Independence to reopen fire station No. 2

By Marilyn Trumper

Independence Township Fire Chief Frank Ronk is targeting a late November opening for Fire Station 2 at Clarkston-Orion and Sashabaw roads. The station was forced into closing over two years ago by a strict belt-tightening of the budget.

With ratification of the 30-month fire contract two weeks ago, township Supervisor James B. Smith gave Ronk the go-ahead to sift through the 35-plus applications to fill three full-time fire fighter positions. When hiring is completed, the station can be manned on a 24-hour basis and be prepared to go into full tilt operation within hours.

"I'm elated, and I'm sure the people who live out in that area are elated too," Ronk said. "I'm waiting to notify the (applicants) now and I'll have them tested as soon as is humanly possible."

"It will probably be late November before (the station) is opened."

The station closed in the summer of 1980 when two fire fighters quit the department. The board, witnessing a fiscally distraught fire department, implemented a hiring freeze and waited to see if voters would approve the additional 1 mill in the August election.

Voters did, and collection of the first mill that December was used to replace $210,000 the fire department had borrowed from the sewer fund.

Township officials put off hiring additional full-time men and more volunteers until the contract was settled.

Neal Ashley, a 12-year-veteran of the department, is pleased with word of the long-awaited opening.

"I really am. I live out there in Station 2's area. When the people passed the millage, I thought then that we would hire men and get that station open, but we didn't."

"I'm glad it's finally going to open. I hope to go back out there and work. It's always been a personal thing with me."

Ashley recalls the horror story of a woman whose house on Sally Road was on fire when Station 2 was closed.

"I had to respond from Station 3 on Maybee Road, down by Sashabaw Junior High School. When we got there the lady was real upset that we hadn't gotten there sooner. It shouldn't have taken so long to come from Clarkston-Orion and Sashabaw, she said."

"I explained to her husband how far we'd come and he said we'd made good time. It may have only been a matter of minutes, but when your house is on fire, five minutes can be an eternity. A fire can burn a long way in five minutes."

Huggable McGruff

Little 18-month-old Eric McKay of Bluewater Drive, Independence Township, gives McGruff the crime dog a big squeeze. For $12 this dog, complete with tailored raincoat, pencil and badge, can fill the arms of a child. Ten dollars will buy the smaller version of McGruff, the Crime Puppy. The brown, furry stuffed animals are being sold as a fund raiser for the Oakland County Sheriff's Department (OCSD) E.S.C.A.P.E. program. E.S.C.A.P.E. (Enroll in the Sheriff's Crime and Accident Prevention Program) relies solely on fund raisers for its operation.

tion, which includes community talks on crime prevention, printed materials, cookies and milk for children touring the jail and the purchase of motorcycles for neighborhood Scooter Patrols. McGruff and the Crime Puppy are handcrafted, washable and recommended for ages 3 and up. To order your dog, write E.S.C.A.P.E., P.O. Box 130, Pontiac, MI 48053. Checks should be made out to E.S.C.A.P.E. and $2 should be included for each animal for shipping and handling. For more information, call Betty at 858-5008.

Teacher talks appear to be coming to a head

By Kathy Greenfield

While it's not clear just what it will be, both sides in the teachers' contract negotiations for the Clarkston school district expect something to happen soon.

Clarkston Education Association (CEA) President Allen Bartlett announced the change in attitude at Monday night's school board meeting.

"We are looking for some movement and we are looking for a settlement of the master agreement," he said.

Bartlett read a statement that said the about 290 CEA members have taught six weeks without a new contract as a sign of their "good faith" while bargaining continued at a slow pace. The statement included that the settlement of a new master agreement is a necessity.

After the meeting, Bartlett elaborated.

The audit report, enrollment figures and financial statement provided by the state are in, he said.

Parks and rec: In the money

By Marilyn Trumper

In five months, the Independence Township Parks and Recreation Department made in revenue what it had projected would take a year to make.

The good news was announced by Director Timothy Doyle at the Oct. 5 meeting of the Independence Township Board.

And the surplus came without increasing fees and prices, said Doyle.

"We run a good program; it's as simple as that," he said after the meeting. "A lot of it has to do with the softball program at the park. We jumped to 81 teams this year from last year's 60-something."

At the end of August the recreation department was $17,000 ahead of last year's projected revenue at that same time. Parks was $4,000 ahead and the senior citizens was $1,000 over projected revenues, he said.

Doyle, an 11-year department head veteran, says it's not the first time his departments have shown a surplus.

"In fact there's been one almost every year since I've been here. But I think you'll find everyone has a surplus this year, including the county," he said.

"I think we're doing fairly well but it's not a unique phenomenon. Even in this bad economy people still find time (for recreation)."

To illustrate how much the department has grown in its 11 years, Doyle noted that the expected revenue the first year was $5,000, compared to projected revenue of $114,000 this year.

Just because the Parks and Recreation Department is enjoying a surplus, doesn't mean it keeps the additional revenue, Doyle said.

"That's one of the pitfalls. It all goes back into the general fund. Sometimes that hurts the incentive," he said.

The parks and recreation department budget is supplemented by the township general fund.

For the 1982-83 year, the recreation budget was set at $121,000, offset with $89,000 in projected revenue; parks' expenses were set at $88,144 with projected revenue at $21,400; and senior citizens' projected revenue was $4,000 with expenses budgeted at $28,075.

Talks continue in good faith

"We agreed with (the school district) this information would be important for settlement. It's in. Now is the time for settlement," he said.

Despite an earlier agreement that a one-year contract would be sought, the CEA is willing to look at a longer contract, he said, noting that the Holly school district recently settled with a 1 percent raise the first year, 6.5 percent the second and 6 percent the third.

While a strike is "always a possibility," Bartlett said, the message to the board meant "we're willing to look at all the avenues. We're not going to threaten you with a strike right now—obviously we're looking for movement."

Superintendent Milford Mason noted that advisory fact finding with an arbitrator might be the direction talks will take.

"It's no secret that we've asked the CEA for a one-year freeze of the salary schedule. We've also agreed to maintain their current benefit level without reduction and have agreed to pay step increments to those people who have them coming," Mason said. "To do more than that would place the school district in serious financial jeopardy."

Members of the district and CEA bargaining teams were to meet Tuesday night to discuss the direction negotiations would take.

Oink! Lulu's been pig-napped

By Marilyn Trumper

The Bill Boyer family is hoping that whoever stole their Lulu will find they've gotten a real "pig in a poke" and return the 400-pound oinker to its stall.

Lulu, a gray and white 2-year-old female pig with notched ears is the Boyer family pet.

She plays ball, and will fetch according to Judy Bills, the Boyers' daughter.

Lulu was stolen Sunday from her pen on Clark Road in Springfield Township, led away by a filled feed pail, according to reports at the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

"I know my dad really hopes he'll get her back," Judy said. "She was just like a dog. She would fetch a ball. She was the family pet."

"She really was too much overweight to be good eating meat," said Judy, crossing fingers in hopes of the pig's return.

According to police reports all slaughterhouses have been notified to be on the lookout for the stolen pig.

SAVE AMERICA

One out of every nine people employed in this country works directly or indirectly with the automobile business. Imagine what would happen if overnight all car manufacturers closed their doors. No more cars, trucks, or replacement parts.

First the 20,000,000 people working directly in the automobile business would be unemployed. Within a couple of weeks the steel, gas, oil and tire industries would lay-off 80% of their people.

Within a month the real trouble would begin. A power line breaks during a bad storm but no one can repair it because there are no service vehicles. Then the post office closes its doors because they can't deliver the mail, not far behind is the telephone company and all communication is eliminated.

Then the grocery stores close because of looting and lack of deliveries or security. People start starving to death, you can't grow beans on concrete. Fighting breaks out, people are killed over carrots.

Small groups of people band together to survive. Half of them stand as armed guards against looters while the other half plant food. The whole country is divided and civilization is at an end.

You can stop this disaster, you can save our country.

Woman dragged from home, beaten

By Kathy Greenfield

Jeanne Racosky answered the door at her Paramus Drive, Independence Township, home Oct. 5 and was subjected to a violent beating.

Alvin Haggart, 28, of Belleville, was arrested Monday morning in connection with this case. He was arraigned Tuesday, October 12 and charged with assault to do great bodily harm, less than murder.

The preliminary examination has been scheduled for October 19. The arrest was made in cooperation with the VanBuren Township police department and the Oakland County Sheriff's Dept., according to Det. Sgt. Roger Allen.

Mrs. Racosky, 32, is in the hospital. She needs extensive plastic surgery, according to her husband.

She has a broken nose, facial cuts and three or four broken teeth.

The incident occurred on the Tuesday evening at about 7:20. Racosky, 36, was at work at the Northwest Oakland Vocational Education Center in Springfield Township where he teaches diesel mechanics.

Mrs. Racosky, who is 5 feet 4 inches tall and weighs about 110 pounds, was home alone with their 25-day-old baby.

When she answered the door, the man asked, "Is Vic home?" and when she said he wasn't, "he grabbed the screen door, pulled it open, grabbed by her by the head of her hair, pulled her out and hit her. She said he had something in his hands—the (sheriff's department) deputy said it was probably brass knuckles," Racosky said. "That wasn't good enough;

then he kicked her."

The neighbors saw it happen, but it was so fast there was nothing they could do but call the police.

The man who did the beating weighs about 200 pounds and looks like a weight lifter, Racosky said. He has reddish-brown curly hair and wore a white T-shirt and faded blue jeans. The neighbors saw him drive away in a car with a gold bottom and black top.

Racosky said of his wife, "She's a totally passive person; doesn't even get mad. She's a nurse. She works to help people."

The Racoskys have lived on Paramus Drive for a year. They just moved a few doors down from a house they rented to one they purchased.

His wife doesn't want to go home, he said.

"We haven't even made our first payment yet," he said. "We still have boxes unpacked."

"You move to a place like Clarkston because it's so peaceful and tranquil, and you think you won't have any problems. And then something like this happens."

Allen said, "She took a helluva beating. Her face has been rearranged," he said. "I don't know what to think."

School audit 'unqualified'

'To me that's an outstanding job of managing your money ...'

The bookkeeping of Clarkston Community Schools has received the stamp of approval from the auditing firm of Plante & Moran of Southfield.

James Bayson, CPA, told the board of education Monday night that the firm's opinion of the district's financial data is "unqualified."

"This is the best opinion a CPA can give," Bayson said. "...in effect, in layman's terms, you have a clean bill of health from Plante & Moran."

The only item lacking in the report was a list of assets—property and buildings—including the purchase prices. The relatively new requirement is one many districts cannot provide because records are not available, he said.

The audit covered the financial condition of the district through June 30.

In the general fund, assets totaled $2,060,404 with liabilities of $882,654, leaving a fund equity of $1,177,750.

Of the surplus amount, about $600,000 is vacation and sick pay which the district cannot use for other purposes, Bayson said, leaving $577,750 as an actual fund equity. And of that amount, $160,000 has been earmarked to balance the district's 1982-83 budget, he said.

Byson had more words of praise for the district when he noted that during the 1981-82 school year, the district spent only $14,599 more than the general fund budget figure of about $14 million.

"To me that's an outstanding job of managing your money. It came within a dollar for each $1,000," he said.

Trick-or-treat Saturday

Village trick-or-treaters take heed.

Your hours to go door-to-door differ from the township's.

The village council at its Oct. 11 meeting, officially named Saturday, Oct. 30, between 6 and 7 p.m., as Halloween in village limits.

"The council didn't want the children out on the streets when hunting traffic was coming back from up north," said Clerk Norma Goyette.

... and Sunday too!

Calling all goblins, witches, ghosts and eerie things that go bump in the night.

Clean up your Halloween trick-or-treat bag and haul that costume out of mothballs to use Sunday, Oct. 31, between 6 and 7 p.m.

That's the day and hour the Independence Township Board has officially designated for trick-or-treating.

And remember all you beggars:

- Wait until you get home to eat your candy.
 - Stay away from face masks that interfere with visibility.
 - Wear bright colored clothing or stripe your costume with glow tape.
 - Look both ways before crossing streets.
 - Parents should accompany their children.
- Happy hauntings!

I-75 crash claims 8-month-old

An 8-month-old boy was killed and his mother and 3-year-old sister were seriously injured in an accident on I-75 Monday. The car, driven by Cheryl Karalla, 24, of Ortonville ran off the road in Independence Township, just north of the Baldwin Road exit, killing her son Joshua. Karalla and her daughter Amanda are in critical condition, according the Michigan State Police report. No cause for the accident has been established, police said.

Township open on election day

For the second November general election day running, Independence Township Hall will be open and all employees will work.

The new policy puts the kibosh on township hall workers and fire fighters receiving "holiday" time-and-a-half pay.

Under past administrations, election day has been a holiday, except during the last year of the Whitey Tower administration in 1980.

The day off allowed local elected officials a final day of campaigning while the polls were open. This year for the first time local officials are not running for office, for all were elected to four-year terms in 1980.

At the Oct. 5 meeting, the board voted 5-1 to keep all employees at their desks. Treasurer Frederick Ritter was the lone dissenter.

"I just think it's a rare occasion when we can give our employees something to show good faith and boost morale," Ritter said. "I voted it down last time and I'll vote it down this time."

Upon discovery that fire fighters working that day were paid time-and-a-half, or "holiday" pay, Trustee William Vandermark turned thumbs down on closing township hall for the election.

"Why should the township suffer a penalty? There's no reason. It's insane," he said.

The election will be held Tuesday, Nov. 2, with the polls open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Fire chief Ronk named civil defense director

The Independence Township Board has stepped in and officially made the job of civil defense director part of fire department Chief Frank Ronk's duties, a job he gave up earlier this year saying he didn't have the time to devote that the position demanded.

At the Oct. 5 meeting, the Independence Township Board voted 5-1 to officially make it part of the fire chief's duties.

Treasurer Frederick Ritter was the lone dissenter.

"I think the chief made it clear earlier he didn't have the time for it," Ritter said. "I don't think we should make him an unwilling participant."

Supervisor James B. Smith, who took over the duties Ronk forfeited, argued he himself does not have the knowledge required to run the position efficiently.

Ronk, absent from the meeting, was surprised by the action and later gave his opinion.

"I just work here," Ronk said. "I'll do what I can do, but I don't want anyone to be too critical of the job when I've already made it clear I don't have the time to devote to it that the job needs."

The civil defense director handles all communication between the county and local community in the event of a disaster like a tornado.

New park nears completion

Each day brings the 15-acre Maybee Road Park closer to completion "...although if somebody wanted to go in there and throw a Frisbee or have a picnic they could," said Timothy Doyle, director of parks and recreation.

At the Oct. 5 meeting, the Independence Township Board unanimously approved engineering work be done for the driveway and a gravel parking lot for 26 cars. Doyle updated the board on fencing of the site and the continued plan for ball diamonds and soccer fields.

"We've almost got the fencing done, and all summer long we've been mowing, clearing and trimming," Doyle said. "What we want to do now is get the engineering done for the driveway and parking lot so that this spring we can get right in there and do it, and have the park in use by the summer."

Plat approved

With little fanfare at the Oct. 5 meeting, the Independence Township Board unanimously gave final plat approval to Laura Beth Subdivision, a small cluster of three, three-acre parcels on Hadley Road, one-quarter mile east of M-15.

Engineer Bernie Feldhauser said the lots will be sold and developed individually.

"But there's no telling when with the market the way it is," Feldhauser said. "I've been in the business 41 years and I've never seen things as bad as this."

Obituary

Leona F. Burroughs

Pine Knob's side needed to be told

Hooray for the people on the other side of the mountain! Their side was finally told in a very good interview with Joseph Locricchio, written by Marilyn Trumper.

As an interested observer and not being personally involved, I feel Independence Township should take a hard look at what Mr. Locricchio is saying about his experiences in trying to create a viable business. His comments about government interference are very interesting and well taken.

Just exactly what does Independence Township want from Pine Knob? Does Pine Knob offer advantages to the community in the various operations being conducted? If so, why all the harassment instead of the cooperation normally afforded a tax-paying business?

Some of Mr. Locricchio's ideas have conflicted with our city fathers, but differences are bound to occur when a complex the size of Pine Knob is being created. It seems counter-productive to thwart every attempt to improve this complex when 670 people are employed here and Clarkston has gained recognition by having this facility in our community.

Expansion and growth seem to be Mr. Locricchio's goals and so far he has used excellent taste in accomplishing these goals. His latest adventure in constructing a private road to service the many facilities is the only way to go to complete this kind of complex.

If someone at the township is concerned about checking private roads, please spend some time driving through Thendara Park Subdivision where the roads wash out and expose electrical cable every spring and fall. We would be more than happy for their support!

With just a little more consideration between Pine Knob and the township, Clarkston can end up with a landmark facility of which all can be proud.

It's ugly, but practical, and just one more symbol of the condition of the economy. The black stuff patching up curbs on Washington Street, Clarkston, sparked a phone call from a "concerned citizen." Not only did it look bad, but people were collecting the stuff on their shoes and tracking it into their cars and shops, he said. A call to the Oakland County Road Commission brought forth the whys. "As a safety-expedient, it's necessary. That is our number one priority," said Dennis Pajot, road commission spokesperson. "Certainly it's not aesthetically pleasing, but there are many things that have to be foregone because of the shortfall of funds." The curbs were scheduled to be repaved in 1980, he said, but the budget was slashed by $5.1 million when weight and gasoline tax revenues plunged. Exposed metal rods that could be hazardous if they caught a tire moved the road commission to use its maintenance crew to make repairs with asphalt. Now for the really bad news—it will be at least three years before there are funds to hire a contractor to make repairs using cement, Pajot predicted.

Is there something worth 1,000 words that irks you or pleases you and can best be said with a photograph? We invite you to submit ideas for "Photo Commentary." Just give us a call at 625-3370 or drop us a line at The Clarkston News, 5 S. Main, Clarkston 48016.

We know, we know, we asked for ideas for Photo Commentary.

Sure enough, last week a woman came rushing in to tell us that our commentary on the newly painted crooked yellow lines on M-15 south of downtown Clarkston was nothing compared to what we could do with something north of town.

There was a dead skunk in the middle of the road, she said, with a yellow line painted right across its carcass.

No one was willing to take a photo of that. But just to make sure, we drove out there and what she said we would find was there in black and white...and yellow.

Just north of Cranberry Lake Road at the top of a hill there's a dead skunk in the middle of the road. We know it's the middle, because there's a freshly painted yellow stripe.....

Yuck.

We have a question for the Oakland County Road Commission, painters of the stripes, and the striped: How could you?

Habits die hard

by Kathy Greenfield

Security appearing in the form of habit is a force that influences many aspects of our lives.

We sit in the same seat at the dinner table, park in the same spot at work, go to our same desks, shop in grocery stores we're familiar with and sleep on the same side of the bed.

A friend who just started a new job laughs when she talks about the cafeteria that has been silently organized with each office group always sitting at the same table. One day a stranger was sitting at her group's table, so they all sat somewhere else and some agonized over the "forced" change.

At township hall and the school administration office, meetings reflect the same sort of order—assigned seats are part of the scheme of things, with name plates in place. Sometimes it's clear why the seating is like it is—in the past there were the non-smokers at one end of the table and, at the other end, the smokers mixed in with those who weren't bothered by the atmosphere. Once I heard someone wondering aloud after an election how seating would be changed with those newly elected and those departing.

As I think about all the habits that make up my life, I grin at how important I tell myself I consider individualism to be while admitting that many of my habits make me just like everyone else.

It's time to make a few changes just for the sake of seeing things from a different perspective. I'm considering changing the order the day's activities, sitting in different places in a room and asking myself "why?" when I keep doing the same things over and over again.

For a while at least, I'm going to think about what Mark Twain had to say about habit:

"Habit is habit, and not to be flung out of the window by any man, but coaxed downstairs a step at a time."

We welcome our readers' opinions. Letters to the Editor must be at The Clarkston News office by noon Friday to be considered for the following week's paper. We reserve the right to edit all letters for the sake of brevity and clarity and to limit the number of letters from any one individual on any one issue. We don't publish open letters or copies of letters sent elsewhere. Letters must be signed and a phone number and address included. Names will be withheld on request.

Make the robber pay

By Jim Sherman

I can only wonder why legislation has not been passed aiding victims of crimes.

A robber can bang someone beside the head, steal their money, and get probation. The victim can have dizzy spells the rest of their life, and society doesn't help them unless they are indigent.

We provide special facilities for non-violent offenders, like Watergate criminals, yet we can't supply an aspirin for the robbery victim.

Seems to me the robber should be made to pay for problems they cause, whether it be personal or property. The committer of crimes should have to cover damages he causes.

Recently some men were caught inside the Oxford Big Boy restaurant at 3 a.m. They had cut a hole in the roof and dropped to the floor. Once inside they also damaged the safe.

Thankfully, during a routine check, police caught the culprits in the building.

Big Boy owners did not have the hole in the roof totally repaired before the rains came Thursday morning.

Water poured through, and fearing electrical damage and personal injury, the owners had to shut down their livelihood. They hung a closed sign on the door.

So now, besides the physical damage the intruders did to the roof, they have caused actual loss of income, plus whatever damage might be caused through moisture in the wrong places.

The owners of the Big Boy should be reimbursed for damages by those who caused the problems. The money should perhaps come from the insurance companies first, and they be reimbursed by those charged with the crime, but pay they should.

But for some reason laws favoring victims fail to come out of Lansing or Washington each session. They are regularly introduced, but die in committee, or whatever.

Our state legislature has a law before it now making it a crime, punishable by 2 years in prison, for wearing a bullet proof vest while committing an armed robbery.

That will probably pass while another session goes by without victim reimbursement.

'Romantic Comedy'

"Romantic Comedy" by the Clarkston Village Players wraps up its three-weekend engagement Friday and Saturday at the Depot Theatre. Cast in leading roles are Norman E. Davis and Suellen Fausel, theatrical partners who become close friends despite their traumatic first meeting when Davis as playwright Jason Charmichael is shocked to learn P.J. Craddock, played by Fausel, is a woman. Curtain time for the Oct. 15 and 16 performances is 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $4. They may be purchased at Tierra Arts & Design, 20 S. Main, Clarkston, or be reserved by calling Marlene Sewick at 363-0188. The Depot Theatre is located at 4861 White Lake, Independence Township.

Childhood ties

by Jim Fitzgerald

A nurse said Aunt Florence was almost "neurologically dead."

I stopped feeling like a son after my parents died. But I've continued to feel like a nephew, thanks to my mother's two sisters, Madeline and Florence. They are the last ties to my childhood. No one else alive can remember changing my diapers.

Through the years I've written much about Aunt Madeline, but not much about Aunt Florence. Several years ago I did write that she was indirectly responsible for my getting into the newspaper business. After that, Florence changed her name and address several times, but still received several rocks through her window. Her only consolation was knowing that someday her name might become a household word, such as Frankenstein.

Florence's late husband, Sam, was the reason I gave her so little publicity. He was a fine newspaperman and it was his example that led me into journalism. Sam helped me get my first newspaper job and, subsequently, he said I might become a decent columnist if only I didn't write about my family. It seemed the least I could do in Sam's memory was leave his widow out of the newspaper.

WHEN I WAS a little boy, I thought Aunt Florence was the second most beautiful woman ever born. She looked very much like my mother, who was first. Florence and Mother always looked as though they were on the way to a party, even when they weren't going anywhere except to answer the doorbell. Their hair was always perfectly coiffed, makeup just right, figures slim and clothes stylish.

The last few years, as she went beyond her 75th birthday, Florence's rapidly failing health became something she had to deal with daily, and painfully. But she continued to look great for her visitors, always charming, always an upbeat attitude. My ailing mother had been the same way. Only in those last weeks before her death did I see Mother looking like maybe she wasn't going to a party.

Now, with Florence, it seemed like Mother all over again. Florence suffered a stroke about three weeks ago and was rushed to the hospital. When I visited her there, I noted one more time how much she reminded me of my mother, but this time there was pain in the remembering. Florence looked exactly like Mother had just before she died. And when a nurse said Florence's neurological signs were bad, my reaction was seish. I didn't want to lose this woman who could recall what a brat of a baby I'd been when she'd substituted for my mother one weekend in 1927. I didn't want to feel less like a nephew and more like a grandfather who must deal with his own mortality.

But nurses and doctors don't always have the last word. A few days later, I was back at the hospital. There was something I had to see for myself. I'd heard that Florence was well enough to have had her hair done. It was true. That marvelous, fashion-magazine white hair looked better than ever. And Florence asked my wife to help her put on makeup.

AH, MY AUNT is almost blind and couldn't see what I saw in the makeup mirror. But I hope she heard what a stranger said. A woman from Arkansas was visiting the other patient in Florence's room. She watched as Florence got ready for a party, and she whispered to a companion: "Isn't she beautiful?"

Certainly. The second most beautiful woman ever born.

The pain is still frequent, and severe ("I'm offering it up for the poor souls in purgatory," she said), but if everything goes according to the ideal schedule, Aunt Florence will be out of the hospital by the time someone reads this to her. She will be embarrassed to learn that her nephew put it in the newspaper that he will never forget her courage and spirit, as well as her beauty.

And if her husband, Sam, were still here, I know he would forgive me, this one time, for writing about my family.

Roast to honor Vandermark

Robert Vandermark will be on the hot seat when he's the guest of honor at the third annual roast of the Independence Township Republican Club.

The event is planned Friday, Oct. 22, at the Deer Lake Racquet Club.

Vandermark, the former Independence Township Supervisor who resigned his post to become the Madison Heights city assessor and finance director, is presently the chairperson of the State Tax Commission.

The roast is also a farewell to the Vandermarks who moved in August from Independence Township to the Lansing suburbs to be closer to his work.

"I'm sure he'll enjoy it. It will be fun for us to come back. We miss Clarkston; we really do," said Vandermark's wife, Mary, who plans to attend the roast with their daughter Sally.

President of the Republican Club is Bob Vandermark's twin brother, Bill.

"Who's more closely identified with the Republicans around here than my brother? And, besides that, who would you rather roast in these tough economic times than the chairman of the State Tax Commission," he said. "We figure there are people out there who don't even know Bob who will pay $10 just to see him zinged!"

Master of ceremonies will be Homer Biondi. Roasters on the roster include Independence Township attorney Richard Campbell, tax commission member Ward Drexel, Robert Kraud, 52nd District Court Judge Gerald McNally, Deputy County Executive Patrick Nowack, John Priebe and Vandermark's mother, Bea. The Rev. James Balfour and Ken Delbridge, head of the Independence Township

Building and Planning departments, will also attend if their schedules permit.

The tax-deductible $10 tickets may be obtained by contacting Bill Vandermark at 625-1799, Bob Borror at 673-6631 or Carol Balzarini at 625-5968.

The price includes hors d'oeuvres. A cash bar will be available beginning at 7 p.m. with the roast scheduled at 8 p.m.

Number of teachers on layoff drops two more

The number of Clarkston teachers on lay off has dropped by two more, making the present total 21.

At Monday night's school board meeting, two changes in the current positions of teachers were announced—Leigh Bonner plans to retire at the end of the first marking period and physical education teacher Larry Sherrill has been hired as a counselor at Clarkston Junior High School.

Bonner began teaching in the Clarkston school district in 1946. A teacher of social studies at Clarkston High School, he is to retire Nov. 12, the last day of the first marking period.

Assistant Superintendent Mel Vaara told the school board that Bonner had opted for the $5,000 early retirement incentive offered by the school district.

"The financial savings to the district, as I have calculated, in benefits and salary would be about $7,000," Vaara said, explaining why the district offers a bonus for early retirement.

Recalled to take Bonner's place will be Michael Kaul, who taught social studies at CJHS last year.

Taking over Sherrill's former post as CJHS physical education teacher will be Darrell Marsh, who taught industrial arts at CHS last year.

In June, 36 teachers received layoff notices from Clarkston schools. With the recent changes, there are 21 teachers left on the list without teaching jobs in Clarkston schools. Of the original 36, 13 will be teaching in Clarkston and two have resigned.

Schools give CAYA $1,000 gift

Clarkston Area Youth Assistance (CAYA) received the Clarkston school district's stamp of approval Monday night when the board unanimously agreed to donate $1,000 to the program.

Garry Pullins, the social worker for CAYA, made the request. Realizing the financial problems of the district, the organization was not asking for a raise in support for the second year in a row, he said.

CAYA works to prevent juvenile delinquency in the Clarkston school district area. Among its projects are PLUS, a program similar to Big Brothers-Big sisters; workshops for parents and children; and a summer camp opportunity for needy children.

Independence and Springfield townships and the Oakland County Juvenile Court also contribute to CAYA.

Halloween party

Calling all Halloween partiers: The date, time and place have been set for the annual event tossed by the Independence Township Library.

Refreshments, prizes for the most unique or zany costumes, movies and entertainment by Baffling Bill the Magician are planned.

Children in grades one through six may attend. There is no charge.

The fun is to begin at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 30, at the Church of the Resurrection across the street from the library, 6495 Clarkston-Orion, Independence Township.

Phone 625-2212 for more information.

Malane promoted

Total Image recently appointed Janice Malane product trainer for the Southeastern area of Michigan. "Absolutely exciting," said Malane about her new job. Formerly a distributor and assistant instructor for the company, Malane just returned from a two-day conference and training school in Chicago. Total Image products are based on a philosophy of attitude, nutritional control and aesthetics. The firm's regional office is located in Canton. Malane resides in Clarkston.

Improved copies from library

Getting copies of information for that trying term paper will be so much easier now at the Independence Township Library.

At the Oct. 5 meeting, the Independence Township Board unanimously approved purchase of a new machine for $4,200 with 1980-81 federal revenue sharing funds.

The library's old copy machine will go to the downtown fire hall, according to Supervisor James B. Smith.

According to library Director James Hibler, the machine is scheduled to be delivered this week, and copies will continue to be 15 cents.

"We're really excited about this," Hibler said. "We'll be able to use larger paper and it takes bonded paper so people can put in colored paper and make colored flyers."

"It also means we'll be able to do a lot more copying in-house, instead of going down to township hall."

Volunteer director

Violet Blondi has been appointed Coordinator of the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital's new volunteer department. She is to coordinate programs of the Red Cross and the POH Women's Guild Volunteers. Blondi has been with the hospital for seven years and is the American Red Cross Chairperson of Hospital Volunteers of the Oakland Region. She and her husband Homer reside on Cramlane Drive in Independence Township.

X-country team has best finish

The Clarkston High School cross country teams had some good news and some bad Saturday at the Oakland County Championship meet held at Oakland Community College-Highland Lakes.

While the girls' team had its best finish ever in the county meet, claiming sixth place in a 25-team field, the boys finished a dismal 28th out of 34 teams.

The boys' race was a disappointment for CHS Coach Mike Kaul whose team missed the services of its top runner, Paul Burch, who is out for a week with an ankle injury.

"The team is really better than this (28th-place finish) and we expect to prove it this week at the Oxford Invitational," said Kaul.

Scott Banks finished 41st among 250 runners to pace Clarkston.

The girls' team was led by Pam Stoecklin who finished 15th out of more than 160 runners with a time of 20:51 for three miles.

Other strong performances for Clarkston included Kris Baert who finished 33rd in the girls' race in a time of 21:39 and Beth Galley who recorded a time of 21:50.

The teams split two regular meets last week as both the boys and girls beat Lake Orion but lost to Rochester.

Thursday's meet against Lake Orion saw the boys win 24-33 while the girls claimed a 25-30 victory.

Burch and Banks finished 1-2 for Clarkston with times of 16:38 and 17:00, respectively. Guy Chandler, Jeff Richardson and Mark Jordan also finished among the top 10 runners for the Wolves.

In the girls' race, Stoecklin, Baert and Galley finished 2-3-4 to pace Clarkston. Trisha Johnson posted a seventh-place finish and Lisa Burkemo, a ninth-place finish.

Against Rochester, Oct. 5, the boys were beaten, 21-38, while the girls lost a tough 29-30 decision.

"The Rochester boys have been the class of the league for several years now," said Kaul. "They just had too much for us to handle."

Burch, Banks and Chandler finished high for Clarkston with Burch claiming second place in the 28-runner field.

The girls' race saw Rochester claim the first three positions while Clarkston swept the next seven places.

"Once a team goes one, two, three on you, it is impossible to win," said Kaul.

Netters win GOAL meet

Following a first-place finish in the Greater Oakland Activities League tournament on Friday, the Clarkston High School girls' tennis team has its sights set on the state regional tournament Oct. 15.

The Wolves tied with West Bloomfield with nine points to lead the GOAL tournament, while Rochester was second with eight and Lake Orion claimed two points.

The first-place finish was especially pleasing to CHS Coach Becky Craig. Her team has put together an 8-2 record this year with the losses coming at the hands of West Bloomfield and Rochester.

"We've got a really good chance at the regionals. If the girls play as good as they did today (at the league meet) we've got a really good chance to make state," said Craig.

Kelly Craig, No. 2 singles, and the No. 2 doubles team of Tonya Cook and Audrey Campe took top honors in their positions at the GOAL meet.

Other Clarkston netters who won points in the tournament were Mary Smith, Anja Holler, and Shellie VanKeuren in singles and the doubles teams of Jenny Kithill-Sam Mallett and Stacy Walker-Krista Pilditch.

Smith, Craig and Holler were all named to the All-League team, while VanKeuren, Mallett and Kithill recieved honorable mention.

Last week Clarkston claimed victories over Lake Orion, 7-0, Pontiac Northern, 7-0, and Brandon, 6-1, while losing to Rochester, 4-3.

Golfers sixth

The Clarkston High School boys' golf team finished a distant sixth in the Greater Oakland Activities League meet Monday.

West Bloomfield won the eight-team meet with three golfers shooting in the 70s. Waterford Mott was second and Rochester finished third.

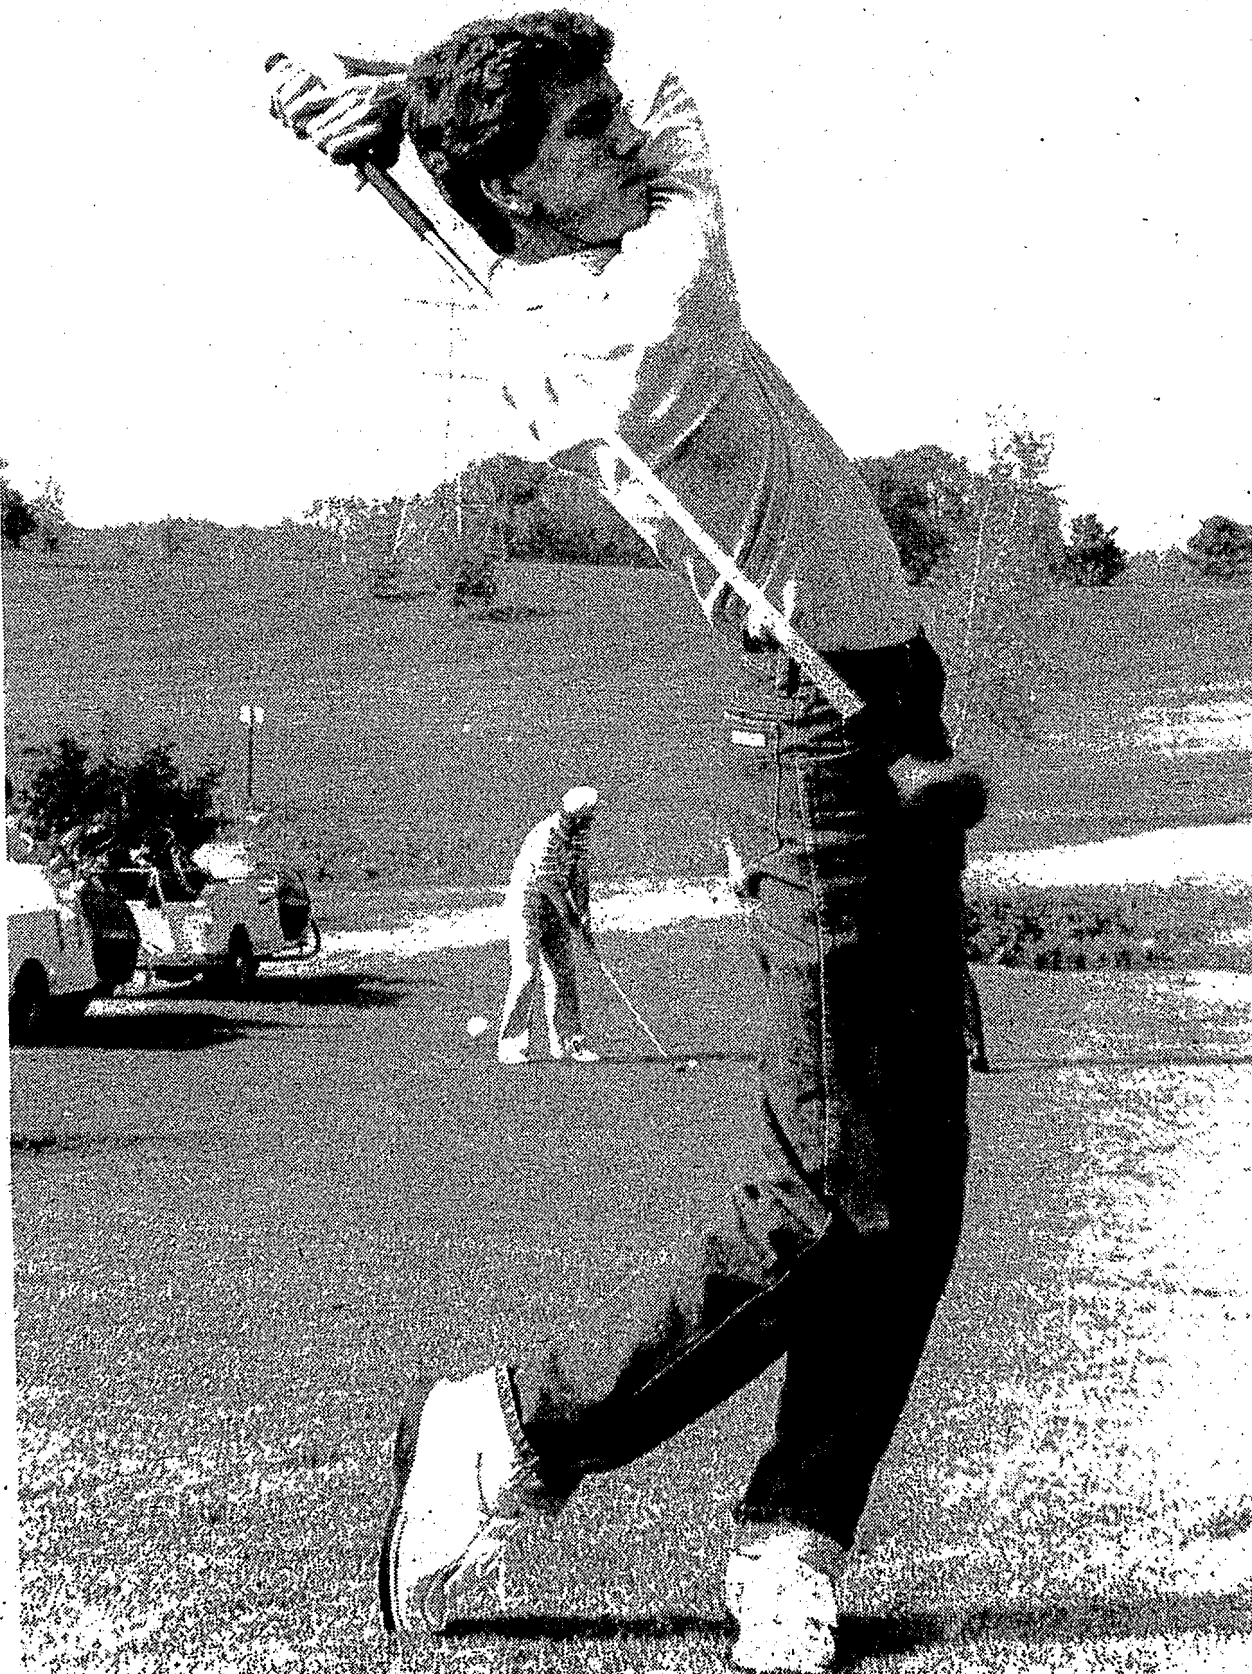

Dave Huttenlocher carded an 82 to post Clarkston's best score. That was good enough to place him eighth in a field of 48 golfers.

Sophomore Chris Hunter also played well for the Wolves, shooting 87.

Clarkston currently holds a 6-5 dual meet record this season with one match remaining against a tough Brandon team before the state regional tournament.

CHS Coach Jim Chamberlain looks for West Bloomfield to be the class of the regional tournament just as it was in the league meet.

"West Bloomfield is putting it all together. They're the definite favorite," said Chamberlain.

Golfers look toward regional

Ken Sussex, a member of the Clarkston High School varsity golf team, follows through on a swing. The team finished sixth in Monday's Greater Oakland Activities League meet and has one match remaining before starting state regional tournament action.

Falcons spoil homecoming, 14-0

By Greg Nelson

Size, strength and speed. Lots of speed. The Rochester Falcons combined those three elements to overpower Clarkston, 14-0, in high school varsity football action Friday.

Clarkston put forth a solid effort in its homecoming game, but the Wolves were simply overmatched against the unbeaten Falcons.

Rochester is now 5-0 overall and leads the Greater Oakland Activities League with a perfect 4-0 record. Clarkston dropped to 3-2, and 2-1 in the GOAL.

"The kids played a hell of a football game. They did a good job, we just didn't get the big play," said CHS Head Coach Walt Wyniemo. "We played hard, I'm proud of our kids."

Clarkston was able to run on the Falcon defense but costly penalties and turnovers repeatedly stopped the Wolves' offensive efforts.

"We hurt ourselves with the penalties. You can't do that against the good teams," said Wyniemo. "But we've got four games left and we're going to go after them."

Clarkston was flagged seven times for 55 yards while Rochester was penalized 10 times for 60 yards.

The first quarter was scoreless as penalties slowed both teams. But the Falcon defense came up with a big play early in the second quarter by intercepting a Clarkston pass and returning it to the Wolves' 19-yard line.

Four plays later, Carl Gruener scored from two yards out and after the two-point conversion Rochester led, 8-0, with 9:04 remaining in the half.

A fumble by Clarkston at the 50-yard line set up the Falcons' second touchdown. Rochester moved impressively to the CHS 18 in just three plays. But from there the Clarkston defense got tough.

Rochester was inches from a first-down at the CHS 8 and facing a fourth-down situation. But again a mistake cost the Wolves.

Clarkston was penalized for jumping offsides, giving the Falcons the first-down. From there, Gruener scored on a four-yard run and the score was 14-0.

Rochester threatened again in the last two minutes of the first half. The Falcons opened big holes in the Clarkston defense and moved from their own 44 to the CHS five in just four running plays.

But again, the defense stiffened. Rochester was stopped on its next four plays and came away empty-handed as time expired in the half.

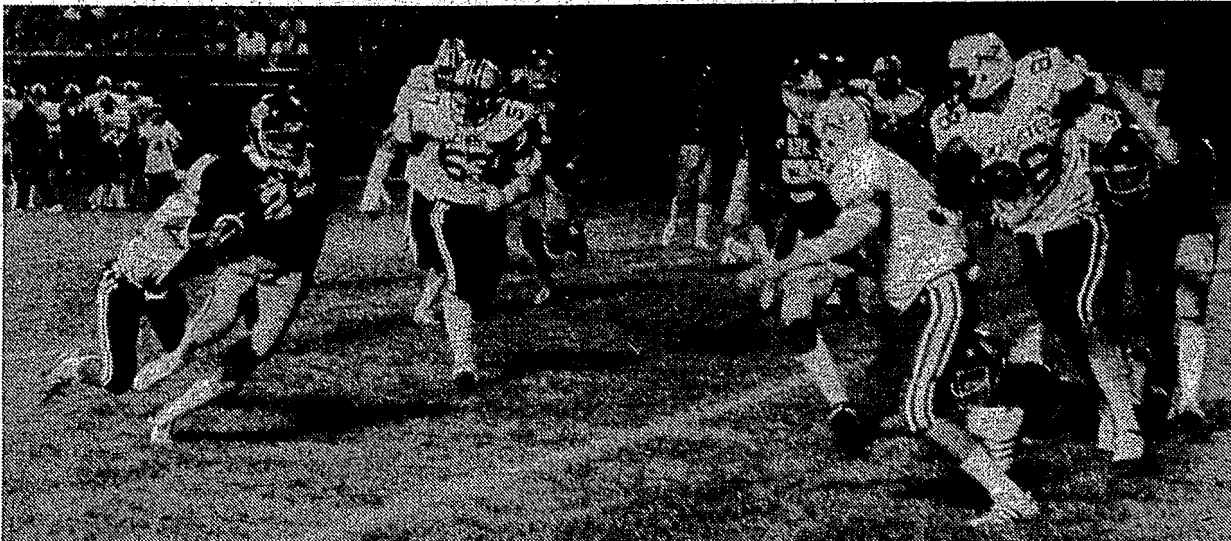

Clarkston had its only real scoring threat of the game early in the fourth quarter. The Wolves drove to the Falcon five-yard line but were stopped for no gain on a third-and-one play.

The Wolves then tried again on fourth-down but were even less successful as the Falcons dropped CHS for a two-yard loss and took possession of the ball.

Rochester picked up 179 yards rushing and 89 passing while holding Clarkston to 167 yards, all on the ground.

The Wolves failed to complete a pass in seven attempts while having three intercepted.

David Newblatt was impressive in his first full game at running back for Clarkston, picking up 106 yards on 18 carries.

Rich Schrader (24) of Clarkston looks for some running room on this play in Friday night's game against Rochester. The Wolves lost the homecoming game to the Falcons, 14-0.

Flag football league

Sharpening their skills: These are just a few of the nearly 50 youngsters taking part in a flag football league sponsored by the parks and recreation department. Mike Turk and George Thompson are teaching the first-through sixth-graders the fundamentals of football.

Wolves lose road game, 57-49

Unbeaten in eight home games, CHS girl cagers 0-2 on the road

Despite being undefeated at home, the Clarkston High School varsity girls' basketball team dropped its second road game in as many tries in losing to Lake Orion, 57-49, Thursday night.

The Wolves, who beat Lapeer West 61-33 Oct. 5, are now 8-2 overall and 3-2 in the Greater Oakland Activities League. All eight of the Clarkston wins have been home games.

Lake Orion is 6-3 and 3-2 in the GOAL.

"We played very poorly. We blew it in the second half by losing control of the game," said CHS Coach Dave McDonald. "We knew before the season that Lake Orion is always tough."

The victory by the Dragons scrambles the GOAL into a three-team battle for first-place. Clarkston and Lake Orion have identical 3-2 records while Rochester has one league loss, that coming at the hands of the Wolves.

"The league is really tight; anyone could win it. A team could lose three or four games and still finish first," said Dragon Coach Jim Hester.

Annette Ulasich led Clarkston in scoring as she has throughout the season, pumping in 16 points. Sue Ketvirtis scored 14 while Janet Herron and Lori Martin each added eight points.

The Dragons, who broke a two-game losing streak, were led by Dawn Hoagg's 15 points.

Against Lapeer West, Clarkston got 15 points and six steals from Ulasich and 13 points from Ketvirtis. Lin Klinger chipped in six points and 10 rebounds.

Punt, pass, kick

Any youngsters who think they have some decent football skills will have a chance to show their talents in the third annual Punt, Pass and Kick contest to be held Oct. 23.

The contest, to begin at the Clarkston High School football field at 10 a.m., is sponsored by the Clarkston Jaycees and Coach's Corner.

The competition is open to all boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 13. Applications can be obtained at Coach's Corner or Country Value Hardware. They must be signed by a parent or legal guardian.

Applications will also be available at the field the day of the event.

Clarkston's heritage families

The search to find Clarkston families with four generations or 100 years as residents of the village was successful. The Clarkston Community Historical Society found 10 village families willing to submit genealogical information for verification in honor of the Clarkston's 150th birthday this year. Families honored with Certificates of Recognition by the society at Crafts & Cider include (front row, from left) Janette Morse representing the Vilet family; Christian, Adrienne and Carol Falk representing the Walter family; Lucille Robertson representing the Robertson family; Mrs. Floyd Nelsey representing the Clark family; (second row, from left) Leola Stageman representing the Follett family; Janet Lookadoo representing the Lambert family; Elizabeth Ronk representing the Hammond-Ronk families; Dorothy Huttenlocher representing the Huttenlocher family; and Shirley and Brian Wilson representing the Morgan-Wilson families; and (back row) Dan Addis representing the Addis family. The society plans to continue honoring heritage families. It began with village residents because of Clarkston's sesquicentennial, and next year the effort will expand to Independence Township. In the search for families with deep roots, several in the township were also discovered: Beardslee, Dennis-Warden, Clement, Maybee and Weir. Plans are to honor them next year with Certificates of Recognition during the historical society's annual Crafts & Cider Festival in September. Other families may contact historical society President Denise Symons at 625-8823.

Meet Julie Darling, one of 6 new fire fighters

By Marilyn Trumper

Twenty-year-old Julie Darling is making inroads at Independence Township.

She's a first-timer.

She's setting a precedent.

Julie is one of two new female volunteer fire fighters hired in Independence Township as the board put its stamp of approval on the the "much needed" addition of six new on-call personnel—two women and four men.

Sitting at the antique, well worn table in the spic and span downtown fire hall, Julie says not to look at her sex, but to see her instead as an extra hand to fight fires and work on the Emergency Medical Service (EMS) trucks.

"I wanted this job because I wanted to help people," she said. "It has nothing to do with the fact that I'm a woman."

That aside, Julie talks about goals and how the new job will act as a rung in climbing the ladder of success.

"I want to be a nurse. All my life, all I've ever wanted to do is help people and right now I'm in my second year at OCC studying to be a nurse," she said.

"So far this has really been a fascinating experience for me. I've been around medical people all my life. My grandfather was a doctor, my dad was a fire fighter. We've always had a scanner in the house. But this will be the real thing. I'll be doing it."

It will be March before Julie and her new colleagues will be able to respond to EMS calls and fires. Until then the six-member group must complete a rigorous 66-hour training program.

Julie found she was out of shape for the job during the initial agility test.

Fitted with heavy rubber coats, boots and a hat, her back carrying the weight of an oxygen tank, she scaled a ladder.

"I did it, but it was tough. So right after I found I'd been accepted I bought a weight set and I've been working out," she said.

SECTION TWO

The Clarkston (Mich.) News, Wed., Oct. 13, 1982 21

The thought of entering a burning building, eyes masked by smoke, stumbling around charred walls with poison gasses filling the air, is not one she likes to think about.

"It's not for anybody. No one likes to think about it and at first," she whispers, "I was really scared. It was a creepy idea. But I've seen how they do it. No one here does it alone. It's all teamwork and you never go in without being paired."

Strapped to her belt is a small gray beeper.

"When it goes off I can't respond. But I can come down (to the fire hall) and help them clean up when they come back."

Julie smiles.

The old downtown fire hall.

The camaraderie.

Julie Darling, 20, one of six new volunteer fire fighters hired in Independence Township, learns the ins and outs of polishing a helmet while the seasoned veterans give encouragement from the sidelines.

One-woman show

Twenty-two woodcuts, spanning a decade of work by Independence Township artist Donella Reese Vogel, make up an art show and sale planned Friday and Saturday, Oct. 15 and 16, in The Gift Market, a shop in the Clarkston Mills Mall, 20 W. Washington. Almost every woodcut she's ever done will be for sale, Vogel said. She uses the very old-fashioned, Japanese method of creating woodcuts, with everything done by hand. "I've never had this before. It's almost retrospective," she said about the scope of the show. "A lot of the scenes I've done are local things." The limited edition prints will be available matted and framed, or they may be purchased unmatted and unframed. Vogel will demonstrate her craft by working on a wood block in progress on Friday from noon to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. and on Saturday from noon to 4 p.m. The art show is a first for The Gift Market, said owner Hazel Pili. "I tell people about her work and I wanted it to be all together so people could see them," she said. The shop normally carries a selection of Vogel's woodcuts and her pastels and pencil drawings will soon be added.

The meeting is to be held in the Orion Township Library, 845 S. Lapeer, Lake Orion. There is no charge to attend. Phone 391-3313 for more information.

Save all your old newspapers for PTO

A fund raiser that doesn't cost a thing except a bit of time to save newspapers is coming up Nov. 13 and 14 at Clarkston Elementary School.

The PTO is sponsoring the newspaper drive to raise funds for equipment, probably microcomputers, for the school.

Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday. Pick-up service will be provided for those who cannot deliver their papers to the school. Call 625-1262 or 625-4177 to make arrangements.

New arrivals

Julie and Jack Gardner welcomed their second son into the world Oct. 6.

Jacob Sean was born at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac. He weighed 7 pounds, 7 1/4 ounces.

Waiting to greet his new brother at their home on Church Street, Independence Township, was 2-year-old Joshua Seth.

Grandparents are Jack and Colleen Gardner of Clarkston; and Bernard Soffin of Southfield.

Great-grandparents are Gladys Gardner of Clarkston and Herbert Dell of Detroit.

Harvie and Shelly Fulk of Hadley Road, Ortonville, are the parents of their first child, a girl.

Jennifer Marie was born Sept. 12, weighing 8 pounds, 8 ounces and measuring 21 inches.

Grandparents of the new baby are Ed and Pat Johnson of Independence Township and Jim and Dorothy Fulk of Melbourne, Fla.

Great-grandparents include Arnie and Miriam Fulk of Lantana, Fla., Bertha Pekkala of West Palm Beach, Fla., and Henry Pekkala of Grand Rapids.

A new baby girl has been born to Scott and Lorrie Beseau of Bridge Lake Road, Springfield Township.

Born Aug. 8 was Nicole Marie. The Beseaus' first child, Nicole weighed 7 pounds, 9 ounces and measured 19 inches.

Grandparents are Robert and Gloria Callahan of Waumegah Road, Springfield Township; and Clarence and Darla Sprague of Davisburg Road, Springfield Township.

Steve and Anne Ronk of Groveland Township are proud parents of their first child, a daughter.

Andrea Louise was born Oct. 6 at 7:05 p.m. at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

She weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces, and measured 19 1/4 inches long.

Grandparents are Frank and Mary Ronk and Alan and Lousie VanLoon, all of Independence Township.

Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Guellec of Pontiac and Elizabeth Ronk of Main Street, Clarkston.

Neville, Lengyel wed in double-ring ceremony

Lori Ann Neville and Charles G. Lengyel were recently united in marriage in a candlelight service performed by the Rev. James Balfour in the Clarkston United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neville of Hubbard Hills Drive, Independence Township. Her husband is the son of former Union Lake residents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lengyel of Austin, Minn.

For the double-ring ceremony Aug. 7, the church altar was decorated with gladiolas, white daisies and baby's breath. Karen Clapp sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, a retired Detroit police officer, the bride wore a formal gown of nylon organza embroidered with Chantilly lace, accented with tiny pearls. Her lace Bishop sleeves were cuffed and ruffled, and a matching headpiece held her Chantilly lace chapel-length veil.

She carried a cascade of white silk roses and pin cushion mums accented with baby's breath and variegated greens.

Angela Terzes of Northville was maid of honor and bridesmaids were the bride's sister Cathy Forn-wall; the bridegroom's sisters Ann Marie Lengyel and Mary Knuff; and Cori Sharrard.

Their handkerchief-style, dotted swiss gowns with spaghetti straps were covered with matching jackets in a rainbow of colors. Their bouquets were matching silk long-stemmed roses, white baby's breath and variegated greens. Their headpieces of tiny silk roses matched the bouquets.

Melissa Daly, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a blue, dotted swiss dress and tiny blue silk roses for her headpiece. She carried a white basket of matching blue silk roses.

Andy May was ring bearer. He carried a white, heart-shaped pillow to match his white tuxedo.

Best man was Tom Archambeau. Groomsmen and ushers were Larry Fornwall, Jim Sharrard, Jim Nicholls, Joe Guzman; the bride's brother Chaz Neville and the bridegroom's brother Jim Lengyel. Chaz and Jim also served as candlelighters.

McKee, DeQuis share vows

Mr. and Mrs. Brian DeQuis

Kathy McKee and Brian DeQuis were united in marriage recently in an afternoon ceremony at St. Andrews Episcopal Church, Waterford Township.

The Rev. William Evans performed the ceremony from an altar decorated in an assortment of fall flowers in pastel colors.

The bride is the daughter of Leo and Stephanie Grappin of Waterford Township. A Waterford Township High School graduate, she is employed as a secretary at P.D.Q. Air Service.

The bridegroom is the son of James DeQuis of Westland and Mary DeQuis of Waterford Township. A Clarkston High School graduate, he is employed as a clerk at Kroger's.

Given in marriage Sept. 17 by her father, the bride wore an ivory gown trimmed with lace. Her headpiece was a circle of ivory roses and baby's breath. She carried an arrangement of ivory, apricot and yellow silk flowers.

Nancy Grappin of Waterford Township served as maid of honor. She wore a floor-length apricot gown trimmed in apricot lace.

Bridesmaids were Melissa Hardenburg of Clarkston and Ranay Schaefer of Westland.

Wearing a long, yellow dress with ivory lace and yellow ties was flower girl Jessica McKee of Clarkston. She carried yellow flowers.

Ring bearer was Christopher Grappin of Waterford Township.

Best man was Tom Sizemore. Groomsmen were Jeff Grappin and Louis Flores.

The reception was attended by 200 guests at the Eagles Hall, Waterford.

Following a wedding trip to Walt Disney World in Florida, the newlyweds made their home in Independence Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Lengyel

The bride's mother wore a floor-length peach chiffon gown with peach accessories and matching flowers in her hair. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor-length blue gown with matching jacket for the wedding.

A reception followed at Deer Lake Racquet and Country Club for the 180 guests, including out-of-town visitors from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Minnesota, and Windsor and Ottawa, Canada.

The couple chose Paradise Island in the Bahamas for their wedding trip. They will make their home in Union Lake.

CVP now casting for 'Goodbye Charlie'

Casting is underway for "Goodbye Charlie," the next production of the Clarkston Village Players.

Early December show dates are planned for the comedy about a swinging-type Hollywood screenwriter who meets an early demise at the hands of a jealous husband who then returns on the scene in a completely different role.

There are parts for three men and four women. Anyone interested in auditioning may call director Homer Biondi at 625-2140.

Miss Michigan to arrive in town Oct. 17

Miss Michigan of 1982, Kathy Lou Pennington, will be the guest of honor at the First Church of God on Sunday, Oct. 17.

She is to sing and speak in the evening service at 6 p.m. in the church located at 6300 Clarkston-Orion, Independence Township.

From Jackson, Pennington is a member of the Church of the Nazarene there. She attended Olivet Nazarene College in Illinois two years before she transferred to Spring Arbor College.

Following the service, there is to be an informal reception for Miss Michigan.

The public is invited to attend, said the Rev. Eddie Downey, pastor of the First Church of God.

MADD meeting to be held Oct. 18

Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) are to meet Monday, Oct. 18.

A speaker will be featured at the meeting to begin at 7:30 p.m. at the 48th District Court, 2709 Telegraph, Bloomfield Hills.

The meetings are free, but those who wish to join MADD pay a membership fee of $10 a person or $25 a family.

For more information, write to MADD, P.O. Box 3004, Farmington Hills, MI 48018.

Women join fire department

It's a situation exclusive to police and fire fighters.

They who work together hang together. Only someone who lives it understands it.

It's Julie's new hangout.

And Julie, who lives on Cramlane, is joined by Gary Bendes of Mary Sue, Ronald Feneley of Clintonville Road, John Nicholson of Almond Lane, Beverly Shaver of Waldon Road and Louis Tessier of Eastlawn Road.

Fire Chief Frank Ronk welcomes them all with open arms after a year and a half of lobbying before the township board to take on more on-call personnel.

"I'm glad to have the extra hands," Ronk said.

A CONSUMER TIP

Manufacturer's prices printed on cartons, packages or labels are often used on cheap items to give the illusion of bargains. Widely advertised items will be featured at special prices way below list prices in many stores. These so-called list prices can be misleading. Don't let yourself be fooled. The only way to know whether you are getting a bargain or not is to shop around.

Locals join Lakeland Players' in 'Kiss Me Kate'

Patti Meloche bursts forth in song as she serenades Steve Cunningham with "Why Can't You Behave?"

Cast members from the Clarkston area dot the stage in the Lakeland Players' performance of "Kiss Me Kate" now underway at the Eagle Theatre, Pontiac.

The Cole Porter musical based on Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew" features Geoff Savage as Petruchio/Fred, Althea Doolittle as Kate/Lilli, Patti Meloche as Bianca/Lois and Steve Cunningham as Lucentio/Bill.

Cunningham resides in Springfield Township, and the cast also includes Independence Township residents Bob Schultz, Blair Collins, Marget Nelson, Ken Wilson and Bob Coats.

The play is to be performed Oct. 15, 16, 22 and 23 at the Eagle Theatre, 13 S. Saginaw, Pontiac. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Tickets are $5 at the door, and $4.50 in advance. Students, senior citizens and groups of 20 or more may purchase tickets for $3.50. Call 335-5470 for more information.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Registered voters may vote absentee ballot in the November 2, 1982 General Election if they qualify in one of the following categories:

I expect to be absent from the community in which I am registered for the entire time the polls are open on election day

I am physically unable to attend the polls without the assistance of another

I cannot attend the polls because of the tenets of my religion

I have been appointed an election precinct inspector in a precinct other than the precinct where I reside

I am 60 years of age or older

I cannot attend the polls because I am confined to jail awaiting arraignment or trial.

It is necessary to sign an application before a ballot can be issued so if you qualify as an Independence Township resident and wish to vote by absentee ballot call the Clerk's office at 625-5111 or write the Clerk at 90 North Main St., P.O. Box 69, Clarkston, Michigan for your application.

The deadline for applying for ballots to be mailed is Saturday, October 30, 1982 at 2:00 p.m. However, voters qualified to vote absentee ballot may vote in the Clerk's office until 4:00 p.m. on Monday, November 1, 1982.

Christopher L. Rose, Clerk
Independence Township

The tug-of-war contest was one of many competitions pitting one class against another at the Clarkston High School field day. The seniors won the competition with the juniors finishing second.

Their faces aglow from the light of a bonfire, Clarkston High School cheerleaders keep the spirit high during a pep rally Thursday to hype the homecoming football game.

Clarkston homecoming: spirited affair

Members of the CHS marching band play the school fight song as the bonfire gets underway. The pep rally included speeches by Head Football Coach Walt Wyniemko and several of the CHS players as well as routines by the pom-pom and cheerleading squads.

A dummy representing the Rochester Falcons is burned in effigy at Thursday night's bonfire. Rochester, however, beat Clarkston 14-0 in the homecoming game Friday.

To Your Good Health!

A supplement to The Clarkston News

Cover: To your good health!

People in pursuit of good health take care of themselves—they watch their diets, and are into preventive medicine and exercise. A morning exercise class that meets three times weekly in Independence Township Hall follows the philosophy of Vital Options. Instructor Karen Moore changed her way of living three years ago and now helps others do the same. In our cover photo, Karen Gross of Hillcrest Road, Independence Township, (in black leotard and sweat pants) follows the instructions along with other classmates. There are more photos from the class on Pages 12 and 13. Other features in "To Your Good Health!" include information on the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital addition due to open in February and the Oakland County Medical Care Facility. While we all hope we'll never need such care, it's nice to know what is available if we do.

SJMH expands to serve needs

Building to open in February

By Marilyn Trumper

A 9-year-old Clarkston boy fishing in the Sashabaw Creek steps up on Pine Knob Road to re-bait his hook.

A passing car fails to see the small fisherman hidden by the tall reeds and hits the boy.

An ambulance responds, shores up what looks to be an injured leg and rushes him to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac.

With the addition of the new four-story ambulatory and intensive care wing due to open in 1983 at the 55-year-old hospital on Woodward Avenue, the traffic pattern's changed.

The emergency drive is easier to traverse and no longer is clogged with pedestrian and visitor traffic.

That saves driving time.

There are four new emergency rooms available to funnel patients in and out for treatment. Patients can be treated quicker.

That saves time.

X-ray's has been moved from the old building to the new wing and is now just down the hall from the emergency rooms.

Diagnosis of injuries is quicker.

That saves time.

Consequently, the boy's broken leg is fitted with a cast and he's on his way home. Faster and with less waiting than before the new, yet-to-be named wing was built.

Expansion is the key word for the hospital, according to Chuck Osburn, vice president of Management Services.

"First is our new traffic pattern at the hospital. We've rerouted it to come in off Fulton, back behind the parking structure to the emergency entrance. People can unload under the canopy," Osburn said.

"The Woodward entrance can still be used to get to the parking garage or drop off or pick up people at the front of the hospital."

The first floor of the new emergency and intensive care wing boasts nine emergency beds, X-ray, a dental and pediatric center and an outpatient pharmacy and laboratory.

The second floor is geared for intensive care treatment (ICU) and has 12 such rooms and eight private and semi-private "step-down" rooms. They're used for patients that don't require the constant monitoring of an ICU. In addition there are the "short stay" surgery units with five minor procedure rooms where simple operations place.

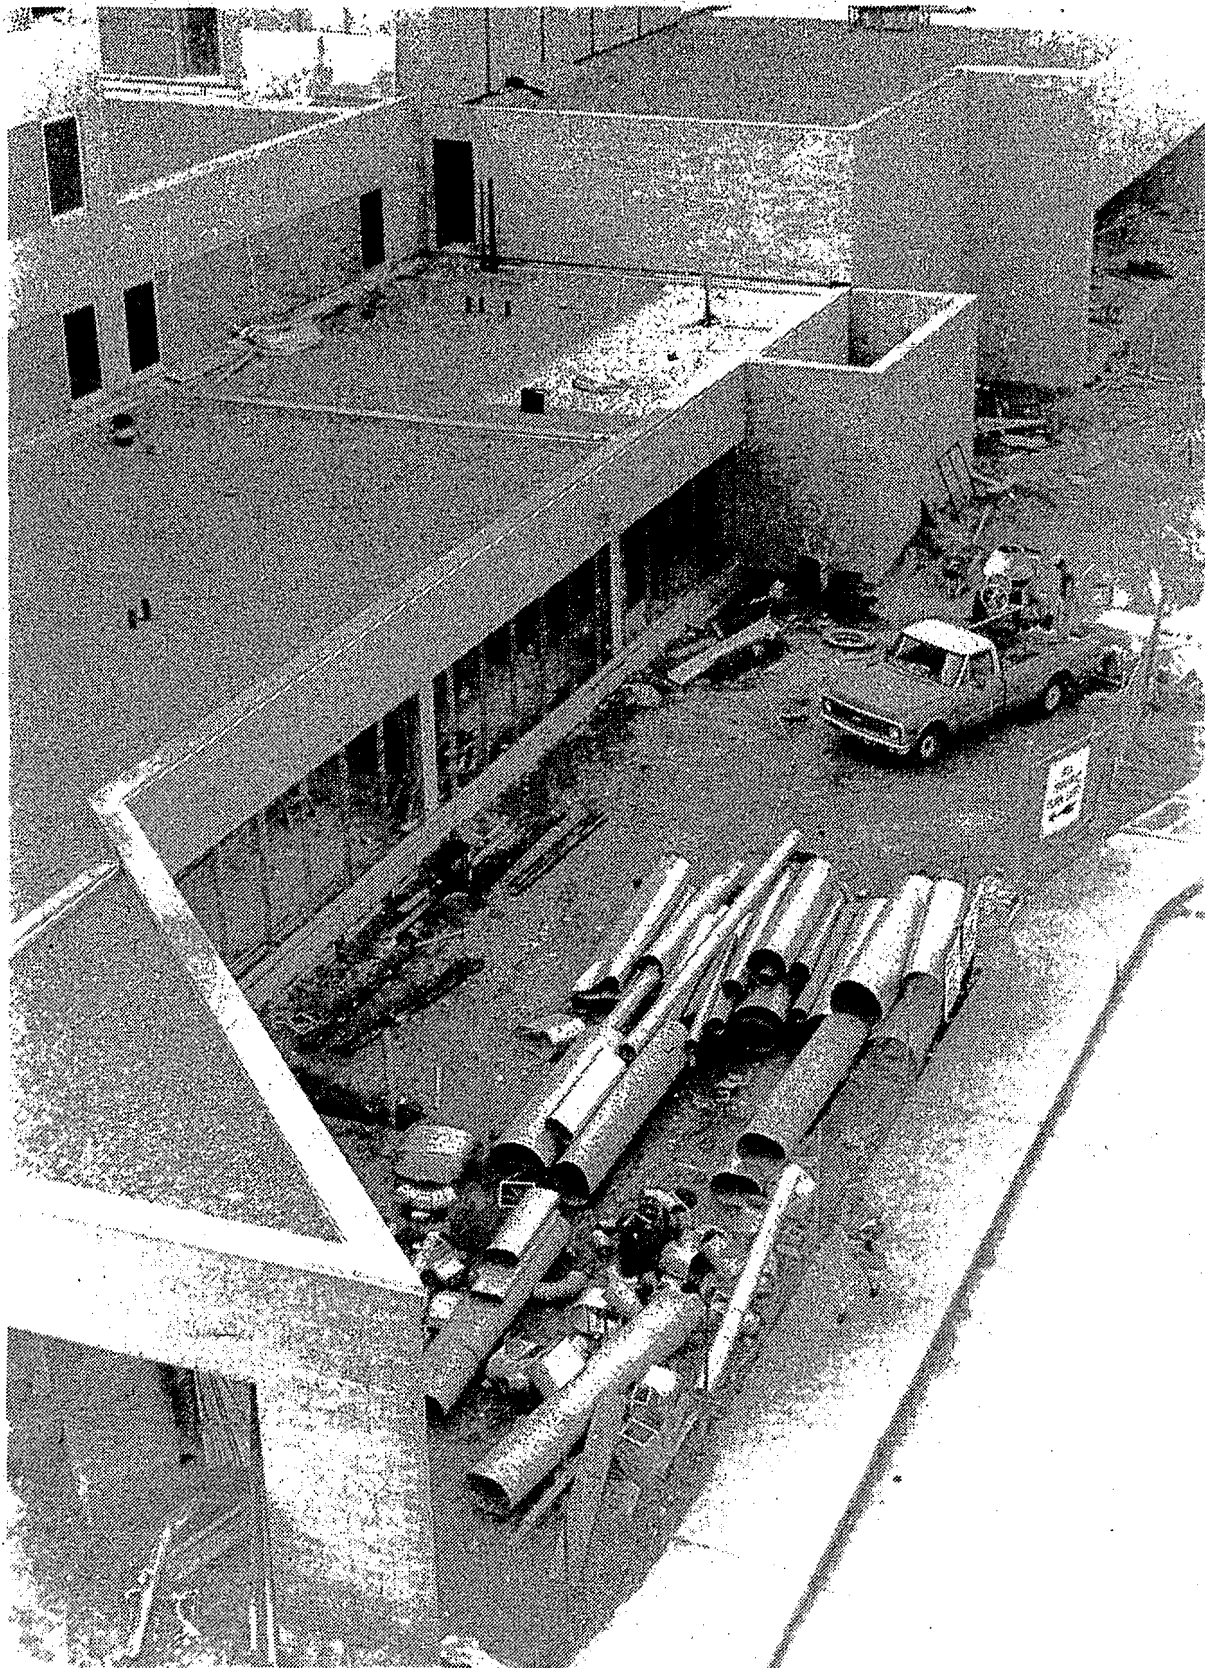

The third floor has six private coronary intensive care rooms and four step-down rooms for recuperating victims of heart attacks, and the catheterization lab, where doctors inject the blood with dye to monitor flow and see if the valves of the heart are operating correctly.

In addition, the third floor has an expanded outpatient cardiology area with larger EKG rooms, stress test area, and the Cardiac Rehabilitation Area.

The fourth floor has the intensive care unit for children with six private beds and a parents lounge and sleep area and the new Education Resource area with a medical library, audiovisual room, drug information center and conference rooms, which can be rented by community groups.

"We have not expanded our bed capacity, we've just reallocated it," Osburn said, noting the hospital can hold 531 patients.

The total addition is 158,000 square feet and, according to Osburn, has been under construction two years, cost $4 million and is targeted for February completion.

Workmen look like small bugs milling about the front of the new hospital addition on Woodward Avenue. Officials say the third floor could be occupied in two weeks as workmen go against time to complete the four-story addition housing a larger emergency ward and up-to-date Intensive Care Unit.

Dust, open ducts, blown insulation and general clutter fills the new wing at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital's emergency and intensive care addition. The 158,000-square-foot addition is scheduled for a February opening after two years of construction.

County care facility answers skilled care needs

By Greg Nelson

The brick facade looks like all the other buildings in the Oakland County Service Complex on Telegraph Road, Pontiac.

But after walking through the doors of the modern, contemporary-styled building, the scene changes dramatically.

The halls of the Oakland County Medical Care Facility are wider than normal—built for the wheelchairs that move through the corridors each day.

"This is a unique and caring facility," said volunteer coordinator Betty Moustakas, stressing that the facility is much different than a normal nursing home.

"We're not an indigent facility or the County 'poor house' as we used to be called years ago," added Rose Humphries, assistant administrator.

The majority of patients are elderly stroke victims but there are also teenage accident victims and at least one pre-teen who suffers from a brain tumor among the 120 patients.

But young or old, all of the patients have one thing in common. They require a large degree of skilled medical care on a daily basis.

Incoming patients must be referred by hospitals based on medical needs and they are screened by a medical director at the facility before they are admitted, said Humphries.

The criteria to determine whether or not a patient needs skilled nursing care is set up by third parties such as Medicaid and Blue-Cross/Blue-Shield. Patients are kept at the facility as long as they require skilled care. But when their condition improves they are sent home or to a basic care nursing home, added Humphries.

The length of stay of all patients is reviewed regularly. Approximately 50 percent of the patients eventually are transferred to lesser care facilities, said Humphries.

As one walks the wide halls, two distinct types of care are visible.

One wing of the building houses "total-care" patients. These are persons restricted to beds who are fed intravenously. A large number of nurses and staff personnel are bustling through the area which looks much like a hospital.

But there is another side to the facility. Go down another wing and enter one of the two day rooms and a completely different scene unfolds.

The day rooms are utilized "to bring patients up-to-date on what is happening in the outside world," said Moustakas.

Nurses and volunteers talk to the patients, sharing with them news and information. A television set sits in one corner transmitting other news.

The day rooms are large and bright with windows running the length of one wall. It looks like a classroom as patients line their wheelchairs around a long table in the middle of the room working on arts and crafts or playing games.

The surrounding walls are filled with various crafts and projects the patients have spent months finishing, because most of the patients have only the use of one hand or arm. Needle crafts are done by a volunteer putting the needle in the right place and the patient pulling it through, said Moustakas.

It is a very time-consuming job but the wall hangings are bright tributes to hard work paying off.

The day rooms are also used for other functions and social events. Bingo and occasional parties are held in the day rooms as are church services and Adult Education classes. The classes are held twice a week and enable patients to acquire a high school diploma.

"The classes are a vast benefit because they bring in more of an outside influence," said Humphries.

The facility plans a number of activities

Prenatal class serves siblings

Free prenatal classes for siblings are offered every month at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

The program, which is the only one of its kind in the Detroit-Metropolitan area, helps prepare children for the arrival of a new brother or sister.

The classes offer parents and children tours of the maternity area, the labor and delivery rooms and the hospital nursery. The children see a movie and learn how to hold and care for a baby.

It is not necessary for the children's mothers to plan on delivering at the hospital, but class size is limited and early registration is advised.

Classes are scheduled the fourth Sunday of each month at 4:30 p.m.

For reservations or more information, call Hazel Stewart at 858-3560.

Free tests keep hearts healthy

The second annual Heart Day, sponsored by Crittenton Hospital of Rochester, offers free tests and health care literature.

"Keep Your Heart Healthy" is the theme of the event planned Saturday, Oct. 16, at the Great Oaks Mall, Rochester. Hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Heart Day is geared to persons who have not had a heart attack so they may learn how to avoid having one, and to persons who have had a heart attack to help prevent recurrence.

The tests available are to include risk factor analysis, skinfold test, blood tests (which require 14 hours of fasting), basic-lung function test, blood pressure check, height and weight check, diet counseling, demonstrations of alternative kinds of exercising and specially prepared health care literature pertaining to the heart.

Last year, 375 persons participated in the program.

It will be held in the Community Room at the southwest corner of the shopping center located on University Drive across from Crittenton Hospital.

PGH dedicates new Radiation Therapy Center

Cancer patients from hospitals throughout northern Oakland County are to benefit from Pontiac General Hospital's new Radiation Therapy Center, the only facility of its kind in the area.

The center, made possible through a $750,000 contribution from the General Motors Foundation, was dedicated Oct. 5.

To avoid duplication of services, area hospitals agreed on housing the radiation therapy center in PGH, said Paula Jarvis, PGH spokesperson.

The center has the newest equipment available, Jarvis said, including two items purchased with the donation—a Linear Accelerator capable of providing deep, precise treatment with minimal damage to superficial tissues; and a Treatment Simulator which allows the doctor to select dosage and the area to be treated and to verify the treatment plan before it actually begins.

General Motors Foundation funds are also to be used to purchase a computer to assist in treatment planning and to store data for medical research.

Radiation therapy is the use of high energy x-rays, cobalt, electrons and other sources of radiation in the treatment of diseases, particularly cancer. It is one of three major methods of treatment which include surgery or drugs.

The hospital provides a full spectrum of cancer treatments including surgery, chemotherapy and radiation therapy.

PGH is located at Seminole at West Huron streets in Pontiac. Phone 857-7522 for more information.

5-day stop smoking plan to begin soon

Smokers who want to kick the habit can attend a Five-Day Plan conducted by a physician-pastor team in the Springfield Oaks Activities Center, Springfield Township.

Sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventist Church Community Services, the Five-Day Plan begins Monday, Oct. 18, at 7:30 p.m., and continues each evening through Friday, Oct. 22. There is a $5 registration fee for materials.

The plan consists of regular group therapy sessions, films, a daily personal control program and other techniques designed to break the habit within a five-day period.

G.S. Buchanan, M.D., of Holly is to conduct the program with the Rev. Earl Zager of the Holly Seventh-day Adventist Church.

A feature is the film "Countdown," a lung cancer operation in full color, to be shown the first evening of the therapy sessions.

To register, call 634-8371, 634-7757 or 634-9481.

The Springfield Oaks Activities Center is located at 12451 Andersonville.

Talking About . . . Heart Attack

• What is it? It is the death of heart tissue in an area starved of blood and oxygen supply because of deficient circulation to it.

• Who gets it? An estimated 1.5 million Americans a year have heart attacks, more men than women. It can happen to anyone who has a deficiency in their heart blood supply.

• What causes it? Chiefly, fat deposits blocking arteries serving the heart muscle. Many adverse lifestyle factors contribute.

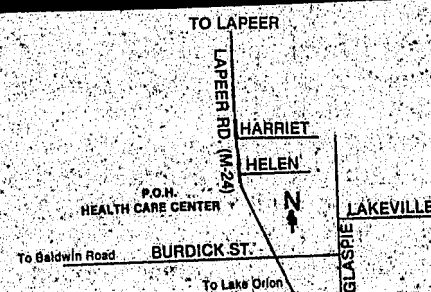

• What are the signs? Most commonly, chest pain and tightness behind the breastbone, sometimes felt as a radiating pain in the neck, jaw, shoulders, or arms; also paleness, clamminess, shortness of breath, perhaps only a feeling of slight indigestion. A very minor heart attack can be almost unnoticed, offering no overt signs.

• How is it diagnosed? EKG's (graphic tracing of the heart) shows resulting abnormalities and certain enzymes in the blood are a tip off to a pending and/or recent heart attack and its severity.

• What is the treatment? Immediately contact your family physician, hospital emergency room or your community emergency medical service unit. The decision to do this should not be left up to the victim. If the person's heart stops beating and breathing stops, begin CPR, but only if you have been trained to do so. After emergency treatment, the goal is rehabilitation. Drugs can help improve circulation to the heart. Weight control and avoiding of other contributing factors are important. Surgery to by-pass fat-blocked arteries may be required.

• What is the outlook? Good. Most recovered heart attack victims can lead reasonably normal lives if the causes of the original attack are eliminated.

To register for an upcoming CPR class, call the Registration Office of the Oxford Health Care Center.

Marathoners stride for good health

By Marilyn Trumper

Just two of the "Clarkston 15" fell to the rigors and plus-70-degree heat of the Detroit Free Press International Marathon.

Some of the remaining 13 and the handful of independents finished strong, others not so strong. Others complained for days. Others don't know if they'll ever try it again. Everyone suffered through the "terrible" heat and stagnant, stifling air in the Detroit River tunnel.

All agree it was too hot to run a marathon.

Looking over the war stories it's a mystery how Daniel Schulte, who trained independent of the Clarkston 15, finished at all.

Destiny kept dealing the 43-year-old runner a black hand throughout the grueling 26.2-mile race that tests the mettle and muscle of every entrant.

Schulte ran 22 miles of the gut-wrenching, sole-slapping, shin-busting run with a broken toe. Although, says he, "I didn't know it at the time." He finished his first marathon with a time of 4:21.

In a field of nearly 5,000 runners, the local residents left Windsor's Jackson Park at 9 a.m. Oct. 3.

"When I finished my body was devastated, but I had a real feeling of accomplishment. I was beat up, tore up, all I could think was, 'God, I did it. Thank you God,'" Schulte said.

His streak of bad luck began at the four-mile mark.

"I was running along minding my own business, stopped to get a drink of water, and this guy stepped on my toe. After the race I went to the doctor. He told me it was fractured, but I didn't know it then. That was before we even got to the tunnel.

"Then, at the Jefferson barricade a guy tripped, lost his balance and fell on me. My toe hurt. I grabbed some ice cubes and put them on my toe.

"I started running again and this elderly man was backing out of his driveway, his wife motioning for him to go ahead. So I ran in front of the car. Son of a gun if he didn't put it in forward and hit me in the knee," Schulte said.

At the 20-mile mark a girl ran into him with her 10-speed bike.

"Anything and everything on my body hurt. I kept asking myself, 'Why are you doing this?' But I succeeded," Schulte said.

Dr. Arnold Berman, another independent runner from Springfield Township came in high on the list of marathoners, 137th with a time of 2:48.

"I feel better than I did last year," Berman said. "It was too hot to race."

Jill Jones, whose husband Fred "looked at her with hate" in his eyes during last year's marathon when she bounced her way to the finish line, this year limped along half of the race, finishing with a time of 4:38.

"I felt terrible, awful," she said. "I crashed at 13 miles. I didn't take in fluids at every aid station, just a couple of sips. One of the other women I talked to said she drank two full glasses. I was dehydrating.

"But," said the member of the Clarkston 15, "I didn't give up. I walked and ran and walked and ran and wobbled over the line. People were dropping like flies in the heat."

Her 43-year-old husband Fred finished with a time of 4:19.

"I thought Jill was going to drop out. If I'd known she was going to keep going I would have stayed with her," Fred said.

"I felt terrible when it was over. It was the heat. We've all run in the heat before but because it was the marathon, and we were excited, we were running a little bit faster.

"And usually I've enjoyed going through the tunnel, but this year it was terrible. It was so hot."

Looking cheerful at the eight-mile mark while saying hello to well-wishers from home are

Fred said last year he got blisters on his toes at the 16-mile mark and "hit the wall" at 21 miles.

"I read up on it all year long. People said to rub your feet with Vaseline to prevent blisters. And to take aspirin to keep from hitting the wall. So I did.

"This year I got blisters at 10 miles and hit the wall at 15 so what does it all mean?" Fred laughed.

"But it never entered my mind to quit."

Pat Portenga, 44, also of the Clarkston 15, finished in 4:11. "Worse than last year by seven minutes, because it was too hot," she said. "I really was in better shape than last year and should have done better."

Husband Dick Portenga did not run this year.

Don Johnston, 44, finished in 3:34 with his 21-year-old son Dean.

"We crossed the finish line together," Johnston said. "I felt pretty rough because of the heat. It was tough."

Jane Bovee, 32, of Springfield Township, another of the Clarkston 15, finished in 4:28.

Husband Gordon, who was scheduled to compete, broke his leg two weeks prior to the marathon and couldn't.

Dr. Frank Jones, 35, another of the Clarkston 15, finished in 4:38.

Carolyn Bielak, 31, an independent runner who trained with 48-year-old David Gallo, finished the race in 4:30.

Dave came in at 4:12.

"I finished, and that was the main thing," Carolyn said. "And we both finished strong."

"But stay tuned for next year," she laughed, refusing to commit to the second grueling marathon.

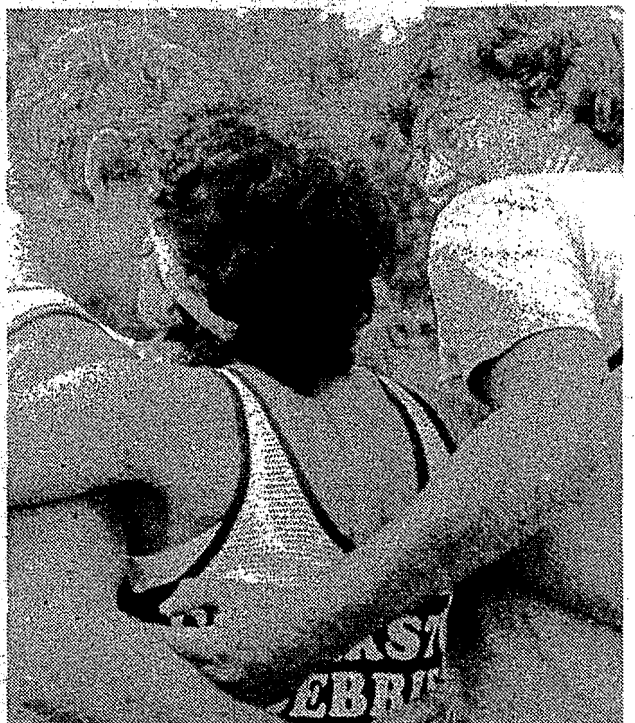

Lee Freel, 42, an independent runner from Independence Township, finished his second marathon in 3:38.

"The wall was there at 23 miles," Freel said. "I would have traded the first 20 miles for the last six anytime, but I bet a lot of people would."

"The heat was bad."

Barney Panker of the Clarkston 15 finished in 3:56 saying, "It was hot and humid. All of us should have done a good minute and 15 seconds faster."

Jim and Carole Dieck of Waterford

It's her first marathon and Debbie Moran-Rohr posts a respectable finish time of just over four hours. She's congratulated by friends for her achievement.

Township, also in the Clarkston group, finished in 4:25 and 4:01 respectively.

Dick Greenfield, who in last year's marathon had a tough time and walked the last third of the race, finished this year in 3:40.

"I did everything I wanted to," Greenfield said. "But at the 24-mile mark my legs were tired. I think this year I didn't press myself. The heat didn't bother me, I had lots of water.

"My son gave me a water bottle for my birthday and I put it to good use."

Don Moore of Milford, also in the Clarkston group, was one of the two who did not finish.

"I had been to the doctor's three times in three weeks before the race for my knee. Each time he told me the trouble was over.

"At the six mile mark I broke down. The signs were definitely there not to run," he said.

Roy Fry of Paramus was the second Clarkston runner to fold, but the News couldn't reach him to discover what happened.

Other Clarkston 15 runners to finish were: Elaine Bass at 4:38; Bruce Olsen at 4:00 and Dick Selvala at 4:49.

throughout the year to keep patients busy and entertained. These include parties on holidays such as the annual Halloween party for which the patients wear costumes, said Moustakas.

A facility picnic is held every fall on the grounds and includes patients, staff and volunteers.

Call for volunteers

The Oakland County Medical Care Facility is looking for volunteers to spend some time and energy working with its patients.

"We have a great need for people who would come in and give some of their time. The patients love anything anyone can bring them," said Betty Moustakas, volunteer coordinator at the facility, located at 2200 N. Telegraph, Pontiac.

The facility is a skilled care center designed for people that need a great deal of special nursing attention. Patients are mostly stroke and accident victims confined to wheelchairs.

There are presently 35 volunteers at the facility who help patients do simple arts and crafts, play bingo and do other similar activities.

Volunteers also come in and sing, play instruments or act out plays for the patients.

"This is a great place to rehearse something," Moustakas said.

Daytime hours and weekends are best for anyone interested in volunteering. The patients are all in bed by 4:30 p.m.

Interested people may contact Betty Moustakas at the facility at 858-1438.

"Everyone who can possibly be pushed outside takes part in the picnic," said Moustakas.

Field trips are another big part of the annual activities planned by the facility. Small groups of patients are taken out on short trips several times a year.

This year patients have visited a cider mill and Oak Park, and at Christmas time some patients will be taken to the Pontiac Mall to do some shopping.

But the facility is not all fun and games. A variety of rooms throughout the building house medical and rehabilitation departments.

The facility offers a medical staff that includes a full-time physician who is on call 24 hours a day, registered nurses, licensed practical nurses and nursing attendants.

But just as important are the 35 volunteers currently working at the facility who give their time and effort to help the patients, said Moustakas.

Moustakas said the facility can never get enough volunteers and is looking for people willing to give some of their time.

Among the rehabilitation departments at the facility are a physical and occupational therapy room, speech therapy department, a medical lab, an X-ray department and a pharmacy, all of which are staffed by professionals, said Humphries.

The Oakland County Medical Care Facility, 2200 N. Telegraph Rd., Pontiac, is a modern care center for people of all ages. The facility houses 120 patients who require a large degree of skilled medical care not available in a basic care nursing home.

Take CPR courses in Waterford

The American Heart Association estimates that proper cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) techniques applied early enough could save 120,000 of the 650,000 heart attack victims who die each year.

The Pontiac General Hospital Ambulatory Care Center of Waterford is offering classes in CPR, the life-saving method of mouth-to-mouth breathing and external heart massage that forces the heart to pump blood.

Upon completion of the courses, participants will join the roughly 15 million Americans who have already been trained in CPR.

Heart Saver Course

The first of a series of three courses, the Heart Saver Course offers the beginner an introduction to the heart and the basics of single-rescuer CPR. Participants are instructed in proper action that can prevent unnecessary deaths from heart attacks. The four-hour class will be available at a cost of $2 on Oct. 14 (6 to 10 p.m.) and Nov. 11 (6 to 10 p.m.).

Basic Coronary Life Support Course

The second course of the series teaches two-person CPR, Infant and Child CPR, and the management of choking victims. The class is offered in two evening sessions on Nov. 1 and 4 (6 to 10 p.m.) and Dec. 6 and 9 (6 to 10 p.m.). The fee is $4.

Basic Coronary Life Support Instructor

The third of the series of classes is designed to equip the participant to teach the Basic Coronary Life Support course to others. This class includes two sessions and is available to those who have already completed the Heart Saver and Basic Coronary Life Support courses. It will be offered Nov. 1 and 4 between 6 and 10 p.m. Registration fee is $6.

The center is located on North Oakland Boulevard, just south of Highland Road (M-59).

in the Care of the Elderly

We have two private facilities in the Clarkston area - one with 20 beds, one with 10 beds, licensed by the Mich. Dept. of Social Services. . . Specializing in care for the aged for whom skilled nursing services are not required. We have provided quality care for the aged since 1973.

In November we are opening a new 20 bed facility in White Lake Township. It will have all barrier free design and will have staffing around the clock and will still have the same home atmosphere as we maintain in all our homes.

So if you have an elderly loved one that is approaching in years, and can no longer live alone and you cannot provide the care that they need, first check out our facilities before you decide on a nursing home, check our services, reputation, our home atmosphere, our caring staff members.

Now slender, and limber, Karen Moore changed her life-style three years ago. She works to help others take good care of themselves by teaching exercise classes five days a week.

Taking care

KAREN MOORE has a success story to tell as she talks about the Vital Options exercise class she leads three times a week at Independence Township Hall.

"Three years ago, I was 30 pounds overweight and in terrible shape," she says. "I decided I had to do something."

She went on a diet and started exercising. Two years ago, she attended a Vital Options health spa workshop and soon became a certified instructor. That means she must meet weight requirements and jog 1 1/2 miles under 14 minutes three times a year, and renew her CPR card annually.

There are now 39 people enrolled in Moore's class.

"I've got all shapes, sizes and ages—that's what's good about it, physical fitness is for everyone," she says. "It's going to help health-wise as well as emotionally. I enjoy giving something good to people. It's something I never thought I could do."

Stretch, strength and stamina make up the total fitness philosophy for the classes offered locally through the Independence Township Parks and Recreation Department. Cost for the six-week session is $30 for two lessons a week and $45 for three a week. The next course in Township Hall begins in November.

Independence Township resident Mary Lake is setting up an evening Vital Options course in Waterford Township—call 394-0343 after 6 p.m.

Other courses are offered in Ortonville, Goodrich and Union Lake. For information, call Vital Options Inc. in East Detroit at 774-3390.

'Oliver' dates benefit health

A chance to see the film classic "Oliver" and help the Local Coalition for Public Health is on tap at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The three-day showing is sponsored by Detroit-area public health departments including Oakland County's.

The movie, which won six academy awards in 1968, is to be shown Monday evenings, Oct. 18, 19 and 20, at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $3 if purchased in advance at the health department and $3.50 if purchased at the Detroit Institute of Arts box office.

The health department is located at 1200 N. Telegraph, Pontiac. Phone 858-1280 for more information.

Narcotics group aims to help

Narcotics Anonymous offers help for individuals with drug problems who want to overcome them.

The organized group meets every Tuesday from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. and every Thursday from 8 to 9 p.m. at the Fox Center of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

Nar-Non meetings for the families of addicts are scheduled every Thursday from 8 to 9 p.m. at the center.

Membership is free and all participants remain anonymous. Call the center at 858-3177 for more information.

Sinai provides meeting topics

Planning a meeting? Need a speaker? Contact the Sinai Hospital of Detroit Speakers Bureau.

The service is free and topics available include genetic counseling, stress management, arthritis, diabetes and what can be done to keep hearts healthy, plus a variety of other subjects.

A speakers' bureau representative will even work with groups to come up with topics tailor-made for them.
