring bearer.

Michael Stitt of Clarkston was best man with Wayne Keeley, brother of the groom, William Pierce of Cass City, Reid Rosebrugh of West Branch, Arthur Whaley of Fenton and Mike Mason of Clarkston seating the guests.

Following a reception at the Italian American Club in Pontiac, the couple left for a trip through the Southern states. They will reside at 12 Colonial, Big Rapids.

PAUF Care-A-Fair at Pontiac Mall

Care-A-Fair '72, a week long display featuring the service of 20 Pontiac Area United Fund agencies, will begin at the Pontiac Mall on Monday, September 18, and continue through Saturday, September 23.

Action displays, film and slide presentations, live demonstrations and photo exhibits illustrating PAUF agency services in the areas of health, education, recreation, character-building, research and social work will be featured.

Visitors to the exhibit will have an opportunity to inspect a Red Cross disaster van, learn about the Michigan Cancer Foundation new mini smoking clinics and have an opportunity to pick up a copy of "RISKO," the Michigan Heart Association's new game, designed to help individuals estimate for themselves their chances of a heart attack.

Activities of special interest will be scheduled on the following days at the times listed:

Wednesday, September 20

12:00 noon — Film: "Arthritis is Everyone's Business."

7:30 p.m. — Band concert — Salvation Army band — Jim Curnow, Director. Thursday, September 21

2:00 p.m. — Demonstration — "Self help devices for Homemakers." Mrs. Joan Macknesh, Occupational Therapy Consultant, Arthritis Foundation, Michigan Chapter. All Days/All Hours

Michigan Society for Mental Health film, "Only Human," starring Barry Sullivan.

Many of the exhibits will be manned and questions about the agencies are invited.

No United Fund solicitations will take place at the exhibit.

Linda Pope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pope of 6644 Northview, has recently been graduated from Northwestern Michigan College in Traverse City. She is a 1969 graduate of Clarkston High School.

Brandon nursery slates sale

Brandon Cooperative Nursery will have a white elephant sale from noon to 5 p.m. Friday, September 15, and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, September 16, at 1948 M-15 near Glass Road.

The nursery still has openings for 3 and 4-year-olds in the fall session beginning October 2. Those interested may contact Judy Carrico at 627-2697 for more information.

Roger and Mary Weeks of Snowapple celebrated their twenty-fourth wedding anniversary last Sunday in a conventional yet unconventional way. Following a marvelous dinner at the Chuck Wagon in Dryden, the Weeks headed for the bushes — at the Bristol Blueberry Farm. They gathered twenty-four pounds of blueberries which will serve as a tasty memory of a very special day.

Alma Harthun and daughter, Sarah of Orion Road have returned from a week's visit with Alma's family in Arkansas. It was a good trip aside from some rainy driving and an overnight stop for car trouble.

Jeanette Barks of Warbler got a real golf lesson last week from Kay Robertson of Hummingbird on Waterford Hill's Par Three Course. After thoroughly searching the area for Kay's ball, they discovered it where it should be... in the cup for a hole-in-one. Good work, Kay.

With summer and all its related activities coming to a close and our children returning to school, this column will naturally reflect a slowing of vacation trips, gala picnics, and parties. However, our families, friends and neighbors are and will be doing something new and interesting. But please remember, I have to depend on you to let me know what's happening with you and yours!

Karl Lynn Tucker arrived at the home of Tim and Vicki Tucker August 15. Kari weighed 7 pounds, 10 ounces and was 20 inches long. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kidd of Ortonville Road and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tucker of Ortonville.

Clinton Valley Barracks No. 2803 and Auxiliary learned at a recent meeting that Harold Rioux is in the hospital and Mattie Conrad has suffered a broken shoulder bone. The group met for a roast beef dinner. The next meeting is October 14 at the Davisburg Town Hall. Membership is open to all World War I veterans, their wives and widows.

Mrs. Pat Beach of Hidden Lane and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Winnie Beach of Middle Lake Road, have recently returned from a vacation at Bar Harbor, Maine. They found the lobster delicious and the antique hunting exciting. Both tried their hands at deep sea fishing and were successful in catching some cod. One night during the trip was spent on Sand Island in the middle of Lake Champlain, they report.

Karen MacDougall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. MacDougall, 7095 Hillside, is one of 265 superior students admitted to Michigan State University's Honors College. Karen is a 1971 graduate of Clarkston Senior High School. She is an MSU sophomore majoring in art practice.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Smith — she's the former Inez Holcomb — have announced the birth of a daughter, Shannon Lee, August 30. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Holcomb, 52 N. Holcomb.

Christine L. Olson of 5 Parkview Drive and Judith Marie Ryden of 9950 Trotter Lane have obtained bachelor's degrees from Western Michigan University in recent commencement exercises.

Mother Goose opens story hours

Mrs. Charlotte Cooper finds being the reader for the Clarkston Women's Club Story Hour involves some side work. The Story Hours were to start at 10:15 a.m. Thursday, September 14, at the Independence Township Library. Mark Cooper, 4, (from left), Denise Martin, 4, Mike Pugh, 2, and Andrea Dieball, 2, are looking forward to regular sessions the second and fourth Thursday of each month.

Mother Goose Fairy Tales were to be the topic at Clarkston Women's Club first Story Hour this winter. The program for four-year-olds was to kick-off at 10:15 a.m. Thursday, September 14.

Story hours are scheduled the second and fourth Thursday of the month with the exception of November and December when they will take place only on the second Thursday.

Registration fee for the programs is 25 cents.

PTA meeting

Clarkston Elementary PTA will meet at 7:30 p.m. September 21 to honor Mrs. Ruth Purslow, principal at the school for 22 years, who has been transferred to South Sashabaw School.

CUF meeting

Catholics United for the Faith were to meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday, September 13, at the Knights of Columbus Community Hall on Maybee Road to hear Mrs. Ingrid Smith answer questions about the abortion referendum.

Spiritual Message

WORSHIP ON THE GREEN?

"So, then, my brothers, because of God's many mercies to us, I make this appeal to you: offer yourselves as a living sacrifice to God, dedicated to his service and pleasing to him. This is the true worship that you should offer."

Romans 12:1 T.E.V.

It would be rank heresy for this column, considering the source, to advocate worship on the golf course rather than in church! But the man who claims perennially that he can worship God better on the golf course than in church may be closer to a TRUTH than he knows, but for the wrong reason.

It is our arbitrary judgment that those who claim to worship on the golf course more often worship the god of pleasure than the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ! However, there is just enough truth in the golfer's claim that we might take a look at St. Paul's famous call to worship in the Roman letter.

He started his Hebrew and Greek readers alike by telling them to offer themselves as living sacrifices! They all knew what the usual bloody animal sacrifice was like and how it was supposed to work, taking the place of the human offender before God. The animal lost its life but the worshiper was kept alive although dedicated in just as radical manner to his God as if he had given up his life.

SASHABAW UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Mark H. Caldwell

So when we worry overmuch about the correct postures of worship, standing to sing or kneeling to pray, or even when we worry overmuch about the place of worship, we give the golfer just a bit of weight to his argument. For it isn't the posture or place so much as the radical giving of self which makes true worship. Of course, here we take issue with the golfer if his claim is really only an excuse not to worship at all. For really, how many golfers have you seen lately singing or praying or praising God on the green? Most are coldbloodedly intent on their game as they should be. But true worship is something else. This jealous God of ours wants the whole YOU.

The 1973 American Motors cars are covered by something no other cars have.

AMERICAN MOTORS BUYER PROTECTION PLAN

1. A simple, strong guarantee, just 101 words! When you buy a new 1973 car from an American Motors dealer, American Motors Corporation guarantees to you that, except for tires, it will pay for the repair or replacement of any part it supplies that is defective in material or workmanship. This guarantee is good for 12 months from the date the car is first used or 12,000 miles, whichever comes first. All we require is that the car be properly maintained and cared for under normal use and service in the fifty United States or Canada, and that guaranteed repairs or replacement be made by an American Motors dealer.
2. A free loaner car from almost every one of our dealers if guaranteed repairs take overnight.
3. Special Trip Interruption Protection.
4. And a toll free hot line to AMC Headquarters.

The American Motors Buyer Protection Plan.

Only American Motors makes this promise: The Buyer Protection Plan backs every '73 car we build and we'll see that our dealers back that promise.

Football season kicks off Friday

By Craig Moore

Friday, September 15 at 8 p.m., the Clarkston Varsity Wolves play a crucially important game with Oxford.

Coach Rob White spelled out the importance of the game. "The Oxford game is a very critical game. We have a young team that is learning a new system."

He continued, "We're selling the team on a system that in essence says, the harder we work and the fewer mistakes we make, the better we are. Of course, I have to expect some mistakes, but we cannot afford any glaring mistakes. We have to convince the players that this system is the way to win. "We're happy to be playing the season opening Oxford game in front of our home crowd. That always helps!"

The opening game may be an indication of the type of season to expect.

Clarkston has not had what would be termed as a winning season (6-2) since 1966. Hopes for great improvement over last year's 3-6 record are high. Team spirit is also at a high point.

The Junior Varsity season is also getting underway with a game scheduled for Saturday, September 16 with Oxford's JV team. Game time is 2 p.m. at Oxford.

Head coach Dave McDonald and his assistant Larry Sherrill and their Clarkston Junior High School Wolverines take on the Sashabaw Junior High School Cougars on Wednesday, September 20 on the Clarkston High School field. This game opens both teams' seasons and the traditional rivalry between these two schools promises an exciting contest. The Cougars are coached by James Koslosky and his assistants Neal Sage and Chris Krueger.

Farms open for hunting

Over 2,000 farms in Michigan with over 100,000 acres are open for 1972 public hunting. Mr. Arthur Rowley, Chairman of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) Committee, announces that, again, farm lands throughout Michigan will provide areas without charge for public hunting. Rowley further states that the majority of these farms is in the lower one-third of the state in the best pheasant and rabbit areas. Any hunters wishing a list of these farms may contact their local county ASCS office or the Michigan State ASCS Office and obtain a list which shows the location by town, range and section. The only requirements for the hunting privilege is that each person will be provided a self-addressed post card questionnaire by the land owner so that the U.S. Department of Agriculture may have an appraisal of the recreational value. All hunters should contact the land owner and respect any rules and regulations he might have pertaining to his particular farm.

DNR report

WARNING:

Watch your step while walking in the woods and fields. The Pontiac District Department of Natural Resources Office has had several calls about rattle snakes being killed in the Oakland County area.

FISHING:

Fishing pressure is very light on most inland lakes. Some 1½ to 2 pound bass were taken from Big Seven Lake (Decou Lake) in the Seven Lakes Recreation area. Bass fishing should get better as the cooler weather sets in. Pontiac Lake is one of our better bass lakes. Bass fishing has been fair on Stony Creek Lake, and worms and still fishing seem to be the best methods on this lake.

RECREATION:

Don Klingler, Park Manager of the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area, reports that the rifle range is getting very heavy use on weekends, and if anyone wants to spend a considerable amount of time sighting in his firearm, he should use the range on week days.

Do you know that a two-by-four may not be 2 inches by 4 inches at all? The fact is that a two by four, when it is planed or surfaced, measures 1¾ inches by 3 and ¾ inches! This is because a surfaced two by four is sold by the measurements it had when it was rough. The planing takes off approximately ¼ of an inch on each side during the planing. Still, however, these figures are only approximate. When working with planed lumber, it is generally a good idea to measure each piece to be sure it fits properly.

hill 'n gully Unexpected pleasures

by Jean Saile

There was no school last Friday for two of the Saile off-spring, and the one yet remaining in elementary school was highly incensed.

She figured if a water pump had to break down anywhere it ought to break down at Clarkston Elementary School rather than Clarkston Junior High.

She's the same one who during a big snowstorm one winter's night cautioned us, "If it snows so much we don't have school tomorrow, wake me up so I can sleep in."

And yet this new fourth grader really likes school.

What she likes even better, I suspect, is an unexpected holiday.

Unplanned for treats have a special sweetness.

There was a time when I used to get a $9 check once a year from some insurance program. The sum was small enough that I forgot about it from year to year, and when it arrived it was always totally unexpected.

That check — pure gravy — was sweeter than the salary I now rely on from week to week.

I am one of the relatively few, I expect, who likes drop-in company. So what if the house is untidy, I wasn't expecting anyone, and the pleasure of unexpected company (granted if it doesn't happen too often) is delicious.

One of the best trips our family ever undertook was a spur of the moment Easter week in Florida. We slept in a tent, moved where the spirit took us, saw old friends and relatives and had an absolutely grand time.

Unexpected vistas on a drive are particularly breath taking — more so than constant grandeur which one quickly begins to take for granted.

It is also true that the things children do fall into the same category. An unexpected observation of life as viewed by them is sometimes worth a whole homework assignment on the same topic.

It's really too bad we sometimes have to be plummeted into enjoyment, but I'm glad that the surprises still come our way.

Bikers play it safe

"It's the thing to do" . . . and adults are rediscovering a sport that never lost its popularity with youngsters — bicycling.

But bicycling can also create safety problems, says the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Insurance Companies.

- * Learn to ride well — practice in a safe area away from the traffic.
- * Choose the correct bicycle size.
- * Bicycles are intended for use on lightly-traveled roads.
- * Bicycles are prohibited on many highways and expressways.
- * Obey all traffic rules and regulations: at lights, stop signs, intersections and one-way streets.
- * Bicyclists must ride single file on roadways.
- * Only one person on a bicycle (except tandems) — no riders.
- * Bicyclists must not "hook" rides on other moving vehicles.
- * Every bicycle must have a bell or horn and a brake or brakes in good condition.
- * For after dark use, bicycles must have a reflector or red tail light that is visible from 300 feet and a front headlamp that is visible from 500 feet.
- * Always hand signal before turning.
- * Ride as closely to the right hand edge of the road as possible and always ride with the flow of traffic.
- * Don't carry anything that would prevent at least one hand from being on the handlebars at all times.
- * Leave stunt riding and racing for open areas free of traffic.
- * In most communities, bicycles must be registered and display license plates. Keep a copy of the bicycle serial number at home.

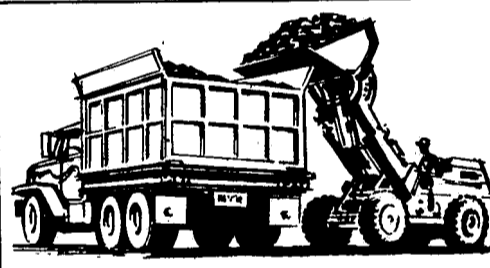

The ducks got dry

The Upper Mill Pond, drained except for a trickle, houses some befuddled ducks. The pond was drained to give homeowners an idea of what needs to be done in silt removal to restore the pond, according to Norman Rousseau of Holcomb. Some 8,000 to 9,000 cubic yards of silt should be removed, probably during December when the ground is easier to work with, said Dick Thomas of D&V Co., Novi, who was called in to estimate the job. Using a drag line and bulldozer operation, the process should take about three weeks, he said. The Mill Pond would have to be drained three weeks in advance, however, he said:

Tom and Bill Wilson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher of 144 North Holcomb walk where they might have once swum. The boys are at the north end of the Lower Mill Pond. Water was drained last week to give homeowners and health department sanitarians an opportunity to discover just what is raising pollution rates in the pond. Jim Webster, county health department sanitarian, said up to a dozen homeowners would be asked to start dye tests for raw sewage they may be contributing to the pond.

She "does something about it"

Carolyn Place remembers her beginnings well.

It was Schenectady, N.Y., an industrial town 38 years ago. Her family lived on a 40 by 120 foot lot — "just room for a driveway between the houses," she recalls.

There was no place to play except on the streets. "The closest neighborhood park was two and a half miles away," she remembers.

Carolyn did like her neighborhood school and the high school at the end of the street attended by blacks as well as whites of every nationality.

But the lack of greenery — the cramped kind of life — has undoubtedly played a part in Carolyn's interest in the environment.

She's Independence Township's and Michigan's original "Bottles for Building" woman.

She used to worry about our gigantic waste problem, but her husband, Don, is the kind who says, "Don't tell me about it. Do something about it."

It was about that time that Carolyn read of a Detroit minister inviting his congregation to bring waste glass to a Sunday service in an effort to point out the build up of environmental waste. He later turned the glass over for recycling.

That, claims Carolyn, is what got her started. Since then Independence and several other municipalities in the county have started recycling campaigns. Her efforts have spread to out-state Michigan.

Oakland County has the first recycling collection depot in the state and she's proud of that, but feels it must have further direction at the county level.

Her efforts have won her the Oakland County Achievement of the Year, a state award for beautification efforts, and she is presently being considered for an award by the Keep Michigan Beautiful group.

Meanwhile her slide presentation on the Independence program is becoming well known throughout the state as she is called to speak and explain in various communities.

Carolyn's first love affair with natural beauty may have started when she left Schenectady to attend school at the State University of New York in Pottsdam. Her travels' back and forth took her through the foothills of the Adirondacks — sometimes by car and sometimes by "Milk-train" — and she remembers the beauty.

It was at Pottsdam that she met Don and obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in education, and did some graduate work as well.

She and Don married and moved into married quarters at Syracuse University. She was on a grant to learn special education and Don on a fellowship to learn to teach the mentally handicapped.

The two went overseas to attend a conference in London and wound up on a bus tour of the continent. Carolyn was expecting their oldest child at the time, and she wound up being called Elizabeth in honor of the queen.

Derek John who came along later was named for the two bus drivers on the tour, whom Carolyn says both she and Don admired.

"Well, it's not easy to name a child when you're a school teacher," Carolyn reports. "You always associate the name with some particular child. The bus drivers took care of that."

Jennifer is the third and last Place. One of the people on the continental tour was a consultant for the mentally handicapped in Oakland County. He talked Don into coming to Pontiac to apply for a job with Oakland Intermediate Schools. Don is now assistant director of special education there:

And so the Places moved to the area — first to Pontiac — later to Drayton Plains. "We used to take drives out through Independence Township and decided Birdland was where we eventually wanted to live," she remembers. They do live in the subdivision now at 5615 Chickadee.

The first night in their new home — no curtains at the window — Carolyn remembers looking up into the big oak tree outside their bedroom and spotting a chickadee. It was a good omen, she feels.

The Place home has a vacant lot to the side of it, one to the rear and a farm across the street.

"It's great for the kids. They can build forts in the fields. Derek came in one day with a great big turtle skeleton and had a great time putting it together. Opossums come to the bird feeder, and there are rabbits, chipmunks, squirrels and animals I don't like so well like moles," she relates, still with a breathless quality over the wonder of it all.

Carolyn says she's identified 23 species of birds at their feeder, and that's pretty good for a woman who for most of her life saw only robins, grackles, blue jays and English sparrows.

But she's worried. Sewer work has caused dewatering of a nearby field and every day Carolyn reports she sees more small dead animals on the road who are being forced out of their natural habitat.

She relates, "I've read that in another 20 to 25 years, our children will be telling their children about the small animals which used to inhabit the area. There won't be any left in areas such as ours."

Besides bottles, Carolyn's gotten involved in Independence Center through Don, who is chairman of the board. She's been helping get the volunteer help center ready for last Sunday's opening ceremonies.

Also a member of the Independence Township Planning Commission, she says she's committed to retaining as much of the natural beauty of the area as possible.

In her off moments, she's president of Pine Knob PTA and she notes happily the school is the only one with a site development program.

"The students have planted 2,000 to 3,000 seedlings and there are flower plantings around the school. The PTA has pledged the program $1,000. We want to have an outdoor classroom," she said.

Carolyn is a pleasant, unhurried type who has been compared to Carol Burnett in looks yet her quiet ways have led Independence Township into the collection of more than 500 tons of waste glass.

Out of the sale proceeds of that material, $4,000 has been saved which are earmarked for a community activities building. Carolyn has ideas about that too. She wants a practical building, usable all year 'round, and a full time director to staff it.

With her track record, Independence Township residents had better prepare for just such a center.

"Beautiful Downtown" Davisburg site of Rotary auction

The fifth annual Rotary Club Auction will be Saturday, September 23 in downtown Davisburg. The auction will start at 10 a.m.

Besides hundreds of donated appliances, furniture and other household items, one of the principal attractions will be a drawing for an all-terrain vehicle and trailer valued at $1,400.

Downtown Davisburg has earned a "beautiful" designation primarily through the efforts of the Davisburg Rotary Club members who have used the auction as a source of revenue to beautify the small Oakland County village. Most recent of the beautification projects was the construction of a footbridge and paddle wheel at the waterfalls and extensive landscaping of the surrounding area.

The site of the auction is Springfield-Oaks Recreation Area, inside the refurbished building which was formerly an Oakland County Road Commission garage.

Persons wishing to donate items for the auction may arrange to have them picked up by calling any of the following Davisburg Rotarians or organizations: Going Enterprises, 634-9015; Quinlan's Emporium, 625-1844; Walls Realty, 634-4453; Al Beekman, 357-3555; Clarence Gordon, 634-4855; Len Howarth, 634-9536; or Tom Purves, 625-3270.

Clarkston folks turned out for the Jaycees' Pine Knob Day on Sunday.

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

The Board of Education
Clarkston Community Schools
Clarkston, Michigan

We have examined the balance sheets of the General Fund, Debt Retirement Fund, and the Building and Site Fund of CLARKSTON COMMUNITY SCHOOLS and the Northwest Oakland County Vocational Center, as of June 30, 1972, and the related statements of revenues and expenditures for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The statements have been prepared, as in prior years, on the "modified accrual basis of accounting". Under this method, generally, revenues are recognized at the time they become receivable and expenditures are recognized when incurred. An exception to this rule is the purchase of transportation equipment, the cost of which is not recognized as an expenditure until payment is made; when transportation equipment is acquired on contract, only the current payments are recognized as expenditures during the year. Also, on the modified accrual basis, inventories on hand at June 30, and the related accounts payable for supplies applicable to the following year are not reflected in the balance sheet.

Our examination did not extend to the child accounting records of the school system. However, State school aid payments which are based on such records were confirmed by us directly with the State authorities. We also inspected a letter from the County superintendent of schools which stated that the child accounting records had been audited during the period and found to be correct and to comply with the laws of the State of Michigan.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and statements of revenues and expenditures present fairly the financial position of Clarkston Community Schools at June 30, 1972 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting practices generally followed by Michigan school districts as set forth in Bulletin 1022 issued by the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Reunion

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

The Board of Education
 Clarkston Community Schools
 Clarkston, Michigan

We have examined the balance sheet of the 1971-1972 project of Clarkston Community Schools administered under P.L. 89-10, Title I, Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, as of June 30, 1972, and the statements of revenue and expenditures of the 1970-1971 and the 1971-1972 projects for the two years then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances; due consideration was given to the specific requirements set forth in the Local School District Audit Guide issued by the Michigan Department of Education in March, 1967.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of revenue and expenditures present fairly the financial position of the project at June 30, 1972, and the revenues collected and expenditures incurred during the two years then ended, in conformity with the principles and instructions set forth in the Michigan Department of Education Finance Manual, Title I.

Tentative school enrollments announced

There are 7,057 students enrolled in Clarkston schools, according to a tentative estimate by Board of Education officials. The figure is 165 students more than last year.

The overall picture shows 26 less students enrolled in the elementary grades, 118 extra in the junior highs and 86 extra in the senior high.

Andersonville is down 18 students, Bailey Lake down nine, Clarkston

Elementary up 28, Pine Knob up 54, North Sashabaw down 35 and South Sashabaw up nine. There are 54 sixth graders enrolled in Clarkston Junior High School and 83 sixth graders enrolled in Sashabaw Junior High School.

In the elementaries, kindergarten has shown a 16-student increase; first grade is up 41 students; but third grade is down 57 students, according to figures prepared by Assistant Superintendent Mel Vaara.

Gus Birtsas (left) is the new principal and John Kirchgessner the new assistant principal at Sashabaw Junior High School. Birtsas has been with the Clarkston School District since 1952 with the exception of five years spent in the insurance business. He was onetime Clarkston High School varsity baseball coach and junior varsity football and basketball coach. Kirchgessner started with the Clarkston schools in 1969 as science teacher at Sashabaw Junior High School.

William Potvin (left) and Duane Lewis have assumed the positions of principal and assistant principal, respectively, at Clarkston Junior High School. Potvin has been with the district since 1963, having taught six years in the junior high and later served as assistant principal there for three years. Mel Vaara, who was principal of both junior high schools last year, has been named assistant superintendent of the district.

Mrs. Ruth Purslow, principal of Clarkston Elementary School the last 22 years, has been transferred to South Sashabaw Elementary School with the added duty of expanding the Career Preparation for Students with Special Needs program at the Northwest Oakland Vocational Education Center. Mrs. Purslow began her teaching career in Livingston County and came to the Clarkston School District in 1947.

John T. Hayden of 5780 Loch Leven, Waterford, with the Clarkston School District since 1961, has been named principal of Clarkston Elementary School. Hayden has served as speech correctionist and was interne principal at South Sashabaw Elementary School for two and a half years prior to his appointment. He also served as director of the new federally funded special needs vocational program last year.

Labor department finds workers underpaid

U.S. Labor Department investigators found that 12,578 workers in Michigan were underpaid a total of $3,664,305 during the 1971-72 fiscal year, a Labor Department official announced today.

Gerald J. Mitchell, Regional Administrator of the Department's Employment Standards Administration, said the violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act and other Federal wage and hour laws were uncovered during investigations of 1,599 business establishments in the State during the 12-month period.

Investigators also found 337 minor children employed in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The investigations were conducted by three area offices of the Labor Department's Wage and Hour Division in Michigan.

Independence center

Between 100 and 150 people attended the new Independence Center open house Sunday in the reconditioned and refurbished former Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church on Maybee Road. The Center became officially open for business Monday morning. Hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, according to Alice Salzano, coordinator. The center offers counseling and volunteer help for people in trouble.

REGULAR MEETING INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP BOARD Sept. 5, 1972 Synopsis

Present: Glennie, Humbert, Johnson, Stonerock
Absent: Bullen

The Board approved the following:
Resolution declaring September 23rd, the fourth Saturday of September, as National Hunting and Fishing Day, as designated by the President of the United States.

Lot split in Lakeview Heights subject to compliance with planner's recommendations.

Lot split in Supervisor's Plat No. 9.

Directive to the Planning Commission to prepare within 45 days an interim zoning ordinance for Sec. 7 and 18 according to the rural zoning act to become effective as soon as possible.

Agreement with Oakland County Road Commission for the paving of Pelton Road.

Notification of the Clinton River Watershed Council of the Township's intent of joining the Council at such time as a full time executive director has been hired and the Council's goals and objectives have been established and are generally acceptable to the Board.

Certification of 14 street lighting districts, to be spread on the 1972 tax roll. Indusco Corp. rezoning from agricultural to commercial recreation 37 acres located in section 23 of the township.

New hire of part time, temporary employee for the purpose of assisting in the bottles for building program.

Mailing all pertinent correspondence to the candidates for the November election, once a week.

Request Oakland County DPW to replace trees along road right-of-way with a sapling, to be paid for by the contingency fund.

Payment of township bills totaling $7,602.72.

The Supervisor advised the Board that the township's decibel meter and ordinance violation ticket book had been given to the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Agreed to set special meeting date Sept. 27, 1972, on water rates.
Meeting adjourned 11:25 p.m.

J. Edwin Glennie, Clerk
Independence Township

Y offers youth classes

The Pontiac Branch of the North Oakland YMCA will offer ten-week skill instruction classes for youth, beginning September 15 and 16.

Saturday is Fun & Fitness for 1-6 grades. A 3-hour morning session gives participants a chance to choose a variety of classes including gymnastics, games, sports, swimming, arts and crafts, judo, etc. Class fee is $6 for "Y" members and $11 for non-members. Grades 1 to 3 meet 9 a.m. to 12 noon; grades 4 to 6 meet 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Limited enrollments for ten-week courses costing $10 for "Y" members and $15 for non-members will include beginning and advanced swim lessons for elementary age youth, 9 a.m.; ballet, judo, trampoline and beginning synchronized swimming.

Class offered for unwed mothers

The Pontiac YWCA in cooperation with the Adult Education Department of Pontiac Board of Education, Family and Child Services of Oakland County, and the Oakland County Department of Health will conduct classes for the pregnant teenager, married or unmarried, who has not completed her high school education.

Classes are in academic subjects with credits transferable back to regular school and counted toward a high school diploma. In addition, there will be classes in pre-natal care, child care as well as group and individual counseling.

This is the third year of operation. During the previous two years 168 girls have been served. Classes start Monday, September 18.

Anyone who wishes to register or obtain further information can call Miss Kirchner at the Pontiac YWCA, 334-0973.

Clarkston's going to be on TV come October. The Dean O'Brien & Assoc. production company of Sherman Oaks, Calif., was in town Monday shooting film on old Chevys for an historical type commercial for General Motors. On location at the Ron Walters' home on Washington, they also planned to shoot some pictures on Wompole, a spokesman for D'Arcy MacManus advertising agency of Bloomfield Hills said. William Fraker is the cameraman par excellence.

Chevy dealers unite

Four local Chevrolet Dealers have joined together to form the North Oakland County Chevrolet Dealers Advertising Association.

The dealers involved are Bill Fox Chevrolet, Rochester; Al Hanoute, Inc., Lake Orion; Matthews-Hargreaves, Pontiac; and Tom Rademacher Chevrolet, Clarkston. Officers of the new association are Tom Rademacher, president, and Joe Lunghammer, Matthews-Hargreaves, secretary-treasurer.

In a statement of the policies and aims of the association, Rademacher said, "The North Oakland community is growing by leaps and bounds. It is our intention to tell all car buyers of this community of our commitment as Chevrolet Dealers, that we are here to stay and that we are dedicated to serve the automotive needs of the community to the best of our abilities, separately and collectively."

Rademacher pointed out that many people in the area feel that they have to go to Detroit to get a better price on a new car or to get a better deal.

"Nothing could be further from the truth," stated Rademacher. "As a matter of fact, it is frequently just the opposite. It is a matter of record that we beat Detroit competition."

Secretary-Treasurer Joe Lunghammer said, "Naturally each Chevrolet dealer wants to do more business, but one of our principal aims is to persuade all car buyers that we believe in the future of the North Oakland community and, as businessmen, we want all citizens to know that we are going to make it easy and convenient to do business with us because we are here, we are going to stay here, and we are going to maintain standards of operating that will make it entirely unnecessary for anybody to buy anywhere else. In short, we're neighbors, and we're going to operate as good neighbors."

Advertising will start in the immediate future. Newspaper schedules will appear in the Oakland Press, Clarkston News, Lake Orion Review, Rochester Clarion, Rochester Eccentric. WPON radio will carry the broadcast schedule.

In advertising the dealers will promote the theme, "The Dealers Four."

Building down

A total of $519,794 in new construction is revealed in the August report for building permits.

The figure is nearly three-fourths of a million dollars less than that reported for the same month last year, when commercial and multiple development was significant.

Home permits are also down, however. The report shows that while permits amounting to $935,212 in new construction were applied for last year, the figure for the past month was just $438,664.

Varicose Veins

One of every two women over 40, and one of every four men in that age group develop varicose veins, so it's not surprising to learn the problem has been recognized since antiquity.

"Varicose" comes from the Latin word for swollen, and this aptly describes the enlarged veins doctors call "varicosities." They are most often found on the inner side and back of the calf, and on the inside of the thigh.

Veins carry valves which allow the blood to flow only toward the heart. If these valves leak, the blood flows backward, increasing blood pressure in the vein just below the faulty valve. When continually subjected to these abnormally high pressures, the veins become stretched and swollen.

Doctors have traced the problem back to our ancestry, some diseases (such as phlebitis), abnormal pressures from the stomach muscles, obesity, increasing age (and a loss of tone in skin and tissues), long periods of standing, pregnancy and the wearing of tight, confining garments such as girdles.

Your doctor may first try to eliminate the cause, and then may prescribe rest, support hosiery or elastic bandages. In severe cases, he will probably suggest injections or surgery. Today, even the worst case usually responds to such treatment.

Garden club flower show

Mrs. Jack DeLorge had mums and dahlias with glads and greens arranged in a three-legged china bowl.

Mrs. W. E. Whitmer displays rose pips in a copper kettle arrangement.

Mrs. James Hitchcock arranges verbena and zinnia blooms in an old silver baby mug.

Mrs. Frank Lambert eyes a miniature arrangement of two rosebuds and a sprig of sweet alyssum in an old perfume bottle, prepared by Mrs. Florence Hubbard. Her own arrangement of marigolds is in an old German inkstand.

Mrs. L. F. Greene with geraniums in a cocktail hibachi and Mrs. R. E. Spohn with dahlias in an antique Pennsylvania Red Ware bowl were entrants.

Mrs. Malcolm McCord featured fall flowers in a hollowed out squash for the center arrangement at luncheon.

David Seifert (right), 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Seifert of 7954 Perry Lake Road, appraises a 41½ pound pink banana squash — one of four which grew from four seeds he sprinkled in the family garden. His brother, Todd, 3, can't even lift one. Their mother says the seeds were supposed to produce squash only about 10 pounds in weight. She thinks the horse manure they obtained from a neighbor for the garden must have helped.
