Midget footballers start season

On Sunday, September 24 at 1 p.m. more than 150 midget gridders and cheerleaders for the Independence Township Chiefs will be initiating their second season with the home opener at the Clarkston Senior High football field. The Lakeland Lakers will be their opponents. The public is cordially invited. There will be no admission charge.

The Chiefs are members of the 12-team Suburban Midget Football Conference. Practice for the 3-team unit started right after Labor Day and continues at two different sites: both the freshman and junior varsity teams at Pine Knob Elementary School and the varsity team at Clarkston Elementary School.

Head coaches are: freshmen, Dick Heath; junior varsity, Darrel Williams; and varsity, Bob Pearson.

With more than 400 spectators on September 17 at Clarkston Senior High football field, a scrimmage was held between the 3-team unit of the Chiefs and the Walled Lake Hawks.

Two community-wide fund raising projects are now underway: a candy sale with Gordon Sawyer as chairman and Ken Ross is chairman of a snowmobile raffle which will take place on November 5.

Schedule for the Chiefs:
Sept. 24—Lakeland Lakers (home)
Oct. 1—Walled Lake Eagles (away)
Oct. 8—Madison Heights Spartans (away)
Oct. 15—Lakeland Corsairs (away)
Oct. 21—Troy Panthers (home)
Oct. 29—Madison Heights Wildcats (home)

Jim's Jottings

By Jim Sherman

I first took up tennis at age 13. The only part of the game I learned was the count of "love." I gave it all up after an hour or so.

I next took up tennis at age 46. I gave it up after an hour or so again. Only this time I was writhing with pain. I pulled a muscle or something in the calf of one leg.

We were north with four other couples on a golf weekend. One guy, George Arthur Wait, thought the host said goof weekend, and brought two rackets. If I could run, or even walk fast, he'd have a racket necktie.

Hazel, my kind, considerate wife, said, "You know you're too old to play tennis with the 40-year-olds." Her voice trailed off... "no fool like an old fool," I guessed.

An application of Ben Gay brought heat in from the outside of the stricken area. An application of kickapoo juice taken orally did more toward making the pain bearable.

Being with your peers does not generate sympathy. Oh, they outwardly expressed concern, mopped my brow and tried to see that I was comfortable in a reclining chair.

Then they went off to play golf, tossing back such sincere remarks as: I was going to give you strokes today, too. We'll miss your company. Don't jog on that leg.

However, some good comes from all things, they say. While lying motionless waiting for a friendly smile, one of the wives broke into gales of laughter when she spotted the roll of fat that has become increasingly more evident above my belt.

Damn the clothing designers who came up with the close fitting knit shirts. Of course, at one time that same shirt did not fit close.

Anyway, this gal announced to the room that every inch of roll meant 10 pounds of overweight.

She guessed my problem at 30 pounds.

So, it's back to my fighting weight, 217 or less, depending on whom I fight.

Three inches of roll? Is it really that thick?"

If a newspaper in Michigan decides to promote the state lottery (and some have), or prints the names of winners of the lottery, it is subject to prosecution.

Present federal law makes it illegal to mail news which promotes lotteries or lists names of winners.

Sometime before Gus Harrison calls the winning number in the substitute tax plan (substituted for tax reform) the law should be changed to prevent further overcrowding of the court calendars.

Sportsmen host open house

Outdoor sports equipment including camping trailers and snowmobiles will be on exhibit Saturday, September 23 at an open house of the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club on Waterford Road.

The program marks the opening of National Hunting and Fishing Week as proclaimed by President Nixon, according to Jack Greathouse, chairman for the day.

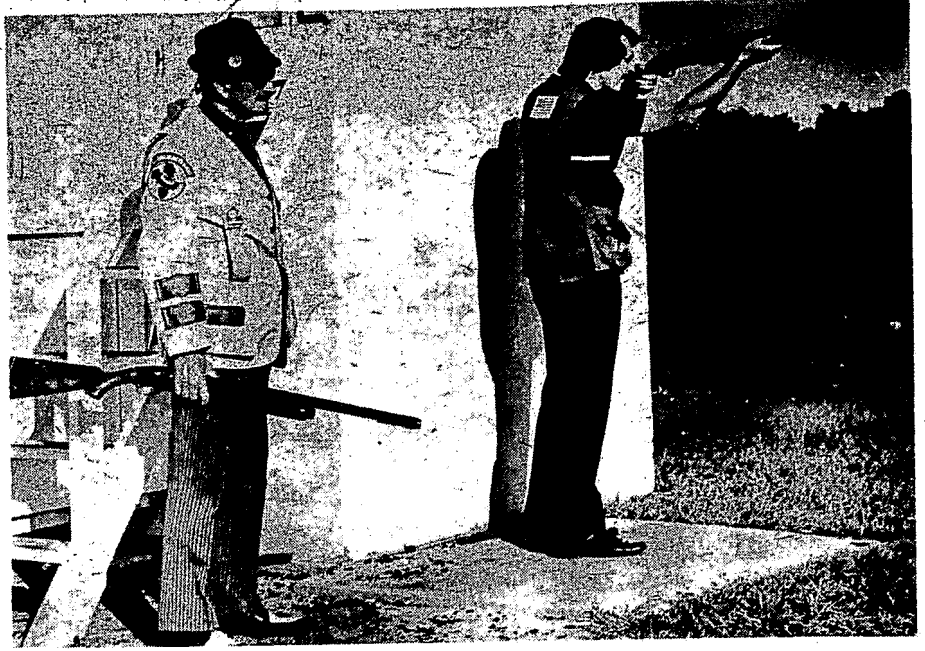

Greathouse said exhibitions in skeet, trap, archery, pistol shooting and flycasting will continue through the day beginning at 10 a.m. Greathouse's own display of outdoor paintings will be on exhibit.

$2,550 plus

Sewer cost estimates spelled out

It's going to cost Independence Township homeowners in the neighborhood of $2,550 to connect the sewer once it's completed, according to members of the Independence Township Sewer Committee.

That's in addition to whatever it will cost the homeowner to connect from his house to the sewer tap-in at the property line. Costs there have been estimated at $6 to $8 a linear foot if a contractor is hired to do the job. Since most homes in Independence Township have a 40-foot setback and since most septic run off the back of the house, it is conceivable that the expense for connecting to the main line could be in excess of $350.

Robert Vandermark, secretary of the committee, says the $2,550 figure has been arrived at by adding a lateral benefit fee of $1,600 to a capital-benefit charge of $950.

Service charges for use of the sewer once it is connected is expected to amount to $21.25 a quarter, he said.

There are 2,107 homes in the township which abut the sewer, the secretary reported. Pending legislation in Lansing, which has already cleared the House of Representatives, would make it mandatory that all connect within a year after the sewer system is completed.

A homeowner has the option of paying the $2,550 fee immediately or putting the costs on a 20-year payment plan. Over a 20-year period, financing charges could bring the total cost to $3,825, paid at the rate of $191.12 a year, Vandermark said.

He added however that people who initially sign up for the time payment plan may pay the full cost at any time with a corresponding drop in finance charges.

By using such a financial scale, sewer fees should provide the township with a $1.6 million surplus by the year 2,000, he said. Some $27 million will have been paid to meet obligations resulting from sewer construction.

He said the surplus might be needed to meet yearly payments in poor years when people were not able to pay, it might be used to finance the beginning stages of subsequent extensions, or it might be refunded or dropped from billing charges as the years progressed.

Any shortages in meeting the bond obligations to finance the sewer would have to be made up in an ad valorem tax, he said. Such a tax would affect all residents of the township, not just those serviced by the sewer, he noted.

In order to insure that the money needed to pay off the bond obligation is raised, it is necessary that all abutting homeowners join the system. Vandermark said. For that reason, he believes, state law will be amended to require connections, which in turn would require a change in the township ordinance, he said.

Currently serving on the sewer committee with Vandermark are Richard Huttenlocher and Helene Raisen. There are two vacancies on the committee including that created when John Lynch resigned as chairman last spring.

Vandermark noted that none of the cost figures are final. They will have to be set by the township board, he said.

Diane Leaf (left), teen zip code chairman for the annual ALSAC/Danny Thomas teenagers' march to collect funds for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital with volunteers, Mary Fahrner, Betty Hitchcock, Bonnie Parker and Kari O'Neill, get a head start on the weekend drive at the home of Mrs. Richard Leaf, North Main Street. The girls will collect funds Saturday and Sunday in the area for research and treatment of leukemia and other related blood diseases.

Voter registration drive starts Friday

An all-out effort to register voters by October 6, enabling them to vote in the November 7 general election, has been launched by Independence Township Clerk J. Edwin Glennie.

Glennie said he presently has signed up 22 voter registrars and is looking for eight more to man Friday and Saturday locations this coming weekend and the following at the A&P grocery, Food Town and in downtown Clarkston.

Registrations will be accepted at the outside locations from 5 to 8 p.m. Fridays, September 22 and 29, and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays, September 23 and 30, he said.

Glennie added that some of the local trailer sales have donated trailers and campers for use in the registration drive.

"All in all, things are shaping up very well and the cooperation has been terrific," said the clerk who came under fire last week for his dismissal of two registrars on conflict of interest charges.

Those who have volunteered for the

Libstaff named

Jim Libstaff is the newly elected president of Clarkston Village Players. He succeeds Homer Biondi who has been named vice president. Bob Arend is the treasurer, Janice Walker the corresponding secretary, and Pat Thomas the recording secretary.

Players have settled on the production of "Dracula" for their opening performance the last week of October in keeping with the Halloween spirit. Casting will be open to the public.

Members were informed the week of September 17-23 has been proclaimed by Governor Milliken as Community Theater Week. All citizens have been urged to give appropriate recognition to the important contribution which community theaters make to the cultural enrichment of the state.

Reassessing nearly complete

Residential property, which makes up 85 percent of the Independence Township tax base, is nearly all inspected under a program which began here last fall.

The United Appraisal Corp. of Cleveland, Ohio, has covered the township with the exception of Waterford Hill, parts of the village, homes where it has become necessary to call back, and new construction, according to Township Assessor Robert Vandermark.

He said many inequities had been found with some properties assessed as low as 16 percent of market value and some as high as 85 percent. All should be assessed at 50 percent, according to state law.

While the results of the reassessment program will not be felt in this December's tax bills, they will be in those mailed out December, 1973, Vandermark said.

He noted that a dollar scale has not yet been chosen. The appraisers have instead been turning in information on dimensions, condition, extenuating circumstances, type of structure and lot sizes. This information will be used to figure assessment values, he added.

Because the township must keep in line with county assessment regulations and because of a three-year sales study just completed by that body, Vandermark feels assessments on residential property will be going up next year as much as 12 percent.

The county's three-year study has taken into regard the jump in property prices in Independence Township in the last year and a half, Vandermark noted. It, however, includes a 5 percent deduction from the sale price for items of personal property which might be included in the sale. It does not, as yet, include any deductions for realtors' fees or mortgage points, he noted.

The assessor feels the riddance of inequities will benefit homeowners. He notes that one lowly assessed house can now increase the tax factor for a whole area.

"In the long run the fairly assessed taxpayers pay for most of the amounts by which other taxpayers are under assessed," he said.

Yet to be surveyed in the township is commercial, industrial and vacant property, he noted.

Reese Road fears calmed

Agreement on the part of the developer to abide by acre and a half lot sizes has calmed many residents of Reese Road who feared city-type development on 40 acres in their midst.

Larry Mattingly has informed the Independence Township Planning Commission that he will accept the larger lot sizes in lieu of 15,000 square foot lots as permitted under present zoning.

The planning commission will review his plans and similar ones for development of the former Ruggles property on Reese Road at its meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, September 21.

It will also take action on proposed interim zoning for the area which would set up a new R-1-B classification calling for the acre and a half minimums in the area. The township zoning ordinance now lists residential property with just the 15,000 square foot minimum.

The commission will meet in special session at 7:30 p.m. November 1 to finish its responses to a questionnaire put out by the Oakland County Planning Department in regard to its Partners in Planning program. Growth policy questions are to be answered.

Land group to meet

Independence Township Land Conservancy will meet at 8 p.m. Monday, September 25, at the township hall to introduce its program to residents. New members will be solicited. All persons interested in preserving open space in the township are urged to attend.

Editorial

Good business

Excellent evidence that developers and local government can work together for the good of the community was presented at last week's Independence Township Planning Commission meeting.

There were no court suits involved when Larry Mattingly who proposes a subdivision on Reese Road voluntarily agreed to acre and a half minimum lot sizes. His previous intention of building of smaller lots of 15,000 square feet was put away in the face of residents' unhappiness.

It seems to us to be good business on the part of all concerned. Developers also stand to gain from a well planned area, and those who live along Reese Road will see the rural character of the neighborhood maintained.

The Munich murders

By Jim Fitzgerald

I was in Munich in the wake of the terror. That is, I wasn't there when the Jews were murdered, but I arrived soon after.

I walked around the business district. I can't speak German so I sought out other Americans. I wanted to know how they felt about the awful things that had happened. They were as stunned as I was about the killing of the Jews. The most common comment was: "I just can't believe it happened."

A friend of mine could speak some German. He asked a shopkeeper and one of his customers, a fat woman, about the killings. They also expressed shock and dismay. "I am surprised that such a thing could happen in a civilized world," the German woman said.

Throughout Munich's business district, it was much the same. There were a lot of people in the streets, but not much noise. Nobody was saying much, but somehow it was easy to see that everyone was thinking the same thing: This is bad, so bad . . .

A couple of us bummed a ride to 9 miles outside the city, where the worst of it had happened. We didn't expect to see much. Everything was still fenced off, with lots of guards and guns. The truth, I guess, is just that we wanted to be able to go home and say: "Yes, I was there. I saw where some of those poor Jews were killed."

That's human nature. People want to see where awful things happened. They walk around Civil War battlefields, and buy souvenirs. They go to Dallas and point at the Texas School Book Depository building.

"This place will become a tourist attraction overnight," my friend in Munich said.

We pressed closer to the fenced-off area and caught the attention of a guard. It's a grisly thing to admit, but we hoped maybe he'd been around for some of the killing. Maybe he'd seen something exciting, or maybe he'd even been involved.

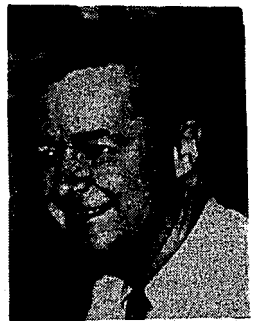

But no. He said he didn't know anything about the killing of the Jews. He looked as dismayed and subdued as everyone else.

I didn't stay in Munich long but I'll never forget the day I was there, after the terror. I was a member of the 12th Armored Division, stationed not far away in a town called Hiedenheim. Some of us had hitchhiked over mostly to see a concentration camp in a Munich suburb called Dachau.

It was a sunny day in May, 1945. 27 years before the 1972 Olympics in Munich.

Progress. Between Hitler's murders and the Olympic murders, we went to the moon. But we haven't gotten anywhere at all.

LINCOLN AND KENNEDY

Were linked in life and death by a startling number of parallels.

Both President Lincoln and President Kennedy were concerned with the civil rights issue.

Lincoln was elected in 1860... Kennedy was elected in 1960.

Both Lincoln and Kennedy, during their term of presidency, lost a son through death.

Deeply concerned for President Lincoln's safety was a police superintendent; his name: John Kennedy.

Deeply concerned with President Kennedy's safety was his secretary; her name: Mrs. Lincoln.

Both were slain on a Friday and in the presence of their wives.

Both were shot from behind.

Both were shot in the head.

Both failed to regain consciousness.

Both successors were named Johnson.

Both successors were Southern Democrats who had served in the U.S. Senate.

Andrew Johnson was born in 1808; Lyndon Johnson was born in 1908.

Both assassins were southerners favoring unpopular ideas.

Both assassins were slain before they could be brought to trial.

John Wilkes Booth shot President Lincoln in a theater and escaped to a warehouse.

Lee Harvey Oswald shot President Kennedy from a warehouse and escaped to a theater.

The names Lincoln and Kennedy each contain seven letters.

The names John Wilkes Booth and Lee Harvey Oswald each contain fifteen letters.

The names Andrew Johnson and Lyndon Johnson each contain thirteen letters.

Registrar reports

Dear Editor:

Twelve years ago I made a personal vow to donate at least 4 hours of my time per week toward worthwhile community service. When I was appointed last February by the Township Board, acting because we had no voting Clerk, as a voter registrar, I was delighted to have the opportunity to donate my time and efforts to this project.

Mrs. Herner who has worked on elections many years and is an authority on election laws, gave us our instructions and made herself available to answer our questions.

The duplications Mr. Glennie refers to were taken when a voter was not sure whether or not he was registered. It was the feeling of the township that it was better to have an extra application for registration than not to get the voter registered. All doubtful ones were indicated with a note for the election workers' convenience.

There is a master file of registered voters making it impossible for a person to be registered twice. All information requested by the township was filled in on the applications.

Mr. Herron took the initiative and began a very successful registration campaign in which we registered people evenings, all day Friday and Saturday at Food Town and the A&P. I personally donated about 20 hours a week working in these centers in addition to registering heart patients, senior citizens and mothers with small children in their homes. March 1 I received a letter from Robert Vandermark, then acting Clerk, saying "I would like to personally thank you for doing a competent job of taking voters' registrations... your care to do a proper job has made the registration campaign easier for myself, Mrs. Herner and the election workers of the Township." Mrs. Herner told us personally that there were no more mistakes than would have been made in the office.

Mr. Glennie asked me last June if I would mind Bob Garner taking my place so he could register voters the 4th of July. When I pointed out to him that it is illegal to register voters on Sunday and holidays, Mr. Glennie decided he would leave it as it was.

We were disappointed when Mr. Glennie only made a token effort at a voter registration drive, with 1,600 people to register and many who have 9 to 5 jobs or cannot leave their homes, we need all the registrars we can get. I understand Mr. Glennie and Mrs. Hallman are taking voter registrations. Why is it in "conflict of interest" for Democrats to register people and not for Republicans? Why can't a "professional" program begin to match a citizens' program?

I urge everyone who is not registered to make the effort to register.

If you have moved from another township you must re-register in this community.

Every citizen must vote if we are going to have a government that represents the people. Don't let a minority dictate the rules. If you need a ride to register call me at 394-0108.

Didn't like coverage

Dear Mrs. Saile:

The Clarkston News was delivered today and I anxiously went through the paper hunting for the coverage of the Sunday open house of Independence Center. To say I was disappointed is an understatement. The enthusiasm and hard work of the many involved was in no way reflected in the pictures (honestly, I have rarely seen group photos where faceless people are the dominant subjects) or in your terse report.

I hesitate to make a judgment but it does seem that you do not share the enthusiasm of the citizens and agencies who have given their time and support to establish this center for everyone in the township.

Many people commented on the inviting appearance of the center and the warmth and congeniality evident at the open house itself. You apparently missed the spirit that seemed important to everyone that I talked to.

I am sorry that you do not share more of an interest in independence center because it goes without saying that the center needs its local newspaper to aid in getting the word to the people in the township who need or will need the help that this center can afford them.

Very truly yours,
Janet R. Thomas

Editor's note: Further perusal of the Clarkston News will show that we have indeed followed the development of independence center with interest and support. We intend to continue coverage on the valuable service it offers the community. I agree with you — the atmosphere of warmth at the reception and the appearance of the building was indeed fine.

Contradictions

To the Editor:

There is nowhere in this world where you can vote for the party of your choice any more freely than you can here.

There is nowhere in this world where you can speak and write as freely as you do here without fear;

There is nowhere in this world where you can travel as freely as you do here without passports;

There is nowhere in this world where you will see so many healthy, happy children romping and playing about;

There is nowhere in this world where the prosperity of the people shows more clearly;

There is nowhere in this world where there is so much beauty about you as you travel;

There is nowhere in this world where you can go to the church of your choice and pray to Our God the way you want to with more freedom than you can here;

For all this freedom, we are taking dope, defacing our flag in clothing, draperies or painting, dodging the draft, polluting our waterways and lakes, littering our streets and highways, littering our bookstores and theatres with pornography being disrespectful to our law enforcement officers, being disrespectful of our educational institutions, supporting blacks' equal rights protesting, but neglecting our American Indian, failing to provide protection for the victim of robbery, rape, etc., letting laws run amuck with offenders free to roam and repeat their offenses while waiting for trial, tolerating inadequate penal institutions and mental hospitals; overtaxin the property owner; and keeping our appreciation small.

It would seem to me that we need to take a long look at ourselves and re-evaluate.

Supports Ronk

Dear Editor:

I have heard many people make statements about the salary of our Fire Chief, Frank Ronk. I wonder how many of these people would change jobs with him.

Ask yourself if you would be on constant call 24 hours a day every day of the year, never really sleep good because of wondering when the alarm may go off. Could you go into a house that is completely on fire to find a small child only to find you are too late? Could you dig the remains of what was a man from the burned out shell of a small plane and then maybe have to tell that man's family?

Would you accept the responsibility of 10-20 men whose main interest is to save some complete stranger's home or maybe his family, and when he may get hurt, be able to know how to help him? If you can say "yes" to all these questions, then you too are a special type of person like Tink Ronk. Thank you for your space.

Bill Halsey

More on registration

Letter to the Editor

When the incumbent clerk in Independence Township fired the two working democratic registrars, he said he thought there was a conflict of interest because one was a candidate, the other the husband of a candidate. Yet he is a candidate, and he registers voters, and he has appointed the Republican candidate for treasurer to also take registrations. In other words, the two Republican candidates CAN register voters, but the Democratic candidate and relative of a candidate CANT, because that's a conflict of interest.

The sad part of this is the sick reasoning that there is some connection to the law which states that relatives of candidates cannot work at the polls on election day, which has absolutely nothing to do with registering people, away from the polls, weeks before election day.

The most unfortunate part of all, is the list of 250 people that I have who are waiting at home for someone to come to their house to get them registered, as I promised someone would. Many of these people had a leg in a cast or were just home from a hospital stay, or an operation, or just plain too ill, or had no transportation, or worked the same hours as the township hall, and were unable to get registered.

Everyone, without a single exception, was delighted to be able to register at home. But Glennie is getting worried with all these new registrations we've been turning in, and so he has stopped it.

At a time of mass voter registration drives and vigorous attempts to get everyone possible registered, he squelches our efforts and ties our hands. I know this will not reach all of the 250 people left on my list, but it is my hope that any who do read this and may need transportation or assistance to get registered will call me and I will be glad to help in any way I can.

Milzow gets partial nod on apartments

Conceptual approval has been given by the Clarkston Village Council for an extension of Forrest Milzow's Surrey Lane apartments off Holcomb on the former Sage property.

Full approval is subject to Milzow's conformance with planner and code demands of the village, the council agreed last week.

Milzow plans to build apartments similar to those north of the project.

There was another go-round on Milzow's new office building on Main Street next to the Town Shop. Temporary building occupancy permission has been given with full details yet to be worked out regarding a village easement providing rear access to the building in exchange for Milzow's easement which would permit the public to use stairs he is constructing between his building and the Clarkston Conservatory. The stairs would eventually serve village-owned land at the rear, to be used either as a park or for parking for South Main Street customers. Milzow agreed to replace and repair trees damaged in the building process.

In other business the council extended the village tax deadline to October 16.

It has initiated a dye process with homeowners along the Upper Mill Pond to trace pollution sources; a visual inspection while the Mill Pond was lowered having failed to turn up any actual — though several suspected — contributors.

It has also taken under study the request of Hawk Tool to work with him in cleaning out the stream at the rear of the Hawk property. Silt from storm drains has reportedly lowered the depth of the stream to a matter of inches where it used to be measured in feet.

An attempt to get the State Highway Department and the County Road Commission to trim trees along M-15 has also been initiated.

The council denied permission to Pontiac Disabled American Veterans to solicit funds in the village. The area is presently serviced by local organizations, it was reported.

New opinion

Water fund

It appears Independence Township may not have to reimburse its water fund $33,000 after all.

The repayment was indicated last week by Attorney Richard Campbell in reviewing the financing of the water and sewer survey which took place three years ago.

The survey cost $77,000, $44,000 of which was refunded when sewer bonds were sold this year.

Campbell said this week the original agreement binding the use of water funds has been located and restrictions limiting its use only to maintenance, operation, repair or improvement of water systems within the township were in effect only to June 5, 1957.

He also noted that under the original agreement the $225 paid by homeowners were listed as tap-in fees and were not held for any specific purpose.

"Based on those two facts, I am preparing an opinion that the township can use those funds for whatever purpose it deems best," he said.

It has previously appeared that money from the general fund might have to be transferred to the water fund to make good on the deficit.

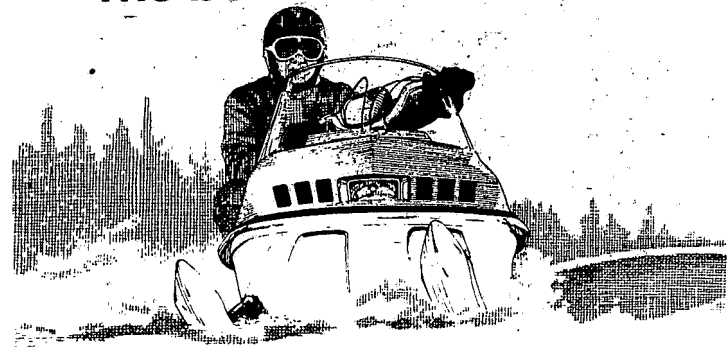

Several homeowners, members of the water system, met Monday night at the township hall to plan a concerted line of action against what they feel is improper use of the water funds.

One woman said she had a petition bearing a hundred signatures which protests the use of water funds for the sewer and water survey. There were about 20 people present at the meeting.

Though representing only 22 percent of all licensed drivers in the U.S., under 25 year old drivers were involved in more than one-third of traffic accidents resulting in death or injury, according to a report from The Travelers Insurance Companies.

Snowmobiles are still pretty much the same.

Women's Club "involved"

By Pat Booth

"Involvement" is the name of the game and the Clarkston Women's Club is starting the season off with just that in mind.

The first meeting of the fall will be September 28 at 8 p.m. in the newly opened Independence Center, formerly the Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church, on Maybee Road.

Membership chairman Mrs. Cliff Irwin and Program Chairman Mrs. Theron Taylor promise an enjoyable evening for all interested Clarkston area women.

The club meets the fourth Thursday of each month. Activities for the coming year include the Community Blood Mobile, Fall Home Tour, Library Story Hour, Township Library, Birthday Calendar Sales, Student Aid Fund and Treasure Hunt in the spring.

To live in Drayton

Drayton Plains will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gale E. Mosier, wed September 15 at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Rochester.

The bride is the former Patricia Osbo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Osbo, 6589 Northview Drive. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman B. Mosier of 5099 Drayton Road.

Some 200 guests witnessed the traditional ceremony performed by Rev. William Richards.

A gown of candlelight ivory sat-a-peau and Alencon lace was chosen by the bride. It was styled with a soft Victorian neckline and bodice flowing into an A-line skirt and bustled train. She carried a cascade of white glameillas and sweetheart roses.

Mrs. James Tallenger of Waterford as matron of honor wore an ivory and bittersweet chiffon gown styled with long sleeves and full skirt. Bridesmaids were Ann Osbo of Mount Clemens and Martha Hutchins of Pontiac.

Annette and Diane Gonzales of Drayton Plains were flower girl and ring bearer, respectively.

Frank Bigger served as best man with Larry Milam and David Ovegian seating the guests.

Hawaii bound

Marine Ronald C. Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gilbert of 10179 King Road, Davisburg, wed Gail Diane Jacobson, daughter of Mrs. Herbert Jacobson and the late Herbert Jacobson of Troy, September 9 at First Baptist Church in Birmingham.

The groom is stationed with the Marines at Kaneohe, Hawaii. The Gilberts will make their residence in Kailua, Hawaii, where the bride has been employed as a nurse's aide.

Dr. Robert Middleton officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Lakeland music club has program

The Lakeland Sounds of Music Club, affiliated with the National and Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, will have its first program of the year at 8 p.m. Monday, September 25. The concert will be at the home of Mrs. Leo Hess, 2288 Fairport, Drayton Plains. Anyone interested in music is welcome to attend, Mrs. Hess said. Further information is available by calling 673-6427 or 625-2288.

The bride chose an empire waisted silk organza gown trimmed with Venetian lace. Debbie Wilson served as maid of honor with Pam Jacobson, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid.

Guy Thorn of Davisburg was best man. Kent Thorn and Doug Soncrant, both of Davisburg, seated guests.

Keeley Harris of Troy was flower girl with Clay Thorn serving as ring bearer.

Following a reception at First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall, the couple left for a honeymoon in Hawaii.

California guests

by Shanna Nadolsky

625-2837

Howard and Donna Cook of Santa Anna, California, recently spent a week here visiting Donna's parents, the David Beals of Edgar road. Howard's parents, also from Santa Anna, spend the summer months visiting in Jackson, Michigan, every year and were able to join the Beals one evening for dinner. The former Donna Beals is a Clarkston High School graduate.

There are some buttons popping at the Don Ryckman home on Dubuque. Their first grandchild, Christopher Alan was born September 5. Six pound, thirteen ounce Christopher is the son of Ed and Sandra Vallad of Union Lake.

Friends will be sorry to hear that Lana Appleton of Winell has been hospitalized for a short period. Lana is the current president of the Clarkston Area Jaycee Auxiliary. If anyone would like to send her a card, she is in the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. Hope you're feeling better soon, Lana.

David W. Worden of 4205 West Worden, Drayton Plains, has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll for academic excellence during the summer school session at the Lawrence Institute of Technology. He maintained an all-A average in his studies.

Worden, an architectural student, is a graduate of Waterford Kettering High School.

Christian Gillis has been a busy little boy. Turning four years old on September 18 has produced quite a chain of events. The 17th started the festivities with a small party at his grandparents', Mr. and Mrs. Ron Walter on Washington. Special guest which delighted Christian was his Uncle Ron who came from Milwaukee.

The second stage of celebrating was Monday when several nursery school friends came to his home on Washington for cake and ice cream following school.

The third stage, Wednesday, Christian shared the limelight with his cousin, Tom Gillis, who turned six years old. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gillis of Perry Lake Road came to Tom's home to help both grandsons celebrate in family style. Christian is the son of Bill and Carol Gillis of E. Washington and Tom is the son of Bob and Ann Gillis of N. Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Church of Westview and their business partners, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mason of W. Longfellow in Pontiac, have returned from a glorious week in sunny Spain. In addition to the sights of Spain, they enjoyed Tangiers and Portugal. The Churches and the Masons are owners of the Clarkston Power Center on Dixie Highway.

A gala Bon Voyage party last Saturday drew 120 good friends together. Mr. and Mrs. William Liddicoat (the former Duffy Bell) were honored before their move to Saudi Arabia next week. Mr. Liddicoat is a geologist from Ann Arbor. Hosts and hostesses for the event held at the Art Roses on Dixie Highway were the Gary Duncans, the Tudor ApMadocs, the David Hertlers, and of course, the Art Roses.

Doug Kath has started his college freshman year at Central Michigan University in Mount Pleasant.

Jan Weber of Lakeview received a most unusual birthday gift from her husband, Charlie. It came in a card - you know, good things come in small packages. In the card was some spending money and a brief note stating the following day was her day off! That morning she arose - late - to find Charlie had dressed and fed the children, and cleaned up the kitchen. She then got in the car and spent the entire day shopping, browsing, and totally enjoying herself on her very special day off. Congratulations, Chuck - a superb idea.

Okinawa their home

Pamela K. Guilds and Sgt. William L. Blodgett were wed September 15 at All Saint's Episcopal Church in Pontiac. Rev. George Widdifield performed the candlelight ceremony before 200 guests.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Guilds of 5991 Maybee Road, chose a chiffon and lace empire-waisted dress. She carried orchids.

Her sister, Mrs. Judy Cohoon of 6180 Sunnydale, was matron of honor in an orchid chiffon dress. Carol Morse of Clarkston, Sherri Anthony of Drayton Plains and Betsy Blodgett of Waterford were maids of honor.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blodgett of Pontiac, was attended by John Dunlap of Waterford. David Cohoon Sr. of Clarkston, Glen Anthony of Drayton Plains and Doug Baden of Waterford seated the guests.

Nonnie Caverly, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and David Cohoon Jr., nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Following a reception for 200 at the David Belsi VFW Hall in Waterford Township, the couple left for a honeymoon in Tokyo, Japan. They will reside on Okinawa until next April.

Junior Miss plans roll

Clarkston Jaycees have chosen 8 p.m. Saturday, November 18, for their 11th annual Junior Miss Pageant at the Clarkston High School.

Theme for this year's pageant will be "Up, Up and Away," according to Bill Halsey, project chairman.

Orientation for all interested senior high girls will be at 7 p.m. September 21 at the school's Little Theater. Applications for entry will be available.

Contestants for the Junior Miss title are judged in the areas of scholastic achievement, physical fitness, poise and appearance, creative and performing arts, and an interview with the panel of judges.

The young woman selected as this year's Junior Miss will be awarded a scholarship to the college of her choice. The funds which enable the Jaycees to award the scholarship are made available through contributions of local businessmen and private citizens.

Such sponsorships are available by calling Halsey at 625-4057.

National finals will be in Mobile, Alabama, at which time the winner will receive a $10,000 scholarship to the college of her choice.

Spiritual Message

"LOVING THE UNLOVABLE"

Joseph Fletcher in "Situation Ethics" says, "Love wills the neighbors good will whether we like him or not." To love in the Christian way is a matter of attitude rather than feeling. Alan Richardson's "A Theological Word Book of the Bible" points out that the predominant New Testament verb for love refers to our will rather than to our emotions. This means to say that Christian love is a feeling or anything of the kind is an unchristian concept of love. It is a conscious directing of our wills towards the well being of another person.

Therefore, our love can be commanded, whereas our feelings cannot. Remember, Jesus commanded us to "love God... and your neighbor as yourself." We make the decision as to whether we are going to be loving or unloving in each situation we face. If we do this, we do not just seek those who deserve our love nor do we select those we want to serve. We love each person we come into contact with regardless of whether they deserve our love or we want to serve them. This love may take the form of endorsing the person or reprimanding the person. St. Paul said, "Speak the truth in love."

CLARKSTON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Frank A. Cozadd

If all of this does not put Christian love in a new dimension for you, let us add one more thought. Christian love is expressed to our neighbors not for our own sake or for their sake, but for God's sake. Now we can understand why Christian love is the business of loving the unlovable.

In Christian bonds,
Frank A. Cozadd

Stamp club forming here

Clarkston and Independence area stamp collectors interested in organizing a club are invited to meet at Calvary Lutheran Church, 6805 Bluegrass, Clarkston at 3 p.m. this Sunday, September 24.

"Response to a small card posted in the Clarkston Post Office indicates considerable interest," according to Bob Walters who started a similar club in Chicago. "And since I'm a collector of First Day Covers, I hope a unit of our Clarkston club can specialize in F.D.C.'s."

There is one event open only to the very rich. It is a golf tournament. However, you will say, everybody plays golf. Not in this tournament. It is reserved only for those involved in producing oil. The Confederate Oil Golf Tournament is an affair open to about 1,000 oil men in the country, all millionaires, or on their way to being so. Sounds tempting, doesn't it?

You don't have to be rich to shop at SAVOIE INSULATION CO., 64 S. Main St., 625-2601. We invite you to make us your do-it-yourself headquarters for insulation; all kinds of lighting fixtures for any room; seamless aluminum gutters in 5 colors; and a wide variety of aluminum storm doors, windows and screens. Open: 7:30-5:30, Mon. - Fri.; 9-12, Sat.

HELPFUL HINT: Smoke disperser. Soak a towel in water, swish it around the room, and watch how quickly smoke disappears. A saucer of vinegar will do the trick also.

The all-day program will begin with registration at 9:30 a.m. followed by a film, "Only Human." Speakers Dr. Lino A. Romero, Director of the Oakland County Community Mental Health Services Board; John Madole, Assistant Director; and Peter Bickelmann, Public Information Officer will talk about present mental health needs in Oakland County and future plans of the board. The afternoon session will be devoted to discussion groups on aspects of mental health. The program will close at 3:30 p.m.

The public is invited to attend. There is no charge for the seminar. Lunch will be available in the Court House cafeteria.

Why Seat Belts?

While seat belts are one of the most effective of auto safety devices, they must be worn correctly, warns Dr. Donald Huelke, of the University of Michigan. As a matter of fact, he said, they can be potentially dangerous if the passenger slouches down, or wears the belt too high or too loose.

Safety experts say pregnant women should wear the restraints in the same way as other people, though they may be slightly uncomfortable, to prevent internal injury or abortion.

Seat belts are designed to prevent your being thrown out of the car in a crash, which was once the leading cause of serious and fatal auto injuries. They also minimize the effects of a second collision, and keep the driver in his seat so he can maintain as much control as possible.

In addition to wearing seat belts, you can reduce injury if you realize an accident is about to happen and can prepare for it. The driver should put both hands on the upper steering rim and rest his forehead on the back of his hands, just before impact.

Passengers should also lean forward, and put forearms on top of the instrument panel or (if they're sitting in the back) on the rear of the front seat. All occupants should plant their feet firmly, and flex their muscles to absorb the impact forces.

Oakland Y launches drive

The YMCA of North Oakland County is a new name for a seventy-five year old organization, according to Charles H. Collins, President, YMCA Board of Directors. Formerly known as the Pontiac YMCA, the name change is in accordance with increasing service and program development in the North Oakland County area.

With a building in downtown Pontiac, a branch in Rochester and program activities in Clarkston and Waterford Township, the YMCA of North Oakland County serves over 13,000 people each year.

September traditionally marks the annual date for Membership Campaign for the local YMCA, and this year is no exception. Between September 18-28 campaign workers will be canvassing the community seeking new members and participants for the many YMCA activities.

Chairperson for the 1972 campaign is Nancy Knapke, the second woman to serve on the YMCA Board of Directors, and the first to chair the membership campaign.

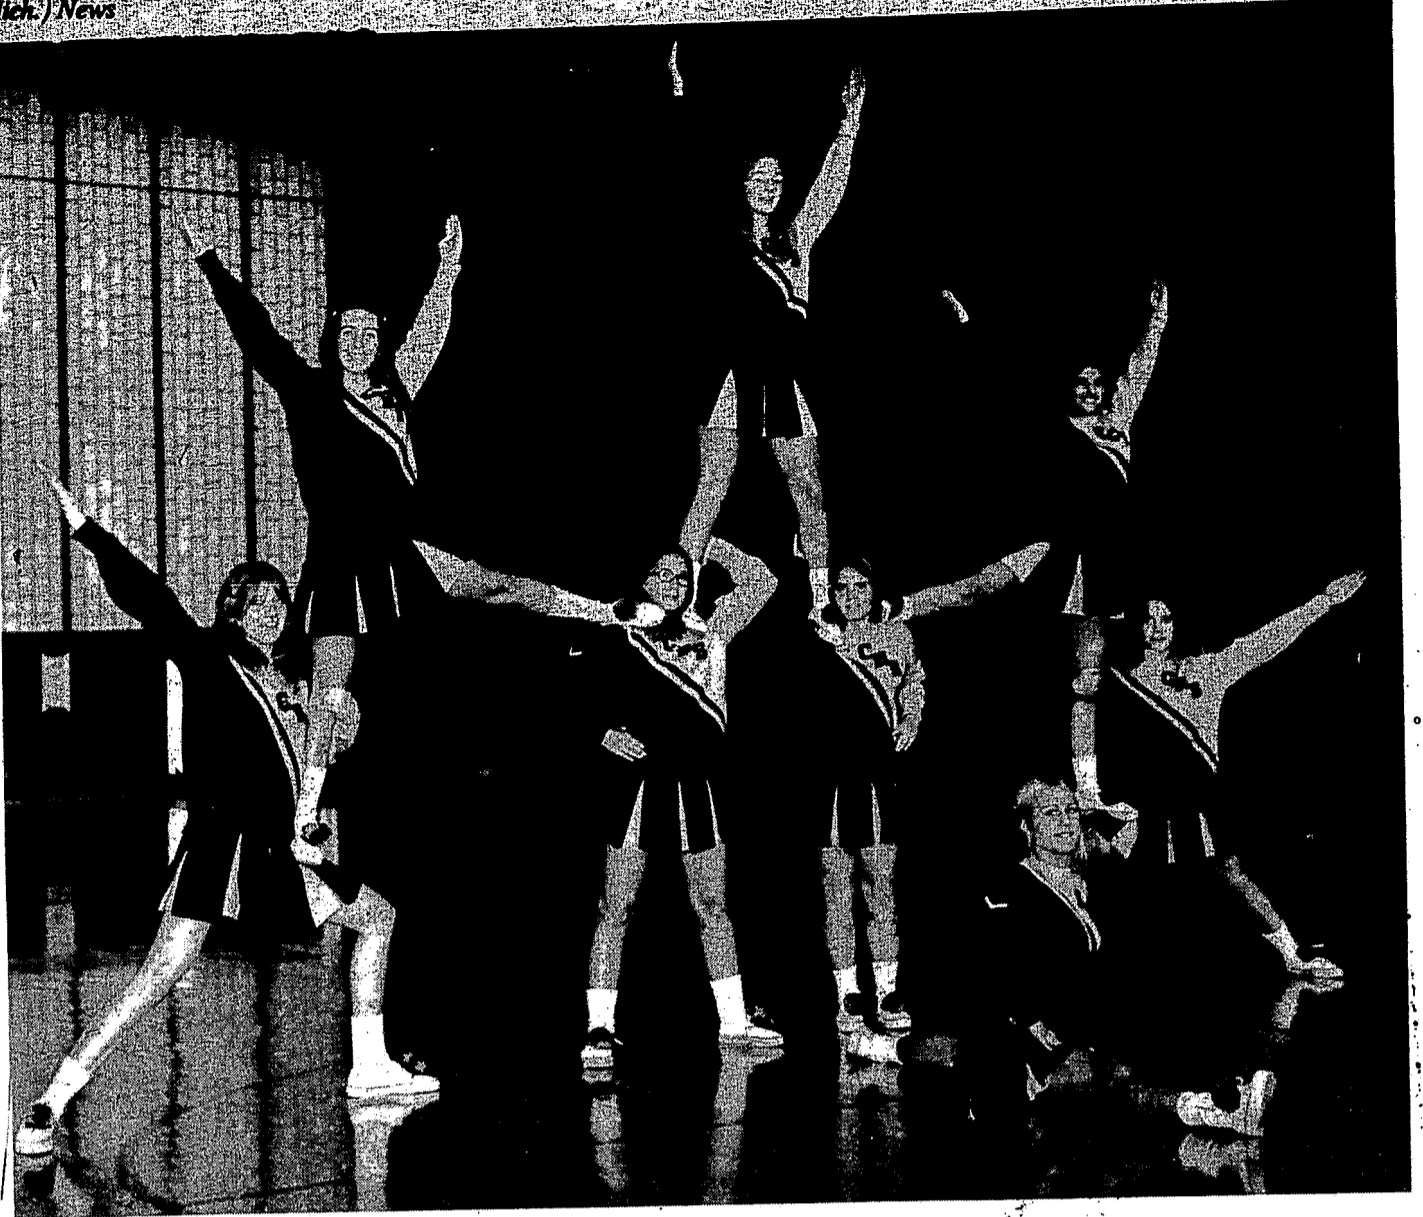

Ms. Knapke will lead a campaign team of some seventy-five volunteer workers, as they seek to attain a campaign goal of $36,600 in membership fees. Assisting Ms. Knapke as team captains will be: Glenn Fitzgerald, Carl Code, David Smith, Gerald Hoopfer, John Rogers, Billy Roach, Timothy Guban and Ted Preuter. The kick-off luncheon for membership campaign 1972 is Monday, September 18.

September 18 also marks the beginning of the local YMCA's fall activities schedule. Activities for children include the After School Bus Program, Triangle Program, Saturday Fun 'n Fitness, Judo, Ballet, Trampoline, Beginner Swim, Synchronized Swim, Y-Indian Guides and many other club, social and physical education events.

Special features for pre-school children include the popular ABC program, designed to teach and explore basic movement and motor skills in youngsters 18 months to 6 years of age. Diaper Swim, Kindersplash and Tiny Tot classes are also scheduled throughout the day and evening hours.

Men's Fitness, Miracle Morning, Twilight Hours, Exercise and Art, Scuba, Lifesaving, Nature-Fitness Hikes, Nutrition clinics, Ski Conditioning, Tennis and Swimming Instruction are among the many special interest activities scheduled for teens and adults. YMCA activities are available for men, women, boys and girls, with many family events also planned. Many events are designed especially for women, to give them an opportunity to learn, grow and do something "just a little different," while at the same time a hurried man can find "just the right time" for a refreshing, relaxing workout.

What should a sales contract include? Among other things it should include the total price of the house as well as the amount of the deposit and the amount of the down payment. It should also state the manner and percentage of financing. In addition there should be a list of any personal property to be included in the sale. Stated somewhere should be the exact period of time the seller has to accept or reject the offer and an agreed date on which the buyer may take possession. Michigan alive with color

Although Jack Frost already has touched the fringes of some forests, this state's peak fall-color touring season is not expected to begin until the end of September, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

The sumac plant — whose brilliant red signals that 85 species of hard and softwood trees are about to go from green to shades of yellow, orange and scarlet — is just starting to turn in the north.

"There are more than 19 million acres of Michigan forests and woodlands where the tourist can view color this fall," states Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager. "Fall color will be reflected in 11,000 inland lakes, along 36,000 miles of river and stream and 3,251 miles of Great Lakes shoreline."

Ratke estimates 600,000 families should take special trips now through October to view colors, and they should spend $50 million, a five percent increase over last fall.

How long the color season lasts in any area depends on the weather. Cold weather with heavy frost and strong wind means a short season, while warm weather with sunny days helps color remain in an area up to two weeks.

"The annual fall spectacular begins to peak in the tip of the Keweenaw Peninsula in the Upper Peninsula near the end of September," adds Ratke. "The show then begins a 50-to-75-mile-a-week march southward."

"This means that those who wish to follow the colors can begin viewing in the Upper Peninsula late this month, and continue watching until the show ends 400 miles later in southern Michigan at the end of October," says Ratke.

He adds that the average couple traveling 300 miles on a color tour can expect to spend $70 to $100 from Friday night to Sunday night.

Almost anywhere that a person travels in the state, special color tours have been arranged by chambers of commerce. All a person has to do is stop at the local chamber office and ask for information and special maps.

Auto Club's calendar for viewing the most spectacular color in various sections of the state is:

Upper Peninsula and northern tip of Lower Peninsula — September 29 to October 8.

Northern third of Lower Peninsula — October 6 to October 15.

Central Michigan — October 13 to October 22.

Southern Michigan — October 20 to October 31.

There are many types of wall coverings on the market today which can be installed easily and are fairly inexpensive. One of the nicest of these is plywood, which is now available in many types of surfaces, and also in many convenient shapes. Plywood, with an outer veneer of expensive wood, can make a beautiful covering for any wall. It can be fastened to the wall by adhesive, special metal clips, or nails. Why not see the selection that is available today?

If plywood won't do, try a fresh coat of paint or a striking new wallpaper from BOB'S HARDWARE, 60 S. Main St., 625-5020. We have the most complete line of Sherwin Williams paint in the area. Guess the Jaycees are just getting well enough to talk about it now, but a couple of weekends ago the softball team earned a fifth place in the state by winning three of five games — four on Saturday and one Sunday morning. There were some stiff muscles reported by those who'd gone to Ann Arbor.

A golf team comprised of Jim Chamberlain who shot 78, King Robinson, 81; Tim Kaul, 82, and Jim Mansfield, 85, brought home a state third from play the same weekend in Swartz Creek. Congratulations, Jaycees.

Thank goodness for older students at home when it's time to help with homework. That's one time when I really admit I'm past my prime. Though no real slouch when I went to school, I find the terms have changed so much, and not in math alone, that I'm quite happy to turn the helping role over to a fresher mind.

Our family isn't so old yet, however, that the advent of the winter catalogs with all their Christmas goodies still don't make a stir. There's been quite a bit of list building at our house this past week, and it frightens me. This year isn't that nearly over, is it?

We have a prolific cat who has just added four three-quarter Siamese and one-quarter alley cats to our home. They're just about ready for adoption and they are cute — if you like cats. All orders gratefully accepted. The kittens are free.

There's a mother in town whose son plays football at the junior high school. She thinks she's got a grand idea. Let the home ec students at the school test laundry procedures on the football uniforms, she says. That way she's not going to be bound to a hot washing machine and the ideals held up by all those detergent commercials.

There are times when it would have been better if I'd stood in bed. Recently we picked up some information on the Pontiac House of Representatives race in this column. It was written on a much interrupted basis and wound up saying not very much at all, but it has succeeded in raising the eyebrows of at least two of the contestants. As soon as we hear from the third contestant, we'll know we succeeded in a 100 percent flop. At least we know we're read in Pontiac.

Burkhart named full time planner

Independence Township has a full time planner. The township board voted 3-2 Tuesday night to employ Larry Burkhart of Parkins and Rogers Assoc. for two years at a salary of $15,000 a year plus fringe benefits and mileage for his car while he is on township business.

Burkhart has served the township the past year and a half, first on a one-day a week and later two days a week as consultant planner.

The employment of a full time planner was requested by the Independence Township Planning Commission.

Voting in opposition to Burkhart's selection were Clerk J. Edwin Glennie and Trustee Tom Bullen. Treasurer Ken Johnson voted with Supervisor Gary Stonerock and Trustee Keith Humbert in Burkhart's favor.

Johnson voted in favor of the two year contract noting the township is "right at the edge" of what might be a political change. He qualified his favorable vote with the comment, "I hope we're not hiring a prima donna."

Stonerock noted that both Burkhart and Frank Reynolds, the only other planner under consideration, have masters degrees and both have been resident planners. "Both their qualifications are high," he said.

Joseph Rhoades, a member of the planning group, was overruled in his request that the planning commission have an opportunity to interview both candidates before the selection was made.

Glennie and Bullen both said they were in favor of a full time planner, but Bullen said he supported Frank Reynolds' candidacy over that of Burkhart. Reynolds was a previous member of the township planning commission.

Burkhart will start his new schedule as soon as he is able, the township board decided.

Apartment case readied for court

Petitions signed a year and a half ago by members of Clarkston Gardens Association are in the limelight again. The petitions protested rezoning to allow Gerald Anderson to build apartments off Waldon.

Anderson has reportedly brought suit against the township contending the resulting referendum was illegal in that there was an insufficient number of valid signatures.

Clerk J. Edwin Glennie agreed at Trustee Keith Humbert's request Tuesday night to write a letter to the court attesting to the fact that two of the petitions have been lost (providing he can make verification) and that several signatures not validated were indeed valid.

The suit is due to start December 5 in Circuit Court, according to Humbert.

Two other rezonings overturned by the referendum are also in Circuit Court. The township now awaits a decision in the Waterford Hill K-Mart case and the Singer-Kaplan mobile case has just started.

Registrations still sore point

Clerk J. Edwin Glennie was scored Tuesday night by a group of citizens for his failure to continue allowing door-to-door voter registration.

Ronald Herron, one of the two registrars Glennie recently suspended for "conflict of interest," said the inability to go door-to-door would seriously hamper a registration drive.

The 265 names Herron said he had of people wishing to register will be registered, providing they call the clerk to make arrangements for special registration, Glennie said.

Besides conducting shopping center registrations, Glennie announced the township hall would be open 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. September 30, to 8 p.m. October 6, and every noon hour during the week leading up to the October 6 registration deadline for the purpose of accepting registrations.

Glennie also caught some flak for his failure to divy up Precinct 2 in the southeast corner of the township since voter registration there has exceeded the 1,400 maximum.

Glennie said he would place three machines in the precinct November 7. He said Independence Township's numerous elections plus state action to reinstate registered voters previously dropped had prevented his splitting the precinct in time for fall elections.

3 questions

Independence Township voters will be asked three questions on the November 7 ballot.

One is to approve one mill tax for fire department support, the second to approve one mill for road improvement, and the third to allow the township to purchase property in the geographic center of the township for future township offices.

Board briefs

Supervisor Gary Stonerock reported another hurdle has been cleared to make it possible for the township to receive 40 percent federal funding for the acquisition of the township park at Sashabaw and Clarkston roads.

He said both the Southeast Council of Governments and the Oakland County Planning Commission have approved the request for funds. He said with 40 percent state funds, it would leave local taxpayers the burden of only 20 percent of the cost of acquisition.

The township will send the check for $18,259 to the Oakland County Road Commission to enable the preliminary work for the paving of Pelton Road from Sashabaw to Waterford roads. A question over the general fund balance caused a delay in the mailing.

The township which last June adopted a new building fee schedule finally got rid of its old schedule Tuesday night. Confusion had resulted without formal action being taken to scrap the old schedule, officials said.

A lot split permitting the back end of a "landing strip" lot off M-15 to be joined with other Helveson property as acreage near Cranberry Lake Road was approved by the board.

Initial agreement between the township and the County DPW regarding the county's maintenance of the Pine Knob septic system was approved. Pine Knob will pay the tab and be responsible for all unexpected costs. A $7,000 surety bond has been posted, the supervisor said. The agreement is contingent on the system being brought up to standard, it was reported.

Building Department chief Ken Delbridge will be asked to come up with specifications for the fire-proofing of the township hall. Reports by the fire marshal and electrical inspectors show the building to be a "fire trap", according to Trustee Keith Humbert.

The board recommended approval of a transfer of an SDM liquor license from the late Henry Barends to his son David G. Barends for a party store at 5726 Maybee Road.

It also approved the request for a tavern license at the Nickelodeon on north M-15, subject to Sheriff's investigations and a Michigan Liquor Control Commission decision.

Condemnations were proceeding this week on two more homes in the township - one at Woodhull Lake and the other at Walters Lake.

Building job contract quizzed

A question over the awarding of the contract for construction of the Deer Lake Beach house was raised by Township Trustee Tom Bullen during Tuesday's meeting.

Bullen asked if the $2,350 job undertaken by Inter-Lakes Construction Co. has been bid.

Township Clerk J. Edwin Glennie responded he still had two sealed bids in his desk drawer, and that when he had come back from vacation the work was in progress.

"One of our ex-politicos, Louis Gavar, is doing the building," he said.

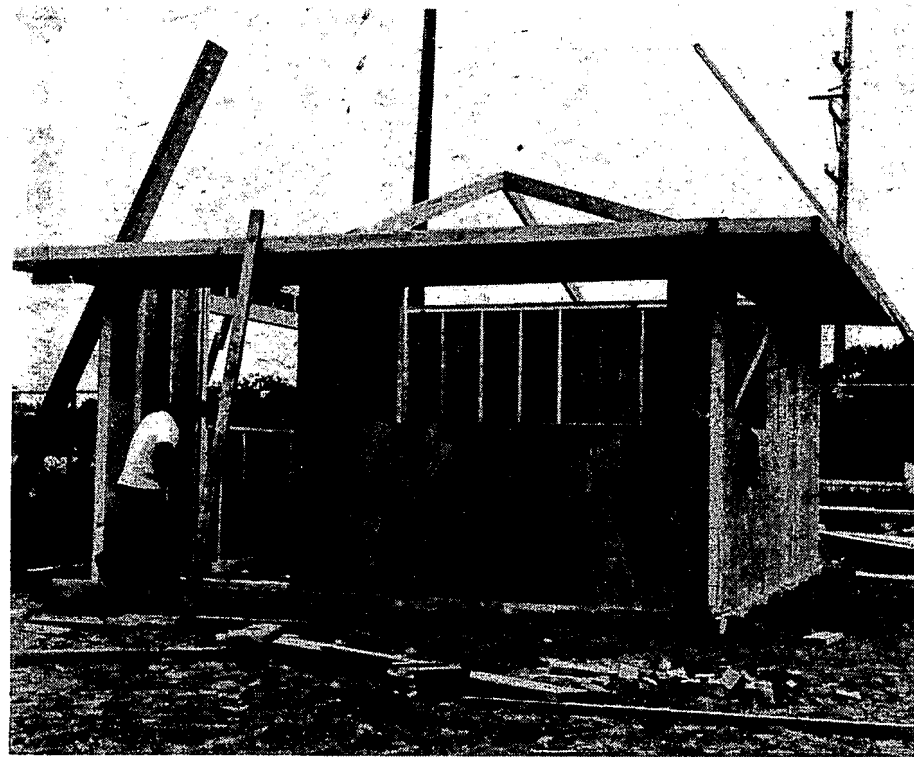

Supervisor Gary Stonerock agreed he had authorized the construction.

Rec program ready

A fall Independence Township Recreation Department program that includes everything from flag football for boys and soccer for girls to folk guitar lessons and ballet is ready to go, according to Tim Doyle, recreation director.

All that's needed are more people capable of teaching a craft or skill and the students needed to fill the classes.

Arrangements have been made by the department to use school property after hours for the instruction of the courses.

Besides those items already listed, the department has hopes of presenting programs in tennis, gymnastics, volleyball, body building, senior citizen activities, biking, chess, photography, story telling, a teen council, stamp collecting, decoupage, paddle ball, hand ball and hunter safety training.

Further information is available from the township hall. A nominal fee will be accepted, according to Doyle, in an effort to make the program pay for itself. Registration is to be completed by September 30.

Application forms can be obtained from the township hall, the schools or The Clarkston News.

Wolves drop opener, 27-20

By Craig Moore
Clarkston's Varsity Wolves opened their 1972 season Friday with a 27-20 loss.

They faced the Oxford Wildcats in the first of a nine game football schedule.

The Wolves did well in the first half, but second half mistakes and one Skip Kennedy, who totaled 4 touchdowns for the Oxford team, cost Clarkston the game.

Late in the first quarter, Clarkston took a 6-0 lead as Larry Miracle crossed the goal line after grabbing quarterback Greg Swanson's 21 yard pass. The extra point run attempted by Clarkston failed.

Three seconds into the second quarter, the Wolves got a big break. Two points were added to the Clarkston score for a safety when Oxford snapped the ball out of the end zone.

Midway through the quarter, however, Oxford's Skip Kennedy scored his first touchdown on an 11 yard run. The extra point run failed and Clarkston led 8-6 at the end of the half.

Kennedy scored his second goal on a 7 yard run in the third quarter and Oxford took a 12-8 lead.

Dave Whitehead climaxed a 67 yard Clarkston drive with a 9 yard push into the end zone. Clarkston led 14-12 as the extra point run failed. The lead, however, was short lived.

Minutes later, Wildcat Skip Kennedy scored again, this time on a 9 yard run. The extra point run was successful and Oxford came out in front by a score of 20-14.

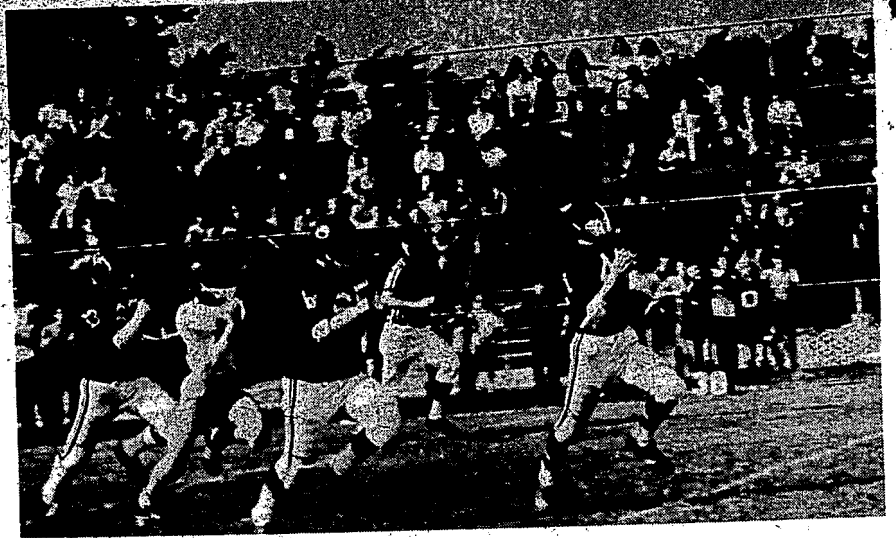

Clarkston tied the score 20-20 with about 5 minutes remaining in the game. Quarterback Greg Swanson scored on a 6 yard keep, but the extra point run failed.

Skip Kennedy scored for the fourth time with 3:04 left in the game on a 10 yard run. The Oxford extra point kick was good and the Wildcats led 27-20.

Clarkston couldn't come through in the remaining minutes and Oxford took the win.

Clarkston's five penalties cost the Wolves 55 yards. Quarterback Greg Swanson completed 7 of 14 passes for 89 yards, but was intercepted twice.

The Wolves travel to Holly Friday, September 22 at 8 p.m.

Rich Mahar, 41, breaks loose for a 70-yard run in the first play of the second half of the JV game Saturday. The JVs beat Oxford, 22-7.

CJH football begins

Clarkston Junior High's football program begins this week with approximately 130 boys out for the first practices.

The 7th grade boys will again play a 6-team league of Flag Football. The program is under the direction of Gerald Granlund. Games will be played on Tuesdays and Fridays.

The 8th grade program will be 11-man Tackle Football. Approximately 75 boys will be divided into 3 teams. The coaches for the 8th grade program are Cliff Irwin, Dennis Bronson and John Matheus.

Games will be played on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays starting on October 3.

The 9th grade team opens its season September 20 against Sashabaw Junior High, with 37 boys on the squad. Coaches for this year's Wolverines are Dave McDonald, Larry Sherrill and Dave Bihl.

All of the Wolverines' games will be played on Wednesdays except the Thursday, October 26 game at Milford. All home games will be played on the high school field under the lights.

VILLAGE OF CLARKSTON
Minutes of Regular Meeting
Village Council
Sept. 12, 1972

Meeting called to order by President Johnston.
Roll: Present — Auten, Basinger, Jones, Tower, Weiss, Wilford. Absent — None.

Minutes of the last two meetings were read and approved.
The denial of a Beer Permit for the Clarkston Area Jaycees for their carnival over the Labor Day weekend was entered into the record. The vote was: Auten, nay; Basinger, nay; Jones, aye; Tower, aye; Weiss, nay; Wilford, nay. The application for the permit was denied — ayes, 2; nays, 4.
Moved by Wilford that the following Bills be paid:

Clarkston News	$ 87.90
P.E.P. Wages	1466.89
Municipal Services	245.93
Police Dept.	849.98
Insurance	265.00
Legal Fees	862.50
Total	$3778.20

Seconded by Basinger. Roll: Auten, aye; Basinger, aye; Jones, aye; Tower, aye; Weiss, aye; Wilford, aye. Ayes, 6. Nays, 0. Motion carried.

Trustee Tower gave a report on the Sewer Committee. Among the problems referred to the County, nothing has yet been done on the pump problem that will occur with four homes on Middle Lake Rd. President Johnston mentioned that people will be wanting to know what their total costs will be, including the pump stations, and plan changes. A meeting with Mr. Leuders about these figures should take place sometime next week.

Artemus Pappas, Village Treasurer, gave a fiscal report for the first quarter of the year. He mentioned that we've adopted the Uniform Code of Accounting for our books. Our present cash balance is approximately $14,000.

Gar Wilson, D.P.W. Head, was present to give a report. He mentioned the need for culvert cleaning on Waldon Rd. and N. Holcomb Rd. The Council gave its approval to proceed with this project. Bids were presented to him on tree trimming and removal recently. He will check with the county and the state about trimming trees along M-15. Fertilizing and spraying trees will also be checked. He further mentioned that the stream in the rear of Hawk Took Co. needs cleaning, since storm drains entering it are filling the stream up. Mr. Hawke, the owner of the property, wants the County to dredge it, since they are County storm drains that run into it. The Clerk will send a letter to the County to request this.

The lowering of the Clarkston Mill Pond on Sept. 5, 6 and 7th was discussed. Mr. Wilson and Mr. Webster, Dept. of Public Health, walked around the Upper Pond while it was lowered to check for any sewage that may be entering into the Upper Pond. No evidence of this was found, but dye-testing of homes along the Upper Pond will begin on Sept. 13 to make sure. Weed problems and obtaining weed killers for this area and the Northern part of the Lower Mill Pond were discussed, but no action was taken.

Mr. Milzow was present to request a Certificate of Occupancy for his new office building on Main St. His attorney, Mr. Mandel, stated that Mr. Milzow should be allowed this certificate since he had met all codes and ordinances. The damage to trees on Village property was mentioned by Trustee Wilford. Gar Wilson will make his final inspection on the building and issue a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Trustee Basinger will check with Mr. Banycky, Village Attorney, on initiating right of way easement exchange requests between Mr. Milzow and the Village for the alley and the sidewalk by his building. Any damaged trees will be replaced with an agreement on these easements. The width of the alley behind his building will probably be about 12 feet.

Mr. Milzow submitted a Site Plan for his new apartments on the former Sage property by Surrey Lane. The width of the road for fire fighting equipment was discussed. The Council wants the Village Planner to look at the Site Plan when they meet with him this Thursday, Sept. 14. Water retention basins on the property were also discussed.

Moved by Tower to give conceptual approval of the Site Plan on the Surrey Lane Subdivision Extension to Mr. Milzow, subject to approved measurements, set-backs, parking, building codes, ordinances, sewers, and roads. These are to be commented on after the Planner's and the Fire Marshall's written recommendations. Seconded by Auten. Motion carried unanimously.

Trustee Basinger and Mr. Milzow had further discussion on his stairway location and land around his new office building.

Moved by Jones to extend the Village Tax deadline to the third Monday in October, namely Oct. 16, as per the request of Village Treasurer Artemus Pappas. Seconded by Weiss. Motion carried unanimously.

A correspondence from Independence Township Supervisor Gary Stonerock concerning the Deer Lake Beach Lease was read to the Council. The Clerk will notify the Township of our approval for them to review and sign an updated lease and send it to us for our approval.

A correspondence from the Pontiac Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans was read to the Council, requesting the solicitation of funds in the Clarkston area on Sept. 21, 22 and 23. A discussion followed.

Moved by Jones to deny the Pontiac Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans a permit to solicit funds in the Clarkston area on Sept. 21, 22 and 23, as our area is presently served by our own local organizations. Seconded by Weiss. Motion carried unanimously.

Meeting called adjourned by President Johnston.
