Fire chief approved Vandermark objects

By Carolyn Walker

Over the objections of Trustee William Vandermark, the Independence Township Board authorized Capt. Dale Bailey as fire chief April 16.

The decision came after the board unanimously agreed to accept "with reluctance" the resignation of appointed chief William Carver Sr.

The tension in the air was almost palpable as board members listened to Vandermark's suggestion that a new vote of the three remaining candidates be taken.

Some board members debated with Vandermark before a 6-1 vote was cast authorizing Bailey to assume the position with no stipulations, effective immediately.

Board members voted 5-2 at their March 19 meeting to appoint runner-up Bailey should Carver, their first choice, not be able to keep his commitment.

DANCING INTO TOWN: The Clarkston High School Drama Department's performance of the musical "Kiss Me Kate" comes to the CHS Little Theatre beginning this week. Shawn Smith (left) and Sonja Ritter lead the 45-member troupe in this scene. Play dates are

April 25, 26, 27 and 28, and May 2, 3 and 4. Showtimes are 8 p.m., with the exception of the Sunday matinee at 2 p.m. Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $3 for students and senior citizens. They may be purchased at the high school. [Photo by Dan Vandenhemel]

Spring forward

Hickory Dickory Dock,
It's time to change your clock.
This Sunday, when the clock strikes two
It'll really be three,
Whether you believe it or not.

Hickory Dickory Dock,
If Monday you forgot,
you'll be late for work
and look like a jerk,
So, forward that hand on your clock.

Moving day for Rudy's pigeons

By Dan Vandenhemel

The pigeons that have been a fixture on the roof of Rudy's Market in Clarkston for 50 years are starting to disappear.

They're being trapped by Leo Armstrong of Ortonville. He's planning to transport the birds to his farm near Mt. Pleasant where he says they'll have a better chance to survive.

The removing of the pigeons came days after Rudy Schwarze, the 75-year-old owner of the market, was ordered to stop feeding the birds by the Oakland County Health Department Division. A cease and desist order was handed Rudy Feb. 8 and was later postponed until April 15 because of the cold weather.

Rudy was discouraged with the entire process of having him stop feeding the birds and then having them taken away.

"Who's going to feed them?" he said from the

Trustee questions chief decision

Two other candidates were eliminated during that vote.

On April 10, township officials received word from Carver, who was to begin April 22, that he would not be taking the position.

Carver cited five anonymous letters and two phone calls of intimidation as his reasons for declining the job.

"I object violently to the manner in which this has been done," Vandermark said.

Responding to Vandermark's request for a revote, Supervisor Frank Ronk said, "What we're looking at here is to get on with the program. I think we've belabored it long enough."

Trustee Carol Balzarini concurred with Ronk. "Two wrongs don't make a right," she said. "We have had a wrong...now (we should) go forward."

The March 19 motion by Ronk, to which Vandermark objected, read: "...if Mr. Carver fails the physical or does not qualify for any other reason, the second in line (Bailey) in the vote selection would receive the appointment."

That motion was approved with Clerk Richard Holman and Vandermark dissenting.

At the April 16 meeting, Vandermark questioned the intent of that motion, saying that Bailey was not being appointed by a majority vote.

"This was not a case of him (Carver) not qualifying. He simply resigned," Vandermark said.

Reading from a two-page prepared statement, Vandermark said the fire commission failed to follow the board's requirements by making a single recommendation (Bailey) instead of suggesting four names for consideration.

The testing procedure used by the commission was subjective rather than objective, he said, adding that the commissioners used "personal judgment only" in their selection.

Dr. James O'Neill, chairman of the fire commission, denied those allegations in a phone interview after the meeting.

"We did exactly what they (the board) said...much more objective than they used," O'Neill said. "They asked us to categorize them and that's what we did."

Bailey scored the highest on the numerically rated tests, which follow the guidelines of the Michigan Municipal League, according to O'Neill.

"Of course number one is the one we'd recommend," O'Neill said. "It was a process to pick the best person. I think we did."

Vandermark said no one in the Independence Township Fire Department has qualifications to compare with Carver's.

"This is why he was appointed chief," he said.

storage room of his store. "I don't think it's right."

The 63-year-old Armstrong raises Birmingham Rollers, a breed of pigeons, at his home in Ortonville. He says he heard about the pigeons from conversations in the store.

The actual trapping doesn't hurt the birds, according to Armstrong. He uses food to coax the birds into a cage with one-way trap doors.

"I've got about 45 captured so far," he said. "There's about another hundred to go. I've got a barn up north and there's a farm next door to mine. They'll be OK up there. The hawks will get some of them, but most will survive."

"The good ol' boys from Independence Township didn't like it (Carver's appointment)," Vandermark added.

"If we allow this to happen, it will happen again," he said, adding that the letters and phone calls of intimidation to Carver reminded him of the Ku Klux Klan. "We're in the process of rewarding intimidation with success."

A motion by Vandermark to revote the issue died for lack of a second.

A motion to appoint Bailey was passed with Vandermark dissenting.

Bailey will assume his post at $31,000-a-year and will not be required to have a physical, as Carver was because of a back injury.

Voting to approve the appointment of Bailey were Supervisor Frank Ronk, Clerk Richard Holman, Treasurer John Lutz, and trustees Carol Balzarini, Daniel Travis and Dale Stuart.

After the vote, Ronk said, "Capt. Bailey, all I can say is good luck and you've got a whale of a job ahead of you."

M-15 widening approved after years of talks

By Carolyn Walker

After 12 years of cogitating on M-15, the Independence Township Board has set the wheels of improvement in motion.

Five lanes are in store for the stretch of M-15 from Dixie Highway to Paramus, following the board's 6-1 vote to notify the Michigan Department of Transportation of its intention to participate in drainage improvements.

Approximately five citizens expressed concerns before the vote.

The cost of widening M-15, scheduled for 1987, will be paid by the state, said Frank Biehl, of Hubble, Roth, and Clark Engineering, who attended a meeting in Lansing with Supervisor Frank Ronk and members of the MDOT.

Accompanying drainage improvements are to be divided three ways, with the state paying 40 percent, Oakland County 25 percent and the township 35 percent, he said.

Drainage costs to the township will be approximately $160,000.

Trustee Dale Stuart, who voted against the motion, expressed concern about widening the road to five lanes instead of three.

Stuart asked what would happen to traffic volume if the proposed changes were made at the M-15-Dixie Highway intersection.

The state plans to remove the continuous green arrow and make the intersection into a "T" shape, with turns allowed from both directions.

"A lot of the congestion problems would be resolved," Stuart said. "We're never going to know at this point."

Stuart also questioned the necessity of spending township money for the improvements.

"$160,000 worth of drainage for M-15...will stop us from doing a great many other things for the community," he said.

In addition, Stuart asked the board to reconsider widening the road to three lanes.

"Part of the reason the state cost is higher (for three lanes) is that they don't want to do it," Stuart said, adding that he views three lanes as a compromise between widening the road and protecting parking along Main Street in the village.

"Our identity is with the Village of Clarkston and preserving that identity is very, very critical. We have something very, very important to protect."

State representatives have said it is more economical to widen the road to five lanes and that maintenance in the winter would be easier.

They have also refused to commit themselves to not widening Main Street in the future, although they say that prospect is unlikely.

Other board members appeared anxious to get the construction underway.

"We and boards before us have been sitting here doing the same things since 1972," said Trustee Carol Balzarini. "We've sat and debated the thing for so long, it's time for something to be done."

Trustee Daniel Travis agreed, saying federal government budget cuts could eliminate revenue sharing funds in future years.

"We have to make a tough decision," he said. "It's the only way we can make that area safe for the township."

Federal Revenue Sharing funds for 1985, totaling $137,000, have been designated for the project by the board.

According to Clerk Richard Holman, the township hopes to earn the additional needed money through interest.

Several village residents in the audience raised questions about the proposed widening, including Carol Eberhardt, president of the village council.

Eberhardt asked if landscaping requirements would be made of business owners along M-15.

She requested that a right-turn-only lane be installed at Paramus, and that the board adopt a resolution preventing the "creeping" of the commercial district north of Paramus.

Stuart said the planning commission would be involved in the aesthetics of the project, but said he was unsure if they had any real authority in such a situation.

"I don't think you should be misled that that will occur," he said.

Township resident David Taylor asked if the proposed drainage improvements would mean more water crossing M-15, posing a threat to children in the area.

"It's a large-section, open drain designed to take care of the flow," Biehl answered. "I think the right-of-way is fenced."

Work on the drainage system will be done concurrently with the M-15 widening, according to Supervisor Frank Ronk.

ARBOR DAY CELEBRATION: "Why plant trees?" asks Lisa Ferris of Bordine's Better Blooms of Clarkston. And the third-graders at Andersonville Elementary provide the answers: "apples, animal houses, shade, cherries, paper, wood, building houses, maple syrup, decorating yards, barrels, Christmas trees, birds." Then they all go outside and plant a flowering crabapple tree in front of their school with the help of Bordine's landscape manager Mike McMeans and landscape employee Todd Dawson. After filling in the soil around the tree, each child receives a spruce tree seedling to plant at home. The tree and seedlings were provided free by Bordine's in celebration of Arbor Day, April 18. Similar ceremonies were conducted at Davisburg Elementary and the Springfield Christian Academy. Arbor means tree, and the tradition of planting trees the third Thursday in April began over 100 years ago in Nebraska, says Ferris. [Photos by Kathy Greenfield]

New fire equipment

Three new sets of anti-shock trousers and air management systems, totaling over $3,800 in cost, are planned for township rescue trucks.

Bids for the equipment were approved by the Independence Township Board April 16 after Fire chief Dale Bailey, who had just received official appointment to his new position, requested permission to make the purchases.

The anti-shock trousers, which usually cost about $800 a pair, are now on sale for $470, Bailey said. When inflated, the trousers help circulate blood from the legs to the heart.

The airway management systems cost approximately $800 each, and will be used to feed increased oxygen to heart patients and others with difficulty breathing.

The motion was unanimously approved.

Bowling center fire

An electrical fire at Howes Lanes, 6697 Dixie, Independence Township, caused approximately $5,000 in damages, according to Independence Township Fire Chief Dale Bailey.

The Saturday evening fire, which forced the evacuation of the bowling alley, started near a switch box, Bailey said.

There were no injuries.

Team scores permission to use park

A junior high girls' softball team will be allowed to use the facilities at Sashabaw Plains Park this summer.

On April 16, board members approved, 5-2, a request for the field by Independence Township Parks and Recreation Director Timothy Doyle.

Sashabaw Junior High wanted to play nine afternoon softball games at the site, he said.

The township board's decision was reached after some debate.

The park was designed for family use only, and organized team sports have no place at Sashabaw Plains Park, said to Trustee Dale Stuart.

"I think we're making a great mistake," he said, adding that it did not follow the concept of "neighborhood use."

Other board members, however, appeared sympathetic to the school's desires, saying that there were not sufficient fields at the school available for the team's use.

A motion to allow the school's softball team to use the park for one year was passed, with trustees Daniel Travis and Stuart dissenting.

The team's effect on family usage of the park will be monitored by township officials.

Stricter graduation requirements proposed

By Kathy Greenfield

Stiffer promotion requirements including passage of competency tests for graduation are in the future for Clarkston school district pupils if the proposed K-12 Promotion Policy is approved.

Such a policy presently exists in only one other public school district in Oakland County, according to Duane Lewis, chairman of the 16-member task force of district educators who prepared the proposal.

"I really think Clarkston wants to be on the cutting edge of education," said Lewis. "We want our district to be viewed as one that students come out of with a quality education and quality standards for the diploma."

The first draft of the policy was presented Monday night at a special meeting of the board of education.

Following meetings with the administration and instructional staff, a public hearing on the 12-page policy is planned Monday, May 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the Clarkston High School Little Theatre.

Copies of the policy are available in each school building and at the learning center, special services building and board office.

Members of the district are urged to attend the public hearing or write letters.

"We really would like to get that input," said Lewis. "We don't want the clamoring afterward."

The policy was written "to come up with a uniform procedure throughout the district...for making decisions about promotion," "to deal with students getting out without having certain basic skills" and to "increase the value of a diploma," he said.

According to Lewis, there are few differences between the proposed K-6 promotion policy and the practices which already exist.

The written policy bases promotion on academic growth and achievement, age, self-concept, physical size, attendance, work habits, social and emotional maturity, and needs and attitudes.

The academic progress of first- through third-graders would be evaluated with a standardized test or one developed by the school district for each grade level.

In addition, fourth-graders who did not achieve a score above the 75th percentile in reading and/or math in the Michigan Assessment Educational Program (MEAP) test, would receive remedial help.

Although passage of the test by the end of sixth grade would not be reason alone for retention, the goal would be to have each pupil pass the test.

The MEAP test now given to fourth-, seventh- and 10th-graders throughout the district would continue to become more significant.

The test is required by the State Department of Education, and is designed to test basic knowledge.

Students who failed to pass the test in seventh-grade would be required to do so by the end of ninth grade in order to be promoted.

And those who failed to pass the 10th-grade test by 12th-grade would not graduate.

During this school year, the policy would have affected 38 fourth-graders in reading and 59 in math; 44 seventh-graders in reading and 111 in math; and 55 10th-graders in reading and 139 in math.

The policy includes some exceptions for special education students and a waiver procedure. Pupils who did not pass the test the first time would be given the same test once each semester following remedial work.

Lewis said the remedial help would require hiring more teachers who are specialists in math and reading. The district also expects scores to improve when pupils realize they must pass the tests.

Other changes include more stringent credit requirements for junior high school pupils, with nine credits required for promotion from ninth grade instead of the present eight. Five of those credits would have to be in academic subjects.

The existing diploma system would also be different. Now, the same diplomas are presented to graduates from general education, special education, alternative high school and adult education.

The policy proposes creating separate diplomas for special education, alternative education and adult education, plus a certificate of credit completion for special education students unable to pass the MEAP test.

Currently, alternative high school and adult education credits require 60 hours of classroom instruction, 30 less than the requirement for general education credit. If the programs increased the hours to 90, the diplomas would become the same as for general education.

The task force plans to present the policy in its final form at the June board of education meeting, with acceptance by September.

The procedures would then begin in pilot form during the 1985-86 school year, with all policies in full force during the 1988-89 school year.

Letters to editor

Comments were 'thoughtless'

I was very disappointed in KLG's editorial in the Wednesday, April 17, edition of The Clarkston News. One wonders if KLG would write "everything works out for the best" regarding Ku Klux Klan activities.

It seems to me anonymous letters to a prospective new member to a community are not very much different than anonymous (hooded) riders showing a minority person he is not welcome.

I take exception to KLG's statement "Carver reacted in a way that reflects more about him than about our community" regarding his son.

I believe any parent would react in exactly the same way. I know if I were moving into a new community and received anonymous letters saying I wasn't wanted, my first thoughts would be for my children's welfare.

Whereas an adult is generally equipped to deal with a small amount of harassment, it can be a devastating thing to a child.

I am very sorry Mr. Carver and his family will be unable to enjoy our (mostly) friendly community. It is a great place to raise children.

But, I'm sure we would never be able to convince Mr. Carver of that because of the actions of a few inconsiderate citizens and the thoughtless comments of the editor of our community paper.

Planting thanks

I would just like to say "thank you" to those responsible for planting the tulips, daffodils, hyacinths, etc., in the planters in downtown Clarkston.

We've been on vacation and as I went through town the other day, I noticed the flowers coming up and it made me proud of Clarkston and of those unselfish individuals involved in the project.

Last November's "Michigander" — official publication of Michigan Jaycees — carried some good advice on using stories. Perhaps you might be interested in the advice it gave...

1. Do not tell your listener that your upcoming story is a good one. Your praise may be too lavish—let him judge the merit of your story.

2. If you have any doubts about the story being a good one—skip it.

3. The length is not important. If it is too long, just be sure it has interesting points along the way and a climax good enough to justify the length. If it's short, it must be sufficiently complete so it is understood.

4. Do not add unnecessary material.

5. The story must be closely connected with your subject or the point being made.

6. Skip off-color anecdotes and instead, gain a reputation for colorful expression of one's ideas with interesting, unusual and clean anecdotes.

7. Your story must be related to subjects which are of interest to your listeners.

8. Read widely. If well-read, you will acquire many stories which you can use profitably.

9. Make sure the listener hears the opening sentence clearly or the whole point may be lost.

10. Unless you are very good at it, never use a dialect in relating a story.

11. Unless it is a common ailment, such as nearsightedness which millions of us have and can laugh about, never make fun of persons with physical troubles in stories. However, stories which tell of achievement in the face of hardship are often encouraging and inspiring.

12. Any story takes on added interest if you can associate a well-known name with it.

13. Stories have a definite point or climax. Tell the story so it builds up interest to this point. Do not dilute its impact by trying to make secondary points.

14. If you don't know the story well, don't waste the time of your listeners. Never say, "I'm not certain just how this story goes." That's grounds for murder.

15. People like a good anecdote or story. They like to be inspired. They like to have their hearts touched. They like to be encouraged. They like to laugh. They like stories that deal with other humans, their hardships, their struggles, their sorrows, their triumphs.

A NEW TRANSFORMER "PRESOBOT"

Do they exist?

Kathy Greenfield

It was a difficult task, but success was mine! I found the last of the now famous "good old boys" of Clarkston.

My quest took me through shops and homes and gas stations and government buildings. I was ready to give up when Johnny-Boy emerged at last from his home—the large culvert under I-75, west of town.

He doesn't work. There's no time. It takes a lot out of a guy to constantly participate in vindictive chatting, plotting and mayhem planning.

For the purposes of this exclusive interview, I'll call him GOB, short for—you've got it—good old boy.

News: You've received a lot of ink lately, what with the resignation of the fire-chief-to-be before he took the job. How did you pull that one off?

GOB: Cackle, cackle, cackle. Purty good, eh? I got to admit, I done it with the help of my good buddies—the KKK.

News: Surely you don't mean the Ku Klux Klan? I thought they were motivated by racial prejudice and used such methods as cross burnings, hangings and beatings...

GOB: Where you been, girl? Thet wuz all in the past. Now they all hepped up on not wantin' no outsiders in Clarkston. They writes 'nonyous letters and makes 'nonyous phone calls. Normally don't work—but we done good this time.

News: Good? How could you call something like that good? Don't you believe in the right of people to interview for jobs and accept them if successful? Whether or not they live in a community should be irrelevant.

GOB: Ain't no reason for you to git uppity with me, gal. Ptooié. 'scuse-me, done had to get rid a some chawin' tobaccy. Nothin' personal, but ain't you got somethin' better ta do than pester?

News: Allow me one more question. Where are the rest of the good old boys? And, please, tell me who the members of the Klan are so they can get the publicity they so richly deserve...

And with that—POOF—the GOB disappeared, right before my wondering eyes.

I guess I wasn't surprised that he didn't answer my final question. I really don't believe the good old boys exist—do you?

Vandermark: 'I refuse to bless this'

As a township trustee and a citizen, I would like to express my views about the fire chief selection process and all that followed.

The township board asked the fire commission to conduct interviews and narrow the selection to four candidates. Against the board's request, they chose to recommend a single candidate.

The guidelines that were used were from the Michigan Municipal League, but they were not objective.

They chose a testing procedure that was totally subjective. Answers to questions were a matter of personal judgment. I do not think that was a reasonable approach to be used alone.

In spite of that, the township board selected an outstanding candidate, Douglas Carver from Petoskey, Mich.

—B.A. degree in political science (he majored in public administration).

—A.A. degree in fire science.

—20 years of experience in areas from public safety officer to fire chief.

—He also holds teaching credentials in Michigan and California.

No one presently in the fire department has credentials that are close to that. That is why he was appointed fire chief.

A small, narrow group of good old boys from Independence Township didn't like that. They had their own candidate. They went from inveigling the fire commission to make a single recommendation of their candidate to intimidating Mr. Carver and his family.

Ultimately, Mr. Carver resigned because of his fear that his son would be harassed in this community.

At worst this kind of thing reminds me of the Ku Klux Klan. At best it's a group of good old boys who just don't take to strangers. It smacks of cronyism.

This kind of thing does not belong in Independence Township or anywhere in America. Anyone who has participated in this or turned their back on it while it occurred is part of it.

As a trustee and a citizen, I refuse to bless this or to be part of it in any way. When we allow intimidation to succeed, it will only encourage it to happen again.

This is an example of hostile, two-bit intimidation by cowards who won't identify themselves.

I will continue as I have in the past to nominate and vote on all appointments based on education, experience and ability. This is the only fair way to do it. Employment with the township should be based on qualification and open to all citizens.

This is not a criticism of Mr. Bailey. It is a criticism of those who think the township should be closed to outsiders and run like a private club.

William Vandermark

Editorial blasted

I was very upset with your editorial in last week's paper. With regard to the "Fire Chief", how could you say that things worked out for the best?

The elected officials made an informed decision, that neither you or I were a party to, and their action was subverted by a few members of the community.

Those who wrote to Mr. Carver with letters threatening him, should feel ashamed that this is the impression of Clarkston that will be projected to others around the state. Do these individuals intend on treating all persons who are hired from out-of-town the same way?

The citizens of the community elected the Township Officials to make educated decisions for them. That is how a representative democracy works.

The Township Officials are there to make the decisions on the running of the township, and the appointment of employees as they best see fit.

The Township Board should NEVER let an appointed body recommend an appointment to a position as important to the community as the Fire Chief.

The Township Board is responsible for appointing the person they feel is the best qualified for the position. This includes the special requirements that involve how the Chief would relate to the Board.

Neither you nor I, nor the firefighters, can say who is the best person for the Chief's position with all of the issues that must be considered. If the Board is to get the blame if an employee fails, particularly a department head, then they MUST be able to appoint the person they feel is the best for the position.

I do not argue with Mr. Bailey's qualifications, and I was not surprised at all that he was one of the top candidates. I also do not argue with his years of service to the community.

This does not mean, however, that he is necessarily the best candidate. The Township Board should always consider the current employees, but a good employee does not always make a good department head.

As I said I was sorry that your editorial stated that all things "worked out for the best".

I agree with the comments of Trustee Vandermark that "the Terrorists won". That is never for the best.

'A great employer'

We, the staff of Clarkston Family and Sports Medicine, are proud to announce to the area residents that our employer, Daniel M. Bielak, D.O., has been accepted to the general practice staff at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac.

Dr. Bielak also remains active on the staff of Wheelock Memorial Hospital in Goodrich.

We have been in the Clarkston area for the past seven years as a family practice and the last three years have added to the community with our Sports Medicine Clinic.

It is our time to thank Dr. Bielak for being such a great employer and for caring so much about the area families and their athletes.

We enjoy working under Dr. Bielak's supervision and helping in caring for all of you.

With Dr. Bielak's appointment to St. Joseph, we expect to be of even better service to you.

'If it Fitz . . .'

Speaking to outrageousness

Jim Fitzgerald

I hate it when someone says something outrageous and no one says back to him or her: "Hey, him or her, that was really an outrageous thing to say." I especially hate it when the person who isn't snapped at for being outrageous is the president of the United States, or a car dealer.

In one of his weekly radio speeches, President Reagan insisted the United States should give $14 million in aid to the Nicaraguan rebels. He said:

"Fourteen million means very little to us, but it's a whole world to them."

And the president went right on talking, just as though he hadn't said anything outrageous, and nobody snapped at him for it. Media accounts of the president's speech used the $14 million quote without questioning it even slightly. I'm not implying that reporters should have editorialized in their news stories and said President Reagan had said something outrageous. But perhaps they could have balanced their reports by quoting someone besides Reagan on whether or not "$14 million means very little to us."

BY "US," Reagan meant U.S. taxpayers. The $14 million can come from no other source. I wish the Associated Press had asked my wife if $14 million really meant very little to her. She pays the bills at our house, and just the other evening I overheard her muttering that $20, if she only had it, would mean the check she'd just written wouldn't bounce through the bank ceiling.

I suppose 14 million American dollars might mean the world to the Nicaraguan rebels, or at least it might buy enough guns to kill the people messing up their world on one particular Monday afternoon. But $14 million should mean much more than very little to most of "us" U.S. citizens who are already in debt up to our great-grandchildren's eyebrows, and it was outrageous of President Reagan to say otherwise. Someone should tell him that.

Someone should also yell "outrageous!" at the Plymouth dealer who recently denied Detroit City Council charges that he'd sold shabby cars to the Police Department. "They (the cops) sent numerous cars back because they weren't satisfied with the paint job, which was no fault of ours. It was a factory problem," the dealer said.

A factory problem? The cars weren't bought from a factory, they were bought from the dealer. It was the dealer's responsibility to make sure they were in proper shape before delivery was made. Was the city supposed to complain to some far-off nebulous factory, or perhaps interrupt a Lee Iacocca commercial to call him outrageous?

A GM DEALER gave me the same sort of outrageous nonsense last year. I complained about stupid service received in his service garage and he sympathized with me, saying I should blame "the factory." If I buy a bag of rotten potatoes in a Detroit supermarket, I'm not going to complain to some farmer in Iowa.

I know a man who bought a Chevrolet and, a few days later, was billed $480 for a GM Protection Plan he never ordered. Someone in the dealership forged his signature to the warranty agreement. A blind person could spot the forgery, but the dealership rejected the blame. It was probably the factory's fault.

I hate it when no one snaps at some president or car dealer for saying something outrageous. But it doesn't surprise me. It is hard to outrage people to whom $14 million means very little. Nicaraguans rebel. Americans roll over and pay the bill.

Insurance firm change nixed, 4-3

The township will be insured by Huttenlocher Kerns, Norvell Inc. for at least one more year.

Independence Township Clerk Richard Holman proposed changing to Michigan Municipal Risk Management Insurance (MMRMA) at the April 16 meeting.

In a 4-3 vote, board members defeated a motion to authorize the change.

According to Holman, the MMRMA insurance could possibly be obtained for nearly $7,000 less than the current policy with Huttenlocher's.

"This proposal is cost-competitive," Holman said.

The annual cost of joining MMRMA, a form of "pool" insurance, would be $37,426.

Pool insurance is a type of insurance in which several municipalities pool their money for insurance purposes, according to Holman.

The pool is then re-insured for major claims by Lloyd's of London.

The pool is overseen by a risk manager and insurance advisers.

Huttenlocher's, a more traditional form of insurance, has not finalized costs for the township, according to Holman.

The Huttenlocher policy cost approximately $37,500 during the fiscal year of 1984-85.

Holman was told by a representative of Huttenlocher's that the township's insurance policies could increase by 10 percent to 20 percent, he said.

Holman said he expects the exact sum from Huttenlocher's within the next two weeks.

The insurance coverage includes specific items such as township car insurance, buildings and building contents, and furniture, Holman said.

It also provides an "umbrella" general liability should a large claim be brought against the township.

The question of whether or not to go with MMRMA will be reviewed again in one year.

Saying they wanted a year to investigate pool insurance, four board members voted against joining MMRMA this year. They were Supervisor Frank Ronk, trustees Daniel Travis and Carol Balzarini, and Holman.

Trustees Dale Stuart and William Vandermark, and Treasurer John Lutz voted for approval.

Residents back restaurant in license bid

By Carolyn Walker

Neighboring residents spoke in support of LaPiazza owner Allie Assad before the Independence Township Board agreed to approve his bid for a Class C liquor license.

Board members voted 6-1 to approve upgrading the license from Tavern to Class C at their April 16 meeting.

Assad was awarded a Tavern license, which allows for serving wine and beer, in April 1983.

He has been attempting to acquire a Class C license for a year.

Before approving the license, board members asked Assad to guarantee in writing that he would not put a "sit-down-bar" in his establishment, which currently houses a family restaurant and bakery.

Assad agreed, saying that he had no intention of adding a bar because his septic tank and parking provisions could not accommodate such an expansion.

"I do not want to expand any larger than we are," he told the board.

LaPiazza currently seats 50 patrons.

Trustee Dale Stuart supported Assad's bid, saying that the board should not restrict him from future expansion.

Assad's restaurant, which is located on Clarkston Road near Eston, in Independence Township, has previously been a source of contention with its neighbors.

Area citizens have appeared before the board in former years with concerns that liquor sales would lead to increased traffic problems.

One resident at the meeting, Pat Kusion, opposed the Class C license; but she stood alone as four other residents spoke in favor of Assad.

Beverly Anderson appeared to speak for the majority as she told board members that Assad had offered neighbors water and "a place to go" during the New Year's Day ice storm.

Three neighbors voiced agreement with her remarks.

In addition, Clerk Richard Holman received a letter of support from Det. Sgt. James Fisk of the Oakland County Sheriff's Liquor Enforcement Department.

In his letter, Fisk said, "During routine liquor inspections the establishment has always appeared clean and neat, and complies with all rules and regulations of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission."

The board approved the change in the license's status 6-1, with Trustee Carol Balzarini voting "no" without comment.

The approval is contingent upon a letter from Assad guaranteeing that he will not install a bar.

The Class C liquor license will have no effect on the status of Independence Township's only remaining Class C license, because it is the upgrading of the previously approved Tavern license, according to Supervisor Frank Ronk.

The girls' team is undefeated in dual meets with big victories over Waterford Mott and Rochester Adams. The boys' team is also 2-0 in meets with wins over Mott and Adams.

Softball

Clarkston High School Varsity Wolves 12,9, Lakeland 1,5

April 18—The Wolves push their record to 4-0 with the pair of victories over Lakeland. First-game winning pitcher Terri Sherman hits a home run and drives in three runs. Ellen Fleming collects four hits and Laura Hurren has four RBI's. Jody Law picks up the win in the second game with Jill Griffis driving in three runs and Sherman getting four hits. Tammy Pitman and Sue Stefanski each double in the game.

Wolves 7,6, Milford 3,3

April 16—It's another double-header sweep for the Wolves. Law is the winning pitcher in the first game and Hurren records the victory in the second. Kelly Cruz is the hitting star of the first game with two hits, and Fleming has a double. In the second game, Stefanski starts a double play in the sixth inning to kill a rally Milford has started.

THIS WEEK: Lapeer East at Clarkston, April 26, 4 p.m. NEXT WEEK: Clarkston at Lake Orion, April 29, 4 p.m.; Waterford Kettering at Clarkston, May 1, 4 p.m.; Brandon at Clarkston, May 1, 6:30 p.m.

Clarkston High School Junior Varsity Wolves 20,12, Lakeland 7,6

April 18—The Wolves stay undefeated at 3-0 with the pair of wins. Beth Tilley has four hits and four RBI's and Jessica Shoup has three hits in the first game. The second game features three doubles and three RBI's by Kelli Laidig and two hits by Laurie Brandt.

Wolves 15, Milford 14

April 16—Three runs in the bottom of the sixth inning and the Wolves win their first game of the season. Cindy Hewitt with four hits and five RBI's and Maggie Gdula with three hits pace the offense.

THIS WEEK: Clarkston at Lapeer East, April 26, 4 p.m.; Clarkston Junior Varsity Invitational Tournament at Clintonwood Park, April 27, 9 a.m. NEXT WEEK: Lake Orion at Clarkston, April 29, 4 p.m.; Clarkston at Waterford Kettering, May 1, 4 p.m.

Sashabaw Junior High Cougars

April 18—The Cougars lose their opening game despite 21 walks. Stacey Shurtz collects two of the Cougars' four hits. She also has three RBI's in the game.

THIS WEEK: Sashabaw at Lapeer West, April 26, 4 p.m. NEXT WEEK: Lapeer East at Sashabaw, April 29, 4 p.m.; Sashabaw at Lake Orion, April 30, 4 p.m.

Soccer

Clarkston High School Soccer Wolves 1, Oxford 0

April 19—The Wolves record their first girls' soccer victory ever with the win over Oxford. Ruth Webb scores the lone goal on a pass from Lisa Spina midway through the first half. The Wolves are 1-1 for the season.

Milford 1, Wolves 0

April 16—The season-opening game for the Wolves ends in defeat despite a strong defensive game.

THIS WEEK: Clarkston at Lakeland, April 25, TBA. NEXT WEEK: Clarkston at Rochester, April 29, 7 p.m.

Baseball

Clarkston High School Varsity Wolves 4,6, Holly 2,7

April 20—The Wolves split the double-header at home. They collect only five hits in the opener, one each by Randy Bailey, Rob Newblatt, Todd Olsen, Mike Walters and Scott Giroux. Olsen picks up the victory on the mound. Holly wins the second game with two unearned runs in the sixth inning. For the Wolves, Mike Galley hits a two-run homer and Tom Ruelle has three doubles. Their record is 3-1.

Wolves 13, Lakeland 7

April 18—The Wolves bang out 21 hits including three by Scott Carter, Olsen and Galley; and two from Dean O'Neil, Bailey and Tom Ruelle.

Wolves 8, Milford 7

April 16—O'Neil, Bailey, and Jim Ruelle each collect two hits and Ed Adkins wins the game from the mound.

THIS WEEK: Clarkston at Lapeer East, April 26, 4 p.m. NEXT WEEK: Clarkston at Lake Orion, April 29, 4 p.m.; Waterford Kettering at Clarkston, May 1, 4 p.m.

Clarkston High School Junior Varsity Wolves 12,22, Holly 1,4

April 20—The Wolves have no trouble sweeping a double-header in Holly. In the opener, Allen Logan tosses a 1-hitter for the win while Scott Harvey provides the offense with a grand slam home run in the third inning. Keith Mercier, Joe Hamelin and Craig Chamberlain each collect two hits. The second game features four hits by Jeff Billig and Sean McCracken and three hits from John Miller. The pair of victories boost the Wolves' record to 5-0.

Wolves 11, Rochester Adams 10

April 19—Jeff Billig picks up the win in the high-scoring game with Gary Ritch rapping out three hits and Brian Galley collecting two hits.

Wolves 6, Lakeland 1

April 18—Scott Hardy wins the game with a 1-hit performance, and Logan has two hits in the victory.

Wolves 17, Milford 3

April 16—Another solid pitching performance helps the Wolves win. Logan gives up only two hits while Mercier has five hits of his own and Hamelin knocks in a three-run homer.

THIS WEEK: Lapeer East at Clarkston, April 26, 4 p.m. NEXT WEEK: Lake Orion at Clarkston, April 29, 4 p.m.; Clarkston at Waterford Kettering, May 1, 4 p.m.

Clarkston Junior High Wolverines Wolverines 12,5, Howell 5,5

April 18—The Wolverines win the first game of the double-header but the second one is stopped because of darkness. The opener features a homer by Fred Mersina and triples by Matt DeBoer and Stacey Turner. In the second game, Turner has two hits and Jeff Tungate posts a double and three RBI's. Their record is 2-0-1.

Kickers improve with victory

By Dan Vandenhemel

With first-game jitters behind them, the Clarkston girls' soccer team notched a victory in the second game of the season.

Ruth Webb's goal midway through the first half, with Lisa Spina and Sandy Lovelady each getting an assist, gave Clarkston the victory over Oxford on April 19.

This is the first season for a girls' soccer team and coach Hana Olsen likes the progress the team is making. They lost their opening game to Milford, 1-0.

"We should be 2-0 but I'm happy with 1-1," she said. "They're really doing well for never playing before."

Part of the credit for the victory went to goaltender Joanne Beck.

"She played an outstanding game. Anytime you record a shutout, you've played very well," she said.

After just two games, Olsen is looking ahead to future years of the program.

"Most of the girls are 10th-graders," she said. "That's really going to help down the road."

"We're practicing every day. It's a little hectic right now because of vacations. Not everybody's here, but we're doing well."

At times in the first half of the game, the Wolves looked a little sloppy because of inexperience, Olsen said.

"They're really doing well for never playing before."

—Hana Olsen

The first girls' soccer game at Clarkston High School comes out in the Wolves' favor with help from Sue Lovelady. She tallies an assist with the lone goal scored by Ruth Webb.

"We settled down in the second half and played better," she said. "We kept up our pace; we didn't stop. On our team, we have to settle down. They always want to shoot the ball right away."

After a pair of 1-0 games, Olsen expects low scores to be normal during the initial season.

Clarkston and the rest of the teams in the North Oakland Soccer Association are in their first or second year of a girls' soccer program. Milford, Lakeland, Lake Orion, Oxford and Clarkston make up the league.

"It's a very balanced league," the coach said. "Most of our games should be close, except maybe Rochester. I'm hoping to win 3-0 or 4-0 there."

The extra incentive for Olsen in the game on April 29 against Rochester is their coach. Brian Tinnon, the ex-player-coach for the Detroit Express, is handling the first-year program there.

"He's a good friend of mine, and he told me to scrap everything he taught me and go back to the basics," she said. "I'm looking forward to that game."

Wolves pull upset at net

By Dan Vandenhemel

The Clarkston High School Tennis team pulled off an upset by beating Lake Orion, 5-2.

The Dragons were predicted to control the Greater Oakland Activities League with the Wolves finishing second, but Clarkston didn't like the idea of looking up at Lake Orion and took care of them April 22.

All four singles players won for the Wolves. Bob Adams at No. 1 singles won with scores of 7-5 and 7-6. At No. 2, John Reading won, 3-6, 7-6 and 6-1. His younger brother Grant Reading, playing in the third position, won 6-3 and 7-6. Ron Hammond won in the fourth spot, 7-5 and 6-4. The No. 2 doubles team of Neil McGinn and Matt Hargett won their match, 6-1,

"Last year we lost those matches," Wolves' coach Dick Swartout said of the narrow margins of victory. "A year's experience really helps. Most of the players were behind, too."

The victory puts the Wolves on top of the GOAL with a 2-0 record and 3-0 overall. They beat Waterford Kettering, 5-2, on April 19 and Milford, 4-3, on April 16.

The boys' tennis team has 17 members, more than Swartout has ever carried before.

"We've got a lot of sophomores and juniors on the team," he said. "This is the only way they'll get experience even though most of their matches are exhibition."

Dan Martin keeps his eye on his return during this doubles match he and partner Steve Wiedemann win against Waterford Kettering.

Pulling through adventurous fund raiser

Dave Ragatz finds it's not easy to move a donkey if the animal doesn't want to move. The Clarkston High School gym stood the test of hooves and other things to raise money.

By Dan Vandenhemel

By definition, basketball and riding a donkey at the same time don't go together.

Teachers and students of Clarkston High School mounted up April 17 for a game of donkey basketball to raise money for the junior class.

They brought in $370 in the game won by the students, 22-8, in front of a sparse crowd.

The animals were supplied by Donkey Basketball Inc. a company in Ohio. The company and the junior class each got a percentage of the income.

"It was a lot of fun. I think we put on a good show for the crowd," said Jane Miller, one of the teachers who participated in the game.

Between dragging the donkeys across the gym floor after the basketball and trying to get used to the animal, the players were worried about being bucked off.

"I had a couple of nasty falls," said senior Lincoln Baylis. "I've still got a couple of scrapes, but it was fun."

Timely hits; costly error

By Dan Vandenhemel

A perfect baseball season slipped through the hands of the Clarkston Wolves with an error.

Two unearned runs in the top of the sixth inning helped Holly beat the varsity Wolves, 7-6, in the second game of a double-header April 20.

The first game ended with the Wolves holding on to a 4-2 lead. The Wolves only had five hits in that contest, but bunched them together for the win.

The error in the first game is the only bleak spot in the Wolves' season so far. They are standing with a 3-1 record and some impressive numbers on offense.

As a team they're hitting .393. Dean O'Neil is at the top with a .545 average. He's followed by Mike Walters at .500, Randy Bailey at .462 and Rob Newblatt at .417.

"The whole day was close," Wolves' coach Roy Warner said of the games with Holly. "We had a couple of opportunities to score, including a squeeze bunt that went foul, but just couldn't do it."

The better offensive output in the second game included a two-run homer by Mike Galley and three doubles by Tom Ruelle, along with two hits from O'Neil, Newblatt and Walters. Only singles by Bailey, Newblatt, Olsen and Walters and a double by Giroux put the Wolves on the base paths in the first game.

"We're playing pretty fair right now," Warner said. "We were coming of the Lakeland game where we had 21 hits and only got five against Holly. We'll be OK if we get a little more steady performance from our pitching, though."

Cancer Myth #5

"Surgery causes cancer to spread."

No one wants to undergo surgery. But some people may avoid needed cancer surgery because they believe the cancer will spread during the operation. That's a myth. It's not true. Surgery does not cause cancer to spread. Doctors are learning more each day about effective treatments for cancer. If you want the facts on cancer treatment, call the Cancer Information Service.

Push for PLUS volunteers more than political campaign

By Carolyn Walker

A love of children and a zeal for politics could be a winning combination for Paul Frick and PLUS.

PLUS (People Listening, Understanding and Sharing) is a subcommittee of Clarkston Area Youth Assistance geared at helping lonely, needy or neglected children, according to Frick.

But, it's in need of volunteer adults, he says.

Frick, 23, is a constituent service representative for United States Congressman Bob Carr.

He believes he can put his political experience to work generating help for the organization.

According to Frick, one objective in politics is keeping the politician's name before the public.

"The same can be true of PLUS," Frick says, adding that the organization is little known or understood. "The campaign will never end."

Beginning next month, the organization plans to use posters, brochures, signs and speakers to generate help for PLUS.

Their goal is to have more than enough volunteers to match with children currently on the waiting list so new referrals of children can be sought.

The waiting list of youths needing an adult partner is now two years long, Frick says, adding that it is more difficult to find volunteers for boys than girls. The children are referred through the courts, schools and from parents.

Before coming to PLUS in January, Frick worked with the Big Brother organization while a student of philosophy at Albion College.

He enjoyed the experience and wanted to continue to serve the community in a similar capacity after his graduation.

"It's supposed to be a friendship," he says of the PLUS relationship between child and adult. "I think most anybody can benefit from it, if they're willing."

"It's a give and take kind of thing."

People who wish to volunteer their time must be at least 18 years old. They are screened and interviewed by the PLUS committee and asked to make a one-year commitment.

Frick, who is currently matched with a 16-year-old, says volunteers are asked to provide "normal, everyday" activities such as, shopping, dining out and watching television.

Volunteers are needed to "stress the positive" and offer the youngsters experiences they might not normally have.

"It's a good challenge," he says.

Paul Frick says everyone has something to offer a needy child.

Letter addresses regulations

A stand against increased authority by the Mobile Home Commission has been taken by the Independence Township Board.

A letter endorsing a House of Representatives bill concerning mobile home regulations has been sent to Gov. James Blanchard, the Michigan Township Association and others, according to Clerk Richard Holman.

The letter was authorized by the Independence Township Board at its April 16 meeting.

The bill, if passed, would prohibit the Mobile Home Commission from regulating mobile homes built outside of mobile home parks.

Currently, the commission regulates mobile homes built in parks, and is trying to extend its authority to those outside of parks, according to Holman.

"There is a continuing battle between...municipalities and the commission (to regulate mobile homes not in parks)," Holman said.

Officials contend the township should be able to regulate the conditions surrounding the building and locating of mobile homes outside of parks in Independence without interference from the commission.

"We think if you want to build a mobile home, you should have to stick to the rules of the township," Holman said.

Holman added that the bill has not yet been passed in the House of Representatives.

Counter top bids

Bids for the new township counter tops will be awarded "in house."

Board members had previously decided to award the bid to Clarkston Remodeling Inc. for $7,985, unless two township department directors could present a lower bid.

They changed their minds when Building Department Supervisor Kenneth Delbridge and Department of Public Works Supervisor George Anderson agreed to do the work for $7,485.

New counter tops and cabinets are scheduled to be built in township hall for the clerk and treasurer's offices.

A new receptionist's desk is also planned as well as new counters for the basement.

At their April 16 meeting, board members unanimously agreed to offer the job to Delbridge and Anderson.

Cougar commentsPluses and minuses*Monica Miles

Most students like school. Or do they? I asked some of my friends what they liked best about school, and what they liked least. Here are their answers.

Ninth-grader Annmarie Mudge said, "I like being able to talk to everybody. I don't like it when a teacher gives you several assignments that are due the next day."

Julie Newton, an eighth-grader, said she liked "the G.A.T.E. program, and the people." She went on to say, "I don't like the school lunches, and not being allowed to wear jackets even though the heaters don't work properly."

"I like the boys, and study hall. I don't like the school lunches, the morning bus ride or the heating systems in the classes," said eighth-grader Andrea Bookie.

Another ninth-grader, Heidi Wilson, said she liked "seeing my friends" and didn't like "being in school or the work."

Tricia Stover, an eighth-grader, said "I like my friends, but I don't like some of the teachers."

What do I like about school? I like to see my friends and go to assemblies. I don't like lots of homework and dull, routine days.

Monica Miles, a ninth-grader at Sashabaw Junior High School, is working with The Clarkston News this school year as part of the mentorship program.

Board selects software firm

Software for the new Independence Township computer will be developed by and purchased from Interlochen Software Systems of Traverse City.

Board members approved a motion, April 16, authorizing Supervisor Frank Ronk to sign an agreement with the company.

The purchase of computers for township work, such as payroll and billing, was approved by the board in January.

The proposal to buy software was brought before the board by Clerk Richard Holman, who researched buying the software from Doeren-Mayhew and Co. (data processors for the township), Advantage Systems and Interlochen.

He said the three firms all charge for their work on a "per hour basis": Doeren-Mayhew at $45, Advantage at $35 and Interlochen at $34.

Holman proposed the board authorize software purchases under $1,000 by Ronk and himself without specific board approval. That motion was approved.

The software purchases will be made from $36,000 appropriated during the purchase of the computer.

The motion to purchase the equipment was passed 6-1, with Trustee Dale Stuart dissenting.

Stuart said the board was treating the issue differently from other purchases by other department heads.

"We have always bid out other major expenses," he said. "We just bought this."

THE FACT THAT MIDAS STOCKS 1025 DIFFERENT GOLD MUFFLERS IS SOMETHING THE COMPETITION WOULD LIKE TO KEEP QUIET.

Midas manufactures and stocks more different mufflers than any other muffler chain.

And when you have that many mufflers, it's no wonder our competitors would rather we keep quiet.

Because unlike Midas, they can't assure you they'll have the muffler that's made to the exact specifications of your car.

Nor can any other muffler chain back its mufflers with a guarantee that's good in as many locations as Midas.

If anything should ever go wrong with your Gold Muffler, Midas will replace it free for as long as you own your car.

At over 1400 locations. In all 50 states.

So if you want the right muffler for your car, come to Midas.

With 1025 different mufflers in stock, we should have no problem keeping your car quiet. Which is something our competition would rather not hear.

There's a good reason Matt Johnston looks the way he does. He's performing a mime skit called—what else—"Sick." Matt's one of five boys enrolled in an after-school enrichment class at Clarkston Elementary School taught by members of the Clarkston High School Mime

Troupe, who donate the proceeds to the CHS drama department fund. The boys made their debut—in white-face mime makeup—last week with a show on stage in the new multipurpose room. They invited their families and friends to view their acting expertise. Most of the boys have taken mime classes three semesters. Says instructor and CHS Mime Troupe member Danielle White: "They really enjoy it. That's why they keep signing up."

Sounds of silence

In his skit, called "The Hungry Fisher," Derek Moscovic is so hungry he dips into the bait. Says Derek about the mime class: "We have good instructors."

"Locked In," the skit performed by Nathan Smith, includes dialing a telephone. Says Nathan about miming: "It's great."

David Studt places his hands on the invisible "Wall" in his skit. "You don't talk. That's what's fun about it," says David about miming.

Heating and cooling, a high-tech field

by John Tucker

An Apple for the Teacher

Jesse Riojas is the instruction in heating, air conditioning and refrigeration at the Northwest Oakland Vocational Education Center (NWOVEC).

Jesse was born in Corpus Christi, Texas, and was raised in Mt. Clemens and Sterling Heights.

Currently, Jesse lives in Waterford with his wife, Sheryl, and their infant daughter Rachelle. The Riojas family are active members of Our Lady of the Lakes parish.

After graduating from high school, Jesse worked for a heating and air conditioning firm and also attended Macomb Community College. He received his associate's degree in climate control technology in 1974 and shortly after, his contractor's license in heating, air conditioning and refrigeration (each requires passage of a state exam).

Jesse earned his bachelor's degree at Wayne State University along with his vocational certificate and education degree. He taught full time at Henry Ford Community College while still attending Wayne State as a senior.

Professional organizations to which Jesse belongs include the American Vocational Association, Michigan Occupational Education Association, Michigan Engineers Industrial Society and the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineers.

In addition to day classes, Jesse also teaches a heating class for Clarkston Community Education on Monday evenings, a refrigeration class at Oakland Community College on Wednesday and a refrigeration class at Henry Ford on Friday evenings.

On this busy schedule, Jesse still finds time to take classes through Ferris State in pursuit of his continuing certificate in education.

As part of the heating, air conditioning and refrigeration program this year, the students have been introduced to sheet metal work.

They do a layout of the job, then make full-size patterns and finally the finished piece.

The students really seem to enjoy this as well as the study of solar energy, according to Jesse.

Coming from community college instruction, Jesse finds teaching high school students more challenging.

This field is becoming much more sophisticated and definitely falls under high technology as we search for different, better, cheaper means to heat and cool our homes.

Editor's note: An Apple for the Teacher is provided through a committee of the Clarkston Education Association.

Coming from community college instruction, Jesse Riojas finds teaching high school students more challenging.

Accident victim to warn students

A quadriplegic auto accident victim plans to lead a program to encourage safer driving among teenagers at Clarkston High School.

About 1,500 students are expected to participate in the 1985 MAIC Auto Safety Tour on May 7 at CHS.

Following a late-night drag race, Jack Burnett was paralyzed from the neck down at the age of 17. He narrates a slide film re-creation of the events which led to his accident.

Sponsored by the Michigan Association of Insurance Companies (MAIC), the program is free to local schools.

A news release from CHS describes the program by quoting Frank Vetro, communications director and staff counsel for MAIC:

"Jack's story is both sobering and inspiring. Jack is capable of silencing high school auditoriums jammed with students. He clearly articulates the consequences of his mistakes behind the wheel and encourages his audiences to avoid a similar fate."

MAIC is a Lansing-based, non-profit public affairs organization representing 51 property-casualty insurers which write more than 80 percent of auto and 70 percent of homeowners' insurance provided for Michigan residents, according to the CHS release.

College notes

Sam Nead plans to join a tour of the Pacific Northwest from April 28 to May 6 as a drummer with the vocal jazz ensemble from the school of music at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo.

The tour includes concerts in British Columbia, Oregon and Washington.

A senior percussion performance major at WMU, Nead resides in the Clarkston area.

Fastest typist

Carolina Rutkoski, an Independence Township resident, could soon find herself in the winner's circle at the Preakness in Maryland.

Having typed 88.6 words after errors in an April 17 type-off sponsored by Staff Builders and Xerox, Rutkoski was selected Michigan's Fastest Typist, according to Steve Parrow of Staff Builders.

As the winner over 70 competitors, she was awarded an all-expense-paid trip to Baltimore May 16 to compete in a national typing competition.

The winner of that competition will receive $3,000 and a Xerox 610 typewriter, Parrow said.

The awards will be presented in the winner's circle at the Preakness race track, the same day as the race but at a different time, he added.

And how does Rutkoski, an employee of Pontiac General Hospital, feel about the honor?

"I think it's terrific," she said. "I kind of tensed up. I thought I blew it."

"I'll have to go with a Tiger's cap."

In service

Pvt. George Matteson Jr. has completed a unit and origination supply specialist course at the United States Army Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Va.

He is the son of George and Margaret Matteson of Wildwood Loop, Brandon Township.

Newly promoted Spec. 4 Mark Jiminez has been decorated with the Army Achievement Medal at Fort Bragg, N.C.

The medal is awarded to soldiers for meritorious service, acts of courage or other accomplishments.

Jiminez is a food service specialist with the 82nd Airborne Division.

A 1983 graduate of Clarkston High School, he is the son of Thomas and Diana Jiminez III of Paramus Drive, Independence Township.

Navy Seaman Recruit Kurt Bottorff has completed eight weeks of recruit training at Navy Recruit Training Command, Navy Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

He is the son of Chester and Jerrold Bottorff of Paramus Drive, Independence Township.

Spec. 4 William Waggener has completed the basic biomedical equipment specialist course at Fitzsimons Army Medical Center, Aurora, Calif.

He is the son of Floyd Waggener of Ormond Road, Springfield Township, and Ann Waggener of New Hampshire.

His wife, Susan, is the daughter of David and Nancy Taube of Holly.

Golden celebration

Rosemary and William Hamilton will be guests of honor at an open house commemorating their 50th wedding anniversary April 27. Friends may join them at the party at their home from 2-5. The open house is to be given by their children Pat Miles and William Hamilton. Also planning to share in the celebration are son-in-law Bard Miles, daughter-in-law Alean Hamilton, and grandchildren Patty and Ron Miles and William Hamilton.

Honors

Marcia Veltre, an Adrian College elementary education major, was recently initiated into membership in the A.C. chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, the national honor society in education.

A 1982 graduate of Clarkston High School, she is the daughter of Renold and Thelma Veltre of Allen Road. She is a junior at Adrian.

Kappa Delta Pi is a national coeducational honor society for teacher education students who maintain high academic averages and hold promise of success in the teaching profession.

Marine Lance Cpl. Richard Cole has been promoted to his present rank while serving with 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing, Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, Calif.

He is the son of Lyle and Laura Cole of Transparent Drive, Independence Township.

Pvt. Donald Krupp III has completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

A 1984 graduate of Warren High School, he is the son of Nancy Krupp of Algonquinn Road, Independence Township, and Donald Krupp of Leonard.

Scott Duvall, Todd Martin and James Polidan have entered the United States Air Force's Delayed Entry Program.

A 1983 Clarkston High School graduate, Duvall plans to enter the air force Sept. 30. He is to receive technical training in aircraft maintenance.

Martin graduated from CHS in 1984. Following his basic training, which began April 19, he is to receive technical training in the mechanical career field.

Polidan is to graduate from CHS in June, enter the air force on Sept. 24 and pursue technical training in the mechanical career field.

All three have been assigned to Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, for six weeks of basic training following their enlistment dates.

James Gentile has received a three-year Army ROTC scholarship.

The Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, student was selected for the scholarship on the basis of comprehensive tests, high school scholastic achievement and extracurricular activities.

It covers full tuition, textbooks and laboratory fees, and pays a monthly subsistence allowance.

Upon graduation and completion of the ROTC program, Gentile is to be commissioned as a second lieutenant.

His parents are Donald and Berti Gentile of Dark Lake Drive, Independence Township.

Dear Cat Paw:

How can you tell if your joints have been dipped in anything? Such as embalming fluid? Drano?

Hilda

Dear Hilda:

Drugs are illegal. There are no legal controls on the purity or safety of street drugs. You never know exactly what you have until you use it!

It sounds to me like you are looking for a guarantee on drugs—it won't happen. The best guarantee for your safety and health is not to use drugs at all.

Dear Cat Paw:

I wonder how babies can be addicted to drugs while still in the womb?

Milce Sambourne

Dear Milce:

Everything you eat or drink gets to your fetus through the placenta, a thick wall of tissue through which the baby's nourishment comes from the mother's bloodstream.

Drugs, which are passed through the body in the bloodstream, pass quickly through to the fetus. Some drugs even "pile up" in great concentration.

When you are take any drugs, you are dosing your unborn baby as well as yourself. This tiny life may not react to chemicals as you do.

The best rule to follow is to see your doctor regularly and follow his/ her advice.

Dear Cat Paw:

I think whoever invented drugs must have been a real idiot to want to destroy so many people's lives.

Concerned Person

Dear Concerned:

I like your attitude!

Dear Cat Paw:

My father is a heavy addict to alcohol and marijuana. I'm really worried about him. I ask him to stop, but that doesn't help. He's always getting sick and I think maybe it's because of his problem. What can I do to help?

Caring Daughter

Dear Caring:

The best thing you can do for your father and yourself is to join Al-Anon. (Look in the phone book.)

Al-Anon tries to meet and alleviate the problems of people who are affected by close contact with a problem drinker.

Alcoholism or any type of drug addiction is a family illness. Attend meetings regularly! Al-Anon will teach you how to cope with and understand your situation.

Cat Paw author Jeanette Sanders, a Springfield Township resident, is a member of the Chemical People of Clarkston, an organization devoted to the prevention of drug abuse by young people.

Wherever the work is done, there's room for the Self Service Parts Washer.

The new Safety-Kleen Self Service Parts Washer works just like our world-famous circulating parts washer. But it fits anywhere. So you can take it where the work is. The solvent is pumped from the tank, through a replacement filter to the hose and then to the sink area where the parts are degreased. The solvent then drains back into the tank.

When the solvent gets dirty, simply remove the solvent tank and trade it in where you bought it, for a fresh one. It's quick, convenient and ecologically sound because the solvent never gets dumped into the environment, but instead gets recycled by Safety-Kleen.

It's a safe system too, since the cover closes automatically should a fire occur.

If you do your own repairs, you need more than a can of solvent and a brush. You need your own Safety-Kleen Self Service Parts Washer.

Awards honor volunteer service by youths

By Carolyn Walker

Several outstanding youth from Independence Township were recognized for their volunteer services to the community at an April 18 banquet.

A total of 26 students were presented Youth Community Service Awards by the Clarkston Area Youth Assistance Committee (CAYAC).

Recommendations for the awards came from community businesses, SCAMP, churches and other organizations, according to Jackie Fromm, staff secretary for CAYAC.

The awards are given annually to nominees who have given outstanding volunteer services to the community, or who have performed a heroic action.

The nominees, all junior and senior high students, were recognized for their achievements in: SCAMP, a summer camp for handicapped children; Handicapped Riders, a horseback riding program for handicapped children; and Candy Strippers, a volunteer program at a hospital.

Those awarded certificates included Michelle Baker, Debbie Bechtel, Kim Bennett, Tim Berquist, Ron Bray, Matt Call, Cara Catallo, Angela DeLeRosa, Marcus DeLisle, Michelle Green, Teresa Hofman, Jeff Hughes, Tricia Kelly, Ann Marie Mudge, Amy Newmarch, Michele Joan Oldenburg, Jill Pilarcik, Shelly Pope, Britt Ried, Michele Rosenberger, Renee Sommers, Gretchen Spiece, Lori Stenberg and Sara Stone.

In addition, Marnie Meehan was recognized for her work with the Toma Experience at Clarkston High School, and Howard Davison, was awarded for his help in aiding a stroke victim while on his paper route.

Howard Davison shakes hands with the dignitaries, including Independence Township Supervisor Frank Ronk and the Honorable Judge John O'Brien, as he accepts his award for helping a stroke victim while on his paper route.

Marnie Meehan accepts a certificate for her work with the Toma Experience.

31 SJHS pupils honored at assembly

State of Michigan Certificates of Recognition were presented to 31 Sashabaw Junior High School seventh-graders at a special school assembly April 17.

The students posted perfect scores on Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP) tests administered early this school year to all fourth-seventh and 10th-graders in Michigan.

"We were so proud of these kids," said SJHS Principal Gus Birtsas. "We thought it was really something special. It's above and beyond the honor roll."

The certificates were signed by Norman Stockmeyer, president of the State Board of Education; Phillip Runkel, state superintendent of public instruction; and Gov. James Blanchard.

This is the first year the state has issued certificates honoring pupils with perfect scores on the MEAP test.

Birtsas presented the certificates to the following students:

Alfalfa Miracle Green

Helps Detoxify Your Body
By Tanya Luchkovitz-Weeder

One of nature's basic healing methods used in the natural treatment of disease conditions is to detoxify the body gradually over a period of days, weeks, or even months, if necessary. These body toxins come not only from harmful and poisonous substances found in polluted air, chemically-treated drinking water, and chemically-grown foods, but also from the body wastes produced as a by-product of metabolism within your own body. If you acquire more toxins than the body can eliminate each day, your body becomes loaded and clogged with all sorts of harmful toxins. As more and more toxins accumulate all sorts of aches and pains plague the joints and tissues. If you take steps to eliminate the toxins and/or detoxify your body, the aches and pains gradually melt away. End result is a healthier and stronger body.

Alfalfa helps your body to sweep the poisons and toxins out of your body. This is especially important to arthritis sufferers. The way to use alfalfa is to take 6 tablets with each of 3 meals for a total of 18 daily. B12 should also be taken daily. Follow this for 3 weeks, then stop the alfalfa for a week. Repeat the whole process each month for 3-4 months.

You'll feel healthier, and more free from aches and pains.

Clarkston Elementary wins 'Battle of Books'

The Clarkston Elementary six-member team stood and waved their arms in victory.

They had just won the Battle of the Books, an annual contest between teams from the five elementary schools in the Clarkston school district.

For nearly one-and-one-half hours on April 17, the teams answered 45 questions written by the district's media specialists about books the pupils had read. The battle was held at the administration building on Clarkston Road.

Five points were given for each correct answer, with a bonus point for naming the author of the book. Serving as moderators and judges were media specialists Susan Kott, Beatrice Cohen and Michael Donovan.

The final tallies were: Clarkston Elementary, 227; Bailey Lake, 210; Pine Knob, 210; North Sashabaw, 192; and Andersonville, 167.

The fourth- and fifth-graders were selected for the teams by posting top scores on written and oral contests within their own schools.

The list of pupils who represented their schools follows:

Clarkston Elementary—Matt Babcock, Amy Desrochers, Shea Kammer, Jessica Miller, Jenna Smith and Amy Taylor.

Bailey Lake—Caroline Allison, Mary Evans, Andy Lampela, Teresa Perkins, Jeremy Thompson and Holly Zorka.

Pine Knob—Renny Abraham, Karen Dunham, Missy Fletcher, Ryan Poquette, Nick Shires and Lori Thousand.

North Sashabaw—Tonya DeGroot, James Elert, Dugan Fife, Heather Forsyth, Craig Ginter and Jacob Schell.

Andersonville—Shannon Barefoot, Stacy Carr, Alex Grob, Brad Patterson, Lisa Pelshaw and Greg Steck.

BOOK SALE PRELUDE: Wheeling a load of used books into the Clarkston Mills Mall for the annual Friends of the Independence Township Library sale are library director James Hibler and club president Chris Shull. The sale starts Thursday, April 25, and continues through Saturday. Prices are a bookworm's delight—25 cents apiece or five for $1 for paperback and hard cover editions. The proceeds are used for library projects and community parties for children. Book donations will be accepted the first two days of the sale. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday, and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday. The mall is located at 20 W. Washington in downtown Clarkston.
